

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS LIST
2nd QUARTER 2014

Station WGAU, 1340 AM, Athens, Georgia, determined the following issues were of significant concern to the local community and were dealt with according to the attached schedule during the second quarter of 2014.

1. Community/Charity Events/Organizations
2. Education
3. Health
4. Economy/Economic Development
5. Environment
6. Public Safety/Crime
7. Political

Prepared by:

---

Mel Stovall
Compliance Director
Cox Media Group, Athens, Ga.
WGAU-AM

COMMUNITY-CHARITY EVENTS-ORGANIZATIONS-

NAME OF PROGRAM	DATE	TIME	DURATION	SOURCE
Newsmakers Today	4/3/14	9:10 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
A need for public awareness of importance of a local community program. Mike Griffin represents the Georgia Right To Life. He talked about the work within the community of this organization and explained it relationship to the National Right To Life.
Newsmakers Today	4/4/14	9:10 a.m.	6-minutes	Local
A need to create public awareness for a local event. Abby Leonard talked about details of organizing for the community Relay For Life. Plans include moving the event to the Ramsey Center at the University of Georgia.
Georgia Focus	4/6/14	5:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
A need for public recognition and appreciation for an element of our local history. This year marks the 150 th anniversary of most civil war activities in Georgia. On this program of Georgia Focus historian Gordon Jones from Atlanta History Center discussed the Atlanta Campaign. Steve Hadley from Georgia Parks the Battle of Pickett's Mill in a segment recorded on the battlefield near Dallas, Georgia.
Newsmakers Today	4/7/14	9:25 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
A need to create public awareness of development of a local program. Frances Berry is from the Athens Federation of Neighborhoods. She talked about their Gateways to Athens.
Newsmakers Today	4/10/14	9:10 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
A need for proper recognition in the community of a WWII veteran. Congressman Paul Broun Talked about presenting belated medals to a WWII veteran in Athens.
Newsmakers Today	4/11/14	9:25 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
A need to create public awareness of a local event. Owen Ogletree explained plans for the Athens Brew Fest this weekend and encouraged local participation.
Newsmakers Today	4/15/14	9:45 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
A need to create community awareness of accomplishments of a local group of young people. Bonnie Jones represents the Jackson County Boys & Girls Club. She provided details about the Boys & Girls Club dedicating their new facility.
Newsmakers Today	4/16/14	9:45 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
A need to create public awareness of a local program. Heather Benham provided details of the upcoming Athens Greenfest Awards Ceremony. She encouraged local participation.
WGAU News	4/24/14	6:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		11:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need to create public awareness of a new law that applies to the local community. The report dealt with State Representative Spencer Frye being joined by his family in this week's bill signing ceremony at the state capitol in Atlanta. The Governor put his pen to paper on Frye's House Bill 750. The bill sponsored by the director of the Athens chapter of Habitat for Humanity, will exempt qualified nonprofit organizations whose work includes providing affordable housing opportunities from having to obtain mortgage originator licenses. Bill co-sponsors included Barrow County Republican Representative Terry England.

WGAU News	4/24/14	6:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		10:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to create awareness for a new specialty license plate in Georgia. This report dealt with new specialty license plates for University of Georgia that are raising money for scholarships. Fans reportedly snatched up over 1,300 of those new plates featuring a so-called Power G logo, over the last six months. For every tag sold or renewed, ten dollars goes toward Georgia Access Scholarships. The new sales, along with over 30,000 renewals of older plates, raised more than $300,000 since last July. The scholarships help pay tuition for students who couldn't otherwise afford college.

Newsmakers Today	4/24/14	9:45 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
------------------	---------	-----------	-----------	-------

A need to create public awareness of a community event. Gene Dixon provided details about the annual Twilight Criterium being held this weekend in downtown Athens.

WGAU News	4/25/14	6:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		9:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		11:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to create public awareness of a local community event. This report dealt with this being Twilight weekend in Athens. The Twilight Criterium bicycle racers are back in town for a series of high-speed races that get underway tonight and culminate tomorrow night, with world class competitors hitting the streets in and around downtown Athens. Several of those streets will be closed for the races and other activities swirling around the Twilight Criterium.

WGAU News	4/25/14	6:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		10:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to create public awareness of a local community event. This report dealt with an event that happens once a year and today is the day at the University of Georgia. UGA puts on public display the only surviving copy of the Constitution of the Confederate States of America. The exhibit is in the University's Richard Russell Special Collections Library.

Georgia Focus	5/25/14	5:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
---------------	---------	-----------	------------	-----

A need to recognize and remember one of the legendary musicians from Georgia. Galandrielle Allman went to her first concert as an infant in her teenaged mother's arms. Her father was playing - Duane Allman, founder of the legendary Allman Brothers Band. Galandrielle Allman talked about her father and her memoir, PLEASE BE WITH ME A Song For My Father Duane Allman.

WGAU News	5/30/14	6:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local\
		7:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		9:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		10:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to recognize members of the military being activated in the community. This report dealt with what is scheduled to be the last Georgia Guard unit to deploy to Afghanistan. It was a Thursday send off ceremony in Stephens County. The Georgia Baptist Conference Center in Toccoa hosted the ceremony for the 876th Engineer Company made up of soldiers from across northeast Georgia. The unit will be leaving for Afghanistan this summer. The unit that consists of carpenters, electricians, masons and plumbers will be based in the Kabul area and will train Afghanistan's security forces on engineering skills. About 150 troops will be deploying with the unit.

Georgia Focus                      6/22/14                      5:30 a.m.                      28-minutes                      GNN

A need for public recognition and appreciation of a major historical event in our region. In the summer of 1864, Georgia was the scene of one of the most important campaigns of the Civil War. Sherman's push southward toward Atlanta threatened the heart of the Confederacy and Joseph Johnston's Army of Tennessee was the confederacy's best hope to defend it. They managed to grind Sherman's advance to a halt at Kennesaw Mountain. Daniel Vermilya, author of THE BATTLE OF KENNESAW MOUNTAIN, discussed details about the battle on the weekend before its 150th anniversary.

During the quarterly period, WGAU aired PSA's for the Elbert County Chamber of Commerce promoting their annual 4th of July Fireworks Show at Lake Russell. Total announcements – 84.

During the quarterly period, WGAU aired PSA's for Clute's Golf Tournament which is a local community fund raising event. Total announcements – 80.

During the quarterly period, WGAU aired PSA's for Light The Night campaign which is a local community fund raising event to support the Cancer Society. Total announcements – 34.

During the quarterly period, WGAU aired PSA's for Food Bank Of Northeast Georgia which supports food supplies for several counties in Northeast Georgia. Total announcements – 42.

During the quarterly period, WGAU aired PSA's for the Twilight Music Festival. This is an event that showcased the local music scene at locations through downtown Athens. Total announcements – 109.

During the quarterly period, WGAU aired PSA's for the Boys & Girls Club. This organization focuses on activities for boys and girls that helps them grow and develop responsibly. Total announcements – 55.

During the quarterly period, WGAU aired PSA's for Athens Symphony. These ads were used to promote the upcoming season's schedule and encourage purchase of season tickets that are now on sale. Total announcements – 39.

During the quarterly period, WGAU aired PSA's for the Georgia Association of Broadcasters that were used to show support for the Georgia Army National Guard. Total announcements – 220.

During the quarterly period, WGAU aired PSA's for the Georgia Association of Broadcasters that were used to create awareness for the Georgia 811 information program, Georgia Chamber of Commerce and U.S. Coast Guard. Total announcements – 64.

EDUCATION-*NAME OF PROGRAM                      DATE                      TIME                      DURATION                      SOURCE

WGAU News	4/2/14	6:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		9:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		11:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need for expanded and new facilities at a north Georgia college. Something big and new for Brenau University in Gainesville. The Brenau Board of Trustees has approved a record $62.5 million spending plan that provides for $8-million in new construction for undergraduate residence housing, a human anatomy laboratory, and a field house at a new athletics park.

Newsmakers Today	4/7/14	9:10 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
------------------	--------	-----------	-----------	-------

A need to address problems of grade-fixing. Radi Nabulsi discussed details about the suspension of Jack Bauerle and allegations of grade-fixing.

WGAU News	4/8/14	6:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need for new school facilities. This report dealt with a groundbreaking set for nine o'clock this morning at Whitehead Elementary School. The Clarke County School System is marking the ceremonial start of work on a 109,000 square foot sales tax funded school building. School officials say the existing Whitehead building will remain in place for future use as a stand alone facility.

Newsmakers Today	4/16/14	9:25 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
------------------	---------	-----------	-----------	-------

A need to recognize outstanding academic achievements. David Douglas talked about his duties and responsibilities as coach of the High-Q team at Prince Avenue Christian School.

Barbara Dooley Show	4/17/14	8:50 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
---------------------	---------	-----------	-----------	-------

A need to create public awareness of a new school at the University of Georgia. Dean Don Leo talked about the new UGA College of Engineering. He talked about the schools development, curriculum and background offered for students, and faculty.

Georgia Focus	5/11/14	5:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
---------------	---------	-----------	------------	-----

A need to help individuals having problems finding a job. Goodwill provides training and employment services to people who are having trouble finding work, want to change careers, or start their own business. Program guest was Jane Nichols, President and CEO of Goodwill Industries of the Southern Rivers based in Columbus. She explained how Goodwill provides these services in all the communities they serve including Athens and Gainesville.

Newsmakers Today	5/12/14	9:10 a.m.	12-minutes	Local
------------------	---------	-----------	------------	-------

A need for educational achievements. Robin Richards represents Cedar Shoals High School. She discussed their participation in the Hi-Q Quiz at the state level. Ultimately the Cedar Shoals team became the champions of the competition.

WGAU News	5/21/14	6:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		9:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		11:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need for new educational facilities at the University of Georgia. This report dealt with a handful of demonstrators protesting state policy regarding illegal immigrants on Georgia's college campuses interrupted Tuesday's meeting of the state Board of Regents, a session in which the Regents signed off on funding for a major construction project at the University of Georgia. The Regents followed the lead of the Georgia Legislature, which earlier this year allocated $44-million for construction of a new Science Learning Center.

HEALTH-

NAME OF PROGRAM	DATE	TIME	DURATION	SOURCE
Athens Regional Health Conversations	4/5/14	12:00 p.m.	25-minutes	Local
A need to create public awareness of local Oncology Services. This conversational discussion focused on Oncology Services provided at Athens Regional Medical Center. Guests were Joel Siebentritt, Manager of Cancer Specialty Services at Athens Regional; Lauren Richards, Social Worker with the Loran Smith Center for Cancer Support; Dr. James Splichal, Medical Oncologist with University Cancer and Blood Center; Athens Regional Physician Group and Regional First Care: Dr. Fred Young, Executive Director of Athens Regional Physician Group and Dr. Navin Patel, Director of Regional FirstCare.
Athens Regional Health Conversations	4/12/14	12:00 p.m.	25-minutes	Local
A need to create public awareness of Surgical and Nursing service provided by Athens Regional Medical Center. This conversational discussion focused on Surgical Services and Nursing Services available to patients at Athens Regional. Guests on this program were Dr. James Moore, Sr., VP and CMO of Athens Regional; Christy Vickery, Administrative Director of Surgical Services; Jana Hill, Director of Nursing Operations NICU and Mother/Baby Education; Dena Ollis, Director of Neonatal Intensive Care Unit; Annette Jennings, Community Educator.
Liz Talk	4/13/14	10:10 a.m.	12-minutes	Local
A need to treat childhood depression. Dr. Deb Serani is a Psychologist and author. She talked about the issues of childhood depression. She focused on what signs to look for, and how to deal with a youngster who is experiencing this kind of problem.
Liz Talk	4/13/14	10:20 a.m.	9-minutes	Local
A need to develop improved eating habits. Leslie Boncee is a Sports Nutritionist for professional and amateur athletes. She discussed the benefits of eating a healthy breakfast.
Newsmakers Today	4/16/14	9:35 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
Issues in the ongoing debate over legalization of marijuana. Josh Wayne provided details about a rally for legalization of marijuana for medical purposes. He talked about needs for the product and how it can medically benefit some persons with health issues.
Newsmakers Today	4/17/14	9:35 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
A need for insurance coverage for many Georgians. Georgia Insurance Commissioner Ralph Hudgens discussed Georgia's Obamacare enrollment numbers.
Athens Regional Health Conversations	4/19/14	12:00 p.m.	25-minutes	Local
A need to create public awareness of local Oncology Services. This was a continuation of discussion initiated on 4/5/14. This conversational discussion focused on Oncology Services provided at Athens Regional Medical Center. Guests were Joel Siebentritt, Manager of Cancer Specialty Services at Athens Regional; Lauren Richards, Social Worker with the Loran Smith Center for Cancer Support; Dr. James Splichal, Medical Oncologist with University Cancer and Blood Center; Athens Regional Physician Group and Regional First Care: Dr. Fred Young, Executive Director of Athens Regional Physician Group and Dr. Navin Patel, Director of Regional FirstCare.

WGAU News	4/25/14	6:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		11:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to provide help for drug addicted persons. This report dealt with Governor Nathan Deal signing a bill into law that provides amnesty to anyone who seeks medical help for a drug overdose victim or underage drinker suffering from alcohol poisoning. The provision about underage drinkers was added with the University of Georgia students in mind. It was added by Athens State Senator Bill Cowsert.

Athens Regional Health Conversations	4/26/14	12:00 p.m.	25-minutes	Local
--------------------------------------	---------	------------	------------	-------

A need to create public awareness of Neonatal Services provided at Athens Regional Medical Center. This conversational discussion focused on the Neonatal Unit including the Intensive Care Unit, Mother and baby care, educating new parents and special assistance. Guests on this program were NICU and Mother/Baby Education: Dena Ollis, Director of Neonatal Intensive Care Unit and Annette Jennings, Community Educator; and from Surgical Services and Nursing at Athens Regional, Dr. James Moore, Sr.

Georgia Focus	4/27/14	5:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
---------------	---------	-----------	------------	-----

A need to support the struggle faced by Alzheimer's patients. Every 67-seconds someone is diagnosed with Alzheimer's. It is the sixth leading cause of death in the U.S. In Georgia, the Alzheimer's Association provides service to patients and families throughout the state. On this program, Leslie Anderson, President/CEO of the Georgia Chapter of the Alzheimer's Association, discussed some recent developments and upcoming events.

WGAU News	4/28/14	6:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		10:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to stabilize the operations of rural community hospitals. This report dealt with Governor Nathan Deal making his appointment to the Rural Hospitalization Stabilization Committee. It's a panel that includes Barrow County state Representative Terry England and Greg Heard from the Ty Cobb Regional Medical Center in Lavonia. The committee will work to shore up rural healthcare delivery in Georgia.

WGAU News	5/12/14	6:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		10:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to ascertain that qualified Georgians get Medicaid Healthcare. This report dealt with the issue of thousands of Georgians being a step closer to learning if they'll get Medicaid Healthcare. 92,000 Georgians have been stuck in bureaucratic limbo because federal and state computers couldn't talk to each other. The computers are working now but the process will still take a while. About 40,000 are considered eligible.

WGAU News	5/14/14	6:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		9:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to alert the public to a possible health hazard. This report dealt with the Centers for Disease Control saying ninety Georgians were possibly exposed to MERS. The CDC is contacting passengers who flew on the same planes with the second confirmed case, a passenger on a plane from Boston to Orlando, a flight that made a stop in Atlanta.

- Georgia Focus                      5/18/14                      5:30 a.m.                      28-minutes                      GNN
 A need to express the growing need for healthcare providers in Georgia. National Nurses Week was celebrated in early May along with the birthday of Florence Nightingale, the founder of modern nursing. As healthcare grows, so does the need for nurses. This program discussed the nursing profession with Brenda Jarvis, a nurse in the Cardiac ICU at Children’s Egleston Hospital; Christin Neiner, and ER nurse at Children’s Hospital at Scottish Rite; and Ashley Gordon, manager of Nurse Recruitment at Children’s Healthcare of Atlanta.
- Georgia Focus                      6/1/14                      5:30 a.m.                      28-minutes                      GNN
 A need to address the issues of prescription drug abuse in the community. The Georgia Prescription Drug Abuse Prevention Initiative of the Council on Alcohol and Drugs works to prevent and reduce prescription drug abuse in Georgia. John Bringuel, Statewide Project Director for the Georgia Georgia Prescription Drug Abuse Prevention Initiative and Dr. Gregg Raduka, Director of Prevention/ Intervention discussed issues about abuse and prevention.
- Georgia Focus                      6/8/14                      5:30 a.m.                      28-minutes                      GNN
 A need to help children cancer victims during initial and primary treatment period, as well as the period afterwards. At the AFLAC Cancer Center of Children’s Healthcare of Atlanta, they treat a high volume of pediatric cancer patients. However, for many, surviving cancer is only half the battle. this program, recorded at Children’s Healthcare of Atlanta’s Egleston Hospital discussed their Cancer Survivor Program with Dr. Lillian Meacham, the program’s director; and Jonathan Reedy, a 21-year old Leukemia survivor who utilizes Children’s Survivorlink program.

During the quarterly period, WGAU aired PSA’s for Saint Mary’s Hospital. These announcements were utilized to promote Emergency Room Care, Cardio Health Care, and stroke prevention and care.
 Total announcements – 312.

ECONOMY-ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT-

NAME OF PROGRAM	DATE	TIME	DURATION	SOURCE
Newsmakers Today	4/10/14	9:45 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
A need for outreach to generate interest and development within the local community. Mike Tingle called play-by-play of the first ever hockey game played last night in the Classic Center. He explained this is the first of several games scheduled to be played in the facility. He talked about public interest in the event from the community and surrounding community and how it is likely to be an economic development outreach for the community.
Newsmakers Today	4/11/14	9:10 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
A need to encourage development of new businesses. David Lee explained plans for Think Entrepreneurial Week at UGA and encouraged locals to get involved.

Georgia Focus	4/13/14	5:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
A need to promote issues that provide potential economic benefits to the area. The First Tee has introduced the game of golf and its values to nine million young people in all fifty states and selected international locations. Joe Barrow, CEO of The First Tee, discussed the five chapters now active in Georgia. Also, Ellissa Dooman and PGA TOUR golfer Bernhard Langer talked about the Greater Gwinnett Champion coming to Duluth and what it means to the region and the state in economic benefits.
Newsmakers Today	4/15/14	9:10 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
A need for concentrated efforts toward economic development on the West side of Athens. Mike Hamby is an Athens-Clarke County Commissioner. He discussed the lay-of-the-land along the Atlanta highway corridor, focusing on potentials for development in the areas. He also discussed activities of the Atlanta Highway Study Committee and goals they are working toward.
Newsmakers Today	4/15/14	9:25 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
A need to support and promote small business development in the local community. Richie Knight discussed details about the Athens Small Business Summit that is coming up.
WGAU News	4/21/14	6:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		9:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		11:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need for development of new transportation services. This report dealt with a development that could impact Gainesville, Hall County and much of Northeast Georgia. The Georgia Department of Transportation is updating the state's long-range rail plan, with an eye on the Amtrak passenger service that rolls through Gainesville. The DOT is also looking at heavy freight traffic and at proposed commuter rail lines.
WGAU News	4/21/14	6:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		10:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need for approval for some economic development issues. This report dealt with the Gainesville and Hall County Development Authority meeting to consider renewing an agreement for the controversial Glades Reservoir project. The Authority is also looking at a proposal for $8-million in bonds to pay for a new dormitory, anatomy lab, and field house at Brenau University.
WGAU News	4/25/14	7:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		9:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		11:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need for new jobs in Georgia to help our economic situation. This report dealt with more new jobs for Georgia. Aalto Scientific is setting up shop in Eatonton, putting $9-million into the economy and adding about 80 payroll positions in Putnam County. The medical diagnostics manufacturing company will build in the new Rock Eagle Technology Park.
WGAU News	4/30/14	6:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		10:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need to keep services that support flights at the Athens airport. This report dealt with a news release from the Athens-Clarke County Public Information Office saying Essential Air Service funding for Athens-Ben Epps Airport could be reduced, or even eliminated, with the next few months. The U.S. Department of Transportation say the Athens airport gets $1.6 million in annual subsidies, funding that could be phased out as early as this fall.

WGAU News	6/19/14	6:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		9:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		11:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need for relief from budget cuts to a local library system. This report dealt with residents of Statham speaking out against proposed cuts to the city's library budget. The Statham City Council is looking at trimming the library's bottom line impact by more than $20,000 from $55,000 to $34,000. That could mean cuts in staffing, and would likely mean cuts in hours of operation for the library in Statham.

Newsmakers Today	6/24/14	9:25 a.m.	12-minutes	Local
------------------	---------	-----------	------------	-------

A need for initiatives toward economic development issues in downtown Athens. Regina Quick discussed plans for another hotel to be constructed in the downtown area and what it would mean for the local economy. She also discussed possible tax abatements to encourage the development.

During the quarterly period, WGAU aired PSA's for the local area Chamber of Commerce. These announcements were utilized to promote the January Small Business Summit. Total announcements – 50.

ENVIRONMENT-

NAME OF PROGRAM	DATE	TIME	DURATION	SOURCE
WGAU News	4/7/14	6:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local'
		9:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		11:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to make public aware of severe weather for the region. This report dealt with Athens and northeast Georgia waking up to a flood watch. The rain that began overnight is forecast to fall throughout the day and could include thunderstorms and other severe weather. Some parts of the region could see up to three inches of rain.

Barbara Dooley Show	4/8/14	8:50 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
---------------------	--------	-----------	-----------	-------

A need to encourage locals to get their pets neutered. Amy Lance is from the group Fix Georgia Pets. She talked about the need to control unwanted animal populations. She also talked about services available to help individuals with their pets.

Newsmakers Today	4/10/14	9:35 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
------------------	---------	-----------	-----------	-------

A need for efforts to clean up our area waterways. Jerry Bruno discussed details of organizing the River Rendezvous this Saturday. He talked about what streams they will work on and what they hope to accomplish.

Newsmakers Today	4/17/14	9:25 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
A need for development and use of alternate energy sources. Tim Echols is a member of the Georgia Public Service Commission. He discussed the development of a new ethanol plant in southwest Georgia and new uses of solar energy.
WGAU News	4/30/14	6:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		10:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need to develop ideas toward water conservation in the region. Researchers in the University of Georgia's College of Agricultural and Environmental Sciences are teaming up with IBM to work with farmers in Georgia's Lower Flint River Basin to enhance water efficiency by up to 20 percent. The college and IBM are collaborating with the Flint River Partnership—which includes the Flint River Soil and Water Conservation District, the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Natural Resources Conservation Service and the Nature Conservancy—to help farmers make the best irrigation scheduling decisions in order to conserve water, improve crop yields and mitigate the impact of future droughts.
WGAU News	5-14-14	6:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		9:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		11:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need for concern over fresh water availability. This report dealt with the issue that while some parts of the southeast are showing some signs of slipping back into drought status, Marilyn Hall says there are no signs of any water troubles in Athens. The Athens-Clarke County Water Conservation Officer says the level on the Bear Creek Reservoir that can provide drinking water for Clarke, Oconee, Jackson, and Barrow counties is full. She says the Oconee River levels are normal for this time of year.
Newsmakers Today	6/4/14	9:35 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
A need to create public awareness of new federal regulations that could affect north Georgia. David Stooksbury is the state climatologist who discussed issues involved in new Environmental Protection Agency regulations that could affect the environment in our region.
Georgia Focus	6/15/14	5:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN'
A need to focus on uses of alternative fuels that will result in a cleaner environment. Georgia Public Service Commissioner Tim Echols and Clean Cities Georgia are embarking on the fourth annual Alternative Fuel Vehicle Roadshow. This consists of an eight city tour fo the state to educate municipal and private fleet managers and government officials on the benefits and cost savings of using clean, domestic fuels. Commissioner Echols and Don Francis, Executive Director of Clean Cities Georgia, discussed the roadshow and use of alternative fuels in Georgia.
WGAU News	6/17/14	6:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		9:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need to increase water supplies for citizens in the region. This report dealt with the meeting of the Hard Labor Creek Reservoir Management Board. The meeting is scheduled for Monroe for the panel that is overseeing construction of the reservoir that will provide drinking water for Oconee and Walton counties. The panel discussed progress to date on the project and talked about upcoming issues.
Newsmakers Today	6/19/14	9:25 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
A need to make public aware of smog alert issues in next few months. Brian Carr is from the Georgia Clean Air Campaign. He talked about situations and conditions that initiate a smog alert. This information is being made available as the smog alert season begins.

PUBLIC SAFETY-CRIME

NAME OF PROGRAM	DATE	TIME	DURATION	SOURCE
WGAU News	4/1/14	6:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		9:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		10:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to reduce the number of traffic fatalities in Georgia. This report dealt with an announcement that traffic fatalities on Georgia roads were down again in 2103, the eighth consecutive year of declines. The Georgia Department of Transportation and the Governor's Office of Highway Safety made the announcement. They said 1,186 people lost their lives on Georgia's roads last year. That number is down by 13 from 2012, and some 560 fewer than 2005.

Liz Talk	4/6/14	10:20 a.m.	6-minutes	Local
A need to deter texting while driving. This discussion focused on It Can Wait Day. It encouraged making a pledge not to text while driving for safety issues.

Georgia Focus	4/20/14	5:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
A need to reduce drunk driving and underage drinking. Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD) is the nation's largest non-profit working to protect families from drunk driving and underage drinking. MADD serves all 159 counties in Georgia as well as those from other states affected by Georgia crashes. Program guests were Barry Martin, Ga. State Executive Director for MADD and Neil Flitt, an attorney specializing in personal injury law and member of MADD's steering committee.

WGAU News	4/21/14	6:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		11:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need for public awareness of a new law. This report dealt with Governor Nathan Deal signing a bill into law that passed during this year's legislative session. The measure adds government buildings, churches and bars to the list of places permitted gun owners can carry their firearms.

WGAU News	4/24/14	6:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need for public awareness of dangers associated with hurricane season. This report dealt with details that just a few weeks away is the June first start of the Atlantic hurricane season. It explained that emergency managers from around Georgia are meeting in Savannah, making preparations for the storm season.

WGAU News	4/28/14	6:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		10:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need for regulation of traffic flow in some areas. This report dealt with details that if, weather\ permitting – and it might not be – we'll get new traffic signals this week along the Broad Street and Atlanta Highway corridor. One is being installed at King and Broad streets and the other at Atlanta Highway and Jennings Mill. These are the signals that have the new flashing yellow turn arrows that are popping up at a handful of other intersections around northeast Georgia.

WGAU News	6/6/14	6:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		9:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		11:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to let the public know the outcome of an ongoing investigation that involved the local region. This report dealt with Nine people – including a Banks County corrections officer – being arrested and charged in what investigators say was a multi-million dollar racketeering ring. Devon Ledford worked at the Hall County Jail. He and the other eight are accused of money laundering and dealing in prescription drugs. The Banks County Sheriff's Office says the ring has been operating for years.

WGAU News	6/10/14	6:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		9:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		11:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to create public awareness of a hazardous situation in Gainesville. The report dealt with more than a dozen workers at a Hall County food processing plant being evacuated from that plant Monday. Four of the fourteen were taken to Northeast Georgia Medical Center for treatment of what was described as minor irritation after exposure to ammonia. Workers repaired the leak at Koch Foods in Gainesville.

WGAU News	6/12/14	6:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		9:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		11:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to made public aware that a water hazard has been eliminated. This report dealt with Banks County lifting the water boil advisory that had been in place since late last week. It took crews a couple of days to find the source of the water leak that caused the county to issue the advisory. It took a couple of more days to repair the ruptured waterline. The impacted area was north of I-85 in Banks County. The county's public works department lifted the advisory Wednesday afternoon.

WGAU News	6/12/14	6:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		9:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to create public awareness of accusations against a large number of law enforcement personnel. This report dealt with reports that indicate at least 500 law enforcement officers in Georgia may have lied about fulfilling required training in the last year. Many of them allegedly falsified records related to on-line training.

Newsmakers Today	6/12/14	9:35 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
------------------	---------	-----------	-----------	-------

A need for determination of safety issues involved with no-knock warrants. Kevin Turner discussed the pros and cons involved with no-knock warrants.

Newsmakers Today	6/19/14	9:10 A.M.	8-minutes	Local
------------------	---------	-----------	-----------	-------

A need to control traffic at two major area highway situations. Terri Pope, spokesperson for the Georgia Department of Transportation, discussed the traffic flow issues that are hopefully being improved with the newly opened interchange at highway 316 and Ga. 20 which is subject to a major flow of traffic from across northeast Georgia. She also discussed the recently changes in the speed limit along a section of U.S. Highway 441 northward from Athens through Commerce and Banks Crossing, which is a four-lane thoroughfare.

Georgia Focus                      6/29/14                      5:30 a.m.                      28-minutes                      GNN
 A need to create public awareness of a program that offers free legal services to victims of domestic abuse who cannot afford to pay a lawyer. The Georgia Legal Services Program offers free legal services in civil cases to people who cannot afford to hire a lawyer. Among the area in which they practice is assisting victims of domestic violence which is a major problem throughout Georgia. GLSP attorneys Vicky Kimbrell and Wingo Smith discussed the issues surrounding domestic violence cases.

POLITICAL-

NAME OF PROGRAM	DATE	TIME	DURATION	SOURCE
Newsmakers Today A need to know the candidate. Herb Gilmore is a candidate for District-3 of the Athens-Clarke County Commission. He talked about his candidacy and campaign. He discussed issues he feels are important to District-3 and the County.	4/2/14	9:10 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
Newsmakers Today A need to know the candidates. Theron Johnson provided an overall look at the candidates who are running as Democrats and competing in state races.	4/3/14	9:25 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
Newsmakers Today A need to know the candidate. Jarod Bailey is a candidate for District-5 of the Athens-Clarke County Commission. Bailey talked about his candidacy and campaign. He discussed issues he recognizes as important to the district and the county and how he would deal with them.	4/3/14	9:45 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
Newsmakers Today A need to know the candidate. Jack Kingston, a former Athens native, talked about his senatorial campaign. He discussed his campaign and issues he believes are important in the campaign. He explained his position on some issues.	4/4/14	9:25 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
Newsmakers Today A need for public awareness and understanding of a court ruling. Greg Bluestein is from the staff of the Atlanta Journal-Constitution. He explained the Supreme Court's ruling on campaign financing and talked about how it will affect candidates at the state and local level.	4/4/14	9:45	8-miniutes	Local
Newsmakers Today A need to know the candidate. Sam Snider is a candidate for the state house. He talked about details of his campaign in which he is challenging House Speaker Ralston.	4/8/14	9:35 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
Newsmakers Today A need to know the candidate. Phil Gingrey is a candidate for U.S. Senate. He talked about his campaign and issues of importance.	4/11/14	9:35 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
Newsmakers Today A need to know the candidate. Nancy Denson is running for re-election as Athens' Mayor. She talked about her campaign, her record and accomplishments in the current term, and issues she wants to address in the new term.	4/14/14	9:35 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
Newsmakers Today A need to know the candidate. Art Gardner is a candidate for the U.S. Senate. He discussed his campaign and his position on issues of importance.	4/16/14/	9:10 a.m.	8-minutes	Local

WGAU News	4/17/14	6:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		11:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need for public awareness of allegations against the governor. This Report dealt with former Dalton mayor David Pennington holding a news conference in Atlanta, raising what he claims are serious allegations about Governor Nathan Deal and purported ethics violations. Pennington is running against the Governor in next month's Republican Primary. He challenged Deal to take part in debates; the Deal campaign says no.
Barbara Dooley Show	4/18/14	8:50 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
A need for more accessible voter registration. Georgia Secretary of State Brian Kemp discussed details about the voter registration app being made available to the public.
Newsmakers Today	4/21/14	9:10 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
A need to make voters aware of a deadline. Cora Thomas provided a reminder that today is the last day to register to vote in the primary. She provided details of how to accomplish registration.
Newsmakers Today	4/21/14	9:35 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
A need to know the candidate. Ashley Bell is running for State School Superintendent. He talked about his candidacy and issues facing the state's education system.
Senate Candidates' Debate	4/23/14	7:00 p.m.	1-hour	Ga. News Network
A need to know the candidates. WGAU provided a live broadcast, via Georgia News Network, of a Democratic U.S. Senate Candidate's Debate from Columbus Georgia. Candidates were able to express their viewpoints on issues of interest in the North Georgia Area.
Newsmakers Today	4/24/14	9:10 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
A need to know the candidate. Branko Radulovacki is a candidate for the U.S. Senate. He discussed his campaign plans and issues he feels are important to the voters.
Newsmakers Today	4/24/14	9:25 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
A need to know the candidate. John Larkin is a candidate for Post 2 on the Oconee County Board of Commissioners. He talked about his candidacy and the state of the local government. He explained the things he would like to accomplish as a commissioner.
Newsmakers Today	4/28/14	9:10 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
A need to know the candidate. Margaret Hale explained why she wants to be re-elected to the Oconee County Board of Commissioners. She talked about the needs within the county government and her goals to accomplish as a commissioner.
Newsmakers Today	4/28/14	9:25 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
A need to know the candidate. David Perdue is a candidate for the U.S. Senate. He talked about his campaign and issues he sees as important to the voters and his position on those issues.
Newsmakers Today	4/28/14	9:35 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
Charlie Harper is from Peach Pundit. He discussed and explained his analysis on the first day of early voting.
Local Candidates Debate	5/5/14	7:00 p.m.	1-hr, 20-min	Local
A need to know the candidates. WGAU broadcast live coverage of the candidates forum at the Melting Point. Participating candidates were Athens Mayor Nancy Denson and challenger Tim Denson; candidates in three contested Athens-Clarke County Commission elections. We are fifteen days away from election day.

Newsmakers Today	5/6/14	9:10 a.m.	40-minutes	Local
A need to know the candidates. Guests on this program were Nancy Denson and Tim Denson. Both are candidates for Athens Mayor. They discussed their campaigns, issues facing the city government, their ideas on the future of the city and plans for growth and development.
Elections Coverage	5/20/14	7:00 p.m.	3-hr, 40-min.	Local
A need to provide the public with immediate election results. Live continuous coverage of local and area elections results was provided.
Newsmakers Today	5/23/14	9:25 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
A need to know the candidate. Margaret Hale is a runoff candidate for Post 3 on the Oconee County Commission. She talked about her campaign and why she is a strong candidate. She discussed her ideas on issues important to the county.
Newsmakers Today	5/27/14	9:35 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
A need to know the candidate. Bubber Wilkes is a candidate for Post 3 on the Oconee County Commission. He discussed the campaign and needs facing the county government. He explained how he will deal with these issues if elected.
Newsmakers Today	6/4/14	9:10 a.m.	8-miniutes	Local
A need to know the candidate. Mike Buck is a candidate for Georgia Schools Superintendent. He discussed his campaign and talked about his positions on some major issues facing the schools.
Newsmakers Today	6/4/14	9:25 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
A need to know the candidate. David Perdue is U.S. Senate candidate in Georgia. He talked about his campaign and provided his feelings about major issues facing Congress.
WGAU News	6/9/14	6:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:00 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		10:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need to keep public updated on status of political campaigns. This report dealt with a candidate getting another endorsement of another congressman, and he's opened up a double-digit lead in the latest polls. The poll from Channell-11 TV in Atlanta shows Athens native and Savannah Congressman Jack Kingston with an eleven point lead over David Perdue, now 43-days away from the July 22 nd Republican Senate Runoff. Gwinnett County Congressman Rob Woodall became late last week the latest Georgia House member to voice his support for Kingston's Senate campaign.
Newsmakers Today	6/12/14	9:10 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
A need to understand aspects of the political season. Bill Crane discussed issues in the Athens Mayoral race, the Cantor loss and what impact it could have on national politics, and the trail of candidate endorsements and the role they can play in elections at all levels.
Newsmakers Today	6/24/14	9:35 a.m.	8-minutes	Local
A need to know the candidate. Andrew Hunt is a Libertarian candidate for Governor. He discussed his campaign, why he chose to run for Governor, and his ambitions as a politician. He discussed his stance on items he considers as primary importance to the state.				