

WMCT Issues/Programs list for January, February and March 2014

1. City Government: On February 5th at 7:26A, we aired a report on the previous nights Town Council meeting. Mayor Lawrence Keeble presented the information.
2. Health Issues: On February 8th at 1PM, we aired an interview with Angie Stout of the Johnson County Health Department. She spoke on the significant health issues in the County including obesity, flu, cancer and others. Program ran for 30 minutes.
3. Regional Theatre classes for Youth: On February 18th at 3:08P host Billy Gambill interviewed representatives of Barter Theatre in Abingdon, Virginia in reference to theatre classes for Mountain City Youth. Program ran 14 minutes and was conducted by phone.
4. Severe Weather information: On February 20th at 3:08PM, an interview was conducted with Johnson County Emergency Management Director concerning what to do in a weather emergency. Program ran for 21 minutes.
5. Childhood Obesity: On February 24th at 12:40PM, we interviewed high school student Caleb Reece. He began a weight loss program involving diet changes and exercise. He lost down from 260 pounds to 154 pounds. Program ran for 10 minutes.
6. Animal Rescue: On March 4th at 3:08PM, we interviewed two representatives of Black Jack animal rescue. The organization attempts to find foster homes for pets. Program ran for 20 minutes.