REPORTER: MARIA CELESTA ARRARAS

The desperation of a group of immigrants caused authorities to close the bridge that connects Matamoros, Mexico to Brownsville, Texas.

More than 300 people, including families with children slept in the middle of the bridge. They were protesting about the slow process to grant their asylum status. They said they were tired of sleeping in shelters and immigrations closed the border in fear they would try to use force to enter the US.
