This career fair provides the opportunity to discuss career opportunities and current openings. Vice President/HR, Angie Emerline, attended.

Activity: Participation in scholarship programs designed to assist students interested in pursuing a career in broadcasting

The company contributes $1,000 annually to the Radio Television Digital News Association of the Carolinas (RTNDAC) scholarship program. Two $1500 scholarships are awarded annually to rising juniors or seniors in the Carolinas who are pursuing a major course of study with emphasis in broadcast or electronic journalism.

Activity: Training to management level personnel as to methods of ensuring equal employment opportunity and preventing discrimination.

The Corporate Human Resources department provides ongoing training and support of management on anti-discrimination policies and procedures and assistance in recruitment efforts to attract and maintain equal employment opportunity standards.

During this reporting period, Raleigh Employment Unit managers have participated in a mandatory training program. Training topics included Company EEO policy and procedures, Productive Work Environment (anti-harassment) policy training, and Performance Review training. Additionally, Raleigh Employment Unit managers and employees were provided access to unlimited online employment training opportunities through LinkedIn Learning.

Activity: Participation in at least four events or programs sponsored by education institutions relating to career opportunities in broadcasting.

School Visits/Presentations/Career Fairs – WRAL-TV staff visits local schools to discuss broadcasting and careers in broadcasting.

- August 12, 2019, Meteorologist Elizabeth Gardner gave a weather presentation to a group of students at Granville County Public Schools.
- August 27, 2019, Meteorologist Elizabeth Gardner gave a weather presentation to a group of students at Millbrook Environmental Connections Elementary School.
- September 6, 2019, Meteorologist Elizabeth Gardner gave a weather presentation to a group of students at Underwood Elementary School.

- January 16, 2020, Anchor/Reporter, Mikaya Thurmond gave a presentation on broadcasting to students at Rocky Mount Academy.

Activity: Establish training program designed to enable station personnel to acquire skills that could qualify them for higher-level positions.

Employees have the opportunity to take various continuing education courses, including computer training, management training etc. In addition, full-time employees are eligible for tuition reimbursement in their pursuit of a college bachelor's or master's degree. The company reimburses up to $7000 per employee annually.

During this reporting period, employees were offered the opportunity to participate in a companywide training program through LinkedIn Learning. This program was created to give employees the opportunity to acquire skills that could assist them in qualifying for a higher-level position. Employees can choose from thousands of training topics. Additionally, employees could participate in training topics such as Crucial Conversations, Seven Habits of Highly Effective People and Harassment Prevention.

ACTIVITY: Establishment of an internship program designed to assist members of the community to acquire skills needed for broadcast employment.

Capitol Broadcasting Company, Inc. partnered with the University of North Carolina to establish a Diversity Fellowship Program. Journalism students from colleges across the country spent five days at WRAL-TV (March 11-15, 2020). The fellows worked in the field with new photographers, crafted stories, prepared their own newscast and had a variety of educational seminars about the broadcasting industry. The purpose of the program is to provide potential journalists the opportunity to learn about our profession. In addition, the fellows were able to produce an outstanding story on their resume reel in order for them to have a better chance to land a first job.

Additionally, during this reporting period, the employment group offered an internship program for students from local universities. Interns worked with station meteorologists.

The employment group has established an ongoing "Learning for Life" partnership with the Boy Scouts of America. The goal of these programs, Explorer Post 5 and Explorer Post 50, is to train school-aged children, both male and female, in all aspects of television broadcasting and associated careers.

Post 5 members meet bi-weekly at WRAL to learn about broadcasting from operating a camera to writing a newscast to anchoring a newscast. These individuals also assist with various station projects. As part of the program, Post 5 members produce half hour programs on youth issues. Portions of these programs are aired during WRAL local programming.

Post 50 members meet regularly to learn about broadcasting. As part of the program, Post 50 members produce the broadcast of Durham Bulls Baseball team home games.

Many former members have been hired in regular employment positions. In addition, several former members have gone on to be photojournalists, reporters and anchors across the country.
