

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS LIST
2nd QUARTER 2014

Station WRFC, 960 AM, Athens, Georgia, determined the following issues were of significant concern to the local community and were dealt with according to the attached schedule during the second quarter of 2014.

1. Community/Charity Events/Organizations
2. Health
3. Economy/Economic Development
4. Environment
5. Public Safety/Crime
6. Education
7. Political

Prepared by:

Mel Stovall
Compliance Director
Cox Media Group, Athens, Ga.
WRFC-AM

COMMUNITY-CHARITY EVENTS-ORGANIZATIONS-

NAME OF PROGRAM	DATE	TIME	DURATION	SOURCE
------------------------	-------------	-------------	-----------------	---------------

Newsmakers Today	4/6/14	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need for public awareness of importance of a local community program. Mike Griffin represents the Georgia Right To Life. He talked about the work within the community of this organization and explained it relationship to the National Right To Life.

Georgia Focus	4/6/14	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
A need for public recognition and appreciation for an element of our local history. This year marks the 150 th anniversary of most civil war activities in Georgia. On this program of Georgia Focus historian Gordon Jones from Atlanta History Center discussed the Atlanta Campaign. Steve Hadley from Georgia Parks the Battle of Pickett's Mill in a segment recorded on the battlefield near Dallas, Georgia.

Newsmakers Today	4/13/14	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need for proper recognition in the community of a WWII veteran. Congressman Paul Broun Talked about presenting belated medals to a WWII veteran in Athens.

Newsmakers Today	4/20/14	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need to create community awareness of accomplishments of a local group of young people. Bonnie Jones represents the Jackson County Boys & Girls Club. She provided details about the Boys & Girls Club dedicating their new facility.

WRFC News	4/24/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need to create public awareness of a new law that applies to the local community. The report dealt with State Representative Spencer Frye being joined by his family in this week's bill signing ceremony at the state capitol in Atlanta. The Governor put his pen to paper on Frye's House Bill 750. The bill sponsored by the director of the Athens chapter of Habitat for Humanity, will exempt qualified nonprofit organizations whose work includes providing affordable housing opportunities from having to obtain mortgage originator licenses. Bill co-sponsors included Barrow County Republican Representative Terry England.

WRFC News	4/24/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need to create awareness for a new specialty license plate in Georgia. This report dealt with new specialty license plates for University of Georgia that are raising money for scholarships. Fans reportedly snatched up over 1,300 of those new plates featuring a so-called Power G logo, over the last six months. For every tag sold or renewed, ten dollars goes toward Georgia Access Scholarships. The new sales, along with over 30,000 renewals of older plates, raised more than $300,000 since last July. The scholarships help pay tuition for students who couldn't otherwise afford college.

WRFC News	4/25/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need to create public awareness of a local community event. This report dealt with this being Twilight weekend in Athens. The Twilight Criterium bicycle racers are back in town for a series of high-speed races that get underway tonight and culminate tomorrow night, with world class competitors hitting the streets in and around downtown Athens. Several of those streets will be closed for the races and other activities swirling around the Twilight Criterium.

WRFC News	4/25/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to create public awareness of a local community event. This report dealt with an event that happens once a year and today is the day at the University of Georgia. UGA puts on public display the only surviving copy of the Constitution of the Confederate States of America. The exhibit is in the University's Richard Russell Special Collections Library.

Newsmakers Today	4/27/14	6:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
------------------	---------	-----------	-----------	-------

A need to create public awareness of a community event. Gene Dixon provided details about the annual Twilight Criterium being held this weekend in downtown Athens.

Georgia Focus	5/25/14	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
---------------	---------	-----------	------------	-----

A need to recognize and remember one of the legendary musicians from Georgia. Galandrielle Allman went to her first concert as an infant in her teenaged mother's arms. Her father was playing – Duane Allman, founder of the legendary Allman Brothers Band. Galandrielle Allman talked about her father and her memoir, PLEASE BE WITH ME A Song For My Father Duane Allman.

WRFC News	5/30/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local\
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to recognize members of the military being activated in the community. This report dealt with what is scheduled to be the last Georgia Guard unit to deploy to Afghanistan . It was a Thursday send off ceremony in Stephens County. The Georgia Baptist Conference Center in Toccoa hosted the ceremony for the 876th Engineer Company made up of soldiers from across northeast Georgia. The unit will be leaving for Afghanistan this summer. The unit that consists of carpenters, electricians, masons and plumbers will be based in the Kabul area and will train Afghanistan's security forces on engineering skills. About 150 troops will be deploying with the unit.

Georgia Focus	6/22/14	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
---------------	---------	-----------	------------	-----

A need for public recognition and appreciation of a major historical event in our region. In the summer of 1864, Georgia was the scene of one of the most important campaigns of the Civil War. Sherman's push southward toward Atlanta threatened the heart of the Confederacy and Joseph Johnston's Army of Tennessee was the confederacy's best hope to defend it. They managed to grind Sherman's advance to a halt at Kennesaw Mountain. Daniel Vermilya, author of THE BATTLE OF KENNESAW MOUNTAIN, discussed details about the battle on the weekend before its 150th anniversary.

During the quarterly period, WRFC aired PSA's for the Elbert County Chamber of Commerce promoting their annual 4th of July Fireworks Show at Lake Russell. Total announcements – 54.

During the quarterly period, WRFC aired PSA's for Clute's Golf Tournament which is a local community fund raising event. Total announcements – 75.

During the quarterly period, WRFC aired PSA's for Light The Night campaign which is a local community fund raising event to support the Cancer Society. Total announcements – 33.

During the quarterly period, WRFC aired PSA's for Food Bank Of Northeast Georgia which supports food supplies for several counties in Northeast Georgia. Total announcements – 14.

During the quarterly period, WRFC aired PSA's for the Twilight Music Festival. This is an event that showcased the local music scene at locations through downtown Athens. Total announcements – 254.

During the quarterly period, WRFC aired PSA's for the Boys & Girls Club. This organization focuses on activities for boys and girls that helps them grow and develop responsibly. Total announcements –49.

During the quarterly period, WRFC aired PSA's for the Athens Area Community Connection. These announcements were used to promote and encourage participation for the Connection's Half-Marathon. Total announcements – 13.

During the quarterly period, WRFC aired PSA's for Athens Regional Medical Center focusing on the Dogwood Classic. These ads were used to promote and encourage community participation in this community event. Total announcements – 22.

During the quarterly period, WRFC aired PSA's for child abuse prevention. These ads were used to promote and encourage community support for the community's child abuse prevention initiatives. Total announcements – 14.

During the quarterly period, WRFC aired PSA's for the Georgia Association of Broadcasters that were used to show support for the Georgia Army National Guard. Total announcements –215.

During the quarterly period, WRFC aired PSA's for the Georgia Association of Broadcasters that were used to create awareness for the Georgia 811 information program, Georgia Chamber of Commerce and U.S. Coast Guard. Total announcements – 63.

HEALTH-

NAME OF PROGRAM	DATE	TIME	DURATION	SOURCE
WRFC News	4/25/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to provide help for drug addicted persons. This report dealt with Governor Nathan Deal signing a bill into law that provides amnesty to anyone who seeks medical help for a drug overdose victim or underage drinker suffering from alcohol poisoning. The provision about underage drinkers was added with the University of Georgia students in mind. It was added by Athens State Senator Bill Cowsert.

Georgia Focus	4/27/14	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
---------------	---------	-----------	------------	-----

A need to support the struggle faced by Alzheimer's patients. Every 67-seconds someone is diagnosed with Alzheimer's. It is the sixth leading cause of death in the U.S. In Georgia, the Alzheimer's Association provides service to patients and families throughout the state. On this program, Leslie Anderson, President/CEO of the Georgia Chapter of the Alzheimer's Association, discussed some recent developments and upcoming events.

WRFC News	4/28/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to stabilize the operations of rural community hospitals. This report dealt with Governor Nathan Deal making his appointment to the Rural Hospitalization Stabilization Committee. It's a panel that includes Barrow County state Representative Terry England and Greg Heard from the Ty Cobb Regional Medical Center in Lavonia. The committee will work to shore up rural healthcare delivery in Georgia.

WRFC News	5/12/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to ascertain that qualified Georgians get Medicaid Healthcare. This report dealt with the issue of thousands of Georgians being a step closer to learning if they'll get Medicaid Healthcare. 92,000 Georgians have been stuck in bureaucratic limbo because federal and state computers couldn't talk to each other. The computers are working now but the process will still take a while. About 40,000 are considered eligible.

WRFC News	5/14/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to alert the public to a possible health hazard. This report dealt with the Centers for Disease Control saying ninety Georgians were possibly exposed to MERS. The CDC is contacting passengers who flew on the same planes with the second confirmed case, a passenger on a plane from Boston to Orlando, a flight that made a stop in Atlanta.

Georgia Focus	5/18/14	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
---------------	---------	-----------	------------	-----

A need to express the growing need for healthcare providers in Georgia. National Nurses Week was celebrated in early May along with the birthday of Florence Nightingale, the founder of modern nursing. As healthcare grows, so does the need for nurses. This program discussed the nursing profession with Brenda Jarvis, a nurse in the Cardiac ICU at Children's Egleston Hospital; Christin Neiner, and ER nurse at Children's Hospital at Scottish Rite; and Ashley Gordon, manager of Nurse Recruitment at Children's Healthcare of Atlanta.

Georgia Focus	6/1/14	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
---------------	--------	-----------	------------	-----

A need to address the issues of prescription drug abuse in the community. The Georgia Prescription Drug Abuse Prevention Initiative of the Council on Alcohol and Drugs works to prevent and reduce prescription drug abuse in Georgia. John Bringuel, Statewide Project Director for the Georgia Georgia Prescription Drug Abuse Prevention Initiative and Dr. Gregg Raduka, Director of Prevention/Intervention discussed issues about abuse and prevention.

Georgia Focus	6/8/14	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
---------------	--------	-----------	------------	-----

A need to help children cancer victims during initial and primary treatment period, as well as the period afterwards. At the AFLAC Cancer Center of Children's Healthcare of Atlanta, they treat a high volume of pediatric cancer patients. However, for many, surviving cancer is only half the battle. this program, recorded at Children's Healthcare of Atlanta's Egleston Hospital discussed their Cancer Survivor Program with Dr. Lillian Meacham, the program's director; and Jonathan Reedy, a 21-year old Leukemia survivor who utilizes Children's Survivorlink program.

During the quarterly period, WRFC aired PSA's for Saint Mary's Hospital. These announcements were utilized to promote Emergency Room Care, Cardio Health Care, and stroke prevention and care.
Total announcements – 414.

During the quarterly period, WRFC aired PSA's for Athens Regional Medical Center. These announcements were utilized to promote cancer center services, atrial fibrillation care, oncology and breast health.
Total announcements – 437.

ECONOMY-ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT-

NAME OF PROGRAM	DATE	TIME	DURATION	SOURCE
Newsmakers Today	4/13/14	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need for outreach to generate interest and development within the local community. Mike Tingle called play-by-play of the first ever hockey game played last night in the Classic Center. He explained this is the first of several games scheduled to be played in the facility. He talked about public interest in the event from the community and surrounding community and how it is likely to be an economic development outreach for the community.
Georgia Focus	4/13/14	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
A need to promote issues that provide potential economic benefits to the area. The First Tee has introduced the game of golf and its values to nine million young people in all fifty states and selected international locations. Joe Barrow, CEO of The First Tee, discussed the five chapters now active in Georgia. Also, Ellissa Dooman and PGA TOUR golfer Bernhard Langer talked about the Greater Gwinnett Champion coming to Duluth and what it means to the region and the state in economic benefits.
Newsmakers Today	4/20/14	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need for concentrated efforts toward economic development on the West side of Athens. Mike Hamby is an Athens-Clarke County Commissioner. He discussed the lay-of-the-land along the Atlanta highway corridor, focusing on potentials for development in the areas. He also discussed activities of the Atlanta Highway Study Committee and goals they are working toward.
Newsmakers Today	4/20/14	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need to support and promote small business development in the local community. Richie Knight discussed details about the Athens Small Business Summit that is coming up.
WRFC News	4/21/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need for development of new transportation services. This report dealt with a development that could impact Gainesville, Hall County and much of Northeast Georgia. The Georgia Department of Transportation is updating the state's long-range rail plan, with an eye on the Amtrak passenger service that rolls through Gainesville. The DOT is also looking at heavy freight traffic and at proposed commuter rail lines.
WRFC News	4/21/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need for approval for some economic development issues. This report dealt with the Gainesville and Hall County Development Authority meeting to consider renewing an agreement for the controversial Glades Reservoir project. The Authority is also looking at a proposal for $8-million in bonds to pay for a new dormitory, anatomy lab, and field house at Brenau University.
WRFC News	4/25/14	7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
A need for new jobs in Georgia to help our economic situation. This report dealt with more new jobs for Georgia. Aalto Scientific is setting up shop in Eatonton, putting $9-million into the economy and adding about 80 payroll positions in Putnam County. The medical diagnostics manufacturing company will build in the new Rock Eagle Technology Park.

WRFC News	4/30/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to keep services that support flights at the Athens airport. This report dealt with a news release from the Athens-Clarke County Public Information Office saying Essential Air Service funding for Athens-Ben Epps Airport could be reduced, or even eliminated, with the next few months. The U.S. Department of Transportation say the Athens airport gets $1.6 million in annual subsidies, funding that could be phased out as early as this fall.

Newsmakers Today	5/25/14	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
------------------	---------	-----------	-----------	-------

A need to promote Georgia's homegrown products. Georgia Agriculture Commissioner Gary Black discussed the Georgia grown test kitchen initiative. This program puts Georgia's homegrown products in the spotlight.

Newsmakers Today	6/1/14	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
------------------	--------	-----------	-----------	-------

A need for wage increase for hourly workers in the American economy. Jeff Dorfman discussed the increase that will take effect in the minimum wage. He talked about how this will affect the normal worker.

WRFC News	6/3/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to clarify a long-running dispute over some Athens parking spaces in a prime location. This report dealt with the Georgia Supreme Court on Monday hearing arguments in a lawsuit stemming from a dispute over parking the Five Points area of Athens. At issue is the ownership of almost two dozen parking spaces on South Lumpkin Street. Five Points property owner Barry Stiles says – and lower courts have agreed – that he owns 22 parking spaces as a result of an agreement his family entered into with Athens officials in 1954. The Athens-Clarke County government disputes that claim. A state Supreme Court ruling could come later this year.

WRFC News	6/4/14	6:48a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need for public relief from rising gas prices at the pump. This report dealt with Governor Nathan Deal saying he will suspend an increase in the state motor fuel tax, one scheduled for July first. This increase would have added fifteen percent to the average price for a gallon of gas in Georgia. The statewide average today --$3.66 for a gallon of self-serve regular – is up 45-cents from January.

WRFC News	6-12-14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to create awareness of the issues pertaining to a Special Purpose Local Option Sales Tax before the voters. This report dealt with statements that it was initially pegged at around $130 million by officials in Gainesville, estimates for revenue that would be generated by a five-year Special Purpose Local Option Sales Tax. Those estimates have now risen to almost $160-million. Hall County voters will decide the SPLOST referendum in November. There was a public forum on the tax proposal earlier this week in Gainesville. Now, Hall County officials are soliciting public input online.

WRFC News	6/13/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to encourage support for a new development at the downtown Classic Center. This report dealt with the Athens-Clarke County Industrial Development Authority voting down, at least for now, proposed tax abatements that were to have been extended to a developer with plans to build a hotel at the Classic Center. The Thursday afternoon vote from IDA came just hours before the matter was to have been taken up by the Athens-Clarke County Board of Tax Assessors which was, apparently, also poised to vote against the proposal.

WRFC News	6/19/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need for relief from budget cuts to a local library system. This report dealt with residents of Statham speaking out against proposed cuts to the city's library budget. The Statham City Council is looking at trimming the library's bottom line impact by more than $20,000 from $55,000 to $34,000. That could mean cuts in staffing, and would likely mean cuts in hours of operation for the library in Statham.

Newsmakers Today	6/29/14	7:00 a.m.	12-minutes	Local
------------------	---------	-----------	------------	-------

A need for initiatives toward economic development issues in downtown Athens. Regina Quick discussed plans for another hotel to be constructed in the downtown area and what it would mean for the local economy. She also discussed possible tax abatements to encourage the development.

During the quarterly period, WRFC aired PSA's for the local area Chamber of Commerce. These announcements were utilized to promote the January Small Business Summit. Total announcements – 28.

ENVIRONMENT-

NAME OF PROGRAM	DATE	TIME	DURATION	SOURCE
WRFC News	4-7-14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to make public aware of severe weather for the region. This report dealt with Athens and northeast Georgia waking up to a flood watch. The rain that began overnight is forecast to fall throughout the day and could include thunderstorms and other severe weather. Some parts of the region could see up to three inches of rain.

Newsmakers Today	4/13/14	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
------------------	---------	-----------	-----------	-------

A need for efforts to clean up our area waterways. Jerry Bruno discussed details of organizing the River Rendezvous this Saturday. He talked about what streams they will work on and what they hope to accomplish.

WRFC News	4/30/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to develop ideas toward water conservation in the region. Researchers in the University of Georgia's College of Agricultural and Environmental Sciences are teaming up with IBM to work with farmers in Georgia's Lower Flint River Basin to enhance water efficiency by up to 20 percent. The college and IBM are collaborating with the Flint River Partnership—which includes the Flint River Soil and Water Conservation District, the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Natural Resources Conservation Service and the Nature Conservancy—to help farmers make the best irrigation scheduling decisions in order to conserve water, improve crop yields and mitigate the impact of future droughts.

WRFC News	5-14-14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need for concern over fresh water availability. This report dealt with the issue that while some parts of the southeast are showing some signs of slipping back into drought status, Marilyn Hall says there are no signs of any water troubles in Athens. The Athens-Clarke County Water Conservation Officer says the level on the Bear Creek Reservoir that can provide drinking water for Clarke, Oconee, Jackson, and Barrow counties is full. She says the Oconee River levels are normal for this time of year.

Newsmakers Today	6/8/14	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
------------------	--------	-----------	-----------	-------

A need to create public awareness of new federal regulations that could affect north Georgia. David Stooksbury is the state climatologist who discussed issues involved in new Environmental Protection Agency regulations that could affect the environment in our region.

Georgia Focus	6/15/14	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN'
---------------	---------	-----------	------------	------

A need to focus on uses of alternative fuels that will result in a cleaner environment. Georgia Public Service Commissioner Tim Echols and Clean Cities Georgia are embarking on the fourth annual Alternative Fuel Vehicle Roadshow. This consists of an eight city tour fo the state to educate municipal and private fleet managers and government officials on the benefits and cost savings of using clean, domestic fuels. Commissioner Echols and Don Francis, Executive Director of Clean Cities Georgia, discussed the roadshow and use of alternative fuels in Georgia.

WRFC News	6-17-14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to increase water supplies for citizens in the region. This report dealt with the meeting of the Hard Labor Creek Reservoir Management Board. The meeting is scheduled for Monroe for the panel that is overseeing construction of the reservoir that will provide drinking water for Oconee and Walton counties. The panel discussed progress to date on the project and talked about upcoming issues.

Newsmakers Today	6/23/14	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
------------------	---------	-----------	-----------	-------

A need to make public aware of smog alert issues in next few months. Brian Carr is from the Georgia Clean Air Campaign. He talked about situations and conditions that initiate a smog alert. This information is being made available as the smog alert season begins.

PUBLIC SAFETY-CRIME

NAME OF PROGRAM	DATE	TIME	DURATION	SOURCE
WRFC News	4/1/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to reduce the number of traffic fatalities in Georgia. This report dealt with an announcement that traffic fatalities on Georgia roads were down again in 2103, the eighth consecutive year of declines. The Georgia Department of Transportation and the Governor’s Office of Highway Safety made the announcement. They said 1,186 people lost their lives on Georgia’s roads last year. That number is down by 13 from 2012, and some 560 fewer than 2005.

Georgia Focus	4/20/14	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
---------------	---------	-----------	------------	-----

A need to reduce drunk driving and underage drinking. Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD) is the nation’s largest non-profit working to protect families from drunk driving and underage drinking. MADD serves all 159 counties in Georgia as well as those from other states affected by Georgia crashes. Program guests were Barry Martin, Ga. State Executive Director for MADD and Neil Flitt, an attorney specializing in personal injury law and member of MADD’s steering committee.

WRFC News	4/21/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need for public awareness of a new law. This report dealt with Governor Nathan Deal signing a bill into law that passed during this year’s legislative session. The measure adds government buildings, churches and bars to the list of places permitted gun owners can carry their firearms.

WRFC News	4/24/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need for public awareness of dangers associated with hurricane season. This report dealt with details that just a few weeks away is the June first start of the Atlantic hurricane season. It explained that emergency managers from around Georgia are meeting in Savannah, making preparations for the storm season.

WRFC News	4/28/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need for regulation of traffic flow in some areas. This report dealt with details that if, weather\ permitting – and it might not be – we’ll get new traffic signals this week along the Broad Street and Atlanta Highway corridor. One is being installed at King and Broad streets and the other at Atlanta Highway and Jennings Mill. These are the signals that have the new flashing yellow turn arrows that are popping up at a handful of other intersections around northeast Georgia.

WRFC News	5/1/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need for public awareness of hazardous storms activity. This report dealt with a man killed in Athens’ Wednesday windstorm who was a 39-year old father of five. Pedro Gorosquieta was pulling out of the Pinewood Mobile Home Park when a tree fell on his car, crushing and killing him and damaging another vehicle. The high winds swept in just before daybreak Wednesday, knocking down trees and power lines across the region. Numerous roads and streets were blocked, traffic signals were out, as was electricity to thousands of homes and businesses around the region. Prince Avenue Christian School closed for the day Wednesday because of a power outage. The maximum wind gust in Athens was reported at 43 miles per hour, with sustained winds of more than 20 miles per hour.

WRFC News	5/1/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need for public knowledge of school safety measures. This report dealt with Wednesday drama at a school in Jackson County: a threatening note found on restroom wall at East Jackson Comprehensive High School led to a lockdown and then an evacuation. Students were taken out of the school and into the football stadium while police—including a unit from the University of Georgia--searched for explosives. None were found. Now investigators are looking for the person who left the note.

Georgia Focus	5/4/14	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
---------------	--------	-----------	------------	-----

A need to address the issue of helping victims of crime. The Georgia Crime Victims Compensation Program helps victims and their families through the emotional and physical aftermath of a crime by providing financial benefits for expenses such as medical bills, loss of earnings, counseling and crime scene cleanup. Program guests were Jacqueline Bunn, Executive Director of the Georgia Criminal Justice Coordinating Council and Melissa Burke, a crime victim who has received through this program.

WRFC News	5/9/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to address the issue of public safety of children when in presence around dogs. This report deal with a Habersham County girl continuing her recovery in a hospital in Atlanta. The six year old was seriously injured in a dog attack in Alto. The girl was first taken to Northeast Georgia Medical Center in Gainesville and then flown by helicopter to Children's Healthcare of Atlanta at Egleston. Habersham County Sheriff's Office investigators say she was attacked by as many as five dogs after wandering onto a neighbor's property at a residence off Highway-365.

WRFC News	5/22/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need for safety measures on Georgia roads during the summer vacation season. This report dealt with Georgia State Troopers getting set for their annual 100 Days of Summer Heat campaign, a Memorial Day weekend start for the enforcement effort aimed at catching speeders, drunk drivers, and those who aren't wearing seat belts. They'll also be targeting texting, looking for drivers who are texting behind the wheel.

Newsmakers Today	5/25/14	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
------------------	---------	-----------	-----------	-------

A need for safety initiatives on Georgia's roads. Harris Blackwood is from the Governor's Office of Highway Safety. He discussed traffic safety on the upcoming Memorial Day holiday weekend. He talked about the department's initiatives being put into place in an attempt to curb violators.

WRFC News	5/27/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to create public awareness of a regional meat recall. This report dealt with a recall of Hall County produced food products. Prime Pak Foods of Gainesville is recalling more than 23,000 pounds of breaded chicken breast products because of misbranding and undeclared allergens. The U.S. Department of Agriculture's Food Safety and Inspection Service says the products were formulated with eggs, milk and wheat...known allergens which are not declared on the product labels.

WRFC News	5/30/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to bring an accused Athens cop killer to trial as part of an on-going proceedings. This report dealt with Thursday marking a first in a long legal proceeding involving admitted Athens cop killer Jamie Hood. Hood acted as his own attorney in a pre-trial hearing in Athens-Clarke County Superior Court. Hood is facing a death penalty trial for the March 2001 murder of Athens-Clarke County Police Officer Buddy Christian. In previous hearings, he'd asked for and received a judge's permission to remove his team of legal aid attorneys and handle his own defense.

WRFC News	6/4/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need for improved security on downtown Athens' streets. This report dealt with Athens-Clarke County Commissioners meeting at City Hall, voting to expand the network of security cameras in downtown Athens.

WRFC News	6/6/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to make public aware of outcome of an ongoing drug ring investigation. The report dealt with the Athens-Clarke County Police Department saying its officers, working with members of the Northeast Georgia Drug Task Force and agents from the GBI and U.S. Marshall's Service, have arrested two suspected drug traffickers. Demetrius Bankston is 32-years old and Garrick Appling is 31. Both are from Athens, and both are accused of dealing in cocaine. The two were arrested in Athens and indicted by a federal grand jury in Macon.

WRFC News	6/6/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to let the public know the outcome of an ongoing investigation that involved the local region. This report dealt with Nine people – including a Banks County corrections officer – being arrested and charged in what investigators say was a multi-million dollar racketeering ring. Devon Ledford worked at the Hall County Jail. He and the other eight are accused of money laundering and dealing in prescription drugs. The Banks County Sheriff's Office says the ring has been operating for years.

WRFC News	6/10/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to create public awareness of a hazardous situation in Gainesville. The report dealt with more than a dozen workers at a Hall County food processing plant being evacuated from that plant Monday. Four of the fourteen were taken to Northeast Georgia Medical Center for treatment of what was described as minor irritation after exposure to ammonia. Workers repaired the leak at Koch Foods in Gainesville.

WGMG News	6/12/14	6:02 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:02 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:02 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		9:30 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to made public aware that a water hazard has been eliminated. This report dealt with Banks County lifting the water boil advisory that had been in place since late last week. It took crews a couple of days to find the source of the water leak that caused the county to issue the advisory. It took a couple of more days to repair the ruptured waterline. The impacted area was north of I-85 in Banks County. The county's public works department lifted the advisory Wednesday afternoon.

WRFC News	6/12/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to create public awareness of accusations against a large number of law enforcement personnel. This report dealt with reports that indicate at least 500 law enforcement officers in Georgia may have lied about fulfilling required training in the last year. Many of them allegedly falsified records related to on-line training.

Newsmakers Today	6/15/14	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
------------------	---------	-----------	-----------	-------

A need for determination of safety issues involved with no-knock warrants. Kevin Turner discussed the pros and cons involved with no-knock warrants.

Newsmakers Today	6/23/14	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
------------------	---------	-----------	-----------	-------

A need to control traffic at two major area highway situations. Terri Pope, spokesperson for the Georgia Department of Transportation, discussed the traffic flow issues that are hopefully being improved with the newly opened interchange at highway 316 and Ga. 20 which is subject to a major flow of traffic from across northeast Georgia. She also discussed the recently changes in the speed limit along a section of U.S. Highway 441 northward from Athens through Commerce and Banks Crossing, which is a four-lane thoroughfare.

Georgia Focus	6/29/14	7:30 a.m.	28-minutes	GNN
---------------	---------	-----------	------------	-----

A need to create public awareness of a program that offers free legal services to victims of domestic abuse who cannot afford to pay a lawyer. The Georgia Legal Services Program offers free legal services in civil cases to people who cannot afford to hire a lawyer. Among the area in which they practice is assisting victims of domestic violence which is a major problem throughout Georgia. GLSP attorneys Vicky Kimbrell and Wingo Smith discussed the issues surrounding domestic violence cases.

EDUCATION-

NAME OF PROGRAM	DATE	TIME	DURATION	SOURCE
WRFC News	4/2/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need for expanded and new facilities at a north Georgia college. Something big and new for Brenau University in Gainesville. The Brenau Board of Trustees has approved a record $62.5 million spending plan that provides for $8-million in new construction for undergraduate residence housing, a human anatomy laboratory, and a field house at a new athletics park.

WRFC News	4/8/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need for new school facilities. This report dealt with a groundbreaking set for nine o'clock this morning at Whitehead Elementary School. The Clarke County School System is marking the ceremonial start of work on a 109,000 square foot sales tax funded school building. School officials say the existing Whitehead building will remain in place for future use as a stand alone facility.

WRFC News	4/17/14	6:48 a.m. 8:48 a.m.	30-sec. 30-sec.	Local Local
A need for public awareness of allegations against the governor. This Report dealt with former Dalton mayor David Pennington holding a news conference in Atlanta, raising what he claims are serious allegations about Governor Nathan Deal and purported ethics violations. Pennington is running against the Governor in next month's Republican Primary. He challenged Deal to take part in debates; the Deal campaign says no.
Newsmakers Today	4/27/14	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need to know the candidate. Branko Radulovacki is a candidate for the U.S. Senate. He discussed his campaign plans and issues he feels are important to the voters.
Newsmakers Today	4/27/14	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need to know the candidate. John Larkin is a candidate for Post 2 on the Oconee County Board of Commissioners. He talked about his candidacy and the state of the local government. He explained the things he would like to accomplish as a commissioner.
Newsmakers Today	5/4/14	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need to know the candidate. Margaret Hale explained why she wants to be re-elected to the Oconee County Board of Commissioners. She talked about the needs within the county government and her goals to accomplish as a commissioner.
Newsmakers Today	5/4/14	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need to know the candidate. David Perdue is a candidate for the U.S. Senate. He talked about his campaign and issues he sees as important to the voters and his position on those issues.
Newsmakers Today	5/4/14	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
Charlie Harper is from Peach Pundit. He discussed and explained his analysis on the first day of early voting.
Newsmakers Today	5/11/14	7:00 a.m.	20-minutes	Local
A need to know the candidates. Guests on this program were Nancy Denson and Tim Denson. Both are candidates for Athens Mayor. They discussed their campaigns, issues facing the city government, their ideas on the future of the city and plans for growth and development.
Newsmakers Today	5/25/14	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need to know the candidate. Margaret Hale is a runoff candidate for Post 3 on the Oconee County Commission. She talked about her campaign and why she is a strong candidate. She discussed her ideas on issues important to the county.
Newsmakers Today	6/1/14	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need to know the candidate. Bubber Wilkes is a candidate for Post 3 on the Oconee County Commission. He discussed the campaign and needs facing the county government. He explained how he will deal with these issues if elected.
Newsmakers Today	6/8/14	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need to know the candidate. Mike Buck is a candidate for Georgia Schools Superintendent. He discussed his campaign and talked about his positions on some major issues facing the schools.
Newsmakers Today	6/8/14	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
A need to know the candidate. David Perdue is U.S. Senate candidate in Georgia. He talked about his campaign and provided his feelings about major issues facing Congress.

WRFC News	6/9/14	6:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		7:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local
		8:48 a.m.	30-sec.	Local

A need to keep public updated on status of political campaigns. This report dealt with a candidate getting another endorsement of another congressman, and he's opened up a double-digit lead in the latest polls. The poll from Channell-11 TV in Atlanta shows Athens native and Savannah Congressman Jack Kingston with an eleven point lead over David Perdue, now 43-days away from the July 22nd Republican Senate Runoff. Gwinnett County Congressman Rob Woodall became late last week the latest Georgia House member to voice his support for Kingston's Senate campaign.

Newsmakers Today	6/15/14	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
------------------	---------	-----------	-----------	-------

A need to understand aspects of the political season. Bill Crane discussed issues in the Athens Mayoral race, the Cantor loss and what impact it could have on national politics, and the trail of candidate endorsements and the role they can play in elections at all levels.

Newsmakers Today	6/29/14	7:00 a.m.	4-minutes	Local
------------------	---------	-----------	-----------	-------

A need to know the candidate. Andrew Hunt is a Libertarian candidate for Governor. He discussed his campaign, why he chose to run for Governor, and his ambitions as a politician. He discussed his stance on items he considers as primary importance to the state.