

Q2- 2022

- DE SofA
  - Michelle Kramer Fitzgerald interviews Sarah Crawford and Andre Wright Jr, founders of the color collective
  - Michelle Kramer-Fitzgerald talks with Christina Cultural Arts Center's Artistic Director Brandi Bey Neal and Delaware hip-hop artist & activist, Richard Raw. The two discuss their respective artistic visions and their collaborative work, as well as their artistic process and what is ahead for both CCAC and individual artists.
  - Michelle Kramer-Fitzgerald interviews artist Mark Harris about his past and upcoming works honoring individuals lost in the COVID pandemic. His work, "A Thousand Thousand: Remembering 1,000,000 COVID Deaths" will be on view throughout the state in coming weeks.
  - Michelle Kramer-Fitzgerald interviews Natalie Kim Ramos, the 2022 Delaware State Poetry Out Loud Champion, about her experience throughout the competition and her thoughts on discovering the world of poetry through this unique program.
  - Michelle Kramer-Fitzgerald speaks with Jennifer Acord about the grant re-opening of the Delaware Museum of Nature and Science, formerly known as the Delaware Museum of Natural History.
  - Michelle Kramer-Fitzgerald interviews multi-media artist and maker Samara Weaver about her June exhibition in the Mezzanine Gallery, her work, and his inspirations as an artist.
  - Michelle Kramer-Fitzgerald interviews guest curator Elaine Rice Bachmann about the current Winterthur exhibit, "Jacqueline Kennedy & H.F. DuPont: Winterthur to the White House."