

2014 Q1
WESU Public Issues Report

Sunday:

5-6am

BBC World News

International news coverage from the famous British news network.

6-8am

The Gospel Explosion with Derrick Jackson

Playing Gospel music from all backgrounds including reggae, African, contemporary, soul and much more. Interviews, Prayer Request, Bible Trivia and Inspirational talk.

8-10am

Weekend Edition, Sunday with Rachel Martin from NPR

World news plus special segments, including puzzles and special interviews.

10-11:30am

The Gospel Express with Pastor Marichal Monts

A WESU tradition! Tune in each Sunday morning for hand clapping, foot stomping gospel music that will lift your soul and elevate your spirit to new heights.

11:30-1pm

The Cosmic Eye with Commander Aleon

Dedicated to Lightworkers worldwide with Ashtar Command news, messages from off-planet, spaceship reports and ambient meditation music, plus Americana folk music songs about ET's and UFO's on a show that is out of this world.

1-2:30pm

Big Trucks and Heavy Equipment with Rosco on the Radio

The Sunday morning wake up show for the late night folks. Hip-hop, jungle, calling heads out, truck talk.

2:30-3:30pm

(1,3,5) Sonic Recreation with Sick Nelden

This is a show about Indie Rock. Listen to discover, discuss, and debate. We are in search of the cutting edge and the quality. This is Sonic Recreation.

(2,4) The Synthesis with Brett Klapper and DJ Reta G

Catchy, relaxing, funkadelic, and absolutely sweet-sounding selections from the many offshoots of electronic music.

3:30-4:30pm

(1,3,5) This Day in History with Ethan

Kind of like Schoolhouse Rock, but with better music. Every playlist will be built around a historical event from the day of that radio show.

(2,4) The Fermata with DJ Semiquaver

A themed show of classical selections throughout the ages. From Medieval and Renaissance Music to Modern Symphonic Works around the world, the show seeks to inspire and improve the mind with occasional guests and specialists providing greater context for some of these works and composers.

4:30-5:30pm

(1,3,5) The Wax Museum Show with Jim 'The Curator' Santa Barbara

Features popular and rare vocal group harmony (Doo-Wop) recordings from the 50's and the early 60's as well as new recordings. Jim is a veteran of over 50 years of record collecting and 40 years of broadcasting. He has interviewed many artists including Fred Parris of the Five Satins and Terry Johnson of the Flamingos.

(2,4) Beyond Broadway with Nina G

Not your grandma's show tunes. The hits, the misses, and everything in between.

5:30-6:30pm

(1,3,5) The International Music Hour with Eloise

Featuring Contemporary and Classic World Music, 60's/70's Rock 'n Roll, Some Country & Folk.

(2,4) Message From The East with Wei Cheng Lee

The popular music and culture of East Asia, with social context, conversation, and commentary.

6:30-7:30pm

(1,3,5) The Work & Playlist with Life Coach Stacey Zackin

A medley of Tunes & Talk on a weekly theme that Inspires & Informs.

(2,4) Sound Maze with Hibiki Mizuno

All Things Japanese, from traditional court music to the latest electropop hits.

7:30-9pm

Dead Air with Uncle John

Grateful Dead and related... Featuring live recordings, rare unreleased material, interviews & more.

9-10:30pm

The Psychedelicatessen with Rick

A mind trip through the musical vaults of NYC, San Francisco, London, Tokyo, Rio and beyond. FM Radio the way it used to be.

10:30-11:30pm

(1,3,5) Stage Presence with J-Rock

Put your hands together in applause for some of the greatest musical performances ever captured on recording. From Led Zeppelin to John Coltrane, Bob Dylan to Victor Wooten, even YoYo Ma to Daft Punk, Stage Presence has a place for all live musical performance. Tune in and get excited; no tickets required for this free show.

(2,4) The Light Fandango with Leith

Music of the 1960s and '70s across the genres.

11:30-12:30am

(1,3,5) Fishbus Radio with Ethan James

Each week, Fishbus Radio showcases a different musical artist and presents to history of their career, told through their music. You'll get to hear them from the first songs they recorded to the most recent, as well as recorded interviews and songs that influenced them.

(2,4) Local Color with DJ Peter Helman

Each week, immerse yourself in the local music scene of a different state of our fair nation. Tune in to every show to experience the diverse sounds of the union, from Brooklyn art-rock to Chicago house to Louisianan swamp-pop.

12:30-1:30am

(1,3,5) Vinyl Cut with DJ Natdarat

My show will highlight the best in movie soundtrack music from past and present across genres of film and music.

(2,4) The Videotape Mixtape with DJ Teo and DJ Savvy T

The Videotape Mixtape will feature music and discussion about films of our past, present, and future.

1:30-2:30am

Motion Picture Soundtrack with DJ Shoelace, DJ Sandwich and $pace Cadet

Listen to soundtracks for movies that don't exist. Music selections fit the emotional arc of an imaginary picture, so there is no limitation on genre.

2:30-3:30am

Purple Rain Dance with DJ SpecialK and DJ SJ

From his first 1978 solo release to today, DJ SJ and SpecialK will groove with you through time to discover how Prince became an icon.

3:30-4am

The Graveyard Shift with DJ Otto Nation

An eclectic mix of music from the WESU library.

Monday:

4-5am

BBC World News

International news coverage from the famous British news network.

5-10am

Morning Edition from National Public Radio

Up-to-the-minute news, background analysis, and coverage of arts and sports.

10-12pm

The Diane Rehm Show from National Public Radio

For more than 25 years, The Diane Rehm Show has offered listeners thoughtful and lively conversations on an array of topics with many of the most distinguished people of our times.

12-1pm

Democracy Now! from Pacifica

The War and Peace Report provides its audience with access to people and perspectives rarely heard in the U.S. media, including journalists, grassroots leaders, activists, artists, academics and ordinary people from around the world of topics with many of the most distinguished people of our times.

1-1:30pm

TUC Radio with Maria Gilardin from Pacifica

"Time of Useful Consciousness" Telling the untold story of the impact of big corporations on society.

1:30-2pm

New Focus with Mike DeRosa

Alternative news and views on national and local issues presented by hard-hitting reporter Mike DeRosa.

2-3pm

First Voices with Tiokasin Ghosthorse from Pacifica

Our purpose is to help ensure the continuance and survival of Indigenous cultures and Nations by letting the People tell their own story, in their own words, and often in their own languages and ways of speaking with as little outside interference and interruption as possible.

3-4pm

Hear and Now

NPR's live midday news program with Robin Young Jeremy Hobson.

4-4:55pm

The Bauer Hour with Dave Bauer

As the Mainstream Media converges to one "serious" voice, the Bauer Hour remains a calm conversation about how the issues of the world, the nation, and the state affect our community.

4:55-5:05pm

The Jive At Five

A daily community calendar and rundown of WESU's evening programming.

5:05-6pm

Afternoon Jazz with Charles Henry

From classic bop to smooth contemporary sounds. A well-rounded jazz show for true jazz heads.

6-6:30pm

Free Speech Radio News

Your daily dose of alternative international news and reporting from the Pacifica Network.

6:30-8pm

(1,3,5) Life is a Killer with Johnny Analog

Moving through the blues diaspora from front porch country blues and big city electric blues to jazz, R&B and soul.

(2,4) 75% Folk with Michael Benson

A serving of contemporary folk and acoustic music with side orders of blues, jazz, world, pop, movie soundtracks, readings and occasional live interviews. Bring a big plate.

8-9:30pm

(1,3,5) Rumpus Room with Lord Lewis

The best in vintage and contemporary heavy funk, soul, club jazz, reggae, ska, afro and latin dancefloor grooves. Pure Dynamite Mojo Explosion!

(2,4) Unfocused Folk with Chip Austin

Americana music from Nashville and around the country including Folk, acoustic Country and roots-Rock from both emerging and veteran artists. Plus, interviews with performers and songwriters.

9:30-11pm

The Attention Deficit Disk Jockey with Lee

The music of yesterday's future, today.

11-12am

(1,3,5) Declan MacManus: International Art Thief with DJ Jeffrey and DJ Moe

Each week portrays a different part of Costello's vivifying and varying musical persona.

(2,4) Girl Power Hour with DJ Moe and DJ Jeffrey

Chicks with picks and licks.

12-1am

(1,3,5) Maelstrom of the Weird with Phil Void

Surveying punk in all its innovation and abrasion – be it first wave, hardcore, post-punk, or noise.

(2,4) No Wave New York with DJ Monica

This show aims to explore No Wave, a noisy and uncompromising genre that was born out of the squalor and decay of downtown New York in the late 1970's.

1-2am

(1,3,5) Songs Without Words with Jacob Feder

Songs Without Words offers an eclectic assortment of instrumental musics both new and old.

(2,4) Kevin's Monday Night Soundscapes with DJ Strangelove

A seamless hour of Kevin, by Kevin. Speeches, news, tunes, and friends. Kevin's birdcall collection. Strangers' voicemails.

"Tune in."

-Timothy Leary.

2-3am

Background Appreciation with Clip

A lyric-less hour: experience how much no words can say as "accompaniment" takes center stage. Featuring post-rock, electronica, and everything else.

3-4am

RootsWorld Radio with Cliff Furnald

RootsWorld Radio takes you on a tour across borders and genres, introducing you to music from far flung places and sometimes from right in your own backyard.

www.RootsWorld.org

Tuesday:

4-5am

BBC World News

International news coverage from the famous British news network.

5-10am

Morning Edition from National Public Radio

Up-to-the-minute news, background analysis, and coverage of arts and sports.

10-12am

The Diane Rehm Show from National Public Radio

For more than 25 years, The Diane Rehm Show has offered listeners thoughtful and lively conversations on an array of topics with many of the most distinguished people of our times.

12-1pm

Democracy Now! from Pacifica

The War and Peace Report provides its audience with access to people and perspectives rarely heard in the U.S. media, including journalists, grassroots leaders, activists, artists, academics and ordinary people from around the world of topics with many of the most distinguished people of our times.

1-1:30pm

Food Sleuth Radio with Melinda Hemmelgarn

Helping people think beyond their plates. Critical Thinking for Food System Literacy.

1:30-2pm

Between The Lines

Providing a platform for individuals from progressive organizations ignored by the mainstream media.

2-2:30pm

9/11 Wake Up Call with Cheryl

A show that explores the many unanswered questions surrounding 9/11 that the corporate media ignores. You'll hear speeches and interviews by key figures in the 9/11 Truth Movement and be kept informed of the latest developments, books, films and events.

2:30-3pm

Shortwave Report with Dan Roberts from Pacifica

A weekly review of news stories from around the world recorded from a shortwave radio. Times and frequencies for English-language programs are also included to encourage you to listen on your own. It's easy!

3-4pm

Hear and Now

NPR's live midday news program with Robin Young Jeremy Hobson.

4-4:55pm

(1,3,5) Reasonably Catholic: Keeping The Faith with Maria Johnson

A thoughtful discussion of progressive issues of faith and action, with interviews, features, book reviews, news and commentary.

(2,4) Spirit in Action

Brings you stories of people living lives of fruitful service, of peace, community, compassion, creative action and progressive efforts.

4:55-5:05pm

The Jive At Five

A daily community calendar and rundown of WESU's evening programming.

5:05-6pm

Wild Wild Live with Rachie and Hibiki

A sneak peek into the magical live music scene of Wes. Tune in for in-station sets from campus bands and recordings of up-and-coming artists' campus shows.

6-6:30pm

Free Speech Radio News

Your daily dose of alternative international news and reporting from the Pacifica Network.

6:30-8pm

Acoustic Blender with Bill Revill

An eclectic selection of Americana, country, folk, folk-rock, bluegrass, acoustic, blues, Celtic, old-time, singer-songwriter and other music that has a roots influence.

8-9pm

The Voice of the CITY with J-Cherry

Join J-Cherry and the Strawberries for live and local Connecticut arts and music at its best. A weekly show featuring the areas finest artists and musicians of every genre.

9-10:30pm

Wonderland with DJ Cheshire Cat

I've got a song in my heart, a chemical imbalance in my head and a musical library at my fingers. From krautrock to post-rock, grunge to garage, novelty to New Romantic, punk to prog, Wonderland has a place for it.

10:30-11:30pm

(1,3,5) This Southbound Train with Mary Barrett

This Southbound Train features bluegrass, newgrass, and other acoustic sounds. Artists from North Carolina's Appalachian Mountains are featured alongside musicians pickin' and grinnin' throughout the United States.

(2,4) Socks Off with DJZ

Take your socks off with DJZ and special guests for epic adventuring into aural soundscape wonderlands. We play what you don't usually get to hear, what we found in the coffers: moonshine, folksy groove to roots to old school rumble rock.

11:30pm-12:30am

Young & Restless with DJ Sleepy Girl

You know what the Midwest is? Plunge in dressless, young and reckless, shun the feckless. Run and catch this dumb and fretless fun-filled funk that's swung with less stress. Hold your questions: only yeses. Come and get it.

12:30-1am

Romancipation with Dr. Love and DJ Smooth

Tips on dating, love, and all of the above - and some songs to go with them.

1-2am

(1,3,5) Zen and the Art of Radio with David Whitney

This is a show about quality, and the challenge of enjoying oneself. Each episode will feature an individual song and a variety of other content, ranging from radio drama, excerpts of literature, articles of note, and almost anything else you can listen to. Listen carefully.

(2,4) The Laugh Infection with Willie Zabar

A comedy program showcasing recorded standup as well as original sketches and other on-air shticks.

2-3am

The Late Night Format with Adi Slepach

Based on a TV talk show format, the show will include a current monologue, small and large entertainment segments - with guests - and pseudo-"musical performances".

3-4am

Call it Anything with DJ Skim

Call it Anything profiles improvisational music of various traditions that transcend strict genre boundaries. Strong emphasis on live recordings. No emphasis on categorization.

Wednesday:

4-5am

BBC World News

International news coverage from the famous British news network.

5-10am

Morning Edition from National Public Radio

Up-to-the-minute news, background analysis, and coverage of arts and sports.

10-12am

The Diane Rehm Show from National Public Radio

For more than 25 years, The Diane Rehm Show has offered listeners thoughtful and lively conversations on an array of topics with many of the most distinguished people of our times.

12-1pm

Democracy Now! from Pacifica

The War and Peace Report provides its audience with access to people and perspectives rarely heard in the U.S. media, including journalists, grassroots leaders, activists, artists, academics and ordinary people from around the world of topics with many of the most distinguished people of our times.

1-1:30pm

Making Contact from The National Radio Project

Providing critical analysis that goes beyond the breaking news, emphasizing positive and creative ways to solve local and global problems.

1:30-2pm

Sprouts Radio from the Grassroots

Featuring radio content from national and local grassroots community radio stations and other independent production groups.

2-2:30pm

This Way Out from Pacifica

An award-winning radio magazine focusing on LGBT issues, including news, interviews, music and more.

2:30-3pm

Women's International News Gathering Service (WINGS) from Pacifica

A news and current affairs series featuring strong women's voices and ideas from around the world.

3-4pm

Hear and Now

NPR's live midday news program with Robin Young Jeremy Hobson.

4-4:30

Living Naturally with Jim and Rosemary

The latest developments in natural nutrition, alternative medicine, natural therapies, organic gardening, alternative energy and more.

4:30-4:55pm

Conversations on Health Care from the Community Health Center

Co-hosts Mark Masselli and Margaret Flinter utilize their four decades of experience in overcoming the barriers that block access to health care to explore opportunities for reform and innovation in the system.

4:55-5:05pm

The Jive At Five

A daily community calendar and rundown of WESU's evening programming.

5:05-6pm

Explorers' Hour with Pickup Sticks

This show will take you places that you've never been before! Venture into the infinity of the unknown via a synthesis of science, spoken word, and a lot of popular music.

6-6:30

Free Speech Radio News

Your daily dose of alternative international news and reporting from the Pacifica Network.

6:30-8pm

Fusion Radio with James Fusion

Techno from around the globe mixed live since 1992. It's a vinyl world!

8-9:30pm

The Warehouse with Mike Nyce

The best of underground house music, mixed live for your listening pleasure.

9:30-11pm

(1,3,5) The Vault with DJ Anton Banks

On the air since 1996! Anton presents listeners with the very latest in hard techno, minimal, tech-house, and leftfield mixed live each week. The program regularly features exclusive music and mix sets from international producers and DJs.

(2,4) N.E. Tempo with DJ Berk

Serious turntablism - Dubstep, DnB, techno, ragga jungle, breakbeats mixed live.

11pm-12:30am

(1,3,5) The Flip Side with Radiodad

The Flip Side is a show consisting completely of unreleased songs, b-sides, maybe some singles, and EP-sourced material. Join Radiodad on a journey to mysterious depths, and hey, who knows, maybe garner a bit of social capital with your knowledge of obscure material from the back catalogs of dozens of great artists.

(2,4) MidniteMunchiez with DJ Gus Lo

Below Ground Street music your ears have been craving.

12:30-2am

The Chill Factory with Noah G. and DJ So Fresh So Clean

Quality hip hop analysis and dissection invariably favoring and promoting music which provides the best human interpretation for the Platonic form of "chill."

2-3am

(1,3,5) Late Night Concert Series

Featuring live recordings of concerts in their entirety from a wide range of musical genres.

(2,4) Amalgamation with DJ Symphonia

A "cross-genre" music show that focuses on artists who utilize elements from different genres to create different and often unique music.

3-4am

Late Night Concert Series

Featuring live recordings of concerts in their entirety from a wide range of musical genres.

Thursday:

4-5am

BBC World News

International news coverage from the famous British news network.

5-10am

Morning Edition from National Public Radio

Up-to-the-minute news, background analysis, and coverage of arts and sports.

10-12am

The Diane Rehm Show from National Public Radio

For more than 25 years, The Diane Rehm Show has offered listeners thoughtful and lively conversations on an array of topics with many of the most distinguished people of our times.

12-1pm

Democracy Now! from Pacifica

The War and Peace Report provides its audience with access to people and perspectives rarely heard in the U.S. media, including journalists, grassroots leaders, activists, artists, academics and ordinary people from around the world of topics with many of the most distinguished people of our times.

1-2pm

Alternative Radio with Dave Barsamian

Audio Energy for Democracy. Bringing the voices of our world's leading progressive figures to the airwaves.

2-3pm

Radio EcoShock

Environment radio with news, interviews, music, nature audio clips.

3-4pm

Hear and Now

NPR's live midday news program with Robin Young Jeremy Hobson.

4-4:55pm

River Valley Rhythms with Stephan Allison

River Valley Rhythms, where you can expect to hear from the region's artists, promoters, presenters, and arts organizations in a conversational setting along with occasional commentary and recorded music.

4:55-5:05

The Jive At Five

A daily community calendar and rundown of WESU's evening programming.

5:05-6pm

Homegrown with Rob DeRosa

Voted #2 Radio Show – Hartford Advocate “Best Of” Poll 2013

The best crop of Connecticut-connected music presented for a global audience.

6-6:30pm

Free Speech Radio News

Your daily dose of alternative international news and reporting from the Pacifica Network.

6:30-8pm

Total Praise with Minister Latrecia

Your Thursday night Gospel music connection! A diverse and inspirational blend of contemporary gospel music to uplift your spirit!

8-9:30pm

Evening Jazz with Bill Denert

Where hearing is the best experience. A broad range of swing, be-bop, and avant garde as well as a sprinkling of new releases.

9:30-10:30pm

(1,3,5) UnderCover with Rebecca Seidel

Bridging genres and generations, UnderCover explores the concept of inspiration through imitation.

(2,4) The Turnup and Other Roots with DJ Zing and DJ Ping

Carrots, songs, beets, poems, beats, stories and yams

10:30-11:30pm

(1,3,5) The Hip-Hop Kitchen with Alex and Jake

Welcome to hip hop kitchen where you'll hear african, jazzy, soulful, upbeat hip hop and rap mixed with food news, recipes, reviews, tips, tricks, fun facts. basically food to eat while you listen.

(2,4) Public Affairs with DJ Vegetable

Each episode DJ Vegetable sits down with a pair to talk about their relationship, how they know each other and what they are doing in Middletown. We might even listen to some of their favorite music, or have them pick out a new release.

11:30-12:30am

(1,3,5) Underdogs Edge with DJ Malik1Fam

The Underdogs Edge will feature local hip hop artists across the region with tracks from mainstream artists normally not played on the radio.

(2,4) Live From The Paris Hotel with Atomizer Blue

A mercurial mixture of pop music and poetry, cavorting the ley lines of the human voice. Step outside the Dr. Luke degeneration into the magnificent streets of the city where the ravings of mad poets and mods dissipate into a smoky rain spilling down on an ocean of umbrellas.

12:30-1:30am

(1,3,5) Do You Know How It Feels To Be Lonesome? with Ethan

Gram Parsons, the fast-living godfather of country rock n' roll, had a radical vision of the music that originated in the country of his roots. Country, soul, fuzzed-out rock; to him it didn't matter, it was all the music of cosmic America. This show will explore the music Parsons made, loved, listened to, and influenced, from the Louvin Brothers to Natural Child.

(2,4) Coachillin' with DJ Anabeezy

The best of the bands that have played at Coachella Valley Music and Arts Festival in Indio, California.

1:30-2:30am

(1,3,5) The British are Coming with DJ Babelfish

Featuring music from the British Invasion to the present, each show will focus on one British city or region, mixing genre and time period.

(2,4) Pop! Goes My Heart with Ian

Sad pop songs with a different title-based theme every show, with a focus on experimental pop, chamber pop, and Kate Bush.

2:30-4am

(1,3,5) The Menagerie with Omardaslayer and Tree Paths

Chaos Based weekly genre generation. Also, fun hosts.

(2,4) Diecast with DJ DatAnark and Ser Platypus

Diecast features an element of spontaneity. Your favorite DJs, Ser Platypus and DJ Dat Anark, have compiled playlists from a variety of different genres. On air, we'll conduct a die-toss, and let fate decide what we'll be sonically entertaining you with each show. Special focus will be brought to skating and anti-authoritarian culture.

Friday:

4-5am

BBC World News

International news coverage from the famous British news network.

5-10am

Morning Edition from National Public Radio

Up-to-the-minute news, background analysis, and coverage of arts and sports.

10-12am

The Diane Rehm Show from National Public Radio

For more than 25 years, The Diane Rehm Show has offered listeners thoughtful and lively conversations on an array of topics with many of the most distinguished people of our times.

12-1pm

Democracy Now! from Pacifica

The War and Peace Report provides its audience with access to people and perspectives rarely heard in the U.S. media, including journalists, grassroots leaders, activists, artists, academics and ordinary people from around the world of topics with many of the most distinguished people of our times.

1-1:30pm

(1,3,5) Argus News Radio with The Argus News Radio Staff

A partnership between WESU and the Argus Newspaper, airing news, commentary, and interviews pertinent to the Wesleyan and Middletown communities.

(2,4) Play By Ear with KatCo

An exploration of radio as a medium for drama, from Shakespeare to sci-fi, dredging archives for live readings, radio plays, and experimental audio adventures.

1:30-2pm

(1,3,5) Spoiler Alert with Toni Pennacchia from Pacifica

All Things Film, Locally and Globally. Offering a sneak peek behind the scenes in the world of underground filmmaking.

(2,4) Play By Ear pt. 2 with KatCo

2-3pm

Exploration in Science from Pacifica with Dr. Michio Kaku

Topics include black holes, time travel, higher dimensions, string theory, wormholes, search for extraterrestrial life, dark matter and dark energy, the future of space travel, genetic engineering, the aging process, the future of medicine, and much more!

3-4pm

Hear and Now

NPR's live midday news program with Robin Young Jeremy Hobson.

4-4:55pm

The Business Buzz with Jeffery Sherman

Bringing together regional business leaders who are at the forefront of technology and business, and compelling stories sure to interest both business people and average listeners alike!

4:55-5:05pm

The Jive At Five

A daily community calendar and rundown of WESU's evening programming.

5:05-6pm

Chocolate Cake with DJ Rob

An hour-long musical sugar high. Power-pop plus Brit-pop and singer/songwriters from the 60's to today.

6-6:30pm

Free Speech Radio News

Your daily dose of alternative international news and reporting from the Pacifica Network.

6:30-7pm

Middletown Youth Radio Project

A weekly radio program featuring the thoughts, voices, creativity and talent of the kids in the WESU neighborhood.

7-8:30pm

Universal Sound Wave with Sista Queen T

Informing listeners about local and global issues with health, nutrition, and stress reduction tips, featuring a wide range of music including African, reggae, gospel, R&B, Latin, and blues.

8:30-10pm

From The Otherside with Rok-A-Dee

The Voice of Hartford, including local artists that from Connecticut, New York, Massachusetts and Rhode Island. Also features upcoming artists performing Caribbean R & B, Soca and International music.

10-12am

In The Master Bedroom, Under The Bed with Dope Dave

Celebrating conscious hip-hop and its offshoots & influences. Acrobatic emcees and down-tempo poets mix it up over varied oceans of sound.

12-2am

OVERDRIVE with Clarence Scott and Shantay Scott

OVERDRIVE takes the word of God and mixes it with the music of God then shifts it into overdrive! Praising God with the best Urban Contemporary, Hip Hop, and Traditional gospel music on the planet!

2-2:30am Bassment Beats with DJ Lokash from Pacifica

Celebrating its 10th year of bringing you the latest in aboveground & underground hip-hop mixed live.

2:30-3am New World Show with DJ Lokash from Pacifica

The best in Global Bass mixed live. Baila coño!

3-4am Maximum Rock and Roll Radio

A weekly radio show featuring the best DIY punk, garage rock, and hardcore from the astounding, ever-growing Maximum Rocknroll record collection.

4-5am

Sing Out! Radio Magazine with Tom Druckenmiller

A weekly, hour-long “magazine format” program, featuring interviews in addition to “live” and recorded traditional folk musics.

Saturday:

5-6am

BBC World News

6-7am

The Celtic Café with Pat Laffan and Mark Gallagher

Presenting traditional and contemporary music with a Celtic connection.

7-8am

Caffe' Italia

A weekly roundup of news, music and memories from Italy with the former host of WESU's own WESParla.

8-10am

Weekend Edition, Saturday with Scott Simon from National Public Radio

Covering hard news, a wide variety of news makers , and cultural stories.

10-11am

Car Talk

The Tappet brothers - sometimes helpful and always hysterical - answer their callers' questions about car trouble, crack jokes and announce a weekly puzzler.

11am-1pm

Moondog Matinee with Larry, Big Al Your Rock n' Roll Pal, and Moondog Mike

A CT radio institution, featuring classic and obscure songs from the golden years of rock 'n roll no longer heard on commercial radio.

1-3pm

Avanti Tutta with Francaccio di Roma

Serving the Central CT Italian-American community for over 15 years, providing the best in Italian pop music and news from Italy.

3-4pm

The Spice of Life with DJ Pretzel

Giving listeners a more global take on music by emphasizing Latin music, from folk and traditional to modern, as well as how certain aspects of Latin music have changed and styled American genres.

4-5:30pm

(1,3,5) The Movement with DJ Ice and DJ Danni

Every other Saturday we'll bring you music from and inspired by Black artists who have made profound contributions to not only music, but the world! Through discussion, live performances, and opinionated guests – this is the movement.

(2,4) The Block Party with DJ Storm

The block party will seek to bring a nostalgic throwback to when music was hype and got you pumped and ready to dance. The show will feature an eclectic mix of 80's-90's music from all genres be it be pop, hip hop, dancehall, reggae, punk rock or r&b. We will take a journey through the history 20 year period of when I am many people fell in love with music. The block party is just what it sounds like a block of music that will get people to reminisce on the good ole days.

5:30-7pm

The Reggae Exclusive with DJ Derrick

Nothing but pure niceness in the place, A mix of old and new culture, lovers rock, and rub a dub reggae plus interviews and more.

7-8:30pm

The Reggae Rock with Mikey Chong

Caribbean music at its best. Traditional and contemporary Roots Reggae and Lover's Rock, Spliced with a bit of Dance Hall and Caribbean sports and news commentary.

8:30-10pm

Reggae Voyage with Madman Donovan

Seeking to educate, entertain and inform the public about the rich heritage and culture of reggae music and its entertainers.

10-11:30pm

Transmission 28 Dayze LTR with DJ Sabotage and Oxhead Magoo

Thunder-ground Hip Hop and interviews.

11:30pm-1:30am

Classik Az with Az

Vibe with AZ, living room style. Hip Hop, Poetry, Classic conversations, crate diggin' and film clips

1:30-3am

The I Do Not Know Show with C.C. Arshagra

The most experimental radio show in the world now words now! A poetry/word/music/ideal of humanity fused radio show concept. Are we human?!

3-5am

Interstellar Underdrive with Uncle John

Take a trip into deep space with Uncle John as he delivers ambient, chill, minimal dub, downtempo and more... Are you ready?