QUARTERLY LISTING OF ISSUES AND PROGRAMS

FOURTH QUARTER, 2023

OCTOBER - DECEMBER

WTXF-FOX 29
Philadelphia, PA

Summary of Major Issues Treated During the Quarter:

Business/Economy/Consumer – “Ya Gotta Try This” is a series of regular segments profiling area restaurants and eateries serving unique fare.

Education – “Kelly’s Classroom” is a regular segment in which Good Day Philadelphia Traffic Reporter Bob Kelly visits local schools to highlight unique programs and activities.

Health & Medical – “Health Watch” is a regular segment in which FOX 29 Medical Reporter Dr. Mike Cirigliano discusses medical issues and topics.

Public Health/Safety/Welfare – SOS: Save Our Streets is a station-wide initiative incorporating long and short-form programming and reports, public service announcements and social media/web resources addressing the historic increase in gun violence and tragic loss of life in Philadelphia and the surrounding area. As FOX 29 staff members who work and live in these impacted communities, we have a greater responsibility to assist in trying to make things better. The SOS initiative serves as an opportunity to engage and collaborate with community stakeholders, residents, ex-offenders and anyone trying to Save Our Streets. The stories and specials go deeper than just reporting the facts, and explore the causes and potential solutions and allow for people most affected to have a voice.

Description of program: FOX 29 "Good Day Philadelphia" co-host Mike Jerrick and sports anchor Breland Moore host "The 215" each week. "The 215" showcases the people, places, and things that make the Philadelphia area truly unique.

This week, Breland Moore and Mike Jerrick hosted from Bartram's Garden in Philadelphia and talked with Brujo de la Mancha, the founding director of the Ollin Yoliztli Calmecac Organization about the Indigenous People's Day Festival. Go "Beyond the 215" to meet a local bookbinder in Haddonfield, NJ, who turned her love of books into a full-time job restoring books. Batcave Studios in Philadelphia is owned by a local hip-hop producer who shares some of the music history that has come through his studio. "The 215" takes a trip to Newtown, PA, to meet the chef and owner of "The Borscht Belt," who encapsulates history inside their Jewish deli. We look at a flashback favorite from a previous episode of "The 215," going behind the scenes of the album "Our City is Hurting."
