

Rich Broadcasting

Local Issues - 2nd Quarter 2018

KGTM-FM

Date Aired 4/21/2018 - 5:30AM Segment Length: 12:22

Interview: Senator Mike Crapo, US Senator

Idaho Senator Mike Crapo talks about the recent stall on a banking bill he's authored and sponsored, plus he weighs in on James Comey's new book and the FBI raid on President Trump's lawyer's office.

Date Aired 4/28/2018 - 5:30AM Segment Length: 6:19

Interview: Detective Jared Mendenhall, Idaho Falls Police Department

Idaho Falls Police Department Detective Jared Mendenhall reacts to the FBI's seizure of Backpage.com and how the federal action impacts the human sex trafficking industry. Mendenhall also talks about the need for continued vigilance since Backpage.com isn't the only Internet service aiming to enable the growth of the human sex trafficking industry.

Date Aired 5/5/2018 - 5:30AM Segment Length: 5:06

Interview: Tommy Ahlquist, Raul Labrador, Brad Little, Idaho Gubernatorial Candidates

Idaho gubernatorial candidates Tommy Ahlquist, Lt. Governor Brad Little and Congressman Raul Labrador all give their opinions on CBD oil in Idaho and their thoughts on how it impacts the medical community in the Gem state.

Date Aired 5/12/2018 - 5:30AM Segment Length: 8:50

Interview: Tommy Ahlquist, Raul Labrador, Brad Little, Idaho Gubernatorial Candidates

Ahead of the Idaho primary elections, gubernatorial candidates Tommy Ahlquist, Congressman Raul Labrador and Lt. Gov. Brad Little describe their stance on the 2nd Amendment and how they would approach growing debate surrounding the amendment in Idaho.

Date Aired 5/12/2018 - 5:30AM Segment Length: 11:00

Interview: Lawrence Wasden, Idaho Attorney General

Idaho Attorney General Lawrence Wasden gives his thoughts on a recent controversy surrounding a recent publication accused of being nothing more than political propaganda posing as a newspaper.

Date Aired 5/19/2018 - 5:30AM Segment Length: 6:14

Interview: Jeremy Johnson, Better Business Bureau

Jeremy Johnson, Marketplace Manager for the Better Business Bureau, talks about a recent Memorial Day scam targeting veterans and people who support veterans. She offers tips on how to avoid falling victim to these scams and where to report scams if people do encounter them.

Date Aired 6/9/2018 - 5:30AM Segment Length: 5:15

Interview: David Dahms, Idaho Department of Parks and Recreation

David Dahms, Boating Program Manager for the Idaho Parks and Recreation Department, talks about boating safety as rivers and lakes continue rise to dangerous levels in part because of snow runoff.

Date Aired 6/16/2018 - 5:30AM Segment Length: 13:08

Interview: Senator Mike Crapo, US Senator

With the passage and signature of his bill, Senator Mike Crapo talks about how the new law (formerly known as the Crapo bill) rolls back regulations enforced by Dodd-Frank and gives smaller financial institutions more room to function.

Date Aired 6/16/2018 - 5:30AM Segment Length: 6:24

Interview: Jeremy Johnson, Better Business Bureau

New report revealed Idahoans lost plenty of money in lottery and prize scams in 2017. Jeremy Johnson, Marketplace Manager for the Better Business Bureau, talks about what this information means to Idahoans and how they can protect themselves from schemes that are too good to be true.

Date Aired 6/23/2018 - 5:30AM Segment Length: 10:53

Interview: Ajit Pai, Federal Communications Commission

Federal Communications Commission Chairman Ajit Pai joins Neal Larson and Julie Mason to talk about his effort to bridge the digital divide, his applause for several east Idaho towns working on the effort already and the latest on Net Neutrality.

Date Aired 6/30/2018 - 5:30AM Segment Length: 5:59

Interview: Kelsey Griffie, Bureau of Land Management

Bureau of Land Management Fire Information Officer Kelsey Griffie, talks about firework safety ahead of Independence Day. She reviews BLM laws as it pertains to fireworks and public lands and how people can do their part to stay safe.

Date Aired 7/7/2018 - 5:30AM Segment Length: 5:14

Interview: Mike Taylor, Surveillance Epidemiologist for Eastern Idaho Public Health

David Parker of Parker Insurance (local insurance expert) explains rumors about 2019 health insurance rates and the future of an executive order signed by Governor Butch Otter and Lieutenant Governor Brad Little creating a non-ACA compliant health insurance market.