Quarterly List of Programming Responsive to Issues of Community Concern
3rd Quarter

October 10, 2018

To serve the public interest, the station broadcasts programming responsive to issues of concern to the CSRA and its listening public. The following lists issues most significant to our programming and the treatment of them:

Issues of importance this quarter included the following during the months of July, August, and September. In the month of July 2018, we welcomed several guests. Mr. Thornton started the month by running excerpts of Darlene Lancer's discussion of narcissism. Mr. Thornton also highlighted the following events: Water activities at the Evans Town Park, and an Art Exhibit at the Westobou Festival. Stacy Horn appeared on the show to talk about findings on similarities between early mental institutions and today's prisons. Toward the middle of July, the Community Notes featured excerpts of Mr. Thornton interview with Commissioner Williams regarding challenges and hope for the city of Augusta, Georgia, as well as, highlights for a female cancer survivors event. Paula G visited the studio to discuss navigating life's journeys. Mr. Thornton highlighted the Gladys Knight and Jerry Seinfeld concert held at the Bell Auditorium. Latonya Wheat and Tara Wheat visited the studio for a prerecording session regarding church comedy. Toward the end of the month, Mr. Thornton featured excerpts of his interview with Dr. Craig Albert of Augusta University who discussed the philosophy behind our politics and he also mentioned the retirement of LaVerne Gold of United Way of the CSRA. On the 30th of July, Perry Broadcasting of Augusta hosted the Annual Jamz Cuts Back to School Bash in which free haircuts were given to boys. Girls received free manicures and backpacks with school supplies were given to students K-12. Dr. Karen Mason appeared on the show to discuss how clergy can assist with suicide prevention. Mr. Thornton highlighted the following events: Candlelight Music Series at The Augusta Common, Story time at the Book Tavern in Aiken, SC, A Night out event in which the community and police come together, University childbirth classes, Hispanic Festival at Lady A, and an event held at the Savannah River site Museum. Mr. Thornton ran excerpts of his interview with Dr. Linhart's who discussed the discovery of blind spots in order to become better leaders. Mr. Thornton also highlighted the following events: Second Saturday in the square, which featured a farmers market, live bluegrass music and more, in Edgefield, SC, Play & Grow(for children) at the Aiken County Public Library, The Light The Night Leukemia, and the Lymphoma Walk at the Evans Town Center. Mr. Thornton ran excerpts of Christopher Doyle's discussion on God, Sex, and Family. Mr. Thornton also shared some of the community-builders that Perry Broadcasting of Augusta host such as the Annual Easter Egg Hunt, the St. Jude Radiothon, Jamz Cuts, Mayfest Family Day, Hallo - Jamz, and more. Ken Gaines visited the studio to discussed the business grant program for business people in the Augusta area. Dr. Craig Albert also visited the studio to discuss National and International political matters. Mr. Thornton aired an excerpt of his interview with Christine Betts, Executive Director of the Lucy Craft Laney Museum, wherein she highlighted improvements made at the museum and some of the programs offered. Dr. Craig Albert visited the studio to discuss the understanding of politics. Mr. Thornton ran excerpts of his interview with Dr. Becker-Phelps, regarding building relationships. Mr. Thornton also highlighted the Arts in the Heart Festival that was held at the Augusta Common. Ending the month of September, Mr. Thornton aired his interview with Mrs. Christine Betts of the Lucy C. Laney Museum, regarding the events being held at the museum.
