

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

October 1 - December 31, 2022

ABOUT KCCU / SIMULCAST

KCCU is a non-commercial educational radio station licensed to Cameron University in Lawton, OK. KLCU-Ardmore, KMCU-Wichita Falls and KOCU-Altus simulcast the KCCU-Lawton signal.

NATIONAL PROGRAMMING

The KCCU Network (“KCCU”) airs some of the most prominent programs in public media, such as Morning Edition, All Things Considered, and Performance Today. KCCU carries seven hours of national news programming from NPR Monday through Friday and four hours on Saturdays and Sundays. KCCU also carries other news and information programs that air at various times throughout the week. KCCU carries cultural and entertainment programs from NPR, American Public Media, and other entities.

LOCAL PROGRAMMING

KCCU airs locally- and regionally-produced news programs, public service announcements, live classical music, and specialty programs daily. Local news programming includes The Texoma Report, a newscast covering the KCCU network broadcast area, and feature stories covering topics from around the area. KCCU also airs regional news content developed by sources such as the StateImpact program, the Oklahoma Public Media Exchange and the collaborative outlet AudioTexas.

Specialty programming includes cultural programs such as Classical Music Today, highlighting notable historical events from each day in the world of classical music, and Slice of Life, a weekly commentary; informational programs such as the public affairs program Community Focus; and special news coverage, such as for elections and important breaking news. Enclosed is a list of topics covered by NPR, PRX, StateImpact Oklahoma and KCCU news during the second quarter of 2022.

Bekah Fountain

News Director, January 12th 2023

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT October 1 - December 31, 2022

NPR's Morning Edition is aired on KCCU Monday through Friday from 5 - 9 a.m.

Date - Time Cumulative Length (in minutes)

10/03/22 06 & 08:22 05:11

HEALTH - Medical debt can ruin people's credit rating — making it hard to get a loan, mortgage or credit card. People of color are most impacted by this issue and programs designed to help are falling short.

5:11

10/07/22 06 & 08:22 9:28

FOREIGN - Doctors and reproductive rights advocates are seeing a surge in disinformation about abortion targeting the Latino community. Some worry that this may dissuade some from seeking medical care. 4:17

10/14/22 05 & 07:22 16:06

RACE RELATIONS - A leaked Los Angeles City Council recording hasn't just upended local politics. It also has highlighted long-simmering racial tensions within the multicultural city — and the work needed to help it heal. 6:54

10/19/22 05 & 07:07 22:24

COVID - The NPR podcasts Throughline and Planet Money collaborate to tell the story of how Taiwan transformed into the world's semiconductor superhub, and the man who helped lead the way. 6:18

10/20/22 06 & 08:51 33:03

HEALTH - They inhaled asbestos for decades on the job. Now, workers break their silence. OxyChem's Niagara Falls facility is the longest-standing asbestos-reliant chlorine plant in America. 10:39

10/25/22 05 & 08:22 39:59

HEALTH- Omicron keeps finding new evolutionary tricks to outsmart our immunity. 6:56

Cumulative Morning Edition Feature time this page: 39:59

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT
October 1 - December 31, 2022

10/26/22      05 & 07:07                      45:03

ABORTION - Another casualty of Russia's war: Some Ukrainians no longer trust their neighbors. 5:04

10/27/22      06 & 08:39                      52:51

POLITICS - Inflation upended President Biden's domestic agenda and is a top issue for voters heading into the midterms. We track how the White House changed its approach, and how voters have responded. 7:48

10/28/22      06 & 08:11                      59:16

GUN CONTROL - In Chicago, handguns turned into high-capacity machine guns fuel deadly violence. 6:25

10/28/22 06 & 08:11

POLITICS - Many midterm races focus on rising crime. Here's what the data does and doesn't show. 7:02

10/28/22 06 & 08:11

BUSINESS: What's next for Twitter now that Elon Musk has taken over. 7:31

10/31/22      06 & 08:22                      66:06

RACE RELATIONS - Can race play a role in college admissions? The Supreme Court hears the arguments. 06:48

Cumulative Morning Edition Feature time: 66:06

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT October 1 - December 31, 2022

11/01/22      06 & 08:22              72:20

FOREIGN RELATIONS - Stella Flores is associate professor of higher education and public policy at the University of Texas at Austin. She discusses the implications of reversing affirmative action in college admissions. 6:06

11/02/22      06 & 08:22              80:04

POLITICS - Latino voters wield a lot power in the swing state of Nevada, where the midterm elections could determine which party controls Congress in the New Year. 7:44

11/04/22      06 & 08:22              87.80

HEALTH - Abortion rights are on the ballot in Michigan, which has already become a regional abortion haven. Kate Wells spent weeks observing procedures and talking to patients inside a clinic outside Detroit. 11:04

11/08/22      05 & 07:07              99.04

POLITICS - In the run up to the midterms, we keep hearing about a crime wave. But the claims are often rife with misinformation and racism. 7:00

11/10/22      06 & 08:10              106:02

In light of the ongoing protests in Iran, NPR history podcast Throughline explores Iranian women's long history of political activism. 7:08

11/11/22      05 & 07:07              113:01

NPR's Leila Fadel speaks with Kathryn Huff, an official at the Department of Energy, about the future of nuclear energy in the United States. 7:04

Cumulative Morning Edition Feature time: 113.01

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT October 1 - December 31, 2022

11/16/22 06 & 08:07 119:49

POLITICS - Donald Trump, who tried to overthrow the 2020 presidential election results and inspired a deadly riot at the U.S. Capitol, announced Tuesday night that he has launched a 2024 presidential bid.

6:48

11/17/22 05 & 07:11 133:39

ENVIRONMENT - NPR's Steve Inskeep speaks with George Crabtree, director of the Joint Center for Energy Storage Research, about the critical role of energy storage in achieving a clean energy future.

7:02

11/21/22 05 & 07:07 140:40

FINANCE - Inflation is coming to Thanksgiving dinner this year. Fortunately, NPR's Business Desk has tips on how to save money on Turkey Day. Call it Substitution-giving. 7:01

11/22/22 05 & 07:35 147:41

POLITICS - Mike Pence, pondering a presidential run, condemns Trump's rhetoric on Jan. 6. 10:42

11/26/22 05 & 07:07 158:23

HEALTH - Doctors in states with abortion bans can face prison time and lose their licenses if they violate the laws. Some are calling on doctors to openly defy the bans. 7:03

11/23/22 06 & 08:07 165:26

FOREIGN RELATIONS - A small country bordering Russia and partly occupied by it is alarmed by the recent arrival of tens of thousands of Russian men fleeing conscription into the Ukraine war. 7:03

12/01/22 06 & 08:11 172:29

FOREIGN RELATIONS - Taiwan's semiconductor industry has become a global powerhouse, in part, because of its closeness to both China and the U.S. But now Taiwan may have to choose sides. 6:40

Cumulative Morning Edition Feature time: 179:09

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT October 1 - December 31, 2022

12/07/22      06 & 08:22                      179:09

SCOTUS - Supreme Court to hear controversial election-law case. 6:48

12/14/22      06 & 08:22                      185:57

HEALTH - How did COVID warp our sense of time? It's a matter of perception. 6:56

12/16/22      05 & 07:11                      192:53

TECHNOLOGY - NPR's Rob Schmitz talks to Ethan Mollick of the University of Pennsylvania about an artificial intelligence program that uses AI to compose college essays, news stories, poems and even sitcoms. 6:48

12/16/22      05 & 07:11                      199:41

TECHNOLOGY - Has AI reached the point where a software program can do better work than you? 6:48

12/20/22      06 & 08:22                      206:29

FOREIGN RELATIONS - South Korea says it will investigate hundreds of adoptions out of the country that may have involved fake records. NPR's Rachel Martin speaks with Kaomi Lee, one adoptee whose case is under review. 6:56

12/23/22      05 & 07:22                      213:25

HEALTH - A new kind of blood test can screen for many cancers — as some pregnant people learn. 6:49

Cumulative Morning Edition Feature time: 220:14

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT
October 1 - December 31, 2022

12/27/22      06 & 08:22                      220:14

FOREIGN AFFAIRS - NPR's A Martinez speaks to Daniel Fried, former U.S. ambassador to Poland, about the possibility of peace negotiations between Ukraine and Russia in the new year. 5:07

12/27/22      06 & 08:07                      225:21

POLITICS - NPR's A Martinez talks to former IRS national taxpayer advocate Nina Olson about how the IRS failed to audit former President Donald Trump's taxes during his first half of his presidency. 5:09

12/29/22      06 & 08:12                      230:30

POLITICS - The Biden administration's foreign policy for 2022 was centered on building alliances with other countries to counter Russia and China. Next year will show whether that has had an impact. 4:11

12/29/22      05 & 07:22                      234:41

BORDER - NPR's Steve Inskeep talks to Republican strategist Mike Madrid about Republicans opposition to lifting Title 42, an order used to expel thousands of asylum-seekers during the pandemic. 6:17

12/30/22      06 & 08:22                      241:16

POLITICS - Arizona Attorney General Mark Brnovich, a Republican, speaks with NPR's A Martinez about the Supreme Court's decision to maintain border restrictions under a public health order known as Title 42. 6:35

12/30/22      06 & 08:07                      245:26

POLITICS - The Democrat-led House Ways and Means Committee has released Donald Trump's tax returns, ending the former president's years long battle to keep them secret. 4:10

Total Cumulative Morning Edition Feature time: (October 1 – December 31, 2022) 269:05

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

October 1 - December 31, 2022

NPR's Weekend Edition is aired on KCCU Saturday & Sunday from 7 - 9 a.m.

Date - Time Cumulative Length (in minutes)

10/01/22 07:46 (EST) 07:40

NATIONAL—Residents of Jackson, Miss., are still trying their best to function without safe and reliable drinking water, and some decry decades of disinvestment in the state's majority-Black capital city. NPR's Scott Simon hosts. 07:40

10/02/22 07:55 (EST) 12:57

CULTURE— NPR's Ayesha Rascoe speaks with the creator of the new podcast mini-series "Doin' It Our Way" about why more Black families are opting for homeschool over the classroom. 05:17

10/09/22 07:50 (EST) 17:27

POLITICAL— NPR's Ayesha Rascoe reports on how OPEC Plus countries dealt a blow to the Biden Administration's hopes of keeping gas prices down, with just a few weeks to go before the midterm election. 04:35

10/15/22 07:47 (EST) 22:02

POLITICAL—NPR's Scott Simon and NPR's senior editor and correspondent, Ron Elving look at the Georgia Senate debates as well as the Jan. 6 Committee's decision to subpoena former president Donald Trump. 04:35

10/23/22 07:54 (EST) 28:03

CULTURE—NPR's Ayesha Rascoe talks with Hanne Collins, an author of a new study that says a mix of weak and strong social ties, known as relational diversity, leads to greater life satisfaction. 06:01

10/30/22 07:53 (EST) 33:22

RACE—NPR's Ayesha Rascoe talks with US Secretary of Agriculture Tom Vilsack about a new program to compensate farmers who have endured discrimination. 05:19

Cumulative Weekend Edition Feature time this page: 32:47

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT October 1 - December 31, 2022

NPR's Weekend Edition is aired on KCCU Saturday & Sunday from 7 - 9 a.m.

11/05/22 07:55 (EST) 38:47

FOREIGN RELATIONS—NPR's Scott Simon talks with Ellen Knickmeyer of the Associated Press about Saudi Arabia's crackdown on dissidents living abroad. 05:25

11/12/22 07:58 (EST) 46:11

CULTURE—NPR's Scott Simon speaks to Swedish author Johanne Lykke Holm about her new novel, "Strega". 07:24

11/19/22 07:57 (EST) 53:36

CULTURE—NPR's Scott Simon talks with veteran movie critic Elvis Mitchell about his debut film, "Is that Black Enough for You?!?" It is a documentary about Black cinema. 07:25

11/26/22 07:12 (EST) 58:13

POLITICS—NPR's Scott Simon along with NPR senior political editor Domenico Montanaro talk about President Biden's promise about gun control legislation before the year is out. Plus, a House committee wins its fight to obtain former President Trump's tax returns. 04:37

11/13/22 08:00 (EST) 65:03

FOREIGN AFFAIRS - Ukrainian troops are digging in for a winter of fighting. The change in seasons is expected to bring a shift in the fighting against Russian troops. 06:50

11/20/22 08:04 (EST) 70:34

NATIONAL—In parts of Madrid, a blanket could lead to jail time for Senegalese street vendors known as the manteros. NPR's Ari Shapiro reports on climate migration from Senegal to Spain. 05:31

11/27/22 07:59 (EST) 76:43

BUSINESS—NPR's David Folkenflik talks with journalist Paddy Manning about challenges ahead for Rupert Murdoch's media empire. Manning is out with a book about Rupert Murdoch's eldest son, Lachlan Murdoch, heir apparent. 06:09

Cumulative Weekend Edition Feature time this page: 76:43

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT October 1 - December 31, 2022

NPR's Weekend Edition is aired on KCCU Saturday & Sunday from 7 - 9 a.m.

12/03/22 07:45 (EST) 83:08

NATIONAL—Gun-related deaths have risen dramatically since 2004. NPR's Sarah McCammon speaks to researcher Eric Flegler about a recent study of these deaths, looking at the last 30 years. 06:25

12/04/22 07:48 (EST) 88:32

WORLD— NPR's Ayesha Rascoe speaks to former Ukrainian deputy health minister Mladena Kachurets about the brutal cold millions of Ukrainians are facing without power to heat their homes. 05:24

12/10/22 07:49 (EST) 96:43

BOOKS—When you're looking for a friend, there are things that matter, and things that don't. Julie Fogliano's I Don't Care is about what's not as well as what is. NPR's Scott Simon reports. 08:11

12/11/22 07:54 (EST) 104:42

BOOKS—NPR's Ayesha Rascoe speaks with Bora Chung, author of "Cursed Bunny," a collection of offbeat, surreal short stories newly translated from Korean into English. 08:09

12/17/22 07:55 (EST) 103:14

WORLD—NPR's Scott Simon speaks to David Miliband, president and CEO of the International Rescue Committee, about the group's watchlist of humanitarian crises for the coming year. 05:07

12/18/22 07:00 (EST) 117:30

CIVIL RIGHTS—JoAnne Bland made civil rights history in Selma. She is a 69-year-old born and raised in the small city and she has been guiding visitors through its past for 33 years. 14:16

12/24/22 07:53 (EST) 122:47

MIDDLE EAST— NPR's Scott Simon speaks with Afghan student Zakia Menhas, now in the U.S., about the Taliban's decision to forbid women from attending university. 05:17

12/25/22 08:06 (EST) 129:35

ASIA— NPR's Daniel Estrin asks Tamar Hermann of the Israel Democracy Institute about the rise of the far-right in Israel. 06:48

Total Cumulative Weekend Edition Feature time: (October 1 - December 31, 2022) 129:35

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT October 1 - December 31, 2022

PRI's The Takeaway is aired on KCCU Monday - Thursday from 1 - 2 p.m.

Date	Time	Cumulative Length (in minutes)
------	------	--------------------------------

10/03/22	13:07	10:13
----------	-------	-------

RACE—Melissa Harris-Perry talked with Christopher Rivas, actor and author of Brown Enough: True Stories About Love, Violence, the Student Loan Crisis, Hollywood, Race, Familia, and Making It in America. 10:13

10/04/22	13:07	27:46
----------	-------	-------

POLITICS—With far reaching implications for long standing precedent on issues like voting access, LGBTQ rights and beyond, the Supreme Court's new session's docket will likely remain as contentious as the last ones. Melissa Murray, Stokes professor of law at NYU, faculty director of the Birnbaum Women's Leadership Network and co-host of the legal podcast, Strict Scrutiny joined the show. 17:33

10/10/22	13:07	48:25
----------	-------	-------

INDIGENOUS AFFAIRS—The 2022 Supreme Court ruling on Oklahoma vs. Castro-Huerta granted the state of Oklahoma the power to prosecute non-Indians who commit felony crimes against tribal citizens on reservation land. Tribes and tribal law experts see the Castro-Huerta ruling as an alarming turn in the Court's treatment of Indian law and tribal affairs. 20:29

10/19/22	13:21	71:26
----------	-------	-------

POLITICS—"Meme Wars: The Untold Story of the Online Battles Upending Democracy in America," explains how the "Stop the Steal" movement started online and resulted in the January 6 insurrection. Dr. Joan Donovan is the research director of the Shorenstein Center on Media, Politics and Public Policy at the Harvard Kennedy School and book co-author joined the show. 23:01

10/24/22	13:07	79:22
----------	-------	-------

IMMIGRATION—Economic and political turmoil in Venezuela has led to a record number of Venezuelan migrants making the dangerous trek across Central America to seek refuge in the United States. This story highlights the human toll of U.S. border policy for Venezuelan migrants. 08:46

Cumulative The Takeaway Feature time this page: 79:22

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT October 1 - December 31, 2022

11/01/22      13:07      83:26

BOOK—Jemele Hill discusses her new memoir, Uphill, which chronicles the events of her upbringing that shaped her life and career, as well as the story behind the better-known moments of her time at ESPN.

18:42

11/06/22      13:07      96:54

BOOK—In her new book, “Raising Them Right,” award-winning journalist Kyle Spencer documents a coordinated and well-funded right-wing movement aimed at young people to bring ultra-conservative and radical ideas into the mainstream. Right-wing organizations have spent millions of dollars recruiting and training young people. 10:57

11/14/22      13:40      101:54

POLITICS—UN Secretary-General Antonio Guterres, opened the United Nation's annual climate summit, COP27 meeting this year in Egypt, with a dire warning: "We are in the fight of our lives, and we are losing, Greenhouse gas emissions keep growing, global temperatures keep rising, and our planet is fast approaching tipping points that will make climate chaos irreversible. We are on a highway to climate hell with our foot still on the accelerator."13:28

11/23/22      13:35      113:52

MEDICAL—A new Commonwealth Fund study of thousands of primary care doctors in 10 countries found that a majority of them are burned out and stressed, and many feel the pandemic has negatively impacted the quality of care they provide. Dr. David Blumenthal, president of The Commonwealth Fund and former primary care physician, talks about the demands on doctors and the changes the system needs. 12:32

11/28/22      13:07      96:54

EDUCATION—Yale, Harvard, Georgetown, and other T-14 Law schools dropped out of the U.S. News Rankings system, sending shockwaves through the world of prestigious college admissions. Dean Gerken says that the U.S. News rankings are profoundly flawed, citing an inequitable system that "disincentivizes programs that support public interest careers. 07:51

Cumulative The Takeaway Feature time this page: 113:52

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT October 1 - December 31, 2022

12/05/22      13:07      127:22

CYBER ATTACK—More than 40,000 residents of Moore County, North Carolina were without power after an intentional attack on local power stations. The county instituted a curfew and declared a state of emergency. Martha Quillin, Staff Writer for The News & Observer discussed the attack and how long before residents got power. 12:00

12/06/22      13:07      140:48

POLITICAL—The Supreme Court heard arguments in the case of 303 Creative LLC v. Elenis. Justices consider whether the Colorado-based web designer is obligated by the state’s law to design wedding websites for same-sex couples. 19:07

12/08/22      13:07      140:48

ENVIRONMENTAL—Earlier this year, Jackson Mississippi’s water crisis attracted national media attention. But a recent AP report found that safe access to drinking water is a much wider issue affecting smaller and more rural communities across the United States, as many face deteriorating water systems and unsafe drinking water. 13:45

12/23/22      13:07      154:16

POLITICAL—As the 117th Congress came to an end in the next couple of weeks, we are once again facing a looming government shutdown. Congress has until midnight on Friday to reach a deal to avoid a partial government closure. This comes as Democrats and Republicans debate over a $1.5 trillion dollar omnibus bill that would fund the government through the end of September 2023. 13:18

12/29/22      13:30      163:46

SCIENCE - On Monday, August 22nd, NASA released stunning images of Jupiter taken from the James Webb Space Telescope. To learn more about the images and what we can expect to learn about Jupiter and our solar system, we speak with Munazza Alam, astronomer, a National Geographic young explorer, and a postdoctoral fellow at the Carnegie Earth and Planets Laboratory in Washington, D.C. 09:30

Total Cumulative The Takeaway Feature time: (October 1 – December 31, 2022) 231:06

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT October 1 - December 31, 2022

PRI's The World airs on KCCU Monday through Thursday from 2 – 3pm.

Date - Time Cumulative Length (in minutes)

10/05/22 14:06 07:00

UKRAINE - Moscow's capture of the eastern city of Lysychansk this weekend, gives Russia total control of the Luhansk region. Russian troops are now looking to take even more territory further north in Donetsk. The World's Marco Werman talks with reporter Volodymyr Solohub in Kharkiv. 07:00

10/04/22 14:45 12:25

UKRAINE - In Ukraine, coping with war and dealing with trauma has become a daily challenge. Millions of Ukrainians have been impacted by Russia's invasion. Many are on the front lines. Others have been displaced. And everyone is processing different levels of pain, both physical and mental. Some people are trying to help people cope with the trauma of war. 6:25

10/21/22 14:06 17:25

CHINA - The refrain, "after the Party Congress," has been heard constantly in China. It refers to the idea that once this week's official National Congress of the Communist Party meeting wraps up on Friday, maybe things will get back to normal after a series of strict pandemic lockdowns. 5:00

10/26/22 14:11 21:55

EDUCATION - DACA could end in federal court. Most of today's high school graduates can't get protection from the program anyway. 4:33

10/26/22 14:06 26:43

UKRAINE - Ukraine's military has been gaining ground against Russian forces, winning back territory for weeks now. But the Russian military appears to have adjusted its strategy. It's been hitting Ukrainian cities and civilian infrastructure with missiles and drones. That presents a challenge for Ukraine's air defense system. 4:48

Cumulative The World Feature time this page: 26:43

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT October 1 - December 31, 2022

11/04/22      13:15      35:00

POLICTS - With Benjamin Netanyahu set to return to power, reporter Noga Tarnopolsky discusses with The World's host Marco Werman what Israeli parliamentary election results will mean for the country.

8:17

11/04/22      11:30      39:17

HEALTH - A new British study out on Wednesday shows that psilocybin — the substance found in hallucinogenic mushrooms — can help treat people with severe depression. But science writer Dana Smith cautions that psychedelic mushrooms are “not going to be a cure-all.” 4:17

11/03/22      14:06      48:17

TERRORISM - President Joe Biden has announced that the US has kill Al-Qaeda’s top leader Ayman al-Zawahiri in Afghanistan. Zawahiri was on US’ most-wanted list for about two decades and he had a $25 million bounty on his head. The World’s Shirin Jaafari reports. 09:00

11/07/22      15:00      53:04

ELECTIONS - In Texas, Republican Gov. Greg Abbott and Democrat Beto O’Rourke have spent more than $9 million combined in purchasing Spanish-language media advertisements to appeal to voters. 04:47

11/08/22      16:15      61:22

RUSSIA - Journalist Mikhail Fishman, an anchor at the independent Russian news outlet TV Rain, joined The World's host Marco Werman to talk about how the Russian government is placing "a big bet" on US midterm elections outcomes that will favor Russian President Vladimir Putin's war in Ukraine. 8:18

12/08/22      16:30      65:31

RUSSIA - WNBA star Brittney Griner has been freed in a prisoner swap with Russian arms-dealer Viktor Bout. To hear more about how this deal got made, we hear from Hugh Dugan, a former State Department hostage negotiator who has worked on deals to bring back Americans from abroad. 4:09

Cumulative The World Feature time this page: 65:31

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT
October 1 - December 31, 2022

12/21/22      14:00            70:54

UKRAINE - Theresa and Scott Cianciolo founded Agape Ministries, a Christian nonprofit that works with children and adults with developmental disabilities in Ukraine. After they stopped traveling to Ukraine due to the war, they raised money to create a home for refugees and children with disabilities in Vermont. 5:23

12/20/22      16:45            76:13

Putin reinforces military, security bonds with Belarus at Minsk meeting. 5:19

Total Cumulative The World Feature time: (October 1 - December 31, 2022) 76:13

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT
October 1 - December 31, 2022

NPR's All Things Considered airs Monday through Friday from 4 - 7 p.m. It is aired on Saturday from 4 - 6p.m. and on Sunday from 5 – 7p.m.

Date - Time Cumulative Length (in minutes)

10/02/21 16:53 7:31

HEALTH - NPR's Michel Martin speaks with Andre Perry from the Brookings Institution about their study, "The Black Progress Index." – 7:31

10/05/22 14:20 15:42

POLITICS - NPR's Mary Louise Kelly talks with former Attorney General Eric Holder about the Supreme Court hearings in the Alabama redistricting case which could weaken protections held by the Voting Rights Act. 08:11

10/06/22 16:35 23:53

RUSSIA UKRAINE - Russia says it is claiming parts of Ukraine, but facts on the ground say otherwise. Ukrainian troops continue a counteroffensive in the country's south and east that is upending the Kremlin's plans. 8:06

10/06/22 16:35 31:59

ECONOMY - The current percentage rate for the average home loan is nearly 7%. These mortgage rates continue to push home ownership out of reach for many Americans navigating a frothy housing market. 7:21

10/15/22 17:00 39:20

ELECTIONS - NPR's Michel Martin speaks with Georgia Public News politics reporter Stephen Fowler about the changes to election laws in the state. 7:01

Cumulative All Things Considered Feature time: 44:43

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT October 1 - December 31, 2022

11/02/22      16:53      46:21

POLITICS - California's Orange County was long a Republican stronghold. But growing numbers of left-leaning Asian-American voters there have helped make several of the county's House races more competitive. 11:12

11/05/22      17:15      57:33

EDUCATION - Guest host Adrian Florido speaks with Mitchell Chang, associate vice chancellor at UCLA, about what's at risk if affirmative action in college admissions is overturned. 6:50

11/17/22      16:31      64:23

POLITICS - Washington and El Paso, Texas react as the Biden administration prepares for the end of Title 42 after a federal judge declared the pandemic border restrictions unlawful. 5:52

11/19/22      17:01      70:15

POLITICS - NPR's Michel Martin talks with John A. Lawrence, House Speaker Nancy Pelosi's former chief of staff, about her legacy. 7:09

11/22/22      17:24      77:24

NATIONAL - NPR's Juana Summers talks with Richard Fierro, the army veteran who helped subdue a man who shot and killed five people and injured 18 others at a Colorado Springs LGBTQ nightclub on Saturday. 8:03

11/28/22      16:25      85:27

HEALTH - E-cigarettes have transformed nicotine use among U.S. teens in less than a decade, repopularizing it and creating a new generation of users. How regulators act now will determine the future of vaping. 6:21

12/01/22      16:33      91:48

HEALTH - At a school district in Texas, mental health professional training to address grief and trauma is healing for school-based therapists and social workers who lost loved ones during the pandemic. 08:14

Cumulative All Things Considered Feature time: 91:48

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT October 1 - December 31, 2022

12/01/22      17:19            100:20

SPORTS - NPR's Michel Martin speaks with sports journalist Kevin Blackistone about Watson's return to the NFL and how the franchise is handling continuous allegations of assault and misconduct against women. 8:32

12/08/22      16:19            108:52

SPORTS/RUSSIA - WNBA star Brittney Griner was freed in a prisoner swap Thursday. She was serving a prison sentence for drug charges in Russia. 7:11

12/09/22      16:21            116:03

POLITICS - NPR's Mary Louise Kelly speaks with former U.S. House Speaker Newt Gingrich about how President Biden has been able to complete his goals in a divided House. 7:57

12/16/22      16:36            124:00

COVID - China is facing possibly the world's biggest coronavirus surge yet. At the high end of estimates, 800 million people in China could become infected. What does this mean for China and other countries? 8:14

12/18/22      17:27            132:14

NPR's Sarah McCammon speaks with a group of Jewish teenagers amid a particularly dark year for anti-Semitic incidents in the U.S.: Hannah Rubin, Ben Fitzpayne, and Jaia Wilensky. 10:42

Total Cumulative All Things Considered Feature time: (July 1 - September 30, 2022) 142:56

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT October 1 - December 31, 2022

State Impact Oklahoma is produced by a consortium of public media outlets in Oklahoma: KGOU, KOSU, KWGS & KCCU. Together these four station compromise the Oklahoma Public Media Exchange. The exchange secures funding to produce the StateImpact Oklahoma reports. StateImpact stories are aired at 4:44 & 5:44 p.m. on Thursdays and at 6:45:35 & 7:45:35 a.m. on Fridays on KCCU.

STATEIMPACT OKLAHOMA SUMMARIES:

Date - Time Cumulative Length (in minutes)

10/06/22 16:44 4:15

POLITICAL/EDUCATION – Oklahoma Governor Kevin Stitt gears up for his challenge from State Superintendent Joy Hofmeister at the polls in November. Many are concerned about the effects education policy could have on the race. StateImpact's Robby Korth has the story. 4:15

10/20/22 16:44 08:36

POLITICAL/HEALTH–The Oklahoma governor's race includes plenty of hyper-partisan issues. The winner will decide what health care looks like for more than one million Oklahomans. StateImpact's Catherine Sweeney along with StateImpact editor Logan Layden report. 4:21

10/27/22 16:44 13:05

EDUCATION: Four day school weeks have become more common across Oklahoma over the last decade. Lawmakers have tried to limit the practice. But as StateImpact's Robby Korth reports, the rural districts that use them are fighting to keep them. 04:29

11/03/22 16:44 17:21

HEALTH Workforce problems, federal regulations and an increase in demand are creating a shortage of ADD and ADHD medications. Local medical providers started seeing an issue this summer. There are ways around the shortage, but they involve jumping through hoops. 04:16

Cumulative StateImpact Feature time this page: 17.21

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT October 1 - December 31, 2022

11/10/22      16:44      21:39

POLITICS -Unlike some other states, Oklahoma’s midterm election results are in the books. The results have big implications for education, health, and the environment in our state. Managing editor Logan Layden discussed what the outcome means with the StateImpact Oklahoma reporters. 04:18

11/17/22      16:44      25:57

EDUCATION- Leading up to the midterms, throngs of teachers and education advocates rallied around democratic candidates for governor and superintendent. But after the ticket went to Gov. Kevin Stitt and Education Secretary Ryan Walters, some of those teachers are thinking about leaving the state altogether.

StateImpact’s Beth Wallis has the report. 4:09

12/01/22      16:44      30:06

HEALTH - Nathalie Valero and Elodie Musungayi are Tulsa teenagers who spoke about how social media is amplifying youth voices and how it impacts mental health for them and their peers. KOSU reporter Kateleigh Mills went to Tulsa to speak with them. 04:30

12/08/22      16:44      34:36

EDUCATION - As climate change continues to raise the stakes of severe flooding events, some Oklahoma communities are prepared to weather the storm, and some aren’t. In the first of a two-part series in partnership with StateImpact’s Beth Wallis, OPMX’s Graycen Wheeler reports on how two neighboring cities responded to disaster. 04:24

12/15/22      16:44      39:00

HEALTH - Overdose deaths from opioids, including prescription drugs as well as illicit forms of fentanyl, have increased over the past few years, likely because of struggles amid the pandemic. But one drug in particular is killing Oklahomans at an even higher rate: methamphetamine. Catherine Sweeney has the report. 4:21

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT
October 1 - December 31, 2022

Total Cumulative StateImpact Feature time: (October 1 - December 31, 2022) 43:21

Total Feature Time from All Sources:	mm:ss
Cumulative Morning Edition Feature time:	269:05
Cumulative Weekend Edition Feature time:	119:41
Cumulative The Takeaway Feature time:	231:06
Cumulative The World Feature time:	76:13
Cumulative All Things Considered Feature time:	143:10
Cumulative State Impact Oklahoma Feature time:	43:21
Total Cumulative Feature time:	882:36