MOST SIGNIFICANT ISSUE-RESPONSIVE PROGRAMMING

ISSUE: What's Making the Bay Area More Segregated?

KCBS In Depth (replay from 6/27/21)

July 4, 2021

6:00am

30 Minutes

The Bay Area is a region defined by its diversity, and yet a recent report from UC Berkeley researchers has found that many neighborhoods seem to actually be growing more segregated with time. On this edition of KCBS In Depth, we dig into that report and try to find out how it could be that more than 50 years after the passage of the federal Fair Housing Act the trend toward segregation still continues. Guests: Stephen Menendian, assistant director, UC Berkeley's Othering and Belonging Institute. Louis Hansen, housing reporter, Mercury News. Host is KCBS Radio's Keith Menconi.

ISSUE: California Rethinks Psychedelics

KCBS In Depth

July 4, 2021

6:30am

30 Minutes

In 1966 California became one of the first states in the country to outlaw LSD, now more than 50 years later the Golden State is rethinking its stance on psychedelics amid a new legislative push that could one day soon decriminalize a range of psychoactive compounds. On this edition of KCBS In Depth we consider the high hopes behind this drug reform effort, and also discuss the backlash from those who worry about its potential dangers. Guests: Scott Wiener, California state senator John Lovell, legislative counsel, California Narcotics Officers' Association Jennifer Mitchell, professor of neurology and psychiatry, UC San Francisco Host is KCBS Reporter Keith Menconi
