KUNC, 91.5 – Greeley / Fort Collins, KRNC, 88.5 Steamboat Springs, 2nd QUARTER 2023 SUBMITTED 07/07/2023		PROGRAMS ISSUES LIST
DATE AIRED NAME OF PROGRAM		BROADCAST TIME DURATION DESCRIPTION
issue #1: Water issues in the west and the Colorado River basin. KUNC continually serves the audience Weld, Larimer, and Routte counties - as well as the Denver metro area - with two dedicated reporters focused on the Colorado River and water issues in the west. During the second quarter of 2023, we aired several segments that informed our audience about pressing water security topics.
6/8/2023	Morning Edition & All Things Considered	7:45am, 9:45am, 4:44pm	4 minutes	Earlier this month, three states that use water from the Colorado River agreed to USE LESS over the next three years. They were able to reach a deal thanks to an exceptionally wet winter. This story is part of orgoing coverage of the Colorado River, produced by KUNC and supported by the Walton Family Foundation.
	Morning Edition & All			This year, Lake Powell will get a big boost from melting snow. The nation's second-largest reservoir on the Colorado River needed the water. It was at a record low earlier this year. Before the spring rise, KUNC's Alex Hager up with a crew of adventurers to document River historic moments. This story is part of nogoling coverage of the Colorado River, produced by KUNC and supported or nogoling coverage of the Colorado River, produced by KUNC and supported the colorado River.
5/22/2023	Things Considered Morning Edition & All	7:45am, 9:45am, 4:44pm	4 minutes	by the Walton Family Foundation. Right now, high mountain snow is starting to melt. That water is filling stream and reservoirs that are part of the Colorado River system, a lifeline for tens of millions of people in the West. But some of that snow is disappearing before imets: KUNC's Alex Hager visited a team trying to find out how. This story is part of ongoing coverage of the water in the West, produced by KUNC'and
5/4/2023	Things Considered	7:45am, 9:45am, 4:44pm	4 minutes	supported by the Walton Family Foundation. Summit counties - as well as the Denver metro area - by broadcasting coverage
		r stationed at the capitol ser		e. during the recent second quarter, we broadcasted several stories about law ldsset	a during the legislative sessi	Saturday marked one year since the US Supreme Court overturned the constitutional right to an abortion. The ruling led to increased demand for
6/23/2023	Morning Edition & All Things Considered	7:45am, 9:45am, 4:44pm	3 minutes, 30 seconds	abortions in Colorado and historic steps from the state legislature to protect reproductive healthcare. KUNC's Lucas Brady Woods reported on the advocates pushing to further expand access.
	Morning Edition & All			It's been something of a mystery at the Colorado Capitol. Why does a bill that would deploy cameras to detect widdfires repeatedly fall? Year after year, the bill appears to have lots of support, but as each session ends, the bill languishes and dies quietly, KUNC investigative reporter Scott Frant tells us, there appears to be an explanation –a secret survey that Democrats have been using to prioritize legislation may have killed the push to buy wildfire
5/25/2023	Things Considered	7:45am, 9:45am, 4:44pm	3 minutes, 30 seconds	cameras. Farm equipment these days is state-of-the-art. And when it breaks down - it's not always easy to get fixed. Part of the problem is farmers and ranchers are
5/10/2023	Morning Edition & All Things Considered	7:45am, 9:45am, 4:44pm	3 minutes, 30 seconds	actually prohibited by most manufacturers from doing their own repairs. KUNC's Lucas Brady Woods reported on a new Colorado law intends to chang that.
	Morning Edition & All			Democrats at the state Capitol are continuing to cast secret ballots to help decide the fate of bills – despite allegations their private surveys violate the open meetings law. As KUNC investigative reporter Scott Fran reported shumakers are downplaying the significance of their so-called quadratic voting system as they privately use it to rank bills competing for millions of dollars. Scott Frant is an investigative reporter with KUNC's Korthern Colorado Centre
4/13/2023	Things Considered	7:45am, 9:45am, 4:44pm	3 minutes, 45 seconds	for Investigative Journalism.
marginalized commu	nities. These communities a	re consistantly black, indeng	enous, latin-x, asian, and o	Route counties - as well as the Denver metro area through our reporting on the non-white next. KUNR regularly its stotes from these communities. An organization is examining water quality and access on tribal lands. KUNC's fermar Vanderfielde took a trip to the border of Arkizona and New Mexico to see how. This story was supported by The Water Desk, an initiative from the University of Colorado Boulder's Center for Environmental Journalism. KUNC! a member of the Mountain West News Sureau - a regional reporting in
4/5/2023	Things Considered Morning Edition & All	7:45am, 9:45am, 4:44pm	3 minutes, 50 seconds	collaboration. The University of Colorado Boulder's in king for a newly created position that will serve as a lision between the campus and Native American communities across Colorado. The new associate vice chancellor of Native American filer will help address issues that arise between the two groups. Andrew Cowell is the the Director for the Center for Native American and Indigenous Students.
5/19/2023	Things Considered Morning Edition & All	3:44pm, 5:44pm	4 minutes, 20 seconds	CU Boulder. He discussed the new position with KUNC'S Mike Lyle. Indigenous ar is often viewed as a shistorical work of the past. But their art an their people are present today. One Cochiti Pueblo artist showcases that concept in his latest exhibit. KUNC'S Emma VandenEinde took us inside to witness his futuristic work. KUNC is a member of the Mountain West News
5/23/2023	Things Considered Morning Edition & All	7:45am, 9:45am, 4:44pm	4 minuntes	Bureau – a regional reporting collaboration. A group of contemporary African textle and fashion designers recently showcased their work in Denver. The "Let Me Show You Different: African Designers Runway Show" will Estauter 5 designers from African countries including Kenya and South Africa and Burundi. Koya Nyangi is a style curator and international sales representative for African fashion brands and
6/2/2023	Things Considered	3:44pm, 5:44pm	4 minutes, 25 seconds	designers. She discussed the show with KUNC's Mike Lyle. Artists, musicians and vendors came from across the region to participate in a teners of Weld, Larimer, Bou	ılder, and Summit counties	Indigenous Comic Con festshat hits past weekend. They reflected on Indigenon history and celebrated their culture. KUNG's Emma VandenEinde reported of the festshat KUNG's a member of the Mountain West News Bureau – regional reporting collaboration. reinced significant weather patterns. Hail storms, flash flooding, and tornados as well as the Denver metro area, and the Eastern pains - by informing people when severe weather occu	irs, and the aftermath of th	ose weather occurances. The Front Range is bracing for some severe weather this afternoon that may
6/29/2023	All Things Considered	3:30pm, 4:30pm, 5:30pm	45 seconds	produce heavy rain, strong winds, and tennis-ball size hall. The National Weather Service is also varning of a possible tomas On Meterologist Brano. Rodrigues says hall is going to be one of the biggest threats. The severe weather will impact much of the 1-25 Corridor, stretching from Denver into the Fort Collins area. Rodrigues said storms should wrap up by 9pm tonight. A tornado touched down in the south Denver suburbs setted ay afternoon (Thursday), it barreled through a six-and-a-half-mile stretch of Highlands. Banch where it juropoted trees, broked over frome said needed of trool.
6/23/2023	Morning Edition & All Things Considered	6am, 7am, 9am & 4pm, 5pm	30 seconds	shingles. The National Weather Service classified the tornado as an E-F-1, which can bring wind gusts of up to 110 miles an hour. No injuries were reported. A severe thunderstorm pelted concertgoers at Red Rocks Amphitheater with
	Marsine Falking 9 All			hall (Wednesday). Some said the hall was golf hall sized or as large as an appli in a post on Twitter, West Metro Fire said between 80 and 90 people were injured. Paul Schitter is a Meteorologist with the National Weather Service Boulder. He says hall gets bigger the longer it's in a super cell storm. About a dozen tornados also touched down on Wednesday afternoon, mainly in Washington and Logan counties. Severe thunderstorms are again forceast for
6/22/2023	Morning Edition & All Things Considered	4pm, 5pm, 6pm	45 seconds	THIS afternoon, although Schlatter says they should be developing earlier and wrapping up by 9pm. A Red Flag warning is in effect for parts of Boulder County and the Denver
4/3/2023	All Things Considered	3:30pm, 4:30pm, 5:30pm	30 seconds	metro until 8pm tonight The National Weather Service says wind gusts up 55 miles per-hour are possible Critical fire weather conditions have persisted for the last few days Front Range firefighters continue to mop u several fires in the region A small fire west of Fort Collins in Poudre Canyon mostly contained
	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
	I	I		 