In Sue Monk Kidd's, new novel, "The Book of Longing", she imagines a young woman named Ana, who becomes the wife of Jesus. The novel explores many of the signature themes in Kidd's fiction: feminism, the search for self, the quest for one's voice and purpose, and the power of female community. In particular, this novel explores the longings and virtuosities in women, as well as their silencing and marginalization within Western religion. The story evokes a seminal question: how would the world be different

The Book Show #1660 - Emily St. John Mandel: Joe Donahue: Emily St. John Mandel is the award winning author of "Station 11". Her new novel, "The Glass Hotel" is set at the glittering intersection of two seemingly disparate events, a massive Ponzi scheme collapse and the mysterious disappearance of a woman from a ship at sea. In the story of crisis and survival, Mandel takes readers through often hidden landscapes, campgrounds for the near homeless, underground electronica clubs, the business of international shipping service and luxury hotels, and life in a federal prison. "The Glass Hotel" is a portrait of greed and guilt, love and delusion, ghosts and unintended consequences and the infinite ways we search for meaning in our lives.

The Book Show #1657 - Anne Tyler: Welcome to the Book Show, a celebration of reading and writers, I'm Joe Donahue. Anne Tyler is one of America's very best living novelists, and one of the world's most loved. She has written 23 novels, sold more than 11 million copies. Her 20th book "A Spool of Blue Thread" was shortlisted for the Man Booker Prize. Her 11th, "Breathing Lessons" won the Pulitzer Prize. Her other bestsellers include "The Accidental Tourist", "Say Maybe", "Dinner at the Homesick Restaurant" and most recently, "Vinegar Girl" and "Clock Dance".

The themes she continues to return to involve marriage, family dynamics, sibling relationships, growing old, and dying. She sets her stories where she lives in Baltimore, Maryland. Her latest titled "Redhead by the Side of the Road" is no exception. The novel focuses on routine-obsessed 44 year-old Micah Mortimer, whose life is about to be thrown out of whack. The novel is about misperception second chances and the sometimes elusive power of human connections. Again, the new novel is "Redhead by the Side of the Road" and it is a great thrill to welcome Anne Tyler to The Book Show.
