

Federal Communications Commission Section 73.3527
Community Issues Programs for July 2018
Prairie Public Television – KFME, KBME, KCGE, KMDE, KDSE, KJRE, KSRE, KWSE

Section 73.3527 of the FCC's Rules require that each list contain "programs that have provided station's most significant treatment of community issues during the preceding three-month period."

The list is to include a brief narrative describing what issues were given significant treatment and the programs that provided this treatment. The description of each program is to include the time, date, duration and title.

If you would like a more detailed memo about preparation of quarterly issues/programs lists, please contact our office.

These News and Public Affairs programs can be found on YouTube at: youtube.com/user/prairiepubliccast

Friday, June 29, 2018 at 7:30 pm & Saturday, June 30, 2018 at 5:00 pm on Primary Channel PPB – 1
Prairie Pulse 1536 – [30-minute News PA program] (origin: Prairie Public - Fargo)

CEO John Harris interviews Safety Instructor and Safety expert Skyler Dutton. He talks about people being concerned about safety and what he teaches them in order to protect themselves. He also talks about seat belt use and other areas of safety. Also, a profile of the 2018 North Dakota Poetry Out Loud winner Maria Modituya.

Production funding provided by the Minnesota Arts & Cultural Heritage Fund and by the members of Prairie Public
About the Minnesota Arts and Cultural Heritage Fund

In 2008, Minnesota voters passed a landmark piece of legislation — the Minnesota Clean Water, Land, and Legacy Amendment — which provided funding to public television stations serving audiences in Minnesota. Its mission is to help preserve and document the treasures of culture, history, and heritage that make Minnesota special, and to increase access to the natural and cultural resources we all share.

Friday, July 6, 2018 at 7:30 pm on Saturday, July 7, 2018 at 5:00 pm – Primary Channel PPB – 1
Prairie Pulse 1537 [30-minute News PA program] (origin: Prairie Public - Fargo)

Matt Olien interviews Canadian born author Robert Chambers about his new book "Hidden Wounds," which explores a fictional narrative about PTSD issues with a female soldier. Also we profile Jeanne Griffin O'Neil, an East Grand Forks, Minnesota Intaglio, Relief, and Silkscreen Printmaker. Her art focuses on the sometimes barren, but beautiful landscapes around her farmstead in rural East Grand Forks.

Production funding provided by the Minnesota Arts & Cultural Heritage Fund and by the members of Prairie Public
About the Minnesota Arts and Cultural Heritage Fund

In 2008, Minnesota voters passed a landmark piece of legislation — the Minnesota Clean Water, Land, and Legacy Amendment — which provided funding to public television stations serving audiences in Minnesota. Its mission is to help preserve and document the treasures of culture, history, and heritage that make Minnesota special, and to increase access to the natural and cultural resources we all share.

Friday, July 20, 2018 at 7:30 pm & Saturday, January 21, 2018 at 5:00 pm on Primary Channel PPB –1
Prairie Pulse 1505–[30-minute News PA program] (Origin: Prairie Public - Fargo)

CEO John Harris interviews Minnesota Singer/Songwriter, and frequent music guest on Prairie Musicians, Elisa Korenne, about her new book "Hundred Miles to Nowhere: An Unlikely Love Story". Also, we'll have a music video from Elisa called "Sister Lumberjack"

Friday, July 27, 2018 at 7:30 pm & Saturday, January 28, 2018 at 5:00 pm on Primary Channel PPB –1
Prairie Pulse 1511 – [30-minute News PA program] (Origin: Prairie Public - Fargo)

Interview with retiring Executive Director of the North Dakota Council on the Arts, Beth Klingenstein. Beth talks about her years running the organization, what the Council stands for and what it provides to North Dakota. Also a tour of the amazing "Illuminating the Word: The Saint John's Bible" exhibit at the Historical and Cultural Society at Clay County. It's a painstaking project that illuminated pages of the Bible, by hand.

Production funding provided by the Minnesota Arts & Cultural Heritage Fund and by the members of Prairie Public
About the Minnesota Arts and Cultural Heritage Fund

In 2008, Minnesota voters passed a landmark piece of legislation — the Minnesota Clean Water, Land, and Legacy Amendment — which provided funding to public television stations serving audiences in Minnesota. Its mission is to help preserve and document the treasures of culture, history, and heritage that make Minnesota special, and to increase access to the natural and cultural resources we all share.

Federal Communications Commission Section 73.3527

Community Issues Programs for August 2018

Prairie Public Television – KFME, KBME, KCGE, KMDE, KDSE, KJRE, KSRE, KWSE

Section 73.3527 of the FCC's Rules require that each list contain "programs that have provided station's most significant treatment of community issues during the preceding three-month period."

The list is to include a brief narrative describing what issues were given significant treatment and the programs that provided this treatment. The description of each program is to include the time, date, duration and title. If you would like a more detailed memo about preparation of quarterly issues/programs lists, please contact our office.

These News and Public Affairs programs can be found on YouTube at: youtube.com/user/prairiepubliccast

Friday, August 3, 2018 at 7:30 & Saturday, February 4, 2018 at 5:00 pm on Primary Channel PPB –1

Prairie Pulse 1515 – [30-minute News PA program] (Origin: Prairie Public - Fargo)

An interview with Betty Gronneberg, the founder of UCodeGirl, an organization designed to get girls interested in science and science careers. Also, a music performance from "December's Children."

Production funding provided by the Minnesota Arts & Cultural Heritage Fund and by the members of Prairie Public
About the Minnesota Arts and Cultural Heritage Fund

In 2008, Minnesota voters passed a landmark piece of legislation — the Minnesota Clean Water, Land, and Legacy Amendment — which provided funding to public television stations serving audiences in Minnesota. Its mission is to help preserve and document the treasures of culture, history, and heritage that make Minnesota special, and to increase access to the natural and cultural resources we all share.

Friday, August 10, 2018 at 7:30 & Saturday, August 10, 2018 at 5:00 pm on Primary Channel PPB –1

Prairie Pulse 1516 - [30-minute News PA program] (Origin: Prairie Public - Fargo)

An interview with Dr. Jack Russell Weinstein, Chester Fritz Distinguished Professor of Philosophy for the full show about his "Why Radio Hour", his influences on his work, like Adam Smith, and how Philosophy shapes everyday life.

Production funding provided by the Minnesota Arts & Cultural Heritage Fund and by the members of Prairie Public
About the Minnesota Arts and Cultural Heritage Fund

In 2008, Minnesota voters passed a landmark piece of legislation — the Minnesota Clean Water, Land, and Legacy Amendment — which provided funding to public television stations serving audiences in Minnesota. Its mission is to help preserve and document the treasures of culture, history, and heritage that make Minnesota special, and to increase access to the natural and cultural resources we all share.

Friday, August 17, 2018 at 7:30 & Saturday, August 19, 2018 at 1:30 am on Primary Channel PPB –1

Prairie Pulse 1517 – [30-minute News PA program] (Origin: Prairie Public - Fargo)

An interview with Greg Carlson, Professor of Film Studies and Media at Concordia College in Moorhead. Greg talks about current state of media, streaming services, net neutrality, and how he approaches reviewing films for the High Plains Reader. Also, music performance from Lines and Notes.

August Pledge from August 17 through August 28, 2018

Production funding provided by the Minnesota Arts & Cultural Heritage Fund and by the members of Prairie Public
About the Minnesota Arts and Cultural Heritage Fund

In 2008, Minnesota voters passed a landmark piece of legislation — the Minnesota Clean Water, Land, and Legacy Amendment — which provided funding to public television stations serving audiences in Minnesota. Its mission is to help preserve and document the treasures of culture, history, and heritage that make Minnesota special, and to increase access to the natural and cultural resources we all share.

Friday, August 31, 2018 at 7:30 & Saturday, September 1, 2018 at 5:00 pm on Primary Channel PPB–1

Prairie Pulse 1523 – [30-minute News PA program] (Origin: Prairie Public - Fargo)

Prairie Public CEO and Host John Harris interview Sanford Hospital Interventional Cardiologist Dr. Thomas Haldis, and Sanford Neurologist Dr. Michael Manchak about preventing heart attacks and strokes, and what to do if you think you are having a heart attack, or if you think someone else is having a heart attack or stroke.

Production funding provided by the Minnesota Arts & Cultural Heritage Fund and by the members of Prairie Public
About the Minnesota Arts and Cultural Heritage Fund

In 2008, Minnesota voters passed a landmark piece of legislation — the Minnesota Clean Water, Land, and Legacy Amendment — which provided funding to public television stations serving audiences in Minnesota. Its mission is to help preserve and document the treasures of culture, history, and heritage that make Minnesota special, and to increase access to the natural and cultural resources we all share.

Federal Communications Commission Section 73.3527
Community Issues Programs for September 2018 –
Prairie Public Television – KFME, KBME, KCGE, KMDE, KDSE, KJRE, KSRE, KWSE

Section 73.3527 of the FCC's Rules require that each list contain "programs that have provided station's most significant treatment of community issues during the preceding three-month period."

The list is to include a brief narrative describing what issues were given significant treatment and the programs that provided this treatment. The description of each program is to include the time, date, duration and title.

These News and Public Affairs programs can be found on YouTube at:
youtube.com/user/prairiepublicbcast

Friday, August 31, 2018 at 7:30 & Saturday, September 1, 2018 on Primary Channel PPB-1

Prairie Pulse 1320 – [30-minute News PA program] (Origin: Prairie Public - Fargo)

Prairie Public CEO and Host John Harris interview Sanford Hospital Interventional Cardiologist Dr. Thomas Haldis, and Sanford Neurologist Dr. Michael Manchak about preventing heart attacks and strokes, and what to do if you think you are having a heart attack, or if you think someone else is having a heart attack or stroke.

Production funding provided by the Minnesota Arts & Cultural Heritage Fund and by the members of Prairie Public

About the Minnesota Arts and Cultural Heritage Fund

In 2008, Minnesota voters passed a landmark piece of legislation — the Minnesota Clean Water, Land, and Legacy Amendment — which provided funding to public television stations serving audiences in Minnesota. Its mission is to help preserve and document the treasures of culture, history, and heritage that make Minnesota special, and to increase access to the natural and cultural resources we all share.

Program Note:

Prairie Public September Pledge – Saturday, September 15 & Sunday, September 16, 2018
September Pledge – Saturday, September 22 & Sunday, September 23, 2018

Friday, September 7, 2018 at 7:30 & Saturday, September 8, 2018 at 5:00 pm on Primary Channel PPB-1

Prairie Pulse 1524 – [30-minute News PA program] (Origin: Prairie Public - Fargo)

An interview with University of North Dakota History Professor William Caraher, and UND Social Work Professor Bret Weber about their book "The Bakken: An Archaeology of an Industrial Landscape" about their research into man camps and other activities during the North Dakota oil boom.

Production funding provided by the Minnesota Arts & Cultural Heritage Fund and by the members of Prairie Public

About the Minnesota Arts and Cultural Heritage Fund

In 2008, Minnesota voters passed a landmark piece of legislation — the Minnesota Clean Water, Land, and Legacy Amendment — which provided funding to public television stations serving audiences in Minnesota. Its mission is to help preserve and document the treasures of culture, history, and heritage that make Minnesota special, and to increase access to the natural and cultural resources we all share.

Friday, September 14, 2018 at 7:30 & Saturday, September 15, 2018 at 1:30 am on Primary Channel PPB-1

Prairie Pulse 1535

CEO John Harris interviews the new Executive Director of the North Dakota Council on the Arts, Kim Konikow. She talks about her past experience in positions in Utah, and her plans for the Council. Also, a story on Otter Tail's County 150th birthday celebration this year.

Production funding provided by the Minnesota Arts & Cultural Heritage Fund and by the members of Prairie Public

About the Minnesota Arts and Cultural Heritage Fund

In 2008, Minnesota voters passed a landmark piece of legislation — the Minnesota Clean Water, Land, and Legacy Amendment — which provided funding to public television stations serving audiences in Minnesota. Its mission is to help preserve and document the treasures of culture, history, and heritage that make Minnesota special, and to increase access to the natural and cultural resources we all share.

Friday, September 21, 2018 at 7:30 & Saturday, September 22, 2018 at 5:00 pm on Primary Channel PPB-1

Prairie Pulse 1536

CEO John Harris interviews Safety Instructor and Safety expert Skyler Dutton. He talks about people being concerned about safety and what he teaches them in order to protect themselves. He also talks about seat belt use and other areas of safety. Also, a profile of the 2018 North Dakota Poetry Out Loud winner Maria Modi-Tuya.

Friday, September 28, 2018 at 7:30 & Saturday, September 29, 2018 at 5:00 pm on Primary Channel PPB-1
*Prairie Pulse 1601

Doug Hamilton interviews famed, or infamous, con man Frank Abagnale Jr., whose story was told in the 2002 Steven Spielberg film "Catch Me If You Can". Abagnale talks about his youthful indiscretions of impersonating doctors, airline pilots, etc. which eventually landed him in prison. He also talks about his advising he has since done for the FBI, security and fraud issues, and what his message is to seniors while speaking at a Fargo gathering of AARP.

Production funding provided by the Minnesota Arts & Cultural Heritage Fund and by the members of Prairie Public
About the Minnesota Arts and Cultural Heritage Fund

In 2008, Minnesota voters passed a landmark piece of legislation — the Minnesota Clean Water, Land, and Legacy Amendment — which provided funding to public television stations serving audiences in Minnesota. Its mission is to help preserve and document the treasures of culture, history, and heritage that make Minnesota special, and to increase access to the natural and cultural resources we all share.