

WMOV ISSUES/ANSWERS LIST
June 30, 2021

A Touch of Grey (one hour program)

Janice Clarke Johnston, author of “Mid-Life Maze: A Map To Recovery and Rediscovery After Loss;” Dr. Santo diMarabella, author of “The Lessons of Caring: Inspiration and Support for Caregivers”...8:00-9:00a, April 4 & 11, 2021.

Dr. Kelly Harding, professor of psychology, Columbia University School of Medicine and author of “The Rabbit Effect: Live Longer, Happier and Healthier With The Groundbreaking Science of Kindness;” David Owen, staff at the New Yorker and author of “Volume Control,” on hearing loss in older adults...8:00-9:00a, April 18, 2021.

Dr. Alan J. Hamilton, brain surgeon and contributor to the book, “After Next Year: Live Strong, Fit and Sexy Until Year 80 and Beyond”...8:00-9:00a, April 25, 2021.

Dr. Neir Varzali, founding director of the Institute for Aging Research, and author of “Age Later;” Elizabeth Marshall Thomas, anthropologist and author of “Growing Old: Notes on Aging With Something Like Grace”...8:00-9:00a, May 2, 2021.

Syndicated talk show host Mike Gallagher; Former Blood, Sweat and Tears vocalist David Clayton Thomas...8:00-9:00a, May 9, 2021.

Chris Bordessa, author of “Attainable Sustainable: The Lost Art of Self-Reliant Living;” Robin Chutken, gastroenterologist and author of “The Bloat Cure: 101 Natural Solutions for Lasting Relief”...8:00-9:00a, May 16, 2021.

Charles Garfield, founder of Shanti and author of “Our Wisdom Years: Growing Older With Joey, Fulfillment, Resilience and No Regrets;” Leslie Mandoki, German pop star, on song recorded with Ian Anderson of Jethro Tull to honor COVID-19 healthcare workers...8:00-9:00a, May 30, 2021.

Dr. Nier Barzalai, Director of the Institute for Aging Research and the author of “Age Later: Health Span, Life Span and The New Science of Longevity;” Jo Yogurst, freelance writer-photographer-editor, on exploring America safely...8:00-9:00a, June 6, 2021.

Lisa M Seaney, home designer and author of “Hive: The Simple Guide To Multi-generational Living”...8:00-9:00a, June 13, 2021.

Janice Clarke Johnston, author of “Mid-Life Maze: A Map To Recovery and Rediscovery After Loss;” Dr. Santo diMarabella, author of “The Lessons of Caring: Inspiration and Support for Caregivers”...8:00-9:00a, June 20, 2021.

Dr. Steven Kusan, author of “The Slippery Slope of Healthcare: How Bad Things Happen To Good Patients and How To Avoid Them”...8:00-9:00a, June 27, 2021.

The Valley Today (five minutes in length)

Interview with Blaine Hess, Jackson County Schools' Superintendent, on actions taken by the district when a positive COVID test is found, 4:10p, April 2, 2021.

Interview with Katerina Ramsey of the Ravenswood Parks and Recreation Department, on Saturday's Easter Egg hunt, 4:40p, April 2, 2021.

Interview with Amy Haskins, Director of the Jackson County Health Department, on this week's COVID-19 vaccination schedule, 4:10p, April 5, 2021.

Interview with Blaine Hess, Superintendent of Jackson County Schools, on the naming of a new president for the school board, 4:40p, April 5, 2021.

Interview with Adena Barnette, history teacher at Ripley High School, on the current atmosphere in the classroom, 4:10p, April 6, 2021.

Interview with former West Virginia Secretary of State Natalie Tennant on the voter rights bill being considered by Congress, 4:40p, April 6, 2021.

Interview with psychologist Dr. Bruce Clay on how the pandemic is continuing to produce anxiety in all demographic groups, 4:10p, April 7, 2021.

Interview with Mike Rubin, Director of the Ripley Convention and Visitors' Bureau, on events scheduled this weekend in Jackson County, 4:40p, April 7, 2021.

Interview with West Virginia House of Delegates representative Steve Westfall on his belief that tax reform legislation has little chance of passage this year, 4:10p, April 8, 2021.

Interview with John David Johnson, Jackson County Agricultural Extension Agent, on items farmers need to be currently considering, 4:40p, April 8, 2021.

Interview with Denise Toler of WVU Medical-Jackson General Hospital on how the hospital is now curbside service for lab needs, 4:10p, April 9, 2021.

Interview with Jimmy Wriston, West Virginia Deputy Secretary of Transportation, on April being Workzone Safety Month, 4:40p, April 9, 2021.

Interview with Amy Haskins, Director of the Jackson County Health Department, on the need for people to get tests if they aren't feeling well, 4:10p, April 12, 2021.

Interview with West Virginia House of Delegates representative Steve Westfall on the governor's failed income tax reduction proposal, 4:40p, April 12, 2021.

Interview with West Virginia State Senator Amy Nicole Grady on her first legislative session, 4:10p, April 13, 2021.

Interview with Mark Curtis, Chief Political Correspondent for WOWK-TV, on his takeaways from this year's legislative session, 4:40p, April 13, 2021.

Interview with Blaine Hess, Jackson County Schools' Superintendent on upcoming events for this year's seniors, 4:10p, April 14, 2021.

Interview with Mike Rubin, Director of the Ripley Convention and Visitors' Bureau, on plans for this year's Fourth of July celebration, 4:40p, April 14, 2021.

Interview with Katerina Ramsey of the Ravenswood Parks and Recreation Department on city events getting back to a normal schedule, 4:10p, April 15, 2021.

Interview with John David Johnson, Jackson County Agricultural Extension Agent, with news for area cattlemen, 4:40p, April 15, 2021.

Interview with Dr. Keith Burdette, Assistant Superintendent of Jackson County Schools, on his decision to take the superintendents job for Mason County Schools, 4:10p, April 16, 2021.

Interview with Denise Toler, Ravenswood City Council member, on planning for the Harvest in the Wood Festival that was cancelled last year, 4:40p, April 16, 2021.

Interview with Amy Haskins, Director of the Jackson County Health Department, about the young people's vaccine clinic scheduled for this week, 4:10p, April 19, 2021.

Interview with Ravenswood High School principal Luke Swiney on how the school's prom will be handled this year, 4:40p, April 19, 2021.

Interview with Ripley High School principal Jimmie Fraiser on current plans for this year's prom, 4:10p, April 20, 2021.

Interview with Hoppy Kerchival, host of MetroNews "Talkline" program on the governor's planned roadtrip around the state to promote his income tax reform proposal, 4:40p, April 20, 2021.

Interview with West Virginia State Treasurer Riley Moore on "wins" and "losses" for his office in this year's legislative session, 4:10p, April 21, 2021.

Interview with Mike Rubin, Director of the Ripley Convention and Visitors' Bureau, on the return of fairs and festivals to the Mid-Ohio Valley, 4:40p, April 21, 2021.

Interview with Jackson County Sheriff Ross Millinger on this Saturday's "Prescription Drug Take Back Day"...4:10p, April 22, 2021.

Interview with John David Johnson, Jackson County Agricultural Extension Agent, with information home owners need to be considering at this time, 4:40p, April 22, 2021.

Interview with Jackson County School District Superintendent Blaine Hess on an opening on the school board that needs to be filled, 4:10p, April 23, 2021.

Interview with Greg Atkinson of Gino's and Tudor's Biscuit World on challenges facing local restaurant operators, 4:40p, April 23, 2021.

Interview with Amy Haskins, Director of the Jackson County Health Department, on this week's schedule for COVID-19 vaccinations, 4:10p, April 26, 2021.

Interview with JB McCluskey, West Virginia State Auditor, on how the money coming from the federal government to local governing bodies is going to be monitored, 4:40p, April 26, 2021.

Interview with West Virginia House of Delegates representative Steve Westfall on how COVID-19 affected this year's session of the legislature, 4:10p, April 27, 2021.

Interview with Mark Curtis, Chief Political Correspondent for WOWK-TV, on how the state's U.S. Senators are out front in securing funding for the state in the proposed federal infrastructure package, 4:40p, April 27, 2021.

Interview with Dr. Scott Tignor, Bank Director at Ravenswood High School, about an upcoming fundraising event, 4:10p, April 28, 2021.

Interview with Mike Rubin, Director of the Ripley Convention and Visitors' Bureau, on an upcoming bicycle safety event in Ripley, 4:40p, April 28, 2021.

Interview with Hoppy Kerchival, host of MetroNews "Talkline" program, on the governor's new plan to get young people vaccinated against COVID, 4:10p, April 29, 2021.

Interview with John David Johnson, Jackson County Agricultural Extension Agent, on how farmers can work around the high cost of fertilizers, 4:40p, April 29, 2021.

Interview with Ravenswood Mayor Josh Miller on the how the city plans to use the federal monies that are on the way, 4:10p, April 30, 2021.

Interview with Ripley High School teacher Adena Barnette on entering the closing month for what has been a challenging year, 4:40p, April 30, 2021.

Interview with Amy Haskins, Director of the Jackson County Health Department, on this week's COVID-19 vaccine schedule, 4:10p, May 3, 2021.

Interview with Jimmy Fraiser, Principal at Ripley High School, on nearing the end of the school year, 4:40p, May 3, 2021.

Interview with Jackson County Schools' Superintendent Blaine Hess on National Teacher Appreciation Week, 4:10p, May 4, 2021.

Interview with Byrd White, West Virginia Secretary of Transportation, on increased state police patrols at work safety sites, 4:40p, May 4, 2021.

Interview with Buddy Stemple, CEO of Constellium Rolled Products, on the company's tenth anniversary, 4:10p, May 5, 2021.

Interview with Mike Rubin, Director of the Ripley Convention and Visitors' Bureau, on upcoming events in Jackson County, 4:40p, May 5, 2021.

Interview with Dick Waybright, President of the Jackson County Commission, on how the commission plans to make use of the federal monies coming the county's way later this month, 4:10p, May 6, 2021.

Interview with John David Johnson, Jackson County Agricultural Extension Agent, on the history of a local tomato, 4:40p, May 6, 2021.

Interview with Jackson County Clerk Cheryl Bright on a recent effort to register 18-year-olds to vote at Ravenswood and Ripley High Schools, 4:10p, May 7, 2021.

Interview with Denise Toler from WVU Medicine-Jackson General Hospital on National Nurses Week, 4:40p, May 7, 2021.

Interview with Amy Haskins, Director of the Jackson County Health Department, on this week's COVID vaccination schedule, 4:10p, May 10, 2021.

Interview with West Virginia House of Delegates representative Steve Westfall on some meetings scheduled this week in the state capital, 4:40p, May 10, 2021.

Interview with Ravenswood High School Principal Luke Swiney on important upcoming dates for seniors, 4:10p, May 11, 2021.

Interview with Jim Mahan, Director of Secondary Schools in Jackson County, on issues facing high school seniors as they prepare for their collegiate years, 4:40p, May 11, 2021.

Interview with Blaine Hess, Jackson County Schools' Superintendent, on plans to provide COVID-19 vaccinations to 12 to 15-year-old, 4:10p, May 12, 2021.

Interview with Mike Rubin, Director of the Ripley Convention and Visitors' Bureau, on upcoming events in the Ripley area, 4:40p, May 12, 2021.

Interview with Denise Toler of WVU Medicine-Jackson General Hospital, on National Hospitals Week and the role of rural hospitals, 4:10p, May 13, 2021.

Interview with John David Johnson, Jackson County Agricultural Extension Agent, on the return of a noted insect, 4:40p, May 13, 2021.

Interview with Jackson County Sheriff Ross Mellinger on the start up of the latest “Click It or Ticket” campaign, 4:10p, May 14, 2021.

Interview with Marsha Humphrey, President of Main Street Ripley, on an upcoming event being sponsored by the organization, 4:40p, May 14, 2021.

Interview with Amy Haskins, Director of the Jackson County Health Department, on this week’s COVID 19 vaccination schedule in the county, 4:10p, May 17, 2021.

Interview with Emily Hatfield from the West Virginia Tourism Office on the start of the summer tourism season, 4:40p, May 17, 2021.

Interview with Blaine Hess, Superintendent of Jackson County Schools, on the selection of new Assistant Superintendent, 4:10p, May 18, 2021.

Interview with Greg Atkinson from Gino’s Pizza and Tudor’s Biscuit World, on the actions taken by the governor designed to get people back to work, 4:40p, May 18, 2021.

Interview with West Virginia State Auditor J.B. McCuskey on how the state will keep track of the federal moneys coming to the state, 4:10p, May 19, 2021.

Interview with Mike Rubin, Director of the Ripley Convention and Visitors’ Bureau, on preparations for Ripley’s 4th of July celebration, 4:40p, May 19, 2021.

Interview with Hoppy Kerchival, host of MetroNews “Talkline” program, on the finalists in the West Virginia Scholars contest, including a junior from Ravenswood High School, 4:10p, May 20, 2021.

Interview with Jackson County Agricultural Extension Agent John David Johnson on finally being able to work on the garden, 4:40p, May 20, 2021.

Interview with Rick Staton, former majority leader in the West Virginia House of Delegates, on the For The People act in Congress, 4:10p, May 21, 2021.

Interview with Julia McCoy, a Ravenswood High School junior and a finalist in the MetroNews West Virginia Scholars contest, 4:40p, May 21, 2021.

Interview with Amy Haskins, Director of the Jackson County Health Department, on seeing some light at the end of tunnel in battle against COVID-19, 4:10p, May 24, 2021.

Interview with Blaine Hess, Superintendent of Jackson County Schools, on the newest member of the school board, 4:40p, May 24, 2021.

Interview with Ravenswood High School Principal Luke Swiney on this week's graduation ceremonies, 4:10p, May 25, 2021.

Interview with Tom Hunter from the West Virginia AARP on how seniors can get assistance with internet and purchasing a computer, 4:40p, May 25, 2021.

Interview with Ripley High School Principal Jimmy Fraiser on this Friday's graduation exercises, 4:10p, May 26, 2021.

Interview with Mike Rubin, Director of the Ripley Convention and Visitors' Bureau, on a major event in Ripley Friday and Saturday, 4:40p, May 26, 2021.

Interview with Blaine Hess, Superintended of Jackson County Schools, on graduation this week at Ravenswood and Ripley High Schools, 4:10p, May 27, 2021.

Interview with John David Johnson, Jackson County Agricultural Extension Agent, on dealing with garden weeds, 4:40p, May 27, 2021.

Interview with Marsha Humphrey, President of Main Street Ripley, on the bid day for the organization tomorrow, 4:10p, May 28, 2021.

Interview with Brad McElhiney, on the governor's plans for dealing with COVID-19 as the numbers affected in the state decline, 4:40p, May 28, 2021.

Interview with Amy Haskins, Director of the Jackson County Health, on the availability of COVID vaccinations this week at the health department, 4:10p, June 1, 2021.

Interview with Denis Toler from WVU Medicine-Jackson General Hospital, on the hospital's new COVID-19 procedures, 4:40p, June 1, 2021.

Interview with Steve Westfall, Jackson County representative to the House of Delegates, on some upcoming special meetings in Charleston, 4:10p, June 2, 2021.

Interview with Mike Rubin, Director of the Ripley Convention and Visitors' Bureau, on some special events scheduled for this Saturday, 4:40p, June 2, 2021.

Interview with Jared Bloxton, Ravenswood City Recorder, on this morning's devastating fire at the city's McIntosh House, 4:10p, June 3, 2021.

Interview with John David Johnson, Jackson County Agricultural Extension Agent, on dealing with those pesky 4-legged critters in the garden, 4:40p, June 3, 2021.

Interview with Ravenswood Mayor Josh Miller on how the city plans to make use of the federal dollars coming for infrastructure projects, 4:10p, June 4, 2021.

Interview with Blaine Hess, Jackson County Schools' Superintendent, on the new principal at Ravenswood Middle School, 4:40p, June 4, 2021.

Interview with Amy Haskins, Director of the Jackson County Health Department, on the final large COVID vaccination clinic in the county, 4:10p, June 7, 2021.

Interview with Luke Swiney, Ravenswood High School Principal, on completing his first year on the job, 4:40p, June 7, 2021.

Interview with Greg Atkinson from Gino's and Tudor's Biscuit World on the challenges still facing the restaurant industry in the wake of the pandemic, 4:10p, June 8, 2021.

Interview with Hoppy Kerchival, host of MetroNews "Talkline" program, on the challenges facing the governor over his financial difficulties, 4:40p, June 8, 2021.

Interview with Mac Warner, West Virginia Secretary of State, on Ravenswood High School receiving the Jennings Randolph award for voter registration, 4:10p, June 9, 2021.

Interview with Mike Rubin, Director of the Ripley Convention and Visitors' Bureau, on the upcoming Mountain State Arts and Crafts Festival, 4:40p, June 9, 2021.

Interview with Ripley High School Principal Jimmie Fraiser on his first year on the job, 4:10p, June 10, 2021.

Interview with John David Johnson, Jackson County Agricultural Extension Agent, on how to avoid catching poison ivy, 4:40p, June 10, 2021.

Interview with Jackson County Sheriff Ross Millinger on the high water situation in Ripley, 4:10p, June 11, 2021.

Interview with Ann Ali, West Virginia House of Delegates Communications Director, on the opening of access to the state capitol, 4:40p, June 11, 2021.

Interview with Amy Haskins, Director of the Jackson County Health Department, on the decision to end major COVID vaccination clinics in the county, 4:10p, June 14, 2021.

Interview with Jackson County Schools' Superintendent Blaine Hess about Ravenswood High School student Julia McCoy, a finalist in the West Virginia Scholars contest, 4:40p, June 14, 2021.

Interview with West Virginia House of Delegates member Steve Westfall on being a member of the joint redistricting committee, 4:10p, June 15, 2021.

Interview with West Virginia State Treasurer Riley Moore on a new app that helps with saving for college, 4:40p, June 15, 2021.

Interview with Adena Barnette, President of the Jackson County Education Association, on being reelected to the executive board of the state education association, 4:10p, June 16, 2021.

Interview with Mike Rubin, Director of the Ripley Convention and Visitors' Bureau, on the upcoming Mountain State Arts and Crafts Festival, 4:40p, June 16, 2021.

Interview with Ravenswood Mayor Josh Miller on progress being made on the McIntosh House, 4:10p, June 17, 2021.

Interview with John David Johnson, Jackson County Agricultural Extension Agent, on how to handle flooded fields, 4:40p, June 17, 2021.

Interview with Mike Irwin, the newly-appointed Assistant Schools' Superintendent in Jackson County, 4:10p, June 18, 2021.

Interview with Hoppy Kerchival, host of MetroNews "Talkline" program, on redistricting in West Virginia, 4:40p, June 18, 2021.

Interview with Amy Haskins, Director of the Jackson County Health Department, on seeing the light at the end of the COVID-19 tunnel, 4:10p, June 21, 2021.

Interview with Jimmy Fraiser, Principal at Ripley High School, on preparing for a normal school year, 4:40p, June 21, 2021.

Interview with Adenna Barnette, History teacher at Ripley High School, on the experience of teaching during the pandemic, 4:10p, June 22, 2021.

Interview with Greg Atkinson from Gino's and Tudor's Biscuit World, on getting the business back to normal, 4:40p, June 22, 2021.

Interview with Josh Miller, Mayor of Ravenswood, on the return of area festivals this summer, 4:10p, June 23, 2021.

Interview with Mike Rubin, Director of the Ripley Convention and Visitors' Bureau, on the city's upcoming Fourth of July festivities, 4:40p, June 23, 2021.

Interview with Dick Waybright, President of the Jackson County Commission, on how commissioners plans to use the COVID-19 relief money coming the county's way, 4:10p, June 24, 2021.

Interview with Jackson County Agricultural Extension Agent John David Johnson on does and don'ts for storing hay, 4:40p, June 24, 2021.

Interview with Luke Swiney, Ravenswood High School Principal, on preparing for next school year, 4:10p, June 25, 2021.

Interview with Sam England, General Manager of the Canaan Valley Resorts, on how folks in the state are learning about the regions parks, 4:40p, June 25, 2021.

Interview with Amy Haskins, Director of the Jackson County Health Department, on the need to avoid complacency with COVID-19, 4:10p, June 28, 2021.

Interview with Julia McCoy, a Ravenswood High School senior who is the winner of the West Virginia Scholars contest, 4:40p, June 28, 2021.

Interview with West Virginia House of Delegates representative Steve Westfall on how surplus state funds are going to be used as directed by the governor, 4:10p, June 29, 2021.

Interview with Shawn Cassell of Snowshoe Mountain Resort on visitors heading to the mountains of West Virginia, 4:40p, June 29, 2021.

Interview with Jackson County Sheriff Ross Millinger on a new effort to slow drivers on rural roadways, 4:10p, June 30, 2021.

Interview with Mike Rubin, Director of the Ripley Convention and Visitors' Bureau, on the Independence Day celebration underway in Ripley, 4:40p, June 30, 2021.

Jackson County Connection (2 minutes in length)

Brian McCommon on recent improvements made to Ravenswood's Riverfront Park, 7:32a, April 2, 2021.

Comments by West Virginia Governor Jim Justice on the planned summit conference to settle differences between the competing legislation to remove individual income tax in the state, 7:32a, April 5, 2021.

A report on legislation in Ohio designed to reverse the previously pass, and corruption laden, bill to aid the state's nuclear energy industry, 7:32a, April 6, 2021.

West Virginia legislator David Sipold on a bill that would exempt farm structures from local building codes, 7:32a, April 7, 2021.

A report on advocates seeking a change in Ohio's budgeting priorities, 7:32a, April 8, 2021.

Brian McCommon on the challenges of home purchasing in a hot sellers market and how to possibly get around those difficulties, 7:32a, April 9, 2021.

West Virginia House of Delegates representative Johnathan Pinson on his impressions of the just-concluded legislative session, 7:32a, April 12, 2021.

West Virginia House of Delegates representative Steve Westfall on his impressions of the just-concluded legislative session, 7:32a, April 13, 2021.

Comments by U.S. Senator Joe Manchin on COVID relief dollars being distributed directly to local governments, 7:32a, April 14, 2021.

Brian McCommon on the new city of Ravenswood website, 7:32a, April 15, 2021.

Tom Susman previews plans for the Ohio River Festival planned for this summer in Ravenswood, 7:32a, April 16, 2021.

A report on how President Biden's infrastructure bill could be a benefit to the state of Ohio, 7:32a, April 19, 2021.

Tom Susman with Jackson County community notes, 7:32a, April 20, 2021.

A report on the mental and emotional toll of the pandemic, 7:32a, April 21, 2021.

Wood County Health Department Director Amy Haskins on a special COVID vaccination clinic being offered this weekend, 7:32a, April 22, 2021.

Brian McCommon with an update on happenings at the Ravenswood Board of Parks and Recreation, 7:32a, April 23, 2021.

Katerina Ramsey, Commissioner of the Ravenswood Parks and Recreation Department, on the closure and coming rebuild of the city Treasure Island playground, 7:32a, April 26, 2021.

A report on efforts in the state of Ohio to stem the tide of child abuse, 7:32a, April 27, 2021.

Elaine Harris of the Communications Workers of America on their support of federal voting rights legislation, 7:32a, April 28, 2021.

Ravenswood High School assistant basketball coach Butch Farney on the girls' team qualifying for the state tournament, 7:32a, April 29, 2021.

Brian McCommon on the new city of Ravenswood website, 7:32a, April 30, 2021.

Tara Tatelovich, Ag instructor at Ravenswood High School, on the schools' greenhouse facility, 7:32a, May 3, 2021.

Tom Susman reports on the federally-mandated sewer system upgrade to be discussed by the Ravenswood city council tonight, 7:32a, May 4, 2021.

A report on federal legislation designed to better protect a number of wildlife species, 7:32a, May 5, 2021.

Tom Susman with community notes, including the expansion of some area retail businesses, 7:32a, May 10, 2021.

West Virginia House of Delegates representative Joshua Higginbotham on his legislation designed to provide additional support to tech education centers in the state, 7:32a, May 11, 2021.

Tom Susman with community notes, 7:32a, May 12, 2021.

Tom Susman on a special COVID vaccination clinic being held at the National Guard Armory, 7:32a, May 13, 2021.

Brian McCommon on upcoming events being sponsored by the Ravenswood Parks and Recreation Department, 7:32a, May 14, 2021.

Jackson County Health Department Director Amy Haskins on a special COVID-19 vaccination clinic and availability of the vaccine for children 12-18, 7:32a, May 17, 2021.

A report on changes to the Ohio SNAP program designed to alleviate challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic, 7:32a, May 18, 2021.

Katerina Ramsey, Director of the Ravenswood Parks and Recreation Department, on the donation of a 19th century piece of furniture to the city's historical museum, 7:32a, May 19, 2021.

Ravenswood Mayor Josh Miller on progress in the planning for the city's new marina, 7:32a, May 20, 2021.

Brian McCommon reports on some upcoming events being sponsored by the Ravenswood Parks and Recreation Commission, 7:32a, May 21, 2021.

Excerpts from Tom Susman's appearance on the "RM World Travel" syndicated program, 7:32a, May 24, 2021.

Jackson County Health Department Director Amy Haskins talks about the general availability of the COVID-19 vaccine throughout the county, 7:32a, May 25, 2021.

Tom Susman looks ahead to a busy Memorial Day weekend in Jackson County, 7:32a, May 26, 2021.

Brian McCommon on the significance of Memorial Day and special events in the area to honor the day, 7:32a, May 27, 2021.

Mark Dabble, President of the West Virginia chapter of the American Chestnut Association, on the state's plan to shut down the arbor containing the last stand of American Chestnuts in the state, 7:32, May 28, 2021.

Tom Susman visits with participants in Ravenswood's Veterans' Day observance, 7:32a, May 31, 2021.

Ravenswood Mayor Josh Miller on the delayed opening to the city pool and special events planned for the summer at the pool, 7:32a, June 1, 2021.

Comments from various participants in Ravenswood's Memorial Day ceremonies on their concerns that the young don't have an understanding of the significance of the day, 7:32a, June 2, 2021.

Jake Gantz of West Virginia American Water on the possibility of his firm purchasing and operating the city of Ravenswood's water and sewer systems, 7:32a, Jun3, 2021.

Brian McCommon on improvement's to the city of Ravenswood's website, 7:32a, June 4, 2021.

Amy Haskins of the Jackson County Health Department on the last planned major COVID-19 vaccination clinic in the county, 7:32a, June 7, 2021.

Musician John Rich talks of developing a bar-b-q sauce while his musical career is on hold due to the pandemic, 7:32a, June 8, 2021.

Amy Haskins of the Jackson County Health Department on the last planned major COVID-19 vaccination clinic in the county, 7:32a, June 9, 2021.

A report on efforts by the federal government to reduce the number of animal-vehicle accidents, 7:32a, June 10, 2021.

Brian McCommon on the next steps in rebuilding Ravenswood's McIntosh House in the wake of last week's electrical fire, 7:32a, June 11, 2021.

Jackson County Health Department Director Amy Haskins on the decision to reduce the number of COVID vaccination clinics in the county, 7:32a, June 14, 2021.

Katerina Ramsey, Commissioner of the Ravenswood Parks & Recreation Department, on efforts to resurrect the McIntosh House, 7:32a, June 15, 2021.

Brandy Strodey, the operator of a new food truck located at Ravenswood's Riverfront Park, 7:32a, June 16, 2021.

A report on legislative efforts in Ohio to expand broadband service in rural areas, 7:32a, June 17, 2021.

Brian McCommon with an update on efforts to rehab the McIntosh House, 7:32a, June 18, 2021.

Amy Haskins, Director of the Jackson County Health Department, on the assistance of the general public in the fight against COVID-19, 7:32a, June 21, 2021.

A report on concerns in West Virginia about the challenges facing the state's relatively large elderly population, 7:32a, June 22, 2021.

Dr. Clay Marsh, West Virginia's COVID czar, on the possible challenges facing the state due to the variant strains of the disease now arising, 7:32a, June 23, 2021.

Tom Susman on Ravenswood High School's Julia McCoy winning the West Virginia Scholars contest, 7:32a, June 24, 2021.

Olivia Price, a volunteer at the fireworks stand operated to benefit the Ravenswood High School football team and cheerleaders, on their fundraising effort, 7:32a, June 28, 2021.

Tom Susman previews Ripley's Fourth of July festivities, 7:32a, June 29, 2021.

A report on how poverty is impacting West Virginia children, 7:32a, June 30, 2021.

