Ron Moore begins a new series looking at God's plan for marriage and the family. We'll see that living God-honoring lives begins at home.
Program	May 2	Title	God's Design for the Family
Scripture	Various	Summary
It's not hard to scan the news and find ways our culture, and even government, is waging war against biblical values. But, as Ron Moore discusses, the greatest threat to marriages today is found right in our own homes. Ron looks at two key passages in the Bible to help us discover the five essential elements of successful marriages.
Program	May 3	Title	Biblical Sexuality
Scripture	Various	Summary
Physical intimacy is an essential part of a fulfilling marriage. But handled incorrectly, the results can be devastating. In this frank discussion, Ron Moore shares with us God's plan for sex within marriage. We'll be reminded of the power of this intense and joyful personal connection.
Program	May 4	Title	Attack on the Foundation: Divorce
Scripture	Various	Summary
You've likely heard the statistic that half of all marriages end in divorce. And while that's sad enough, the fact that Christian marriages fare no better is tragic. Ron Moore looks to the Bible to find five truths regarding divorce that are sure to help strengthen your marriage. Plus, we'll find hope and encouragement for those who have already been through a divorce.
Program	May 5	Title	Divorce in Real Life, Part 1
Scripture	Various	Summary
Any way you look at it, divorce is painful. It cuts deeply into everyone involved. Ron Moore begins a two-part examination of those wounds in a conversation with Gretchen. Through her marriage eventually ended when her husband filed for divorce, we'll hear first-hand how God's grace was able to sustain Gretchen and her children and even prompt her to seek reconciliation when everyone else was advising separation.
WEEKLY OVERVIEW
It's not uncommon in modern America to hear Christians talk about culture's war on marriage and the family. Bible Teacher Ron Moore starts a two-week series looking at this war by helping us understand God's plan for the family as given in the Bible. Once we know the plan, we'll be able to better identify the threats. And as Ron explains, the primary threat to the family is right inside our own homes. We'll end the week with the first of a two-part program hearing the personal story of Gretchen—a woman whose life was scarred by divorce.

Release Dates	May 8 - 12, 2017
Program	May 8	Title	Divorce in Real Life, Part 2
Scripture	Various		Summary
How do the children of divorce process the confusing and conflicting emotions that tear at their heart? What can you say to them that will restore a lost relationship and keep them close to God? With those questions in mind, Ron Moore continues his conversation with Gretchen. In the story of her troubled marriage, you'll learn how God shows up in the most unexpected ways.
Program	May 9	Title	Attack on the Structure: Relationships
Scripture	Various		Summary
There are a lot of ways our culture tries to justify the practice of cohabitation—a couple living together before marriage. It's a "trial run"—a way of identifying problems before they arise in the context of marriage. Ron Moore takes us to God's Word to show how these excuses miss the point of marriage entirely. We'll learn the three essential ingredients to a loving relationship and the consequences that arise when any of those ingredients are left out.
Program	May 10	Title	Attack on His Design: Homosexuality
Scripture	Various		Summary
They are the people we work with, they are friends and family. Many are living lives of quiet desperation hiding a secret from the world. Some have come out of the closet and all are people who God loves. Ron Moore talks about the struggles of the homosexual lifestyle and the design for biblically approved sexual expression.
Program	May 11	Title	God's Design for Parenting, Part 1
Scripture	Various		Summary
Children are a gift from God! Some days the truth of that statement is as heart-melting as the smile on a child's face. Other days, it's the mantra we repeat as we begin yet another load of laundry. Ron Moore, father of four, takes us to God's Word for five important reminders all parents need to know.
Program	May 12	Title	God's Design for Parenting, Part 2
Scripture	Various		Summary
One of the most important roles a parent fills in the child's life is that of a spiritual mentor. As parents, it's our responsibility to lay spiritual foundations in the hearts of our children. Ron Moore shares several practical and biblical ideas for fostering godly attitudes in the next generation of Christ-followers.
WEEKLY OVERVIEW
Ron Moore continues his look at the family this week by considering several more attacks the enemy throws at us. First, we'll return to our conversation with Gretchen for a look at the effects divorce had on her life and the lives of her children. Through all the pain and heartache, though, we'll be reminded to look for God's grace and mercy. From there we'll look at the lies found in the ideas of cohabitation—living together before marriage—and homosexuality. We'll conclude the series with a look at God's plan for parents.

Scripture	John 12		Summary
One of the most powerful lessons Jesus taught is found in John 12. It's not a parable, it's not a miraculous healing, and it's not even a sermon. Ron Moore examines this passage and helps us see the revolutionary impact of the lesson Jesus taught His disciples, and us, on that day long ago.
Program	May 23	Title	Action
Scripture	John 21		Summary
Peter had every reason to think he'd been disqualified. He'd failed to stand up for Jesus, and then when asked about Him, Peter denied knowing Him. But, as Ron Moore explains, Peter's ministry had only just begun. In John 21 we see Peter's encounter with Jesus and learn God's grace is greater than our failures. We'll learn several principles to help us stay active in Christ's service through the trials of life.

Program	May 24	Title	Community: What Is It?
Scripture	Various		Summary
Community has become a buzz word in modern culture and in the Body of Christ, but do we truly know what makes a community work? Ron Moore takes us back to the beginning to show the very first community as described in God's Word. This ancient model, when it is understood, can transform the way we do church today.
Program	May 25	Title	What Does It Look Like?
Scripture	Various		Summary
The Church is designed to be a masterpiece of Christ's image on earth. But even though we as Christians in the Church have been saved and forgiven, we are still sinners. Ron Moore shows us that it's only through God's grace working in and through us that the Church can have any positive influence at all in our world. We'll look at several attributes which define the Church today and learn how to keep Christ at the center of our community.
Program	May 26	Title	Why Do I Need Community?
Scripture	Hebrews 10		Summary
Poet John Donne wrote that "No man is an island." But God put it best when He said, "It is not good for man to be alone." As Ron Moore explains, we were designed for community. What's more, we all have an individual responsibility for building up the communion of believers. We'll learn several essential attitudes we all need to know.
WEEKLY OVERVIEW
The cynic often moans that life would be easier if there weren't any other people to deal with: No neighbors throwing loud parties; no coworkers leaving their food in the fridge forever. This week Ron Moore reminds us that as annoying as other people can be, living in community was the plan from the very beginning. Ron starts the week by looking at the importance of humility in our interactions with others, and then begins a series looking specifically at the community of believers: the Church.

Release Dates	June 5 - 9, 2017
Program	June 5	Title	Worn Out by Obedience
Scripture	Various			Summary
Before he became king of Israel, David spent ten years running for his life. Ten years of wondering what God could possibly bring from this misery. By the same token, when we commit to following Jesus, life doesn't suddenly become a walk in the park. Ron Moore begins a study of some of the darkest days of David's life and shows how we can find encouragement and endurance when obedience becomes hard.
Program	June 6	Title	My Own Worst Counselor
Scripture	1 Samuel 27	Summary
Humans are remarkable rationalizers. Given enough time and motivation, we can find a way to excuse any selfish desire. But, as Ron Moore reminds us, that's not the life of obedience to which God has called us. By looking at an episode from King David's life we see the consequences of listening to our inner-counselor and learn how to tune our hearts to God's voice instead.
Program	June 7	Title	Double Life
Scripture	1 Samuel 27	Summary
The Book of James reminds us that the double-minded person is unstable in all of his or her ways. So why do we often choose the dishonesty of a double life over the stability of obedience? Ron Moore gives us three reasons as seen in the life of King David. And while we look at the dangers of living a lie, we'll also learn the way back to restoration and wholeness.
Program	June 8	Title	Digging a Deeper Hole
Scripture	1 Samuel 27	Summary
Sin has a way of compounding itself. To avoid getting caught in one sin, many people will sin again, and again, and again. Such a life, Ron Moore explains, will collapse in on itself sooner or later, hurting many in the process. But perhaps the biggest lie that sin tells is that there is no escape. We'll learn how to escape the sinful lifestyles that can ensnare us and find reconciliation and forgiveness in the arms of Christ.
Program	June 9	Title	Collateral Damage
Scripture	1 Samuel 29	Summary
As Ron Moore continues our look at the life of David, we see things go from bad to worse during his time among the Philistines. As we look at the warning signs that show we are on a path away from God, we'll also find the encouragement and mercy we need to turn things back around. Ron will also share some words of advice for those who may be watching their friends or family members on the borders of their own Ziklag.
WEEKLY OVERVIEW
When we accept Christ as our Savior, our eternity in Heaven is guaranteed. But until we get there, we still have life on earth to contend with. And even though God's grace can provide all our needs, even the best of us grow weary. This week Ron Moore begins a new series looking at one such moment in the life of David, the man who spent ten years running for his life before he would become king. By looking at the decisions that led David to Ziklag, we'll see how we can find new strength when obedience wears us down.

WEEKLY OVERVIEW
This week, Bible Teacher Ron Moore concludes our study of Paul's letter to the Colossians. If the bad news is that sin continues to linger in our lives even after becoming a Christian, the good news is that God's power is freely available to all of us. We'll find out how to guard against the sins that threaten to pull us away from living a God-honoring life. We'll also take a look at Paul's instructions for the Christian family, specifically husbands and wives. Finally, we'll take a brief look at how to have an unshakable faith in a shaken world.
