Quarterly List of Programming Responsive to Issues of Community Concern
1st Quarter
April 10, 2015

To serve the public interest, the station broadcasts programming responsive to issues of concern to the CSRA and its listening public. The following lists issues most significant to our programming and the treatment of them:

Issues of importance this quarter included the following during the months of January , February and March. In the month of January , year 2015 ; there were guest appearances from Brian Edwards , Ben Hason, Karon Williamson , Marin Rose , Dr. Deforia Lane and Ms. Elida Perez – Knapp. The importance of a variations of topics were discussed and highlighted. Also in the month of January there were highlights of some upcoming events and the cancellation of the play “Diary of Black Men” , connections between happiness and financial well being as listed by Life Re-imagined and Luntz Global . Furthermore additional discussions surrounding guest Mr. Brian Edwards' keys to successful mentorship , health resolutions conveyed in a publication and upcoming events taking place in the local area. Additional healthy resolutions for families were discussed as listed in a local newsletter . Then in February of 2015 the importance of vaccinations as conveyed by Dr. Dennis Murray of Georgia Regents University was dissected . The dissection did not stop there; there were topics discussed like Music therapy with Dr. Deforia Lane , the challenges and strengths of the Hispanic Community with Ms. Elida Perez-Knapp , the heart of a mentor and the characteristics as well as responsibilities of a mentor with Brian Edwards . Tax tips as conveyed Professor Styron were discussed as well as possible suicidal thoughts referenced by Dr.Karen Manson . On the show we also discussed countless district challenges, Ballet with the great Karon Williamson and Marin Rose .Let's not forget guest Dr. Steven Blair whom discussed Exercise Scierce , Dr. Lula Williams talking Education matters , Brandi Cummings conversing about connecting to our children or Terrie Williams chatting about reaching out to the young, Ginnette Messer gracing us with the intense topic of child abuse and Dr.Pinhas and Debby Adar discussing beautiful marriages. Topics preventing suicide , inspirational situations, early learning and the power of organizing was discussed via Karen Mason , Troy White , Ruth Saxton and Marin Rose . In the month of March several upcoming concerts and an event that will feature the charging of an electric car was discussed. During March interesting topics like educational challenges of African American and Latino Males, stepping out on nothing and holding on to relationships were talked about via professionals Jacque Starks , Byron Pitts and Dr. Lisa Firestone. To close the month of March out I discussed upcoming local events including the BMX skateboard competition and safety tips when being stopped by police as listed in the Metro Courier newspaper . Many listeners have a difficult time devoting a specific block of time to listen to the radio, especially during the evening so the overall goal was to display vital , meaningful , necessary topics arranged with great fresh music and voices that would compel the listeners to stay tuned , resulting in more time spent listening and the distribution of trendy and intelligent information .
