Author Andrew C. McKevirt is John D. Winters Endowed Professor of History at Louisiana Tech University.	11/06/2023 2:00 pm 1 hour
	Quantum Medicine	Today Dr Kokayi speaks with Systar Myrah Moss, internationally known in the metaphysical community for her understanding of the way Cosmic non physical realities affect what is happening here on Earth. From the mainstream perspective this is a totally out the box perspective but it stands on the shoulders of civilizations that have come and gone. The current state of affairs that humanity finds itself in, is not new, and reflects an experience, an engagement with reality that prior civilizations have pursued with the inevitable outcome of dissolution; that is the pursuit of power and dominance. Systar Moss shares her unique perspective on this as seen from the vantage point of the astrology that she practiced for decades.	11/07/2023 2:00 pm 1/2 hour

	Eco-Logic	This illuminating film documents the largest radioactive waste spill in U.S. history—a national tragedy that received little attention. With the sound of a thunderclap, 94 million gallons of water contaminated with uranium mining waste broke through a United Nuclear Corporation storage dam in 1979. The water poured into the Puerco River in New Mexico—the main water supply for the Navajo (Diné) Indians that live along the river, and a tributary of the major source of water for L.A. Navajo ranchers, their children, and farm animals waded through The River That Harms .	11/15/2023 10:00 am 1 hour

Subject Covered	Program Name	Description/Local Relevance	Broadcast Date/Time/Duration
	Eco-Logic	Protests against Cop City have been met with tear gas and extraordinary police presence. The militarization of the police has been a common topic on WBAI, including Eco-Logic. Most police officers do not carry tear gas. The fact that Atlanta police brought tear gas to an ordinary protest contradicts the first amendment of the United States and shows Atlanta's attitude toward its own citizens that disagree with their policies. This same police force gets "credit" for being the first U.S. police force to murder an unarmed environmentalist, Manuel Esteban Paez Terán, known as Tortuguita, on January 18, 2023.	11/22/2023 10:00 am 1 hour
	Green Street News	On this edition of Green Street News, Patti and Doug talk about detergent pods, declining sperm counts and the sordid story of the corrupt Monsanto corporation, which created a highly toxic, cancer-causing pesticide and then developed GMO crops that were resistant to it, as told by best-selling investigative reporter and author Carey Gillam.	11/24/2023 2:00 pm 1/2 hour
	Eco-Logic	Many groups work with the natural cycles of Earth and Sun, such as Homeless Persons Memorial Day, taking place on the winter solstice, which is December 21st this year, and highlights the struggles of the marginalized in our society. Helping others is a huge theme of holiday times. Getting away from what do I get and what do I give and moving to what can I do for others is the real spirit of the Eco-holidays.	11/29/2023 10:00 am 1 hour
	Eco-Logic	Food workers are on the front lines of climate change and food sources around the world are in trouble. It's important to know the full story of how our food gets to us. The TV show "From Scratch" literally travelled around the world to help us do that. David Moscow is the host of "From Scratch", which explores the planet's complex and interconnected food supply, which came about because David wanted to use his acting career ("Big", "Newsies", etc.) to make the world better. Not many TV shows have books, but this one does! Jon Moscow, David's father, joined him in bringing the stories and some recipes to book form.	12/06/2023 10:00 am 1 hour
	Green Street News	Plastic bottle - What's hidden?	12/08/2023 2:00 pm 1/2 hour
	Eco-Logic	PFAS are referred to as "forever chemicals" because they do not degrade. Legally, they do not have to be labelled, even though they create a huge number of devastating health and environmental consequences. They are only recently becoming a political issue, yet our guests have been working on this issue for at least 8 years. The EPA has been both a help and a hindrance. We'll hear about solutions and examples of victories we've already gotten.	12/13/2023 10:00 am 1 hour
	Green Street News	What chemicals are in our food supply? This week on GSN, Patti and Doug talk about the COP 28 debacle, the plastic recycling hoax and state bans on PFAS chemicals. Then Jackie Bowen, executive director of Clean Label Project, talks about the organization's mission to clean up our food supply using data, science, and transparency, starting with baby food.	12/15/2023 2:00 pm 1/2 hour
