

Cumulus Birmingham Issues Programs

WUHT-FM

QUARTERLY ISSUES PROGRAMS REPORT

January-March 2024

- 1. Will The Chubbfather talks about the Feed the People campaign which helps food banks in the local community.
- 2. Chevelle Lee Director of Don Hawkins Recenter talking about the importance of have recenters in the community.
- 3. Darell Forte of He Talks discusses the Annual Birmingham Black Male Summit that brings together thought leaders, professionals and community members to issues facing black men today.
- 4. Interview with Alabama's 6th Congressional District candidate Gerrick Wilkins.
- 5. Peter Jackson of Greif Share talks about how people can better handle grief the best way possible.
- 6. Josh Williams one of the owners of Workplay a mixed-use event venue in downtown Birmingham that was closed previously for months.
- 7. Jacquie Fazekas of Bama Health Foods talks about how to equip under-resourced youth, their families, and the community to make healthier lifestyle choices.
- 8. Rinley Gaines, director of the Riley Gaines Center at the Leadership Institute talks men in women's sports and What is a Women Act.
- 9. Ashely Gooden talks about Birmingham Restaurant Week Winter Addition.
- 10. Jacquie Fazekas of Bama Health Foods continues the conversation on how to equip under-resourced youth, their families, and the community to make healthier lifestyle choices.

Cumulus Birmingham Issues Programs

- 11. Ed and Missy Down Syndrome Alabama to promote Lifelong Awareness, Acceptance and Advocacy for People with Down syndrome. They envision and strive for an Alabama where individuals with Down syndrome are accepted and included for who they are.
- 12. Chante Stone owner of Live Comfortable In-Home Care talks about the importance of making sure that your elderly members are safe during the warmer season.
- 13. Stephen Gustall of Make a Wish talks about Chef Eric of Oak Mtn. Creekside BBQ is doing a special Blind Dinner fundraiser in support of Alabama Trailblaze Challenge.

Cumulus Birmingham Issues Programs

The attached list describes programs aired on WUHT-FM that address the above issues.

Station: WUHT-FM

Issue Addressed: Food Banks

Date Aired 01/07/2024

Time Aired 5:30AM

Duration 25 Minutes

Will The Chubbfather talks about the Feed the People campaign which helps food banks in the local community.

Station: WUHT-FM

Issue Addressed: Sports

Date Aired 01/14/2024

Time Aired 5:30AM

Duration 25 Minutes

Chevelle Lee Director of Don Hawkins Recenter talking about the importance of have recenters in the community.

Station: WUHT-FM

Issue Addressed: Mental Health

Date Aired 01/21/2024

Time Aired 5:30AM

Duration 25 Minutes

Darell Forte of He Talks discusses the Annual Birmingham Black Male Summit that brings together thought leaders, professionals and community members to issues facing black men today.

Cumulus Birmingham Issues Programs

Station: WUHT-FM

Issue Addressed: Politics

Date Aired 01/28/2024

Time Aired 5:30AM

Duration 25 Minutes

Interview with Alabama's 6th Congressional District candidate Gerrick Wilkins.

Station: WUHT-FM

Issue Addressed: Mental Health

Date Aired 02/04/2024

Time Aired 5:30AM

Duration 25 Minutes

Peter Jackson of Greif Share talks about how people can better handle grief the best way possible.

Station: WUHT-FM

Issue Addressed: Entertainment

Date Aired 02/11/2024

Time Aired 5:30AM

Duration 25 Minutes

Josh Williams one of the owners of Workplay a mixed-use event venue in downtown Birmingham that was closed previously for months.

Cumulus Birmingham Issues Programs

Station: WUHT-FM

Issue Addressed: Health

Date Aired 02/18/2024

Time Aired 5:30AM

Duration 25 Minutes

Jacque Fazekas of Bama Health Foods talks about how to equip under-resourced youth, their families, and the community to make healthier lifestyle choices.

Station: WUHT-FM

Issue Addressed: Politics

Date Aired 02/25/2024

Time Aired 5:30AM

Duration 25 Minutes

Rinley Gaines, director of the Riley Gaines Center at the Leadership Institute talks men in women's sports and What is a Women Act.

Station: WUHT-FM

Issue Addressed: Business

Date Aired 03/03/2024

Time Aired 5:30AM

Duration 25 Minutes

Ashely Gooden talks about Birmingham Restaurant Week Winter Addition.

Cumulus Birmingham Issues Programs

Station: WUHT-FM

Issue Addressed: Mental Health

Date Aired 03/10/2024

Time Aired 5:30AM

Duration 25 Minutes

Jacque Fazekas of Bama Health Foods continues the conversation on how to equip under-resourced youth, their families, and the community to make healthier lifestyle choices.

Station: WUHT-FM

Issue Addressed: Special Needs

Date Aired 03/17/2024

Time Aired 5:30AM

Duration 25 Minutes

Ed and Missy Down Syndrome Alabama to promote Lifelong Awareness, Acceptance and Advocacy for People with Down Syndrome. They envision and strive for an Alabama where individuals with Down Syndrome are accepted and included for who they are.

Station: WUHT-FM

Issue Addressed: Community

Date Aired 03/24/2024

Time Aired 5:30AM

Duration 25 Minutes

Chante Stone owner of Live Comfortable In-Home Care talks about the importance of making sure that your elderly members are safe during the warmer season.

Cumulus Birmingham Issues Programs

Station: WUHT-FM

Issue Addressed: Community

Date Aired 03/31/2024

Time Aired 5:30AM

Duration 25 Minutes

Stephen Gustall of Make a Wish talks about Chef Eric of Oak Mtn. Creekside BBQ is doing a special Blind Dinner fundraiser in support of Alabama Trailblaze Challenge.