

KLWD/KWCF ISSUES/PROGRAMS- 1ST QUARTER 2023

ISSUE: Teacher Union decline, rising child care and work costs

PROGRAM: American Radio Journal

DURATION: 30 min.

AIRED: 1/1/23, 10 pm

DESCRIPTION: Host Lowman Henry and Jason Dudash of the Oregon Freedom Foundation discussed the declining membership in teachers unions. Dudash cited several reasons, but also says the increasing political pressures unions put on their membership is driving many away from the liberal leaning philosophies being promoted by unions. Eric Boehm of Reason Magazine discussed the rising costs of work and child care. A combination of inflationary transportation, child care expenses and work costs not keeping up with compensation are creating an economic hardship that is increasingly affecting more low and middle class employees and families.

ISSUE: Childhood obesity

PROGRAM: Family Talk

DURATION: 26 min.

AIRED: 1/4/23 7:30 am and 11:30 pm (part 1); 1/5/23 7:30 and 11:30 pm (part 2)

DESCRIPTION: Host Dr. James Dobson discussed childhood obesity with Ali Elliot, a registered dietician at Thrive Pediatric Nutrition in Birmingham Alabama. Elliot said 1 in 5 kids suffer from obesity in America and kids are eating about 1.8 daily servings of fruits and vegetables, less than half of the recommendation of 4.5 servings. Elliot said the deterioration of the family and the busy lifestyles of families are contributing factors compounding the problem. Elliot recommended balancing the diet of kids and making sure they are getting the proper nutritional combination for optimal health and weight.
