2nd Quarter, 2023

Issue: Mail Scam

We ran the following program to address it: Morning Show/Kansas News

Date: April 4, 2023 Time of Day: 7:30 am Duration: 2-3 minutes

Brief description of program (format, participants, contents, etc.):

The KPRD Morning Show hosts reported on a mail scam that was circulating in multiple Kansas counties. These were letters claiming to be from an attorney with law firms located in Canada and said there were millions of dollars in an unclaimed life insurance policy available. The sender asked the recipient of the letter to partner with them to claim these monies. Insurance Commissioner Vicki Schmidt and Treasurer Steven Johnson advised Kansans that these letters were a scam and to not contact the sender.
