

WMCT Issues/Programs List for October, November and December 2014

1. Nursing Home Care. On October 14th, WMCT aired a 13 minute interview on One on One with representatives of Mountain City Care and Rehabilitation Center on their new services to the community. The program aired live from 3:08P to 3:21PM.
2. Annual Rummage Sale to benefit the Humane Society. On October 15th, WMCT aired a 12 minute interview with Walt Heerschap of the Johnson County Humane Society to promote the Rummage Sale at the National Guard Armory. The Humane Society provides vouchers for free spay and neutering of Pets to eligible Johnson County residents. The program aired live from 3:08P to 3:20PM.
3. Free Health Care. On November 13th, WMCT aired a 7 minute interview with representatives of Just Care free medical clinic. The program featured Carolyn Sligar with the ETSU Just Care clinic. The clinic is conducted by ETSU medical students under the supervision of Medical Doctors. The program aired 7:16 to 7:23A.
4. Local Arts: On December 9th, WMCT aired a 17 minute interview with representatives of the Johnson County Community Theatre. They presented information about the upcoming local theater group presentation of A Sanders Family Christmas. This was a free show for the family. The program aired 3:08P to 3:25PM.