REGULAR PROGRAMS THAT ADDRESS COMMUNITY ISSUES

FORUM FOR NONPROFITS: A 30-minute interview forum. Dynamic and cutting-edge, every week, The Forum for Non-Profits features one or more organizations worthy of philanthropic support--and encourages listeners to jump on their bandwagon. In addition, leading consultants give advice to help nonprofits succeed, and donors and other sources of funding explain how best to approach them for contributions. Airs every Sunday at 6:30am on WSBR and every Sunday at 7:30am on WWNN. Hosted by KAREN KRUMHOLTZ.

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENTS - These are 30 and 60 second live or pre-recorded announcements that are community service oriented. The issues addressed include both local and national concerns. Each announcement addresses various issues from non-profit/service oriented agencies - topics include humanitarian aid, volunteering, consumer protection, education, family issues, health issues, and a variety of local and national charities.

BROWARD MEALS ON WHEELS

About one in every nine seniors in Broward County goes without meals every day. Luckily, one organization, Broward Meals on Wheels, is helping more than 10,000 of those seniors each year. Listen as Executive Director Mark Adler explains how for the past 30 years this organization has provided home-delivered meals and much more, including nutrition education, in-home assessments, grocery shopping, community-based dining, even food for pets. Jennifer Wescott, the director of community relations, talks about the many ways people can get involved, from donating online, being a corporate sponsor or volunteering to help deliver meals, do grocery shopping, or stuff envelopes. All donations and volunteer efforts are welcome. For more information, call 954-731-8770 or visit www.bmow.org.

KIDS SAFE FOUNDATION

KidSafe Foundation

KidSafe believes every child has the right to be safe, have a voice and know how to access help. Every adult needs to be educated on how to be the first line of defense in a child's safety. KidSafe takes an integrated approach to child safety by providing prevention education to children, parents and professionals working with children. We spoke with Sally Berenzweig, MEd, MA, co-founder of the organization and co-author of the award winning books My Body is Special and Belongs to Me! and Jack Teaches His Friends to be KidSafe! If you would like to know more about this organization or need help with prevention of child sexual abuse, bullying or Internet dangers, call 855-844-7233 or check www.KidSafeFoundation.org

UNICORN VILLAGE ACADEMY

Dr. Herm Fisbine, headmaster and Lori Cabrera board president of Unicorn Village Academy talk about their start of the art school specializing in helping students with Nero diversity autism spectrum disorders, learning disabilities, attention deficit disorders and more. The Unicorn model creates three separate but linked “modular” programs within the school; each designed to emphasize acquisition of specific skills and integrate them into manageable, measureable outcomes. Students have the option to move freely within these programs based on their needs, interests, and mutually established goals. Each program includes an array of community experiences to aid students in developing meaningful relevant skill-sets, and “real life” opportunities for success.
