

2023—4th Quarter Issues/Program Report

WISR

October 6, 2024

Morning Show—10 minutes

Issue: Arts in the Community

The non-profit Musical Theatre Guild of Butler is presenting “Nine to Five” October 13-15. Cast member Megan Flannery Manuel talked about the show.

October 31, 2024

Morning Show—15 minutes

Issue: Veteran Organizations

Steve Eckert of Mars Bank discussed the annual “Veterans In Need” fundraiser that raises money to aid veterans with emergency utility bills or ability to find furniture. The organization is a 501-C3 that benefits local veterans in the Butler County area.

November 6, 2023

Morning Show—15 minutes

Issue: Elderly Care and Young Children

Rotary President Dave White and Lifesteps CEO Karen Sue Owens talked about the annual Election Day Pancake Festival and the various programs it helps support. Those include early childhood screenings and programs for adults with intellectual disabilities.

November 28, 2024

Morning Show—10 minutes

Issue: Community Arts

Jerry Johnston, the director of “The Last Mass at St. Casimir’s” discussed the opening of the upcoming show at the Butler Little Theatre.

November 29, 2023

Morning Show—15 minutes

Issue: Arts in the Community

Moon Doh, an associate conductor of the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra, outlined the program for the upcoming holiday concert of the Butler County Symphony. He served as the guest conductor of the show.

November 29, 2023

Morning Show—10 minutes

Issue: Healthcare

Kris Bowser of the Butler Health System Foundation discussed the annual “Caring Angel” fundraiser, which offers financial aid for uninsured emergency room care.