WTXF-FOX 29 Community Outreach and Involvement
First Quarter, 2024

COMMUNITY APPEARANCES:

Wednesday, January 24th – Mike Greenidge participated as a mentor in the KB Mentors & Partners annual KB Mentor Networking event in Philadelphia. KB Mentors & Partners' mission is to build the developmental and social competencies of adolescent youth in the Philadelphia area through educational, recreational, and hands-on learning experiences. Programming, led by committed mentors, provides activities that promote team building, healthy mind/body decision-making, community connectedness, conflict resolution, educational obtainment, and career exploration.

Wednesday, January 31st – Drew Anderson spoke to more than 50 fifth grade students and taught them the how's and why's of weather, while doing hands-on activities and demonstrations at Linden Elementary in Doylestown, PA.

Saturday, February 3rd- Cheyenne Corin served as a judge in the Miss WCU Pageant at her alma mater, West Chester University, in West Chester, PA. This was the 25th year of the scholarship event that highlights leadership, academic achievement, and service.

Sunday, February 4th - Chris O'Connell spoke to 50 CEOs and business owners at the Chester County Chamber of Commerce Board breakfast event in Malvern, PA.

Saturday, February 10th – Kathy Orr was mistress of ceremonies at the annual Samaritan Hospice “Celebration of Life” Gala in Cherry Hill, NJ.

Sunday, February 18th - Breland Moore spoke with accepted students at Temple University's Annenberg Hall to promote how Temple can help students achieve their dreams, as well as the broadcast industry and how students can get into the business. She also discussed what her day-to-day consists of and what she does at the station.

Tuesday, February 20th – Kathy Orr spoke about her career in broadcasting with students at Rowan College at Burlington County in Mt. Laurel, NJ.

Wednesday, February 21st – Sue Serio and her husband spoke at the Delaware County Press Club luncheon in Granite Run, PA. They spoke about navigating their relationship throughout the years of working in broadcasting, as well as the ups and downs of an interracial relationship.

Friday, February 23rd- Cheyenne Corin participated on a Black History Month panel at Simon Gratz High School in North Philadelphia. The panel was part of a day centered around exposing students to Black Sorority and Fraternity Organizations in college.

QUARTERLY LISTING OF ISSUES AND PROGRAMS

FIRST QUARTER, 2024

JANUARY - MARCH

WTFX-FOX 29
Philadelphia, PA

Summary of Major Issues Treated During the Quarter:

Business/Economy/Consumer – “Ya Gotta Try This” is a series of regular segments profiling area restaurants and eateries serving unique fare.

Education – “Kelly’s Classroom” is a regular segment in which Good Day Philadelphia Traffic Reporter Bob Kelly visits local schools to highlight unique programs and activities.

Minority/Ethnic – “Buying Black” is a regular segment profiling local businesses and services owned or managed by the African American community.

Public Health/Safety/Welfare – SOS: Save Our Streets is a station-wide initiative incorporating long and short-form programming and reports, public service announcements and social media/web resources addressing the historic increase in gun violence and tragic loss of life in Philadelphia and the surrounding area. As FOX 29 staff members who work and live in these impacted communities, we have a greater responsibility to assist in trying to make things better. The SOS initiative serves as an opportunity to engage and collaborate with community stakeholders, residents, ex-offenders and anyone trying to Save Our Streets. The stories and specials go deeper than just reporting the facts and explore the causes and potential solutions and allow for people most affected to have a voice.

Title: The 215

Issue: Culture; Business/Economy/Consumer; Environment

Description of program: FOX 29 “Good Day Philadelphia” co-host Mike Jerrick and sports anchor Breland Moore host “The 215” each week. “The 215” showcases the people, places, and things that make the Philadelphia area truly unique.

This week viewers meet some of the mermaids swimming in the Mermaid Festival at Adventure Aquarium in Camden, NJ. One local Afrocentric café in Philadelphia is using its menu to not only feed hungry customers, but to share a little bit of its history. Viewers get a behind the scenes look at the Penn Museum’s children’s programs, including itsUp Late with the Sphinx program. We meet a local chef using his love of cooking to inspire others, and an artist in Delaware combines two of his passions to create works of art: hip-hop and painting.
