

BEASLEY MEDIA GROUP, LLC
ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT FOR STATION WDMK-HD2
2nd QUARTER, 2021
APRIL 1ST THROUGH JUNE 30TH

ISSUES OF CONCERN TO THE STATION WDMK-HD2
ADDRESSED IN RESPONSIVE PROGRAMMING IN THE
SECOND QUARTER, 2021

1. FINANCIAL
2. COVID-19
3. RACIAL INJUSTICE
4. LAW ENFORCEMENT
5. LOCAL GOVERNMENT
6. EDUCATION
7. BUSINESS
8. VOTING RIGHTS

PUBLIC AFFAIRS PROGRAMS
WDMK-HD2 PROGRAM THAT ADDRESS COMMUNITY ISSUES

Randi Myles (Weekdays: 10:00am – 3:00pm)

Locally produced show that airs weekdays with individual segments focused on Metro Detroit issues such as law, finance, entertainment, and community events.

Take Control Tuesdays (Tuesdays: 2:10 pm – 3:00 pm)

Take Control Tuesday is a weekly segment that discusses better decision-making about our money. Mansa Musa from moneysmartlife.org keeps listeners on track with practical tips for everyday people.

Law and Reality (Tuesdays: 10:00 am– 10:30 am and Saturdays: 7:00 am – 7:30 am) Real legal matters discussed in roundtable form dealing with criminal, elder, divorce, and estate law.

Inside Detroit (Saturdays: 5:00am – 6:00am)

Locally-produced Public Affairs Recap Show aired Saturday mornings focusing on Metro Detroit issues such as Detroit policies, homelessness, victories, and defeats.

Second Quarter 2021

TOPIC: FINANCIAL

Law and Reality

April 3rd, 2021

Time: 7:00am - 7:30am

Length: 30 Minutes

The hosts of this segment talked about how those on disability can make their finances work for them. They also talked about the various disability laws and under what circumstances can one file for disability social security.

Law and Reality

April 6th, 2021

Time: 10:00am - 10:30am

Length: 30 Minutes

This segment talked about “Financial Crisis Management”. The hosts talk about the different alternatives that are available when it comes to tax and debt issues. They also talk about the various forms of filing bankruptcy and debunking the myths that come with it.

Take Control Tuesday

April 6th, 2021

Time: 2:15pm – 2:20pm

Length: 5 Minutes

Randi Myles talked with Mansa Musa of MoneySmartLife.Org as they discussed some expenses you will encounter and how to save some money for the added cash you will spend buying a home.

Law and Reality

April 10th, 2021

Time: 7:00am - 7:30am

Length: 30 Minutes

This segment talked about “Financial Crisis Management”. The hosts talked about the different alternatives that are available when it comes to tax and debt issues. They also talk about the various forms of filing bankruptcy and debunking the myths that come with it.

Law and Reality

April 13th, 2021

Time: 10:00am – 10:30am

Length: 30 Minutes

This segment of the show talked about the best ways to resolve credit card debt. The hosts discussed the different ways to erase debt without having to file bankruptcy and to be done with credit cards altogether

Take Control Tuesday

April 13th, 2021

Time: 2:15pm – 2:20pm

Length: 5 Minutes

Randi Myles talked with Mansa Musa of MoneySmartLife.Org. During this segment, they discussed how job changes can affect your mortgage application process and that most mortgage companies like to see that you have been in the same line of work for the last two years.

Law and Reality

April 17th, 2021

Time: 7:00am – 7:30am

Length: 30 Minutes

This segment of the show talked about the best ways to resolve credit card debt. The hosts discussed the different ways to erase debt without having to file bankruptcy and to be done with credit cards altogether.

Law and Reality

April 20th, 2021

Time: 10:00am – 10:30am

Length: 30 Minutes

This segment talked about the different dilemmas that businesses may face as we emerge from the pandemic. The hosts talk about some of the issues owners may face, and what tax laws they make take advantage of. They also discussed the benefits of PPP Loans and employee retention credits.

Law and Reality

April 24th, 2021

Time: 7:00am – 7:30am

Length: 30 Minutes

This segment talked about the different dilemmas that businesses may face as we emerge from the pandemic. The hosts talk about some of the issues owners may face, and what tax laws they make take advantage of. They also discussed the benefits of PPP Loans and employee retention credits.

Law and Reality

April 27th, 2021

Time: 10:00am – 10:30am

Length: 30 Minutes

During this segment, the hosts discussed some financial problems for listeners to address coming out of the pandemic. Some of the issues that were discussed were the end of the deferral on evictions and mortgage payments, as well as the end of unemployment benefits.

Take Control Tuesday

April 27th, 2021

Time: 2:15pm – 2:20pm

Length: 5 Minutes

Randi interviewed Mansa Musa from MoneySmartLife.org. During this segment of Take Control Tuesday, he gives listeners the pros and cons of using your 401K savings as a down payment for your new home.

Law and Reality

May 1st, 2021

Time: 7:00am -7:30am

Length: 30 minutes

During this segment, the hosts discussed the financial problems one may need to address coming out of the pandemic.

Law and Reality

May 4th, 2021

Time: 10:00am -10:30am

Length: 30-minutes

The hosts discussed how to resolve credit card debt and how to make credit card debt go away for good.

Take Control Tuesday

May 4th, 2021

Time: 2:15pm – 2:20pm

Length: 5 Minutes

Randi talked with Mansa Musa of MoneySmartLife.org as they discussed the topic of Multi-Generational Housing. They gave listeners tips about owning a home that the whole family can live in and then passing it on to their children's children.

Law and Reality

May 8th, 2021

Time: 7:00am-7:30am Length 30-minutes

The hosts discussed how to resolve credit card debt and how to make credit card debt go away for good.

Take Control Tuesday

May 11th, 2021

Time: 2:15pm – 2:20pm Length: 5 Minutes

Randi Myles talked with Mansa Musa from MoneySmartLife.org about the relationship between the landlord and the tenant. Musa shared tips for how important that relationship is if you are renting or renting while preparing to purchase a new home.

Law and Reality

May 11th, 2021

Time: 10:00am - 10:30am Length: 30 minutes

During this segment, the hosts discussed the difference between avoiding and solving problems when it comes to listeners' taxes.

Law and Reality

May 15th. 2021

Time: 7:00am - 7:30am Length 30 minutes

During this segment, the hosts discussed the difference between avoiding and solving problems when it comes to listeners' taxes.

Law and Reality

May 18th, 2021

Time: 10:00am - 10:30am Length 30 minutes

The hosts discussed the end of the Covid Pandemic and the work that begins with mortgage and rent forbearance agreements ending.

Take Control Tuesday

May 18th, 2021

Time: 2:15pm – 2:20pm

Length: 5 Minutes

Randi talked with Mansa Musa of MoneySmartLife.org as he gives listeners a general idea of what to expect from the economy in a post-pandemic era. Musa gives tips on ways to budget your monies with ongoing inflation on certain services.

Law and Reality

May 22nd, 2021

Time: 7:00am - 7:30am

Length 30 minutes

The hosts discussed the end of the Covid Pandemic and the work that begins with mortgage and rent forbearance agreements ending.

Law and Reality

May 25th, 2021

Time: 10:00am - 10:30am

Length: 30 minutes

The hosts discussed during this segment, the strategies for those looking into elder care, estate, and Medicaid planning for a loved one.

Law and Reality

May 29th, 2021

Time: 7:00am – 7:30am

Length: 30 Minutes

The hosts discussed during this segment, the strategies for those looking into elder care, estate, and Medicaid planning for a loved one.

Law and Reality

June 1st, 2021

Time: 10:00am - 10:30am

Length 30 minutes

The hosts discussed the end of the Covid Pandemic and the work that begins with mortgage and rent forbearance agreements ending.

Take Control Tuesday

June 1st, 2021

Time: 2:15pm – 2:20pm

Length 5 Minutes

Randi Myles talked with Mansa Musa of MoneySmartLife.org about getting the audience mortgage ready. They also discussed how to eliminate credit card debt.

Law and Reality

June 5th, 2021

Time: 7:00am - 7:30am

Length 30 minutes

The hosts discussed the end of the Covid Pandemic and the work that begins with mortgage and rent forbearance agreements ending.

Law and Reality

June 8th, 2021

Time: 10:00am - 10:30am

Length: 30 minutes

During this segment, the hosts how debt elimination is a smart move. They also discussed how everyone has debt and what are your options when it becomes too much.

Take Control Tuesday

June 8th, 2021

Time: 2:15pm – 2:20pm

Length: 5 Minutes

Getting Mortgage Ready? Be Careful How You Use Your Credit Cards – Mansa Musa from MoneySmartLife.org tells a cautionary account of how running up credit card debt can hurt your mortgage readiness.

Law and Reality

June 12th, 2021

Time: 7:00am - 7:30am

Length: 30 Minutes

During this segment, the hosts how debt elimination is a smart move. They also discussed how everyone has debt and what are your options when it becomes too much.

Law and Reality

June 15th, 2021

Time: 10:00am - 10:30am

Length: 30 minutes

The hosts discussed tax tips during this segment. They also discussed how owing taxes or not filing taxes are the reason why people fear the IRS, as well as how to resolve your tax issues.

Take Control Tuesday

June 15th, 2021

Time: 2:15pm- 2:20pm

Length: 5 Minutes

Randi Myles talked with Mansa Musa from MoneySmartLife.org as he gave some strategies on managing your credit card balance which is very important if you are working on getting "Mortgage Ready".

Law and Reality

June 19th, 2021

Time: 7:00am - 7:30am

Length: 30 minutes

The hosts discussed tax tips during this segment. They also discussed how owing taxes or not filing taxes are the reason why people fear the IRS, as well as how to resolve your tax issues.

Law and Reality

June 22nd, 2021

Time: 10:00am- 10:30am

Length: 30 minutes

The hosts discussed an update on disability claims going back into courts vs virtual claims as people are running into issues returning to work post-COVID.

Law and Reality

June 26th, 2021

Time: 7:00am - 7:30am

Length: 30 minutes

The hosts discussed an update on disability claims going back into courts vs virtual claims as people are running into issues returning to work post-COVID.

Law and Reality

June 29th, 2021

Time: 10:00am - 10:30am

Length: 30 minutes

During this segment, the hosts how debt elimination is a smart move. They also discussed how everyone has debt and what are your options when it becomes too much.

Inside Detroit

June 12th, 2021

Time: 5:00am – 5:15am

Length: 15 Minutes

“Where is the stimulus money? Are they dead in the water?” Guest: Ellis Liddell, president of ELE Wealth Management. He spoke on how stimulus checks are being slowed down in the federal government. With President Biden promising some more checks until the New Year, legislators in the Senate are pushing back and want workers to get back to work. Mr. Liddell spoke about how individuals who still haven't received stimulus money now have to go to the IRS office. He told any employers listening that they can be reimbursed for keeping employees on their books throughout the pandemic. Mildred Gaddis asked him the question: how will employers bring people back with unemployment money still going? Mr. Liddell simply answered that companies will have to figure it out and she talked about how some companies are already providing higher wages such as landscapers going to $30 or $40 an hour to get more workers coming out of the pandemic.

Inside Detroit

June 12th, 2021

Time: 5:15am – 5:30am

Length: 15 Minutes

Mr. Liddell continued the conversation with Mildred Gaddis on stimulus checks and unemployment dollars. The phone lines were opened so listeners could ask Mr. Liddell for Financial advice.

TOPIC: COVID-19

Randi Myles Show

April 13th, 2021

Time: 1:00pm – 1:15pm

Length: 15 Minutes

Randi interviewed Denise Fair, Chief Public Health Officer for the City of Detroit Health Department. They discussed what getting a COVID-19 vaccine will do for our lives and the lives of our loved ones.

Inside Detroit

April 24th, 2021

Time: 5:20am - 5:40am

Length: 20 Minutes

Mildred interviewed WDIV Local 4 Detroit News anchor, Evrod Cassimy. They discussed his struggles with COVID-19. They also talked about the lyrics of his new song “Good Enough”, which not only talked about his battle with the virus but also gives hope to those that feel down during the pandemic.

Randi Myles Show

April 30th, 2021

Time: 1:05pm – 1:20pm

Length: 15 Minutes

Randi Myles interviewed Local 4 WDIV TV Anchor, Evrod Cassimy. They discussed his struggles with COVID-19 and his new song “Good Enough” and how a portion of the proceeds raises needed funds for Detroit Public School Community District’s frontline workers.

TOPIC: RACIAL INJUSTICE

Inside Detroit

April 3rd, 2021

Time: 5:00am – 5:15am

Length: 15 Minutes

Mildred interviewed Mr. Jonathan Kinloch, Chairman of the 13th Congressional District Democratic Party and former liaison to Gov. Gretchen Whitmer. During this interview, they discussed the sweeping voting bills passed by the G.O.P in Georgia, and the effects those bills have on those voters of color.

Inside Detroit

April 3rd, 2021

Time: 5:20am – 5:40am

Length: 20 minutes

Mildred interviewed Rev. Wendell Anthony, Pastor of Fellowship Chapel and President of the Detroit chapter of the NAACP. They discussed Evanston, IL, the first U.S. city to begin the process of issuing slavery reparations to its citizens. They also discussed the need for those monies in the black community and the effects it could have.

Inside Detroit

April 17th, 2021

Time: 5:00am - 5:30am

Length: 30 Minutes

Mildred interviewed Attorney Richard Ryles, Owner and Managing Partner of the Ryles Firm. Ryles was part of the legal team that obtained 2.1 Million Dollars from the State of Florida for the survivors of the Rosewood Massacre and is the co-founder of All Real Men Read, an organization that addresses illiteracy, especially among Black Men. They discussed the subject of reparations and the black community and razing of Detroit's Black Bottom and Paradise Valley.

Inside Detroit

April 24th, 2021

Time: 5:40am – 6:00am

Length: 20 Minutes

Mildred asked the audience to weigh in on the shooting of Daunte Wright at the hands of Minnesota police officer Kim Potter, who mistook her handgun for her Taser. Mildred also discussed the ongoing Derek Chauvin trial that is also taking place in Minnesota and asked the audience for their reactions to that.

Inside Detroit

June 5th, 2021

Time: 5:00am – 5:30am

Length: 30 Minutes

Mildred Gaddis open the show with a rundown of what we will be highlighting
Guest: AL Pina CEO of the world's largest Community Development Corporation in the United States. He joined to talk about a push for diversity within the city. He's looking to take the fight for more diversity to the Capitol and he is pushing for legislation to Adam and workers seek more diverse backgrounds in government and all workplaces in Detroit.

Inside Detroit

June 5th, 2021

Time: 5:30am – 5:45am

Length: 15 Minutes

Dena Harris joined from the National Faith Homebuyers Leader, a nonprofit that looks to assist people who need extra help purchasing homes and staying in them. She spoke about how she teaming up with Al Pina to help more Detroit residence. She spoke about how the media can negatively portray Detroit and particularly the black community, that's where she and Mr. Pina are looking to change the narrative and team up together to bring more opportunities to Detroiters and financial stability.

Inside Detroit

June 19th, 2021

Time: 5:00am - 5:15am

Length: 15 Minutes

Guest: Attorney Richard Ryles based out of Florida, founder and Managing Partner of Death Law Firm, joined to talk about receiving reparations in the black community and the control of black people not being able to stay in their own homes. He was successful in gaining reparations for black residents of the Rosewood Massacre.

Inside Detroit

June 19th, 2021

Time: 5:15am - 5:30am

Length: 15 minutes

Special Edition

Picked up the interview with Attorney Richard Ryles. He spoke about how Urban Renewal was used as a way to reallocate and disrupt black communities. Took a listener's call on the subject at hand. Caller: Chester spoke on how we have been fighting for a long time in the black community. Mildred interrupted to explain that we need to continue the fight for this. And asked the question: what is your commitment to the fight? Richard Ryles gave callers advice on how black people need to keep pushing for reparations and fight to make their voices heard

TOPIC: LAW ENFORCEMENT

Inside Detroit

April 3rd, 2021

Time: 5:45am – 6:00am

Length: 15 Minutes

Mildred discussed a news story with the audience for a weigh-in discussion. The news story is about a police chase between Michigan State Police and 2 people who allegedly pointed a gun at a Detroit police officer, the crash end with the suspects crashing into a police car. No officers were injured, however, Police Chief Craig and others are upset because now those that were arrested were released on a $2,000 bond. The audience weighed in.

Inside Detroit

May 29th, 2021

Time: 5:10am – 5:30am

Length: 20 minutes

Attorney Todd Perkins joined to talk about the questionable practices on how traffic stops have been handled within the department. He brought up the point that if Firearms are found in a vehicle during a stop everyone within the car gets arrested and booked with firearm charges. He called this practice egregious and said that it's not fair to people who were unwilling accomplices. He went on to speak about how he is working on a whistle-blower lawsuit against the city police department with a 30-year vet that called out the problem and also highlighted some of the practices that he witnessed while he worked there.

TOPIC: LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Inside Detroit

April 17th, 2021

Time: 5:30am - 5:45am

Length: 15 Minutes

Mildred interviewed University of Detroit Mercy Law Graduate, Attorney Christine McPhail-Stockdale. She represents several Cannabis companies, some that do business in the Metro Detroit area. She also actively participates with the State Bar of Michigan/Medical Marijuana Section. They discussed the challenges that could face those wanting to get into the Cannabis business in the city of Detroit.

Inside Detroit

April 17th, 2021

Time: 5:45am - 6:00am

Length: 15 Minutes

Mildred held an open discussion with the listeners about the day's topics and asked audiences to weigh in on the topic of the Detroit City council seats that are currently empty. She asked what changes the audience are looking to come from the council and who they would like to see in the seats.

Inside Detroit

April 18th, 2021

Time: 5:50am – 6:00am

Length: 10 Minutes

Mildred interviewed former FOX 2 journalist, M.L. Elrick. During this segment, they discussed his plans for running for the city council and his criticism of current representatives. Elrick left FOX 2 in 2020 and immediately announced his plans for public office.

Inside Detroit

May 8th, 2021

Time: 5:00am – 5:15am

Length: 15 minutes

Attorney Richard Mack joined the show to speak on Governor Gretchen Whitmer's rejection of the revision to the Detroit City Charter. Reviewed by the Michigan Attorney General's office, it found extensive legal issues with the proposed charter. What does this ruling mean for the city of Detroit? And is there time to present a new charter for the August primary? Attorney Richard Mack joined to answer those questions, he specializes in Employment & Labor Law, at Miller Cohen Law.

Inside Detroit

May 8th, 2021

Time: 5:15am – 5:30am

Length: 15 minutes

The conversation continued with Attorney Richard Mack speaking on the charter being proposed in the city of Detroit. We had callers join the conversation and ask Mr. Mack questions on what's going on and will the people be able to vote on the charter come this August. The charter would allow the people of Detroit to have more of a say in how and where money is allocated within the city if the proposal is voted and passed.

Inside Detroit

May 8th, 2021

Time: 5:30am – 6:00am

Length: 30 minutes

UAW International President Rory Gamble joined to talk about the challenge of leading the nation's largest labor union because of a challenge. Mildred Gaddis asked questions on how the UAW Union is looking to change in the future. Mr. Gamble spoke about how COVID-19 and the recent pandemic have changed the UAW's focus.

Inside Detroit

May 15th, 2021

Time: 5:00am – 5:20am

Length: 20 minutes

Mildred Gaddis interviews Atty. Todd Perkins, covering the recent legal challenge to the Detroit City Charter. The city Charter looks to give people in the city of Detroit more voting rights within the city council and how money is spent within the city. Atty. Perkins is one of many lawmakers and state representatives that are looking into the reason why the proposed charter is being blocked.

Inside Detroit

May 22nd, 2021

Time: 5:00am – 5:10am

Length: 10 minutes

Mildred Gaddis open the show with a rundown introducing that she will be interviewing guest attorney Edward Martell and retired attorney Barbara Wynder. She began by speaking on the recent changes to the Michigan Secretary of State offices.

Inside Detroit

May 22nd, 2021

Time: 5:10am – 5:25am

Length: 15 minutes

Mildred Gaddis rejoined the show by speaking on the proposed Charter and the recent controversy where it has been blocked by a Wayne County judge. She took this moment to speak on how the traitors need to pay attention to what's going on within the city. They also discussed how taking this Charter off of the August primary is another form of voter suppression.

Inside Detroit

May 22nd, 2021

Time: 5:25am – 5:45am

Length: 20 minutes

Mildred Gaddis opened this portion to speak more on the city Charter controversy. Guest caller Chester joined to talk more about the charter. Attorney Edward Martell joined this portion of the show. Mildred highlighted his journey from being a once convicted drug dealer oh, and how he did the time in prison and changed his life, and now is a full practicing attorney.

Inside Detroit

May 22nd, 2021

Time: 5:45am – 6:00am

Length: 15 minutes

The show continued with retired attorney Winder who was joined with current council member Nicole small. Miss Small added more to the conversation in spoke about some of the steps that she and a couple of her lawyers are working on to bring this Charter proposal to the state supreme court. However, the August primary is quickly approaching and it's making this a tough task for the legal system. And it also raised some good questions on why this charter is being blocked and they both agreed that this is a form of voter suppression if it is left off the ballot.

Inside Detroit

May 29th, 2021

Time: 5:30am – 5:45am

Length: 15 minutes

Todd Perkins continued to speak about some of the work that he is doing with this whistleblower lawsuit. Mildred Gaddis asked his opinion on the city Charter problems. He spoke about how he is partnering with attorneys to take this fight to Lansing. He also called this an obvious and blatant civil infraction against voter rights laws by blocking this Charter and not allowing the people of Detroit to vote on it.

Inside Detroit

May 29th, 2021

Time: 5:45am – 6:00am

Length: 15 minutes

Attorney Richard Mack and city council member Carol Weaver both joined to speak about the appeals being sent over for the city's right to vote on the charter. They spoke on how it's peculiar that a recent judge said and ruled that the proposed Charter isn't valid. They both felt that this is not accurate because the charter was submitted within due time. They are also joining the group of lawyers bringing this suit to the Michigan state supreme court and taking this fight to Lansing.

Inside Detroit

June 5th, 2021

Time: 5:45am – 6:00am

Length: 15 Minutes

Guest: Reverend Wendell Anthony, NAACP Detroit President. The NCAA CPP says that Detroit News voting rights are being suppressed. Recently a Detroit City judge ruled that the proposed City Charter will not be on the ballot, this August. Many politicians are calling this out as another form of voter suppression, and the NAACP is looking to challenge the ruling in the Michigan Supreme Court. He explained how the proposed City Charter would allow the citizens of Detroit to vote on how money is being spent within the city.

Inside Detroit

June 12th, 2021

Time: 5:30am – 5:45am

Length: 15 Minutes

The city Charter named Proposal P might be able to make it on the August 3rd primary for Detroiters to decide how money is allocated within the city and other changes.

Guest: Attorney Richard Mack spoke on the community's response to the initial rejection of The Proposal. People near him want to be able to have their voices heard on how Federal money that is coming in through the cares act will be spent within the city of Detroit, and also to ensure that all of the money is not primarily focused within the downtown and some of it helps the blighted neighborhoods.

Inside Detroit

June 12th, 2021

Time: 5:45am- 6:00am

Length: 15 Minutes

Guest Attorney Richard Mack continued the conversation on proposal p. He continued to back the Proposal and talked about how it will help all of the citizens of Detroit. He called this the people's Charter. He and a group of attorneys are preparing to take the fight to the Michigan legislator in Lansing and voice that Proposal P should be on the ballot, August 3rd.

Inside DetroitJune 19th, 2021*Time: 5:45am - 6:00am*Length: 15 minutesSpecial Edition

Mildred Gaddis opened the phone lines to callers listening to the show.

She spoke about the 2 vacant city council positions within the city, she said that it is time to shake things up on the council and bring in new names for the race.

Ended with a question to the listeners for them to call in, asking them who do you think should get the council set come this September.

Inside DetroitJune 26th, 2021*Time: 5:20am - 5:45am*Length: 25 minutes

Guest: Kandia Milton, Head of the Black Slate and Attorney Anthony Adams, Mayoral Candidate. Mr. Milton spoke on why the Black Slate did not endorse the current mayor, and that this is a big change for the black slate has always endorsed the sitting mayoral candidate. Listeners called in to give their opinion on the topic.

Inside DetroitJune 26th, 2021*Time: 5:45am – 6:00am*Length: 15 minutes

Mildred Gaddis rejoins to continue the conversation and interview, of the black slate not endorsing Mike Duggan. Caller John asks the question what will Anthony Adams do more for the city? Mr. Adams gave examples of how he has done work as a lawyer to help fight blight within neighborhoods, and bring back public spaces through legal work.

TOPIC: EDUCATIONInside Detroit*April 24th, 2021*Time: 5:00am - 5:20am*Length: 20 Minutes

Mildred Interviewed Mike Dotson, Regional provost at Wayne County Community College. They discussed the newly built Curtis L. Ivery Central Educational Complex Health and Wellness Center located near the Downtown Detroit Campus of the college. Dotson discussed the various programs and needs the center provides to students, staff, and the community.

Inside Detroit

May 29th, 2021

Time: 5:00am – 5:10am

Length: 10 minutes

Dr. Harvey Gerard, who is a provost at the Mary Ellen Stepple Center, joined the show to chat with Mildred. Looking to partner with universities within Michigan to bring a healthy guide. He also spoke about how Wayne County Community College District has changed to adjust to online learning. A new way to accommodate students and their different time schedules. Also, bring in better online education. She also stressed that students need to get vaccinated over this summer so fall classes are not interrupted for the next college season.

TOPIC: LOCAL NON-PROFIT ORGANIZATIONS

Inside Detroit

May 15th, 2021

Time: 5:20am – 5:40am

Length: 20 minutes

Interview with Latisha Johnson and Atty. Angela w. Calloway. The interview first started with Miss Johnson, where she spoke about her nonprofit Mecca Development Corporation and the work that she has done in the last 7 years for the city of Detroit. She is now partnering with Atty. Calloway who both share an interest in housing Justice for Detroiters. They spoke both about how money is being spent within the downtown areas of Detroit but Detroiters in the urban and neighborhoods have not seen much development. They are looking to bring change and better housing for the neighborhoods of Detroit.

Inside Detroit

May 15th, 2021

Time: 5:40am – 6:00am

Length: 20 minutes

Mildred Gaddis rejoined the show playing the song Happy by Pharrell Williams. Mildred Gaddis continued with the interview from the previous segment to allow attorney Calloway and Miss Johnson to continue. They gave their final thoughts and Miss Johnson explains how she's looking to work within the city to bring real change.

TOPIC: BUSINESS

Inside Detroit

June 19th, 2021

Time: 5:30am – 5:45am

Length: 15 minutes

Special Edition

Opened the new segment with guest: Attorney Christine McPhail-Stockdale, University of Detroit Mercy Law Graduate. She represents several Cannabis businesses and actively participates with the State Bar of Michigan/Medical Marijuana Section. She spoke also on how she is looking to bring more opportunities to legacy Detroiters and make sure that they can have the same opportunity in the marijuana business.

TOPIC: VOTING RIGHTS

Inside Detroit

June 26th, 2021

Time: 5:00am – 5:20am

Length: 20 minutes

Attorney Linda Barnard, and private practice attorney graduate of Wayne State University undergraduate and law schools. She spoke about the Voting Rights bill passed in Georgia, she stated that there is nothing racist with the bill however it is very questionable. She stated some of her beliefs on voting regulations and called out the fact that ballots being sent to anyone without a request can lead to more corruption.