Scripture	Psalms 107			Summary
We've all been there: We try to change ourselves for the better by committing to giving more or reading the Bible daily, and then we fail. And after enough failures, we stop trying. It's when we gain a clearer understanding of God and His love that we find the motivation and ability to draw closer to Him.

Program	BB170222	Title	The Generous Gift of Jesus

Release Dates	March 6 - 10, 2017
Program	March 6	Title	Understanding My Influence
Scripture	Various	Summary
What kind of influence do you have in your day-to-day life? Do people see a God-honoring Christian, or do you slip by unnoticed? Ron Moore shares four ways we can own our influence and show the world the power of Christ's love. Though difficult at times, the grace that carried us to the foot of the cross will continue to carry us to the gates of Heaven.
Program	March 7	Title	Accepting My Influence
Scripture	Various	Summary
The poet Thoreau wrote of a desperate soul going to the grave with an unsung song still in them. The Apostle Paul, at the end of his life, wrote with confident excitement, "I have fought the good fight." Ron Moore examines the question, how do we sing the song we're given? How do we live the life that God has granted upon salvation? How can we, like Paul, declare with confidence, "I have kept the faith"?
Program	March 8	Title	Demonstrating My Influence
Scripture	Various	Summary
It's clear from reading God's Word that we as Christians are called to a high standard. We are called to be influencers in the public arena, but many there are looking for any reason at all to discredit the name of Christ. Ron Moore explores what it means to live a life above reproach and shows how we can persist in doing what's right in a culture that prefers to do what feels good.
Program	March 9	Title	Impressing My Influence
Scripture	Various	Summary
Many Christians will go to sleep tonight with dreams of changing the world for Christ tomorrow--with hardly a thought given to the family around them. Join Ron Moore as he considers the important influence we as believers have at home. See what it takes to get back on the right path with our family and move past previous failures as well the principles for being a godly spouse and parent.
Program	March 10	Title	Controlling My Influence
Scripture	Various	Summary
Modern American culture seems to value the "extreme" lifestyle. But, as Ron Moore points out, the Christian is called to a different standard: balance. We'll learn the importance of self-control in our Christian life and be warned of the many pitfalls of excess believers often fall into. And, most importantly, we'll learn what it takes to maintain spiritual balance in an extreme culture.
WEEKLY OVERVIEW
Like boats leaving a wake on the surface of the water, we all leave a trail of influence as we travel through life. This week Bible Teacher Ron Moore begins a new series examining the influence we as believers have on the lives of those we encounter. We'll learn the importance of maintaining a consistent lifestyle between our lives at home and in public. And though the task may seem monumental, we'll be encouraged to remember that God's grace will continue to carry us throughout our entire life.

Scripture	Various	Summary
One of the keys to a life of influence is being respectable. As Ron Moore explains, this is a life that is consistent, inside and out. And it begins with a clear understanding of who God is, and who we are. We'll learn that once we begin to order our own lives according to God's principles, our external lives can't help but show the glory of God.
Program	March 14	Title	Sharing My Influence
Scripture	Various	Summary
Being a person of godly influence requires showing hospitality. But if you think hospitality is hosting a dinner party every now and then, you're missing out on a lot of opportunities. Ron Moore takes a look at biblical hospitality and challenges us with several practical suggestions.
Program	March 15	Title	Imparting My Influence
Scripture	Various	Summary
If a pastor, or trusted friend told us to teach the Bible, many of us would hold up our hands and say, "but I'm not a teacher." As Ron Moore explains, though, all believers have a responsibility to accurately communicate the Word of God to others. Whether it's explaining the reason for our hope in a one-on-one situation, or just reminding ourselves of the truth we've already learned, we'll discover several effective ways to teach the truth to others.
Program	March 16	Title	Molding My Influence
Scripture	Various	Summary
Leaving a lasting impact on our family and community requires real strength. But not strength as the world knows it. Ron Moore looks at the incredible power contained within a gentle personality. Far from being weak and ineffective, a gentle person has the power to shape not only their legacy, but that of those who follow.
Program	March 17	Title	Multiplying My Influence
Scripture	Various	Summary
Of all the things that can impact our legacy and influence, our attitude toward money is probably the most difficult to control. Whether we are wealthy now, or desire to be wealthy in the future, if our heart and mind are not focused on God, we're on a path towards ruin. Ron Moore takes us through several biblical principles to help us make the most of this resource.
WEEKLY OVERVIEW
Few of us would consider going out for the evening without first spending some time preparing ourselves to be seen in public. Maintaining a consistent and godly influence in our culture today requires the same kind of focus and attention to personal standards. As Ron Moore continues his look at the legacy we as believers leave, we'll consider what that means on a personal level—from gaining a clear understanding of God's standards for our lives, to cultivating a gentle and generous spirit.

It's not always easy, and some people have histories weighing them down. But as Ron Moore reminds us, our God who called us to this life is also gracious and generous with His provisions and is standing there next to us as we proclaim His name to the world.
LEGACY: OWNING MY INFLUENCE SERIES ENDS CHARACTERS OF INFLUENCE SERIES BEGINS
Program	March 21	Title	King of Grace
Scripture	John 12	Title	Summary
The first description of man in the Bible shows us as being created in God's image. But many people today try to reverse that and shape God into the image they want. Ron Moore takes a look at John 12 and Jesus' entry into Jerusalem where the contrast between God's reality and man's expectations stood at its most stark. We'll learn how God's spiritual blessings provided at the cross far outweigh any temporal, physical blessings we could ever ask for.
Program	March 22	Title	Savior of Grace
Scripture	Various	Title	Summary
We often refer to Jesus as "Savior"—one who saves. But what did Jesus save us from? And what must we do before we can accept this salvation? Bible Teacher Ron Moore takes us to the foot of the cross to help us understand the significance of the death and resurrection of Jesus. We'll learn why His crucifixion was necessary and how we can respond to this miraculous demonstration of grace.
Program	March 23	Title	King David
Scripture	Various	Title	Summary
King David is referred to in Scripture as, "a man after God's own heart." Ron Moore looks at the story of David to show us what made David unique as king of Israel and the standard against which other kings would be judged. Plus, we'll consider what it takes to be men and women after God's heart in this day and age.
Program	March 24	Title	King Asa
Scripture	Various	Title	Summary
King Asa started his reign strong. He turned the nation back to God and witnessed a miraculous victory over an invading army. But later in life, as Ron Moore explains, Asa's confidence in God turned into confidence in himself. As we study the rise and fall of Asa, we'll see that every day is a new chance to rely on God.
WEEKLY OVERVIEW
Ron Moore concludes his series on owning our influence with a final reminder that we are not left to this task alone. It is God who has called us to be His witnesses in this world, and it is His power which He so generously provides that carries us forward. After that, Ron begins a new series looking at the lives of several kings found in the Bible starting with Jesus, the King of Kings. In Jesus's life we'll learn the importance of receiving Him as He is, not as who we want Him to be. And we'll take a closer look at David, the man after God's heart.

Unshakable Peace - I

Would you describe yourself as a peaceful person? I'm Mary Lowman of The Christian Working Woman, and this week I'm going to talk about Unshakable Peace. Let's face it—there is very little peace in this world, either personal or on the world stage. But the incredibly good news is that Jesus left us with peace—the peace that is unshakable and you can know that peace, too, so I hope you'll join me here for The Christian Working Woman.

Watch Out for Your Fatal Flaw - II

I'm Mary Lowman of The Christian Working Woman, and have you noticed how candidly the Bible presents the great people of faith? Their strengths and weaknesses are told—no cover up or whitewashing. Many of them had some serious fatal flaws that negatively affected their usefulness. Any of us can be overcome by our fatal flaws if we don't address them and allow God to change us. That's my topic this week. I hope you'll join me.

No Pointless Prayers

Do you ever feel like your prayers are pointless? I'm Mary Lowman of The Christian Working Woman and this week I want to affirm from God's Word that there are no pointless prayers. Some prayers are more effective than others, but no prayers are pointless. If you've been struggling with believing that God hears and answers prayer, I hope you'll join me this week, because I believe you'll be encouraged to see that there are no pointless prayers.

I'm Mary Lowman of The Christian Working Woman, and if prayer seems more like a duty rather than a privilege to you—if you find prayer difficult and wonder if it really makes a difference—then you need to join me on this week's program. I'm going to present a dramatic picture of the great privilege we have as believers to go into the throne room of God and talk to him. It could change your prayer life. I hope you'll join me here.
