

1st Quarter FCC Community Issues 2020

Community Issue- Black History Month: February is Black History Month Nationally and is also a time to reflect and honor the history and contributions of African Americans in America. The Gullah Culture here on Hilton Head Island is rich and what makes our local community unique, so we held a social responsibility to teach others about the local Gullah Culture by showcasing festivals and events held by Gullah natives and artists alike on our station.

Program/Guest	Duration	Air Date	Organization Description
Beaufort News- Queen Quet	30 Min.	2/3/20	Gullah Geechee Coalition-The Gullah/Geechee Nation exist from Jacksonville, NC to Jacksonville, FL. It encompasses all of the Sea Islands and thirty to thirty-five miles inland to the St. John's River. On these islands, people from numerous African ethnic groups linked with indigenous Americans and created the unique Gullah language and traditions from which later came "Geechee." The Gullah/Geechee people have been considered "a nation within a nation" from the time of chattel enslavement in the United States until they officially became an internationally recognized nation on July 2, 2000.

The college is a comprehensive, public, two-year college dedicated to serving the diverse educational needs of the rural counties of Beaufort, Colleton, Hampton, and Jasper. The College annually serves approximately 10,000 credit and continuing education students, a mix of traditional, non-traditional, fulltime, and part-time.
Hilton Head News- Ahmad Ward	30 Min.	2/17/20	Historic Mitchelville Freedom Park [MPP], Inc. is a non-profit South Carolina corporation which was formed to preserve the history of and educate the public about the historic Mitchelville settlement. Mitchelville was placed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1988 (as the Fish Haul Archaeological Site), making the site important to preserving and understanding the nation's difficulties during Reconstruction. MPP has been formed to act as a steward for the benefit of preserving the rich history of Mitchelville and its connection to local Gullah culture.

Community Issue- Human Trafficking Awareness Month: Human Trafficking is a big issue nationally, and internationally as signs are often unnoticed. Children and runaways are even more valuable. In 2019, the National Center for Missing & Exploited Children estimated that 1 in 6 endangered runaways reported to them were likely sex trafficking victims. Globally, the International Labor Organization estimates that there are 4.5 million people trapped in forced sexual exploitation globally. Locally, these numbers are high too. With the help of local human trafficking organizations, we were able to inform and educate our local viewers on signs of human trafficking to help impact and change lives.

Community Issue- National Nutrition Month: A healthy country is a happy one! January is National Nutrition Month. Statistics show that the percentage of American children and adolescents who are considered overweight or obese has tripled since 1970, and with these statistics, studies found that several chronic conditions like obesity, and heart disease can be controlled and avoided with healthy lifestyle and exercise. In the month of January, we aimed to educate and influence healthy lifestyle by featuring nutritionists and a local farmer's market on our station.
