Callens talks about how Christian Family Services can help support mothers in their decision process. Callens discusses why putting a child up for adoption may not be the best choice in all cases, and how they can help the mother with parental training and prepare them through a difficult time. Callens explains that children that are adopted, are placed in Christian homes, giving the child an opportunity to succeed spiritually and understand the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Callens describes his personal connection to adoptive families and is humbled that God has made him available to help women with unexpected pregnancies preserve that life and give it a bright, Christian filled future.
