Guests: Charles Seife, Assoc. VIEW POINTS: SEGMENT 1: The news is full of stories of elected and appointed government officials being caught in scandals from bribery to tax evasion to pocketing campaign money for personal use. What is it that makes some officials think they can engage in these kinds of activities? Why is it that some states have scandal after scandal, and others seem squeaky clean? RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL: SEGMENT 1: Police and prosecutors have long sought technologies to help them solve crimes and gain convictions. Use of "truth serum" is one such effort.
