

2016 WTXF (Phila., PA)
QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

FOR THE QUARTER:

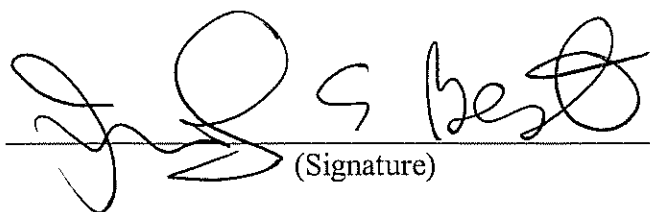

_____ January 1, 2016	through	March 31, 2016
 X  April 1, 2016	through	June 30, 2016
_____ July 1, 2016	through	September 30, 2016
_____ October 1, 2016	through	December 31, 2016

Attached hereto are descriptions of the treatment of local issues addressed by the station through programming, announcements or outreach during the report period.

The following pages indicate a listing of regularly scheduled programs and a listing of WTXF community outreach activities.

Programming addressing the educational/informational needs of children is listed separately in this file.

Submitted and placed in the public file by Jennifer Best, Community Affairs Director.

(Signature)

July 8, 2016

(Date)

WTXF (Phila. PA)

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

PROGRAM TYPE & EXPLANATION OF REGULARLY SCHEDULED PROGRAMS

FOX 29 Morning News / News -- Weekdays, 4 – 6am. This live program, produced by WTXF-TV, covers areas of national, regional, and local interests and routinely features in-depth treatment of local issues, including live guests and remote broadcasts throughout the program.

Good Day Philadelphia / News -- Weekdays, 6 – 10am; Weekends, 7 – 9am. This live program, produced by WTXF-TV, covers areas of national, regional, and local interests and routinely features in-depth treatment of local issues, including live guests and remote broadcasts throughout the program.

FOX 29 News at Five / News -- Weekdays, 5 - 6pm. In addition to coverage of fast-breaking news stories, this program routinely features in-depth, 1- to 2-minute treatment of local issues, produced by WTXF-TV.

FOX 29 News at Six / News – Weekdays, 6 - 6:30pm. In addition to coverage of fast-breaking news stories, this program routinely features in-depth, 1- to 2-minute treatment of local issues, produced by WTXF-TV.

FOX 29 News at Six / News – Saturdays and Sunday, 6 - 7pm. In addition to coverage of fast-breaking news stories, this program routinely features in-depth, 1- to 2-minute treatment of local issues, produced by WTXF-TV.

FOX 29 News at Ten / News -- Daily, 10 - 11pm. In addition to coverage of fast-breaking news stories, this program routinely features in-depth, 1- to 2-minute treatment of local issues, produced by WTXF-TV.

FOX News Sunday/ News -- Sundays, 9 - 10am. Produced by the FOX Network, this weekly news program, hosted by Chris Wallace, is broadcast live and covers issues of national interest. In addition to national stories, the program includes live guests and panelists covering a variety of national issues.

Chasing News / News – Weekdays, 12 – 12:30am - This daily news and public affairs program features various segments and stories focusing on headlines and issues affecting the New Jersey area, featuring reports by a group of correspondents known as "chasers".

WTXF-FOX 29 Community Outreach and Involvement
2nd Quarter, 2016

Talent Appearances:

Friday, April 1st – Sue Serio hosted the 9th Annual Media Film Festival in Media, PA.

Saturday, April 2nd – Joyce Evans received the 2016 Women of Excellence Award at the WDAS-FM Second Annual Women of Excellence Luncheon in Philadelphia.

Thursday, April 7th – Joyce Evans was keynote speaker at the Burlington County Principals and Supervisors Association's 28th Annual Academic Awards in Cinnaminson, NJ.

Sunday, April 10th – Sue Serio emceed the Delaware County SPCA's "Rescued on the Runway" luncheon in Media, PA.

Sunday, April 10th – Bob Kelly emceed Gwynedd Mercy University's Special Education Club's Alex Valeno Exceptional Persons 5k Walk/Run in Gwynedd Valley, PA.

Friday, April 15th – Chris O'Connell participated in Career Day at Crest Memorial School in Wildwood Crest, NJ.

Sunday, April 17th – Chris Murphy, Kathy Orr, Sue Serio and Dawn Timmeney represented FOX 29 at the Annual Dash for Organ and Tissue Donation Awareness in Philadelphia.

Sunday, April 17th – Alex Holley emceed the Alzheimer's Association's "Wine, Women and Shoes" event in East Norriton, PA.

Wednesday, April 20th – Alex Holley participated in United Way of Greater Philadelphia and Southern New Jersey Women's Leadership Initiative "W4 Twitter Lunchtime Chat."

Friday, April 22nd – Mike Jerrick emceed the Veterans Multi-Service Fashion Show in Philadelphia.

Tuesday, April 26th – Bob Kelly emceed at The Irish Pub Children's Foundation's "Gathering of Heroes" event in Philadelphia.

Wednesday, April 27th – Bob Kelly and Karen Hepp emceed the Bethesda Project's 19th Annual Gala and Auction in Philadelphia.

Thursday, April 28th – Bill Anderson emceed the Food Bank of South Jersey's "Food Bank Hunger Games" in Pennsauken, NJ.

Saturday, April 30th – Jennaphr Frederick was Grand Marshall for Family Lives on Foundation's "Race for Traditions" in Exton, PA.

Saturday, April 30th – Jennaphr Frederick emceed the Cure Duchenne's "Blingo" event in Philadelphia.

Saturday, April 30th – Jeff Cole, Bruce Gordon, Lucy Noland and Shawnette Wilson represented the station at the MS Walk to benefit the National Multiple Sclerosis Society in Philadelphia.

Sunday, May 1st – Steve Keeley emceed the MS Walk in Pennsauken, NJ.

Tuesday, May 3rd – Sue Serio emceed the AAA Mid-Atlantic Outstanding School Safety Patrol Recognition Luncheon in Philadelphia.

Tuesday, May 3rd – Bob Kelly emceed the Archdiocese of Philadelphia's Inaugural 2016 CAPS Awards at the Fillmore in Philadelphia.

Wednesday, May 4th – Bill Anderson participated in Career Day Fair at Penn's Grove Middle School in Oxford, PA.

Friday, May 6th – Bruce Gordon was a panelist for the 2016 Fulbright Enrichment seminar at the Institute of International Education in Philadelphia.

Sunday, May 15th – Sean Bell, Joyce Evans, Jennaphr Frederick, Quincy Harris, Alex Holley, Bob Kelly, Dave Schratwieser and Sue Serio represented the station at the Living Beyond Breast Cancer "Reach and Raise" yoga event in Philadelphia.

Sunday, May 15th – Dawn Timmeney emceed the "With Love: Super Adoption Day" event for Citizens for a No-Kill Philadelphia at the Piazza in Philadelphia.

Wednesday, May 18th – Kevin Schwab was a panelist for an architectural/interior design industry media access event in Lawrence, NJ.

Wednesday, May 18th – Jennaphr Frederick, Alex Holley and Bill Anderson were celebrity team captains at Philadelphia Phillie Carlos Ruiz's "Get in the Game" Bowling Tournament to benefit Philadelphia Futures in Philadelphia.

Thursday, May 19th – Bill Anderson was guest speaker at Lincoln Technical Institute's 46th graduation ceremony in Philadelphia.

Friday May 20th – Lucy Noland emceed the Saints of Valor Martial Ministry 7th Annual Law Enforcement awards ceremony in Philadelphia.

Saturday, May 21st – Bruce Gordon was master of ceremonies for the National Alliance on Mental Illness 5K Walk in Doylestown, PA.

Saturday, May 21st – Jennaphr Frederick emceed the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation "One Promise Gala: Racing to the Cure" in Philadelphia.

Thursday, May 26th – Alex Holley was a celebrity judge in MANNA's 4th Annual Guac-Off event at Morgan's Pier in Philadelphia.

Thursday, May 26th – Bob Kelly was a guest speaker at the Pennsylvania Day event at Quarry Hill Elementary School in Yardley, PA.

Wednesday, June 1ST - Kathy Orr played tennis to support the Ronald McDonald House at St. Martins Club House in Philadelphia.

Thursday, June 2ND - Jennifer Joyce spoke at Career Day at Cherry Hill High School in Cherry Hill, NJ.

Thursday, June 9th - Jennifer Joyce, Sue Serio, and Karen Hepp modeled in Career Wardrobe's "Hope on the Move" event in Philadelphia.

Wednesday, June 15th - Chris O'Connell moderated the Alzheimer's Association's "Safeguarding our Seniors" event in Philadelphia.

Thursday, June 16th - Mike Jerrick and Quincy Harris signed Lutheran Settlement House's "Pledge to End Gender Violence" outside the Fox29 studio.

Thursday, June 16th - Sue Serio emceed the "Tyler at Twilight" auction at Tyler Arboretum in Media, PA.

Friday, June 17th - Sue Serio participated in the Tara Miller Melanoma Foundation's annual "Make the Best of it" bash, at the Tropicana Casino Resort in Atlantic City, NJ.

Wednesday, June 22nd - Berlinda Garnett moderated the "Prep the Media" event at Philadelphia Fight Community Health Center's End AIDS Panel" at the PA Convention Center.

Thursday, June 23rd - Alex Holley was Mistress of Ceremonies for the 2016 PAL Scholarship Luncheon at the Union League in Philadelphia.

Station Tours

Monday, April 4th – Alexandra Rodriguez, News Intern, led a group of 30 students and teachers from Universal Audenried Charter High School's CTE Design Class.

Wednesday, April 27th – Megan Young, Human Resources, led a tour of students and teachers from Neumann University.

Tuesday, June 7th - Summer Sheeky, News Intern, led a station tour for Promise Academy from West Philadelphia.

Thursday, June 23rd - Madison Dishman, Community Affairs Intern, led a station tour for the Nicoletto family.

QUARTERLY LISTING OF ISSUES AND PROGRAMS

2nd QUARTER, 2016

April - June

WTXF-FOX 29
Philadelphia, PA

Summary of Major Issues Treated During the Quarter:

Business/Economy/Consumer – FOX 29 Gets Results for viewers who have been taken advantage of by local businesses or crooks and helps them get their money or products back.

Public Health/Safety/Welfare – FOX 29 Gets Results for viewers with unsafe situations in their homes or neighborhoods and helps them clean up or fix the problems.

Public Health/Safety/Welfare and Charity – Every Thursday morning, Good Day Philadelphia airs “FOX Fursday,” a segment featuring local charitable organizations that help rescue abandoned animals, and features animals available for adoption.

Business/Economy/Consumer Issues

04/19/16	10pm	6:13	A report about Angelo Valenti, a local builder accused of building homes with water damage.
04/20/16	10pm	3:37	A report about two men in Philadelphia who are selling marijuana edibles.
05/10/16	10pm	2:58	A report about Chick's Cheesesteaks of Cherry Hill, NJ, and its huge success.
05/20/16	10pm	2:15	A report on the reopening of Columbus Farmers Market in Columbus, NJ, after a fire burned down a significant portion of the shops.
06/06/16	6pm	1:47	A report on a Bridal Shoppe scamming a Wilmington, DE, woman for a wedding dress she never received.
06/30/16	10pm	1:39	A report on Pennsylvania fireworks sales for the 4th of July.
06/30/16	5pm	1:12	A report on the proposed New Jersey gas tax.
04/19/16	10pm	6:13	A report about Angelo Valenti, a local builder accused of building homes with water damage.
04/20/16	10pm	3:37	A report about two men in Philadelphia who are selling marijuana edibles.
05/10/16	10pm	2:58	A report about Chick's Cheesesteaks of Cherry Hill, NJ, and its huge success.
05/20/16	10pm	2:15	A report on the reopening of Columbus Farmers Market in Columbus, NJ, after a fire burned down a significant portion of the shops.
06/06/16	6pm	1:47	A report on a Bridal Shoppe scamming a Wilmington, DE, woman for a wedding dress she never received.
06/30/16	10pm	1:39	A report on Pennsylvania fireworks sales for the 4th of July.
06/30/16	5pm	1:12	A report on the proposed New Jersey gas tax.

Charity Issues

04/01/16	6pm	1:46	A report about students at Saint Joseph's the Protector High School who have dedicated the whole school year to helping families of cancer patients.
04/11/16	10pm	1:39	A report about the Ed Snider's Youth Hockey Foundation carrying on after his death.
04/11/16	6pm	1:32	A report about Core Creek Park in Bucks County having tons of homeless cats who need homes.
04/12/16	10pm	2:14	A report about Wawa donating 5 million dollars to the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia.
04/30/16	10pm	2:00	A report about a West Chester, PA, Church fighting to stop hunger.
05/03/16	10pm	1:35	A report on a man who is raising money to go to the Taekwondo World Championship.
05/06/16	6pm	1:46	A report on "Superhero Day" at a local elementary to support Aidan, a third grade student battling brain cancer.
05/21/16	6pm	2:00	A report on the Mayfair Fallen Heroes Run to honor Philadelphia Fire Lieutenant Robert Neary.
05/25/16	6pm	1:58	A report on a Horse Rescue and Rehabilitation Farm in Kennett Square, PA.
06/01/16	5pm	1:56	A report about a woman who marched 80 miles near Trenton, NJ, to raise awareness about mental illness.
06/05/16	10pm	1:44	A report on the Congenital Heart Walk in Newtown Square, PA.
06/17/16	6pm	1:45	A report about a local Father's Day walk fundraiser in Glenside, PA.
06/20/16	6pm	2:08	A report about local food banks and how they need extra support in the summer months.
06/26/16	5pm	1:42	A report about the Trick Triathlon in Philadelphia.
06/28/16	10pm	1:41	A report on CHOP's Best Friends Bash at University of Pennsylvania's Veterinary Hospital.
06/30/16	10pm	2:00	A report on a Quakertown, PA, rescue pig.

Civic Issues

04/05/16	10pm	1:27	A report about the formation of an anti-violence coalition in West Philadelphia
04/07/16	10pm	0:12	A report about the plans for Philadelphia's victory parade for the national champion Villanova University Men's basketball team.
04/11/16	5pm	1:20	A report about the death of Philadelphia Flyers owner Ed Snider at age 83.
04/16/16	10pm	1:52	A report about Philadelphia's 9th annual Philly Spring Clean up.
04/21/16	5pm	1:42	A report about the memorial service for Philadelphia Flyers owner Ed Snider at the Wells Fargo Center.
05/01/16	10pm	1:35	A report on the funeral of a 16-year-old girl who died in a fight in the bathroom of Howard High School in Wilmington, DE.
05/08/16	10pm	1:27	A report on the ten-year anniversary of the death of Camden, NJ, Police Officer Gary Skerksi.
05/10/16	6pm	1:35	A report on the Philadelphia Police removing the requirement that applicants have two years of college or military experience, in order to get more people to join the police force.
05/12/16	10pm	1:59	A report on a memorial for a man shot and killed by the police in Wilmington, DE.
05/14/16	6pm	2:38	A report on the Mayor of Philadelphia, Philadelphia police officers, and young men from Cobbs Creek meeting to discuss their futures and feelings toward the police.
05/18/16	10pm	1:32	A report on a vigil to honor the lives of three Bridgeton High School Students that died in car accidents in the past two weeks.
05/20/16	10pm	1:43	A report on 23-year-old Gabby Camacho, the first member of the K-9 unit in the Camden County, NJ, Police.
05/20/16	6pm	1:37	A report on 15-year old Brandon Wingo who was shot and killed just blocks from Howard Technical High School in Wilmington, DE. This incident incited a rally to end violence and police brutality in Wilmington, DE.
05/28/16	6pm	2:00	A report on the veterans honored in Camden County, NJ.
05/30/16	10pm	1:46	A report on the Philadelphia Phillies honoring veterans.
05/30/16	5pm	1:44	A report on the memorial for Beau Biden in New Castle, DE.
06/08/16	10pm	1:19	A report on the protest of the proposed Philadelphia soda tax.
06/11/16	6pm	2:08	A report on a "Stop the Violence" march in Chester, PA.
06/13/16	10pm	1:55	A report on an LGBT candlelight vigil in Philadelphia for the Orlando Shooting victims.
06/15/16	10pm	1:26	A report on a vigil for a Philadelphia resident who lost her life in the Orlando Shooting.
06/16/16	6pm	1:45	A report about protests due to the Soda Tax being passed in Philadelphia.
06/17/16	5pm	1:38	A report about controversy arising because a Confederate flag was hung in Harrisburg, PA.

Crime Issues

04/01/16	10pm	1:37	A report about Wilmington police calling for a ceasefire after the city experienced several murders in a short time span.
04/05/16	10pm	1:34	A report about a woman who was robbed while walking in the Queen Village neighborhood of Philadelphia.
04/13/16	5pm	1:17	A report about an 8th grade girl stabbing another student at Cooke Middle School.
04/14/16	5pm	7:30	A report about how the heroin epidemic is affecting people in our viewing area. A local woman found her pregnant daughter dead from heroin, and now is raising the baby.
04/14/16	5pm	2:02	A report about an autistic student in New Jersey who got beat up at school.
04/15/16	10pm	2:02	A report about a man who saved a quadriplegic man left by his mother in Cobbs Creek Park to die.
04/18/16	6pm	1:02	A report about group of kids beating up random people in West Philadelphia.
04/19/16	5pm	1:11	A report about a women getting attacked on Frankford Avenue in Philadelphia.
04/24/16	10pm	1:15	A report on Philadelphia Police Commissioner Richard Ross' impressions on the crime problem in Philadelphia.
04/25/16	10pm	1:28	A report about a man shot and killed during a church service in North Wales, PA.
04/27/16	6pm	1:29	A report about multiple cars being broken into in Havertown, PA.
04/28/16	6pm	2:00	A report about Darby Township, PA, police arresting multiple heroin dealers.
05/02/16	10pm	5:12	A report on the Pagan Motorcycle Club VP, Robert Gray, violating bail after kidnapping a former Pagan member for ransom.
05/02/16	6pm	1:54	A report about Sugar, a cat shot by a police officer in Northampton County, PA, last year.
05/03/16	12pm	1:34	A report on a robbery that was set up using Craigslist.
05/03/16	5pm	1:35	A report on six cars that were broken into on the 53 hundred block of Howard Street in Philadelphia.
05/04/16	5pm	1:38	A report on a man who was fatally shot by an undercover cop in his minivan in Overbrook Farms, PA.
05/05/16	10pm	1:18	A report on a road rage incident on the Blue Route in Philadelphia.
05/07/16	6pm	1:29	A report on money stolen from a Morris Animal Refuge's table at the Rittenhouse Square Flower Market.
05/11/16	10pm	1:25	A report about a Hispanic man on a bike inappropriately groping a woman near Washington Square Park in Philadelphia.
05/11/16	10pm	1:02	A report about Stephanie Mayweather of Mullica Hill, NJ, who stole $15,000 from Philadelphia's East Division Crime Victim Services during her time as the executive director from 2010 to 2013.
05/12/16	10pm	2:00	A report on stolen tires in Berks County, PA.
05/16/16	10pm	1:30	A report on an increase in car break-ins in the 35th Police District of Philadelphia.
05/18/16	6pm	1:31	A report about a woman who was followed to her Upper Darby, PA, home from a casino in Chester, PA, where she had just won $7,000. The man that followed her robbed her but police caught him shortly after.
05/25/16	10pm	1:26	A report on an increase in fights in Upper Darby, PA.
05/25/16	10pm	6:20	A report on a group of professional thieves that have robbed businesses in Southern NJ, Delaware, Philadelphia, the Main Line in PA, and King of Prussia, PA.
05/27/16	10pm	1:50	A report on Lonnie Bostic, the 80-year-old food truck owner who was hit and killed by a car in West Philadelphia.

05/29/16	10pm	1:46	A report on animal abuse in Chester, PA.
06/09/16	10pm	1:00	A report on a stabbing on the Schuylkill River Trail in Philadelphia.
06/13/16	6pm	1:44	A report on local victims from the Orlando Shooting.
06/14/16	10pm	1:39	A report on a robber who impersonates a fireman to penetrate people's homes and businesses.
06/14/16	6pm	1:52	A report on a Fox29 intern who survived the Orlando Shooting.
06/16/16	10pm	1:36	A report about Chester, PA, police treating residents inhumanely.
06/21/16	6pm	1:31	A report about Fox29 Intern, Patience Carter, and the Orlando shooting.
06/24/16	5pm	1:41	A report about a SEPTA driver chasing and taking down a dangerous man in Philadelphia.
06/25/16	6pm	1:43	A report about the growing violence issues on the Schuylkill River Trail in West Philadelphia.
06/29/16	5pm	1:31	A report on a serial bank robber who has been hitting the Pennsylvania area since 2012.
06/30/16	5pm	1:31	A report on stolen bikes at a Philadelphia gas station.

Culture Issues

04/15/16	5pm	1:42	A report about a USA Today survey that ranks a Pittsburgh cheesesteak shop over ones in Philadelphia.
05/04/16	5pm	3:10	A report about a stranded peacock in a Philadelphia suburb that locals have adopted into their community.
05/23/16	10pm	1:32	A report on the Wish Wall started by Simonetta Lein in South Philadelphia.
06/27/16	6pm	1:10	A report about Philadelphia kicking off the 4th of July weekend with the Annual Welcome America festivities.

Disabled Issues

04/04/16	5pm	1:41	A report about a local girl with down syndrome who was accepted into the only college she applied to.
04/22/16	10pm	2:18	A report about Saint Joseph's University hosting a prom for kids with Autism.
05/03/16	5pm	1:40	A report on a wounded marine with one eye and one hand who hikes and has his own business.
05/12/16	10pm	4:45	A report on the Sunshine Foundation's annual 1-day trip to Disney World for special needs children from Trenton, NJ.
05/19/16	6pm	1:55	A report on a mother who entered a contest to get a handicapped accessible van for her handicapped son in Northeast Philadelphia.
05/20/16	6pm	1:47	A report on the Garnet Valley Invitational Track and Field event in Delaware for special needs students.
05/23/16	5pm	1:54	A report on Gordy Baylinson, an autistic and nonspeaking boy, who wrote a letter to the Montgomery County, PA, police about what it is like to be autistic.
06/02/16	5pm	1:48	A report on Philadelphia company Axalta Engineering's new battery operated car designed for children with disabilities.

Education Issues

04/06/16	10pm	1:48	A report about Temple University's new policy cracking down on under-age drinking and students trashing the neighborhood.
04/08/16	5pm	2:10	A report about the conflict in New Jersey about a new law proposal banning consensual sex between teachers and any aged student.
05/05/16	5pm	1:13	A report about Rachel, a Temple graduate who was finally able to walk in graduation, more than a year after a car accident left her in a coma.
05/05/16	5pm	1:36	A report on Steven, who will graduate this month from Broom Trail High School with twelve years of perfect attendance.
05/24/16	10pm	1:52	A report on a school meeting about the grading system in Central Bucks School System of PA.
06/03/16	10pm	1:50	A report on the success of Cristo Rey High School in Philadelphia.
06/07/16	10pm	1:29	A report on Upper Darby, PA, High School's drum line.

Environmental Issues

05/10/16	10pm	1:20	A report about the extreme amount of caterpillars in the West Torresdale, Philadelphia, neighborhood.
05/14/16	6pm	1:36	A report on 10,000 Gambusia fish being released into Gloucester County, NJ, lakes and ponds to eat mosquito larvae and protect people against the Zika virus.
05/30/16	5pm	1:22	A report on the deplorable state of New Jersey beaches following the Memorial Day weekend.
06/05/16	10pm	1:17	A report on extreme weather in Gloucester County, NJ.

Family Issues

05/08/16	6pm	1:27	A report on mothers who visit other mothers whose children have cancer at the Cancer Research Medical Center.
05/22/16	6pm	1:34	A report on Karen Frager and Lonnie Brown, who finally married in South Philadelphia after 16 years of dating. Lonnie was diagnosed with terminal colon cancer but survived the odds.
05/31/16	10pm	1:20	A report on the Safe Harbor red carpet event hosted by Abington Hospital for kids and teens who have lost a parent or sibling.

Government Issues

04/05/16	5pm	1:37	A report about the controversy surrounding the Gloucester County, NJ, Borough Seal over the separation of church and state.
04/07/16	5pm	1:59	A report about Hillary Clinton having a 25% lead over Bernie Sanders so far in the Pennsylvania Primary Elections.
04/08/16	10pm	2:00	A report about Atlantic City, NJ, officials not having enough money to pay police and fire department.
04/22/16	6pm	1:53	A report about presidential candidate Bernie Sanders' visit to the Sharon Community Center in West Philadelphia.
05/11/16	10pm	5:40	A FOX 29 Investigates report on the Philadelphia Water Department throwing a send-off party for a longtime employee while employees in attendance were on the clock.
05/16/16	10pm	1:31	A report on open containers of alcoholic beverages permitted on the Atlantic City Boardwalk this summer.
05/03/16	5pm	2:07	A report on a woman who has to prove she is alive after the government put her social security number on a deceased list.
05/11/16	6pm	1:27	A report on Hillary Clinton campaigning for the NJ Primary at Camden County College.
05/15/16	10pm	2:03	A report on US VP Joe Biden and Republican presidential candidate Donald Trump at the University of Pennsylvania's graduation.
05/16/16	10pm	1:36	A report on 2nd District Representative, Chaka Fattah's federal trial.
06/07/16	10pm	1:34	A report on liquor license reform in Pennsylvania.
06/07/16	5pm	1:30	A report on the New Jersey Primaries.
06/08/16	5pm	1:30	A report on the New Jersey Primary results.

Health & Medical Issues

04/25/16	10pm	0:50	A report about Herrington family disease and a run to raise awareness of the disease.
04/30/16	10pm	1:30	A report about meditation and how Philadelphia Phillies players use it in their training.
05/02/16	5pm	1:41	A report on Tara Miller, a young woman who lost her life to melanoma that evolved into more deadly forms of cancer in her brain, lungs, and lymph nodes.
05/03/16	5pm	1:35	A report on a man in need of kidney transplant who advertised on a billboard in New Castle, DE.
05/05/16	10pm	3:50	A report on a cookbook made specifically for people with sickle cell anemia.
05/09/16	10pm	4:34	A report about Narcan kits that help save people who have overdosed on heroin.
05/09/16	5pm	1:38	A report on Vinny, a little boy who grew out and donated his hair to Locks of Love to help kids with cancer. Then he was diagnosed with cancer.
05/18/16	10pm	4:30	A report on using leeches as an alternate treatment for various diseases and medical problems.
05/19/16	10pm	8:30	A report on Fox29 reporter Chris O'Connell, his loss of vision and how that led to the discovery of a serious cardiac issues.
05/24/16	10pm	4:45	A report on the birth of a "miracle baby" at CHOP in Philadelphia.
05/26/16	5pm	3:44	A report on new oral allergy drops.
05/27/16	10pm	1:25	A report on students from William Penn Middle School in PA, who had to be hospitalized due to heat-related illnesses after a field trip out in the heat.
06/01/16	5pm	1:23	A report about a New Jersey baby being the first case of a baby born with the Zika virus in the U.S.

Military Issues

04/12/16	10pm	1:59	A report about a soldier coming to surprise his son on his 6th birthday at school.
05/14/16	6pm	1:38	A report on Scott Needham, who participates in "Boss Lift" every year in Fort Dix, PA, to experience what his veteran employees had to go through in their military training.
05/29/16	10pm	1:52	A report on ceremonies honoring the US Navy.

Minority/Ethnic Issues

05/03/16	6pm	1:29	A report on "Black Family Day" at Mill Creek Park and the controversy over the name of the event.
05/08/16	6pm	3:26	A report on Former NJ Governor Jim McGreevy's life following his announcement that he is gay.
05/24/16	6pm	1:49	A report on members of the greater Philadelphia Gay Officer Action Lead to be the Grand Marshalls at the Philadelphia LGBT Pride Parade.
06/12/16	6pm	1:34	A report on the emotions at Philadelphia's "Pride Parade" after the recent Orlando shooting.

Public Health/Safety/Welfare Issues

04/02/16	6pm	1:32	A report about a woman who was found dead after firefighters responded to a fire in her home.
04/06/16	10pm	1:28	A report about the West Mill Creek Recreation Center in West Philly being outdated, unusable, and unsafe.
04/14/16	10pm	1:26	A report about training runners to deter crime on the Schuylkill River Trail.
04/26/16	5pm	1:33	A report about a dog being walked next to a car while the owner drives the car.
04/27/16	6pm	1:40	A report about the government using money to find a cure for Zika virus.
04/28/16	10pm	3:58	A report about how dark-skinned people are just as likely to get skin cancer as fair skinned people, and how they can protect themselves.
04/29/16	10pm	1:24	A report about warmer weather bringing more crime to Philadelphia.
05/01/16	10pm	1:35	A report about a bear sighting in Bensalem, PA.
05/10/16	10pm	1:32	A report about an active shooter seminar in Gloucester Township, NJ.
05/10/16	5pm	1:19	A report about a dog that ate marijuana and had to go to the ER to be treated. The veterinarian says he sees more of these incidents since marijuana became legal.
05/11/16	10pm	3:31	A report on an experiment with kids and guns, demonstrating that half of the kids are not properly informed about gun safety.
05/16/16	10pm	4:40	A report on the heroin overdose that killed Steven Schmicke and how it is affecting his family.
05/18/16	6pm	2:11	A report on the vulture infestation in West Philadelphia.
05/25/16	6pm	1:38	A report on the contaminated water wells in Willow Grove, PA.
05/26/16	5pm	1:18	A report on banning smoking on New Jersey beaches.
06/02/16	6pm	1:07	A report on a fire in a Philadelphia apartment complex consisting of mostly disabled and elderly residents.
06/03/16	6pm	1:41	A report on New Jersey police's crack down on DUIs.
06/04/16	10pm	1:47	A report about animal rescuers finding an alligator in the basement of a Philadelphia home.
06/08/16	10pm	1:46	A report on a vast clean up needed after a storm wrecked the grounds at a country club in Cinnaminson, NJ.
06/19/16	6pm	2:26	A report about how dangerous Roosevelt Boulevard is and how many pedestrians have died on this North Philadelphia road.
06/21/16	10pm	1:46	A report about a storm that did a lot of damage in Cape May, NJ.
06/28/16	5pm	1:47	A report on IKEA recalling a dresser after it killed a West Chester, PA, two-year-old.
06/29/16	10pm	2:10	A report on a sinkhole in Berks County, PA.
06/29/16	6pm	1:54	A report on increased drug abuse in Philadelphia neighborhoods.

Recreation Issues

04/04/16	5pm	1:38	A report about local fans traveling to Houston, TX, to watch Villanova University in the NCAA Men's basketball championship game.
04/10/16	6pm	2:05	A report about the success of the Philly Love half marathon.
04/11/16	6pm	1:28	A report about Opening Day at Citizens Bank Park for the Philadelphia Phillies.
04/29/16	5pm	1:50	A report about the success of the Broad Street Run in Philadelphia.
05/01/16	6pm	1:49	A report about the rainy 37th Annual Broad Street Run in Philadelphia.
05/05/16	6pm	2:08	A report on half of the Community Garden in West Philadelphia in jeopardy of being sold.
05/18/16	5pm	1:40	A report on Fresco, a new phone app used by Fox 29 to collect video for use in the newscast. The report profiles Durrell, a student from West Philadelphia, who loves to shoot video, and how he gets paid if he shoots something Fox29 uses.
05/19/16	5pm	1:45	A report on the extension of the city nightlife curfew during the Democratic National Convention in Philadelphia.
05/26/16	10pm	1:44	A report about Memorial Day weekend festivities at the New Jersey shore.
05/27/16	10pm	1:40	A report on the Summerfest Kick-Off at Spruce Street Harbor Park in Philadelphia.
05/28/16	10pm	1:54	A report on Philadelphia's first Memorial Day concert.
06/05/16	10pm	1:31	A report on the delay of the start of the Beyoncé concert due to extreme weather.

Technology Issues

05/02/16	10pm	1:50	A report on Tayja, a girl whose prom picture went viral on Facebook with negative comments.
----------	------	------	---

Transportation Issues

04/03/16	10pm	1:19	A report about the troubled history and recent problems of Amtrak.
04/03/16	6pm	1:11	A report about a fatal Amtrak derailment between 30th Street Station in Philadelphia and Delaware County, PA.
04/08/16	5pm	1:59	A report about a man traveling from Las Vegas to NJ being kicked off the plane for being too large.
05/06/16	10pm	1:25	A report on the heavy rains affecting traffic and roadways.
05/12/16	5pm	3:50	A report on Bob Hewitt, a survivor of the 2015 Amtrak derailment.
05/12/16	5pm	1:05	A report on the anniversary of the Amtrak derailment in Philadelphia.
05/15/16	5pm	2:03	A report on the Amtrak derailment and what safety improvements have been made since the accident a year ago.
05/18/16	10pm	1:38	A report on the troubles construction is causing South Philadelphia residents.
05/24/16	10pm	1:19	A report on a Septa shutdown in Philadelphia.
06/06/16	10pm	1:33	A report on a dangerous pothole in Richboro, PA.

Women's Issues

05/24/16	10pm	1:37	A report about a mother asked to breastfeed outside after nursing her son in a Limerick, PA, YMCA class.
----------	------	------	--

Youth Issues

04/13/16	5pm	1:47	A report about "Men of Mitchel," a club in which teen boys mentor other boys in South Philadelphia.
05/14/16	5pm	2:13	A report about Jolie Pastorick, a local 7-year old girl who is one of the best Junior Golfers in the US.
05/17/16	10pm	3:33	A report on 7-year old Shane Popiny, who suffered a stroke at birth and is now training for her first triathlon.
05/17/16	5pm	1:00	A report on Dominic, an 8-year-old boy with a brain tumor from Doylestown, PA, and the support he is receiving from professional athletes and his community.
05/31/16	6pm	1:58	A report on 5-year-old Dominic Masciantonio, who was named an honorary Deputy US Marshal for protecting his sister so well in her fight against cancer.
06/29/16	10pm	1:32	A report on a girl's long journey back to health after she was shot nearly a year ago in Philadelphia.

WTXF-TV PROGRAM INFORMATION REPORT

Program Title:

____ FOX News Sunday

 X Chasing News

____ Other:

Air Date/Time:

Weekdays, 12midnight

Format:

____ Animated
____ Live Action
 X Taped

Program Type:

____ Public Affairs
 X News
____ Other

Origination:

____ WTXF-TV
 X Other Local ____ FOX/Network
____ Syndicated

Length: 60minutes X 30minutes 15minutes 2minutes
 60seconds 30seconds 20seconds Other

Title: Chasing News

Issue: Various

Description of program:

This daily news and public affairs program features various segments and stories focusing on headlines and issues affecting the New Jersey area, featuring reports by a group of correspondents known as "chasers".

See attached program synopses for topics, guests, panelists, and issues addressed.

Guests (if applicable):

Name & Title
See attached

Organization
See attached

City/State
See attached

WTFX- TV / Second Quarter 2016 Chasing News Issues/Programs List

Date: April 1, 2016

Time: 2:31

ISSUES: Community

HOLLYWOOD ON THE BOARDWALK - RED CARPET

Chasing News teamed up with NJ 101.5 for the 2016 Garden State Film Festival. Bill Spadea broadcast live from Bar One at the Resorts Casino in Atlantic City. Special guests like the festival's founder, Diane Raver, Executive Director Margaret Fontana & even Atlantic City Mayor Don Guardian came by to talk about the festival and even step onto the Chasing News Red Carpet! The Garden State Film Festival takes place at Resorts Casino from March 31 to April 3.

Date: April 1, 2016

Time: 2:59

ISSUES: Community

THE LIL' HONDA THAT COULD!

How many miles are on your car's odometer? Bet it doesn't have as many as a car recently turned into Planet Honda in Union, NJ. The dealership just received a 1990 Honda Accord Coupe that's been driven more than 1,000,000 miles! Management has no intention of selling the 26-year-old vehicle. Instead, they plan on displaying it in their showroom for all to see!

Date: April 1, 2016

Time: 3:14

ISSUES: Community

YES, WE HAVE NO STRIPPERS TODAY

Two business owners on Long Island are accusing the Town of Hempstead of using zoning laws to crush their entrepreneurial dreams. Strip club owners Rori Gordon and Billy Dean bought a building in 2009 in Wantagh, hoping to open an upscale "Las Vegas" style cabaret restaurant. Five years later, the restaurant continues to sit empty. They've been denied a certificate of occupancy because Hempstead passed a zoning law requiring new restaurants to have windows on all sides the building. Gordon and Dean believe the town is holding their current jobs as strip club owners against them, and passed this law to keep them from opening their restaurant.

Date: April 1, 2016

Time: 2:21

ISSUES: Community

AUTISM SPEAKS

Saturday April 2nd is World Autism Awareness Day, where people around the world will "Light up Blue," and wear blue, to raise autism awareness. April is also the last month for students with autism to apply for the Making a Difference for Autism Scholarship which 28-year-old Kerry Magro started 4 years ago. Magro, who is autistic, said he started the scholarship after graduating Seton Hall University.

Date: April 1, 2016

Time: 3:22

ISSUES: Community

SUIT DREAMS

Villanova Head Men's Basketball Coach Jay Wright is a dapper dude. His sartorial style has been the talk of the NCAA Tournament for years so we had to ask: where does he get those suits? Ashley Johnson met with Wright's tailor Gabriele D'Annunzio at D&B Tailors in Newtown Square, PA. She asked D'Annunzio what suit he predicts Wright will wear during Villanova's Final Four game against Oklahoma. Custom suits start at $2,500 and up.

Date: April 4, 2016

Time: 3:54

ISSUES: Community

WEATHER ALERT: TREE DOWN

Winds ripped across the region on Sunday, topping 70 mph in places. They blew hard enough in Millville to knock a tree into some power lines, which arched and set the Mount Pleasant United Methodist Church on fire. Pastor John Mitchell surveyed the remains on Monday. The National Weather Service blamed a cold front that's moving through the Northeast. Temperatures were expected to plummet below freezing Monday night with a strong chance of rain in Central New Jersey.

Date: April 4, 2016

Time: 3:19

ISSUES: Community

ONE HOUR BEAUTY!

Cosmetic surgery is soaring across the United States as procedures become more desired by a younger crowd. In 2015, nearly 13 million surgical and minimally invasive procedures took place. That's a 20% increase from the year before with procedures like Botox and fillers making up a significant portion. Doctors say much of the drive right now is from younger women who are looking to prevent wrinkles before they form.

Date: April 4, 2016

Time: 2:52

ISSUES: Homeland Security

IN LINE FOR TERROR?

In the wake last month's terror attacks in Brussels hat targeted an airport ticketing line; security was visibly enhanced at U.S. airports. But this was just a temporary solution, and in the days since there have been calls to extend the security perimeter to the airport's door. Anthony C. Roman, a former corporate pilot who works on counter-terror strategy for his firm Roman & Associates, has a solution that would have a larger impact on the way travelers get to and from the airport. He advocates vehicle screenings before anyone even gets onto airport property, so that explosives or weapons can be detected before they are even near the large amounts of people who cluster at the ticketing counters and security lines.

Date: April 4, 2016

Time: 3:20

ISSUES: Government/Politics

IS TRUMP HYPNOTIZING US?

A world-renowned hypnotist is saying there is a special kind of mass hypnosis taking place and it's called Trumpnosis. The term, coined been Richard Barker, describes the type of mass persuasion and mass influence taking place. According to Richard, a certified hypnotherapist based in Orlando, Trumpnosis is the act of sowing the seeds of persuasion, suggestion and ideas.

Date: April 4, 2016

Time: 3:02

ISSUES: Community

THE MYSTERY OF THE ANIMAL TREE

A tree grows in Brooklyn. And grows, and grows, and grows. For the past 7 years, Eugene Fellner has been adorning the tree with over 1,200 stuffed animals. The tree in Fellner's yard in the Bergen Beach section is brimming with bears that the retired Fellner curates each day.

Date: April 4, 2016

Time: 1:56

ISSUES: Community / Economy / Government/Politics

WHAT'S HAPPENING IN ATLANTIC CITY?

As Atlantic City ticks down to insolvency, the gamesmanship in Trenton has only intensified. Governor Chris Christie unexpectedly called a Monday afternoon press conference to announce his administration is suing Atlantic City's government to force it to place millions of dollars in property tax revenue into the school district. But Atlantic City Mayor Don Guardian said his city makes those payments when and how a state monitor appointed by Christie tells him to. Meanwhile, Assembly Speaker Vincent Prieto said he will still hold back on sending a state takeover bill to the floor as long as the legislation allows an emergency manager to tear up union contracts. Meanwhile, Atlantic City will be fully out of cash in June, Guardian said, and any state rescue is still caught in a logjam between Christie and Prieto.

Date: April 5, 2016

Time: 1:24

ISSUES: Community / Health / Government/Politics

CHRISTIE GETS THE LEAD OUT

Nearly a month after 30 public schools in Newark cut off their drinking water because of high levels of lead, Governor Chris Christie has announced New Jersey will spend $10 million for a remediation program for low and moderate income households. This comes just before Michelle Obama's visit to Newark's Philip's Academy Charter School on Thursday to promote health and gardening. Christie said he does not know if the first lady will talk about the lead problem.

Date: April 5, 2016

Time: 3:09

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

I'M AFRAID TO SHOW MY TRUMP

Trump supporters at NYU have gone underground because much fear that they'll be called racist and be reprimanded not just by their peers, but by professors who they say could destroy their GPAs. Sibile chased this to NYU where she met with members of the NYU College Republicans. Dylan Pereira made national headlines by appearing on "FOX & Friends" Monday morning and declared his support for Trump.

Date: April 5, 2016

Time: 3:54

ISSUES: Community

HEAVY METAL THUNDER

Guitar riffs peal through thin walls down the long hallways at Old Bridge Music. Alex Peregrine of Baelfire says it's a labor of love. His bandmates nod in agreement, and prepare to run through "Someway" for a third time. Baelfire, which also features 16-year-old twins Donna and Nicky Unverrecht on bass and vocals and Steven Rago on drums, represents the new generation of rock band in Old Bridge, a town with considerable rock history. Times have changed, but the relationships forged through those years remain solid, for the most part. The Militia, through an attorney friend, has formed a charity through which they're giving back to music. It's called the Old Bridge Militia Foundation, and they raise money for kids who want to learn music but are having difficulty paying for lessons.

Date: April 5, 2016

Time: 3:04

ISSUES: Community / Children/Youth / Education

DON'T HIT ME, BRO!

A video was released showing a teacher's aide in the New York City public school system punching an 11-year-old autistic boy in the head. The family has hired an attorney to sue the attacker, the City of New York and the Department of Education of the City of New York. By all accounts, the attacker does not regret the incident.

Date: April 5, 2016

Time: 3:13

ISSUES: Community

WHO KILLED KURT COBAIN?

On April 5, 1994, the remarkable and often painful life of 27-year-old Kurt Cobain ended with what officials have said was a suicide. In the two decades since, fans, conspiracy theorists, and observers have not accepted that the grunge god died from a self-inflicted gunshot wound from a shotgun, choosing instead to believe he was murdered. Possible suspects have included everyone from his then-wife Courtney Love to hit men. Now, Joe Giacalone, former commander of the Bronx Cold Case Squad for the NYPD, is on the case. Giacalone, who believes the evidence available, does indicate Cobain killed himself, hopes to put conspiracy theories to rest. But he also wants to show investigators that a rush to judgment, even if ultimately proved correct, can spark decades of conspiracy talk.

Date: April 5, 2016

Time: 2:33

ISSUES: Community

THE DIVIEST DIVE BAR

Chasing News went on the hunt for the best dive bars in Manhattan and came up with a few great staples. From Johnny's Bar in Greenwich Village to Rudy's in Hell's Kitchen, each place has something for everyone. Each neighborhood staple is open for business seven days a week. We came up with a winner in this borough but the bigger search continues.

Date: April 6, 2016

Time: 2:56

ISSUES: Community

TEANECK'S TURKEY TERROR

Another wild turkey incident has gone down in New Jersey, and this time it prompted a big response. A news conference was held in Teaneck Tuesday to discuss options for dealing with the encroaching wildlife. The resulting measure is to offer noisemakers to local residents to scare the birds away.

Date: April 6, 2016

Time: 2:39

ISSUES: Community

PUPPIES IN PERIL

A North Jersey owner of multiple puppy shops called Just Pups could face jail time and a heavy fine of $100,000 for animal cruelty charges. We first chased the story to East Brunswick where the Just Pups was shut down by NJSPCA in February after three dogs were reportedly found dead in a freezer. A sign still reads "Healthy, Happy Puppies" but is vacant inside. Owner Vincent LoSacco took to YouTube on the defense. Now he's facing more trouble this time at his Paramus location. Paramus Police released photos after rescuing 67 puppies abandoned in a van behind the shop Monday. Police say the pups were left in the cold, starved, and covered in their own feces. Volunteers with Bergen County Protect and Rescue Foundation are outraged. There's an online petition with more than 160,000 signatures for Just Pups to shut down.

Date: April 6, 2016

Time: 2:45

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics / Economy

THE BATTLE OF ATLANTIC CITY

Governor Chris Christie's schedule said he had come down to Atlantic City to meet with County Executive Dennis Levinson. Levinson indeed met privately with the Governor, discussing the possibility of the county running the city's health department or even the water utility in the event of a state takeover. But a side benefit for the Governor was the chance to bash one of his chief nemeses in the battle to takeover Atlantic City Mayor Don Guardian in the Mayor's own town, just steps away from City Hall. Christie repeatedly attacked the management and character of the mayor, a fellow Republican, who has become an obstacle to the Governor's plans for a takeover of the gaming resort town which is facing a financial meltdown within days without necessary aid.

Date: April 6, 2016

Time: 2:36

ISSUES: Government/Politics / Community

WHEELIE BAD BOYS

Mayor de Blasio and the NYPD have declared war on ATV riders who terrorize NYC streets. The Mayor and the NYPD's plan are supposed to happen sometime in the spring though they have not said where and when. It is not legal to ride dirt bikes and ATVs on city streets and riders are known to do jaw-dropping moves on city highways. Sibile spoke to dirt bike legend Albert Elkerson, who has been riding dirt bikes for 35 years and invented many of the moves seen in videos. Elkerson does not want ATV riders to be at war with the NYPD. He would like to work with the Mayor to build more dirt bike parks throughout NYC so riders don't have to use city streets.

Date: April 6, 2016

Time: 3:04

ISSUES: Community

SEAL OF DISAPPROVAL

Clayton Borough in NJ is being urged by the Freedom from Religion Foundation to change its seal because the seal portrays a Latin cross and the motto "A Good Place to Live and Play Work and Pray." The FFRF wrote a letter to the borough last year referring to a constitutional violation occurring in Clayton. As of now, there is no lawsuit. The FFRF sent another request to remove the seal in March 2016.

Date: April 6, 2016

Time: 2:50

ISSUES: Government/Politics

SOMEBODY TAKE HIS TWITTER AWAY!

Social media is a game changer this election season. After all, how else could the man with the smallest campaign budget is leading the Republican race for president? Donald Trump has 7.4 million Twitter followers and more than 6.4 million likes on Facebook. Altogether, it's estimated that his social media presence has given him at least $383 million in free publicity. But, experts say his Twitter following may not lead to votes. Instead, CEO of WebiMax Ken Wisnefski tells Chasing News that Trump's pointed statements have people watching for entertainment.

Date: April 7, 2016

Time: 2:40

ISSUES: Community

DANGEROUS POP-UP PARTIES

Underage drinking, sex and drugs are just some of the things community advocates are saying happen at illegal teen "pop-up" parties at abandoned buildings in Brooklyn. Community advocate Tony Herbert, who was made aware of the parties by a concerned parent who found a Facebook invitation for party on Friday at the old St. Mary's Hospital, said the parties are "illegal and they are trespassing." Thousands of kids were expected to attend the party Friday, but the building's supervisor has taken extra security measures to ensure no one trespasses and gets hurt.

Date: April 7, 2016

Time: 3:18

ISSUES: Community

BRING BACK MR. FROSTY

Pete Hamouroudis sells ice cream for a living. His Cool Concessions Company, based in Brick, runs about a half dozen trucks. Talk to Pete and you'll get a good sense of how very competitive it is to even get permitted to sell ice cream in any given Jersey Shore town. He adds that licensing fees to pay to towns can run $900 or more, a price he says he'd be happy to pay in the borough of Seaside Park. Seaside Park doesn't seem to want ice cream vendors, food trucks, any of it. An ordinance was passed in 2010 that's not an outright ban, but it's pretty close. According to the ordinance, you can't sell merchandise from a vehicle anywhere on Ocean Avenue in Seaside Park. It also says you can't sell from within 25 feet of a stop sign on a street that intersects with Ocean Avenue. 2009 was the last year that ice cream vendors were licensed in Seaside Park, and those vendors were only allowed to operate pushcarts, not trucks.

Date: April 7, 2016

Time: 2:57

ISSUES: Community / Transportation / Homeland Security

DANGER DOWN BELOW

The March 22nd terror attacks on Brussels, Belgium, focused on two apparent soft targets to cause death and mayhem: the airport ticketing counter and the city's subway system. Chasing News previously examined security vulnerabilities at New York area airports. Any mass transit is a tempting target for terrorist bombs, but subways up the ante because the confined space constricts amplifies the devastating power of an explosion, said Brian Michael Jenkins, a former Green Beret who is senior adviser to the president of the RAND Corp. For an on-the-ground view, retired NYPD detective Mordecai Dzikansky went down into the New York City subways to advise on what to do in case of terror. He has simple rules that will help New Yorkers remain vigilant for terror. Yet it is important not to cross over into paranoia, Dzikansky said, comparing the threat of terror in the U.S. to the possibility of a major earthquake to a California homeowner.

Date: April 7, 2016

Time: 1:24

ISSUES: Community / Children/Youth / Health

MICHELLE COMES TO NEWARK

Michelle Obama's American Garden Tour brought her to the Philip's Academy Charter School in Newark on Thursday. Ashley J was on hand as the first lady visited the student-tended rooftop vegetable garden, which students tend, and sat down eating with students in the K-8 school. The American Garden Tour is part of the first lady's "Let's Move!" initiative, aimed at addressing the challenge of childhood obesity.

Date: April 7, 2016

Time: 1:24

ISSUES: Government/Politics

CHASING THE GOVERNOR

The turf war between Governor Christie and Atlantic City Mayor Don Guardian about how to save Atlantic City is like something straight out of the movie "Mean Girls." They've been resorting to name calling and fighting for weeks about who looks the most irresponsible in this crisis. In wanting to show how Mayor Don Guardian is just wasting money, Christie said the city should be smarter and not waste money on cutting grass. He thinks they should use county resources for that. Mayor Don Guardian didn't flinch and hit back implying the governor doesn't even know what real grass looks like.

Date: April 7, 2016

Time: 2:55

ISSUES: Community

DO BLONDES REALLY HAVE MORE FUN?

The age old debate between who has more fun continues on the streets of New York City. Some claim brunettes hold the title while others say blondes have it in the bag. Tara hit the street to hear both sides.

Date: April 8, 2016

Time: 1:48

ISSUES: Community

JERSEY'S GREATEST

The New Jersey Hall of Fame inducted the class of 2015 at The Asbury Park Convention hall Thursday night. Big names like Dick Vitale, Christie Ramone, Derek Jeter, Kool & the Gang, Frank Lautenberg and even former "Daily Show" host Jon Stewart were celebrated as they joined this year's class. A red carpet kicked off the evening until the ceremony began, complete with speeches, Jersey jokes, and even performances. This is the eighth Hall Of Fame Class, which is selected by public vote based on nominations gathered by a special committee. Other NJ Hall Of Fame members include Thomas Edison, Meryl Streep, Frank Sinatra, and Bruce Springsteen.

Date: April 8, 2016

Time: 3:11

ISSUES: Community / Children/Youth

TWISTED GAMES

A photograph showing Princeton High School students drinking and playing Holocaust-themed beer pong has gone viral for all the wrong reasons. The game has two teams. One side is a "Nazi" side with the cups aligned in the shape of a swastika and the other side is the "Jew" side and those cups are aligned in the shape of the Star of David. A student of Princeton High School posted the photograph of the "Nazi Beer Pong" game on her blog after seeing it on Snapchat and copying it. She wrote some choice words for those involved.

Date: April 8, 2016

Time: 2:37

ISSUES: Community / Transportation

TOO FAT TO FLY?

Errol Narvaez said he was escorted off of a United Airlines flight traveling from Las Vegas to Newark Tuesday, for being overweight. Narvaez, a Jersey City resident, was returning from celebrating his 31st birthday, when he said he was informed that the airplane "just could not accommodate me." Narvaez said it started with a complaint from a passenger who did not want to sit next to him, but really the problem is the airline changed his aisle seat, which he originally booked, to a middle seat.

Date: April 8, 2016

Time: 3:15

ISSUES: Community

GIMME THE PIGSKIN

Terron Beckham, a cousin of New York Giants star Odell Beckham, is leaving no stone unturned in his quest to play in the National Football League. Terron's hard work includes years of physical workouts that have turned him into what many trainers regard as an athletic wonder. It was all on display on Thursday as he worked out for pro scouts from several teams at TEST Football Academy in Martinsville, NJ. Terron Beckham never played college football. Despite his obvious athleticism, questions linger about his ability to contribute in the violent world of NFL football, where incredible collisions occur on every play. Beckham said he's ready for the challenge that he's even "itching" for contact drills. Terron did play high school football in Texas, a known hotbed of high-school football talent.

Date: April 8, 2016

Time: 1:24

ISSUES: Community

CHAMPAGNE SUPER NOVA

Chaser Ashley J was in the heart of Nova Nation Friday as thousands of excited fans gathered in Center City Philadelphia to honor the 2016 NCAA Champions. Ashley watched the parade from an open-roof bus, similar to the ones the players rode in for the five block parade. Head coach Jay Wright was among the champions who proudly held their trophy. They left from 22nd and Market and made their way to the front of City Hall. Along the way the champs gave out T-shirts and paraphernalia to fans and signed autographs.

Date: April 11, 2016

Time: 3:17

ISSUES: Community

A SOLDIER'S SAD DEATH

On March 19, Charles Ingram III drove from his home in Egg Harbor Township to the Veterans Affairs facility in Northfield NJ where he had previously sought medical treatment. Police said the Navy vet had doused himself with gallons of gasoline and lit himself on fire. Police officers sent to the scene capture the frantic rush to put out the fire on Ingram's body, then to race him to a hospital. Ingram died in a Temple University Hospital burn unit nine hours later. He was 51. His obituary said he served in the Navy from 1985 to 1992. Though it doesn't appear Ingram was protesting the VA's treatment of veterans, which has drawn widespread criticism, elected officials and even the local police have asked the VA to extend the facility's hours.

Date: April 11, 2016

Time: 1:11

ISSUES: Community / Education

RUTGERS STUDENT KILLED

A 21-year-old Rutgers student was killed in a shooting Sunday night, just blocks from the Newark campus. Shani Patel, an economics student at Rutgers Newark, was pronounced dead at the scene. His roommate, whose identity has not been released, was taken to University Hospital where he was undergoing surgery. According to NJ Advance Media, a substantial amount of drugs and money were found at the scene when first responders arrived. No arrests have been made, but Essex County Sheriff Armando Fontoura's Crime Stoppers Program is offering up to $10,000 for information leading to an arrest and conviction.

Date: April 11, 2016

Time: 3:01

ISSUES: Community / Transportation

THE ROAD WARRIOR: BERGEN'S HOT MARKET

Cashing News covered the major news about $70 million being allocated for work on the Hudson tunnel project. But lost in all that focus on the tunnel is talk about the Bergen Loop which is also part of the Gateway program. Currently residents in Bergen County on the Pascack Valley and Main Bergen lines have a two-seat ride to Manhattan, requiring a transfer. The Bergen Loop would be built around the Secaucus train station enabling a direct line. The price tag is estimated at $1 billion. A direct line would mean that real estate in the area would skyrocket. We spoke to Terri DeLorenzo, manager for Weichert Realtors' Oradell office.

Date: April 11, 2016

Time: 3:08

ISSUES: Community

WHO KILLED GRANDPA?

Glenn Kingsbury of Mullica Township, NJ walked into his house on Super Bowl Sunday 2012 with his children to find his father shot in the head on his kitchen floor. His colleague Michael Castro was arrested and jailed on a murder charge but the charge was eventually dropped and Castro was released, only to be arrested again. He is currently free on bail awaiting a possible trial. On Monday, Castro faced the judge once again. The Kingsbury family is not so sure that justice will ever be served.

Date: April 11, 2016

Time: 1:28

ISSUES: Government/Politics

NJ SUPREME COURT NOMINEE NAMED

Ending a six-year standoff, New Jersey Governor Chris Christie and State Senate President Steve Sweeney announced a compromise that is likely to mean a new state Supreme Court Justice. After repeated attempts to nominate a Republican to the high court which Sweeney blocked, Christie announced he would nominate Walter Timpone, a Democrat who formerly worked at the U.S. Attorney's Office. Sweeney said Timpone would get a quick hearing and probably be confirmed.

Date: April 11, 2016

Time: 4:11

ISSUES: Community / Substance Abuse

A FATHER LOST, A MOTHER GRIEVES

The day before Easter, the Schmincke family of Egg Harbor, NJ was getting ready to take a family outing to an Easter egg hunt. They didn't know that morning would change their lives. Tammy Shmincke went to wake up her 26-year-old son, Steven Schmincke, that morning but he was already gone. Struggling with heroin addiction, Steven overdosed that morning. He had two daughters and his girlfriend is currently pregnant with their third child.

Date: April 11, 2016

Time: 3:19

ISSUES: Community

WHERE HAVE ALL THE GUMBALLS GONE?

Gumball machines are vanishing from storefronts across the U.S. One little boy fought to get his back in NYC and won. Chasing News headed to Parisi Vending in Oceanside New York to get to the bottom of this bubble gum battle.

Date: April 12, 2016

Time: 3:44

ISSUES: Community / Education

GENDER WARS

Pascack Valley Regional High School district passed a policy Monday night allowing transgender students to be able to use restrooms or locker rooms based on their gender identity. Carolee Adams, a parent advocate who's been fighting this policy for months, has several problems with it. "The primary concern I have is the parents were not involved at all." After the measure passed 6-1 Kax Petkovic, a freshman at Pascack Valley, said he was happy.

Date: April 12, 2016

Time: 2:25

ISSUES: Community

A FRIEND IN NEED...

Bergen County Public Safety Director is under investigation and suspended for trying to pull a favor for a friend and it's caught on dash cam video. Bergen County Sheriff's Office said Ralph Rivera Jr. kept interrupting an officer while his buddy Francisco Almonte was arrested and issued a summons for DWI. Rivera offers to drive his friend's car. The deputy reminds Rivera of John's Law in which a driver suspected of being under the influence isn't allowed access to their vehicle for 12 hours. Rivera then tells the officer he was undersheriff for six years. Trenton Councilman George Muschal worked under Rivera when Rivera was Trenton police director. He said Rivera was known for abusing his power and he's not shocked by this recent incident. Rivera is drawing his six-figure salary while on suspension.

Date: April 12, 2016

Time: 2:31

ISSUES: Community / Transportation

RIDING WITH BIG BROTHER

NJ Transit has been quietly recording audio of people's private personal conversations on the River Line light rail trains, as it plans to do on the Hudson-Bergen and Newark light rail trains. There are signs and notices at the stations that read, "Notice: Video and audio systems in use." There are even signs on the train, but many people we spoke to hadn't read the signs and said they were uncomfortable with the audio surveillance. NJ Transit Interim Executive Director Dennis Martin said the audio surveillance systems were installed to fight terrorism. Schneiderman has already been granted a temporary injunction to prevent the sites from operating in the state.

Date: April 12, 2016

Time: 3:18

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

YOU MADE A HOLE IN MY BUDGET

Governor Chris Christie came to the gleaming J.P. Morgan Chase tower in Jersey City to announce good news for businesses throughout the state: a $200 million tax break. The Governor noted that burgeoning employment rolls have helped take the state's destitute unemployment trust fund from a $2.1 billion deficit to a $1 billion-plus reserve, and he noted that his administration had stopped diverting money for other projects, as previous Governors had done. The newfound solvency buoyed by $800 million recovered from fraudulent claims is allowing the state to lower the rate at which businesses pay into the fund, resulting in the tax reedit.

Date: April 12, 2016

Time: 1:40

ISSUES: Community

DANCE THE BULLY AWAY

"Reverse The Trend" is an anti-bullying concert and assembly created by the New Jersey Native Band Reverse Order. Their mission is to help combat bullying across America. They not only play music for the children, but also share personal stories about how they were bullied.

Date: April 13, 2016

Time: 3:06

ISSUES: Community

VERIZON WORKERS ON STRIKE

Nearly 40,000 Verizon workers went on strike at 6 a.m. Wednesday. The parties have been negotiating since August. The issues include pensions, call centers, and health care.

Date: April 13, 2016

Time: 2:54

ISSUES: Community / Education / Minority Issues

DRIVING WHILE BLACK IN BLOOMFIELD

"Driving While Black" refers to racial profiling of non-Caucasian drivers resulting in questioning or traffic stops of an individual just based on their skin color. Is it being practiced in New Jersey? Seton Hall Law Professor Mark Denbeaux enlisted students for research to try to find out if the town of Bloomfield, New Jersey is engaging in these practices.

Date: April 13, 2016

Time: 3:11

ISSUES: Community

GIMME THAT OLD TIME ROCK 'N ROLL

The old machines squash wads of hot vinyl flat. They cook it, the edges get trimmed, the disc gets stacked, and the process begins anew. They make records at Independent Record Pressing in Bordentown real, old-school vinyl records and business is off the chain. Independent's six record presses are more than 40 years old, each a veteran of millions of pressings. And the art of making something beautiful out of melted plastic? It's dodgy. Every 10th disc or so is weighed as it comes out, inspected, and most importantly, sound-tested. Independent offers a wide variety of products to clients, from custom sleeves to a rainbow of vinyl colors.

Date: April 13, 2016

Time: 3:11

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

A SOLDIER'S LAST STAND

After a Navy veteran apparently killed himself by burning himself alive outside a VA clinic, a New Jersey State Senator called for fundamental change at the Department of Veterans Affairs. Jeff Van Drew believes veterans should not be tied to VA facilities for care, but should be able to use their benefits like insurance, taking a voucher to a medical provider of their choice and not necessarily in the VA system. Federal legislation would be needed to do this, but it would also be the end of the VA as we know it. And that is what may get resistance in Washington.

Date: April 13, 2016

Time: 2:56

ISSUES: Community / Transportation

WAIT WHAT ARE YOU READING?

NYC Comedian Scott Roginsky filmed a video in the New York City subway system that has gone viral. He pranked New Yorkers by creating book covers with off-color titles and gauging riders' reactions while reading them on the subway.

Date: April 13, 2016

Time: 3:14

ISSUES: Community

PUPPIES BEHIND BARS

Puppies Behind Bars is a program that trains prison inmates to raise service dogs for war veterans and explosive detection canines for law enforcement. The program is currently in five New York and New Jersey prisons. At the Edna Mahan Correctional Facility for Women in Union Twp. NJ, the women specifically train explosive detection canines. The puppies enter prison at 8 weeks old and live with their inmate for around 2 years. Puppies Behind Bars is a nonprofit & funded entirely by private contributions. Since it was founded in 1997, around 1,200 dogs have been trained.

Date: April 14, 2016

Time: 2:34

ISSUES: Community / Health

OMG, I HAVE THE FLU!

Flu season for some reason is late this year but hitting hard. The New Jersey Department of Health said there have been more than 5,000 confirmed cases since October, and there was a spike this month. Each year people debate whether or not to get the flu shot. Dr. Charles Simone takes the strong stance flu shots don't work.

Date: April 14, 2016

Time: 2:45

ISSUES: Community

JAILHOUSE WORKOUT

Coss Marte was dealing drugs at 13, sitting on a milk crate in front of a bodega on the Lower East Side. At age 19, he was making more than $2 million a year. He was caught and went to prison. While there he came up with a business plan for a prison workout. His gym now offers prison-style workouts on Broome Street. Classes are packed and people workout behind bars surrounded by barbed wire drawings.

Date: April 14, 2016

Time: 2:52

ISSUES: Community / Substance Abuse

PRISON LIFESAVER

In an effort to combat the heroin crisis spiraling out of control, New York State Prisons are handing out Narcan kits. Queensboro Correctional Facility was the first prison to put forth the program. That was in 2015 and now there are more than 40 others with a similar program. Narcan has the power to reverse an overdose from opiates in just minutes, all through a needless spray up the nose. The kits are estimated to cost $80 each, but the Department of Health in New York donates them for free to the prisons. The inmates are handed the kits on their last day in jail. Correctional officers say they know inmates will come in contact with an overdose upon their release and they want their inmates ready to save a life.

Date: April 14, 2016

Time: 1:48

ISSUES: Community

SOMETHING'S BLOOMING IN NEWARK

The 2016 Essex County Cherry Blossom Festival is underway in Branch Brook Park in Newark. Essex County Executive Joe Di Vincenzo noted that when he took over 14 years ago, there were only 900 cherry blossom trees. The park now has 5,100 trees more than Washington DC, which hosts the National Cherry Blossom Festival. The Newark festival runs through April 24.

Date: April 14, 2016

Time: 2:03

ISSUES: Government/Politics

CHASING THE GOVERNOR

NJ Governor Chris Christie offered little sympathy to Atlantic City Mayor Don Guardian Thursday. The Governor's comments came during a news conference at Union County College in Cranford, where he touted his economic success and announced new plans for job training. The Governor said he will invest $2.7 million into a job training and job placement program. He also noted an increase in private sector jobs in the state as well as a decrease in unemployment. The Governor's positive economic news comes at a time when Atlantic City is near collapse. Christie, who has advocated for a state takeover of the city, warned that the city is out of luck if local officials can't get its finances in order by mid-May. Meanwhile, State Senate President Steve Sweeney is offering a new deal that would give the resort 130 days to stabilize its finances and avoid a state takeover.

Date: April 14, 2016

Time: 2:28

ISSUES: Community

A BLANKET PROMISE

Chaser Ashley has chased the hard streets of Camden several times but this time she rode with Tim Gallagher who runs Project Guardian, a gang intervention program. The tough streets Tim sees day to day are full of teens like Sincere. The 14-year-old sat down with Ashley to make a blanket for sick children at Cooper University Hospital, something you might not expect from teenage boys who either were affiliated with a gang or had a run-in with police would enjoy. Sincere was forthcoming about being close to going down the wrong path and how he distanced himself from friends who face serious charges like robbery. Project Guardian works with 70 at-risk teens each year.

Date: April 15, 2016

Time: 2:50

ISSUES: Community

REFUGEES ARE WELCOME HERE

Signs featuring the phrase, "refugees are welcome" are being spotted all over Brooklyn. Ari Wohlfeiler, Deputy Director of Jewish Voices for Peace, says they are part of a larger campaign to stop Islamophobia in America. Wohlfeiler says thousands of posters have been hung in windows and stores around the country.

Date: April 15, 2016

Time: 3:19

ISSUES: Government/Politics

YOU DECIDE: NY'S GOP

Donald Trump, Governor John Kasich, and Senator Ted Cruz all spoke at New York State's GOP gala on Thursday at the Grand Hyatt Hotel in New York. Like clockwork, protestors arrived in masse, chanting, and shouting. Thirty one of them were arrested. According to recent polls, Trump is expected to win the New York primary by a landslide. The polls open April 19th.

Date: April 15, 2016

Time: 2:56

ISSUES: Community

PICK YOUR FAVORITE BEACH

Coastal Living Magazine just named Ocean City Beach, NJ the "Best Beach in America" for 2016. Mayor Jay Gillian is giddy about the honor, and he credits the town's work on its infrastructure as an unrecognized basis for Ocean City's success. Coastal Living credits Ocean City's tradition of quirky fun as a main attraction, mentioning baby and boat parades, as well as a hermit crab beauty contest as just several of hundreds of annual functions. The US has thousands of miles of coastline, and critics say that crowning any beach as the "best" is a dubious endeavor. But Ocean City's residents sing its praises loudly. The town certainly succeeds in stating its case as a beach to be reckoned with.

Date: April 15, 2016

Time: 2:19

ISSUES: Health

THE DOG'S NOSE KNOWS

They sniff for drugs; they search for bed bugs; and, now, they can even detect cancer. Wyatt the Dog has saved thousands of lives, even his owner, Janice Wolfe's. Wolfe trained Wyatt to smell the difference between healthy and cancerous tissues. Studies say dogs are accurate in sniffing cancer as much as 95% of the time.

Date: April 15, 2016

Time: 2:46

ISSUES: Health

WHAT'S YOUR ALLERGY?

Allergy season is well underway, and doctors across the country are treating more people for their allergies. Statistics show 30% of adults and 40% of children have allergies and more people are developing them later in life. While millions of Americans suffer from outdoor allergies like ragweed, dust allergens can persist inside the home. Consider giving the following places a quick cleaning to lessen your allergy symptoms: window sills, ceiling fans, pillows, bed sheets, fireplaces, air vents, and pet beds.

Date: April 18, 2016

Time: 3:10

ISSUES: Community

THE SEARCH FOR ANGELO

Fito Irribarra of Hillsborough, New Jersey doesn't go anywhere without his best friend, Angelo, a 14-month-old Maltese puppy who goes wherever his owner goes, even to work. Fito is an independent truck driver. Fito was making a delivery in the Bronx last week when someone stole Angelo from the front of the truck. Fito is devastated. He's been back in the Bronx every day since looking high and low for his best friend.

Date: April 18, 2016

Time: 3:26

ISSUES: Community / Health

THE CRAZE TO LOSE WEIGHT

A New York doctor wants us to forget about dieting. Dr. Alexis Conason specializes in the treatment of overeating and body image. She says her clients are consistently unsatisfied by their diets and are often times left depressed. Dr. Conason is now telling New Yorkers to listen to their bodies instead of following the diet fads of the day. Dr. Conason's comments come at a time when diets are becoming more extreme and more acceptable. Social media has become overrun by posts bragging about the benefits of cleanses and diet teas.

Date: April 18, 2016

Time: 2:52

ISSUES: Government/Politics / Minority Issues

IMMIGRANTS FOR TRUMP!

Despite what many in the media would have you believe, Latinos, immigrants for Trump do exist. We found them in Rockland County ahead of Tuesday's primary. Despite their support for Trump, speaking on camera is a whole other thing. Only Tony Mele, the chairman of the Latino National Coalition of Rockland County was willing to speak up on camera. Tony Mele is a U.S. Army veteran who owns his own security business. As a businessman, he appreciates Trump not being a career politician. He says that's just what our country needs right now because if the dollar is weakened, it doesn't matter what ethnicity anyone is. He defended Trump against accusations of being a bigot, by comparing it to waiting in line in NYC. Nobody cuts in line. He says there is a need for immigration reform.

Date: April 18, 2016

Time: 3:20

ISSUES: Community

THE MAYOR OF MURDERTOWN

Vernon Geberth is a retired NYPD lieutenant commander who has investigated, supervised, or consulted on 8,000 homicide investigations. If you put all the people whose deaths Vernon has investigated into one town, it would be close to the population of Bogota, in Bergen County New Jersey. Chaser Alex Zdan went to see Geberth speak in State College, Pennsylvania to gain some insight into his investigation of the deaths of John and Joyce Sheridan, which is surrounded in mystery over a year after officials declared the case a murder-suicide. Vernon wrote the book on murder cases: Practical Homicide Investigation, which is used as a textbook by police departments worldwide.

Date: April 18, 2016

Time: 1:38

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

BILLBOARD BASHERS

Anti-Trump billboards are popping up all over New Jersey and they feature the Garden State's own Governor Chris Christie. The billboards, which picture Christie standing behind Donald Trump in his infamous Super Tuesday victory speech, have the word "help" and "sad" written as Christie's thought bubbles. They also include the statement, "Speak out against racism, sexism and bigotry. Don't stand behind it." The billboards are a part of a campaign by Bridges over Politics for New Jersey to push Christie to renounce what the organization calls racist and bigoted speech by the GOP frontrunner.

Date: April 18, 2016

Time: 2:40

ISSUES: Community

FLOATING MEMORIES

A retired FDNY fireboat will get a new life as a museum in North Salem, NY. The John McKean Fireboat served New York during some of its darkest moments. In 2009, the boat rescued passengers aboard the U.S. Airways Flight 1549. The plane landed in the Hudson River after bird strikes caused its engines to fail. On 9/11, the boat shuttled hundreds of people to safety in Jersey City after the World Trade Center came under attack. Edward Taylor bought the boat for just over $57,000 with his colleague Michael Kaphan. The two plan on opening a restaurant in North Salem and will make the boat into a museum next door.

Date: April 19, 2016

Time: 2:55

ISSUES: Community

DERRI-ERROR?

Laura Borghi, the owner of Borghi Fine Art in Englewood NJ, could be fined up to $1,250 and face 90 days in jail for exposing a painting showing a woman's buttocks in her gallery. The painting in question is by Tom Dash. Borghi feels that she is being unfairly targeted by Englewood's 1992 ordinance that bans images of public nudity in public places of business. Borghi is now suing Englewood in federal court.

Date: April 19, 2016

Time: 3:09

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

THE FEMALE FACTOR

Women will make a big impact this election season. Research shows that women make up more than half of the electorate across the nation and polls say this group of voters has yet to unify around a candidate. Lauren Chivee is the founder of All Together, a NYC-based nonprofit urging all women to vote. Chivee said research shows having more women in elected positions would create a more effective government.

Date: April 19, 2016

Time: 2:59

ISSUES: Community

A TALE OF TWO CITIES

It's as Shakespearean as it gets. Major drama, mistaken identity, two cities worlds apart and tragedy averted. The setting is Verona. On Thursday, the Verona, New Jersey Police Department received a strange email from a Chinese student in the United Kingdom warning the police that another Chinese student in Verona had threatened to take her own life. The suicidal student was, in fact, living and studying in Verona, Italy, that is, the setting of Shakespeare's "Romeo & Juliet." Quick thinking by Verona, New Jersey Police Chief Mitchell Stern may just have saved a girl's life across the Atlantic Ocean.

Date: April 19, 2016

Time: 2:45

ISSUES: Community

A WOMAN EXPOSED

The debate rages on over censoring nudity on the streets of New York City. As talk surrounding rezoning the panhandling denudes continues, Chaser Tara caught up with famed body painter Andy Golub to get his take. We looked at how his form of artistic expression starts and ends up in Madison Square Park.

Date: April 19, 2016

Time: 2:51

ISSUES: Community

DEATH IN THE CROSSWALK

Tuesday was the first day at work for the crossing guard ushering folks across Route 129 at Lalor Street this morning in Trenton. The last man in the job, Antonio Wiley, was hit and killed by an SUV doing the same job Monday afternoon. News reports show numerous fatalities over the years. The intersection is a wide one, with six lanes of traffic on 129, three of which come down off Route 29 at highway speeds. All manner of trucks are common, and they do go fast. The intersection also includes two tracks of the River Line Light Rail. Trenton South Ward Councilman George Mushal says the three crossings at 129 have been dangerous since it was redesigned and opened in 1993.

Date: April 19, 2016

Time: 3:03

ISSUES: Community

HANK, START YOUR ENGINES!

Springtime brings new beginnings, new opportunities. It's true for 16 year-old Blake Barney of Jackson who's driving his grandfather's race car for the first time this year. Blake was one of many drivers out for first practice at Wall Stadium Speedway last weekend eager to get back on the track after the winter break. Track officials say they're seeing more cars with more sponsorship. Wall Stadium is a third of a mile, which doesn't sound that long until you consider the high banking that many local tracks don't have. So it's fast, and the racing is tight.

Date: April 20, 2016

Time: 3:26

ISSUES: Community

TEARS FOR A TEACHER

Tuesday was an emotional night as the Robbinsville, New Jersey community gathered at Foxmoor Community Park to remember School Superintendent Steven Mayer at a candlelight vigil. Mayer and his dog were out for a jog Tuesday morning when both were struck and killed by car driven by a 17-year-old Robbinsville High School student, who was reportedly rushing because she was late for a school trip. School board members and pastors addressed the community. With broken hearts people shared how Mayer was a good husband and father to his three boys. And many say he truly loved all his students. Prayers were offered for both the Mayer family and the family of the teen driver.

Date: April 20, 2016

Time: 3:26

ISSUES: Community

BURY ME ON BROADWAY

The New York Marble Cemetery is one of the oldest burial grounds in New York, and now, for $350,000, you can reserve a spot. Caroline DuBois, the president of the cemetery's board of trustees, said she envisions someone very connected to New York purchasing the plots, like a Wall Street executive or a hedge fund manager. The graveyard holds 156 underground vaults.

Date: April 20, 2016

Time: 3:11

ISSUES: Community

LIFE IN THE FAST LANE

Assemblymen Declan O' Scanlon, District 13, is an advocate for higher speed limits in New Jersey. He believes that the engineers who design the roads should determine the speed limit, not politicians. Assemblymen O' Scanlon say a higher speed limit wouldn't make drivers go any faster and that studies have shown it.

Date: April 20, 2016

Time: 1:11

ISSUES: Community

RUNNER NEEDS A JOB

Talk about going the extra mile, well, a New Jersey runner caused quite the stir at the Boston Marathon. Most people can't help but think of the piercing images from the terrorist attack in 2013 at the Boston Marathon which killed 3 runners, a police officer was shot to death, and left dozens injured. This year for the 120th Boston Marathon, a University of Maryland marketing student from Basking Ridge, New Jersey ran the race in hopes of getting a summer internship. Brendan Cox's shirt read, "#RunnerNeedsAJob." Brendan said he doesn't have anything yet, but a few people have hit him up on Twitter about internship opportunities.

Date: April 20, 2016

Time: 3:22

ISSUES: Community

WHAT'S KILLING OUR COPS

A nearly silent affliction stalks law enforcement officers, taking lives when the stress of the job runs up against a philosophy of self-reliance: police suicides. Bizzarro knows because he's been there. Before he worked as a therapist specializing in counseling law enforcement and first responders for Princeton House and the PBA, he was a cop working for the Port Authority. But on-the-job stress, alcohol abuse, and family trouble combined to take Bizzarro to the brink of suicide himself. It culminated with Bizzarro putting a loaded gun against his own head and contemplating pulling the trigger. Now, Bizzarro talks to those who have been through what he experienced to help them heal. Law enforcement work is stressful, but it is often the mental attitude of officers that can amplify that stress to a point where it should be clinically treated.

Date: April 20, 2016

Time: 3:04

ISSUES: Community

DRIVING MISS SIBILE

Claims of jealousy and bullying over a collection of Rolls-Royces have pitted a Fort Lee resident against the President of the co-op of his apartment building. This clash of titans over the finer things in life is being waged inside the garage of The Plaza building where the co-op board enjoys a multimillion-dollar budget. Co-op president Jerry Leibowitz, who calls The Plaza the best luxury co-op building in the state, said the building cannot afford to let John Corigliano keep all his Rolls-Royces in the garage. John Corigliano maintains he's dealing with jealousy.

Date: April 21, 2016

Time: 2:06

ISSUES: Community

POSTAL WORKER BEATDOWN

Karim Baker a uniformed postal worker received a brutal beat down by the NYPD last fall and he believes that's because a year before he had the unfortunate distinction of giving cop killer Ismaili Brinsley directions. Brinsley ended up shooting and killing two cops in Brooklyn. Baker says he's felt the heat from the NYPD ever since. Now Officers Angelo J. Pampana and Robert A. Carbone have been indicted in the brutal October beating, and Baker is suing the NYPD for $100 million.

Date: April 21, 2016

Time: 2:55

ISSUES: Community / Education

HATE ON BOARD

The list continues to grow as state officials call for the resignation Gladys Gryskiewicz, the Elmwood Park Board of Education member who is accused of posting racist and bigoted remarks on Facebook. The latest on that list is Assemblyman Gary Schafer, the only Orthodox Jew in the Assembly. Schafer said the remarks "were at best unfortunate in reality they were racist, they were discriminatory, and they're certainly not statements that should be coming out of someone who's in charge of shaping the next generation of children."

Date: April 21, 2016

Time: 2:46

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

GOV HELP ME

Personally answering the request of a caller to his monthly radio show, Governor Chris Christie came to the Motor Vehicle Commission site in South Plainfield to help a mother and son who said they had been brushed off by the agency for four months. Saying she had accidentally destroyed her son Isaac's driver's permit, which was left in his jeans pocket in the wash, she said she had tried in vain to get a duplicate. Pilato, who is the wife of former Republican Bound Brook Mayor Carey Pilato, emerged just 20 minutes later with her son and a new permit in hand. The governor said his trip should be seen as a "bigger message" to state employees.

Date: April 21, 2016

Time: 2:57

ISSUES: Community

MARGARET CHO'S DO OVER

Jerry Seinfeld will be the warmup act for Grammy and Emmy-nominated comedian Margaret Cho Thursday night at The Stress Factory in New Brunswick. This is all to help her make good after her disaster of a show on March 26th.

Date: April 22, 2016

Time: 3:08

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

BUTTONS! BUTTONS! BUTTONS!

If you're in the market for some campaign flair, look no farther than Times Square. It's where you'll find the office of Mort Berkowitz, the king of campaign buttons. He's been designing buttons since 1972. Today, he has more than 25,000 buttons under his belt and many more to come. Berkowitz said this is his second-best election season for button sales, and much of that is because of Donald Trump.

Date: April 22, 2016

Time: 2:47

ISSUES: Community

WE'RE WATCHING YOU, BUDDY

The Camden County Police Department is part of a pilot program testing body cameras for officers, part of a growing number of departments trying to determine whether the cameras can increase trust on both sides of the badge. Jessica met with Officer Tyrrell Bagby to talk about what impact body cameras have on law enforcement and community policing.

Date: April 22, 2016

Time: 2:47

ISSUES: Community

SOMETHING'S FISHY IN SUSSEX

Intersex fish, male fish with signs of female reproductive organs, have been found in rivers and lakes in New Jersey, according to a new US Geological Survey study of 19 National Wildlife Refuges throughout the Northeast. The report showed that 85% of male smallmouth bass and 27% of male largemouth bass were found to have underdeveloped eggs in them.

Date: April 22, 2016

Time: 3:00

ISSUES: Community / Government/ Politics

TRUMP'S REAL ESTATE PROBLEM

Sibile took her chase to Trump Village in Brooklyn to dig into Trump's past. In 1973, the U.S. Department of Justice sued the Trump Organization. Trump and his dad Fred were accused of not allowing black tenants at their properties. The Trump Management Co. owned properties in Brooklyn, Queens and Staten Island. Sibile spoke to Wayne Barrett, author of "Trump: The Deals and the Downfall." The Trumps ended up settling their lawsuit.

Date: April 22, 2016

Time: 3:02

ISSUES: Community

THERE'S A BAT FOR THAT

Ashley aimed for hitting the ball out of the park for this chase with MLB Opening Day Sunday. She ran through the bases of making the perfect baseball bat. First, she headed into a very unassuming warehouse in Norristown, Pennsylvania which is the home of Chandler Bats. The small company owned by David Chandler is doing big things. He makes bats for several major league stars including 2015 MVP Bryce Harper. He wouldn't share the price tag for these elite bats. Second the log goes into a machine that carves the initial framework for the bats in less than 2 minutes. Third, we chopped the tail and head off the bat and took it to another station where we perfected the roundness of the ends and gave the bat a good sanding. And for the home run, the bat was engraved with "Chasing News" and sealed the bat with an official Chandler logo. The chase didn't end there: Ashley took it to a practice for the 6/11 Little League in Trenton.

Date: April 25, 2016

Time: 3:29

ISSUES: Government/Politics

DUMPED OVER TRUMP

Middletown South High School history teacher Joe Ventre showed his class a satirical video from the HBO show "Last Week Tonight" starring John Oliver. The video already has over 24 million views on YouTube. It bashes and lampoons the front-running presidential candidate regarding his family history, business dealings, and politics. School administrators, after hearing a complaint, asked Ventre to resign after the school year for bringing his personal political views to class. He resigned immediately, but rescinded his resignation just days later.

Date: April 25, 2016

Time: 2:46

ISSUES: Community

CATS UNDER ATTACK

Bay Ridge residents still don't know who's behind the animal poisonings in their neighborhood, but they say they're determined to find out. The poisonings were first reported by Chasing News in November, when pieces of glass and other contaminants were left in cat food throughout the close knit Brooklyn community. The local animal lovers now say the poisonings are less obvious, but they take place more often.

Date: April 25, 2016

Time: 2:11

ISSUES: Community

DUDE, WHERE'S MY AIRPLANE?

Hal Guretzky loved his Cessna 152 plane so much that he kept it close to him, parked right in his Oceanside, New York driveway. Until last week, that is, when the Town of Hempstead removed the plane from the property saying he had been given until April 19 to get rid of it. Town officials said the storage of the plane violates the town's building zone ordinance and puts neighbors in potential danger.

Date: April 25, 2016

Time: 2:46

ISSUES: Community

POISON IN THE WOODS

After 50 years of crying out for action, the Ramapough Turtle Clan in Ringwood and others in the community feel ignored and slapped in the face again. A fence marked "Restricted" and "Dangerous" surrounds Superfund site that once belonged to Ford Motor Company is where they dumped paint sludge. The EPA admits it used outdated testing and now the latest discovery is 1.4 dioxane. Chief Vincent Mann says he's tired of nothing being done and calls it another case of Flint, NJ. The community met about the issue at Ryerson Middle School last week. Chief Mann says his tribe wants the site either cleaned up properly or have the government pay for his tribe to move to a much safer and cleaner location.

Date: April 26, 2016

Time: 1:35

ISSUES: Community

THE HERO OF RIVERDALE

With no time to spare, quick-acting Sgt. Greg Bogart of the Riverdale New Jersey police sprang out of his car and into action to save a man from a suicide attempt. A man, distraught over what Bogart said was the loss of a family member, attempted to jump off the Route 287 bridge near the Hamburg Turnpike on Monday morning. Dramatic dash cam video shows the entire incident, which that lasts only seconds.

Date: April 26, 2016

Time: 3:00

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics / Education

HEY, GOV, LEAVE OUR SCHOOLS ALONE

NJ Assemblyman Benjie Wimberley introduced a bill Tuesday to eliminate the state's ability to takeover school districts and give back power to the local districts. At a news conference in Trenton Tuesday, the Democrat called a state takeover "a failed policy that has done more harm than good over the years." The bill's (A-3637) other sponsors include: Assembly Democrats Shavonda Sumter, Cleopatra Tucker, L. Grace Spencer, and Sheila Oliver.

Date: April 26, 2016

Time: 1:12

ISSUES: Government/Politics

CHASING THE GOV

It's Primary Tuesday in five states including nearby Maryland and Pennsylvania. Donald Trump is expected to pick up many delegates and inch that much closer to winning the Republican nomination. It seemed like the Republican anti-Trump forces were getting their wish on Monday a one-on-one showdown with Trump and just one of the other Republican candidates in the upcoming primary states. For Cruz and Kasich it's the old saying, "The enemy of my enemy is my friend." They don't like each other but they both hate Trump more. This is how their alliance is supposed to work. Kasich will take a step back so Cruz can face down Trump in Indiana. Cruz is supposed to do the same in Oregon and New Mexico. The problem is these guys both hate Trump but that doesn't mean they trust each other.

Date: April 26, 2016

Time: 2:29

ISSUES: Community

A THOUSANDS JOYFUL VOICES

Two years ago the McDonald's Super Choir broke the record as the largest gospel choir in the world with over 1,100 talented singers and the choir is still going strong. Just weeks out from McDonald's Gospel fest at the Prudential Center in Newark the super choir rehearses at the Faison Firehouse Theatre in Harlem. The choir performs among a list of big sensations for the big event. The super choir is very diverse made up of all ages and races. McDonald's Gospel fest takes place May 7th and will air on My9NJ in July.

Date: April 26, 2016

Time: 3:26

ISSUES: Community

WHO KILLED THE LINDBERGH BABY?

Charles Lindbergh was the most famous American alive in 1932 when his young child was kidnapped from the family home in Hopewell, New Jersey. Ransom notes were found before the child was found killed near the side of the road a short time later. Bruno Richard Hauptmann was arrested, tried, convicted, and executed for his role in the crime, but questions about his guilt or innocence persist to this day. It certainly doesn't mean that if others are guilty, Hauptmann is innocent. Ransom money was found in Hauptmann's Bronx home at the time of his arrest, and authorities were able to match the wood used to build the kidnapper's ladder to scrap in the Hauptmann home. I decided to find out more, so with retired homicide detective Gary Britton, we went up to the Lindbergh estate in Hopewell. Today it's a home for girls run by the state Juvenile Justice Commission now. That's the first place where the stories started not to make sense, as did the mystery of where Lindbergh was the day of the crime.

Date: April 27, 2016

Time: 3:25

ISSUES: Community

CLIFTON TENT CITY

Ashley checked out the deplorable conditions under the Ackerman Avenue Bridge in Clifton with Wheeler Antabanez, a Passaic River expert. Clifton is grappling with how and where to get tent dwellers there to move. Wheeler shares video he took of the migrant workers from Mexico and Latin America who live under the bridge. Ashley didn't bump into any on her chase. City Manager Nick Villani said several notices have gone out in both English and Spanish asking the men to move and recommending shelters. Chaser Ashley thought it was like walking through a landfill. She says it's a wakeup call because Clifton isn't the only city dealing with this dilemma.

Date: April 27, 2016

Time: 2:41

ISSUES: Community

NO LOVE FOR PIT BULLS

A new study reports that more than half of shelter dogs are incorrectly labeled as pit bulls. The study highlights the difficulty animal shelter face in correctly identifying a dog's DNA. Officials at Liberty Humane Society in Jersey City say they often rely on what previous owners relay about a dog's breed, telling Chaser Diana that there's virtually no way of telling the breed of a dog. Researchers say the incorrect label often dooms a dog's chance of adoption.

Date: April 27, 2016

Time: 1:58

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

CHASING THE GOV

Another victorious primary night for Republican presidential front-runner Donald Trump, another awkward moment for the family of New Jersey Governor Chris Christie, all caught on live TV. While the Governor's facial expression standing behind Trump on March 1st led Twitter users, Senator Ted Cruz and the Washington Post to conclude Christie was screaming on the inside, attention went to Christie's wife Mary Pat following Trump's April 26th victory speech. Meanwhile, a mobile billboard denouncing Trump and Christie's alliance was parked across the street from the event.

Date: April 27, 2016

Time: 1:46

ISSUES: Community

ROHAN'S INDIAN SUMMER

Cody Anderson believes in peace so much so that he has spent 40 years cycling and walking across the country for peace, awareness and charity. The Florida man is currently on a ride from Florida to NYC to raise money for any charity you choose and the troops. He's raised over $300,000 for the troops already. Anderson stopped in Trenton and spent a night at War Memorial Park across from the Statehouse. He told Chaser Rohan about his journey and charitable efforts. Rohan himself will embark on a bike ride of his own this summer called "Rohan's Indian Summer." Anderson gave him some tips and advice on how to survive long rides in the hot sun.

Date: April 27, 2016

Time: 2:45

ISSUES: Community

PARKS & RECREATION

Investigators from the New Jersey State Attorney General's office raided park headquarters at the old Hunt House in Rosedale Park in Hopewell and the county tennis center in West Windsor. A statement from Mercer County's communications office acknowledges that the raid happened and that the AG's office is looking into possible violations, official misconduct, corruption, and theft by extortion statutes. Nobody's known to have been arrested and no charges have been filed. Mercer's corruption record is sad. The last mayor of Trenton, Tony Mack, is in jail. The last mayor of Hamilton, John Bencivengo, recently got out of jail. The Mercer County Park Commission is known to be a place where the politically connected can get work regardless of circumstance.

Date: April 27, 2016

Time: 3:35

ISSUES: Community

WHO KILLED THE LINDBERGH BABY? PART II

It's been labeled "the case that never dies," and more than 80 years after the kidnapping and murder of Charles Lindbergh's baby, modern investigative techniques shed new light on what could have happened. In Part II, there is evidence of a potential conspiracy involving the Lindbergh's nursemaid, Betty Gown. Among them, how did the kidnapper know to pick the exact window where the baby was? What was the mysterious phone call Betty Gown received the night of the kidnapping? And why were the blankets in the baby's crib, which were secured with pins, neatly folded away? All this takes the story to a find tucked away in the New Jersey State Police archives, a piece of key evidence that could prove a conspiracy and even point a finger toward Nazis.

Date: April 27, 2016

Time: 2:55

ISSUES: Community

FLUID MECHANICS

Fluid Mechanics is an advanced swimming program that trains world champion athletes right here in New Jersey. Chaser Tara headed to the Boys and Girls Club of Union New Jersey where she got a personal swim lesson for program director and former world record holder John Waldman. Waldman's program uses advanced technology including computer animated avatars to teach swimmers how to improve their stroke and ultimately their performance.

Date: April 28, 2016

Time: 3:17

ISSUES: Community

KOREAN CANINE CAPER

Rescued dogs were to be slaughtered and made into meat for human consumption at a dog meat farm in Wonju, South Korea. Humane Society International has worked with St. Hubert's Animal Welfare Center in Madison NJ and other shelters in North America to find a safe place for these dogs in bad situations. This project wanted to put an end to it. Humane Society International works with dog farms to end the trend of dog consumption in countries such as South Korea, which sometimes have slim to no other options for sustenance. Over 100 dogs will be sent to St. Hubert's and will be available for adoption after they recover from their tough lives and the long journey. Maybe one of them could be your new best friend.

Date: April 28, 2016

Time: 3:08

ISSUES: Community

JERSEY POWER

Who knew we would all get so fired up over a $20 bill? The Treasury Department announced last week that Harriet Tubman, former slave and abolitionist, will replace President Andrew Jackson on the bill, igniting a firestorm reaction. It's said to be the most significant change to the nation's currency since 1929, a switch that couldn't have been done without the help of a New Jersey based digital branding company, Mosaic Strategies. The business promoted the online campaign "Women on 20" by leading a poll to narrow the pool of potential choices, creating graphics and even designing the bill's new format.

Date: April 28, 2016

Time: 2:33

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

CHASING THE GOV

Addressing the latest piece of viral video resulting from a member of his family standing behind Donald Trump, New Jersey Governor Chris Christie said his wife Mary Pat did not roll her eyes at Trump's remarks during a victory speech April 26. Christie appeared at the Motor Vehicle Commission in Lawrence to announce that all agency employees would receive mandatory customer service training by the end of the year. The governor said he had heard complaints about the agency previously, but the four-month wait for a duplicate driver's permit by a mother and son was the "culmination" of how he decided to get involved.

Date: April 28, 2016

Time: 2:58

ISSUES: Community

HATCHET MAN

Is the only thing missing from your life throwing hatchets at oversized targets with your friends? Well, you're in luck because Stumpy's Hatchet House is open in Eatontown, New Jersey and is the first and only hatchet throwing establishment in the entire country. Rohan checked it out so you don't have any reservations before you make your reservations to throw some hatchets at Stumpy's!

Date: April 28, 2016

Time: 2:50

ISSUES: Community / Transportation

SEE THROUGH TRAINS

Ever since Bridgegate, it's become obvious to most that the Port Authority of New York & New Jersey needs reform. The Port Authority is a bi-state agency and legislators in both states worked together to get reform bills passed, and New York Governor Andrew Cuomo signed it into law. New Jersey is a different story. Despite the fact that New Jersey's legislature passed a bill identical to New York's, Governor Christie still has yet to sign it.

Date: April 29, 2016

Time: 1:59

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics / Substance Abuse

TAKE BACK NEW JERSEY

Senators Cory Booker and Bob Menendez joined state elected officials in Bergenfield Friday to address the opioid epidemic sweeping the nation, as well as announce their new initiative "Operation Take Back New Jersey." The numbers are staggering, according to Booker, the heroin death rate now eclipses that of homicide, suicide and even car accidents. To combat this crisis they are encouraging residents to drop off unused or old prescription medicines to medication disposal boxes

Date: April 29, 2016

Time: 3:10

ISSUES: Community

HONORING OUR HEROES

The Traveling Vietnam Veterans Memorial Wall came to Carteret, New Jersey for a long weekend at the end of April, and with it came a flood of memories nearly five decades old for one Navy veteran. Dennis Moshopoulos, a Woodbridge Township resident, came to the wall in Carteret Park to remember friends he lost in the war. Moshopoulos hasn't been to the original wall in Washington DC. The traveling wall is an 80% scale replica of the genuine article in Washington, but still has on it the names of the 58,255 men and women killed in the conflict between 1959 and 1975.

Date: April 29, 2016

Time: 3:17

ISSUES: Community

BEETLE BAR

The creative duo behind the Will Ferrell-themed bar Stay Classy NYC has done it again. Zach Neil and Brian Link have opened another theme bar on Manhattan's Lower East Side. This one is all about Tim Burton movies "Beetlejuice." Tara got an exclusive peek inside the Beetle House NYC.

Date: April 29, 2016

Time: 2:37

ISSUES: Community / Education

LET ME BE ME

A lawsuit against the Paterson Board of Education alleges the district and district employees discriminated against a tenured teacher because she is a white lesbian. Noreen Sweeney filed the lawsuit April 20. According to her attorney Jason Nunermacker, Sweeney was reassigned to the "rubber room" in 2014 while the district investigated allegedly inappropriate comments she made about Amos Field, vice principal of the International High School, where she worked. The lawsuit said the remarks referred to administrators being overpaid, abuse of power, and the beating of a female student when Field was principal. Nunermacker said the comments were not vulgar or sexual in nature. Sweeney has been cleared of the allegations and was reassigned as a teaching assistant.

Date: April 29, 2016

Time: 2:41

ISSUES: Community

ASHLEY GOES TO SENIOR PROM

Chaser Ashley stepped out in a gown and jewels and was anxious to get to prom. But it's not what you might expect. Inside the grand ballroom of Brandywine Senior Living in Princeton was the first centenarian prom. The partygoers were born in 1916 and before then, and their dates for the night were Princeton University seniors. Most of the honorees were infants during World War I, in their 20s for World War II, and wise in age for 9/11. The centenarians enjoyed live performances, dancing, and a delicious meal. The moment of the night: crowning prom king and queen, Phil Yannick and Martha Munster, both age 103.

Date: May 2, 2016

Time: 3:20

ISSUES: Community

BRAKING UP IS HARD TO DO

A driver in Clifton got brake-checked by a cop and he caught it on tape. The man, identified only as Omar B, had a dash cam. In the video, which he posted to YouTube, you can see that he's following a police car down Van Houten Avenue about one car length away. The driver was traveling 23 to 29 mph when the cop braked suddenly and stopped in the middle of the road. Omar slammed on his brakes; he didn't hit the cop car. After the two spoke, Omar received three summonses: for a missing front license plate, for tailgating, and for tinted windows.

Date: May 2, 2016

Time: 2:38

ISSUES: Community

AC's LAST RESORT

It's a day-by-day crisis in Atlantic City as the resort town is expected to run out of money by mid-June. On Monday, Mayor Don Guardian and his administration had a decision to make: pay $1.8 million in municipal bond payments, or not pay and default on the city's debt. Guardian was not sure he could make the bond payment and honor the salaries of municipal workers at the same time, but after a weekend crunching the numbers, decided the cash was there. The bond payment was made this morning. A takeover bill is stalled in the Legislature, and Governor Chris Christie has made it clear he will not step in with a state rescue plan if the bill that passed the State Senate is approved by the Assembly, where a compromise is set to be voted on Thursday and is gaining support. Christie has said he would veto it.

Date: May 2, 2016

Time: 4:01

ISSUES: Community

PSYCHO HOUSE

Alfred Hitchcock's 1960 psychological thriller "Psycho" is being celebrated at an unlikely place, the Metropolitan Museum of Art. You can now find an exact replica of the menacing house from the movie on the roof of the museum. It was put together using pieces of a red barn from upstate New York and is known as "Psycho Barn." The exhibit is open through Halloween 2016.

Date: May 2, 2016

Time: 1:52

ISSUES: Community/ Government/Politics

CHASING THE GOV

Three months after the story surfaced that over half of Newark Public Schools had tested positive for elevated levels of lead in the drinking water, Governor Chris Christie announced a mandate to test water at all New Jersey public schools. Christie said he will ask the Legislature for $10 million to pay for testing in about 3,000 schools starting in the fall.

Date: May 2, 2016

Time: 2:50

ISSUES: Community

AS GOOD AS THE BOYS

While some 17-year-old girls might be obsessing about being popular and boys, Anyela Aquino wants to prove she's just as good as the boys, maybe even better. She has led a legal battle against the NYC Board of Education and public school athletic league for the right to join the boys' volleyball team at William Howard Taft High School in the Bronx. Anyela's attorney Robert Siano said he tried talking to the school, but it escalated to the courts. He says he filed a restraining order against the public schools athletic league and the NYC Board of Education so that they could not prevent her from playing. Now Anyela is in a different battle, fighting to win the championship.

Date: May 3, 2016

Time: 3:22

ISSUES: Community

KOREAN CANINE CAPER!

Over 100 rescued dogs were to be slaughtered and made into meat for human consumption at a dog meat farm in Wonju, South Korea. Humane Society International has worked with St. Hubert's Animal Welfare Center in Madison, New Jersey and other shelters in North America to find a safe place for these dogs in bad situations. Since the rescue, many people have been outraged at this longstanding practice in Korea. Is it their right to be upset? Two Korean-Americans spoke to Chasing News to give their opinions on the rescue and the consumption of dog meat in Korea, which is a tradition dating to the fourth century.

Date: May 3, 2016

Time: 2:05

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

CHASING THE GOV

The New Jersey Institute of Technology's campus is dealing with the tragedy of star student Joe Micalizzi's fatal shooting Monday morning. Joe was studying mechanical engineering, was on the dean's list, and was a member of the fraternity Tau Kappa Epsilon House. On Monday morning, two suspects entered Tau Kappa Epsilon House from the rear. Joe was up studying for finals. They tried to steal some electronics and Joe got in their way. It's being reported that he was shot in the head and hand. He was pronounced dead at the hospital around 5 a.m. Governor Christie, was a NJIT for a news conference touting the school's progress as an innovative learning facility, offered his condolences to Joe's family and the NJIT community. NJIT President Joel Bloom talked about campus safety.

Date: May 3, 2016

Time: 3:00

ISSUES: Community

FIRST PERSON SHOOTER

Chaser Ashley caught up with Camden County Police's mother-daughter duo at the New Jersey National Guard Armory in Lawrence. Tucked inside the base is where law enforcement trains on a system called Vritra and it is as real as it gets for cops being in situations like Columbine or the Colorado movie theatre massacre. On a big screen that can play out various virtual simulations police officers actively engage and stay focused on protecting the public while taking down the shooter. Ashley first witnessed the lieutenant and her daughter goes through an active shooter at a school situation. Afterward Sgt. John Martinez assessed their performance during a playback. Then Ashley gave it her best shot at a movie theater shooting. It got her blood pumping and heart racing and really raised her already high level of respect for police officers and the tough job they face.

Date: May 3, 2016

Time: 2:55

ISSUES: Community

LOOKING AFTER OUR HEROES

Veterans Haven North in Glen Gardner, New Jersey is one of the two state-run transitional housing programs for homeless vets. The other is in Camden. The facility has a maximum occupancy of 75 people. It offers to emergency housing up to six months as well as transitional accommodations, for up to two years. Each resident has an improvement plan that must be followed. If they have jobs, they're required to pay rent. The facility has a gym, library and computer lab for applying to jobs. The Haven isn't for everyone. Unlike other entitlement programs, vets need to be drug & alcohol free.

Date: May 3, 2016

Time: 3:04

ISSUES: Community

STICK A FORK-LIFT IN IT

Chasing News obtained a shocking video of a construction worker in Williamsburg using a forklift to move a legally parked car. Two Trees Development company is passing the blame to Yonkers based subcontractor RNC. We headed to Williamsburg to talk to the car owners.

Date: May 4, 2016

Time: 5:20

ISSUES: Community

MAN ON THE RUN

Arthur Buckel escaped from a satellite campus of Bayside State Prison located on the grounds of Ancora Psychiatric Hospital in Winslow Township, New Jersey on Tuesday morning. Since then, he's stolen a car, shopped for goods and was last seen where he ditched that car outside a CVS in Barnegat. Over 100 officers from multiple agencies are on the hunt for Buckel. The Mayor said the officers will work around the clock until Buckel is apprehended.

Date: May 4, 2016

Time: 1:50

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

SWEENEY BLASTS AC MAYOR

It was another day of insults, ultimatums, and no resolution on Atlantic City's ongoing and worsening financial crisis. State Senate President Steve Sweeney first blasted Atlantic City Mayor Don Guardian, saying Guardian did not make enough cost-cutting moves to bring the city back to financial health. Guardian responded in a statement later in the day, saying that even if he fired all Atlantic City employees it would not amend more than 30 years of financial mismanagement by his predecessors or the closing casinos. Blocking the Governor's plan from making it to the floor of his chamber for a vote Assembly Speaker Vincent Prieto plans to bring up his alternative takeover plan instead. But even if the Prieto plan passes the Assembly, Governor Chris Christie has said he would veto it, and Sweeney did not indicate that he would allow a vote on it in the Senate.

Date: May 4, 2016

Time: 2:52

ISSUES: Government/Politics

TRUMP IS IN, CRUZ IS OUT

Donald Trump secured his place as the presumptive GOP nominee after winning the Indiana primary elections Tuesday night. Soon after polls closed, Ted Cruz announced he would suspend his campaign and Wednesday afternoon John Kasich also dropped out of the race, clearing a path for Trump to get the 1237 delegates needed before the Republican convention this summer.

Date: May 4, 2016

Time: 2:49

ISSUES: Community

A GRUESOME END

A student at Kingsborough Community College in Brooklyn discovered the body of a man that had washed ashore Monday morning. The unidentified man found on the campus shoreline had been bound and his feet encased in cement. While police investigate, Chaser Tara headed to the scene with Jory Giacalone, former NYPD detective sergeant. He introduced some theories into the possible motives behind such a vicious crime.

Date: May 4, 2016

Time: 2:29

ISSUES: Community

THE CREEPIEST PLACE IN TOWN

Dark skies set the mood for Chaser Ashley and Wheeler Antabanez's chase at the Old Overbrook Asylum in Cedar Grove, New Jersey. After more than 100 years of tears, misery, and darkness it will soon be gone. Antabanez wrote a book about it called "The Old Asylum: And Other Stories." The facility speaks to a long legacy of how the state dealt with mental illness. But for Antabanez, he shows one man's trash is another man's treasure. Soon the history-maker will be a pile of debris, but Antabanez hopes that through his novel its legacy lives on.

Date: May 4, 2016

Time: 3:25

ISSUES: Community

GATE CRASHER

That was TC Nelson's reaction to a 4 a.m. phone call informing him that a speeding car had smashed through the front of his capital city restaurant, the Trenton Social. Dozens had been relaxing in the bar/restaurant only a couple of hours earlier, so the crash could have been worse than bad. TC clearly has challenges to get the doors opened again, including the shattered front window and framing. He was trying to use perishable food from the restaurant's stocks that he wouldn't be able to sell. The real damage, and the reason the restaurant is temporarily shuttered, is structural damage to one of the building's load-bearing corners. At the end of the day, TC has insurance, as does the building's owner. TC tells anyone who will listen that the Trenton Pork Roll Festival, which is slated for May 28, is still on, and he swears it'll be better than ever.

Date: May 5, 2016

Time: 3:19

ISSUES: Community

MANHUNT!

Escaped convict Arthur W. Buckel is still at large after escaping a satellite campus of Bayside State Prison in Winslow Township, New Jersey Tuesday. He was last seen Wednesday ditching the truck he stole in Barnegat, New Jersey at a CVS on West Bay Avenue. Late Thursday, authorities said Buckel is believed to have left the area. Schools were in full session as uniformed officers from Barnegat and New Jersey State Police patrolled the roadways and schools to make sure children got home safely.

Date: May 5, 2016

Time: 2:57

ISSUES: Community

MURDER ON THE BEACH

The body that washed up on the shore of the Kingsborough Community College campus in Brooklyn Monday has been identified. The victim was 28-year-old Peter Martinez of Brooklyn. He had 31 arrests on his record and was reportedly a member of the G Stone Crips Crew. The gang is well-known as the organization linked to incarcerated rapper Bobby Shmurda. The investigation is ongoing but reports at this time indicate Martinez's murder was related to unpaid debts.

Date: May 5, 2016

Time: 2:30

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

NO VOTE ON ATLANTIC CITY

Assembly Speaker Vincent Prieto attempted to post his alternative Atlantic City takeover legislation, but missing members and political infighting ultimately led the speaker to pull the bill after a day of frenzied activity on the Statehouse floor produced no results. Prieto has refused to allow another takeover plan, which passed the State Senate but allows changes to union collective bargaining rights, up for a vote. He crafted his own rescue plan, but absent members and a fractured caucus meant it did not have enough votes to pass, so Prieto pulled it after hours of fruitless wrangling. Prieto later explained he pulled the bill to try and negotiate further with the Senate, and scheduled a new vote for Wednesday. So in less than a week, the Statehouse gets to go through this all again.

Date: May 5, 2016

Time: 2:52

ISSUES: Community

MAKE A JOYFUL NOISE!

McDonald's "Gospel fest 2016: Honor Thy Mother" takes place Saturday at the Prudential Center in Newark. Chasing News welcomed to the studio the finalist in the adult choir category from McDonald's Gospel fest 2015. The Chosen Generation Alliance Choir from Jersey City performed "God Wants a Yes" by James Hall.

Date: May 6, 2016

Time: 3:14

ISSUES: Government/Politics

IS TRUMP RACIST?

Did Donald Trump refuse to marry a supermodel because she's black? Trump started dating Kara Young in 2001 and some believe she was the love of his life. Young has been featured in Playboy and on the cover of Vogue, Glamour and Elle magazines.

Date: May 6, 2016

Time: 3:03

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

WHITMAN TALKS TRUMP

Former New Jersey Republican Governor Christine Todd Whitman will not endorse, support, or vote for presumptive GOP presidential nominee Donald Trump. Whitman, who served as Governor from 1994 to 2001, said during an interview at her Hunterdon County home and farm that she is considering voting for Hillary Clinton if Clinton wins the Democratic nomination, but much more likely will write in the name of another candidate come November. Whitman would love to see a third-party candidate run, but admits it might be too late for one to get ballot access in all 50 states. She's yearning for a third-party candidate to offer another choice. She feels the presidential race long derided as a popularity contest is going to be decided between two people the majority of Americans feel they want nothing to do with.

Date: May 6, 2016

Time: 2:53

ISSUES: Community

FROZEN BEAUTY

Cryotherapy, the deep freeze, is said to reduce inflammation in the body, with benefits including pain relief to wrinkle reduction. Ex-NY Giant Steve Weatherford, who has always taken fitness to the next level, says for him nothing could be better than the three-minute session in the cryotherapy chamber. Weatherford, who was visiting the new 256 below cryotherapy spa in Millburn, said the treatment is "a game changer."

Date: May 6, 2016

Time: 3:51

ISSUES: Community

IRON LADIES

To learn about more about the glass ceiling, Chaser Sibile went to the Executive Women of New Jersey Gala Thursday at the Hilton East Brunswick. Micheline Davis is the Executive Vice President and Chief Corporate Affairs Officer at RWJ Barnabas Health. Dorothy Belinsky, who is a partner at Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP, described other factors.

Date: May 6, 2016

Time: 3:07

ISSUES: Community

FOODIE FRIDAY: MAKIN' BACON PANCAKES

If you could eat pancakes for breakfast, lunch, and dinner, you're going to want to meet Adenah Bayoh. She joined Chasing News in-studio to share one of her favorite recipes. Adenah became one of the youngest franchise owners when IHOP Irvington opened in 2008. She turned out to be a breakout star in the business, opening a second location recently in Paterson. Inspiration comes from her grandmother, who was a restaurant owner in Liberia. Adenah escaped civil war in West Africa at age 13 to come to New Jersey. Her biggest achievement, she said, is being a mom.

Date: May 9, 2016

Time: 3:19

ISSUES: Community

DOLLARS ON THE DELAWARE

A single winning ticket for the seventh-largest jackpot ever, the $429 million dollar Powerball, was purchased in New Jersey. The winning ticket was sold at a 7-11 in Trenton last Tuesday and the winning numbers were drawn Saturday. The cash lump sum payout for the jackpot is $284 million. New Jersey Lottery officials held a news conference Monday morning to address the public and the winner, who has yet to claim the prize.

Date: May 9, 2016

Time: 2:54

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

BERNIE DOES AC

The ongoing battle over how to save Atlantic City was briefly an issue on the presidential campaign trail as Democratic presidential hopeful Senator Bernie Sanders stopped at the resort city for a rally. A planned state takeover of Atlantic City that has passed the state Senate and is supported by Governor Chris Christie would allow an emergency manager to rip up union contracts. Speaker Vincent Prieto has not allowed a vote on the bill in the Assembly, leading to a stalemate on what to do about the city's worsening financial situation. Atlantic City Councilman Moisse Delgado, a Sanders supporter who spoke at the rally, said Atlantic City's fate has become wrapped up in a political game in Trenton that has more to do with the race for governor next year than fixing problems.

Date: May 9, 2016

Time: 2:55

ISSUES: Government/Politics

MARLA MAPLES STOLE MY HUSBAND!

Getting caught on the beach alone with Marla Maples destroyed Spencer Wagner's life, according to his ex-wife Mary Miller. Wagner was Trump's bodyguard while he and Maples were married. We spoke to Wagner's ex-wife, Mary Miller, about how crossing Trump changed the bodyguard's life. Miller explains that when Wagner was caught with Maples, she was already divorced from Wagner, but trying to work things out. Miller said Wagner had trouble finding work after Trump fired him. Wagner died of a drug overdose in 2012.

Date: May 9, 2016

Time: 3:03

ISSUES: Community

AIR BNBUSTED

Ari Taman rented his apartment on Airbnb in March 2014 and the renters trashed his place, throwing a wild sex party. In the years since, Taman learned about the growing problem of illegal renters in NYC and launched his own watchdog site to try to stop it. Sublet

Spy is his cybersecurity site, which tracks thousands of listing sites to protect landlords from illegal sublets. Tara caught up with Ari to hear all about his new venture.

Date: May 10, 2016

Time: 3:30

ISSUES: Community

RETURN OF THE CART LADY

In March, homeless hoarder Sonia Gonzalez had over 20 of her shopping carts and luggage bags trashed by the NYC Department of Sanitation. Since March, Gonzalez has been slowly rebuilding her cart collection. As of Monday, she had amassed eight shopping carts, two dollies and a suitcase. While feeding her cats in Hell's Kitchen, Gonzalez said she didn't want to talk and just wanted to be left alone. Giselle Routhier, policy director for the Coalition for the Homeless, said permanent supportive housing with health services is the most effective solution in cases like Gonzalez's.

Date: May 10, 2016

Time: 2:49

ISSUES: Government/Politics

HAIRY POLITICS?

What do Hillary Clinton's and Donald Trump's hairstyles say about them? Chaser Sibile spoke with Lisette Martinez, a hairstylist at Paul Labrecque Salon and Spa in NYC, to find out. According to Martinez, Hillary Clinton's hair shows that as president, she's going to hit the ground attacking. As for Donald Trump, his style says something very different. It says erratic cause it's so crazy looking. To me it says he's stuck in his ways. He's going to do whatever he wants and that's not going to change.

Date: May 10, 2016

Time: 2:57

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

BIG TROUBLE FOR BIG BILL

Manhattan U.S. Attorney Preet Bharara is on a mission. And two of the most powerful men in New York Mayor of New York City Bill de Blasio and Governor Andrew Cuomo are in his crosshairs. Over the past month, a flurry of corruption allegations and potential campaign finance violations have emerged against NYPD commanders, campaign fundraisers, developers, and officials working in the de Blasio and Cuomo administrations. Tecce breaks it all down, saying that the feds would not be knocking if they did not believe there was evidence of criminality somewhere.

Date: May 10, 2016

Time: 3:31

ISSUES: Community

DANCING YOUR FEARS AWAY

For this chase, Chaser Ashley headed to the You Should Be Dancing studio in Manhattan where she met Bryan Mattimore who is petrified of dancing. He suffers from choro phobia. It's a fear that stems from his childhood. He associated that bullying with dancing. So psychiatrist Dr. Daniel Bober helped Bryan face his fear with the help of instructor Tammy Halaburta. Off the bat Bryan was extremely nervous. He was sweating and kept stopping a lot because he doubted himself. Dr. Bober said what Bryan did wasn't easy because he usually recommends that people face their fears gradually instead of jumping right in. After the hour long dance lesson you see a major difference with Bryan. Bober coached him to calm down and stick with it. In the end, Bryan said he's ready to give his dance skills another shot.

Date: May 11, 2016

Time: 3:46

ISSUES: Community / Children/Youth / Health

IS IT SAFE TO DRINK?

Elevated levels of lead have been found at six schools in New Brunswick.

However, getting this information was not easy, according to New Brunswick Today reporter Charlie Kratovil. Kratovil says he asked the school board members when they were going to release the testing results at their May 3 meeting. Aubrey Johnson, New Brunswick Public Schools superintendent, released a statement saying, "Many organizations have not taken the steps New Brunswick has. While we understand the media and public's attention, we shouldn't be condemning those with a proven record of testing and remediation, we should be concerned about those that fail to even look. Any rumors claiming that our district's water is currently unsafe, or that we withheld information, or failed to take swift action are unequivocally false."

Date: May 11, 2016

Time: 1:27

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

CHRISTIE ON TRUMP AND BRIDGEGATE

Governor Christie was in West Trenton Tuesday to talk about business tax relief, but the conversation quickly turned to Donald Trump and Bridgagate. Christie was happy to talk about Trump, who tapped the governor this week to head his transition team if he is elected president. But Chaser Sibile had a different question for Christie: Is he on the list of unindicted co-conspirators in the Bridgagate scandal?

Date: May 11, 2016

Time: 1:35

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

HILLARY IN SOUTH JERSEY

The New Jersey primary race is in full swing. For the Democrats, it is especially exciting now that Bernie Sanders has won the last two primary states. Are Clinton voters fazed? Supporters at Camden County College said Tuesday that they are not worried. Clinton's attention, however, has shifted from the primaries to attacking the GOP presidential nominee Donald Trump, calling him a "loose cannon" when it comes to foreign policy.

Date: May 11, 2016

Time: 3:06

ISSUES: Community

ALWAYS REMEMBER, NEVER FORGET

At age 1, Sami Steinmann and his parents were captured by the Nazis and spent three years in a Soviet labor camp. Now he blesses others with his story. Students at the Witness Theatre at the Abraham Joshua Herschel School in Manhattan highlighted the stories of six Holocaust survivors, including Sami. When he was an infant the Nazis performed medical experiments on him. Germany later acknowledged the tests and paid him for the abuse. A German woman gave him milk while he was at the camp and saved him from dying of starvation. Sami has dedicated his life to helping others.

Date: May 11, 2016

Time: 3:24

ISSUES: Community

JUSTICE FOR WEEDMAN

Ed Falchion, better known as New Jersey Weedman, got into it with Trenton Police Tuesday. This came shortly after Falchion introduced himself to the Trenton mayor. Did one result from the other? Falchion's always been an outspoken advocate for legal marijuana. His cafe was raided by Trenton Police last week and as a result, he's numerous charges including marijuana possession and distribution. So when Falchion saw Trenton Mayor Eric Jackson get out of his car right across the street, at City Hall, Weedman asked for a sit down. Jackson said he was headed to a news conference and couldn't chat, but he invited Falchion to call his office and make an appointment. Falchion went back to promoting his business, greeting drivers and holding high a card with an explicit saying. A police cruiser drove by and things went south. Falchion engaged in a profane verbal battle with the cop driving the cruiser, which blocked State Street for several minutes. The squad car turned around and pulled to the curb, and soon several cops were on the scene.

Date: May 12, 2016

Time: 3:24

ISSUES: Community

POLICE TOOLS

We hit the streets of Camden once again with our girls Lt. Linda Alicia and her daughter Cynthia Melendez. The department believes they might be the only mother-daughter police pair in the country right now. This time the two gave us a glimpse of some of the technology that makes their lives easier and helps them crack down on crime. Ashley first went up in the Sky watch, it's soars 30 feet into the air, allowing Camden officers to see as far as the Walt Whitman Bridge, monitoring suspicious individuals and catching criminals. Then we made our way to their mobile command center, where police have everything they need at their fingertips running license plates or printing fliers for missing persons, for example. It resembles what the actual command post at headquarters. Chief Scott Thomson said another key piece of technology is the ShotSpotter system, which indicates exactly where gunshots are coming from.

Date: May 12, 2016

Time: 2:32

ISSUES: Community

THE BUGS THAT ATE MONTCLAIR

The emerald ash borer, an invasive species of beetle from Asia, could kill the beautiful ash trees that line the streets of Montclair. The beetle is slowly moving across the United States, killing millions of ash trees in its path. Though the beetles have not been found in Montclair yet, arborist Stephen Schuckman is keeping a close eye on the situation.

Date: May 12, 2016

Time: 2:49

ISSUES: Community

THE QUEEN OF HOLLYWOOD

Chaser Sibile met the ex-wife of Howard Hughes, the famous recluse and billionaire at the Sheraton Parsippany Hotel. Terry Moore, an Oscar-nominated actress and Playboy cover model, is 87. Fans lined up to for Terry's autograph and photo. At 55, she was the oldest person ever to pose nude for the magazine. Hugh Hefner actually asked her dad if she could pose for Playboy when she was young. We spoke to Terry about her ex-husband Howard Hughes. Hughes' life was shrouded in mystery. The eccentric billionaire set an around-the-world flight record He was known to be eccentric, a billionaire, set an around the world flight record, and died years after going into seclusion. Terry also spoke about her close friendship with Marilyn Monroe.

Date: May 12, 2016

Time: 2:57

ISSUES: Community / Children/Youth

OUTSTANDING IN HIS FIELD

At 13, a Pennsylvania middle school student is the inspiration for a sponsored sporting event, and his story is nominated for a GLAAD Media Award, which recognizes accurate coverage of the LGBTQ community. Ashley caught up with Braeden Lange to learn how to play lacrosse in Trenton. Braeden is quite the talented athlete playing across the country on several teams. But he's also known for knowing who he is and what he stands for. The seventh-grader came out on a group chat to his friends, which his parents also saw. Studies show more people are identifying as LGBTQ around age 16, compared to the 20s in the 1980s. Braeden is the inspiration for the Courage Game, a lacrosse game that takes place at the University of Pennsylvania.

Date: May 12, 2016

Time: 3:11

ISSUES: Community

ROHAN RIDES A HORSE

There is a lot more to do in New Jersey than go to the mall or drive up and down the New Jersey Turnpike. It is called the Garden State for a reason, but one must explore to find its hidden beauty. Rohan found one of these gems at the Black Fox Horse Farm in Pennington, where he learned to ride a horse for the very first time.

Date: May 12, 2016

Time: 2:45

ISSUES: Community

FOREVER YOUNG

Drop by State Barber Shop on Warren Street in Trenton and the fun begins before you even go in. Joe Festa will be there holding court, talking to strangers, singing, cutting hair doing his thing the way he has for more than 50 years. Joe is young by almost anyone's standards except Father Time's. By the clock, by the calendar, Joe is 80. Apparently he hasn't heard, because he's out front lifting weights, stretching, singing songs, and talking to pedestrians. That's the Joe that Bruce Marchesi says he works with every day. Joe said he loves running his barbershop and has no intention to retire, ever. He's also quite fit. Joe says he eats right, doesn't do much dessert, doesn't smoke, or drink except for maybe a little red wine on occasion. Dr. Charles Simone says it's simple: Joe's good to go at 80 because he takes care of himself.

Date: May 13, 2016

Time: 2:41

ISSUES: Community

THE LUCKY SMITHS

The winners of the $429 million Powerball jackpot have come forward. Meet the grateful eight. That's what we're calling the Smith family, who came forward Friday at New Jersey Lottery Headquarters in Lawrence Township, New Jersey for their first public appearance since the May 7th drawing. All eight family members were present: Pearlie Mae and her children Valerie, Steven, Jacqueline, Marsha, Tracy, Katherine, and Rene met the world as millionaires. They were humble and soft-spoken about the huge prize. The family decided to take the lump-sum payout of $284 million. They thank God and are ready to give.

Date: May 13, 2016

Time: 2:21

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

WHO IS JOHN DOE?

John Doe, an unidentified person named in the list of unindicted co-conspirators in the Bridgegate case, has managed to temporarily hold up the unmasking of others who were involved in the George Washington Bridge lane closures in 2013. As the trial of former Port Authority Deputy Executive Director Bill Baroni and Bridget Ann Kelly, Former Deputy Chief of Staff to Governor Chris Christie, nears in September, a group of media companies won a lawsuit for a list of names created by the U.S. Attorney's Office to be released. Federal prosecutors have said Baroni, Kelly, and David Wildstein, a Port Authority official who has pleaded guilty in the scheme, conspired with "others" to create three-day traffic jam as political retribution. And while defense lawyers for Baroni and Kelly have received a list of who those "others" were, the list has remained under seal.

Date: May 13, 2016

Time: 3:18

ISSUES: Community

THE MOST EXPENSIVE ROAD IN AMERICA?

The ride down the newly paved Route 35 in Lavallette is smooth as glass. By the time New Jersey and the federal government get finished paying for rebuilding 12.5 miles of Route 35, total costs will be about $341 million that's a lot of blacktop, and it raises a lot of questions. Lesniak wants answers, so he says he's gone to New Jersey's US Senators Cory Booker and Bob Menendez to ask for a federal investigation into the mess. An Asbury Park Press investigation into the matter unveiled contractors being paid millions not to work and even lock up their gear as the summer of 2014 settled in. The DOT sent Chasing News a statement, saying things were not nearly as simple as they're being portrayed. The DOT adds that new drainage, gas, water, and sewage systems had to be built and laid out in order for the paving to resume, adding that utility damage wasn't always known until it was uncovered.

Date: May 13, 2016

Time: 3:16

ISSUES: Community

THE CAN MAN CAN'T

In Bushwick, Brooklyn, hundreds of can collectors sort through their treasures, turning garbage into wads of cash. They congregate at the nonprofit, Sure We Can, a redemption center created in 2007 as a place for collectors to exchange cans and bottles for 5 cents each. It's work that often goes under the radar. The can collectors say they work 10 to 15 hours each day, sometimes starting at 4 a.m., if not earlier. Brooklyn artists are now raising awareness about their good deeds, decorating the carts they use to haul their goods.

Date: May 13, 2016

Time: 1:29

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

BILL CLINTON IN PATERSON

Former President Bill Clinton held a rally in Paterson to support his wife Hillary's presidential campaign. During the rally, Clinton addressed the need for jobs, affordable education, and the lead crisis in America.

Date: May 13, 2016

Time: 3:08

ISSUES: Government/Politics

THE LOVE THAT BROKE TRUMP

Many people have accused Donald Trump of being a racist and have sought ways of proving it. Chaser Sibile spoke to Thought Catalog.com writer Daniel Hayes who singled out Kara Young, a supermodel Trump dated, and asked if Trump refused to love her because she's black. Sibile got an exclusive interview with Kara Young at her Hair Rules salon on Ninth Avenue in Manhattan. Young has been on the cover of Vogue several times, posed for Playboy, and worked as a Victoria Secret model. When she was 16 at the start of her career, her dad tried to discourage her. Young followed her instincts and became a smashing success: a supermodel! Trump started dating Kara in 2001 after he broke up with Marla Maples and some believed Young was the love of his life. Now Kara focuses on her salon and charity causes. She's on the board of Actions against Hunger.

Date: May 16, 2016

Time: 1:44

ISSUES: Community

WHO KILLED LI'L BRENDAN?

David Creato Jr. who is accused of murdering his 3-year-old son, Brendan, appeared in court on Monday for a pretrial hearing and to address a motion for dismissal filed by his attorney. After hearing the defense and prosecution state their cases, Judge John T. Kelley made his determination. Will the murder charges be thrown out or will Creato stay in jail and await a trial date for the murder of his boy?

Date: May 16, 2016

Time: 3:28

ISSUES: Government/Politics

UNDERCOVER DONALD

Audio released by the Washington Post supposedly catches presidential nominee Donald Trump acting as his own publicist but using the alias John Miller. The audio is from a 1991 conversation between People Magazine reporter Sue Carswell and Trump who many believe was posing as John Miller. Now Carswell alleges that Trump is the one who released that audio to the Washington Post.

Date: May 16, 2016

Time: 3:02

ISSUES: Community / Children/Youth

MIRACLE BABY TURNS 1

Hayden Spratt celebrated her first birthday in Jackson, New Jersey last weekend. While Hayden and her parents Kim and Fred Spratt were all smiles, this past year has not been easy. In May 2015, Kim and Fred took a babymoon to Portugal. Kim was pregnant with twins and the trip was approved by her doctors. But at just 24 weeks pregnant, Kim went into labor and delivered twins Hudson and Hayden in Portugal. Two weeks later, Hudson passed away. The family had to stay in Portugal for four months while Hayden built strength to make the return flight to the United States. Eight months later, the family has reason to celebrate. Hayden is doing well and now weighs 14 pounds, 10 ounces. She has doctor's appointments regularly and does physical therapy exercises daily. She is also on oxygen while she sleeps at night. Fred and Kim are appreciative of the help they've been given.

Date: May 16, 2016

Time: 3:01

ISSUES: Community / Substance Abuse

WANTED: MORE ANGELS

As the number of people battling addiction soars, there's a new crisis surfacing: Who can help them? Addiction centers say they're struggling to hire qualified workers, telling Diana that the stigma surrounding the epidemic along with long hours and low pay can be emotionally and physically draining for workers. Some facilities in the New York area say they see high turnover every six months.

The crisis comes at a time when their services are needed most. Research show the industry is expected to grow 22% in the next 10 years, compared with just over 6% for other areas of work.

Date: May 16, 2016

Time: 3:05

ISSUES: Government/Politics

YOUR "TRUMP PLAN B"

There's a new dating website that offers Americans the opportunity to connect with their neighbors to the north. Maple Match was created for Americans wary of a Trump presidency. Over 5,000 people have signed up to shack up with a Canadian in the event that Donald Trump is elected. Tara hit the streets near the Canadian consulate to see what this dating craze is all about.

Date: May 17, 2016

Time: 3:10

ISSUES: Government/Politics

TRUMP'S IMAGINARY HAREM

Donald Trump has had many beautiful wives. But it seems some of his relationships may be fiction. In an audiotape released by the Washington Post last week, Trump allegedly poses as his publicist "John Miller" and talks about supermodel Carla Bruni.

Date: May 17, 2016

Time: 3:14

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

BRIDGEGATE

John Doe has struck again. The unnamed, unindicted co-conspirator who managed to get the list of co-conspirators in the Bridgegate case delayed last week has appealed, and that appeal was accepted Tuesday by the Third Circuit Court of Appeals. The list of Bridgegate names, which was supposed to be released at noon, will again be delayed, at least until June 6, when the court will hear the case.

Date: May 17, 2016

Time: 2:51

ISSUES: Community

I FOUGHT THE LAW

Can you imagine getting $12,000 in parking tickets for parking legally on the street? Well, that's just what happened to Jeremy Skehan, a Bronx resident who says for the last three years he has been issued over 75 tickets for parking near or in front of pedestrian curb cuts. According to a 2009 change in parking rules, it is legal to park at an intersection where there's no painted crosswalk going across the street, there's no traffic light, and there is no stop signs. Skehan explained the problem appears to stem from a misunderstanding of a 2009 change in parking regulations.

Date: May 17, 2016

Time: 3:09

ISSUES: Community

LASER TAG BRUNCH

Getting a reservation for brunch in New York City is tough, but now it is more competitive than ever. Lazer Brunch goes down once a month and combines brunch with laser tag. Chaser Tara headed to Hudson Terrace in Midtown Manhattan to have a bite and play a game and came out in the winner's circle.

Date: May 17, 2016

Time: 4:00

ISSUES: Community

HEROES IN THE AIR

What's it like to put your life in the hands of a U.S. Army Soldier? Chaser Alex found out during the Joint Base McGuire Dix Lakehurst air show when he flew and jumped with the Golden Knights parachute team. Strapped to Sgt. Rich Sloan, Alex jumped from the Golden Knights' plane at 13,500 feet above the airfield. Dan describes free-falling as feeling like a gentle descent rather than a plummet to earth. At 5,500 feet, Sloan pulled the ripcord and opened the parachute, allowing them to cruise down from the sky to a gentle landing in the field. The Golden Knights are some of the most skilled parachute demonstrators in the world. These soldiers know what it is like to trust another with their lives, and for one day Alex had to trust them.

Date: May 17, 2016

Time: 1:48

ISSUES: Community

NEW GIRAFFES IN JERSEY

A little bit of Africa just came to Turtle Back Zoo and Chaser Jillian is calling it Giraffe Park! The Essex County zoo has finally unveiled their new African adventure exhibit, a 200-by-100-foot area designed to bring you right to the African savannah, complete with whistling ducks, ostrich, tortoises, elands, and giraffes. Four of the tallest animals in the world Lincoln, Milo, Hodari, Kamau were welcomed into a new $7 million exhibit African exhibit, one of the largest in the zoo history.

Date: May 18, 2016
Time: 3:29
ISSUES: Community
SIDE-SWIPE

A video from the Linwood Police Department was recorded last week by the body camera of an officer as he attempts to help an injured motorist. In a split second, the officer turns and is almost killed as he is sideswiped by a passing car. The car rips the door off the cruiser. Unfortunately, this isn't the first or the last time something like this will happen. One mother has not given up hope that she will teach everyone about the "Move Over" Law. She lost her own son, a state trooper, and doesn't want anyone else to go through that pain.

Date: May 18, 2016
Time: 3:08
ISSUES: Government/Politics
TRUMP'S POTTY MOUTH

Chasing News obtained audio of Donald Trump asking Chauncey Hayden in 2006 to kill a story. At the time, Chauncey Hayden was editor of Metropolis Nights magazine. Penthouse Pet Victoria Zurek spoke out about her date with Trump and Trump begged the magazine's editor to kill the story. Victoria was both a Playboy Playmate and Penthouse Pet. In the audio, Trump claims that he never dated Victoria. Chauncey printed the cover story anyway. A year and a half ago, he asked Victoria how she felt about Trump, claiming they never dated.

Date: May 18, 2016
Time: 3:26
ISSUES: Community / Economy
A WARM SMILE VS A COLD KEYBOARD

The wind whistles through the empty parking lot of the old Boscov's at Oxford Valley Mall on Business Route 1 in Langhorne. The stores sat quietly waiting for a new tenant since the old one left in 2008. Other retailers inside the mall, such as Pacific Sun wear and Aeropostale, are facing tough times, both having filed Chapter 11 bankruptcy in the last two months. Then there are the Malleoli Brothers who've been in the car sales, service and repair business for years. Retail dynamics haven't changed the car repair business much. You can buy things online, like tires, but Mark says delivery and service charges make it cheaper to buy them in the showroom. And though quality of service has always been a big factor, it's never been so important. A deserted BP station that used to be a McDonald's sits across from the mall. The Sports Authority across the road will be closing soon.

Date: May 18, 2016
Time: 3:46
ISSUES: Community
WHO SPEAKS FOR THE VETS?

Our Community Salutes is a national nonprofit that honors high school seniors who have committed to joining the military after graduation. The group began eight years ago in South Jersey with Dr. Kenneth Hartman and some high-ranking officials were on hand Wednesday night at the annual welcoming event. Guest speakers included New Jersey Lt. Governor Kim Guadagno and Under Secretary of the Army Patrick Murphy, a former Pennsylvania Congressman. Alex interviewed Murphy one-on-one to ask him about veterans' issues and about the troublesome vets face after leaving the military, including the extremes such as Charles Ingram III, who burned himself to death outside a VA clinic in Northfield, NJ in March. Murphy said, for that reason, the Army keeps contact information for its soldiers when they leave the service and encourages soldiers who have left the Army to volunteer and help newly discharged vets.

Date: May 18, 2016
Time: 3:17
ISSUES: Community
BACK FROM OBLIVION

Bunny DeBarge is the sister of the infamous pop, soul legend El DeBarge. She was part of the electric Motown group DeBarge and she's most known for the R&B hit "A Dream." We caught up with Bunny at the Pyramid Club in Philadelphia for the Pinnacle Awards, which honors those raised in the foster care system or were victims of child abuse and despite the odds found success. The event is a fundraiser for the Being Beautiful Foundation started by Valerie Crabbe and her husband Larry Harris who are committed to improving the lives of children in the foster care system, many who face abuse. Bunny shares her story of being a victim of child abuse. Bunny says her father abused her for years growing up. After years of battling drug addiction, being in and out of rehab, Bunny is devoted to her new album "A Rebirth" and touring.

Date: May 19, 2016
Time: 2:26
ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics
TRUMP IN NJ

Donald Trump hosted a fundraiser Thursday at the National Guard Armory in Lawrence, New Jersey to help Governor Christie reduce his presidential campaign debt $250,000 worth. He was greeted by protesters with signs calling for Trump to be deported and for Trump and Christie to be dumped. We spoke to the protesters and a brave young man flying a Trump flag in defiance.

Date: May 19, 2016

Time: 2:11

ISSUES: Community

IT TAKES A GOAT TO DO A MAN'S JOB

Prospect Park's newest employees, hired to rescue areas in the park damaged by Hurricane Sandy from invasive species like poison ivy, are experts the field of roughage. The Prospect Park Alliance has brought in eight goats Diego, Raptor, Max, Charlie Brown, Skittles, Zoya, Olivia, and Reese from upstate New York to combat invasive plant species that have overgrown areas of the park, which lost trees during Hurricane Sandy. The goats will be hard at work through the summer and are funded by the National Parks Service at a cost of about $15,000. If you want to meet the goats the Prospect Park Alliance has scheduled an event for Sunday as part of a series of summer park events, including a parade to the Prospect Park Zoo.

Date: May 19, 2016

Time: 3:20

ISSUES: Community

A TREE GROWS IN CHELSEA

It has been a long winter and New Yorkers have never been more excited about the summer. So to get them in the mood, Brazilian flip-flop designer Havaianas set up a summer oasis Tuesday at 18th Street and Seventh Avenue to give away palm trees. Chaser Tara stopped by, grabbed the biggest one, rented a U-Haul and brought it to the studio in Trenton.

Date: May 19, 2016

Time: 2:50

ISSUES: Community

OVER OUR DEAD BODIES

Tenants of the senior facility Prospect Park Residence say their landlord has unfairly evicted them and they're refusing to leave. The landlord has reportedly sold the Brooklyn facility to a condo developer. Tenants say he made the announcement two years ago and many of the 120 residents left at that time. But, as more details of the landlord's alleged negotiations come to light, five residents are getting only more stubborn. The landlord is said to have acquired an assisted living facility license only after the building was sold, according to the tenants' lawyer, Judith Goldminer, who told Diana that license helped the landlord avoid housing court in the eviction process. Meanwhile, Haysha Deitsch, the building's landlord, says he followed all state laws and will continue fighting the case in court.

Date: May 19, 2016

Time: 3:06

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

TO SPAY OR NOT TO SPAY

A new law in NYC requires all pet stores to spay and neuter puppies and kittens at just 8 weeks old. Experts say it's inhumane. The law became effective April 1 and pet store owners say they're already seeing the deadly impacts. Michael Berger, owner of Vanity Pups in Bayside, New York, said a poodle that weighed a little more than 2 pounds died a day after the procedure. He said the law requires pet store owners like him to prematurely "fix" an animal and fears for what could happen next. Some veterinarians agree. Dr. John Charos of Central Vets says he would typically recommend an owner neuter or spay an animal starting at 5 months. The law was reportedly passed to control the number of animals in shelters.

Date: May 20, 2016

Time: 2:53

ISSUES: Community Religion

CHURCH WARS

Two churches in Montclair, New Jersey Our Lady of Mount Carmel and the Church of the Immaculate Conception will be forced to merge after an order from the Archdiocese of Newark. Members and parishioners of Our Lady of Mount Carmel are not happy. Attendance has been down over the past 20 years, going from 765 to 393 member families there. In the same span of time, the Church of the Immaculate Conception has stayed pretty level at around 1,000 member families.

Date: May 20, 2016

Time: 3:05

ISSUES: Community

HAUNTED MANHATTAN!

New York City stands as one of the oldest and the largest cities in the nation. It also stands as the most haunted. Haunted Manhattan is exposing the dark side of the Big Apple. Tours take you down memory lane, showing you where the country's elite spent their time in the city and are said to revisit today. Some of the notable figures include August Belmont Jr., Harry Houdini and Peter Stuyvesant.

Date: May 20, 2016

Time: 3:13

ISSUES: Community

THUNDER BOATS

The Offshore Powerboat Association's Point Pleasant Grand Prix is this weekend and preparations came down to the last minute. Anthony's father, Ed, is wrestling with a new windshield for the boat, one made of ballistic carbon fiber. It cost $5,000. Augie Penza is outside looking at his 2005 championship racer. It's not running this weekend. Penza is Vice President of the OPA he's the organization's chief problem-solver and he planned be all over the place this weekend. Augie has a sportsmanship award, the "Godfather" award, named after him. It's given at OPA's annual dinner.

Date: May 20, 2016

Time: 2:21

ISSUES: Community/ Government/Politics

NJ SEN KIP BATEMAN

New Jersey State Senator Kip Bateman joined Chasing News in studio to discuss Donald Trump's visit to New Jersey and his own battle to clarify affordable housing requirements for municipalities. He was candid about Trump saying he's not ready to endorse but given the other choice of Hillary, he'll probably vote for him in the end. Regarding affordable housing, the Mount Laurel decisions of the 1970s require New Jersey towns to have a certain amount of affordable housing. Recent state Supreme Court decisions have reinforced the mandate but have left doubt about the extent of implementation. Towns are scrambling to figure out how many new housing units are required dozens, hundreds or more.

Date: May 20, 2016

Time: 3:15

ISSUES: Community

#FOODIEFRIDAY: BALLPARK FOOD

Bill and Jessica are visiting minor league baseball teams, talking about wonderful ballpark food but also the great talent of Bill Spade and his pitching abilities? Watch the video of him throwing the first pitch at Trenton Thunder's Tuesday night game and his chance for redemption on Thursday night's game at the Lakewood Blue Claws. They indulged on all sorts of everyone's favorite foods from the classic hot dog to "quite a delicious combo." Food at the ball park is always fun!

Date: May 23, 2016

Time: 3:30

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

TWITTER TROLLING!

Hoboken City Councilman Ravinder Bhalla received a racist tweet last week. "How the hell did Hoboken allow this guy to be a councilman? Shouldn't even be allowed in the U.S. #terrorist," the person wrote. Bhalla, who is a Sikh, quickly responded. "Sir, I am born & raised in America. You clearly don't know what it means to be an American. #ignorant." Bhalla, who was born in New Jersey, asked the Twitter troll to lunch in the hope that the interaction could educate him on Sikhism. The offer was not as politely accepted by the Twitter user, who responded via Twitter: "Never."

Date: May 23, 2016

Time: 2:45

ISSUES: Community

GOOD LUCK MISS NJ

In two weeks, there will be a new Miss USA and Chaser Sibile caught up with Miss New Jersey Jessielyn Palumbo, who hopes she's the one. Jessielyn is passionate about art and often visits kids in the hospital to bring a smile to their face. She loves to give them her paintings. Jessielyn also is involved with the USO. She loves to help out with the Operation that's my Dress event, which helps servicewomen and their children find dresses for free. The Miss USA pageant will be televised live on FOX on June 5.

Date: May 23, 2016

Time: 3:56

ISSUES: Community

WILD WEST NJ

You got to get pretty far out into the wilds of Northern New Jersey to reach Wild West City in Stanhope. If you make it that far, ring up Pony Bob Ervin. He says keeping Western heritage alive pays him back with dividends. The old horseman's been patrolling Wild West City since the early '60s. The park opened in 1956. Most park staffers acknowledge he's still Wild West City's greatest horseman. On a stagecoach ride around the park, Glenn Umland said the layout of the park is based in history. There are no rides at the park, but there's plenty to see and learn. A real blacksmith teaches the art of bending hot metal as a "mountain man" shows off his camp.

Date: May 23, 2016

Time: 3:35

ISSUES: Community

SAILING ON YOUR LUNCH BREAK

Tribeca Sailing offers two-hour trips to the Statue of Liberty and back. The Hinckley Sailboat named "Tara" carries up to six passengers on multiple journeys each day, seven days a week. Tara took a tour on "Tara" to check out the view.

Date: May 23, 2016

Time: 1:37

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

VICE PRESIDENT BOOKER?

Senator Cory Booker visited the Princeton Plasma Physics Laboratory Friday for the dedication of a $94 million fusion experiment. He toured the facility to see the innovation taking place with the ultimate goal for fusion to one day is used as a source for clean energy. Also in attendance were U.S. Secretary of Energy Ernest Moniz and U.S. Rep. Bonnie Watson Coleman.

Date: May 23, 2016

Time: 2:57

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

ATLANTIC CITY COMPROMISE

A deal to save the cash-strapped casino town of Atlantic City may be here, as weeks of stalemate and closed-door meetings that went nowhere gave way to unity and praise during an Assembly committee meeting Monday. After an intense week of negotiations, Assembly Speaker Vincent Prieto introduced bills that would give Atlantic City aid enough to get through the rest of the year and guaranteed aid for five years. It gives the city 150 days to balance its budget and develop a long-term plan for financial health. Prieto had been mired in an Assembly vs. Senate fight with his colleague Senate President Steve Sweeney, who had allied with Governor Chris Christie to put together a state takeover plan which could have torn up union contracts. The unions are not immediately affected in the compromise plan, which was presented in the form of four amended bills.

Date: May 24, 2016

Time: 3:25

ISSUES: Community

ANGELS TAKEN TOO SOON

The most heart wrenching version of "Girls Just Wanna Have Fun" was sung by three high school girls Wednesday as hundreds filled Bridgeton High School's stadium to remember three beautiful teen girls whose lives were cut short in car accidents. Family and friends mourned the loss of 15-year-old Mikayla Mosley and 17-year-old Daisia Sultan, who died early Saturday driving back from a post-prom event at the Shore after their car flew off the road and struck a tree on Rt. 49 in Maurice River Township. Police say drugs and alcohol weren't a factor. The community also remembered 18-year-old Luz De La Cruz-Antonio who died in an accident April 29 in Salem County. Luz played on Bridgeton's soccer team and had recently written an essay about her parents.

Date: May 24, 2016

Time: 1:19

ISSUES: Community

RIZZI IN COURT

It was the perp walk that never happened Tuesday at federal U.S. Courthouse in Brooklyn. The perp? Former NYPD Officer Michael Rizzio, who was arrested Tuesday morning and facing federal charges involving money laundering in connection with an escort service he ran. Instead his lawyer Javier Solano appeared, telling reporters his custody had been released on $500,000 bail then promptly rearrested and taken into state custody on gun charges.

Date: May 24, 2016

Time: 2:47

ISSUES: Community

COYOTES ON THE LOOSE!

Early Monday morning four coyotes were spotted making a run for it outside Rikers Island near the bridge that connects the prison to Queens. Coyotes have been seen in downtown Manhattan, Riverside Park, on a bar's rooftop in Queens, and now outside one of America's most notorious prisons. Mark Weckel, an expert with the organization Gotham Coyotes, explains why coyote appearances are becoming more common in urban areas.

Date: May 24, 2016

Time: 2:49

ISSUES: Community / Economy

MILLENNIAL ODD JOBS

A new report released by NYC officials say millennials are making about 20% less than their age counterparts of the generation before. As a result, many young workers in New York and New Jersey are picking up part-time work to supplement a full-time salary. Marc and Greg Aschoff started Last Minute Escape on top of their full-time jobs in teaching and financial services. The business locks people in a room for an hour, requiring players to complete a puzzle in order to be released. The brothers say the extra income allows them to live the life they've always wanted.

Date: May 24, 2016

Time: 3:33

ISSUES: Community

ROGUES' GALLERY

"Crime Stories: Photography and Foul Play" is an exhibit currently on display at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City which examines depictions of crime in photos over the last century and a half. Mia Fineman, one of the Met curators who devised the exhibit, says there has long been a thirst for depiction of crime in photographs. The exhibit includes well-known images such as Lee Harvey Oswald being shot by Jack Ruby and Patty Hearst caught robbing a bank on security camera still. But it also includes lesser-known newspaper and art photos, along with the work of French police photographer Alphonse Bertillon, who invented the mugshot.

Date: May 24, 2016

Time: 3:04

ISSUES: Community

AMERICA'S FAVORITE BIKER BAR

Monday is open mic night at the Great Notch Inn. Harmonicas blare and guitars scream through the open front door into the neon night. Drummer Rich Hempel plays like he owns the place because he does. The Great Notch Inn is a proper roadhouse, a log cabin conspicuous for its complete lack of change over the last 78 years as the world around it has morphed. The bar even predates Route 46, the busy interchange in front that funnels thousands of cars east and west each day. Good house bands aren't as common as they once were, and they're not to be taken for granted. Up until about a month ago, there had been a DOT expansion plan for Route 46 that would've used eminent domain to tear the old roadhouse down. That plan's been changed, and the expansion will now go around the Great Notch Inn.

Date: May 24, 2016

Time: 3:12

ISSUES: Community / Transportation

NJ TRANSIT, HIRE ME!

WWOR TV Vice President and Station Manager Dianne Doctor recently did an editorial talking about the challenges NJ Transit has faced in finding a new executive director and the need for that person to be an outsider. A viewer saw that editorial and sent us his resume saying he'd like to be considered for the top spot at NJ Transit. Chaser Sibille caught up with Gene Haynes at his home in Brooklyn. Haynes has no political connections and is an outsider. He believes that's his best asset.

Date: May 24, 2016

Time: 2:56

ISSUES: Community

RAINDROP CAKE

The raindrop cake was brought to NYC by Darren, who's not your typical chef. Actually, he's not a chef at all. He saw an article online about a new Japanese dessert and no NYC restaurants served it. So he decided to try his hand at it. He shared his recipe with friends and they had a great reaction to it. So he applied to the Brooklyn food market Smorgasbord and he scored a spot in April. The cake is $8 a pop. If you can't make it out to Brooklyn, it's also sold at Round K in the East Village.

Date: May 25, 2016

Time: 3:01

ISSUES: Community

HEY THERE, SAILOR

Fleet Week officially kicked off Wednesday in New York City. Chaser Tara boarded the USS Bataan to get a front row view of the annual parade of ships. Fourteen ships carried nearly 4,500 sailors to the Big Apple. They will take part in various Fleet Week activities to ring in Memorial Day throughout the five boroughs.

Date: May 25, 2016

Time: 3:18

ISSUES: Community

TALE OF THE TAPE

Verizon landline workers remain on strike six weeks into a contract dispute which the union said is less about wages and more about the corporation's practices of increasing jobs being performed overseas. To prove this point, four members of the Communications Workers of America, which represents the 36,000 striking employees, went to the Philippines, where Verizon operates a call center. The four CWA members, who were joined by workers from the Philippines, were outraged when their van was surrounded by Verizon security and later police. Dubnau called the reaction "outrageous." Both parties are continuing negotiations in Washington, D.C. under Labor Secretary Thomas Perez.

Date: May 25, 2016

Time: 3:06

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

TOES IN THE WATER, BUTTS IN THE SAND

Smoking's been illegal on Belmar beaches and boardwalks since 2014, and Mayor Matthew Doherty said he hasn't a single regret. The weather was perfect in Belmar on Wednesday, with plenty of people already on the sand as Memorial Day weekend approaches. That's the backdrop for the New Jersey State Senate as it prepares to vote Thursday on banning smoking in all New Jersey beaches and parks. Governor Chris Christie vetoed a similar bill approved in both houses of the state legislature last year, saying that he believed such bans should be enacted on the local level, and not on a state platform. The Governor has not indicated whether he would sign the bill into law if passed.

Date: May 25, 2016

Time: 3:20

ISSUES: Community

DOGGY DOWNERS & PUPPY UPPERS

A new medication helps dogs cope with noise-related anxiety. Sileo is said to be the first of its kind, helping dogs cope with stress from thunderstorms or construction without altering their personality. Around 70 million dogs across the United States suffer from noise-related anxiety.

Date: May 25, 2016

Time: 3:09

ISSUES: Community

A KIDNEY BETWEEN STRANGERS

Michael- Demby Cain once thrived under the bright lights of Broadway as a player in hits like "Smokey Joe's Cafe" and "Victor Victoria." That was all cut short two years ago when Michael was diagnosed with kidney disease. Michael was on his death bed when he got a transplant from the husband of an acquaintance.

Date: May 25, 2016

Time: 2:37

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

FULOP'S BIG GAMBLE?

The debate continues in Jersey City around the possible development of a casino near Liberty State Park. Mayor Steven Fulop, who once backed the idea, says he is having second thoughts. To get a better understanding of the community's thoughts, Fulop continues to do an online questionnaire. The results, he said, have been "grossly more opposed." Some question why Fulop is hesitant to build a casino that is proposed to bring in $4 billion in private investment, 25,000 jobs and $60 million property tax relief. The politics of the casino development are directly tied into the economic problems Atlantic City is facing, and the messy state takeover Governor Chris Christie and state Senate president and potential gubernatorial candidate Steve Sweeney have been pushing for. Fulop inserted himself into the situation, singling out Christie supporter and political power broker George Norcross for his involvement in the deal. Christie accused Fulop of using the situation for political gain in his run for the Governor's office.

Date: May 26, 2016

Time: 2:37

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

A KINDER, GENTLER CHRISTIE

The State Assembly and Senate passed Atlantic City rescue bills on Thursday that gives the city time to avoid a state takeover. The rescue bills would also provide immediate cash aide to Atlantic City. The bills now go to the desk of Governor Chris Christie, who can either sign or veto them. Governor Christie was also in Atlantic City Thursday. However, he chose to talk about fatherhood to charter school teachers.

Date: May 26, 2016

Time: 3:07

ISSUES: Community

"I'D LIKE THE OPTION TO DIE, PLEASE!"

Two terminally ill sisters in New Jersey are fighting for the state to pass the Aid in Dying for the Terminally Ill Act. Ashley caught up with Laurie and Melissa Wilcox, who are so positive; you would never imagine their personal health battles. Both had long careers in nursing, enjoy traveling together, and unfortunately both are terminally ill with cancer. Laurie has chronic rheumatoid arthritis and non-Hodgins lymphoma. Melissa has small cell lung cancer and two years ago was given just months to live. Both sisters want to make it clear they want to enjoy living life. But especially as nurses they know their journeys ahead are grim. They want the aid in dying so if and when the time comes; they have the option of going in peace.

Date: May 26, 2016

Time: 2:43

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

WHERE'D THEY PUT MY BUS TERMINAL?

After 5 years, Scott Richler is stepping down as Vice Chairman of the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey. He will be replaced by Steven Cohen, a former aide to Gov. Andrew Cuomo. Steven Cohen was asked why he wants to join the Port Authority. Chaser Sibille asked Chairman John Dungan about the status of the new bus terminal to be built in 7 to 10 years.

Date: May 26, 2016

Time: 3:08

ISSUES: Community

"THERE'S A GIRL ON MY BOY"

More girls are taking to wrestling in schools across the nation. Research shows that about 5,000 girls participated in the sport this year, five times the number just a decade earlier. But, while the number of women in the sport is growing, it's still not enough for most schools to dedicate an all's-girls team in an otherwise male-dominated sport. That's why coed wrestling is growing in popularity. Iowa

State Wrestling in Somers, NY is among the many clubs offering coed wrestling. The founder John Diggle says coed wrestling is a great way for players to get better, but he believes competitions should remain separated by gender.

Date: May 26, 2016

Time: 4:16

ISSUES: Community

BIKE LANE BROUHAHA

Bikers who ride on Fifth and Sixth Avenues in Manhattan have been facing more double-parked cars. This can make biking in the city extremely dangerous. Ollie Oliver of Transportation Alternatives said Fifth and Sixth Avenues are the busiest biked streets in the city. Oliver also noted that more than 10% of the vehicles on NYC streets are cyclists. Protected bike lanes create a barrier between bikers and traffic. Janet Liff, a bike lane advocate, says the city has already approved one for Sixth Avenue, but Fifth Avenue is still unprotected.

Date: May 27, 2016

Time: 2:43

ISSUES: Community / Transportation

WHERE'D THEY PUT MY BUS TERMINAL?

After 5 years, Scott Rechler is stepping down as Vice Chairman of the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey. He will be replaced by Steven Cohen, a former aide to Governor Andrew Cuomo. Steven Cohen was asked why he wants to join the Port Authority. Chaser Sibille asked Chairman John Degnan about the status of the new bus terminal to be built in 7 to 10 years

Date: May 27, 2016

Time: 4:16

ISSUES: Community / Transportation

BIKE LANE BROUHAHA

Bikers who ride on Fifth and Sixth Avenues in Manhattan have been facing more double-parked cars. This can make biking in the city extremely dangerous. Ollie Oliver of Transportation Alternatives said Fifth and Sixth Avenues are the busiest biked streets in the city. Oliver also noted that more than 10% of the vehicles on NYC streets are cyclists. Protected bike lanes create a barrier between bikers and traffic. Janet Liff, a bike lane advocate, says the city has already approved one for Sixth Avenue, but Fifth Avenue is still unprotected.

Date: May 30, 2016

Time: 2:57

ISSUES: Community

BEACH BODY TUNE UP

Summer is around the corner and many gyms are filling up with people working to achieve the perfect body. Plastic surgery is also quite popular this time of year. Dr. Norman Rowe in Manhattan said what people want is instant gratification. Most of his clients opt for procedures that give them quick results and don't require going under the knife. There's laser fat reduction and Botox not just for the face, but also feet and scalp to reduce sweating. Rowe encourages people to make sure they go to a certified physician when getting any work done.

Date: May 30, 2016

Time: 3:11

ISSUES: Community

GEESE CHASERS

Animal rights activists are cleaning up goose poop along the Hudson River Waterfront in Edgewater, New Jersey. Geese are an issue in Edgewater and the activists do not want them euthanized. The Animal Protection League of New Jersey wants the borough to hear them out and stop gassing the geese. Some protesters stood with signs in front of Edgewater Borough Hall pleading for officials to put an end to their contract with the USDA which kills the geese via gas chamber. The battle began after the 2009 "Miracle on the Hudson," when a US Airways flight made an unpowered emergency water landing in the Hudson River after bird strikes caused the engines to fail. Protesters say there are better ways of handling the birds than killing them.

Date: May 30, 2016

Time: 1:36

ISSUES: Community / Economy

ATLANTIC CITY SAVED?

Atlantic City has been pulled back from the brink of financial collapse as Governor Chris Christie Friday signed four rescue bills that passed the State Legislature earlier in the week. The bills provide immediate financial aid to the city, which was set to run out of operating cash in less than three weeks. Atlantic City's fate had become a political football in the state capital over the last two months, but ultimatums and impasse gave way to a bipartisan compromise that delays the threat of a state takeover and gives the city time to devise a long-term plan to limit spending. In a statement, Governor Christie said the onus to act is on the city's government.

Date: May 30, 2016

Time: 3:31

ISSUES: Community

BAD DETECTIVE?

Former NYPD Detective Michael Rizzi was charged this week for running a prostitution ring online. Rizzi is also the CEO of what's thought to be the largest porn shop on the East Coast. Friday, Rizzi was in Brooklyn's Kings County criminal court again for a separate gun charge. Outside the courthouse, Rizzi and his attorney initially declined to comment.

Date: May 30, 2016

Time: 1:53

ISSUES: Community / Education

IVY LEAGUE ANGER

Disability rights activists gathered at Princeton University Friday to protest controversial remarks made by tenured university professor Peter Singer. Singer, a bioethicist, has been criticized for his view that Alan Holdsworth, an advocate with Liberty Resources, says this view is similar to the 1930's Nazi view of terminating babies to create a master race. The protesters are not calling for the school to fire Singer or for him to resign, but to have a more inclusive curriculum. The school declined comment on this issue, and Professor Singer could not be reached by email or phone.

Date: May 30, 2016

Time: 3:08

ISSUES: Community

RAINBOW COOKIE DONUT

Beach season is upon us and many chasers are pitching stories about hot new workout trends. This, however, isn't one of those stories. Michael LaMarca chased this story to Glaze Artisan Donuts in Wayne, New Jersey, where mad donut scientist Jule Hazou has gone viral with his latest confectionery creation: the Italian Rainbow Donut. Jule took the almond-y, chocolate-y, raspberry-y goodness of the Italian tricolor cookies we all know and love and put it into a donut.

Date: May 31, 2016

Time: 2:55

ISSUES: Community

A SHOCKING TRAGEDY

A Fair Lawn man remained in critical condition Tuesday after suffering an electric shock in a Jersey Shore motel pool over the weekend. Greg Subiszak, 34, was playing with his son at the Aztec Motel in Wildwood Crest when guests noticed him unconscious and face down in the water. Camden resident Ivan Christopher Martinez jumped into the pool to assist but went into convulsions himself. Both men were pulled out after a staff member turned off the electricity to the pool. Martinez is expected to recover.

Date: May 31, 2016

Time: 2:32

ISSUES: Community

REQUIEM FOR A COWBOY

Nineteen-year-old Cody Lutz died this weekend doing what he loved: riding a bronco at the Cowntown Rodeo in Pilesgrove, New Jersey. On the phone Tuesday morning, his father, Doug, told me Cody was a gladiator. In rodeo bronco busting, Cody's specialty, a rider tries to stay aboard a bucking horse for eight seconds. That's what Cody was doing when he was thrown, then tragically trampled, by the horse. He was rushed to Salem County Memorial Hospital where he was pronounced dead. Cody's father Doug said he blames no one for Cody's death including Cowntown, which bills itself as the oldest weekly rodeo in the nation. Doug said Cody was a grown man who was good at what he did. He'd won a full scholarship to the University of Tennessee Martin in rodeo and was exceling at the sport, even winning money in some events. Cody died doing what he loved most being a cowboy. Despite Cody's considerable success in the ring, Doug says he's proudest of the son he raised, calling Cody a better man than him.

Date: May 31, 2016

Time: 2:35

ISSUES: Community

BAD DETECTIVE?

Manhattan madam Kristin Davis is back in the spotlight. Davis said on Moreno in the Morning on AM 970 the Answer that ex-NYPD detective Michael Rizzi sought her advice. Rizzi is accused of running a high-end prostitution ring online. Davis, who is currently in prison, previously booked prostitutes for former New York Governor Eliot Spitzer. Rizzi's lawyer says his client and Kristin Davis never met.

Date: May 31, 2016

Time: 2:57

ISSUES: Community

ON A WING AND A PRAYER

Parrots and ferrets and squirrels, oh my! These are just some of the patients you'll find at the Center for Avian & Exotic Medicine on the Upper West Side. This exotic animal hospital is the only one of its kind in NYC. Lorelei Tibbetts, a licensed vet technician, described what types of animals the facility cares for. She also added the reason for most of the pets' visits.

Date: May 31, 2016

Time: 2:38

ISSUES: Community

YOU'VE BEEN HACKED!

Hacking threats are on the rise and experts say if you haven't been hacked yet, there's a good chance your personal information will be stolen soon. Leo Versola told Diana that the technology used by hackers is constantly advancing and that it's extremely difficult to develop software to prevent it. Already this year, there's been a 55% increase in ransoms alone from hacking, and a million websites are said to be hacked daily. Versola works for Comodo, a company specializing in cybersecurity.

Date: May 31, 2016

Time: 2:49

ISSUES: Community / Health

A WOMAN'S PEACE OF MIND

Since 2009, Mary's Place by the Sea in Ocean Grove has been a haven for women who have been diagnosed with cancer. It's a retreat where women can visit and meet with other women going through similar issues. The trouble is that they have been so successful that they have outgrown their current home. Mary's Place by the Sea is gearing up to open their brand new, state-of-the-art facility right around the corner from the old one.

Date: June 1, 2016

Time: 1:22

ISSUES: Community

HERO OR KILLER?

As Mamadou Diallo pulled into a parking space next to his apartment building in the Bronx Monday night, he got a phone call from his wife telling him a man was assaulting and trying to rape her. Diallo ran into the man who had forced his way into the couple's apartment and beat him with a tire iron. The would-be rapist, Earl Nash, died later at nearby Lincoln Hospital. Diallo's charges were downgraded from manslaughter to assault and the community is rallying around him.

Date: June 1, 2016

Time: 1:49

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

HILLARY IN NJ

Sibile chased Hillary Clinton in Newark. The bigger celebrity in town was New Jersey rock star Jon Bon Jovi. When he walked in the room at the campaign event at Rutgers Newark, the energy was definitely electric. Senator Cory Booker introduced Clinton amid rumors that he could be her pick for vice president. Chaser Sibile asked Booker if he will be Hillary's VP pick. New Jersey is currently facing a health scare as a baby was born Tuesday to a mother with the Zika virus at Hackensack University Medical Center. Clinton said every sensible person should be worried about the virus.

Date: June 1, 2016

Time: 2:46

ISSUES: Community

MOTORCYCLE MAMAS

Expect to see more women riding motorcycles this summer. Female motorcycle ownership has peaked at an all-time high, according to the Motorcycle Industry Council. The latest data say women account for 14% of all motorcycle owners, an 8% jump since 1998. Chasing News spoke to the Sirens Motorcycle Club about the trend, which is the largest and oldest female motorcycle gang in New York. The women say they've noticed the trend, pointing to the increase in their yearly pledge class. Many women say they took up riding a motorcycle after riding as a passenger for years.

Date: June 1, 2016

Time: 3:26

ISSUES: Community / Health

NJ'S ZIKA THREAT

A baby girl born Tuesday to Hackensack University Medical Center has microcephaly linked to the Zika virus. This is reportedly the first case of a baby born with congenital Zika complications in the Northeast. A news conference was held at the hospital to update the public on the condition of the child and mother. Governor Chris Christie expressed his sympathies to the family of the baby and said he was confident in the state's plan to contain the disease. Speaking following a roundtable discussion with parents at the Village Charter School in Trenton, Christie said the birth of the baby after the mother was infected with the virus in her native Honduras didn't merit an adjustment.

Date: June 1, 2016

Time: 2:44

ISSUES: Community

THE NANNY CAM TRIAL

Three years after a "nanny-cam" captured a home invader brutally beating a mother near her two children, the man arrested for the attack has been found guilty on multiple charges. The jury found the defendant Shawn Curtis guilty of multiple counts including aggravated assault, endangering the welfare of a child and robbery. Curtis was found not guilty of the most serious charge, attempted murder. Essex County Assistant Prosecutor Jamel Semper said the victim and her family had "been through a lot with the case," but characterized her reaction as "relief." Sentencing is scheduled June 29. Semper says the prosecutor's office will pursue the maximum amount of time, which because of Curtis' prior record and current convictions could be an "extended term of up to life in prison."

Date: June 2, 2016

Time: 4:22

ISSUES: Community / Education

TABLE OF TROUBLE

Kean University in Union NJ caused a fuss in 2014 when the administration purchased a conference table for $250,000. Outraged students and teachers called for an investigation, and they got one courtesy of the New Jersey state comptroller's office. Their report was released Wednesday and blasted Kean University for going outside its own procurement practices, which includes putting such purchases up for bid. Kean University responded in a statement that there were omissions in the comptroller's report.

Date: June 2, 2016

Time: 2:08

ISSUES: Community / Religion

"LORD, I'VE BEEN SWINDLED!"

A swindler who tried to steal a Newark church last year by showing up with a fake deed could be out on parole next month, and the church pastor is worried. Bishop Frank Garris of the Positive Proof Family Worship Church on Clinton Avenue described what happened last summer after the congregation had purchased the historic Clinton Avenue Presbyterian Church. He went to inspect the property but couldn't get the alarm to go off. The police showed up and so did the would-be thief. It led to a police investigation and 35-year-old Ramon Hamlett was later arrested at the church. He pleaded guilty to theft by deception and tampering. He was sentenced to 3 years in prison with parole as an option next month. Essex County officials say they deal with people trying to commit fraud at least twice a week and urge people to be cautious.

Date: June 2, 2016

Time: 1:48

ISSUES: Community / Religion / Children/Youth

THE MIRACLE OF GRACE

A New Jersey girl who got a chance to meet Pope Francis while she was battling a rare form of cancer is now cancer free. Grace West of Freehold was diagnosed with a rare form of nerve cell cancer at age 10. The Make-A-Wish Foundation arranged a trip to the Vatican, and she was kissed by the pope during her visit. A year and a half later she's cancer free. Grace, whose nickname is Cookie, started a foundation called Cookie's Crumblers to raise money for cancer research goes by the nickname, "Cookie." On Saturday the foundation will hold its inaugural Gala of Gratitude.

Date: June 2, 2016

Time: 3:45

ISSUES: Substance Abuse

HEROIN UNDER MY SKIN

Could a new form of treatment help heroin addicts stay sober? That's what some experts are hoping following the FDA's approval of Probuphine, an implant that releases buprenorphine over a six-month period. Buprenorphine helps those addicted to opioids stem their cravings. It's the first implant of its kind meant for patients who are in the maintenance stage of their addiction treatment

Date: June 2, 2016

Time: 3:03

ISSUES: Community

PINCH ME!

Coverage from Chaser Ashley J. caught up with comedian Dan Nainan in NYC where he shared his humor and a dirty little secret: He's a nail biter. Dan has taken to technology to break his bad habit using a device known as the Pavlok. He wears the $169 device it on his wrist, and every time he has the urge to bite his nails, he is supposed to press the band to shock himself. It's a form of pavlovian conditioning. Bober says there are no studies to prove a device like this kind works, but says the key to breaking a bad habit is time

Date: June 2, 2016

Time: 2:40

ISSUES: Community

HOOF HEARTED

Looking for a career as a horse jumping instructor? Want a bachelor's degree in equine studies? You can get one, but in New Jersey only at Centenary University. The school's equine center is a place for the study of the horse. Over 100 horses reside there, where they help with instructing the 120 students who have concentrations like equine business management, riding instruction, and even communication for the equine industry. The horse is the state animal of New Jersey, and State Agriculture Secretary Douglas Fisher came to the Long Valley-based equine center to officially kick off the Jersey's designation for June as the Month of the Horse. Alex Zdan traveled to Centenary to talk with a student and even got a quick course in horse grooming.

Date: June 3, 2016

Time: 2:51

ISSUES: Community

WHAT'S UNDER THE BRIDGE?

Chaser Ashley went back out to the Ackerman Avenue Bridge in Clifton which she said is slowly starting to look like a different world. Since Memorial Day sanitation workers have been spending full days cleaning up what once was the home of migrant workers. Ashley brought along Passaic River expert Wheeler Antabanez who was with her when she first chased under the bridge in April. At the time there were mounds of trash and both agreed it was devastating knowing people lived in such deplorable conditions. Since the Clifton and Jeff Wild with New Jersey Coalition to End Homelessness helped the men relocate into shelters.

Date: June 3, 2016

Time: 3:31

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

PICTURES OF CRIME

NYC Mayor Bill de Blasio has sought to have a tough image on crime. Chaser Sibile has covered how the NYPD has been cracking down on illegal ATV and dirt bikes by crushing them. But is the NYPD really making a difference in the toughest neighborhoods, the troubled NYC Housing Authority projects? To find out, Sibile met up with Rita and Raymond Raymondeau who have been married for 47 years. They live in the Queensbridge housing complex in Long Island City. Rita and Raymond walk around the Queensbridge housing complex where they live and take pictures of crime scenes. They showed Sibile pictures of crime scenes throughout the housing complex. A photo of a gunshot taken by Rita was sold as art at a recent auction.

Date: June 3, 2016

Time: 2:47

ISSUES: Community

MOLTEN INSPIRATION

Ever wonder where the Alice in Wonderland Statue in Central Park came from? The Modern Art Foundry in Queens, of course! The company has been a home to artists from all around the world for years, becoming a place where their small-sized models can be transformed into life-size figures.

Date: June 3, 2016

Time: 1:16

ISSUES: Community

JAY PHAROAH ON NJ 101.5

Do you put sprinkles or jimmies on your ice cream? On Friday, Jay Pharaoh of "Saturday Night Live" was on Bill Spadea's NJ 101.5 radio show to promote his performance at the Stress Factory Comedy Club in New Brunswick.

Date: June 3, 2016

Time: 1:41

ISSUES: Community

ROHAN'S INDIAN SUMMER: SEA BRIGHT

Rohan's Indian summer begins in Sea Bright. Upon his trusty bike, Brown Betty, he tours this small town at the northern end of the Jersey Shore, just below Sandy Hook. One place you cannot miss is Woody's, food and drink to die for!

Date: June 3, 2016

Time: 3:43

ISSUES: Community

ROBOT MAIDS

Budgee, the friendly robotic assistant, was designed with one thing in mind: helping you carry your stuff. Budgee is Five Elements' first step toward bringing a future vision of consumer-level robots into the present. Budgee can haul about 50 pounds of stuff in its basket and can go anywhere a wheelchair can. It retails for about $1,400 online and it's assembled in New Jersey. The company's next product might make a bigger impact here. It's called DASH, a robotic shopping cart being marketed to the biggest retailers. DASH will ingest a shopper's list; escort that shopper across the store item by item, and most importantly, allow that shopper to check out of the store while avoiding checkout lines. Roberts is hoping that DASH will be operational on store floors by the end of 2017.

Date: June 3, 2016

Time: 3:10

ISSUES: Community

PAINT AND A PINT

There's a girls night out trend that involves wine and paint. Chaser Sibile headed to the Sip of Art gallery in West Orange, NJ to check it out. The evening began with some wine, and then women grabbed their brushes and started to paint. Yvonne Smith told Sibile she felt like Monet.

Date: June 6, 2016

Time: 3:36

ISSUES: Community / Minority IssuesPUNCHY IN BLOOMFIELD?

Has the use of force by Bloomfield police officers increased? According to a new report by the Latino Leadership Alliance of New Jersey (LLANJ) arrests that included reports of use of force have risen, but a closer analysis of those numbers might say something else. According to Bloomfield Police Director Samuel DeMaio, "the number absolutely did go up, but there's a reason that it went up: in 2014 we did 866 arrests and in 2015 we arrested 1941 people." DeMaio says arrest double from 2014 to 2015, but the percentage of use of force in comparison to arrest numbers actually went down. However, Maria Teresa Montilla of the LLANJ says that the numbers disproportionately affect minorities. The report highlighted a "500% increase of use of force for African Americans and 332% increase for Latinos in the same period.

Date: June 6, 2016

Time: 1:45

ISSUES: CommunityBRIDGEGATE UPDATE

Should the names of the unindicted co-conspirators in the George Washington Bridge lane closure scheme be made public? No decision was made on Monday during oral arguments in the Bridgegate trial. For nearly two hours, arguments were heard before the U.S. Third Circuit Court of Appeals in Philadelphia. US Attorney Paul Fishman says judges now have the list of unindicted co-conspirators. A decision on whether or not to reveal the list should be made in a matter of weeks according to media attorney Bruce Rosen.

Date: June 6, 2016

Time: 2:14

ISSUES: Community"REAL HOUSEWIFE" SHOCKER

John Karagiorgis passed away Saturday from a heart attack. He was a co-owner of the legendary Rutt's Hut in Clifton, home of the deep fried hot dog. Some also remember him as "Johnny The Greek" from Bravo TV show "The Real Housewives of New Jersey."

Date: June 6, 2016

Time: 1:35

ISSUES: Community

U.S. and Cuban officials are reportedly in talks to return Fugitive Joanne Chesimard back to New Jersey. Chesimard, also known as Assata Shakur, escaped prison in 1979 after she was convicted of killing a NJ state trooper. Chesimard's lawyer says he doubts prisoner swap in the works. Lennox Hinds said, "No one has contacted me." Meanwhile, New Jersey State Police spokesman said they have no information on any potential U.S.-Cuba prisoner swap involving Joanne Chesimard.

Date: June 6, 2016

Time: 5:51

ISSUES: Community / Government/PoliticsNJ PRIMARY DAY PREVIEW

The NJ primary on Tuesday will be the decisive factor in whether Hillary Clinton will make history and clinch the Democratic nomination. She has gotten tons of love here in the Garden State and is expected to crush Bernie Sanders, leading in a recent poll by 61 to 34%. California however is a different story. The race between Bernie Sanders and Hillary Clinton is tight, and neither can afford to lose it. Bernie has reiterated his commitment to take his fight all the way to the convention. But if he loses California, he'll have a massive credibility problem and it will become crystal clear that it's his ego driving his agenda and not a desire to improve the Democratic Party. If Hillary loses in California, even if she wins in NJ, she'll appear weak and add fuel to her critics who say that Bernie is right to stay in the race because she's can't win a general election. In terms of Trump, the longer Bernie and Hillary battle, the better his national poll numbers.

Date: June 6, 2016

Time: 2:33

ISSUES: CommunityI'M A THOUSANDAIRE!

Noah Kaplan has been a broker in NYC for a decade but he still doesn't see it the way it is depicted on Bravo's "Million Dollar Listing." So he made a YouTube series of his own titled "Thousand Dollar Listing." Tara headed to Brooklyn to check out the real life reality of the real estate game and it is not pretty.

Date: June 7, 2016

Time: 4:44

ISSUES: Community / Government/PoliticsPRIMARY DAY IN HUDSON COUNTY/ CHRISTIE ON TRUMP

For John Brzozowski, Deputy Superintendent of the Hudson County Board of Elections, the NJ Primary Election is game day. The polls opened at 6 a.m. and by 7, he's got a voting machine down in Guttenberg and a broken wheelchair ramp in Jersey City. Electoral officials say they are cognizant of Hudson County's colorful political history. They add that they've taken measures to ensure a transparent voting process. Trump has been criticized for saying Curiel, who is the son of Mexican immigrants, cannot fairly rule on a class-action lawsuit brought against Trump by former students at the defunct Trump University because of Trump's hard-liner positions on illegal immigration.

Date: June 7, 2016

Time: 3:10

ISSUES: Community / Health

ZIKA IN NJ

It is almost mosquito season and two New Jersey towns are taking extra precautions to fight the swarms of potentially life-threatening bloodsuckers. Mosquitos can spread diseases like West Nile, Dengue, and Zika. Woodbridge and Perth Amboy last month began working with the Middlesex County Mosquito Commission to employ extra measures to stop mosquitos from breeding, including a social media information campaign, mosquito traps, and chemical sprays. Perth Amboy Mayor Wilda Diaz contacted mosquito control over a month ago in order to plan measures to prevent mosquito breeding. Diaz said, Perth Amboy's residents are particularly vulnerable because many residents are from or have family in Latin America. Matthew Bickerton, a biologist with the Middlesex County Mosquito Commission, said the county is closely monitoring mosquitoes for diseases including the Zika virus.

Date: June 7, 2016

Time: 3:14

ISSUES: Community

MY PARKING NIGHTMARE

Ken bought his home on 24 Center St. in 2004. He's spent years making it look as cute, cozy and sturdy as you see right here. It's amazingly beautiful, but tiny. The house has no garage or driveway. The home almost touches the house to the left and to the right. Multiple properties surround the backyard, not a roadway. There is simply no space to even think about putting a driveway or garage in. Midland Park has a borough ordinance banning any cars to be parked on the street from 2 to 6 a.m.

Date: June 7, 2016

Time: 3:04

ISSUES: Community

TONIGHT ON "FBI DOG!"

Iris, a black Labrador puppy is one of only seven dogs in the world with a job of her clout with the FBI. She's loving and playful, but Iris is all about business when it comes to her job. Iris is trained to scout out electronics: cell phones, micro SD chips, flash drives, etc. We show you the routine she goes through every day with her trainer Special Agent Jeffrey Calandra. The FBI says it is all about keeping up with the times and iris helps them find evidence often stored on a device. Iris gets fed only after she completes her duties and often when the job is complete, iris is still determined to put her skills to use.

Date: June 7, 2016

Time: 2:20

ISSUES: Community

FEELING AT THE TROUGH

The Port Authority's talk about building another tunnel under the Hudson River and a $10 billion new bus terminal may be just that talk! Chaser Sibile spoke to Steve Malanga who covers the Port Authority at the Manhattan Institute in NY. Malanga says the Port Authority does not have the funds for the new tunnel and bus terminal. The Port Authority has about $20 billion in debt. The astronomical costs of employee pensions, benefits, and overtime costs are a major factor.

Date: June 7, 2016

Time: 2:46

ISSUES: Community

CSI NEW JERSEY

Donna Fontana is a forensic anthropologist for the New Jersey State Police. A forensic anthropologist is someone who gathers and interprets evidence to help identify human remains and cause of death. While she spends most of her time in a lab or office, the process starts with the discovery of a body. Donna, along with law enforcement, will head to the location where the body was found and excavate it. After that, the remains are photographed and x-rayed. All of the bones are measured and a report is filed. A national online database called Namus is making the process of identification easier.

Date: June 8, 2016

Time: 3:40

ISSUES: Community

OH MY GOD, HE'S GOT A GUN!

Michelle Marks, 23, finished her shift at Fornino Pizza in Brooklyn Heights Monday around 9 p.m. She left work and headed to her bus stop a short, usually safe walk toward the bus she took back home to Crown Heights. Those were her last steps before a single gunshot to the back of her head ended her promising life. Her ex-boyfriend is now in custody in connection with her death.

Date: June 8, 2016

Time: 3:30

ISSUES: Community

TABLE TROUBLE

Kean University has taken a beating on the quarter-million-dollar conference table it bought in 2014. Last week the NJ State Comptroller's office issued a report saying that Kean hadn't followed its own procurement rules and had ordered and even shipped the table before Kean's board had even approved the purchase. Now Union Municipal Attorney Dan Antonelli is calling for a full investigation, saying that public money has been grossly misspent. He adds that the possibility of criminal conduct would be well looked into. Kean has contradicted the comptroller's report in a statement, saying that proper channels were followed, no wrongdoing occurred, and the college had gotten maximum value for the dollar spent. Howard Bunsis, chairman of the American Association of University Professors Collective Bargaining Congress, says that any college's spending priorities need to remain firmly on the students' classroom experience. Bunsis added that according to his calculations, Kean is spending less money on instructional priorities and more on administrative costs.

Date: June 8, 2016

Time: 2:46

ISSUES: Community

CRAMMED CANINES

On Wednesday afternoon, Alaina Casha adopted the first dog, out of 276 rescued, from an animal hoarding couple in Howell NJ. Alaina said the family has not decided on a name, but "Lucky" or "Second Chance" is possibilities. All 276 dogs have undergone different levels of clinical since their rescue including vaccinations, microchips, as well as being spayed or neutered. Many suffer from skin problems due to the deplorable living conditions in the cramped house. Chief Ross Licitra, of the Monmouth County SPCA Humane Law Enforcement Division, described the scene at the Howell home as "the worst animal hoarding situation ever in Monmouth County." According to Chief Licitra, the couple could be "facing a minimum of 276 charges of animal cruelty which could result in over $100,000 in fines if pursued." However, no charges will be set until after a meeting with the prosecutor's office, which is scheduled for Monday.

Date: June 8, 2016

Time: 1:13

ISSUES: Community

TROUBLE ON THE TRACKS

A conductor was discovered operating a NJ Transit train with a suspended license because of DUI convictions. Chaser Sibile attended Wednesday's NJ Transit board meeting to ask the interim executive director Dennis Martin what he planned to do about this. NJ legislators are trying to pass legislation that would ban train conductors with suspended driver's licenses because of DUIs from operating our trains.

Date: June 8, 2016

Time: 2:07

ISSUES: Community

A HUNTER'S GIFT

New Jersey hunter Kevin Beutel came to the Chasing News studio to show off his new "do." Beutel, who documents his hunting and cooking adventures at GoodTimesHunting.com, explained that he lost his father and his sister in May 2011 to cancer and wanted to do something to honor them. In the five years since he's been growing his hair past his shoulders with the aim of cutting it off and donating it to children with hair loss. Sandi Bongart of Adorn Beauty Center & Spa in Bordentown did the honors. Shore Medical sent out 213 letters warning people they could have been infected.

Date: June 9, 2016

Time: 2:42

ISSUES: Community

CRAMMED CANINES

The number of dogs rescued from a hoarding situation in Howell NJ last week rose to 280 after four dogs that were found hiding outside the hoarders' house was brought to the SPCA late Wednesday in Eatontown. That number is expected to rise as about 20 of the rescued dogs are pregnant. Just one day after the Howell hoarding situation was discovered, authorities responded to 47 dogs hoarded in Hopatcong. Karen Yost, director of the Father John's Animal House, volunteered to take in several dogs from both locations. "The amazing thing about hoarding cases here in New Jersey is that all the animal rescue organization reach out and say, 'How can I help?' and that's exactly what we did, we reached out to people on the scene and offered some of our kennel runs."

Date: June 9, 2016

Time: 3:27

ISSUES: Community

MEMORIAL MESS

Joe Mongelli is 95. If "war is hell" then the old submariner's seen it firsthand. Joe and other veterans have been telling such war stories at the museum and memorial since 1972. The museum's centerpiece is the USS Ling, a World War II-era submarine where schoolkids, veterans, history buffs and anyone else who cared to could learn American military history, see the sights, and remember those who gave all. The museum's on borrowed time, sitting on ground it doesn't own. It had been on a dollar-per-year lease, a gift from the veteran grandfather of the museum's current property owner, Stephen Borg. That lease ended May 31. The plan now is redevelopment.

Volunteers say they understand, but they would have liked to be a part of it. The ship sits in 6 feet of water, mired in mud. She can't be moved. Most acknowledge that if she can't be moved somehow, she'll simply be left to sink rusting into the mud.

Date: June 9, 2016

Time: 2:47

ISSUES: Community

SURF SHOP RESURGENCE

In May 2015, the iconic 7th Street Surf Shop in Ocean City, NJ had gone up in flames, along with all of their new gear and surfboards for the upcoming season. Out back was a graveyard of surfboards. It was a horrible sight. They were resilient, however, as they wouldn't let the tragedy break their spirit. One year later, they are back and poised for a very big summer 2016 and beyond!

Date: June 9, 2016

Time: 2:59

ISSUES: Community

WALKING DEAD CONTROVERSY

New photos show kids re-enacting scenes from the AMC TV show "The Walking Dead." As you can imagine, they have made some waves. Alana Hubbard of Mother Hubbard Photography in Woodbridge, New Jersey posted them to her Facebook business page Saturday. Many people are praising her photos, with the TV show even recognizing her work. However, other Facebook users aren't as excited. Shortly after she posted the zombie photos, Facebook deleted them. After she re-uploaded them, they suspended her account. Facebook later apologized and reinstated her account. Alana stands by her work and the other parents do as well.

Date: June 9, 2016

Time: 2:55

ISSUES: Community

ROCKAWAY REBIRTH

This summer Rockaway Beach has some exciting new amenities to entice New Yorkers to visit. Chaser Tara headed to check out the newly completed stormproof boardwalk and stopped by Marina 59 to try out some new activities meant for fun in the sun. Four summers after Superstorm Sandy devastated the Rockaways, there is more to see and do now than ever before. So this summer hop on the A train and head to the Rockaway shore.

Date: June 9, 2016

Time: 3:37

ISSUES: Community

FREE PORTRAIT PROJECT

Artist Rusty Zimmerman's message is simple: Say hello to your neighbor. Rusty quit his job and began this project almost a year ago. His goal is to paint a portrait of Crown Heights, Brooklyn, through its people. Rusty gives out the portraits for free and they decorate local businesses. His mission is to start a conversation between two neighbors who otherwise would not have said hello to one another. Nicole sat in on Rusty's 184th portrait painting of local pizza shop owner, Jonathan Greenberg.

Date: June 10, 2016

Time: 2:15

ISSUES: Community

MUSLIM BEATDOWN

Surveillance video shows two men suspected of beating up a Muslim man as he left a Queens mosque last week. Mohamed Rasheed Khan, 59, was punched in the face and head and he fell off the bike he was riding. Police say he was attacked at first by three men, but the video only shows two of them. You see Khan wearing traditional religious garb as he rode his bicycle from the Center for Islamic Studies in Jamaica. Those at the mosque fear for their own lives and believe it was a hate crime. They say Khan is a father figure to many and is well loved in the community. Khan underwent facial reconstructive surgery and remains hospitalized at Jamaica Hospital.

Date: June 10, 2016

Time: 1:38

ISSUES: Community

SPECIAL OLYMPICS NJ 2016

On June 10, 2015, Special Olympics New Jersey kicked off the 2016 Summer Games. Nearly 2,500 Special Olympics athletes from throughout New Jersey competed in aquatics, bocce, gymnastics, powerlifting, softball, tennis and track & field at venues in Mercer County. Chasing News went to the Special Olympics New Jersey headquarters in Lawrenceville to cheer on the athletes.

Date: June 10, 2016

Time: 2:16

ISSUES: Community

MORE CRAMMED CANINES

The first dog adopted after being rescued from a historic animal hoarding case is settling into her new home. Bailey is one of 280 dogs rescued from the small home in Howell, New Jersey. Alaina Casha adopted Bailey, a small French bulldog on Wednesday afternoon.

Date: June 10, 2016

Time: 2:37

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

CHRISTIE TRACKER OCEAN GROVE

Governor Chris Christie spent a beautiful Friday in Ocean Grove meeting with business owners and promoting tourism. But Chaser Ashley used the opportunity to ask the Governor about the fate of the USS Submarine Ling in Hackensack. The WWII-era piece of history is the center of a museum is being threatened by development because its $1-a-year lease is up. Ashley asked Christie whether the landmark have the same success as Battleship New Jersey in Camden. Christie also spoke about his role on Donald Trump's transition team. He said he is looking at candidates for certain Cabinet positions. He also spoke to if Trump becomes president would he consider being a part of his cabinet.

Date: June 10, 2016

Time: 3:22

ISSUES: Community

RUNWAY OF DREAMS CLOTHING

The Runway of Dreams fashion show that took place Thursday at The Capital in NYC was revolutionary. Instead of traditional looking models, the models on this runway had disabilities. They included people with Down syndrome, paralysis and more. None of this would have been possible without mastermind Mindy Schneider. She couldn't find fashionable clothing for her son that was similar to what his peers were wearing, so she decided to create some. Tommy Hilfiger joined her endeavor and this fashion show is just the tip of the iceberg. Sibile spoke to Liam Rust, one of the models.

Date: June 10, 2016

Time: 2:24

ISSUES: Community

SPINNING FOR BUSINESS

There's a new Happy Hour in NYC and we're not talking about drinks. Chaser Ashley headed isn't Swerve in Midtown where she was met with lots of energetic millennials. The fitness concept is a brainchild of three young entrepreneurs who encourage people to network and bring clients to workout. The owners say it's about enhancing you physically and professionally. People are split up into teams by color and each team's progress is measured throughout the 45 minute session. The harder you bike the better your team does. People say it gives them something to talk about later whether it's networking or impressing a client.

Date: June 13, 2016

Time: 8:43

ISSUES: Community / Homeland Security

TERROR IN ORLANDO

The gunman behind the deadliest mass murder in U.S. history has a violent background, according to family of his ex-wife. The brother of Situra Yusufi, who was married to Omar Mateen, confirms the abuse allegations. The couple was reportedly only married for a few months, married in 2008 after meeting online. Several local residents from New York and Pennsylvania are among the list of victims in the Orlando massacre. Authorities have confirmed that Enrique Rios, Mercedes Marisol Flores, and Akyra Murray were killed in the attack on Pulse nightclub Sunday morning. Patience Carter, a 20-year-old from Philadelphia and Fox 29 was injured but survived the shooting. Her family says she is out of surgery and is currently recovering.

Date: June 13, 2016

Time: 3:15

ISSUES: Community

AN ANGEL SILENCED

"The Voice" star and YouTube sensation Christina Grimmie was gunned down in cold blood after at her own concert in Orlando on Friday night. She was with her family signing autographs when 27-year-old Kevin James Loibl opened fire, killing her. He then turned the weapon on himself.

Date: June 13, 2016

Time: 3:32

ISSUES: Community

PUERTO RICAN DAY PARADE

Piano keys weave themselves into thumping drum rhythms as music fills the air over East Brooklyn on Sunday. Between the customized cars, costumes, and congas, there's something to look at anywhere you turn. And the music is hypnotic. Women shout greetings to one another as men prepare resplendent red, white and blue costumes. And the Brooklyn Classics car boys tinker with the machines they brought. Danny Moran is busier than most. A Brooklyn tire shop owner, Moran saw a need for a neighborhood event and got to work, figuring that the best traditions are the ones you begin yourself.

Date: June 14, 2016

Time: 3:53

ISSUES: Community

PIRATES OF THE HACKENSACK!

Monday afternoon, Hank Flynn paid a visit to the USS Ling in Hackensack, NJ. While taking video, he saw men in a rowboat attempting to steal part of the ship. The USS Ling is federal property and whether they know it or not that would be a federal crime. The USS Ling is a World War II-era submarine that school kids, veterans, and history buffs visit. The lease, however, is coming to an end. The ship sits in 6 feet of water, mired in mud. It can't be moved. Most acknowledge that if she can't be moved somehow, she'll simply be left to sink rusting into the mud.

Date: June 14, 2016

Time: 3:58

ISSUES: Community / Homeland Security

TERROR IN ORLANDO

Marcus Dwayne Robertson is a New York-born imam who lives in Florida and has been linked to Orlando nightclub shooter Omar Mateen. Attorney Daniel Brodersen, who represents Robertson, said his client never met Mateen and never had Mateen as a student. Though the two have been linked by what has been reported as Robertson's homophobic views, Brodersen said his client no longer feels that way. Glenn Carle, a former CIA operations officer who served on the National Intelligence Council, also noted reports that Mateen was a gay man struggling with homosexuality as part of the motivation that led to the massacre.

Date: June 14, 2016

Time: 2:44

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics / Homeland Security

CHASIN' THE GOV

Since the Orlando shooting, Governor Christie has been calling for war against radical Islam. This morning on "Boomer & Carton" on WFAN, Christie advocated for a military response overseas. Sibile chased the governor to a PSE&G groundbreaking event in Sewaren. She asked him if the U.S. should declare war on Islamic jihad.

Date: June 14, 2016

Time: 3:08

ISSUES: Community

LOVIN' OLD GLORY

In the last 15 years, Navy veteran and Philadelphia Water Department employee Tony Clark has replaced more than 200 missing or tattered American flags flying over city property at his own expense. But his love for his country has gotten him in trouble. When replacing flags, Clark would use either a ladder or a bucket truck. The bucket trucks belong to the city of Philadelphia, and now the Water Department's Employee and Labor Relations Unit is investigating whether he used city equipment for personal gain and during work hours.

Date: June 14, 2016

Time: 3:18

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

HEY NAKED LADY!

The topless women of Times Square, also known as the Denudes, have returned along with the warm weather. Mayor de Blasio and Governor Cuomo have made it clear that they do not want these naked women around. Mayor de Blasio's weapon of choice against them is a bucket of paint. Sections of concrete have been painted with white and green rectangles. The costumed characters and the Denudes are required to stay in the space or face fines and possibly jail time.

Date: June 15, 2016

Time: 2:46

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

DIAL B FOR BRIDGEGATE

The court fight over Bridgegate is now focusing on Governor Chris Christie's cell phone. Citing court precedent established by the Supreme Court during the Watergate scandal, lawyer Michael Baldisseri has subpoenaed the cellphone the governor was using during the George Washington Bridge lane closings in September 2013. Baldisseri's client is Bill Baroni, the former deputy executive director of the Port Authority who was indicted along with former Christie aide Bridget Ann Kelly last year. Christie took no questions during his press appearance at the Statehouse Wednesday, and his office said it had no comment on the court motions. The Bridgegate case is set to go to trial in September after a federal judge denied Baroni and Kelly's motions to dismiss the cases against them.

Date: June 15, 2016

Time: 3:43

ISSUES: Community / Education

POLICE BULLYING AT KEAN?

Randy Diakunczak had his dream job as a Kean University Police Officer in Union, NJ. He had medical benefits, a great salary and stability to provide for his family. He loved being an officer and protecting the public. Diakunczak said he was the victim of racially and sexually charged pranks. He said fellow officers called him Jewish and homophobic slurs. He believes this all led to his wrongful termination in 2014. He has a pending lawsuit against the university.

Date: June 15, 2016

Time: 1:25

ISSUES: Community

MATTHEW SHERIDAN UPDATE

The son of NJ political fixture John Sheridan, who died alongside his wife in their Montgomery home in September 2014, has won a key victory in court. Matthew Sheridan was arrested for cocaine possession hours after his parents' bodies were found inside the home he shared with them after he rushed back from a fishing trip on Long Island Sound. His attorney, Henry Klingerman, argued in court Tuesday that the search of Sheridan's Jeep was illegal because authorities did not have probable cause. The judge agreed and suppressed the search of Matthew Sheridan's Jeep, meaning the case against Sheridan is essentially over. Prosecutors have not said whether they plan to appeal.

Date: June 15, 2016

Time: 3:13

ISSUES: Community

MIRACLE SINGER

A 12-year-old from Suffern NY is being labeled "the next Taylor Swift" after her appearance on "America's Got Talent." Chasing News caught up with Grace Vander Waal during open mic night at Bean Runner Cafe in Peekskill. Until recently, that stage was the only place where Grace had performed, but after auditioning for "America's Got Talent," the judges' fast-tracked Grace to the semifinals. She says life has been hectic since her audition aired, but she's looking forward to what's next.

Date: June 15, 2016

Time: 2:47

ISSUES: Community

MONDAY MATINEE

Haven Rooftop Bar is offering a new way to beat the heat in NYC this summer. On Monday, Haven launched its Summer Movie Monday screenings atop The Sanctuary Hotel on West 47th Street near Times Square. The tickets cost $30 and include two complimentary cocktails and an order of truffle fries.

Date: June 16, 2016

Time: 3:34

ISSUES: Community

IT CAME FROM BELOW

A species of jellyfish, usually only seen in the Pacific Ocean, has popped up around New Jersey shore towns this past week. Many local marine biologists are surprised with the findings. The jellyfish, known as the Clinging Jellyfish, are only dime-sized yet they pack quite the punch. Just a few stings from these little creatures could land you in the hospital. A sting can lead to limb/muscle paralysis and even kidney failure due to the highly toxic venom in their stingers.

Date: June 16, 2016

Time: 3:01

ISSUES: Community

ANTI-GAY THREATS LEFT ON CARS

The effects of the Orlando shooting continue to resonate throughout the nation and New York City is no exception. The city has ramped up security all over the five boroughs this week with additional coverage at LGBT affiliated locations. Police Commissioner Bill Bratton confirmed that there have been unspecified threats to the LGBT community. There was a specific incident in Hell's Kitchen just hours after the Orlando shooting Sunday. Residents discovered hate laden notes on car windshields here on West 46th Street. The handwritten notes referenced the killing of gay people. The investigation is ongoing.

Date: June 16, 2016

Time: 2:45

ISSUES: Community

FLY ME TO THE MOON

It's all about cannabis at the Jacob Javits Center in New York. The industry has exploded in recent years, raking in more than $5 billion in 2015, a number that's expected to hit $22.8 billion by 2020. The convention shows just how versatile the industry has become, according to the event's coordinator. The types of businesses showcased are across the board, from magazines promoting the industry to packaging for the cannabis products.

Date: June 16, 2016

Time: 2:52

ISSUES: Government/Politics

THE LOW DOWN DIRT ON TRUMP

Opposition research is the hallmark of any campaign. Operatives find out the weaknesses of a potential electoral opponent, all the better to attack him or her and win over voters. But it is not normal for an entire opposition research file to be launched into the public eye long before Election Day. That's what reputedly happened to the Democratic National Committee's opposition research file on presumptive Republican presidential nominee Donald Trump. Clocking in at 237 pages, the document was posted Wednesday night on the website the Smoking Gun by someone claiming to be the hacker who stole in from the Democrats. The Democratic National Committee has reported their servers falling prey to hacking by Russian operatives.

Date: June 16, 2016

Time: 2:58

ISSUES: Community

HEROES OF THE HIGHWAY

Mothers against Drunk Driving MADD-NJ recognized 600 officers who have played a role in cracking down against drunk drivers at an awards breakfast at Rutgers University Thursday. Those honored were municipal officers and state troopers who have had the most DWI arrests in their county. Steven Benvenisti is a MADD board member and personal injury attorney. He shared his personal story being hit by a drunk driver while he was walking across the street on spring break in college. Sergeant Michael Voll with the Delaware River Port Authority Police was given the top award for making 94 arrests last year. In 2014 more than 32,000 people lost their lives because of a drunk driver. That's 90 people a day.

Date: June 17, 2016

Time: 3:04

ISSUES: Community

WHAT A PEACH!

A brawl that took place in a Brooklyn grocery store was caught on video June 9th. Reportedly, it was all over the use of a hover board inside the store. Charges have been filed against the man throwing punches in the video as well as two store employees. The NYPD says the investigation into the incident at Central Market on Union Avenue is ongoing.

Date: June 17, 2016

Time: 3:45

ISSUES: Community

SNAILS... IT'S WHAT'S FOR DINNER

Most Americans have yet to eat fresh snails, but a new farm could change that. France and Asia supply the majority of the U.S. with canned snails, which most chefs in the country rely on for their daily supply. One chef is now working to change that, developing a snail farm by the name of Peconic Escargot in Long Island. Snails will be sold for $35 a pound, primarily targeted for chefs in the New York area.

Date: June 17, 2016

Time: 3:32

ISSUES: Community

AN ANGEL'S VOICE SILENCED

On Friday, The Voice and YouTube sensation Christina Grimmie was laid to rest. The services were held at the church she spent her childhood attending, Fellowship Alliance Chapel in Medford, New Jersey. Family and friends gathered to remember the humble star. The 22-year-old singer was shot to death Friday, June 10th as she was signing autographs after a show in Orlando. Her killer, Kevin James Loibl, greeted Grimmie as she had her arms open to give him a hug. Loibl shot Grimmie in the head in front of her fans and family. Loibl killed himself shortly after.

Date: June 17, 2016

Time: 3:13

ISSUES: Community

SUMMER ON ICE

Minus5 Ice Bar is the coolest way to beat the heat this summer and it is right here in NYC. Located in the Midtown Hilton, Minus5 is made entirely of ice and features cocktails and mock tails for all ages. Minus5 experiences start at just $19 and the bar is now open through the summer.

Date: June 20, 2016

Time: 4:03

ISSUES: Community / Education

TO TELL THE TRUTH?

An undercover video has sparked two investigations: one into a Howell Township, New Jersey middle school gym teacher and the second into the filmmaker whose videos critics say are selectively edited. The video was released by Project Veritas, a conservative group which claims to be a watchdog on various policy issues. It shows Robert Klein, a teacher at Howell Middle School North, offering cocaine to undercover conservative activists. In the video Klein never presents any actual drugs. The video was taken inside an Atlantic City hotel room during the 2015 New Jersey Educators Association Conference. James O'Keefe, the founder of Project Veritas, says the video is a part of an ongoing investigation into the alleged abuses of teachers and teachers unions in New Jersey. Police are investigating the teacher on a drug charge, and whether or not O'Keefe broke any rules gaining access to school property.

Date: June 20, 2016

Time: 3:10

ISSUES: Community

SECRETS OF THE MANHATTAN MADAM

Kristin Davis became known as the Manhattan Madam when she was busted for running a prostitution ring and providing call girls to powerful men. Sibile got an exclusive interview with the Manhattan Madam on the Upper East Side. Davis made millions running her prostitution ring, with call girls charging $1,000 an hour and up. She served four months in prison in 2008. Davis is now 40 years old, pregnant and advocating for prison reform.

Date: June 20, 2016

Time: 3:20

ISSUES: Community

BALLPARK BELLY BUSTERS

Bill Spade and Jess Nutt continued their tour of area minor league baseball stadiums, this time visiting the Jersey Jackals in Little Falls, New Jersey. Bill threw out another ceremonial first pitch and sampled some of the best food Yogi Berra Stadium has to offer.

Date: June 20, 2016

Time: 2:45

ISSUES: Community

JERSEY'S BRIDGES FALLING DOWN

The American Society of Civil Engineers issued New Jersey its infrastructure report card last week. If states were students, the Garden State would be flunking. New Jersey got D's in seven out of thirteen categories reviewed, including roads, bridges, dams, and transit. The problem is that the state's pool of money for dealing with these problems is essentially broke two weeks from running dry. Legislators are working on a way to raise the gas tax but haven't found a way they can agree on yet. With the current gas tax set at 14.5 cents per gallon, Jersey drivers enjoy the second-cheapest gas in the nation. Lawmakers have suggested raising that tax by 23 cents, potentially making Jersey gas the seventh-most expensive in the U.S.

Date: June 20, 2016

Time: 2:41

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

HUFF PUFFS ON TRUMP

There's no mistaking where The Huffington Post stands on the issue of Donald Trump. The media outlet has described the presumptive GOP presidential nominee as a racist xenophobe and in turn, Trump has taken personal shots at co-founder and Editor-in-chief Arianna Huffington. Sibile met the media mogul at Madison Square Park in New York City. She said her views on Trump have only gotten worse.

Date: June 21, 2016

Time: 3:57

ISSUES: Community

DANGER FROM THE DEEP

Dangerous clinging jellyfish usually seen in the Pacific are popping up in some New Jersey Shore towns. More than 50 were picked up by young woman in Monmouth Beach on Monday. They were taken to Montclair State University for research as not much is known about them. The jellyfish are tiny but their sting packs a huge punch as one sting can cause muscle and limb paralysis and even kidney failure. Multiple stings could be deadly.

Date: June 21, 2016

Time: 2:33

ISSUES: Community

LINCOLN TUNNELGATE

Four members of the NYPD were arrested Monday in connection with lane closure corruption. The men are being accused of taking bribes from a business man to shut down a lane in the Lincoln Tunnel. The investigation is ongoing into what many are already dubbing "Tunnel gate."

Date: June 21, 2016

Time: 3:22

ISSUES: Community

ONCE A MADAM, ALWAYS A MADAM?

Previously, Chaser Sibile brought you her exclusive interview with Kristin Davis, the infamous Manhattan Madam busted for running a prostitution ring. She has proudly claimed that title of Manhattan Madam, but has she changed her ways? Sibile asked her if she's now retired.

Date: June 21, 2016

Time: 3:25

ISSUES: Community

DRESS FOR SUCCESS

Unemployment is becoming a chronic condition in the United States according to the latest survey by Express Employment Professionals. Luckily, a lot of businesses in New York are offering free services to help. At the Queens Library, a "tiebrary" allows job seekers to rent a tie the way they would rent a book. Women, on the other hand, can head over to Dress for Success, a nationwide not-for-profit that gives women attire and coaching ahead of their big interviews. And, to get those suits cleaned, ironed and ready, men and women can head over to First Professional Cleaners on the Upper East Side in Manhattan, where owners have been offering their services free of charge for the last decade.

Date: June 22, 2016

Time: 2:56

ISSUES: Community

FLYING ON THE GROUND

Chaser Ashley is no stranger to piloting a plane. But this time she took her flight skills to a whole new level at CAE in Whippany, the world's largest flight simulation company. News Director Kelly King, whose brother Michael Costello is a CAE instructor, joined her for the chase. Corporate and business pilots train at the New Jersey facility; CAE trains commercial pilots at other locations around the world. Ashley set out from Sandy Field in Aspen, Colorado, in a Bombardier Challenger 300 simulator and headed for JFK. The simulator may be virtual but inside feels realistic. Pilots learn how to prepare for bad weather, equipment failure. It can generate a variety of airports and weather patterns and the system uses Google maps.

Date: June 22, 2016

Time: 2:29

ISSUES: Community

GOING FOR BROKE IN TIMES SQUARE

The new activity zones in Times Square are now in effect and tensions are high. Costumed characters are restricted to small green areas and face large fines if they operate outside the lines. Characters like Elmo are already reporting daily losses and infighting between the entertainers created by the boundaries. Chaser Tara caught up with Elmo himself who had a lot to say about the new zones.

Date: June 22, 2016

Time: 1:32

ISSUES: Community

HOLLAND TUNNEL GUN SUSPECTS IN COURT

The anti-drug activist busted with an arsenal of weapons headed into the Holland Tunnel appeared before a judge Wednesday afternoon. John Cramsey of Zionsville PA and two others were caught with loaded rifles, hand guns and ballistic vests. They had been stopped for a cracked windshield by the Port Authority Tuesday. Cramsey lost his 20-year-old daughter Alexandria to a heroin overdose in February. At the time of the arrest he says he was headed to a Brooklyn hotel to rescue at 16-year-old girl who had just lost a friend to heroin. Bail was set for Cramsey and the others with him at $75,000 each. No court date has been announced.

Date: June 22, 2016

Time: 2:51

ISSUES: Community / Homeland Security

HATIN' IN HARLEM

Ever since the Orlando terror attack, there's been a national outpouring of grief and sympathy for the gay community and the victims. However the controversial pastor of Atlah Worldwide Church in Harlem has chosen to focus on the fact that Omar Mateen, the perpetrator in the worst mass shooting in US history, was gay, rather than his affiliation with ISIS .

Date: June 22, 2016

Time: 2:24

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

PAIN AT THE PUMP

New Jersey is in the unenviable position of possibly having the highest gas tax in the country. Republican State Senator Steve Oroho is pushing for a gas tax that would raise the cost by 37.5 cents per gallon. The new cost would be on top of the existing 14.5 cents New Jersey residents are already paying for a new total of 52 cents a gallon. Sibile caught up with State Senator Jennifer Beck at the Old York Country Club in Chesterfield. She was unequivocal about this. If a gas tax that high is passed and becomes law, it will have devastating effects on New Jersey's economy.

Date: June 22, 2016

Time: 2:48

ISSUES: Community

THE NEW CORNHOLE?

Ever have a good idea and it wouldn't leave you alone? That's what happened to New Jersey resident Anthony Esposito. He dreamed up a game called Bean Bag Buckets and got to work. Fast forward four years and Anthony's on the beach with the game. Former toy executive Phil Elliott is on board trying to get the game to market. While it's currently not available in stores, they're hoping one day it will be.

Date: June 23, 2016

Time: 3:29

ISSUES: CommunityPOWER TO THE PEOPLE

Kristen Luna Nuova and her neighbors are angry. Jersey Central Power & Light wants to put a new 230,000-volt high-tension line along the railroad easement that runs through their Middletown neighborhood. They're worried about electric and magnetic fields. Joe and Bernice Carto are expecting a pole 70 feet from the corner of their house. While they don't have children, they're worried about their own health as well as their property value. The lines would run for 10 miles from Red Bank to Aberdeen. JCP&L said the line will help build reliability and redundancy for regional customers, helping to keep the lights on in case of outages. JCP&L spokesman Ron Moreno told Hank that neighborhood fears of EMFs are overblown and unfounded.

Date: June 23, 2016

Time: 2:54

ISSUES: CommunityTHE RETURN OF PEDALS

Pedals the injured walking bear is back. The bear was caught on video by Joey Esposito in Oak Ridge, New Jersey and posted to Facebook Monday. Pedal has become somewhat of an online sensation: His videos go viral, he has a Twitter account, but he also has several online petitions started by concerned residents to help him and put him in a sanctuary, because they say he's injured and walking that way has to hurt his hips. Ken, an Oak Ridge resident who works at the Black Bear Tavern, spotted Pedals last year on a hike.

Date: June 23, 2016

Time: 2:46

ISSUES: CommunityNYC'S SECRET ATTIC

Evan Blum has created a business out of what some people would deem trash. He is the owner of Demolition Depot, a home to antique or vintage lighting fixtures, fireplaces, doors, stained glass windows and the list goes on. Evan opened his Harlem business in the '90s and has been building his inventory since. In 2003, he opened a second location in Connecticut. When it comes to his customers, it varies. He has everything from designers, architects, celebrities and plain ole home owners coming to him. In addition to selling, the business also rents out pieces. The items he has in his two locations come from all over the world.

Date: June 23, 2016

Time: 5:02

ISSUES: Community / Government/PoliticsMY CONVERSATION WITH CHRISTIE

Chaser Sibille interviewed New Jersey Governor Christie in South Plainfield on Thursday. In Trump's speech on Wednesday, he seemed to dial back his stance on banning Muslims from entering the United States. Christie accused the media of mischaracterizing Trump's stance on Muslims.

Date: June 23, 2016

Time: 1:24

ISSUES: CommunityEMMA BROWN FOUNDATION

Chaser Ashley J credits much of her journalism career to the Emma Bowen Foundation, which is a multi-summer internship which helps minorities break into the media industry. Ashley is alum of the organization and on Wednesday she moderated a panel for this year's summer conference at the Grand Hyatt in Manhattan. Emma Bowen was a civil rights activist who fought to get more diversity in the media, so that when people look at the news it is representative of America with blacks, Hispanics and Asians. Today her legacy lives on through college students all across the country interning at various media outlets and often times these students get jobs right after graduation by their parent companies. The Emma Bowen Foundation is raising money for one of its own Patience Carter, a FOX 29 intern who was shot in the leg during the terror attack in Orlando.

Date: June 24, 2016

Time: 3:16

ISSUES: Government/PoliticsTRUMP'S EMPTY PROMISE?

Jersey City Trump Plaza tenants are not happy with Donald Trump. They moved into a building whose management boasts superior amenities and the pool is empty. Residents were informed this week the pool is closed through May 2017.

Date: June 24, 2016

Time: 3:22

ISSUES: CommunityTHERE'S A KILLER AMONG US?

A smoldering house, two bleeding bodies, a possible missing murder weapon and now another unanswered question: Could some of the blood found at the scene contain genetic material from neither John nor Joyce Sheridan? Cases like the Sheridan's are all in a day's work for Dr. Henry C. Lee, who was a police captain in Taiwan but came to America more than 40 years ago and helped make forensic science something every police department knows it must do. Lee did say the investigators at the New Jersey State Police crime lab did a "thorough" job, but their findings were inconsistent with the eventual theory of the case: a murder-suicide. While Lee's analysis eliminated the Sheridan's four sons as contributors, it remains unclear where the foreign DNA came from. Could it be from first responders, detectives, or a killer who could still be at large?

Date: June 24, 2016

Time: 4:10

ISSUES: Community

WALKING ON FIRE

The old abandoned Route 61 up from Ashland to Centralia is littered with color. Spray-painted tags from countless visitors reveal messages from the profane to the sublime. For guys on quad runners, it's not a bad place to play. They wheelie and rip up and down the mile-long stretch of abandoned pavement. Centralia is abandoned, has been since the '80s. Long story short, the coal mine running underneath the town caught fire in the '60s and burned for years, creating sinkholes, rupturing roads, and making the town unlivable to the point where the state had to step in. Most of the houses the state bought out were demolished there are only a couple left.

Date: June 24, 2016

Time: 2:49

ISSUES: Government/Politics

STEALING TRUMP

Joe Hornick loves Donald Trump. That's crystal clear to anyone who drives by his West Long Branch home. His lawn is littered with Trump signs. Two flagpoles bear Trump banners, and a third is stretched across the front door. Joe's love of Trump isn't shared by everyone. Some can't stand him. So Joe's had to deal with people stealing flags, from the poles and the porch, as a woman did early Thursday morning. Disappearing flags and signs aren't the only trouble Joe's had connected to his Trump support. Back in March, West Long Branch Police ticketed him for his display, using an ordinance prohibiting political signage more than 30 days from an election. He won that battle when the judge dismissed the case, thanks in no small part to the ACLU. Police say they are following up on leads, but have not made any arrests in the theft of Joe's Trump flag. Joe has had eleven flags stolen in all.

Date: June 24, 2016

Time: 2:34

ISSUES: Community

JOE SENT ME

If you want to hang out at New York City's newest speakeasy, you are going to need to know two things: where to find it and the password. The space called "125," is located behind a popup shop and if you are lucky enough to know the password you'll be able to go downstairs to an intimate concert venue. Thursday night's opening featured the band Crystal Garden, created by Dave Matthews Band's violinist Boyd Tinsley, who joined the group for several songs. Tinsley said he will be working with the group throughout the upcoming year, along with possible other projects, when the Dave Matthews Band takes a hiatus from touring.

Date: June 27, 2016

Time: 3:44

ISSUES: Community

JET BLUE?

Chaser Sibile is chasing Gabi Grecko, the former prostitute at the center of the NYPD corruption scandal allegedly involving the exchange of police cars, escorts, prostitutes, and about $100k in bribes. In statements that have been reported, Gabi says the cops who she engaged in sexual encounters with should be fired. Gabi reportedly said that she was paid to dress as a stewardess and entertain cops on a 2013 flight to Vegas. She says she was not the only prostitute they hired going as far as to say there were maybe 5 escorts. Allegedly involved are deputy inspector James Grant and fired detective Michael Milici, who are both married with kids.

Date: June 27, 2016

Time: 2:15

ISSUES: Community

TRAGEDY IN EAST ORANGE

On Saturday in East Orange, NJ a 4-year-old boy was shot in the head by his 5-year-old brother. Authorities say the gun belongs to the boy's mother, Itiyanah Spruill, who was arrested on charges of endangering the welfare of a child and a weapons violation. Itiyanah Spruill is being held in jail in lieu of $310,000 bail. There is a go fund me page to help with the little boy, Christopher's funeral expenses.

Date: June 27, 2016

Time: 3:15

ISSUES: Community

FOR A GOOD CAUSE...

Chaser Hank lent a hand on Saturday night at the Long Island Performance Festival to benefit cystic fibrosis research. Hank's friend and college roommate Jason Werner organized the event with his wife, Lona Kaplan-Werner. Their son, Harlen, has the disease. There was action everywhere, with comedians, magicians and musicians all taking turns. The event lasted nearly eight hours, so people came and went. Cystic fibrosis is a genetic disease that affects a child's breathing and digestion. Lona says for a parent, there's a helplessness felt that makes taking action therapeutic. Jason's brother Richard was in from California to perform, capping off the benefit with a wild and hilarious karaoke-based project. All in all, about $2,500 was raised for cystic fibrosis research. Organizers are confident that next year's show will build on the success of this year's, be bigger, and raise more money and awareness.

Date: June 27, 2016

Time: 3:09

ISSUES: Community

THE SHINY NEW ST PATRICK'S

St. Patrick's Cathedral in Manhattan is a spiritual force to be reckoned with in the middle of one of the busiest sections of NYC, on Fifth Avenue across the street from Rockefeller Center. Chaser Sibille got an exclusive tour of the iconic cathedral from Eric Wandrey, a seminarian who is three years away from becoming a priest. Think "Game of Thrones" for all you fans out there. Cardinal Timothy Dolan may seem like he's just the leader of the central church in the archdiocese of NY but he actually could command an army.

Date: June 27, 2016

Time: 6:09

ISSUES: Community

BLIND BROTHERS WITH VISION

Legally blind brothers, Bryan and Brad Manning, started a fashion brand called Two Blind Brothers in NYC. 100% of their profits go to curing blindness. You'll get an inside look at what it is to be visually impaired for a day.

Date: June 28, 2016

Time: 4:49

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

VAMPIRES WITH PENS

Just after midnight Monday, legislators passed a 23-cent gas hike. It also voted to lower the NJ sales tax to 6%. Assemblywoman Valerie Vainieri Huttel asked Assemblyman Vincent Prieto to post the gas tax bill. Within 14 minutes, the Assembly passed the bill. Governor Christie called it a tax cut.

Date: June 28, 2016

Time: 2:41

ISSUES: Community / Children/Youth

IS THE MOTHER TO BLAME?

Itiyanah Spruill, the mother of the 4-year-old boy who was accidentally shot and killed by his 5-year-old brother, pleaded not guilty at the Essex County Courthouse Tuesday morning. The incident happened when the children were playing with a loaded gun Saturday morning in East Orange, New Jersey. Spruill was sobbing during her court appearance. She is charged with endangering the welfare of a child and a weapons violation. Her bail is set at $310,000. It is still unclear if Spruill will be allowed to attend her son's funeral Friday at New Hope Baptist Church in East Orange. The family has started a GoFundMe page campaign and the church has offered to pay for the boy's funeral.

Date: June 28, 2016

Time: 3:26

ISSUES: Community

JERSEY'S FIRST SHARK WEEK

It's been 100 years now since five shark attacks in 12 days rocked New Jersey. Three of them happened in Matawan Creek after two had occurred just days before in the ocean, at Beach Haven and Spring Lake. Then, on July 12, 1916, 11-year-old Lester Stillwell of Matawan was attacked while swimming in Matawan Creek. His friends saw it all, and panicked. One man did, according to Savolaine. That was Stanley Fisher, a young Matawan man in his early 20s known for his athletic feats and for singing in church. Since many had gathered onshore to watch the search for Lester, many witnessed the attack on Stanley, say the researchers. Some accounts allege that Stanley was successful in finding Lester's body some even say that he fended off the shark.

Date: June 28, 2016

Time: 3:03

ISSUES: Community

FROLIC ON THE LAKE

Fly High Water Sports offers the sport fly boarding at Lake Hopatcong in New Jersey. Co-owners Jeff Burr & Dave Dabrowski started the company because no other business offered the sport locally. It's working out for them. If you want to try it out, it's $150 for 45 minutes. If you have a lake house in the area, they'll pack up the equipment and come to you. Fly boarders must be at least 13 and weight at least 100 pounds.

Date: June 28, 2016

Time: 3:13

ISSUES: Community

INSIDE THE PAIN

Physicians and brain researchers agree: If you want to cure addiction, drugs like methadone and buprenorphine can play a powerful role. Drugs remain controversial in fighting addiction. In 1998, Senator John McCain called methadone maintenance program "sick" and "immoral." Today, more than two-thirds of U.S. clinics and treatment center do not offer methadone or other medicines to treatment addiction and there are few health care professionals who can prescribe the medicine. But, those who do use these drugs credit them for their sobriety. Research shows that those who take medicine for addiction are half as likely to die from a fatal overdoses as those receiving just psychological or social interventions.

Date: June 28, 2016

Time: 2:53

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

I LIKE TRUMP! DATE ME!

There is now a dating site for Donald Trump supporters. TrumpSingles.Com has over 5,000 registered singles and offers users the ability to find love in likeminded voters. The site was inspired by BernieSingles.com and was the brainchild of television producer Dave Goss. Tara headed to Trump Tower in midtown Manhattan to gauge reaction to the new way to date.

Date: June 29, 2016

Time: 11:35

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics

CHRISTIE'S HIGHWAY ROBBERY

Independent truckers at the Petro truck stop in Bordentown are stressed over the prospect of paying 23 cents more per gallon of fuel, $23 for every 100 gallons purchased. It'll be the government, if the NJ State Senate passes the bill Thursday and the Governor signs it. New Jersey's state Assembly passed it on Monday night in a vote taken in the middle of the night. Chaser Sibile has been chasing the potential effects of the tax on the working man. She met up with commercial fishermen Wednesday at Compton's Creek in Port Monmouth, who say their businesses will be destroyed by the increase.

Date: June 29, 2016

Time: 5:39

ISSUES: Community

INSIDE THE HOUSE OF DEATH

After months of investigating the mysterious deaths of John and Joyce Sheridan inside their Montgomery home, Alex Zdan goes inside to get a firsthand look at the crime scene. Working again with retired homicide detective Gary Britton, Zdan viewed the house with Mark Sheridan, one of John and Joyce Sheridan's four sons. They search for clues that could lead to a killer or shed further doubt on the county prosecutor's office labeling the case as a murder-suicide. Raising questions about evidence that was not collected, the Sheridan family is suing to get the cause of death on John Sheridan's death certificate changed from "suicide" to "undetermined," but Mark Sheridan points out it's just a first step.

Date: June 29, 2016

Time: 2:48

ISSUES: Community

STARING DOWN HORROR

The man behind a brutal Millburn home invasion caught on a "nanny cam" will likely spend the rest of his life behind bars. Superior Court Judge Ronald Wigler sentenced Shawn Custis, 45, to life in prison, plus five years. Custis was found guilty of second degree aggravated assault, endangering the welfare of a child, robbery, burglary, criminal restraint and theft on June 1. He won't be eligible for parole for 60 years. Judge Wigler told the court Custis' "lengthy prior record" is deserving of a lengthy sentence." The Newark man had been arrested 38 times prior to the 2013 home invasion. Essex County Assistant Prosecutor Jamel Semper said the victim "does feel safer" after hearing the court's decision and that "she was very gratified by the life sentence."

Date: June 30, 2016

Time: 10:49

ISSUES: Community / Government/Politics / Economy

DAY OF RECKONING: THE GAS TAX HIKE

The NJ State Senate delayed a planned vote Thursday on a bill that would have raised the gas tax and cut the sales tax, but not before Governor Christie and Bill Spadea traded jabs when the Governor called Spadea on his radio show on NJ 101.5. Sal Risalvato, Executive Director of the NJ Gasoline, C-Store and Automotive Association, joined Chasing News in studio to discuss the tax. There are many aspects to the bill, including a tax on aviation fuel. Hank rode over to Princeton Airport to see what the aviation crowd thinks of it. While the gas tax bill that passed the NJ Assembly on Monday night isn't as hard on fliers as it is on drivers, it's still there, at 4%. Princeton Airport's operations manager Steve Nierenberg was sarcastic about it. According to the FAA, any tax levied on aviation gas and jet fuel has to be used on aviation facilities and projects. And New Jersey's Transportation Trust Fund doesn't likely qualify.

Date: June 30, 2016

Time: 3:10

ISSUES: Community

ONE OF THEIR OWN

Horrifying dash cam video released by the Monmouth County Prosecutors Office show Philip Seidle, a the time an off-duty sergeant with Neptune Township Police, crashing into his ex-wife's car, firing multiple rounds and killing his ex-wife Tamara Seidel in June 2015. Prosecutors on Thursday walked through a play by play of that day on Sewall Avenue in Asbury Park, and Chasing News had exclusive video of Seidle holding a gun up to his head after killing his ex. Prosecutors determined there was a lack of effective communication among police on scene and poor leadership of the incident, but they say there was nothing that would have stopped Seidle going to the extreme. The big question is whether officers should have used deadly force. Prosecutors said no because Seidle was threatening suicide and because innocent bystanders could have been shot. The Monmouth County Prosecutor's Office has put an Early Warning System Policy in place.

Date: June 30, 2016

Time: 3:05

ISSUES: Community

RENT FREE IN NYC

Jimmy Tarangelo manages to live rent free in NYC in his van. The native New Yorker parks his mobile home on Clarkson Street in the West Village and moves it only for street cleaning. Chaser Tara caught up with Jimmy to get the inside scoop on his rent-free plan.

Date: June 30, 2016

Time: 2:54

ISSUES: Community

OSO NICE

Right across the street from the old, historical City College campus in Harlem Sergio and Ashley got a taste of some delicious Mexican cuisine. Oso, a trendy Hamilton Heights restaurant, opened in May. Co-owner Matthew Trebek son of "Jeopardy" host Alex Trebek got a special shout-out from his dad on the show. What sparked our curiosity is why Matt and his partner Nodar Mosiashvili decided to open a restaurant in Harlem. Matt explained that he went to Fordham University, and that the pair wanted to give the community another great dining experience. Matt and Nodar are both bartenders who make some amazing cocktails, especially margaritas. All the food is made fresh from scratch and Chef Cassie gave us a tour of the kitchen.

WTXF-TV PROGRAM INFORMATION REPORT

Program Title:

Air Date/Time:

 X FOX News Sunday

Sundays, 9am

 Chasing New Jersey

 Other:

Format:

Program Type:

Origination:

 Animated
 X Live Action
 Taped

 Public Affairs
 X News
 Other

 WTXF-TV
 Other Local X FOX/Network
 Syndicated

Length: X 60minutes 30minutes 15minutes 2minutes
 60seconds 30seconds 20seconds Other

Title: FOX News Sunday

Issue: Government

Description of program:

This weekly news program, hosted by Chris Wallace, is broadcast live and covers issues of national interest. In addition to national stories, the program includes live guests and panelists covering a variety of national issues.

See attached program synopses for topics, guests, panelists, and issues addressed.

Guests (if applicable):

Name & Title

See attached

Organization

See attached

City/State

See attached

2nd Quarter 2016 FOX News Sunday Quarterly Report
April 3, 2016- June 26, 2016

April 3
2016

Donald Trump (R), Presidential Candidate
2016/State of the GOP
Reince Priebus, GOP Chairman

April 10

Obama Presidency
President Barack Obama

April 17

2016
Corey Lewandowski, Trump Campaign Manager
Zika Virus
Dr Anthony Fauci, NIAID DIRECTOR

April 24

2016
Paul Manafort, Trump Campaign Manager
2016
Debbie Wasserman Schultz, Democratic National Committee Chair

May 1

2016
Donald Trump (R), Presidential Candidate
2016
Sen Ted Cruz (R-TX), Presidential Candidate

May 8

2016
Paul Manafort, Trump Campaign Manager/Trump Strategist
NC & HB2
Pat McCrory (R), North Carolina Governor

May 15

2016/Trump
Reince Priebus, RNC Chairman
2016/Trump
Newt Gingrich, Former House Speaker/Fox News Contributor
Rep Tim Huelskamp (R-KS), House Freedom Caucus

May 22

TSA
Jeh Johnson, Homeland Security Secretary Terrorism
Rep Michael McCaul (R-TX), Chairman Homeland Security Committee
Terrorism/2016/Trump
Sen Jeff Sessions (R-AL), Chair, Trump National Security Committee

May 29

2016
Corey Lewandowski, Trump Campaign Manager
HRC Emails
Rep Adam Schiff (D-CA), Ranking Member, Intelligence Committee
Sen James Lankford (R-OK), Intelligence Committee

June 5

2016

John Podesta, Hillary for America Campaign Chair

2016

Newt Gingrich, Former House Speaker/Fox News Contributor

June 12

2016/Trump

Sen Jeff Sessions (R-AL), Chair, Trump National Security Committee

2016/HRC

Sen Amy Klobuchar (D-MN), Hillary Supporter

June 19

Orlando/Guns

Loretta Lynch, U.S. Attorney General

2016/Trump

Sen Jeff Sessions (R-AL), Chair, Trump National Security Committee

June 26

2016/Trump

Newt Gingrich, Former House Speaker/Fox News Contributor

2016/HRC

Robby Mook, Clinton Campaign Manager