

2023
CHILDREN'S TV PROGRAMMING COMMERCIAL CERTIFICATION

WUSA ("Station") certifies that all the below-listed 12-and-under children's TV programs were carried during 2023 on its primary and multicast channels and were formatted so that, as a matter of standard policy and practice, the programs would not exceed the "commercial matter" time limits of §73.670(a) of the FCC's rules:

Weekdays: 12 minutes in any clock-hour children's programming (6 minutes in a stand-alone half-hour program);

Weekends: 10.5 minutes in any clock-hour children's programming (5.25 minutes in a stand-alone half-hour program).

Programming promos, with certain exceptions, count as commercial matter.

Network Information for Responding to FCC Form 2100, Schedule H

“CBS DREAM TEAM” (Jan. 7-Sept. 30, 2023) / “CBS WKND” (Effective Oct. 7, 2023 UFN) Calendar Year January through December 2023

Each of these children's programs listed below was designed with the significant purpose of serving the educational and informational needs of children.

As is the current practice, there is, and in the upcoming year will be, no End Station Break for local sale at the conclusion of each program. However, five seconds for Local Station Identification will continue to be provided at the conclusion of each program.

Since the Target Audience of the “CBS DREAM TEAM” / “CBS WKND” is 13-16 year-old viewers, the commercial limits established by Congress in the children’s television act of 1990 of no more than ten-and-a-half minutes of commercial time per weekend clock hour is NOT applicable. Each of these programs will be formatted with 7:30 of commercials. Please keep this in mind should your lineup include other children’s programming as part of this schedule.

In order to comply with the FCC's on-air identification requirement for educational children's programs, a 10-second graphic appears on the full screen (E/I Educational + Informational) at the beginning of each of the six children's programs with a voiceover “when you see this symbol (E/I) you know you’re watching a show that is educational and informational, CBS WKND weekend mornings on CBS.” It is then immediately followed by a static logo which appears in the lower left corner for the duration of the programs. The logo will feature the letters “E/I”.

The CBS Television Network provides information identifying the six children’s core programs it supplies to stations affiliated with the Network to the following publishers of program guides nationwide via AP Express to major listing services: TV Guide, TV Data Technologies, Tribune Media Services, and Kidsnet Media Guide and News.

LUCKY DOG: REUNIONS WITH BRANDON McMILLAN

Animal trainer Brandon McMillan returns to the Lucky Dog Ranch, where he'll revisit some of the most heartwarming and illuminating rescue stories from his seven years as host. He'll "watch along" with the audience as he re-lives his experience rescuing and training shelter dogs, and pairing them with a forever family with a need in their own lives. At the end of each episode, Brandon will reunite with the family to find out how the addition of a cuddly canine has made a lasting impact on each member. Lucky Dog Reunions teaches valuable life lessons like taking responsibility, creating good habits, and developing a sense of appreciation for life and animals. Each episode celebrates second chances - for both pets and people - as the dogs are rescued from euthanasia, trained, and placed within a loving home. Along the way, viewers learn valuable pet training techniques as well as the history of each breed - and how to use that lineage to set each dog on the path to success. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.
