

1st Quarter FCC Community Issues 2019

Community Issue- Black History Month: February is Black History Month Nationally and is also a time to reflect and honor the history and contributions of African Americans in America. The Gullah Culture here on Hilton Head Island is rich and what makes our local community unique, so we held a social responsibility to teach others about the local Gullah Culture by showcasing festivals and events held by Gullah natives and artists alike on our station.

Program/Guest	Duration	Air Date	Organization Description
Hilton Head News- Theresa White	30 Min.	1/7/19	The Pan-African Family Empowerment & Land Preservation Network, Inc.'s mission is both simple and complex in its scope. Our main goal is to simply empower people of African descent with the educational and organizational tools, and the financial resources necessary to protect their ancestral homes and family-owned land from being lost through delinquent tax sales; dishonest land surveys; encroachment by developers and neighboring landowners; forced sales of heirs property; forged deeds; and the unfair use of tax collection laws, etc.
Talk of the Town- Louise Cohen	30 Min.	1/8/19	Since 2003, the Gullah Museum of Hilton Head, a 501(C)3 organization, has been committed to maintaining Gullah customs, traditions, language, stories, songs and structures on Hilton Head.
Beaufort News- Queen Quet	30 Min.	2/4/19	Gullah Geechee Coalition-The Gullah/Geechee Nation exist from Jacksonville, NC to Jacksonville, FL. It encompasses all of the Sea Islands and thirty to thirty-five miles inland to the St. John's River. On these islands, people from numerous African ethnic groups linked with indigenous Americans and created the unique Gullah language and traditions from which later came "Geechee." The Gullah/Geechee people have been considered "a nation within a nation" from the time of chattel enslavement in the United States until they officially became an internationally recognized nation on July 2, 2000

Community Issue- Human Trafficking Awareness Month: Human Trafficking is a big issue nationally, and internationally as signs are often unnoticed. Children and runaways are even more valuable. In 2017, the National Center for Missing & Exploited Children estimated that 1 in 6 endangered runaways reported to them were likely sex trafficking victims. Globally, the International Labor Organization estimates that there are 4.5 million people trapped in forced sexual exploitation globally. Locally, these numbers are high too. With the help of local human trafficking organizations, we were able to inform and educate our local viewers on signs of human trafficking to help impact and change lives.

Community Issue- National Nutrition Month: A healthy country is a happy one! January is National Nutrition Month. Statistics show that the percentage of American children and adolescents who are considered overweight or obese has tripled since 1970, and with these statistics, studies found that several chronic conditions like obesity, and heart disease can be controlled and avoided with healthy lifestyle and exercise. In the month of January, we aimed to educate and influence healthy lifestyle by featuring nutritionists and a local farmer's market on our station.

1st Quarter FCC Community Issues 2019

Community Issue-National Reading Awareness Month: March is National Reading Awareness Month in America. Literacy is a very serious issue, as it is vital for economic and social development. According to the literacy fast facts from the National Assessment of Adult Literacy (NAAL), literacy is defined as "using printed and written information to function in society, to achieve one's goals, and to develop one's knowledge and potential." In the month of March, we honored that by reiterating the importance of literacy with the help of our local library, local authors, and charity foundations.
