BOSTON MED - Health

Two years later after the Peabody award-winning medical documentary series, HOPKINS, ABC News debuts BOSTON MED (8-part series), a penetrating voyage inside three of America's top hospitals. Picking up where "Hopkins" left off, "Boston Med" travels to a city renowned for medical excellence and home to three superb American hospitals: Massachusetts General Hospital, Brigham and Women's Hospital, and Children's Hospital. Over four months, ABC cameras had unparalleled access to hospital staffs and patients

Thursday, June 24, 2010 (Premiere) - Health

BOSTON MED travels to a city renowned for medical excellence and home to three superb American hospitals, Massachusetts General Hospital, Brigham and Women's Hospital, and Children's Hospital. Over four months, ABC cameras had unparalleled access to hospital staffs and patients. From operating rooms to end-of-life meetings, exploring the culture of doctors and nurses and the conversations that happen outside the patient's earshot.

Thursday, July 1, 2010 - Health

Young soldier returns from Iraq to witness the birth of his son...the series captures the emotional moments before the baby faces critical surgery.

Thursday, July 8, 2010 - Health

Will Curry is a second generation African-American surgeon. He has trained at top institutions and is an attending surgeon at one of the nation's best hospitals, but that doesn't stop a patient from mistaking him for a janitor. In this episode, Curry performs a nearly inconceivable brain surgery on a young father with a tumor that will kill him if it is not removed.

Thursday, July 15, 2010

A MOTHER'S NIGHTMARE - Health

Sara Dumas is a teenager beloved by friends and family. High-spirited and curious about the world, she is hampered by a congenitally diseased heart that will kill her within weeks if a donor can't be found. For any mother, this would be a nightmare. However, Sara's mother has to contend with the realization that the family will go through everything twice. Sara's brother Ian has the exact same ailment as his sister.

Thursday, July 22, 2010

HEALTHY BALANCE -

Kelly Wright is a study in contradictions. She is a gay Texan and a second year resident in Ob-Gyn. Working in women's health, she says, people assume she is pro-choice and liberal. In fact she is a devout Christian who won't perform abortions, unlike most of her fellow residents. But a difficult maternity case and the break-up of an important relationship have colored her first years of residency and led to career doubts.

Thursday, July 29, 2010

HEARTBREAK, HOPE & FAITH - Health

The Cyrs are a young couple just having a baby until they find themselves engulfed in a medical nightmare when their son is born with a critical heart defect requiring immediate surgery. The overwhelmed couple put their faith in Mass General's lead pediatric heart surgeon where the family rides an emotional rollercoaster.

Thursday, August 5, 2010

MORTALITY - Health

A retired fireman blew off a colonoscopy and now pays the price with a colon cancer diagnosis. Coming to terms with his own mortality is tricky psychological terrain for this confident and supremely self-reliant man. His surgeon, David Berger, is as good as they come, but knows Tom's chances of survival will depend on how far the cancer has spread.

Thursday, August 12, 2010 (Season Finale)

FACE TRANSPLANT

Two worlds intersect in a dramatic finale that features the only second face transplant ever performed in the US. Joseph Helfgot is a high powered Hollywood marketing executive and James Maki is a down on his luck Vietnam vet who destroyed his face in a drug-addled subway fall. Helfgot hoped for a surgery that would extend his life; instead, it is Maki who gets the second chance. The brilliant plastic surgeon, Dr. Bo Pomahac, once a political refugee who arrived in this country without a penny to his name -- never thought that he would one day make medical history.

SECRETS OF YOUR MIND -- WHY WE DO WHAT WE DO

ABC News launches a new primetime series, "Nightlineprime," with four installments of "Secrets of Your Mind -- Why We Do What We Do."

Thursday, August 19, 2010 (Premiere)

"Nightline" co-anchor Cynthia McFadden explores the brain in love. She follows a remarkable story of love lost and found again after a traumatic brain injury. McFadden also talks to a man who is literally paralyzed by love—a peculiar brain condition that causes his body to shut down when he experiences feelings of love for his wife.

Thursday, August 26, 2010

Martin Bashir takes a journey inside the mind of a psychopath. Bashir examines evil's origin in the brain, whether people are born with a tendency for evil or violent behavior, and whether that can be detected in childhood. Bashir visits death row for a close-up look at two of the country's most notorious serial killers.

Thursday, September 2, 2010

"Nightline" co-anchor Terry Moran embeds with Dr. Bailes for a first-hand look at life-and-death drama inside the operating room. It's a race against time as cameras capture an aneurism bursting on the operating table and Dr. Bailes and his team have only seconds to react.

Tuesday, September 7, 2010 (Season Finale)

Martin Bashir reports on a story of an obese woman who has tried everything to lose weight, and now is embarking on the most revolutionary weight loss procedure ever attempted—brain surgery. Bashir also peers into the mind of a woman who eats out of control while she sleeps. The brain's mysterious relationship with food closes out the series.

TRAPPED: WHEN WE DO WHAT WE DO

This series sets up everyday scenarios and then captures people's reactions; whether people are compelled to act or mind their own business. John Quiñones reports.

Friday, July 9, 2010

- DATE RAPE: Suppose you saw a stranger slip a suspicious powder into his date's drink - would you tell his date?
- GAS THEFT: When a man takes a running pump from another car and puts it into his tank while the victim is inside the store, will any motorists nearby confront the thief or alert the station attendant?
- SUPERMARKET-EXPRESS: Suppose customers are in the express check-out line at a grocery store behind a person with an overflowing shopping cart. Will they say something in this all too familiar situation or just hold their tongue?
- FIVE MILLIONTH CUSTOMER: A sweet, elderly woman asks to cut in the express check-out line at a supermarket only to discover she is the store's "five millionth customer," winning a check for $500. When the younger woman she cut in front of speaks up to claim a prize that is rightfully hers, how do people react?

Friday, July 16, 2010

- BEGGING: With high gasoline prices and a falling economy, how will people react to someone who approaches them begging not for money, but for a few gallons of gasoline?
- SHOPLIFTING: A mother shoplifts and uses her daughter as an accomplice, placing the stolen items in her child's backpack. Will fellow shoppers step in and confront the mother in front of the child – or mind their own business?
- VANDALISM: Will anyone in the neighborhood intervene when they witness teenagers trashing a parked car? And will the reactions differ if the vandals are black?
- CALLER FROM HELL: The obnoxious person in a restaurant talking so loudly on his cell phone that there is no escape; everyone must hear every word. How will the frustrated diners react? But when an attractive woman plays the part, does it change everything?

Friday, July 23, 2010

- CALLER FROM HELL: The obnoxious person in a restaurant talking so loudly on his cell phone that there is no escape; everyone must hear every word. How will the frustrated diners react? But when an attractive woman plays the part, does it change everything?

Tuesday, July 27, 2010

- POLYGAMY: At a restaurant just outside of Las Vegas, Nevada, a man in his 60s and his three wives are celebrating his impending marriage to a 15-year-old girl, who is visibly upset about becoming wife #4 against her will. How will fellow diners react to a reluctant child bride in need of help?
- LATINO BASHING: Straight from the headlines of men being attacked because they are Latino, Qui-ones asks, "What Would You Do" if you witnessed a hate crime?.
- INFOMERCIALS: Many infomercials are true, but what about some of those "real people" you see whose lives have been "magically transformed." How many people would make outrageous claims about a product they have never used or that they know doesn't work, and even may cause harm - just because they were offered money and a chance to be on television?

Friday, July 30, 2010

- HAZING: Hazing is all too common on college campuses and even high schools across the country. Although hazing normally goes on behind closed doors, what will happen when guys in diapers led around like dogs or saran wrapped to a pole are forced to drink what appears to be a staggering amount of alcohol in a public place?
- MOMZILLA: Shopping for a wedding dress should be a wonderful experience for all brides. But what happens when an overbearing and controlling mother berates her daughter in one of New York City's most exclusive bridal salons – will anyone step in to support the bride and confront the Momzilla?
- WAITING ROOM: Several surveillance videos in which bystanders ignored people in dire need of help have recently made headlines. How will people react when a woman who collapses on a busy street during morning rush hour?
- PHARMACY - CONTRACEPTION: A 16-year-old teenage girl walks into a pharmacy with a valid prescription for birth control pills. The pharmacist refuses to fill it because, at her age, he does not believe she should be having sex. In one scenario the teenager is a clean-cut all American girl and in another she is sassy. Will bystanders defend the teen or will they support the pharmacist?

Tuesday, August 3, 2010

- HOMELESS ATTACKS: "Bum bashing" is an alarming trend, where teens around the country attack homeless victims for sport. In most cases, no one is around when it happens. But what if people were? "What Would You Do" creates an example of this shocking phenomenon in a New Jersey town to find out.
- HANDICAPPED PARKING: When an able-bodied woman barges into a handicapped parking space and refuses to move -- even when a handicapped person asks for a spot -- will anyone intervene?
- STRANGER FLIRTATION: Imagine you are out for a romantic dinner at a cozy restaurant. Everything seems lovely until the attractive waiter or waitress begins to openly hit on your spouse. How will six significant others react?
- EMBARRASSING MOMENTS: An oblivious stranger has spinach in her teeth, toilet paper on her shoes, or an unbuttoned blouse.... will anyone tell her and save her from becoming a laughingstock?

Friday, August 6, 2010

- MUSLIM WOMAN: What Would You Do?" finds out what happens when a Muslim woman wearing a veil is denied service by the owner of a popular bakery. Who will come to her defense, and who will support the owner who wants to kick her out?
- PARALLEL PARKER FROM HELL: What will people do when they see a parallel parker bulldoze her way into a tight spot, knocking the fender off the car behind her -- and then saunter away? Will they intervene to alert the damaged car's owner?
- MEAN GIRLS: When "What Would You Do?" creates a scenario where three girls verbally attack another in a park, what will witnesses do?
- CHEATERS: Imagine being out to dinner when you notice an amorous couple -- playful and flirtatious -- and upon a closer look realize that the man is your good friend's husband? And that the woman he's cuddling with is a complete stranger. Do you tell your friend that her husband is up to no good?

Tuesday, August 10, 2010

- DRUNK DRIVING: What will people do when they see a stranger who's had too much to drink try to get in a car? And will it make a difference when it's a mom with her children? "What Would You Do?" reports on how far people will go to stop a drunk driver.
- OVERWEIGHT HARRASSMENT: An overweight person encounters a cruel group of teens who ridicule her while she's sitting on a public bench at a beach boardwalk. Will anyone walking by intervene?
- BRIDAL GOWN: At a wedding gown fitting, a bride-to-be reveals her choice to friends and family. But what if the gown is so ugly that her closest friends and family want to scream? Will they keep their thoughts to themselves or speak up honestly?
- CHEATING COUPLES: "What Would You Do?" continues the "cheating couples" scenario in which viewers see a best friend's husband getting way too cozy with another woman, but this time the stakes are higher. Will she tell her friend?

Friday, August 13, 2010

- LATINO DAY LABORERS: In exploring how people react when they witness blatant racial discrimination, in this scenario, Latino men and women attempt to place an order in broken English at a deli in downtown Linden, NJ. But their requests are met by extreme prejudice from the cashier.
- TALKING DOWN TO THE HELP: "What Would You Do?" explores how people react when they witness an abusive situation between an employer and an employee, in this case a mother, her child and a nanny...will people intervene.
- UNWANTED ADVANCES: How will people react when they witness a woman being incessantly hit on by an aggressive man at a bar? Will other patrons protect the woman, rely on someone else to intervene or ignore the unwanted advances all together?

Tuesday, August 17, 2010

- GOOD SAMARITAN: Based on a famous university experiment, "What Would You Do?" asks people to prepare a speech on the biblical parable of the Good Samaritan and then go to another location to record their speech on camera. But on the way, they encounter someone in need. Will anyone stop to help and be a real-life Good Samaritan?
- STRANGER FLIRTATION: How will men react to a waiter hitting on their significant other during their meal? And, one woman gets the surprise of her life after her dinner – how will she respond?
- INTERACCIAL ABUSE: When a boyfriend is on the verge of physically harming a woman in a public park, will people intervene? Viewers see that some people show incredible courage while others just walk right by. Will bystanders show the same courage when the boyfriend is black and the girlfriend is white? Will their interpretation be different?

Friday, August 20, 2010

- BABY LEFT ALONE IN A HOT CAR: Almost 40 children die every year after being left behind in a hot car. Did these kids go unnoticed or did strangers just walk on by? Using a lifelike doll, "What Would You Do?" examines how people passing by would react if they did indeed notice - would they come to the baby's rescue?
- LOST CHILD: You're rushing to work, running an errand or simply out for a stroll when you pass by a little boy all alone, crying. Do you notice or stop to help? And what if the lost child is a girl? Will people try to help a child on the street who appears lost?
- GAY PDA: Who says public display of affection can't spark dinnertime conversation? But what will that conversation be when the couple displaying affection is gay?
- DOG IN HOT CAR: Will people react differently to a dog left alone in a hot car than to a baby? Will they come to a Golden Retriever's rescue or walk on by, even when he barks for help?

Tuesday, August 24, 2010

- BLIND TRUST: What happens when a cashier gives the incorrect paper currency as change to a blind customer? Will any of the bystanders step in?
- AUTHORITY FIGURE: "20/20" reported the unimaginable story of a female McDonald's manager following orders from an unknown voice on the phone - pretending to be a police officer - insisting that she perform inappropriate acts on a subordinate. She complied. Using a real-life bounty hunter, "What Would You Do?" asked how far everyday people would go to obey someone they believe is an authority figure.
- CHEATERS: What will happen when friends notice a mutual friend out to dinner, cheating on his/her spouse? How willing will they be to intervene in such a personal matter?
- OPEN HOUSE THEFT: Two well-dressed women show up at an open house to see a 1.4 million dollar home for sale and are soon stealing everything in sight. Will other visitors to the open house notice and say or do anything? And will the response be different if the thief is black or a man?

Friday, August 27, 2010

- DRUNK PILOTS: What would you do if you witnessed two commercial airline pilots drinking heavily at a bar just an hour away from getting into the cockpit?
- SPECIAL NEEDS - SPECIAL TREATMENT: People with intellectual disabilities have more professional opportunities than ever before, but they still face ignorance and even bigotry. Will unwitting observers take a stand against this abuse, or will they ignore it?
- GAY PARENTS: A lesbian couple is eating dinner with their two young children when a nosy waiter interrupts them, questioning their relationship. The waiter complains that having two mommies is "unnatural." Will other restaurant patrons intervene, or will they look the other way?
- BRIDEZILLA: From over-the-top bridesmaid gowns to a bridesmaid contract outlining the bride's expectations about hair, weight, and even how many drinks can be consumed at the reception, "What Would You Do?" tests the limits bridesmaids can be pushed to by their Bridezilla friends.

Friday, September 3, 2010

- THE GIRL WHO HAD TOO MUCH: How will people react when they witness a young woman – helplessly intoxicated at a bar – and a male stranger who approaches and tries to take her home? Does it make a difference if the girl is dressed provocatively?
- BIKE THEFT: What happens when a thief snatches a bike in broad daylight in a crowded park? To find out, “What Would You Do?” set loose a trio of thieves – white, black and female – armed with bolt-cutters, hacksaws and a fierce-looking electrical grinder, in full public view.
- LOTTO: During these troubled economic times, more and more people are playing the Lotto. What happens when a store clerk turns out to be a crook and tries to pocket the winning ticket of his customers?
- SHOPPING WHILE BLACK: It’s a form of racial profiling so common that researchers have given it a name, Shopping While Black. What will happen when the shoppers are not only black, but teenagers – who are targeted most?

INTERROGATION ROOMS - Crime

It's a small, private, soundproofed room. The walls are stripped of any decoration. Two chairs face each other. This is the field of play in the ultimate mind game – the interplay between a criminal suspect and police interrogator. With unprecedented access to the workings of the Houston Homicide Division, “Primetime: Crime” gets a rare glimpse into the tactics and skills investigators use to get people to talk. Chris Cuomo reports.

CHANGED FOREVER - Crime

British model Katie Piper seemed to have it all; but in a shocking moment she was doused with sulfuric acid by a complete stranger. Her face and body were badly burned, and any hope of continuing her life as a model was over. Katie suspected that the attack had been orchestrated by a new boyfriend. “20/20” chronicles Katie's incredible road to recovery.

UNBREAKABLE BOND

Identical triplets Chandra, Jordan and Trae Berns are reminded of their harrowing ordeal every time they look in the mirror -- being burn victims in a fire that engulfed their home and killed their mom. "20/20" is with them as they take a momentous step to try and erase a past that has left its mark physically and emotionally.

Daughters of newspaper heiress Anne Scripps, Annie and Alex, grew up happy, privileged and loved in New York. On New Year's Eve 1993, their stepfather, Scott Douglas, killed their mother and then himself by jumping off the Tappan Zee Bridge. Flash forward to today... Annie, who had never gotten over the grief and guilt of her mother's death, jumped from the Tappan Zee bridge the same way and in the same place that her murderous stepfather had so many years ago. Deborah Roberts reports. - Crime

SINS OF THEIR FATHERS - Crime

Melissa Moore grew up with an adoring dad. But behind the loving facade was a violent killer with a secret that would only be revealed years later - her dad, Keith Jespersen, was one of the nation's most infamous serial killers, known as the "Happy Face Killer" for the anonymous confession letters signed with a whimsical smiley face logo. Jespersen's notorious five-year, five-state murdering spree resulted in the deaths of eight women.

ALBINISM

Imagine being hunted down by another human because your body is thought to possess magical powers that people want to bottle; that is the gruesome reality for people with albinism living in Tanzania, Africa. Albinism, a medical condition in which the body produces little or no pigment, exists everywhere, in every ethnic group in the world. Here in the US albinos, aren't facing the attacks of those in Africa, but often face ridicule, prejudice and exclusion. Juju Chang reports.

DOUBLE CONFESSIONS

Well-loved couple Wayne and Sharmon Stock were found viciously murdered in their Nebraska farmhouse in 2006. The crime had all the earmarks of a revenge killing. The tiny town of Murdock, NE, was in utter disbelief. There would be two bewilderingly different first-hand accounts of the murder, and two videotaped confessions -- by completely different people. One would turn out to be completely innocent. Deborah Roberts reports.
