

KTRS 3rd Quarter 2021 (October 1-December 31) (15 TOTAL NEEDED MINIMUM)

Issues	Title	Description	Time	Date	Duration
Municipal taxes	McGraw Show	David Stokes of the Show-Me Institute on the latest happening with the Douglass Hill development in the Webster Groves area, which will have its council convene once again on the matter	7:20am	10/4/21	14 mins.
Education	McGraw Show	Dr. Art McCoy explains how stl.works wants to help the community improve by pushing education, skills to those who need an opportunity	9:10am	10/6/21	17 mins.
Public health	McGraw Show	Jasmine Freeman, Manager of Business Operations at SSM Health Outpatient Center in St. Charles, with the facts about getting the annual vaccination as the cold/flu season has arrived	7:50am	10/6/21	6 mins.
Conservation	McGraw Show	Captain Scott Corley, Regional Protection Supervisor for the Missouri Department of Conservation, on the issues involved with deer baiting just not being unethical and disrespectful. If you see something, please report by calling 1-800-392-1111	7:50am	10/8/21	8 mins.
Public health	McGraw Show	Dr. Bill Powderly, the Director of the Washington University Institute for Public Health with answers about administering tests at home for COVID-19	7:10am	10/15/21	7 mins.
Public health	McGraw Show	Karen Hogan, Commercial Development Strategist with Ginkgo Bioworks, with details about their partnership with Missouri DHSS and DESE to help keep classrooms open at no cost to schools	7:35am	10/18/21	6 mins.
Public utility	McGraw Show	Scott Carter, President of Spire Missouri, on the explains potential issues with the Spire STL Pipeline having a short term certificate from the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC) to operate through December 13	7:35am	10/20/21	11 mins.
Public development	McGraw Show	Susan Trautman, CEO of Great Rivers Greenway, with details about the art installation from artist Damon Davis to elevate the Mill Creek Valley story on the one-mile stretch of the Brickline Greenway from Harris-Stowe State University to the St. Louis CITY SC	7:35am	10/26/21	10 mins.

		Stadium
Municipal elections	McGraw Show	Lewis Reed, the President of the City of St. Louis Board of Aldermen seeks public input on efforts to reduce the number of wards from 28 to 14	7:15am	10/28/21	15 mins.
Conservation	McGraw Show	Dan Zarlenga, media specialist for the Missouri Department of Conservation, on the various hunting seasons happening this time of the year including Youth Deer Hunting, the November firearms deer season	7:50am	11/5/21	10 mins.
Public utility	McGraw Show	Ray McCarty, President of the Associated Industries of Missouri, on the potential consequences for manufacturers across the state due to the Spire STL Pipeline being cut off in early December	9:10am	11/5/21	15 mins.
Public transportation	McGraw Show	Taulby Roach, President and CEO of Bi-State Development, on the numbers of job they hope to fill, their hope to attain federal money from the infrastructure bill, plus the Loop Trolley project	7:20am	11/9/21	15 mins.
Redistricting	McGraw Show	Benjamin Singer, executive director of Show Me Strategy, on their efforts for a redistricting plan for the City of St. Louis	9:10am	11/24/21	15 mins
Public utility	McGraw Show	Bruce Litszinger and Sean Hadley with Metropolitan St. Louis Sewer District discuss how they are trying to build an understanding from the community about the region's stormwater problems	9:10am	11/30/21	27 mins.
Public utility	McGraw Show	Jason Merrill, Director of Corporate Communications for Spire, Inc., on the rise in rates natural gas. Also, the latest on the Spire STL Pipeline situation	7:05am	12/1/21	10 mins.
Public development	McGraw Show	Susan Trautman, CEO of Great Rivers Greenway, on how federal fund for construction on the Brickline Greenway project	8:50am	12/3/21	8 mins.
Public utility	McGraw Show	Sean Jamieson, general counsel for the Spire STL Pipeline on being able to continue operation	7:10am	12/7/21	10 mins.

