

KTXH EDUCATIONAL AND INFORMATIONAL PROGRAMS, 3RD QUARTER 2014

Here is the list of educational and informational children's core programming targeted to children 13-16. Refer to the quarterly 398 for details:

“Elizabeth Stanton’s Great Big World” offers a dynamic television experience for teens – combining the exciting, fun, and diverse experiences of world exploration with the life-changing volunteer opportunities available in these same areas.

“Dragonfly TV” features children projects with real hands-on experience and demonstrates practical applications of mathematics and science.

“Whaddyado” takes a compelling look at perilous situations that have occurred in real life and then uses interviews with the participants, and instructions from experts to learn what the proper reaction should be when faced with similar life-threatening circumstances.

“Biz Kids” teaches the importance of understanding the economy and basic business principles featuring teens starting their own businesses, actively solving problems and developing important life skills.

“Live Life & Win” features inspirational segments from character and determination in the arts, school and sports to health and wellness to teen success stories, with themes including social responsibility, perseverance, leadership, academic achievement, volunteerism, and exercise and nutrition.

“Teen Kids News” presents news and information features in a teen appropriate manner with segments including college advice; personal safety-including tips for new drivers; vocabulary skills; training and nutrition.

“Awesome Adventures” Our host, as well as two different teens, will travel each week to destinations around the world that can be both exotic and remote.

“Wild About Animals” will consist of four (4) different stories designed to teach children about both exotic and unique animals, as well as to educate them further about animals they see every day.
