

Quarterly Issues/Program List
For the Period of April 1, 2023 - June 30, 2023
ASHEVILLE
WUNF-TV 33

Submitted by Diana DeVeagh-Geiss

July 6, 2023

This report documents the significant issues ascertained within the 12 present transmitter areas of The University of North Carolina Center for Public Media for the period of April, May, and June 2023.

BACKGROUND

The Federal Communications Commission (FCC) requires that each licensee ascertains the significant issues within its community each quarter in a manner it deems most effective.

The information extracted is used for research and planning by the program and production departments of The Center. Provided in this report is a list of programs broadcast which represent the most significant treatment of the enumerated community issues.

Quarterly reports are maintained and filed with each licensee's public file.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA CENTER FOR PUBLIC MEDIA

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST
FOR THE PERIOD APRIL, MAY, JUNE 2023
STATEWIDE LIST OF MOST SIGNIFICANT ISSUES

EDUCATION: Artificial Intelligence, College and University rankings, Teacher shortage, Graduation season, Nonpartisan civic service of school boards

ECONOMY/BUSINESS: Inflation, Interest rates, U.S. debt ceiling, Nintendo game sales, Coinbase lawsuit, State Farm policy changes for homeowners, Student loan debt

LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT: Former President Trump Indictment and arrest, 2024 Presidential bids, Sudan

ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE: Climate change, Heat waves, Declining life expectancy, Lyme Disease, Abortion rights, Maternal Mortality Increase, Long COVID, injectable cancer drugs, Roe v. Wade, Orca boat damage, Ocean piracy and overfishing, Tornadoes, Bering Sea crab disappearance, Alzheimer's Disease

MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT: Plea bargains in 98% of Federal cases, Mass shootings/Gun violence, January 6th Attack Trials, Pride month, Campus racial injustice, Rise of violent rhetoric

ISSUE	DATE	TIME	LENGTH	PROGRAM	FORMAT	DESCRIPTION
APRIL
EDUCATION:	Tuesdays	7PM	26 Minutes	Side By Side with Nido Qubein	Public Affairs	Side by Side with Nido Qubein provides an introspective, in-depth discussion between Nido Qubein and a variety of influential guests.
ECONOMY/BUSINESS	Thursdays	5PM	30 Minutes	Carolina Business Review	Public Affairs	Weekly program about doing business in the Carolinas.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT	Fridays	7PM	30 Minutes	Black Issues Forum	Public Affairs	Deborah Holt Noel welcomes thought leaders, policy influencers, and journalists for diverse conversations that inform and engage viewers on the issues impacting North Carolina's Black communities today.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	Fridays	8:30PM	30 Minutes	State Lines	Public Affairs	A vibrant roundtable discussion with experienced political analysts, journalists and elected officials to examine North Carolina's top legislative stories and current events.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	Saturdays	5PM	30 Minutes	Carolina Outdoor Journal	Lifestyle/Feature	This perennial favorite how-to program travels the length of North Carolina, from rugged mountain terrain to coastal Gulf Stream waters in order to reel in the tastiest fish, track the best game and explore the state's vast natural beauty.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	4/1/2023	5PM	7 Minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	A massive line of severe weather wreaked havoc from the Deep South to the Great Lakes. An estimated 85 million people were in the path of the storms, and at least 21 people were killed. We hear from residents affected by the tornadoes, and John Yang speaks with atmospheric scientist Walker Ashley for more on the storms.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	4/1/2023	5PM	6 Minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	This week, the FDA approved nationwide over-the-counter sales of Narcan, the brand name version of the generic overdose reversal drug naloxone. Overdoses are the leading cause of accidental death in the U.S., driven in large part by opioid use. Dr. Andrew Kolodny, co-director of opioid policy research at the Heller School at Brandeis University, joins John Yang to discuss.

MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENF	4/1/2023	5PM	6 Minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	Ninety-eight percent of criminal cases in federal courts end with a plea bargain instead of going to trial. It's a practice that some say prioritizes efficiency over fairness. And with a shortage of both prosecutors and public defenders on the state level, plea deals are frequently used in places like Wisconsin. PBS Wisconsin's Nathan Denzin reports.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	4/2/2023	5PM	7 Minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	Federal data shows that health insurance companies denied more than 49 millions claims in 2021, but customers appealed less than 0.2 percent of them. Investigative journalists at ProPublica found that the insurance company Cigna is using an automated system to assess, and often deny, claims in bulk. Reporter Maya Miller joins Ali Rogin to discuss the findings.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENF	4/2/2023	5PM	8 Minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	Donald Trump is set to appear in a New York court this week to face the first criminal charges ever brought against a former president. At the same time, recent polling shows him leading the 2024 Republican presidential field. Former U.S. attorney and FBI official Chuck Rosenberg and Republican strategist Sarah Longwell join John Yang to discuss these topics for our Weekend Briefing.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	4/4/2023	6PM	6 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Finland became the 31st member of the NATO alliance on Tuesday, less than one year after it petitioned to join. Finland's accession doubles NATO's border with Russia and concludes a historic shift following 75 years of non-alignment. Nick Schifrin discussed the move with Heather Conley of the German Marshall Fund of the United States.

LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	4/4/2023	6PM	6 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Protests are ongoing in Tennessee after six people were killed in a school shooting in Nashville last week. More than a thousand students in the area walked out of their schools Monday and marched to the state Capitol to call for stronger gun laws. Now, Republicans are moving to expel three Democratic lawmakers who joined protests. Stephanie Sy spoke with one of them, State Rep. Gloria Johnson.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LLEGAL/LAW ENF	4/4/2023	6PM	6 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Former President Donald Trump was arrested and arraigned in a Manhattan courtroom on Monday, becoming the first U.S. president to face criminal charges. He pleaded not guilty to 34 counts of falsifying business records relating to hush money payments during the 2016 campaign. With the indictment unsealed Tuesday, we learned new details about the case and the former president's defense.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LLEGAL/LAW ENF	4/4/2023	6PM	8 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Former President Trump's not-guilty plea has set off what is expected to be a lengthy legal battle in Manhattan. Former federal prosecutor Chuck Rosenberg and former Manhattan Assistant District Attorney Marc Agnifilo joined Amna Nawaz to discuss the legal issues connected to the arraignment.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	4/5/2023	6PM	6 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Over the past few months, artificial intelligence has managed to create award-winning art, pass the bar exam and even diagnose illnesses better than some doctors. But as AI grows more sophisticated and popular, the voices warning against the potential dangers are growing louder. Geoff Bennett discussed the concerns with Seth Dorbin of the Responsible AI Institute.

ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	4/5/2023	6PM	9 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The FDA recently made it easier for people to obtain a powerful overdose-reversing medicine. Narcan previously required a prescription, but soon will be sold over the counter. Communities are already using it to fight overdose deaths. With support from the Pulitzer Center and in collaboration with the Global Health Reporting Center, William Brangham reports from New York for our series, Rural RX.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	4/5/2023	6PM	10 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Following his arrest and arraignment, former President Donald Trump returned to his Florida estate where he delivered a defiant and embittered address. While his indictment has been written into the history books, the political impact is an account still being written. Geoff Bennett discussed that with two GOP analysts, Whit Avres and Doug Heve.
EDUCATION:	4/6/2023	6PM	7 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Research shows the vast majority of K-12 parents believe their kids are performing at their grade level when they're not. To better understand the parent perception gap and how to close it, Amna Nawaz spoke with two former secretaries of education, Arne Duncan, who was secretary during the Obama administration, and Margaret Spellings who served under President George W. Bush.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	4/6/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Private jets, lavish trips and access to exclusive clubs were provided to Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas for more than two decades by a Republican megadonor, according to reporting by ProPublica. The trips were valued in the hundreds of thousands of dollars and went unreported on Thomas' financial disclosures. Geoff Bennett spoke with Josh Kaplan, one of the reporters who broke the story.

LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	4/6/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The Biden White House put out its long-awaited report on the widely criticized fall of Afghanistan. U.S. forces hastily withdrew in August 2021 as the Taliban re-captured the country. Amid the chaos, a suicide bombing killed 13 U.S. troops and more than 100 Afghans. The 12-page summary blamed the Trump administration, bad intelligence and the Afghans themselves. Laura Barrón-López reports.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	4/7/2023	6PM	10 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	It was a chaotic scene at the Tennessee Capitol Thursday as two Black members of the state House of Representatives were kicked out of office by the Republican supermajority. In response, Vice President Harris traveled to Nashville to meet with Democratic lawmakers, including the ones who were expelled. Laura Barrón-López spoke with Tennessee's House Democratic Caucus chair about the expulsions.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	4/7/2023	6PM	9 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Over half of Iraq's 42 million people are under the age of 25 and grew up in the wake of the U.S. invasion. But while this young population could be a driver for growth, many find themselves shut out of Iraq's oil-rich economy and its political process. Simona Foltyn spoke with three young Iraqis disappointed by the promises of democratic rule.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENF	4/7/2023	6PM	7 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	A rule change the Biden administration is proposing could make broad bans on competition by transgender athletes illegal, but would still allow restrictions in some cases. The proposal would affect Title IX, which prohibits sex-based discrimination by schools that receive government funding. William Brangham spoke with LGBTQ+ reporter Orion Rummel of The 19th News about the restrictions.

ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	4/8/2023	5PM	5 Minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	After a barrage of severe winter storms, 12 of California's 17 major reservoirs have been replenished — a silver lining for a state suffering from brutal drought. But officials also warn that when the enormous snowpack atop the Sierra Nevada starts to melt, the runoff could cause a new threat to those below. Los Angeles Times reporter Hayley Smith joins William Brangham to discuss.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	4/8/2023	5PM	8 Minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	Recent reporting by ProPublica revealed that Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas took undisclosed, lavish trips funded by a Republican megadonor. This comes as the country waits to see how the justices will rule in a number of contentious cases. Supreme Court analyst Joan Biskupic joins John Yang to discuss the court's conservative shift, and how that could shape the country's future.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	4/9/2023	5PM	8 Minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	In 2022, the Biden administration announced it would pay to help several Native American tribes move away from coastlines and rivers, where waters are rising due to climate change. Special correspondent Megan Thompson reports on an earlier relocation effort in Louisiana that ran into some unexpected complications.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	4/9/2023	5PM	6 Minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	New CDC data shows a surge of sexually transmitted infections in the U.S. in recent years. The most significant rise is in syphilis and congenital syphilis, which occurs when mothers pass on the infection to their babies during pregnancy. Dr. Irene Stafford, an OB/GYN and maternal fetal medicine specialist at UT Health Houston, joins Ali Rogin to discuss what can be done to address this.

ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	4/10/2023	6PM	6 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Dueling decisions from federal judges over the FDA's approval of mifepristone, one of the main medications used to provide abortions, mark the latest flash point in the fight over reproductive rights. The two decisions are the most significant abortion rulings since the U.S. Supreme Court overturned Roe v. Wade last summer. Mary Ziegler joined Geoff Bennett to discuss the legal path ahead.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	4/10/2023	6PM	8 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	North Carolina is now the 40th state to expand Medicaid under the Affordable Care Act. The bipartisan expansion, signed into law last month, comes after a decade of Republican resistance in the state. As John Yang reports, it will be life-changing for some uninsured North Carolinians and their providers, but not all.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	4/10/2023	6PM	9 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	It's being described as the most serious intelligence leak in years. Dozens of pages of classified material are spreading online, after being originally posted on a gaming platform. U.S. officials are investigating the origin of the leaks and the impact of information meant to be secret about the war in Ukraine, Russian forces and even U.S. spying on American allies. Nick Schifrin reports.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	4/10/2023	6PM	8 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	NPR's Tamara Keith and Amy Walter of the Cook Political Report with Amy Walter return and join Geoff Bennett to discuss the latest political news, including three big issues that will play a big role in the 2024 campaign.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	4/11/2023	6PM	8 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Before the pandemic, people had to re-enroll for Medicaid every year by submitting paperwork. That was suspended when COVID hit, but starting this month, Medicaid recipients have to make sure they are enrolled again. Not everyone will receive a notice or complete the applications on time and many will fall through the cracks due to changing addresses or language barriers. William Brangham reports.

LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	4/11/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In our news wrap Tuesday, Manhattan District Attorney Alvin Bragg sued Republican Rep. Jim Jordan over a House Judiciary Committee inquiry into the Trump indictment, witnesses say Myanmar government airstrikes killed as many as 100 people including dozens of children and President Biden arrived in Northern Ireland to mark 25 years since the Good Friday Agreement.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENF	4/11/2023	6PM	8 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	A politically charged murder conviction in Texas is testing Gov. Greg Abbott's pardon power. At the governor's request, a state board is looking into whether to recommend a pardon for a man convicted of killing an armed protester during the 2020 George Floyd protests. Laura Barrón-López discussed the case and political implications with Jeff Sharlet.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENF	4/11/2023	6PM	7 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Louisville released police body camera video of the shooting that left five people dead and eight others injured. Police said the gunman legally bought the AR-15 style rifle used in the attack just six days ago. Democrats representing Louisville called for tougher gun safety laws saying state and federal officials have not done enough. Geoff Bennett discussed the latest with Rep. Morgan McGarvey.
ECONOMY/BUSINESS:	4/12/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Inflation cooled last month to its lowest level in nearly two years. The price of groceries dropped three-tenths of a percent in March, marking the first decline in that index since September 2020. But core inflation, which does not include food and gas prices, remains high. Geoff Bennett discussed the new report with Gita Gopinath of the International Monetary Fund.

ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	4/12/2023	6PM	6 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The Biden administration rolled out its most aggressive effort yet to combat climate change with tougher emissions limits for cars and trucks. But several challenges remain, including the cost of electric cars, the batteries and how to charge them on the road. William Brangham reports on the proposed regulations.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	4/12/2023	6PM	9 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The pandemic highlighted the power of local health departments and brought backlash from people who said these authorities were overreaching. In the wake of the turmoil, many were overhauled, leaving an outsized impact on rural parts of the country. With support from the Pulitzer Center and in collaboration with the Global Health Reporting Center, Dr. Alok Patel reports for our series. Rural RX.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	4/12/2023	6PM	6 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The recent dueling court rulings on the use of mifepristone ignited a new debate over women's health. The Biden administration has asked an appeals court to overturn the controversial Texas ruling to suspend the FDA's approval of the abortion pill. Jennifer Klein, the director of the White House Gender Policy Council, joined Amna Nawaz to discuss the legal battle.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	4/12/2023	6PM	7 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	A week after the arraignment of Donald Trump, we're learning new details about a covert effort by Russian and Chinese-backed actors aimed at sowing division among the American electorate and increasing distrust in institutions. Laura Barrón-López discussed the findings with Colin Clarke of the Soufan Center And Zach Schwitzky of the data science firm Limbik.

LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	4/12/2023	6PM	9 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	President Biden is on a four-day tour of Northern Ireland and the Republic of Ireland marking the 25th anniversary of the Good Friday Agreement. The pact ended decades of conflict in Ireland known as The Troubles. But the president's visit comes at a moment of political and economic uncertainty. Nick Schifrin discussed the trip with Duncan Morrow of Ulster University in Belfast.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	4/13/2023	6PM	6 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	For the first time, the UN's International Court of Justice has been tasked with determining what countries are obligated to do to fight climate change. William Brangham reports on the young people who were instrumental in bringing this issue to the world's top court.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	4/13/2023	6PM	6 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas is facing questions again about his failure to disclose transactions with a Republican megadonor. A new report by ProPublica details a 2014 real estate deal in which Harlan Crow's company paid $133,000 to Thomas and his family to buy the home where the justice's mother lived. Geoff Bennett discussed the report with Gabe Roth of Fix the Court.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENF	4/13/2023	6PM	9 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	As America continues to grapple with mass shootings, another trend has authorities on high alert. Across the country, school districts and universities are experiencing an increase in false reports of school shootings and campus threats. It's called swatting and Stephanie Sy discussed the problem with Amy Klinger of the Educator's School Safety Network.

MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENF	4/13/2023	6PM	6 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The man suspected of leaking highly-classified military documents that revealed details about U.S. spying and intelligence about the war in Ukraine has been arrested. Jack Teixeira, a 21-year-old Massachusetts Air National Guard member, was taken into custody by heavily armed FBI agents. He's accused of posting hundreds of classified documents online. Nick Schifrin reports.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENF	4/14/2023	6PM	10 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The U.S. government charged the Air National Guardsman accused of leaking classified information with two counts under the Espionage Act. Jack Teixeira made his first appearance in a Boston court Friday as President Biden directed the military and intelligence community to limit the distribution of sensitive information. Nick Schifrin reports.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	4/15/2023	5PM	5 Minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	Life expectancy for the average American is now 76 years, hitting the lowest point in nearly two decades after declining for the second year in a row. Dr. Steven Woolf, director emeritus of the Virginia Commonwealth University Center on Society and Health, joins John Yang to discuss the factors behind this trend.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	4/16/2023	5PM	8 Minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	According to scientists, 80 percent of the Earth's living species are unknown to humans. Even as more are identified, more are disappearing — and sometimes, we don't know what's being lost until it's too late. This Earth Day, we begin our series "Saving Species" with a look at the world of plants.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	4/16/2023	5PM	6 Minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	Migrants seeking asylum at the U.S.-Mexico border are told to use a mobile app to book an appointment, but the app has been plagued by errors since the Biden administration rolled it out in January. Wall Street Journal immigration reporter Michelle Hackman joins Ali Rogin to discuss the new system and how it fits in with the Title 42 policy at the border.

LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	4/17/2023	6PM	7 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Russia took another step in its crackdown against dissent Monday. In a Moscow courtroom, the noted opposition figure Vladimir Kara-Murza was sentenced to 25 years in prison for denouncing Vladimir Putin's war in Ukraine. He now joins hundreds of other Russian opposition leaders and activists behind bars. Stephanie Sy discussed the price of speaking up in Russia with Alina Polyakova.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENF	4/17/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	A spate of weekend gun violence left more American families grieving. In Dadeville, Alabama, a gunman killed four people at a birthday party and in Louisville, Kentucky, two people died when someone fired into a crowd at a public park. Anger also grew over a recent shooting in Kansas City, Missouri where a Black teen was shot after showing up at the wrong house.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENF	4/17/2023	6PM	9 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	After more than three decades behind bars for a murder he says he did not commit, a man released on house arrest during the pandemic is now going back to prison. But many questions remain about whether Florida is locking up an innocent man for the rest of his life. William Brangham reports for our series, Searching for Justice.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENF	4/17/2023	6PM	7 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The Republican-led House Judiciary Committee headed to New York for a hearing honing in on Manhattan District Attorney Alvin Bragg. He's the prosecutor who brought criminal charges against former President Trump. The hearing was billed as a look at Bragg's record on prosecuting crime, but turned into a back and forth between protesters, witnesses and members of Congress. Lisa Desjardins reports.

ECONOMY/BUSINESS:	4/18/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Tuesday is Tax Day, but we're still waiting to see how long the country has before it defaults on its own bills, more than $31 trillion worth. Congressional Correspondent Lisa Desjardins has the latest on how lawmakers plan on avoiding a global financial crisis of their own making.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	4/18/2023	6PM	8 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Three years after the start of the pandemic, some 16 million Americans have long COVID, meaning their symptoms continue well after the initial infection. An estimated 4 million people say long COVID has significantly reduced their ability to carry out day-to-day activities. For many of them, that includes their jobs. Economics Correspondent Paul Solman has the story.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENF	4/18/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Evan Gershkovich's lawyer says he's in a mood to fight after his appearance in a Moscow courtroom where he faced farcical espionage charges lodged by Russian authorities. The U.S. says the Wall Street Journal reporter is "wrongfully detained" and President Biden has made his release a priority. Wall Street Journal publisher and Dow Jones CEO Almar Latour discussed the latest with Amna Nawaz.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENF	4/18/2023	6PM	8 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Two stories of homeowners shooting someone for going to the wrong address have stunned many around the country. Both suspects in these cases are now charged, but that's hardly easing any of the anger and the grief. Communities Correspondent Gabrielle Hayes reports on the community's reaction to the Ralph Yarl shooting, and Amna Nawaz discusses the case with Kansas City Mayor Quinton Lucas.

ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	4/19/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The government approved a second dose of the COVID booster for the elderly and immunocompromised. The bivalent booster shot targets the omicron variants. Seniors 65 years and older can now receive the updated booster four months after their first dose. Amna Nawaz spoke with Dr. Jeremy Faust to understand why this is a significant move in the fight against COVID.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENF	4/19/2023	6PM	7 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In our news wrap Wednesday, three people were charged with murder after the birthday party shooting that killed four young people in Alabama, a Kansas City man pleaded not guilty in the shooting of Ralph Yarl, the army and paramilitary rebels in Sudan announced a second attempt at a ceasefire but fighting persisted and the UN says India's population is on track to become the world's largest.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENF	4/19/2023	6PM	7 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The family of Tyre Nichols, who died in January after being severely beaten by five Memphis police officers, has filed a $550 million federal lawsuit against the city of Memphis over his death. The five officers charged with second-degree murder have pleaded not guilty. Geoff Bennett discussed the latest with Nichols' mother RowVaughn Wells and attorney Ben Crump.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENF	4/19/2023	6PM	13 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Wednesday marks 28 years since the bombing of the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building in Oklahoma City, which remains the largest act of home-grown terrorism in U.S. history. Judy Woodruff reports on how that act of political violence is remembered now, and on the shockwaves of extremism still being felt today. It's part of her series, America at a Crossroads.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	4/19/2023	7:30PM	26 Minutes	State of Change Part 2	Documentary	Carbon is the building block of all life on Earth, but excess carbon dioxide in the atmosphere is changing the planet's climate. Learn how natural solutions are being used across North Carolina to help pull excess carbon out of the air and store it underground.

ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	4/20/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	New research shows that the massive ice sheets at the top and bottom of our planet are shrinking much faster than previously thought. The international study compiled satellite measurements over time and depict what one researcher described as a "devastating trajectory." William Brangham discussed the implications of the analysis with Twila Moon of the National Snow and Ice Data Center .
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	4/20/2023	6PM	8 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Over the past two decades, life expectancy in rural areas has declined. One major reason is the prevalence of diabetes. With support from the Pulitzer Center and in collaboration with the Global Health Reporting Center, special correspondent Dr. Alok Patel reports from the Rio Grande Valley in Texas for our series Rural RX.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	4/20/2023	6PM	6 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Thursday, Elon Musk's SpaceX launched the first test flight of Starship, its 400-foot rocket meant to one day send people to the moon, and eventually, Mars. The most powerful rocket ever built blasted off from its launch base in Texas but exploded roughly four minutes into its flight. Musk says the next launch attempt will be in a few months. Science Correspondent Miles O'Brien reports.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	4/20/2023	6PM	8 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	India will overtake China as the world's most populous nation by the middle of this year, according to United Nations data. Alongside its population of 1.4 billion, India's geopolitical and economic footprint is also growing. But as Fred de Sam Lazaro reports, fears are mounting that it's all coming at the cost of the liberal democracy the country has enjoyed since independence in 1947.

LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	4/21/2023	6PM	13 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	New York Times columnist David Brooks and Washington Post associate editor Jonathan Capehart join Geoff Bennett to discuss the week in politics, including the state of abortion rights in America, Biden's chances for reelection as he prepares to announce his 2024 run and if DeSantis will attempt to challenge Trump for the GOP nomination.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENF	4/21/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Calls for the resignation of county officials in southeastern Oklahoma continued after they were recorded making racist remarks, including explicit comments about murder and invoking violence harking back to the Jim Crow era. Stephanie Sy discussed the backlash with Deon Osborne. A warning: this story includes a snippet of the recording with graphic depictions of violence.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	4/22/2023	5PM	7 Minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	As technology grows more sophisticated, so does the potential for deception. Last month, images went viral that purported to show police arresting Donald Trump and the former president in an orange prisoner's jumpsuit — but they were fakes. Jack Stubbs, vice president of intelligence at Graphika, a research firm that studies online disinformation, joins William Brangham to discuss.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	4/22/2023	5PM	6 Minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	New research shows that climate change is causing the Earth's ice sheets to shrink much faster than previously thought — the annual rate of sea ice loss has more than tripled since the 1990s. In the Arctic, melting ice is raising geopolitical tensions, kickstarting a global race for potentially priceless minerals, oil deposits and shipping routes. Lisa Desjardins reports.

MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENF	4/22/2023	5PM	6 Minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	In the space of one week in April, four young, unarmed Americans were shot over simple, everyday mistakes: pulling into the wrong driveway, ringing the wrong doorbell, getting into the wrong car. These cases have reignited the debate over self-defense and what justifies the use of deadly force. Robert Spitzer, professor emeritus of political science at SUNY Cortland, joins John Yang to discuss.
EDUCATION:	4/23/2023	5PM	5 Minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	Montana has faced a staggering teacher shortage for years, especially schools in rural areas and on Native American reservations. The pandemic brought new urgency and new ideas for how to ease the crisis, including a new program that hopes to inspire the next generation of teachers. Stan Parker reports for Montana PBS.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	4/23/2023	5PM	7 Minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	Allergy season got a jump start this year and has been more intense all over the country, especially in the North and Southeast. Ali Rogin speaks with Theresa Crimmins, director of the National Phenology Network, and Dr. Stanley Fineman, an allergist and editor-in-chief of Allergy Watch, to learn why the season started so early and is so bad, and what people can do to ease their symptoms.
EDUCATION:	4/24/2023	6PM	6 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Battles have erupted at schools, school boards and library meetings across the country as parents, lawmakers and advocacy groups are debating books. The American Library Association documented more than 1,200 demands to censor books and resources last year, the highest since it started collecting data 20 years ago. Jeffrey Brown discussed more with the group's director, Deborah Caldwell-Stone.

LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	4/24/2023	6PM	9 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Fox News abruptly announced Monday that its top-rated primetime host Tucker Carlson is leaving the network. The move comes less than a week after Fox agreed to pay $787.5 million to settle a legal battle with Dominion Voting Systems over accusations that its hosts, including Carlson, aired false claims about the 2020 presidential election. Geoff Bennett discussed Fox's decision with Brian Stelter.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENF	4/24/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In our news wrap Monday, closing arguments began in the Jan. 6 trial of the far-right Proud Boys leaders accused of seditious conspiracy, President Biden welcomed a trio of Tennessee lawmakers who gained national notoriety for demanding stiffer gun laws and Russia claimed a Ukrainian sea drone tried to attack a naval base in Crimea which the Russians illegally annexed in 2014.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENF	4/24/2023	6PM	11 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The U.S. says it is facilitating the evacuation of civilians from Sudan where more than 400 people have died since fighting started 10 days ago. Drones and other military assets are flying over the route north to Egypt, but the U.S. does not have any military personnel on the ground since evacuating embassy staff to Djibouti over the weekend. Nick Schifrin discussed more with Sen. Chris Coons.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	4/25/2023	6PM	8 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Why the United States fared so badly during the pandemic, especially when compared to other similar nations, was supposed to be one of the many questions examined by a national COVID-19 commission. But that commission was never launched. William Brangham spoke with the co-author of a new report that hopes to start that reckoning.

LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	4/25/2023	6PM	11 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	President Joe Biden formally announced that he is running for a second term. In Tuesday's announcement, Biden echoed familiar themes from his 2020 campaign. He said the country is still in a battle for the soul of the nation and that democracy is at stake in 2024. Laura Barrón-López reports from the White House and we get insight from two Democratic strategists, Jim Messina and Celinda Lake.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENF	4/25/2023	6PM	8 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	A civil trial is underway over a magazine columnist's allegation that former President Donald Trump raped her more than two decades ago. Political correspondent Lisa Desjardins discussed the lawsuit and accusations with Washington Post reporter Shayna Jacobs. A warning: This story contains details of sexual violence allegations.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	4/26/2023	6PM	7 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Nearly two-thirds of areas with a shortage of primary healthcare professionals are in rural communities. With support from the Pulitzer Center and in collaboration with the Global Health Reporting Center, William Brangham visited a hospital and a medical school in West Virginia doing their part to train the next generation of rural doctors. It's for our series Rural RX.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	4/26/2023	6PM	8 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	President Biden welcomed the president of South Korea to the White House Wednesday for a state visit. They signed a wide-ranging declaration that enhances U.S.-Korean planning for the use of nuclear weapons in response to a North Korean attack. Nick Schifrin discussed the practical impact of the declaration with Bruce Klingner of the Heritage Foundation.

MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENF	4/26/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Jurors are deliberating in the case against Proud Boys members who stormed the capitol on Jan. 6. They face multiple criminal counts, including seditious conspiracy, a rarely-used, Civil War-era charge for plotting to overthrow the government. John Yang discussed the trial and what it says about who is responsible for the violence that day with Carrie Johnson of NPR.
ECONOMY/BUSINESS:	4/27/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The newest GDP data suggests the U.S. economy is slowing down. Consumers are still spending and companies are still hiring and investing, but it's not at the same pace as last year. At the same time, the economy continues to defy predictions of an imminent recession. Economics correspondent Paul Solman reports on what the numbers tell us and how that squares with how Americans feel about it all.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	4/27/2023	6PM	6 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	A blue checkmark on Twitter used to be a way for users to verify the authenticity of an account. Recently, CEO Elon Musk said people must pay $8 a month for a Twitter Blue subscription to keep the mark. As a result, journalists, politicians, celebrities and government organizations who did not pay have been stripped of their verified status. Amna Nawaz discussed the latest with Juliette Kayyem.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENF	4/27/2023	6PM	7 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The battle between the Walt Disney Company and Florida Gov. Ron DeSantis has eclipsed politics and is now playing out in the courts. In a lawsuit, Disney accuses DeSantis and his allies overseeing the company's special taxing district of violating the company's constitutional rights. Geoff Bennett discussed the case with Arian Campo-Flores, who is covering the story for The Wall Street Journal.

ECONOMY/BUSINESS:	4/28/2023	6PM	6 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The Federal Reserve issued a stinging report on the historic collapse of Silicon Valley Bank. The analysis notes that while the collapse was a “textbook case of mismanagement” by bank officers, the Fed said its regulators missed clear danger signs as the bank ballooned in size and acted much too slowly on the problems they did identify. William Brangham discussed the report with Jeanna Smialek.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	4/28/2023	6PM	9 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	New York Times columnist David Brooks and Washington Post associate editor Jonathan Capehart join Amna Nawaz to discuss the week in politics, including the potential 2024 rematch between President Biden and former President Trump and the impact of Tucker Carlson's ouster from Fox News.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENF	4/28/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	States with Republican-led legislatures have become ground zero for the political battles over reproductive rights and transgender care. Along with bills to ban or restrict abortions, The Washington Post reports that more than 400 anti-trans bills have been filed in the first four months of this year. Geoff Bennett discussed the latest with NewsHour Communities Correspondent Gabrielle Haves.

ISSUE	DATE	TIME	LENGTH	PROGRAM	FORMAT	DESCRIPTION
MAY
EDUCATION:	Tuesdays	7PM	26 Minutes	Side By Side with Nido Qubein	Public Affairs	Side by Side with Nido Qubein provides an introspective, in-depth discussion between Nido Qubein and a variety of influential guests.
ECONOMY/BUSINESS	Thursdays	5PM	30 Minutes	Carolina Business Review	Public Affairs	Weekly program about doing business in the Carolinas.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LLEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT	Fridays	7PM	30 Minutes	Black Issues Forum	Public Affairs	Deborah Holt Noel welcomes thought leaders, policy influencers, and journalists for diverse conversations that inform and engage viewers on the issues impacting North Carolina's Black communities today.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	Fridays	8:30PM	30 Minutes	State Lines	Public Affairs	A vibrant roundtable discussion with experienced political analysts, journalists and elected officials to examine North Carolina's top legislative stories and current events.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	Saturdays	5PM	30 Minutes	Carolina Outdoor Journal	Lifestyle/ Feature	This perennial favorite how-to program travels the length of North Carolina, from rugged mountain terrain to coastal Gulf Stream waters in order to reel in the tastiest fish, track the best game and explore the state's vast natural beauty.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LLEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT:	5/1/2023	6PM	6 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In Manhattan, the cross-examination of E. Jean Carroll continued Monday. She has accused former President Trump of raping her in a department store in the mid-90s and is suing him. The trial is closely watched, not just because of the high-profile defendant, but for what it could mean for legal accountability in cases of sexual violence. Amna Nawaz discussed the case with Laura Beth Nielsen .
ECONOMY/BUSINESS:	5/1/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The third major bank failure of the year has shaken the U.S. banking system. Federal regulators announced Monday that they seized First Republic Bank and accepted JPMorgan Chase's bid to buy the failed bank's deposits and most of its assets. Amna Nawaz discussed the developments with Roben Farzad of Full Disclosure.

MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT:	5/1/2023	6PM	7 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	This weekend's mass shooting in Texas is yet another stark reminder of the pervasiveness of guns in American society. There are hundreds of millions of firearms in circulation in the U.S. A new book, "Merchants of the Right: Gun Sellers and the Crisis of American Democracy," explores some of the forces behind that saturation and the political culture that goes with it. William Branham reports.
EDUCATION:	5/2/2023	6PM	6 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	As we enter another graduation season, historically Black colleges and universities are working hard to increase the number of students who walk across their stages in the years to come. One program is doing that by focusing on reenrollment and giving students access to one-on-one educational support. Hari Sreenivasan reports from Atlanta for our series, Rethinking College.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT:	5/2/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In our news wrap Tuesday, the final criminal case in the death of George Floyd ended with a former Minneapolis police officer convicted, law enforcement agencies across Texas spent a fourth day hunting for a gunman accused of killing five neighbors near Houston and the exodus from Sudan intensified with long lines at ports and border crossings as rival factions kept fighting.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	5/2/2023	6PM	8 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Lawmakers on Capitol Hill are spotlighting recent ethics concerns surrounding the highest court in the land. In a Judiciary Committee hearing Tuesday, senators debated how to address concerns involving Supreme Court justices, including whether they should apply ethical guidelines to the court themselves. Amna Nawaz discussed the hearing with University of Virginia law professor Amanda Frost.

ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	5/2/2023	6PM	8 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The U.S. Surgeon General declared a new public health epidemic in America, loneliness. A new report finds loneliness can have profound effects on mental health as well as heart disease, stroke and dementia. It tracks a decline in social connections and links all this to billions of dollars in health care costs. Surgeon General Dr. Vivek Murthy joined Amna Nawaz to discuss the risks.
ECONOMY/BUSINESS:	5/2/2023	6PM	8 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The White House renewed its call for Congress to lift the debt ceiling without conditions as the nation could soon default on its debt. Since January, the government has deployed 'extraordinary measures' to pay its bills, but that could run out soon, according to the Treasury Secretary. White House Correspondent Laura Barrón-López and Congressional Correspondent Lisa Desjardins have the latest.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT:	5/3/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In our news wrap Wednesday, a gunman opened fire inside a medical building in Atlanta killing one and injuring four others, police in Texas arrested two people for helping a mass shooter elude a manhunt after he killed 5 neighbors, a 13-year-old boy killed eight of his fellow students and a guard at a school in Serbia and authorities in Rwanda say at least 129 people are dead in a flood disaster.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT:	5/3/2023	6PM	10 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The fact that our country is divided isn't new. In many respects, it can be traced back to the founding of a nation on the promise of freedom while dependent on slavery, a time when many couldn't participate in the democracy being created. Judy Woodruff examines how that founding contradiction has evolved and what it means for our challenges today. It's part of her series, America at a Crossroads.

ECONOMY/BUSINESS:	5/3/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The Federal Reserve raised interest rates again, its tenth consecutive hike, this time by a quarter of a point. But Chairman Jay Powell also suggested the Fed may pause future hikes if the economy continues to cool. He cited the state of the job market as to why he's optimistic the rate increases won't tip the economy into a recession. Amna Nawaz discussed the latest with David Wessel.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT:	5/4/2023	6PM	6 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	A jury convicted members of the far-right extremist group the Proud Boys for their involvement in the Jan. 6 attack on the U.S. Capitol. A federal jury found four Proud Boys guilty of seditious conspiracy, including the group's former leader, Enrique Tarrio, and members Ethan Nordean, Joseph Biggs and Zachary Rehl. Amna Nawaz discussed the case with Carrie Johnson of NPR.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT:	5/4/2023	6PM	9 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	America's epidemic of gun violence gets plenty of coverage, but we don't focus nearly enough on the victims living with the life-long impacts of that violence. We have the story of what happens when one of those survivors meets the person who pulled the trigger. William Brangham tells how an unlikely reunion recently came about in Florida. It's part of our series, Searching for Justice.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	5/4/2023	6PM	7 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	As India takes on the title of the world's most populous nation, a question that looms thanks to climate change is how to feed 1.4 billion people. Small-scale farming families say crops are withering under record-high temperatures, cycles of drought and extreme rainfall and pest infestations. In partnership with the Pulitzer Center, Fred de Sam Lazaro reports for his series, Agents for Change.

EDUCATION:	5/4/2023	6PM	6 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Eighth-grade U.S. history and civics test scores dropped last year to their lowest levels ever recorded by the Department of Education. These are just the latest declines among subjects tested since the pandemic. John Yang has a look at what's behind the numbers.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	5/4/2023	6PM	7 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The use of commercially developed spyware that allows governments to hack a phone and steal its data is booming. Earlier this year, the Biden administration banned federal agencies from using commercial spyware that poses risks to human rights and national security. But as Nick Schifrin reports, spyware is thriving and has already targeted journalists, dissidents and politicians around the world.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	5/5/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	For the fourth time in a month, a report raises questions about Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas and his rich friends. This time it's money going to Ginni Thomas, the justice's wife. According to the Washington Post, Leonard Leo directed pollster Kellyanne Conway to give Ginni Thomas "another $25k" and bill it to a nonprofit that Leo advised. John Yang discussed the report with Emma Brown.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	5/5/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In our news wrap Friday, the World Health Organization declared an end to COVID-19 as a global emergency, Dr. Rochelle Walensky is stepping down as director of the CDC after two years, the head of Russia's Wagner Group mercenaries threatened to pull out of Bakhmut saying they have been starved of ammunition and the two warring sides in Sudan sent envoys to Saudi Arabia for ceasefire talks.

ECONOMY/BUSINESS:	5/5/2023	6PM	6 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The U.S. labor market is again showing signs of resilience and unexpected strength amid other economic clouds. The latest report found job growth higher than expected in April with 253,000 new jobs spread throughout many sectors of the economy. Paul Solman looks at the newest data and how that squares with the growth of the gig economy.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	5/5/2023	6PM	8 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	This has been a week where concerns over the rapidly expanding use of artificial intelligence resonated loudly in Washington and around the world. Geoffrey Hinton, one of the leading voices in the field of AI, announced he was quitting Google over his worries about what AI could eventually lead to if unchecked. Hinton discussed those concerns with Geoff Bennett.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	5/7/2023	5PM	6 Minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	It's been a week of ups and downs for both advocates and opponents of laws that raise the minimum age for purchasing firearms. Lisa Geller, director of state affairs at the Johns Hopkins Center for Gun Violence Solutions, joins John Yang to discuss the impact this type of legislation is having in states that already have age restrictions in place.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT:	5/8/2023	6PM	8 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	AR-15s, like the one used to kill eight people at a shopping mall in Allen, Texas, have become more popular around the country. The rifles have been involved in ten of the country's 17 deadliest mass shootings. The Washington Post spent months examining the rise of the AR-15 in America and the politics and culture surrounding it. Geoff Bennett discussed that series with reporter Todd Frankel.

MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT:	5/8/2023	6PM	6 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The jury has the case in E. Jean Carroll's civil trial against former President Trump. After two weeks of testimony from Carroll and a handful of other witnesses, lawyers for both sides presented closing arguments Monday as jurors weigh whether or not to hold Trump liable for rape and defamation. Lisa Desjardins discussed the case with Andrea Bernstein of NPR.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT:	5/9/2023	6PM	8 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	A New York jury found former President Trump liable for sexually abusing columnist E. Jean Carroll in the mid-90s and later defaming her. The nine jurors deliberated for a few hours before delivering their verdict and awarding Carroll $5 million. Trump called the verdict "a disgrace" and his lawyers said they will appeal. Amna Nawaz discussed the case with Andrea Bernstein and Laura Beth Nielsen.
EDUCATION:	5/9/2023	6PM	8 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Community colleges can be a catapult to economic mobility, dramatically increasing earnings and almost all are open admission. But most students that start degrees do not finish on time, and many don't finish at all. Hari Sreenivasan reports on a program spreading nationally to increase community college graduation rates. It's part of our series, Rethinking College.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT:	5/9/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Investigators released new and disturbing details about the racist and paranoid beliefs of the shooter who took eight lives when he went on a rampage at a shopping mall in Allen, Texas. Authorities confirmed his neo-Nazi affiliations but were cautious to say if he was targeting anyone specifically for their race, age or ethnicity. Amna Nawaz discussed the latest with Heidi Beirich.

ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	5/9/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	New guidelines say women should begin getting regular mammograms every two years starting at age 40 if they are at average risk of breast cancer. That's a significant change from previous guidance by the U.S. Preventive Services Task Force that said women could start routine mammograms at 50. Stephanie Sy reports.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	5/9/2023	6PM	8 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The full faith and credit of the United States is on the line as President Biden meets with Congressional leaders in an attempt to avoid an unprecedented default. Republicans demand cuts in exchange for lifting the debt ceiling while Democrats maintain any discussion of future spending must be divorced from paying prior debts. Laura Barrón-López and Lisa Desjardins report.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	5/11/2023	6PM	8 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	A debate over how journalists should cover former President Trump is underway as he seeks another term. It comes after an unruly CNN town hall where Trump spouted lies about the 2020 election, mocked the woman he was found liable of sexually abusing and dodged policy questions all before a supportive audience in New Hampshire. James Fallows and Mark Lukasiewicz joined Geoff Bennett to discuss.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	5/11/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The Environmental Protection Agency laid out its latest move to cut the greenhouse gasses that are driving climate change, unveiling a sweeping new set of guidelines for the power plants that generate America's electricity. William Brangham reports.

ECONOMY/BUSINESS:	5/11/2023	6PM	6 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The pandemic-era rule that served two presidents as a border policy Band-Aid is expiring as Congress is up against another ticking clock with the debt limit impasse threatening the national and global economies. Texas Republican Rep. Chip Roy is an influential voice in the House Freedom Caucus and the debt debate. He joined Amna Nawaz to discuss the latest on the negotiations.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	5/12/2023	6PM	8 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	After more than three years, the COVID-19 public health emergency has ended. Thanks to vaccines, testing and treatment, we are in a much better place and deaths are at their lowest level since March 2020. But concerns over how the federal government will respond to new variants or even a serious new epidemic remain. William Brangham discussed that with Dr. Jennifer Nuzzo.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT:	5/12/2023	6PM	7 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Daniel Penny, the Marine veteran who put Jordan Neely in a fatal chokehold on a New York City subway was charged with second-degree manslaughter. Penny surrendered to police Friday and was released on bond. The killing touched off protests in New York over policing and a lack of support from the city for those who are homeless and mentally ill. Geoff Bennett discussed more with Errol Louis.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	5/13/2023	5PM	6 Minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	It's been an exciting time for astronomers, astrophysicists and other scientists who specialize in deciphering the far reaches of space. Since the beginning of May, observations of some never-before-seen celestial events have been reported in science journals. Science correspondent Miles O'Brien joins John Yang to explain the latest findings.

ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	5/13/2023	5PM	6 Minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	Parkinson's disease is the second-most common neurodegenerative disorder in the U.S., with nearly 90,000 Americans diagnosed each year. But its symptoms show up differently in women and men, and women are often misdiagnosed or diagnosed late. Dr. Sonia Mathur, a Parkinson's disease advocate and family physician, joins Ali Rogin to discuss.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	5/14/2023	5PM	6 Minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	AI is finding its place in all sorts of scientific fields, and health care is no exception. Programs are learning to answer patients' medical questions and diagnose illnesses, but there are problems to be worked out. Dr. Isaac Kohane, editor-in-chief of the New England Journal of Medicine AI and chair of Harvard's department of biomedical informatics, joins John Yang to discuss.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	5/14/2023	5PM	8 Minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	In Louisiana, coastal erosion is claiming an average amount of land equivalent to a football field every hour. Some Native American communities in the southeastern part of the state are the hardest hit. Special correspondent Megan Thompson brings us the story of three Indigenous communities fighting to save their tribal lands.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT:	5/15/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Throughout the pandemic, Asian Americans have endured racist and physical threats. As our country celebrates Asian American and Pacific Islander Heritage Month, new research is calling attention to this rise in anti-Asian sentiment and the toll it's taking on Asian American communities. Amna Navaz discussed this with Norman Chen, CEO of the Asian American Foundation.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	5/15/2023	6PM	7 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	With so much partisan division in our country, "joy" is not a word typically associated with politics, but it is for Minnesota Sen. Amy Klobuchar. She sat down with Geoff Bennett to discuss her new book, "The Joy of Politics."

EDUCATION:	5/16/2023	6PM	7 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Apprenticeships are common in fields like welding, plumbing and carpentry, but until recently, the federal government didn't recognize teaching apprenticeships. Educators are now hoping that new federal funding, combined with experience from college programs, will open the floodgates to a new class of qualified, diverse teachers. Stephanie Sy reports from Dallas for our series, Rethinking College.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	5/16/2023	6PM	10 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Artificial intelligence was a focus on Capitol Hill Tuesday. Many believe AI could revolutionize, and perhaps upend, considerable aspects of our lives. At a Senate hearing, some said AI could be as momentous as the industrial revolution and others warned it's akin to developing the atomic bomb. William Brangham discussed that with Gary Marcus, who was one of those who testified before the Senate.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	5/16/2023	6PM	8 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Republican and Democratic leaders from both the House and the Senate met with President Biden in the Oval Office Tuesday to discuss the debt ceiling. Shortly after, Biden and Speaker of the House Kevin McCarthy both acknowledged the two parties are at a stalemate on some key issues. Congressional Correspondent Lisa Desjardins and White House Correspondent Laura Barrón-López report.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT:	5/17/2023	6PM	6 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	A pair of new studies from the Journal of the American Medical Association found that the toll of racial disparities in health for Black Americans is even starker than we knew. From 1999 to 2020, Black Americans experienced 1.63 million excess deaths compared to white Americans and COVID widened the gap even further. Amna Nawaz discussed the significance of this data with Dr. Lisa Cooper.

ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	5/17/2023	6PM	9 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Access to medication abortion faced a critical test Wednesday in the conservative Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals. A three-judge panel of Republican appointees heard arguments about whether the abortion pill mifepristone, first approved by the FDA more than 20 years ago, should remain on the market. Sarah Varney and Steve Vladeck joined Geoff Bennett to discuss the legal battle
EDUCATION:	5/17/2023	6PM	14 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	As the country has been reckoning with questions of race, justice and equality, many state legislatures have passed laws restricting how American history, particularly around the issue of race, can be taught in schools. Judy Woodruff visited her native Tulsa, Oklahoma, to see how that city, amid its own reckoning, is navigating this moment. It's her latest installment of America at a Crossroads.
ECONOMY/BUSINESS:	5/18/2023	6PM	6 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Congressional and White House negotiators met again Thursday as they try to reach a deal on the debt ceiling. President Biden and Speaker McCarthy said they believe they can get an agreement next week. But fears of a default still loom since both sides remain divided on federal benefits and spending cuts. Economics Correspondent Paul Solman reports on what could happen in the case of a default.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	5/18/2023	6PM	8 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Montana became the first state to ban TikTok, citing fears that the app's Chinese-owned parent company could be providing Americans' data to the Chinese government. Montana could be a testing ground for other state and national leaders considering bans on the nation's fastest-growing app. Amna Nawaz discussed the latest with Bobby Allyn of NPR.

EDUCATION:	5/18/2023	6PM	8 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Since the start of the pandemic, homeschooling has been on the rise with an estimated 30% increase in enrollment since the beginning of the 2019 school year. While the total number of homeschooled families remains relatively modest, its rise has impacted traditional school enrollment and the way we view education. William Brangham reports.
ECONOMY/BUSINESS:	5/18/2023	6PM	7 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The actors union SAG-AFTRA has called for a strike authorization vote. If the strike is approved, actors could join the more than 11,000 Writers Guild members already on the picket line putting more pressure on studios and networks. The writers' strike halted production of movies, scripted series and late-night shows. Geoff Bennett discussed what's at stake with Sal Gentile and Jeane Phan Wong.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT:	5/19/2023	6PM	6 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	A new book explores the Supreme Court's growing influence on the country through emergency actions on cases not on the official docket. For the past decade or so, the court has gotten involved in cases concerning big issues, often setting new principles without hearing arguments and without explaining their reasoning. John Yang discussed that with Stephen Vladeck, writer of "Shadow Docket."
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	5/19/2023	6PM	8 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	An incurable optimist confronts an incurable disease. That's the focus of Michael J. Fox's new documentary "Still" just released on Apple TV+. In it, he tells the story of his career and his battle with Parkinson's disease in his own words. Amna Nawaz sat down with Fox to discuss the film and his life's work for our arts and culture series, CANVAS.

MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT:	5/20/2023	5PM	5 Minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	Louisiana police have a new way of using DNA to track down criminal suspects. But while police say it's a boon for solving cold cases, privacy advocates worry about the tool's growth and potential for improper use. Communities correspondent Roby Chavez joins Stephanie Sy to discuss his reporting.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	5/20/2023	5PM	6 Minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	More than 50 million Americans struggle with chronic sleep disorders, according to the American Academy of Sleep Medicine. New research suggests that being in tune with the body's circadian rhythm — a 24-hour internal clock that regulates sleep cycles — is crucial for our health. Dr. Jennifer Martin, president of the American Academy of Sleep Medicine, joins John Yang to discuss.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	5/21/2023	5PM	7 Minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	As plastic waste piles up in the world's landfills, sewer systems and oceans, the United Nations has set a goal to reduce plastic pollution by 80 percent by the year 2040. Inger Andersen, head of the United Nations Environment Programme, joins William Brangham to discuss the upcoming negotiations over how to realize this goal.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	5/21/2023	5PM	6 Minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	The U.S. maternal mortality rate continues to steadily increase, with 2021 being one of the worst years on record. According to the Centers for Disease Control, mental health conditions are among the leading causes of pregnancy-related death. Carole Johnson, head of the Health Resources and Services Administration, joins Ali Rogin to discuss what the federal government is doing to help.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	5/22/2023	6PM	10 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	More than half a million Americans are on waiting lists to receive long-term care in their homes. Most people on these lists have intellectual and developmental disabilities and sometimes need help with daily activities like cooking, maintaining a job or getting around town. Judy Woodruff spoke with families in Oklahoma waiting for the help they need. It's part of our series, Disability Reframed.

ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	5/22/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The Biden administration reached a landmark deal with several western states to stave off an immediate crisis with the Colorado River and the communities that are dependent on it. Under the agreement, California, Arizona and Nevada will take less water from the drought-stricken river in exchange for federal funding for cities, tribes and water districts. William Brangham reports.
ECONOMY/BUSINESS:	5/23/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	If you stacked up the full debt of the United States in hundred dollar bills, you could make not one, not two, but 13 piles of cash as tall as the Washington Monument. Lisa Desjardins takes a look at what the nation owes and has the latest on the debt ceiling negotiations on Capitol Hill.
EDUCATION:	5/23/2023	6PM	6 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In our series Rethinking College, we've put a particular emphasis on showing why it's crucial to build and diversify the teaching pipeline throughout a student's academic life and the impact it can have. Geoff Bennett reports on why developing and recruiting more Black teachers is especially important for Black students to make sure they go on and get their degrees.
ECONOMY/BUSINESS:	5/23/2023	6PM	6 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The impact of the U.S. defaulting on its debt would be felt by many Americans. It could include suspension of Social Security checks or a loss of food stamp benefits, to name just a few. Many economists argue it would be devastating to financial markets, tipping the country into a recession and creating global turmoil. William Brangham discussed that with Mark Zandi of Moody's Analytics.

MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT:	5/23/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	This week marks one year since the mass shooting at Robb Elementary School where a gunman killed 19 children and two teachers. In Uvalde, Texas, the community is still trying to make sense of what happened that day. Family members who lost loved ones are asking for accountability and action from their elected leaders as many questions have gone unanswered. Amna Nawaz reports.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT:	5/24/2023	6PM	7 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	One year ago, a gunman entered Robb Elementary School in Uvalde, Texas, and killed 21 people, including 19 children. Those families are still mourning their loss and survivors are living with trauma. Amna Nawaz spoke with Javier Cazares, whose nine-year-old daughter Jackie was killed that day. A year later, he says he's struggling to move on.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT:	5/24/2023	6PM	8 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The concern about guns, and the violence done with them, is growing in this country. But Republicans and Democrats have long had very different views about what can be done. Former Republican Congressman Will Hurd is one of the few in his party calling for meaningful gun reform. Amna Nawaz spoke with him in Uvalde.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	5/24/2023	6PM	9 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The presidential race has a new big-name candidate as Florida Gov. Ron DeSantis officially announced his run Wednesday. The Republican is a headline machine, shaping national fights over COVID policies, education and immigration. But he faces an uphill climb against former ally Donald Trump. Lisa Desjardins discussed the race with former Rep. Carlos Curbelo, who served in Congress with DeSantis.

MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT:	5/25/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	An investigation by the Marshall Project and the New York Times sheds light on an alarming culture of abuse inside New York state prisons. A review of officer disciplinary records found hundreds of incidents of abuse and mistreatment, and a widespread failure to hold guards accountable. Geoff Bennett discussed the report with Alysia Santo of the Marshall Project.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	5/25/2023	6PM	6 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Ever since Elon Musk bought Twitter, he's been clear that he sees his platform as a place for free speech, especially as a space for conservative voices, who he feels have been silenced too often. That was part of the backdrop when Florida Gov. Ron DeSantis launched his presidential campaign on Twitter Spaces. Geoff Bennett discussed Musk's plans and vision for Twitter with Philip Bump.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT:	5/25/2023	6PM	7 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	George Floyd's murder at the hands of police in Minneapolis three years ago led to a widespread push for police reform and racial justice. Special correspondent Fred de Sam Lazaro sat down with the new police chief in Minneapolis to talk about the challenges of the past few years and the department's future
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	5/25/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The Supreme Court has again weakened the authority of the Environmental Protection Agency. The case involved the EPA blocking an Idaho couple from building a house near a lake on their property, saying the construction would pollute water protected by the Clean Water Act. William Brangham discussed the case with Coral Davenport.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	5/25/2023	6PM	6 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	With the U.S. potentially just one week away from defaulting on its debts, members of Congress are leaving town for the Memorial Day break without a deal. The White House and House Republicans are continuing to negotiate. Lisa Desjardins reports on the latest talks.

LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	5/26/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Bribery, dereliction of duty, obstruction of justice. Those are just some of the allegations against Texas Attorney General Ken Paxton after a months-long investigation led by members of his own party. The Republican has faced years of scandal but now he faces 20 articles of impeachment in the final days of the legislative session. Ali Rogin discussed the latest with Sergio Martínez-Beltrán .
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	5/26/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Memorial Day weekend is here which means many Americans will be spending more time in the sun. Experts are using the holiday as a moment to remind people about preventing sunburns and, in more severe cases, skin cancer. Stephanie Sy spoke with Dr. Adewole Adamson for advice on staying safe in the sun.
ECONOMY/BUSINESS:	5/26/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Ten days now stand between the U.S. and a catastrophic default on debt. Treasury Secretary Janet Yellen's new estimate moves the so-called "X-date" back to June 5. Even if lawmakers were to reach a deal Friday night, they still may not be able to get it through Congress before the country fails to pay its bills on time. Geoff Bennett discussed more with Leigh Ann Caldwell.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	5/27/2023	5PM	8 Minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	For many immigrants, a mastery of everyday English doesn't mean they feel comfortable in all settings, like doctors' offices. That's where medical interpreters play a crucial role — but access to these highly skilled professionals isn't guaranteed for many Asian American and Pacific Islander communities. Ali Rogin reports.

LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	5/27/2023	5PM	7 Minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	The White House and Congressional Republicans have reached an agreement in principle to raise the debt ceiling and limit new spending. The deal will avert a potentially calamitous federal default if Congress passes it by June 5. Congressional correspondent Lisa Desjardins and NPR's senior political editor Domenico Montanaro join John Yang to discuss the latest.
EDUCATION:	5/29/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	After the murder of George Floyd, school districts across the country reconsidered the presence of police in public schools. But with the threat of school shootings three years later, many are opting to reverse course, bringing police and school resource officers back on campus. Stephanie Sy discussed that with Franci Crepeau-Hobson.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT:	5/29/2023	6PM	6 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	More than a dozen GOP-led states have passed bans with limits ranging from healthcare to sports participation, while Democratic-controlled states have sought to shore up protections for LGBTQ+ rights. Geoff Bennett discussed the efforts with NewsHour Communities correspondents Gabrielle Hays in Missouri, Adam Kemp in Oklahoma and Frances Kai-Hwa Wang in Michigan.
ECONOMY/BUSINESS:	5/29/2023	6PM	11 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	President Biden and House Speaker Kevin McCarthy have a deal to avoid defaulting on the country's debt, but there's still a threat of economic catastrophe if they can't sell it to Congress. Lisa Desjardins reports on the bill and the chances of it passing.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE:	5/30/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Former First Lady Rosalynn Carter has been diagnosed with dementia. That news comes about three months after it was announced her husband, former President Jimmy Carter, was moving into hospice care. Caregiving has been a major focus of Mrs. Carter's life and work. William Brangham looks at that legacy and the impact dementia has on millions of families.

EDUCATION:	5/30/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In the coming weeks, the U.S. Supreme Court is expected to issue its ruling on the use of race in college admissions. The case is focusing attention on other practices used in admissions that may need to change, including the children of alumni who often have preference and are often white and affluent. Geoff Bennett discussed legacy applicants with Evan Mandery for our series, Rethinking College.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	5/30/2023	6PM	6 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	More than two dozen House Republicans say they will not back the debt limit deal, saying Speaker McCarthy made too many concessions to the White House during negotiations. One of them is Rep. Scott Perry of Pennsylvania, chair of the House Freedom Caucus. He joined Amna Nawaz to discuss his opposition
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	5/30/2023	6PM	6 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The White House is urging House Democrats to support the debt deal ahead of Wednesday's expected vote. But a handful of members have yet to decide if they'll back it. Others are raising concerns over some provisions, including new work requirements for food stamp recipients. One of those Democrats is Rep. Debbie Dingell of Michigan. She discussed her concerns with Geoff Bennett.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT:	5/31/2023	6PM	11 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Over the past few years, this country has seen a dramatic rise in partisan animosity with dangerous implications for the health of our democracy. Judy Woodruff profiles some of the work being done to understand what's driving that trend and what might be done to reverse it. It's part of her series, America at a Crossroads.

MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LLEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT:	5/31/2023	6PM	9 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The national attention on acts of police brutality often overlooks one group of victims, Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders. That's because data show that, as a whole, they experience low rates of fatal police violence. But new research shows the risks they face are much higher. Ali Rogin reports from Antioch, California, for our series, Race Matters. A warning: some images may be disturbing.
ECONOMY/BUSINESS:	5/31/2023	6PM	5 Minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The U.S. House is set to vote on the debt ceiling deal Wednesday night after Republicans got some help from Democrats to pass a crucial hurdle. The vote follows weeks of heated negotiations and criticism from the right and the left. Lisa Desjardins has been tracking it all and reports from Capitol Hill.

ISSUE	DATE	TIME	LENGTH	PROGRAM	FORMAT	DESCRIPTION
JUNE
EDUCATION	Tuesdays	7PM	26 Minutes	Side By Side with Nido Qubein	Public Affairs	Side by Side with Nido Qubein provides an introspective, in-depth discussion between Nido Qubein and a variety of influential guests.
ECONOMY/BUSINESS	Thursdays	5PM	30 Minutes	Carolina Business Review	Public Affairs	Weekly program about doing business in the Carolinas.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LLEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT	Fridays	7PM	30 Minutes	Black Issues Forum	Public Affairs	Deborah Holt Noel welcomes thought leaders, policy influencers, and journalists for diverse conversations that inform and engage viewers on the issues impacting North Carolina's Black communities today.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	Fridays	8:30PM	30 Minutes	State Lines	Public Affairs	A vibrant roundtable discussion with experienced political analysts, journalists and elected officials to examine North Carolina's top legislative stories and current events.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	Saturdays	5PM	30 Minutes	Carolina Outdoor Journal	Lifestyle/Feature	This perennial favorite how-to program travels the length of North Carolina, from rugged mountain terrain to coastal Gulf Stream waters in order to reel in the tastiest fish, track the best game and explore the state's vast natural beauty.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/1/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The deal to raise the federal debt ceiling is moving toward final passage in Congress. Pressure is on the Senate after the House approved the bill Wednesday night. It has to happen before the government's borrowing authority maxes out on Monday. Congressional Correspondent Lisa Desjardins reports.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/1/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In our news wrap Thursday, the Senate voted to rescind President Biden's plan to cancel federal student loan debts for 43 million people, President Biden urged the nation's newest military officers to maintain American leadership in a world that's getting more unstable and Russia kept up its bombardment of Kyiv, inflicting the most casualties yet.

LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/1/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Federal prosecutors have a recording of former President Trump discussing a classified Pentagon document he kept after leaving office, multiple outlets report. In the 2021 recording, which the NewsHour has not independently verified, Trump says the document details a potential attack on Iran. Laura Barrón-López discussed the DOJ's investigation into the former president with Oona Hathaway.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/1/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	With the summer campaign season in full swing, the Republican presidential hopefuls are criss-crossing early-voting states hoping to stand out in a growing field of candidates. Amna Nawaz discussed the candidates and voters with Kay Henderson of Radio Iowa and Gavin Jackson of South Carolina ETV.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/1/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Imran Khan, Pakistan's ousted prime minister, has been caught in a political storm for the past several weeks. He was arrested by paramilitary forces on May 9 on corruption charges, then released when the Supreme Court stepped in. The arrest triggered protests by his supporters, followed by a massive crackdown on his party and thousands of arrests. Khan joined Geoff Bennett to discuss the turmoil.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/2/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In our news wrap Friday, the Biden administration says the U.S. will not build more nuclear weapons to counter Russia and will adhere to limits under the 2010 New START Treaty, former Vice President Mike Pence will not face criminal charges over classified material found at his home in Indiana and the U.S. Army's Fort Bragg shed its Confederate name Friday and is now Fort Liberty.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/2/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Crisis averted. That's the message from lawmakers as the bill to raise the debt ceiling makes its way to President Biden's desk. For the White House perspective on the deal, Amna Nawaz spoke with senior adviser Gene Sperling.

LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/2/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	After six years of work, the world's biggest island has finally unveiled a draft of its constitution. Greenland gained autonomy from Denmark in 1979, but the former colonial power still has control of the island's most important affairs. As special correspondent Malcom Brabant reports, Greenlanders are now seeking greater influence in the world, and a future free of Denmark.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/2/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Washington Post associate editor Jonathan Capehart and columnist Gary Abernathy join Amna Nawaz to discuss the week in politics, including the deal to raise the debt ceiling and the growing field of candidates challenging former President Trump for the 2024 Republican presidential nomination.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT	6/3/2023	5PM	30 minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	This Pride Month, as part of our "Hidden Histories" series, we look at the story of Lorraine Hansberry, the playwright and civil rights activist who gave new voice to countless marginalized artists who were women, Black and queer.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/3/2023	5PM	30 minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	The latest video game in Nintendo's critically acclaimed "Legend of Zelda" series has smashed sales records since its release several weeks ago, even boasting a Guinness world record for the fastest-selling Nintendo video game of all time. PBS NewsHour's Casey Kuhn joins Ali Rogin to discuss how the game's influence goes beyond its commercial success by challenging gender roles in the real world.
EDUCATION	6/4/2023	5PM	30 minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	This week, Columbia University said it would no longer provide information for the U.S. News and World Report's decades-old rankings list of colleges and universities. The high-profile dropout follows a parade of prestigious law schools and medical schools that said they'd no longer participate. Francie Diep, senior reporter for the Chronicle of Higher Education, joins John Yang to discuss.

ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/4/2023	5PM	30 minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	According to the Centers for Disease Control, as many as 476,000 people in the U.S. contract Lyme disease every year. Climate change and human encroachment into wilderness areas means ticks and the disease-causing bacteria they carry are becoming more common. Dr. Linden Hu, an immunology professor and co-director of the Lyme Disease Initiative at Tufts University, joins John Yang to discuss.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/4/2023	5PM	30 minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	When Tionna Haynes was a college student, she became a target of harassment on an anonymous messaging platform after organizing racial injustice protests on campus. She spoke with student reporter Bridgette Adu-Wadier about how the design of social media platforms can influence people's online behavior, as part of the PBS NewsHour Student Reporting Labs' series "Moments of Truth."
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/5/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In our news wrap Monday, climate change-driving CO2 reached a new record level in the Earth's atmosphere this spring according to new data. Survivors demanded answers in the train crash that killed 275 people in India and ground assaults in Ukraine may signal the beginning of a long-rumored counter offensive against Russian forces.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/5/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	While the frontrunner sat out, 2024 presidential hopefuls gathered in Iowa for an annual "Roast and Ride" event hosted by Sen. Joni Ernst. Laura Barrón-López reports on an increasingly crowded GOP presidential field.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/5/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	"Does Donald Trump show up?" That's the question looming over debates, campaign rallies and all of the traditional events leading up to the 2024 presidential election. A growing field of GOP contenders hope to wrestle the party away from the former President's firm grip. NPR's Tamara Keith and Amy Walter of the Cook Political Report with Amy Walter join Geoff Bennett to discuss.

LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/5/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	A national tool called the Electronic Registration Information Center helps states verify voter registrations, but a conspiracy theory spread online has inspired many state lawmakers to withdraw from the program. NPR's Miles Parks speaks with Amna Nawaz about the potential damage to election safety.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/5/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Dr. Joe Dituri, also known as Dr. Deep-Sea, has been living underwater for more than 75 days, breaking previous records and aiming to reach 100. Dr. Dituri fills his days with science and outreach in an effort to raise awareness about the value of the oceans. Nicole Ellis reports.
ECONOMY/BUSINESS	6/6/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The Securities and Exchange Commission announced it is suing Coinbase, the largest cryptocurrency platform in the U.S. It comes one day after the SEC announced its lawsuit against Binance, the world's largest cryptocurrency exchange, accusing it of lying to American regulators and investors about its operations. Stephanie Sy discussed the crisis in crypto with Roben Farzad of Full Disclosure.
EDUCATION	6/6/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The nation is in the midst of a teacher shortage, and at the end of another school year, burnout is causing many more teachers to call it quits. Micaela DeSimone is a 6th-grade English teacher in a charter school in Queens, New York. She shares her Brief But Spectacular take on teacher burnout and explains how the past few years have changed her views on what was once her dream job.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/6/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In our news wrap Tuesday, lawyers for Ukraine branded Russia a terrorist state before the International Court of Justice at The Hague, Atlanta's city council approved funding for a police and firefighter training center that sparked protests, Republican discontent with the debt ceiling deal spilled over at the U.S. Capitol and French painter Françoise Gilot died at a hospital in Manhattan.

LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/6/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The race to the Republican nomination for president is picking up as a growing number of candidates jump into an already crowded field. Former New Jersey Gov. Chris Christie filed his paperwork with the Federal Election Commission Tuesday, becoming the latest to launch his bid. Laura Barrón-López reports.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT	6/7/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Since the high-profile police killings of Philando Castile, Daunte Wright and Tyre Nichols, all of which began as traffic stops, calls for de-escalation by officers have been growing. A study analyzing footage in 577 stops of Black drivers found the first 45 words spoken by the officer could determine how that encounter ended. Amna Nawaz spoke with Tracey Meares to learn more.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/7/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Hundreds of wildfires continue to burn across Canada and many of them are out of control. The smoke is putting millions of Americans under air quality alerts, prompting warnings to stay indoors to avoid exposure to pollution. Stephanie Sy reports.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/7/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Floods are inundating vast swaths of southern Ukraine and rescue and salvage efforts are underway as the waters keep rising. Tuesday's dam collapse unleashed a humanitarian and ecological disaster in a nation already suffering from 16 months of war. Geoff Bennett discussed the ongoing rescue and relief efforts with Ewan Watson of the International Committee of the Red Cross.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/7/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Wednesday was one of the busiest days of the Republican presidential campaign as former Vice President Mike Pence and North Dakota Gov. Doug Burgum joined the race. Amna Nawaz discussed the nine GOP candidates now on the stump with Republican strategist Whit Ayres.

EDUCATION	6/8/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	It's graduation season and that means politicians, actors and even NewsHour journalists are imparting sage advice and encouragement to college graduates around the country. Here are some of the life lessons this year's commencement speakers passed on 2023 grads.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/8/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	A heavy pall of polluted air still blankets much of the eastern U.S and it may not dissipate for days as fires in Canada send vast curtains of smoke south. The bad air has officials warning that breathing it can be hazardous to your health. It's also scrambling schedules from airports to schools to the White House. Stephanie Sy reports.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/8/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The Supreme Court struck down Republican-drawn congressional districts in Alabama that civil rights activists say discriminated against Black voters. The ruling was a surprising departure from opinions over the past decade narrowing the scope of the Voting Rights Act. Geoff Bennett discussed the significance of the ruling with NewsHour Supreme Court analyst Marcia Coyle and David Wasserman.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT	6/9/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The Justice Department has formally accused former President Trump of grossly mishandling classified documents. The newly unsealed indictment runs to 37 counts in damning detail. They allege Trump showed almost casual indifference to protecting secret material, that he defied demands to return the records and that he asked aides to hide them. Lisa Desjardins reports.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT	6/9/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Following the federal indictment of former President Donald Trump, Geoff Bennett discussed the case with two experts in national security and handling classified documents, Oona Hathaway, a former special counsel at the Pentagon, and Jamil Jaffer, who served in the National Security Division at the Justice Department and as associate counsel to President George W. Bush.

ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/9/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In our news wrap Friday, evidence is growing that an explosion rocked a dam in southern Ukraine before it collapsed, smoky skies partially cleared in Washington, New York and much of the U.S. Eastern Seaboard, flooding swamped part of China's southwest after days of heavy rain and ethnic clashes in South Sudan killed more than 20 people at a U.N. camp that's taking in war refugees from Sudan.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT	6/9/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	As cities and states across the country consider various forms of reparations, California has led the way in returning land to the descendants of the dispossessed. This includes African Americans and Native Americans. But as Stephanie Sy reports, the wealth, the community and the opportunities lost are not easily recovered.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/9/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	New York Times columnist David Brooks and Washington Post associate editor and columnist Ruth Marcus join Geoff Bennett to discuss the historic federal indictment of former President Trump and the political fallout that's to come.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/10/2023	5PM	30 minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	As the climate crisis worsens, so does pressure on wildlife. The number of birds in North America has declined by 3 billion in the last 50 years. Brooke Bateman, director of climate science at the National Audubon Society, joins Ali Rogin to discuss why and what can be done to preserve and renew the populations of bird species at risk of extinction.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/10/2023	5PM	30 minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	More than three years into the pandemic, physicians and researchers are still struggling to understand long COVID. A recent study at Mass General Brigham has tried to take a step toward defining the condition affecting millions of people. PBS NewsHour digital health reporter Laura Santhanam joins John Yang to discuss the findings.

LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/10/2023	5PM	30 minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	In our news wrap Sunday, Trump said that not even a felony conviction would drive him out of the presidential race, Ukrainian forces say they've retaken a southeastern village from Russian occupiers, former First Minister Nicola Sturgeon was arrested and questioned as part of an investigation into Scotland's ruling party, and North Carolina's GOP convention voted to censure Sen. Thom Tillis.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/11/2023	5PM	30 minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	In our news wrap Saturday, Biden held the first big rally of his reelection campaign in Philadelphia, Secretary of State Blinken is visiting China for talks aimed at easing tensions, at least 41 people died in an attack on a school in Uganda, warring forces in Sudan agreed to a new 72-hour ceasefire, and Pennsylvania Gov. Shapiro said a damaged stretch of I-95 will reopen within two weeks.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/11/2023	5PM	30 minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	As hate groups edge toward the political mainstream, experts say they're employing new tactics and taking on new forms. In June, the Southern Poverty Law Center added 12 conservative "parents' rights" groups to its list of extremist and anti-government organizations. SPLC's Susan Corke joins John Yang to discuss why the center added organizations like Moms for Liberty to their list.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT	6/12/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Former President Donald Trump is in Miami ahead of an initial court appearance Tuesday on a raft of federal criminal charges. All of them relate to his handling of classified documents after he left office. Trump and supporters lambasted the indictment and the Justice Department and that has officials in Miami bracing for potential trouble at the federal courthouse. Lisa Desjardins reports.

MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT	6/12/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In the days after the latest indictment of former President Trump, violent rhetoric has been escalating in online forums and far-right militia groups. This, coupled with heated and combative messaging from Trump and his Republican allies, has extremism watchers on high alert. Amna Nawaz discussed that with Jeff Sharlet, writer of "The Undertow: Scenes from a Slow Civil War."
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/12/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	For years, State Farm has been the largest provider of homeowners insurance in California. But the company recently announced it will no longer sell new homeowners policies in the state, a move it said was driven by the high cost of construction and the growing risks from catastrophes like wildfires. William Brangham discussed what it means for homeowners and businesses with Michael Wara.
ECONOMY/BUSINESS	6/13/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In our news wrap Tuesday, the Labor Department reports retail prices were up four percent from a year ago which is the smallest increase in two years, police in Denver say a drug deal triggered a mass shooting as the city celebrated the Nuggets' first NBA championship and the U.S. military reports 22 American troops in Syria were injured Sunday in a helicopter crash.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/13/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Former President Donald Trump pleaded not guilty to 37 felony counts related to his alleged mishandling of classified information after leaving the White House. The Justice Department says Trump illegally retained secret documents, obstructed the government's efforts to retrieve them and made false statements on the matter. William Brangham was in the courtroom and reports on the proceedings.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/13/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Tuesday's arraignment was former President Trump's second this year, but his first on federal charges. Former federal prosecutor Renato Mariotti joined Amna Nawaz to analyze the case.

LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/13/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	House Speaker Kevin McCarthy seems to have quelled internal rebellion in the Republican conference this week, the result of a handful of hardline members' dissatisfaction with the debt ceiling compromise. Lisa Desjardins reports on what happened and what it means for the House GOP.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/13/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	With Donald Trump becoming the first ex-president ever indicted on federal criminal charges, the chorus of his Republican supporters asking "What about the Democrats?" has grown even louder. Laura Barrón-López reports on why the Department of Justice charged Trump for his handling of classified materials but not others like Hillary Clinton, Joe Biden and Mike Pence.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/13/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	More than 6,000 communities on the popular social networking forum Reddit have gone dark as moderators protest the company's decision to charge some third-party apps for the use of Reddit data. The move is controversial, with many of the apps having to shut down as a result, but the Reddit CEO doesn't appear to be backing down anytime soon. Geoff Bennett discussed the protest with Bobby Allyn.
ECONOMY/BUSINESS	6/14/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In just a matter of days, the Supreme Court is expected to rule on whether President Biden's student debt forgiveness can go forward. It comes as the resumption of student loan payments approaches. Ahead of the decision, we hear from borrowers concerned about what's ahead and William Brangham discusses student debt with Julia Carpenter of the Wall Street Journal.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/14/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	A small group of orcas is causing a lot of damage to boats off the Iberian Peninsula. Last month, killer whales rammed a boat continuously for over an hour, managing to remove the rudder. In another incident, three orcas repeatedly struck a yacht causing it to sink. Stephanie Sy reports.

ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/14/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Camille Tagle is co-founder and creative director of FABSCRAP, which is a textile recycling nonprofit. Textiles generate 21 billion pounds of waste that goes into landfills every year, and FABSCRAP works to divert that waste, either by downcycling or giving the fabric new life. Tagle shares her Brief But Spectacular take on textile waste and fashion sustainability.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/14/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In the earliest days of the pandemic, Dr. Ashish Jha emerged as an authoritative and trusted voice on the issue. He's now the White House COVID-19 response coordinator, but with the public health emergency officially over, he's leaving the Biden administration this week and returning to Brown University's Public School of Health. Dr. Jha discussed his experience with Amna Nawaz.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/14/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In our news wrap Wednesday, the Federal Reserve paused interest rates after 15 months of hikes, nearly 80 people drowned off Greece in one of the worst migrant disasters this year, former Italian Prime Minister Silvio Berlusconi was honored with a national day of mourning and a state funeral and China announced a partnership with the Palestinian Authority to expand influence in the Middle East.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/14/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The news of former President Trump's federal indictment comes as the GOP primary field is still taking shape. Judy Woodruff is in Des Moines, Iowa, to listen in on voter discussions led by conservative pollster Sarah Longwell. Trump's indictment is the focus of the first of two America at a Crossroads reports on what Iowa Republicans are thinking. This story was produced with Iowa PBS.

ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/15/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In Ukraine, floodwaters are receding more than a week after the destruction of a major dam that severely inundated surrounding towns. But the damage is evolving into a long-term environmental and humanitarian disaster with far-reaching consequences. Martin Griffiths is the humanitarian affairs chief for the United Nations and joined Geoff Bennett to discuss the relief effort.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/15/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The ocean is rapidly heating up, hitting record-breaking levels. The National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration reported that ocean surface temperatures spiked in April and May to the highest levels recorded since the 1950s. All this could have dangerous consequences for aquatic life, hurricane activity and global weather patterns. Amna Nawaz discussed what's happening with Kevin Trenberth.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/15/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The world's oceans are, in many ways, lawless places where piracy, overfishing, toxic waste dumping and even murder are routine. William Brangham spoke with journalist Ian Urbina, head of the Outlaw Ocean Project, about cold-blooded killings on the water. A warning: this story includes disturbing details.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT	6/16/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	A major investigation by the U.S. Department of Justice says the Minneapolis Police Department repeatedly used excessive and unjustified deadly force against city residents. The findings documented long-standing patterns of abuse and discrimination against Black and Indigenous citizens. Special correspondent Fred de Sam Lazaro reports.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT	6/16/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In our news wrap Friday, the man who opened fire and killed 11 Jewish worshippers at the Tree of Life Synagogue in 2018 was found guilty of all federal charges he faced, cleanup efforts are underway across several southern states after powerful storms bore down on the region and Pope Francis was discharged from the Rome hospital where he underwent hernia surgery nine days ago.

MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT	6/16/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	New York Times columnist David Brooks and Washington Post associate editor Jonathan Capehart join Amna Nawaz to discuss the week in politics, including former President Trump's latest legal battle, the growing presidential field and the legacy of Daniel Ellsberg.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/16/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	It was certainly a historic week as Donald Trump became the first ex-president to face charges in federal court. A new PBS NewsHour/NPR/Marist poll helps explain how American voters view the former president. Amna Nawaz reports.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/16/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The long list of Republican presidential candidates gained its first mayor this week. Miami Mayor Francis Suarez says he can usher in a new era for the GOP and the country. Amna Nawaz spoke with Suarez about the launch of his campaign.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/16/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Leaders from all 31 NATO member nations will hold their annual summit next month in Lithuania. Ahead of it, some members, and Ukrainian President Zelenskyy, are stepping up calls for Ukraine to join the alliance. Ali Rogin discussed the debate over whether Ukraine should be invited into NATO with Charles Kupchan of the Council on Foreign Relations and Evelyn Farkas of the McCain Institute.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/17/2023	5PM	30 minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	Hospitals and cancer centers are running out of two major injectable cancer drugs: carboplatin and cisplatin. Dr. Eleonora Teplinsky, head of breast medical oncology for the Valley Health System in New Jersey, joins Ali Rogin to discuss the causes and effects of the shortages, and the dilemmas that providers and their patients now face.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT	6/17/2023	5PM	30 minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	This Pride Month, as part of our "Hidden Histories" series, we look at the contributions of Bayard Rustin, one of the driving forces of the civil rights movement, whose life as an openly gay man relegated him to behind-the-scenes roles much of the time.

LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/17/2023	5PM	30 minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	In our news wrap Sunday, Secretary of State Blinken met with Chinese officials in Beijing, Israel's prime minister said his judicial overhaul plan is moving ahead, a new three-day cease-fire went into effect in Sudan, gun violence across the U.S. left multiple people dead, nearly 100 people have died in a heat wave in India, and Swiss voters approved a law targeting net zero emissions by 2050.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT	6/19/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	New reporting from The Washington Post reveals that in the days and weeks following the Jan. 6 attack, senior officials at the Justice Department and the FBI made critical decisions that might have compromised its investigation of former President Trump and his associates' possible involvement in the historic event. Geoff Bennett discussed the report with Aaron C. Davis.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/19/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In our news wrap Monday, search operations are underway for a submersible carrying five people to view the Titanic wreckage, tornadoes in Mississippi killed at least one person and injured two dozen more, a scorching heat wave in northern India claimed the lives of nearly 170 people and Israeli forces and Palestinian gunmen waged their fiercest day of fighting in years in the occupied West Bank.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/19/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	A first-of-its-kind trial is underway in Montana, where a group of young people argue the state's lawmakers aren't doing nearly enough to address climate change. Montana is one of the nation's biggest coal producers and the industry there has strong political support. William Brangham reports how the plaintiffs are using a unique clause in the state constitution to try and force a change.

MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT	6/19/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In 1865, Union Army Gen. Gordon Granger arrived in Galveston, Texas, to inform the country's last enslaved people that they had been freed under the Emancipation Proclamation. The day now known as Juneteenth was formally recognized as a national holiday two years ago, due in large part to the activism of retired teacher Opal Lee. She discussed the message of Juneteenth with Geoff Bennett.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/19/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	NPR's Tamara Keith and Amy Walter of the Cook Political Report with Amy Walter join Amna Nawaz to discuss the latest political news, including President Biden's visit to Pennsylvania as he faces low poll numbers with the 2024 races gearing up.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/19/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Search operations are underway for a submersible that carries paying tourists to view the wreckage of the Titanic. The five-person craft is owned by OceanGate Expeditions and was reported overdue Sunday. It disappeared near where the Titanic went down in 1912 after hitting an iceberg. Geoff Bennett discussed the search effort with Kristin Romey of National Geographic.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT	6/20/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In our news wrap Tuesday, a federal judge in Florida set August 14 for former President Trump's classified documents case to go to trial, searing heat and soaring demand forced the Texas power grid operator to call for conservation and nine Egyptian men pleaded not guilty to human smuggling in Greece in one of the Mediterranean's deadliest migrant shipwrecks.
EDUCATION	6/20/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The school year is either already over or is wrapping up in most places around the country. As another year finishes, there are still real concerns about learning loss dating back to the pandemic and the ongoing struggles to catch students up. Laura Barrón-López spoke with Alec MacGillis about the long-term impact of learning loss due to remote schooling.

ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/20/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	After years of work, there is progress in the fight against Alzheimer's disease, the incurable brain condition that affects more than six million Americans. Several new drugs have shown small but positive results in reducing the cognitive decline associated with this disease. William Brangham discussed these advances and what obstacles lie ahead with Dr. Richard Hodes.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/20/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The president's son is admitting to tax and gun crimes but is unlikely to spend time behind bars after reaching a deal with prosecutors. The deal promises a potential end to Hunter Biden's ongoing legal saga, but the political drama is far from over. Geoff Bennett discussed the latest with Carrie Johnson and Adam Entous.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/20/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In San Francisco, President Biden convened a meeting of artificial intelligence experts to weigh its risks and opportunities and consider the role of the federal government in regulating the technology. Geoff Bennett discussed the meeting with Ryan Calo, a professor of law and information science at the University of Washington
ECONOMY/BUSINESS	6/21/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	As former President Donald Trump makes another run at the White House, he's partnering with a key U.S. ally on a new business venture that is raising serious ethical questions. The multi-billion dollar deal between Trump, the government of Oman and a Saudi firm would develop a luxury complex, according to a New York Times report. Laura Barrón-López discussed the plan with Eric Lipton.

ECONOMY/BUSINESS	6/21/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In our news wrap Wednesday, Fed Chair Jerome Powell says inflation is still too high and more interest rate hikes are likely, an assessment finds pandemic learning losses are still getting worse, hundreds of Israeli settlers stormed a Palestinian town in the occupied West Bank and Ukrainian President Zelenskyy acknowledged progress in his army's counteroffensive has been slower than desired.
EDUCATION	6/21/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	School boards have traditionally been the domain of nonpartisan civic service, but in the last few years, they have increasingly become reflections of the nation's divisions. Judy Woodruff reports on a district in Pennsylvania where policies around books, gender, sports and how race and history are taught, have divided some community members. It's part of her series, America at a Crossroads.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/21/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	This week marks the anniversary of the Supreme Court decision overturning Roe v. Wade. It also marks critical days in the current Supreme Court term with major rulings expected on affirmative action, religious and LGBTQ+ rights. This as trust in the court remains low, according to a new PBS NewsHour/NPR/Marist poll. Lisa Desjardins reports.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/21/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Supreme Court Justice Samuel Alito took an undisclosed trip with billionaire donors, including hedge fund manager Paul Singer who later had business before the court. Coupled with previous reporting on Justice Thomas and megadonor Harlan Crow, it raises more ethical questions regarding the high court. Amna Nawaz discussed the latest with Josh Kaplan, one of the reporters who broke the story.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/21/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Major decisions expected from the Supreme Court in the coming days could reshape higher education and immigration policy. Geoff Bennett discussed the cases with NewsHour Supreme Court Analyst Marcia Coyle.

EDUCATION	6/22/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The New York City Urban Debate League is the largest in the nation. Over the past ten years, it has helped over 100 New York City schools get access to debate training for students. Francis and Erick are two middle school students who participate in the league. They share their Brief But Spectacular take on debate and democracy.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/22/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In our news wrap Thursday, a tornado killed four people and ripped apart homes and businesses in the small Texas town of Matador, Tropical Storm Bret is closing in on the islands of the eastern Caribbean, President Biden defended calling China's President Xi Jinping a dictator and a court in Moscow denied an appeal by Wall Street Journal reporter Evan Gershkovich to end his pre-trial detention.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT	6/22/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In 2019, Evanston, Illinois, passed the first reparations law in American history. It set out to address decades of segregation and legalizing housing discrimination. Economics Correspondent Paul Solman recently visited the Chicago suburb to follow up on the program. It's part of our series, Race Matters.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/22/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The prime minister of what is now the world's most populous nation was received with the fanfare of a state visit at the White House. India's Narendra Modi visits the United States at a crucial moment as the U.S. seeks to marshal democracies to confront China and support Ukraine. But Modi's own conduct is also under the microscope. Geoff Bennett discussed more with Daniel Markey.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/22/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The long list of Republicans seeking their party's nomination for president grew by one more Thursday. Former Congressman Will Hurd of Texas is kicking off his campaign with a direct hit at the field's front-runner, Donald Trump. Lisa Desjardins reports.

ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/22/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The U.S. Coast Guard confirmed Thursday the missing submersible in the North Atlantic Ocean was destroyed in a "catastrophic implosion." Its debris was found on the ocean floor near the Titanic and all five people aboard were killed. William Brangham discussed the accident and what it could mean going forward with Jules Jaffe of the Scripps Institution of Oceanography.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT	6/22/2023	9:30PM	56 Minutes	Who's on Top?	Lifestyle/ Feature	Who's on Top? LGBTQs Summit Mt. Hood features emotional stories of members of the LGBTQ community who challenge stereotypes about gender and sexuality, and demonstrate their diverse journeys in overcoming physical and figurative mountains.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/23/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	New York Times columnist David Brooks and Washington Post associate editor Jonathan Capehart join Geoff Bennett to discuss the week in politics, including GOP presidential candidates embrace abortion restrictions, a report outlines fresh examples of questionable ethics from Supreme Court justices and Hunter Biden strikes a plea deal to avoid prison.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/24/2023	5PM	30 minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	In our news wrap Sunday, more than 40 million people are expected to experience dangerous heat in the southern U.S., and the Coast Guard announced that it ended search and rescue operations for the Titan submersible and is shifting its priority to recovering the vessel's remnants from the ocean floor.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT	6/24/2023	5PM	30 minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	This Pride Month is D'Arcy Drollinger's first year as San Francisco's official drag laureate. She takes the new post, which was created by the mayor and believed to be the first of its kind, in a year that has seen a record number of anti-LGBTQ+ legislation introduced across the country. Drollinger joins Ali Rogin to talk about her new role.

MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT	6/24/2023	5PM	30 minutes	PBS News Weekend	News	As we enter the final week of Pride Month, our "Hidden Histories" series takes a look at the works of Alice Dunbar-Nelson, a bisexual Black woman whose writings and activism advocated racial equality and women's suffrage at the turn of the 20th century.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT	6/26/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In our news wrap Monday, the Colorado Springs LGBTQ+ club mass killer was sentenced to life in prison after a guilty plea, lawyers made closing arguments in the trial of a former sheriff's deputy charged with child neglect for not confronting the gunman during the 2018 Parkland school shooting and a new round of severe storms has claimed 3 more lives in parts of the Midwest.
EDUCATION	6/26/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The school year is coming to a close and with it, the first year of Advanced Placement African American studies, an interdisciplinary class by the College Board that has attracted praise from professors and also fierce opposition from some Republican politicians. Laura Barrón-López spoke with educators, students and experts to understand the potential and the politics behind the course.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/26/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Texas is entering its third week of a record-breaking heat wave where the heat index could top 120 degrees. And the sweltering weather is not limited to Texas. At least 45 million Americans across the southern U.S. were under heat advisories over the weekend and into Monday. Geoff Bennett discussed more with climate specialist and WFLA chief meteorologist Jeff Berardelli.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/26/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	President Biden is kicking off efforts to expand high-speed internet access to the 8.5 million homes and businesses without it. Expanding affordable broadband access was a key component of his 2021 infrastructure bill. At the White House Monday, the president pledged a $42 billion investment to get Americans up to speed by 2030. White House Correspondent Laura Barrón-López reports.

ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/27/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	New numbers from the Census Bureau show the U.S. population is older than it's ever been, with the nation's median age over 38. William Brangham spoke with Philip Bump and Wendy Edelberg about how an older America could pose significant challenges for the economy, workforce and social programs in the years to come.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT	6/27/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Newly leaked audio appears to show former President Donald Trump discussing sensitive documents with people who didn't have security clearance during a 2021 meeting. The two-minute recording could hold key evidence in Trump's indictment over his handling of classified information after he left the White House. Geoff Bennett discussed the latest with former U.S. Attorney David N. Kelley.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/27/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The Supreme Court rejected a legal theory that state legislatures have almost unlimited power to decide the rules for federal elections and draw partisan congressional maps without interference from state courts. Trump allies raised the theory as part of an effort to reverse the 2020 election outcome. Geoff Bennett discussed the ruling with Neal Katyal, who argued the case before the court.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/27/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	For a more optimistic take on the future of our country, a new book released earlier this year provides some answers. "The Bill of Obligations: The Ten Habits of Good Citizens" argues democracy works best when citizens recognize their rights and their duties. Amna Nawaz sat down with its author, Richard Haass, a veteran diplomat and president of the Council on Foreign Relations, to discuss more.

MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT	6/28/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In our news wrap Wednesday, a new wave of flight delays and cancellations hit air travelers nationwide as the July 4 holiday weekend approaches, Daniel Penny pleaded not guilty to manslaughter and criminally negligent homicide in the chokehold killing of Jordan Neely on a New York subway and authorities in France tightened security after police killed a teenager during a traffic stop
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT	6/28/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	A new U.N. investigation found conditions inside the prison at Guantanamo Bay are cruel and inhuman. Roughly 780 detainees have been held at the detention center since it opened in 2002. Today, 30 remain, 16 of which have been cleared for release. Geoff Bennett discussed the report with Fionnuala Ní Aoláin, the first independent U.N. investigator to visit Guantanamo in its history.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/28/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	For much of the country Wednesday, spending time outside came with a cost. A smoky haze darkened skies from Minneapolis to Detroit and beyond. And searing heat, blamed for 13 deaths in Texas, spread to neighboring states. John Yang reports on a day of extreme conditions
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/28/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The Bering Sea snow crab season was canceled after billions of crabs disappeared, devastating Alaska's fishing industry and the livelihoods of those who depend on it. From Alaska Public Media and KMXT in Kodiak, Kirsten Dobroth reports researchers are working to figure out what happened. This story was produced with NOVA with major support from the Corporation for Public Broadcasting.

ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/28/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The sudden death of Olympic sprinter Tori Bowie at age 32 sent shockwaves around the world. The idea that a young, elite athlete could go into labor and die stunned many. But this problem is more common than many realize, and it's particularly bad for Black women. William Brangham discussed more with Amanda Williams of the California Maternal Quality Care Collaborative.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/28/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Recent studies report that two-thirds of American physicians report feeling burned out, something only aggravated by the pandemic. One of the consequences is a decline in the quality of care for patients, who find it increasingly difficult to navigate the healthcare system. Fred de Sam Lazaro looks into one effort to improve on both scores.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/28/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	President Biden traveled to Chicago Wednesday to promote his economic agenda. He explained his vision for the future and how he believes his policies have delivered so far. It's one stop on a nationwide tour pushing the president's message on jobs, manufacturing and infrastructure. Geoff Bennett discussed more with Mitch Landrieu, President Biden's infrastructure coordinator and senior adviser.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/28/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	As the field of Republicans vying to win the party's 2024 presidential nomination continues to grow, more candidates are hitting the campaign trail. Former Texas Congressman Will Hurd is one of them and joined Geoff Bennett from Manchester, New Hampshire.
MINORITIES/CIVIL RIGHTS/CRIME/LEGAL/LAW ENFORCEMENT	6/29/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In our news wrap Thursday, a former sheriff's deputy was found not guilty of felony child neglect and other charges for failing to stop the Parkland school shooter in 2018, the Pentagon says a Chinese spy balloon did not collect any intelligence when it flew over the U.S. earlier this year and France is bracing for a third night of protests following a fatal police shooting of a teenager in Paris.

EDUCATION	6/29/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The U.S. Supreme Court dealt a major blow to affirmative action in higher education, striking down race-conscious admissions programs at Harvard University and the University of North Carolina. The ruling has widespread implications for the future of higher education. Geoff Bennett discussed the decision with NewsHour Supreme Court analyst Marcia Coyle.
EDUCATION	6/29/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The fallout of the Supreme Court's affirmative action decisions will have major implications on colleges and universities across the country. One that knows the impact of ending race-based admissions all too well is the University of Michigan. University President Santa Ono discussed that with Amna Nawaz.
EDUCATION	6/29/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Richard Kahlenberg, an author and non-resident scholar at Georgetown University, served as an expert witness for the plaintiffs in both affirmative action cases heard before the Supreme Court. He spoke with Geoff Bennett and explained his perspective on what he calls the pitfalls of race-based affirmative action.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/29/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	A record heat wave, and its connections to climate change, are highlighting again the growing concerns around America's electrical grid and whether it can withstand the added stress. In Texas, which operates its own electrical grid, power demand hit an all-time high this week. William Brangham discussed more with Michael Webber, a professor of energy resources at the University of Texas.
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/29/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The U.S. faces a growing shortage of physicians, especially those in primary care fields like internal medicine, mental health and pediatrics. The shortfall is driven by population and demographic trends and burnout. Fred de Sam Lazaro found a doctor-patient model at a clinic in Wisconsin that may help the problem. It's part of his series, Agents for Change.

ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/29/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	Albert Einstein theorized that as heavy objects move through space and time, they create ripple effects in the fabric of our universe. Now an international team of scientists have detected new evidence of that. Researchers found new signs of gravitational waves that are affected by huge movements such as the collision of black holes. Science correspondent Miles O'Brien breaks it down.
EDUCATION	6/30/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	As colleges and universities digest the Supreme Court ruling that effectively ended affirmative action, schools are left to grapple with how to revamp their admission policies to ensure the diversity of their campuses. That will be a challenge and some schools are better prepared for it than others. William Brangham discussed that with Jeff Selingo, author of "Who Gets in and Why?"
ENVIRONMENT/SCIENCE/HEALTH/HEALTHCARE	6/30/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	In our news wrap Friday, smoke from wildfires in Canada continued to disperse, shrouding major U.S. cities in a yellowish tint, riots erupted in Paris for a third straight day over the fatal police shooting of a 17-year-old, at least 48 people died in a road crash in Kenya and prosecutors in Ukraine brought their first charges against Russia for allegedly deporting young orphans.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/30/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	The Supreme Court struck down President Biden's plan to cancel more than $400 billion in student loan debt. The decision affects more than 40 million borrowers, but the president insisted that his fight is not over and pledged an alternative relief plan. Geoff Bennett discussed more with NewsHour Supreme Court analyst Marcia Coyle and Danielle Douglas-Gabriel of The Washington Post.

LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/30/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	A long-awaited report on the U.S. withdrawal from Afghanistan has identified several failings that contributed to the chaos. The State Department review concluded that both the Trump and Biden administrations failed to consider worst-case scenarios for what would happen when U.S. troops withdrew. Ali Rogin discussed the assessment with Michael Birnbaum of The Washington Post.
LOCAL & NATIONAL POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	6/30/2023	6PM	60 minutes	PBS NewsHour	News	New York Times columnist David Brooks and Washington Post associate editor Jonathan Capehart join Geoff Bennett to discuss the week in politics, including the implications of the Supreme Court's major decisions this week.