

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

APRIL-JUNE 2013

ABOUT KCCU

KCCU is a non-commercial educational radio station licensed to Cameron University in Lawton, OK.

NATIONAL PROGRAMMING

The KCCU Network ("KCCU") airs some of the most prominent programs in public media, such as Morning Edition, All Things Considered, Talk of the Nation, A Prairie Home Companion, and Performance Today.

KCCU carries six hours of national news programming from NPR Monday through Friday and three hours on Saturdays and Sundays. KCCU also carries other news and information programs that air at various times throughout the week.

KCCU carries cultural and entertainment programs from NPR, American Public Media, and other entities throughout the week.

LOCAL PROGRAMMING

KCCU airs locally- and regionally-produced news programs, public service announcements, live classical music, and specialty programs daily.

Local news programming includes newscasts covering the KCCU network broadcast area, "news minutes" that highlight stories of local interest during Morning Edition and All Things Considered, and feature stories covering topics from around the area. KCCU also airs regional news content developed by sources such as NPR's StateImpact program, the Oklahoma Public Media Exchange, and the collaborative outlet AudioTexas.

Specialty programming includes cultural programs such as Classical Music Today, highlighting notable historical events from each day in the world of classical music, and Slice of Life, a weekly commentary; informational programs such as the public affairs program Community Focus and The Wall Street to Main Street Report, which provides daily stock and commodity prices after the closing bell; and special news coverage, such as for elections and important breaking news.

Enclosed is a list of topics covered in KCCU news and feature stories and in local public affairs programming during the second quarter of 2013.
