1 FOSTER CARE	My ConVersation There are thousands of children in the child welfare system who need temporary out-of-home care due to abuse or neglect (source: www.co.fresno.us). Brian Van Anne, CEO of Transitions Children's Services, recruits and trains families that want to become foster parents. Brian explains that having as many families available as possible helps minimize trauma by being able to place children quicker.	01/05/2020	11:18PM	7:55
	My ConVersation Over 4,000 children in the San Joaquin valley are in the child support system due to drug related issues. Lisa Casarez, founder and CEO of Angels of Grace Foster Family Agency works alongside Child Protective Services to rescue children and be their support. Lisa provides diapers, clothing, and formula and places children into temporary homes. Fresno State University students can intern at the agency while earning their master's degree.	02/16/2020	11:10PM	7:15
2 CULTURAL & RELIGIOUS UNDERSTANDING	My ConVersation	01/12/2020	10:30PM	21:13
	In a special 9/11 episode of My Conversation, Michael Bogart (Aspect Ministries) addresses the question "How do you talk to people in a pluralistic society that has different religions?" Mr. Bogart teaches Comparative Religions at both West Hills College and College of the Sequoias. Michael gives an unbiased description of Islam, and lists commonalities between Islam and Christianity, in an effort for all in our community to better understand each other.	01/19/2020	11:00PM	21:14
