

KTRS 1st Quarter 2021 (January 1 – March 31) (15 TOTAL NEEDED MINIMUM)

Issues	Title	Description	Time	Date	Duration
Public Safety	Jennifer & Wendy	MAYOR LYDA KREWSON, City of St. Louis Mayor - new program to divert mental health calls away from 911	11:35a	1/5/21	10 mins.
Parks & trails	The McGraw Show	EMMA KLUES, VP of Communication & Outreach for Great Rivers Greenway on participating in their strategic planning survey envisioning the next 20 years	8:50am	1/11/21	7 mins.
COVID-19	Jennifer & Wendy	DR. MICHAEL KINCH, The Washington University Associate Vice Chancellor and Director, Center for Research Innovation in Business, and Professor of Radiation Oncology, School of Medicine the importance of getting everyone immunized and concerns with allergic reactions to the vaccinations	10:35am	1/14/21	15 mins.
Criminal justice	The McGraw Show	LEWIS REED, President of the City of St. Louis Board of Aldermen on Crimestoppers offering a substantial reward for the murders of Darrion and Dmyah Fleming	7:20am	1/26/21	10 mins.
COVID-19	Jennifer & Wendy	DR. JASON MILLS, Washington University Professor of Medicine, Developmental Biology, Pathology and Immunology Director clears up that recent study that may have been a tad misleading due to media headlines	11:35am	1/26/21	10 mins.
COVID-19	The McGraw Show	TIM BRINKER, Franklin County Presiding Commissioner candidly explains what have been the difficulties of providing enough COVID-19 vaccines for the region	7:10am	2/11/21	17 mins.
Conservation	The McGraw Show	JAYMES HALL, Conservation Agent with the Missouri Department of Conservation with details about their investigation into the recent shooting of a bald eagle Washington County. If anyone has information regarding the shooting, please call the toll-free Operation Game Thief hotline at 1-800-392-1111	8:40am	2/12/21	10 mins
Criminal justice	Jennifer & Wendy	JUDGE (Ret.) ANNETTE ECKERT with details about what the St. Clair County Teen Court has been trying to accomplish with methods like a 'peer jury'	11:35am	2/16/21	10 mins.

Utilities	The McGraw Show	SCOTT CARTER, the President of Spire Missouri, with details about how the new pipeline installed in the STL area has been a game-changing addition considering the struggles around the country with the cold weather.	7:10am	2/18/21	10 mins.
COVID-19	The McGraw Show	SENATOR JILL SCHUPP, Missouri State Senator representing the 24th district (west St. Louis suburban area), discusses what she has discovered with local COVID-19 vaccine distribution issues, plus other related issues to the handling of the pandemic	9:10am	2/24/21	16 mins.
Parks & trails	Jennifer & Wendy	EMMA KLUES, Great Rivers Greenway & KELLY HOGAN, featured “People of the Greenways”, commuting from Soulard to Crestwood, future Brickline Greenway project, Downtown Bike Station	11:35am	3/18/21	10 mins.
Conservation	The McGraw Show	BRIAN WALDROP, St. Louis Regional Stream Team Assistant, explains how volunteers improve the quality of our streams and rivers.	8:35am	3/19/21	9 mins.
Racism	Jennifer & Wendy	JUNNIE BAE, local student who attends Metro Academic and Classical Academy plus part of the Asian American Civic Scholars, discusses anti-Asian attitudes, the challenges with speaking up, and the hope that more will discover more of a cultural appreciation.	10:35am	3/22/21	11 mins.
Public health	Jennifer & Wendy	DR. ANNE CAHILL, SLUCare thoracic surgeon with SSM Health Saint Louis University Hospital with some very beneficial tips about improving heart health	10:35am	2/5/21	7 mins.
Tourism	The McGraw Show	BARRY DRAPER, with Explore St. Louis highlights plenty of examples to explore and celebrate the month.	7:35am	2/4/21	10 mins.
COVID-19	Jennifer & Wendy	DR. MICHAEL KINCH, Washington University Director of Center for Research Innovation in Business, and Professor of Radiation Oncology, School of Medicine as well as author with a revelation about his vaccine trial study, how long the vaccines needs to take effect, and dispelling rumors and theories about the vaccines	10:35am	2/3/21	16 mins.
Public health	The McGraw	DR. CRAIG REISS, MD, is a board-	7:35am	2/3/21	7 mins.

[illegible]