

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

April 1 – June 31, 2023

ABOUT KCCU / SIMULCAST

KCCU is a non-commercial educational radio station licensed to Cameron University in Lawton, OK. KLCU-Ardmore, KMCU-Wichita Falls and KOCU-Altus simulcast the KCCU-Lawton signal.

NATIONAL PROGRAMMING

The KCCU Network (“KCCU”) airs some of the most prominent programs in public media, such as Morning Edition, All Things Considered, and Performance Today. KCCU carries over 15 hours of national news programming from NPR Monday through Friday and four hours on Saturdays and Sundays. KCCU also carries other news and information programs that air at various times throughout the week. KCCU carries cultural and entertainment programs from NPR, American Public Media, and other entities.

LOCAL PROGRAMMING

KCCU airs locally- and regionally-produced news programs, public service announcements, live classical music, and specialty programs daily. Local news programming includes The Texoma Report, a newscast covering the KCCU network broadcast area, and feature stories covering topics from around the area. KCCU also airs regional news content developed by sources such as the StateImpact program and the Oklahoma Public Media Exchange.

Specialty programming includes cultural programs such as Slice of Life, a weekly commentary; informational programs such as the public affairs program Community Focus; and special news coverage, such as for elections and important breaking news. Enclosed is a list of topics covered by NPR, PRX, StateImpact Oklahoma and KCCU news during the first quarter of 2023.

Bekah Fountain

News Director, June 29TH 2023

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

April 1 – June 31, 2023

NPR's Morning Edition airs live on KCCU Monday through Friday from 5 - 9 a.m.

Date - Time Cumulative Length (in minutes)

04/05/23 05 & 07:22 07:01

HEALTH - Doctors are drowning in paperwork. Some companies claim AI can help. 7:01

04/06/23 05 & 07:22 14:29

MIDDLE EAST - NPR podcast Taking Cover delves into the worst Marine-on-Marine friendly fire incident in modern history. 7:18

04/06/22 05 & 07:22 25:30

LAW - The trauma caused by hoax shooting calls is sometimes amplified by social media, as bad actors take advantage of the moment to spread misinformation. 11:01

04/11/23 05 & 07:22 32:29

HEALTH - Where gender-affirming care for youth is banned, intersex surgery may be allowed. 6:59

04/12/23 05 & 07:22 50:39

UKRAINE - How the war in Ukraine has forever changed the children in one kindergarten class. 11:22

04/13/23 05 & 08:22 47:59

HEALTH - A growing body of evidence points to the idea that the coronavirus can stick around long after an initial infection. Some researchers think that may be a major driver of long COVID. 6:48

Cumulative Morning Edition Feature time this page: 41:11

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

April 1 – June 31, 2023

05/02/23 05 & 7:22 55:16

FENTANYL - NPR's Michel Martin talks to William Jawando, a councilmember in Montgomery County, Md., and activist Laura Mitchell, about the impact of the FDA's approval of over-the-counter sales of Narcan. 7:17

05/04/23 05 & 07:22 62:20

UKRAINE - A few years ago, Daria Samotuga was living a typical college student's life, in the dorms at Alfred Nobel University in Dnipro. The war forced her to move to her hometown of Kryvyi Rih, about two hours away. Now, she rarely leaves the house, which is near the city's air raid sirens. 7:04

05/16/23 05 & 07:22 68:49

HEALTH - Lifesaving or stigmatizing? Parents wrestle with obesity treatment options for kids 6:29

05/17/23 05 & 07:22 75:38

AI - NPR's Steve Inskeep speaks with Thom Shanker, co-author of the book Age of Danger, about the threats artificial intelligence poses to national security. 6:49

05/23/23 05 & 07:22 81:59

POLICE - The AG who prosecuted George Floyd's killers has ideas for how to end police violence. 6:21

05/26/23 07 89:01

HEALTH - Researchers are inching closer to mass-producing eggs and sperm in the lab from ordinary human cells. The technique could provide new ways to treat infertility but also open a Pandora's box. 7:02

Cumulative Morning Edition Feature time: 89:01

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

April 1 – June 31, 2023

06/09/23 06 & 08:22 96:29

HEALTH - The air quality is plummeting in many parts of North America as the Canadian wildfires continue to burn. We find out how other cities around the world deal with the challenge of living with toxic air. 7:28

06/12/23 06 & 08:22 102:49

SCIENCE - 'Anti-dopamine parenting' can curb a kid's craving for screens or sweets. 6:20

06/14/23 05 & 08:22 109.03

AI - Law enforcement is increasingly using artificial intelligence to investigate crimes, but some civil rights advocates want limits on the technology. 6:14

06/15/23 05 & 07:22 112.19

ABORTION - A bill by two Democratic senators would fix the training problem by offering grants to medical students from states where abortion is banned to help them go out of state for abortion care training. 3:16

06/19/23 05 & 07:22 119:16

JUNETEENTH - For the observation of the federal holiday, we hear from Nathan Connolly, an associate professor of history at Johns Hopkins University, about the Emancipation Proclamation, and NPR staff read it. 6:57

06/19/23 05 & 07:22 124:13

AI - NPR's A Martinez talks to Max Tegmark, professor of physics at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, about the potential dangers of using artificial intelligence as a weapon. 4:57

Total Cumulative Morning Edition Feature time: 124:13 (April 1 – June 30, 2023)

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

April 1 – June 31, 2023

NPR's Weekend Edition is aired on KCCU Saturday & Sunday from 7 - 9 a.m.

Date - Time Cumulative Length (in minutes)

04/01/22 08:00 (EST) 8:04

MOVIES - NPR's Scott Simon speaks to Vivian Oparah and David Jonsson, who star in the new film "Rye Lane." It's a story about young love and bad breakups set over an eventful day in London. 8:04

04/08/23 07:58 (EST) 17:14

BOOKS - NPR's Scott Simon and Mary Louise Kelly talk about her new book, "It. Goes. So. Fast. The Year of No Do-Overs." The memoir takes looks at the balance of work and motherhood, intention and memory. 9:10

04/09/23 08:02 (EST) 26:36

MUSIC - NPR's Ayesha Rascoe speaks with multi-platinum singer-songwriter Natalie Merchant about her ninth solo studio album, "Keep Your Courage," and the musical influences in her life. 9:22

04/09/23 07:39 (EST) 35:58

MOVIES— NPR's Ayesha Rascoe talks with actor Owen Wilson about the new movie, "Paint," in which he plays a self-absorbed host of a painting show on a local public television station. 09:22

04/16/23 07:48 (EST) 43:41

TELEVISION - NPR's Ayesha Rascoe speaks with director Allen Hughes about the new docuseries "Dear Mama," which explores the relationship between rapper Tupac Shakur and his mother, Afeni Shakur. 7:43

04/16/23 07:48 (EST) 52:34

BOOKS - NPR's Ayesha Rascoe talks with the duo behind a new time travel adventure for middle-grade readers: musician Questlove and crime writer S.A. Cosby. The book is called "The Rhythm of Time." 8:33

Cumulative Weekend Edition Feature time this page: 52:34

NPR's Weekend Edition is aired on KCCU Saturday & Sunday from 7 - 9 a.m.

05/06/23 08:01 (EST) 56:39

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

April 1 – June 31, 2023

KING CHARLES - King Charles III is being formally crowned the monarch of the United Kingdom during an elaborate ceremony in London Saturday, the first British coronation since 1953. 4:05

05/07/23 08:00 (EST) 62:45

BORDER ISSUES - NPR's Ayesha Rascoe talks with Alex Aviña, of Arizona State University, about the history of US troops along the border with Mexico. 1,500 service members will be deployed this week. 6:06

05/13/23 07:58 (EST) 67:49

IMMIGRATION - NPR's Scott Simon talks with Mayor Ken Miyagishima of Las Cruces, N.M., about how the city is preparing for migrants after the expiration of Title 42. 5:04

05/14/23 07:52 (EST) 78:36

RACISM - NPR's Ayesha Rascoe asks Na'Kya McCann, host of the podcast "Embedded: Buffalo Extreme," about the racist attack in Buffalo, N.Y., on May 14, 2022. 10:47

05/20/23 07:53 (EST) 86:47

BOOK - NPR's Scott Simon speaks to former reporter Brooke Kroeger about her new book, "Undaunted," about how women fought for a place in newsrooms and on the frontlines of journalism. 8:11

05/28/23 07:58 (EST) 91:02

UVALDE - American police see Uvalde as a lesson in what not to do. Trainers say police need to make sure they have the skills and emotional commitment to risk their lives to stop a killer. 4:15

06/03/23 07:59 (EST) 94:51

ECONOMY— Some big national insurance companies have stopped insuring new homes and businesses in California - citing wildfire risk and the rising cost of rebuilding. 3:49

06/03/23 07:59 (EST) 100:05

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

April 1 – June 31, 2023

ENTERTAINMENT How is the writers strike, entering its second month, affecting content on broadcast and streaming platforms? NPR's Scott Simon speaks with Lesley Goldberg of The Hollywood Reporter. 5:14

06/04/23 07:48 (EST) 106:42

UKRAINE - Workers fleeing the Russian-occupied Zaporizhzhia Nuclear Power Plant in Ukraine describe arrests and torture at the hands of Russian forces they say have turned the plant into a military base..

6:37

06/17/23 08:01 (EST) 111:46

EDUCATION — Some colleges are trying something surprising to make sure their freshman students make it back to campus for sophomore year: ditching letter grades. 5:04

06/18/23 07:49 (EST) 118:07

WOMEN'S HEALTH— NPR's Ayesha Rascoe speaks with Dr. Laura Riley, OBGYN-in-Chief at New York Presbyterian-Weill Cornell Medical Center, about the recent rise in maternal mortality among Black women. 6:21

06/28/23 09:24 (EST) 126:12

ENTERTAINMENT - NPR's Ayesha Rascoe speaks to actor Robert Englund about his new documentary, "In Hollywood Dreams and Nightmares: The Robert Englund Story" in which he explains why he doesn't fear being a genre icon. 8:05

Total Cumulative Weekend Edition Feature time: 129:40 (April 1 – June 30, 2023) 126:12

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

April 1 – June 31, 2023

PRI's The Takeaway is aired on KCCU Monday - Thursday from 1 - 2 p.m.

Date	Time	Cumulative Length (in minutes)
------	------	--------------------------------

04/05/22	13:07	26:34
----------	-------	-------

DEATH PENALTY— Nine prisoners have been executed in the United States in 2023, according to the Death Penalty Information Center. Yet the number of death sentences in the country has steadily decreased in recent decades, from more than 300 annually in the mid-1990s to fewer than 30 in recent years. This is thanks, in part, to the work of a small group of little-known professionals known as mitigation specialists. Their mission? Mercy. 26:34

04/06/23	13:07	47:36
----------	-------	-------

COVID — Earlier this year, the World Health Organization toed a fine line between acknowledging the fact that the COVID-19 pandemic isn't over, while laying the groundwork to begin transitioning out of a global emergency. However, President Biden and his administration aren't waiting to follow the World Health Organization's lead. 21:02

04/11/23	13:07	64:10
----------	-------	-------

HISTORY— Many of the Founding Fathers who signed the Constitution had a deep familiarity with Native nations, some having negotiated treaties or engaged in diplomatic relations with them. 16:43

04/13/23	13:21	84:35
----------	-------	-------

HEALTH- In the face of so many environmental crises caused by climate change, more and more Americans have been thinking about their carbon footprints. Not only the footprints we make by living — but also the ones we make by dying. An alternative method to burial and cremation has been gaining interest across the country, and it recently became legal in New York: human composting. 20:25

Cumulative The Takeaway Feature time this page: 84:35

PRI's The Takeaway is aired on KCCU Monday - Thursday from 1 - 2 p.m.

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

April 1 – June 31, 2023

05/09/23 13:07 108:43

GENDER AFFIRMING CARE — After speaking out on the Montana House floor against a bill that would restrict gender-affirming health care, Rep. Zooney Zephyr was censured by the legislative body. 24:08

05/16/23 13:07 119:09

UKRAINE— Christopher Miller, Ukraine correspondent for the Financial Times, joins The Takeaway to talk about the overview on military strategizing, how local Ukrainians are living and what to expect in the coming months of the war. 10:26

05/16/23 13:40 133:22

MIGRANTS — Under the covid era immigration policy, Title 42 had expelled and turned away 2.6 million people at the U.S. Southern border without question. But that has not stopped the tens of thousands of migrants from gathering along the Southern border, hoping to be allowed to remain in the United States while awaiting a court date. 14:13

05/17/23 13:07 147:55

UNIONS — A group of dancers working at the Star Garden Topless Dive Bar in North Hollywood, Los Angeles, just won their battle to form the only current union for strippers in the country. 14:33

05/17/23 13:07 185:39

FENTANYL— The mounting death toll from the opioid crisis in the United States continues to wreak havoc in cities, towns, and rural communities across the nation. Over the past two decades, the number of people dying from opioid overdoses in New York, and across the United States, are rising each year.

37:44

Cumulative The Takeaway Feature time this page: 185:39

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

April 1 – June 31, 2023

PRI's Think is aired on KCCU Monday - Thursday from 1 - 2 p.m.

06/07/23 13:07 45:29

SOCIAL JUSTICE — Since the death of George Floyd and advent of #metoo, societal movements are making their way into couples counseling sessions. 45:29

06/09/23 13:07 75:46

MENTAL HEALTH — Our eyes and ears do a lot of the heavy lifting to guide us through the world – what if we attempted to engage with all of our senses equally? 30:17

06/14/23 13:07 122:18

MENTAL HEALTH— Joy is made sweeter because we know pain. Sometimes joy can be found in moments of relief from life's burdens. 46:32

06/15/23 13:07 168:37

CULTURE— You know who thinks open-office designs are a good idea? People with offices. Scientific American contributing editor George Musser joins host Kryz Boyd to discuss how the open-office plan took off, the downsides its designers didn't anticipate, and what a better office layout might look like. 46:09

06/21/23 13:07 214:37

ENVIRONMENT — A lesser-discussed threat of climate change is the loss of biodiversity due to the encroachment of invasive species. 46:00

06/22/23 13:07 259:38

HEALTH - Good news: A bowl of ice cream might be good for you. And researchers are now trying to figure out why. 45:51

Total Cumulative THINK Feature time: (April 1 – June 30, 2022) 259:38

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

April 1 – June 31, 2023

PRI's The World airs on KCCU Monday through Thursday from 2 – 3pm.

Date - Time Cumulative Length (in minutes)

04/06/23 14:15 4:28

SEX ASSAULT - In Colombia's capital, the 'purple patrol' fights sexual harassment on crowded buses Bogotá is trying to curb sexual harassment against women on public transportation systems. It's trained more than 500 police officers as part of the purple patrol to respond to cases of gender-based violence.

4:28

04/06/23 17:15 13:47

COVID - 'The pandemic is still with us': The bumpy road to the end of COVID

Pinpointing the "end" of the coronavirus pandemic depends on the vantage point. 9:19

04/18/23 13:45 18:46

SUDAN - Fighting between armed forces in Sudan continues amid warnings of wider regional conflict The country's military, the Sudan Armed Forces (SAF), and the Rapid Support Forces (RSF) paramilitary began fighting on Saturday, following weeks of tensions. 04:59

04/19/23 13:30 24:20

AGRICULTURE - This greenhouse innovation helps farmers in India cope with climate change The "greenhouse-in-a-box" is part of a solution designed to help smallholder farmers cope with the vagaries of a changing climate. 05:34

04/28/23 15:15 32:47

Pandemic recovery will require much focus and attention, Dr. Atul Gawande says

The COVID-19 pandemic has killed about 7 million people worldwide, ravaging health care systems and economies. 8:27

05/09/23 14:45 37:09

IMMIGRATION - More migrants cross US-Mexico border days before restrictions end

With Title 42 restrictions set to end on May 11, migrants have been crossing into the US in large numbers. 4:22

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

April 1 – June 31, 2023

05/10/23 11:15 41:20

AI- Japanese restaurants use AI to combat sushi terrorism

The latest disturbing TikTok trend in Japan features young pranksters who are contaminating sushi that is served on conveyor belts in restaurants. 4:11

05/10/23 15:00 47:05

UKRANIAN - Ukrainian refugees create their own school in Romania

Ukrainian refugees who fled abroad often struggle to find work and a suitable school for their children. In Bucharest, Romania, two Ukrainian mothers came up with a solution: create their own school. 5:45

05/17/23 14:15 52:56

ASLYUM - Afghan families traverse most of Latin America to seek asylum at the US border

The US government changed the rules governing how people can seek asylum at the US-Mexico border last week, as a pandemic-era policy called Title 42 expired. 5:51

Cumulative The World Feature time: 52:56

06/09/23 16:45 61:28

RUSSIA - Russia and Ukraine engage in prisoner swaps to retrieve their own fighters

The World's Daniel Ofman spoke with Russian prisoners of war being held in a detention center in Kharkiv, Ukraine. Moscow and Kyiv are using captured POWs to retrieve their own fighters in prisoner swaps. 8:32

06/13/22 12:15 68:12

UKRAINE - Ukrainian parents take risky trips to Russia to retrieve their deported children

Ukrainian authorities say at least 19,000 children have been transferred to Russia from occupied territories during the war. Some Ukrainian families have taken matters into their own hands, taking risky trips to Russia to try to bring their children back home. 6:44

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

April 1 – June 31, 2023

06/15/23 17:30 72:59

UKRANIAN - 'We are determined': Ukrainian military adviser speaks on early counteroffensive
Ukraine's counteroffensive appears to be off to a good start, even though it's early days. 4:47

06/15/23 16:15 80:26

EDUCATION - Is the US still the No. 1 education destination? Yingyi Ma, who teaches sociology at Syracuse University and has written extensively about Chinese students' experiences in the US, and Tianrui Huang, a senior at the University of California San Diego studying philosophy and economics, discuss the challenges of studying in the US with The World's host Marco Werman. 7:27

Total Cumulative The World Feature time: (April 1 - June 30, 2022) 80:26

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

April 1 – June 31, 2023

NPR's All Things Considered airs Monday through Friday from 4 - 7 p.m. It is aired on Saturday from 4 - 6p.m. and on Sunday from 5 – 7p.m.

Date - Time Cumulative Length (in minutes)

04/01/23 17:02 9:48

LAW - NPR's Scott Detrow talks to Carrie Johnson and Domenico Montanaro about what comes next after former President Donald Trump's historic indictment and what we can expect from his expected arraignment. 9:48

04/03/23 16:39 18:04

NARCAN - Narcan, a nasal spray form of the opioid overdose reversing drug naloxone, was just approved by the FDA for over the counter sales. Advocates say this is a step in the right direction. 8:16

04/07/23 16:50 25:11

POLITICS - NPR's Mary Louise Kelly speaks to Republican Tennessee Rep. Jody Barrett about his vote to expel two Democratic colleagues over leading a gun control protest on the House floor. 7:07

04/11/23 16:35 37:26

UKRAINE The Russian invasion spread families of one kindergarten class in Kharkiv across the world and forced families to make choices about how to deal with trauma manifesting in the country's youngest. 12:15

04/16/23 16:35 48:42

RUSSIA- UKRAINE - NPR's Elissa Nadworny tells the story of two kindergarten classmates and best friends who were separated by Russia's war on Ukraine. 11:16

04/18/23 19:38 60:55

SPORTS - Baseball is sometimes called the "timeless game." Unlike other sports, there's no game clock. Theoretically, the game could go on forever. Four decades ago, one game came close. 12:13

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

April 1 – June 31, 2023

05/03/23 16:04 66:50

LAW - Independent Sen. Angus King of Maine talks about efforts to create a binding code of conduct for the Supreme Court. 5:55

05/03/23 16:00 73:32

LAW - Trials have become an endangered species. A new effort is trying to change that 6:42

Cumulative All Things Considered Feature time: 62:31

05/09/23 16:04 79:46

POLITICS - President Biden is meeting with congressional leaders on Tuesday, in what is seen as the first step toward negotiations over raising the debt ceiling. 6:14

05/10/23 16:36 88:03

COVID-19 - From hospital staffing to patient wait times, frontline workers at an emergency department in Glen Burnie, Md., share how they continue to navigate the changes and challenges brought by the pandemic. 8:17

05/19/23 18:15 93:11

POLICE - Cops say they're being poisoned by fentanyl. Experts say the risk is 'extremely low'. 5:08

05/20/23 17:17 107:28

PANDEMIC - NPR's Sarah McCammon talks with high school seniors from around the country who have spent nearly their entire high school career during the pandemic. 14:17

06/02/23 16:34 115:46

ENTERTAINMENT - Romance books are on the rise, even as overall book sales are declining. NPR's Juana Summers visited a romance book club at Baltimore's Charm City Books to see what brings readers to the genre. 08:18

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

April 1 – June 31, 2023

06/09/23 16:33 124:03

ENVIRONMENT - Search coastal California for wild bumblebees with conservation biologist Leif Richardson, one of the leaders of the California Bumble Bee Atlas with the Xerces Society for Invertebrate Conservation. 8:17

06/10/23 18:22 131:09

LAW - NPR's Susan Davis speaks to election analyst David Wasserman about the Supreme Court's decision to uphold the Voting Rights Act in Alabama's redistricting case. 7:06

06/13/23 16:21 137:44

HEALTH - The recent, abrupt shortage of critical cancer drugs highlights a broken business model in generic drugs that leaves patients in the U.S. and all over the world more vulnerable to similar shortages. 6:35

06/19/23 17:01 146:01

YOUTH - In recent years, the number of children enrolled in a federal benefit program, Supplemental Security Income, has dropped. It provides assistance to people who are very poor and have a disability. 8:17

06/20/23 16:39 157:21

ELECTIONS - Election workers across 22 different states told NPR they've received threats or felt unsafe doing their jobs, and many are worried for what the 2024 presidential election will bring. 11:20

Cumulative All Things Considered Feature time: 157:21

Total Cumulative All Things Considered Feature time: 140:02 (April 1 – June 30, 2022) 157:21

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

April 1 – June 31, 2023

State Impact Oklahoma is produced by a consortium of public media outlets in Oklahoma: KGOU, KOSU, KWGS & KCCU. Together these four stations comprise the Oklahoma Public Media Exchange. The exchange secures funding to produce the StateImpact Oklahoma reports. StateImpact stories are aired at 4:44 & 5:44 p.m. on Thursdays and at 6:45:35 & 7:45:35 a.m. on Fridays on KCCU.

STATEIMPACT OKLAHOMA SUMMARIES:

Date - Time Cumulative Length (in minutes)

04/06/23 16:44 4:29

EDUCATION - Five years ago this week, Oklahoma teachers walked out of their classrooms demanding more student funding and better pay after years of budget cuts. StateImpact education reporter Beth Wallis was one of those teachers, and she has this reflection on where Oklahoma education was then... and how far it still has to go. 4:29

04/13/23 16:44 8:55

ENTERTAINMENT - A small group of very large bison has been maintained in Sulphur for nearly 100 years.

Last week, the herd was moved to a new pasture for the first time. OPMX's Hannah France was there and has more on the move, and the herd's importance to the community. 4:26

04/20/23 16:44 13:15

NURSING - Oklahoma has been in a nursing shortage for decades, and that's partly because nursing schools can't keep up with demand. StateImpact's Catherine Sweeney takes a look into why and what Oklahoma universities are doing to bridge the gap. 4:20

04/27/23 16:44 17:32

SWATTING - On the night of April 7, the University of Oklahoma went on lockdown after reports of an active shooter on campus. But as it turns out, it was a swatting incident — that is, a big hoax. StateImpact's Beth Wallis has more on what happened when the nation's onslaught of swatting episodes came to Norman. 4:17

Cumulative StateImpact Feature time this page: 17:32

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

April 1 – June 31, 2023

05/04/23 16:44 21:57

HEALTH - The governor and the Legislature have been at odds over the state's Medicaid agency, the Oklahoma Health Care Authority. That fight came to a head last week, when lawmakers booted the agency director from his Secretary of Health position. StateImpact's Catherine Sweeney talks with Tres Savage, the editor of nonprofit outlet NonDoc, about what led to the ouster. 4:25

05/11/23 16:44 26:08

EDUCATION - The Oklahoma legislature has been deadlocked for weeks as it hashes out a plan for education funding. StateImpact's Beth Wallis sat down with Oklahoman newspaper education reporter Nuria Martinez-Keel to talk about the events at the Capitol that led up to this moment. 4:11

05/18/23 16:44 29:49

FENTANYL- This year, lawmakers passed a bill that ensured fentanyl test strips wouldn't be considered drug paraphernalia. StateImpact's Catherine Sweeney reports the effort is meant to curtail the sudden spike in fentanyl-related deaths. 3:41

05/25/23 16:44 33:30

EDUCATION - State Superintendent Ryan Walters stood in front of lawmakers in early May during a House committee meeting to answer questions about his rhetoric and policies. But despite his claims of continuing collaboration with district superintendents, StateImpact's Beth Wallis found otherwise. 3:41

06/01/23 16:44 37:49

EDUCATION - The road to passing this legislative session's education budget package was full of potholes and delays, but lawmakers finally hammered out a deal worth $785 million. StateImpact's Logan Layden sat down with education reporter Beth Wallis for a breakdown of what Oklahomans are going to get for their money. 4:19

03/09/23 16:44 41:59

HEALTH - Biomarker testing technology has evolved over decades and is now vital to properly plan the treatment of several forms of cancer. But there's a problem in Oklahoma: insurance coverage. StateImpact's Catherine Sweeney reports that could soon be changing. 4:10

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

April 1 – June 31, 2023

03/23/23 16:44 45:48

HEALTH - One of the bills out of the legislature this session that aims to ban gender-affirming care for Oklahomans under 18 would have major impacts on adults too. StateImpact's Catherine Sweeney reports among other things, the bill would force all trans Oklahomans seeking this care to pay for it out of pocket. 3:49

03/30/23 16:44 49:59

HEALTH - Oklahoma offers pregnant residents special Medicaid coverage. That coverage used to last only 60 days after delivery, but under a new policy, that coverage will run for a full year instead. StateImpact's Logan Layden and Catherine Sweeney discuss how the policy will affect thousands of new parents in Oklahoma. 4:11

04/06/2023 16:44 54:28

EDUCATION - Five years ago this week, Oklahoma teachers walked out of their classrooms demanding more student funding and better pay after years of budget cuts. StateImpact education reporter Beth Wallis was one of those teachers, and she has this reflection on where Oklahoma education was then... and how far it still has to go. 4:29

04/13/23 16:44 58:54

ENVIRONMENT - A small group of very large bison has been maintained in Sulphur for nearly 100 years. Last week, the herd was moved to a new pasture for the first time. OPMX's Hannah France was there and has more on the move, and the herd's importance to the community. 4:26

04/20/23 16:44 63:14

HEALTH - Oklahoma has been in a nursing shortage for decades, and that's partly because nursing schools can't keep up with demand. StateImpact's Catherine Sweeney takes a look into why and what Oklahoma universities are doing to bridge the gap. 4:20

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

April 1 – June 31, 2023

04/27/23 16:44 67:42

SWATTING - On the night of April 7, the University of Oklahoma went on lockdown after reports of an active shooter on campus. But as it turns out, it was a swatting incident — that is, a big hoax.

StateImpact's Beth Wallis has more on what happened when the nation's onslaught of swatting episodes came to Norman. 4:28

05/04/23 16:44 72:07

HEALTHCARE - The governor and the Legislature have been at odds over the state's Medicaid agency, the Oklahoma Health Care Authority. That fight came to a head last week, when lawmakers booted the agency director from his Secretary of Health position. StateImpact's Catherine Sweeney talks with Tres Savage, the editor of nonprofit outlet NonDoc, about what led to the ouster. 4:25

05/11/23 16:44 76:33

EDUCATION - The Oklahoma legislature has been deadlocked for weeks as it hashes out a plan for education funding. StateImpact's Beth Wallis sat down with Oklahoman newspaper education reporter Nuria Martinez-Keel to talk about the events at the Capitol that led up to this moment. 4:26

05/18/23 16:44 80:59

FENTANYL - This year, lawmakers passed a bill that ensured fentanyl test strips wouldn't be considered drug paraphernalia. StateImpact's Catherine Sweeney reports the effort is meant to curtail the sudden spike in fentanyl-related deaths. 4:26

05/25/23 16:44 85:25

EDUCATION - State Superintendent Ryan Walters stood in front of lawmakers in early May during a House committee meeting to answer questions about his rhetoric and policies. But despite his claims of continuing collaboration with district superintendents, StateImpact's Beth Wallis found otherwise. 4:26

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT

April 1 – June 31, 2023

06/01/23 16:44 89:44

EDUCATION - The road to passing this legislative session's education budget package was full of potholes and delays, but lawmakers finally hammered out a deal worth $785 million. StateImpact's Logan Layden sat down with education reporter Beth Wallis for a breakdown of what Oklahomans are going to get for their money. 4:19

06/08/23 16:44 93:56

EDUCATION - A police chief in Tulsa says America should transform its response to the nearly routine mass shootings plaguing the nation. KWGS'/OPMX's Max Bryan sat down with Tulsa Police Chief Wendell Franklin for a discussion on gun policy reform for StateImpact. 4:12

06/15/23 16:44 98:27

HEALTHCARE - One Oklahoma City family is advocating for patient rights at the state capitol to honor the life of their loved one. KGOU's/OPMX's Hannah France reports on how the family hopes to create change through the legislative process. 4:31

06/22/23 16:44 102:44

EDUCATION - A new sign-on bonus program championed by State Superintendent Ryan Walters aims to give eligible teachers up to 50-thousand dollars if they commit to five years of teaching in certain shortage areas. But StateImpact's Beth Wallis reports it may leave districts and the state with big financial risks, and its haphazard rollout has left school leaders in the dark. 4:17

06/29/23 16:44 106:27

EDUCATION - As criminal justice reform for criminalized survivors of domestic violence is gaining traction in Oklahoma. Hannah France reports for StateImpact that some advocates are working to make sure potential reforms are applied to those already incarcerated. 3:43

Total Cumulative StateImpact Feature time: (April 1 – June 30, 2023) 106:27

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT April 1 – June 31, 2023

Community Focus is a production of KCCU, a service of Cameron University

Community Focus stories are aired at 8:50 A.M. on Friday mornings.

COMMUNITY FOCUS SUMMARIES:

Weather is a huge issue in the southern plains and this is how our station addressed it:

04/20/23 8:50 :53

SEVERE WEATHER - Duncan Republican Senator Jessica Garvin who represents District 43 says several of the areas she represents were hit hard by Wednesday night storms. 0:53

05/19/23 8:50 4:07

SEVERE WEATHER - It's severe weather season and the state Oklahoma has seen a lot of it so far this year. According to the National Weather Service Norman our state has seen 46 tornadoes so far and some of them have been devastating. 3:14

06/16/23 8:50 6:13

SEVERE WEATHER A storm system ripped through Southwestern Oklahoma and the Texas panhandle Thursday night generating at least seven tornadoes, powerful winds and large hail. 2:06

06/16/23 8:50 7:12

SEVERE WEATHER Heat advisories and triple digit temperatures are here this week in Oklahoma and that means people should keep their pets in mind and safe from dangerous temps. High heat is hitting across the state. And that can be dangerous for pets. 0:59

Total Cumulative Community Focus Feature time: (April 1 – June 30, 2023) 7:12

KCCU QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT
April 1 – June 31, 2023

Total Feature Time from All Sources:	mm:ss
Cumulative Morning Edition Feature time:	124:13
Cumulative Weekend Edition Feature time:	126:12
Cumulative The Takeaway Feature time:	185:39
Cumulative The World Feature time:	80:26
Cumulative THINK Feature time:	259:38
Cumulative All Things Considered Feature time:	157:21
Cumulative State Impact Oklahoma Feature time:	106:27
Community Focus Feature Time:	7:12
Total Cumulative Feature time:	1039.56