UNDERWRITER PROFILE

Mike Hamilton

When it comes to the magic of learning, Mike Hamilton, an award-winning educational presenter and professional magician, fills a unique niche. He has performed magic for schools, corporations, trade shows, and at public venues for years with The Magic of Mike Hamilton under his parent company, Hamilton Productions Inc.

His Magic in Learning Foundation is the educational side of the operation that takes "Magic with a Message" into schools, libraries, and other public settings with messages of strength and encouragement directed at challenges facing today's youth, including literacy, bullying, drug awareness, as well as personal and cyber safety.

Each year, he takes Magic in Learning to 55 to 100 schools and public events, where he educates and inspires between 45,000 and 75,000 students throughout the state.

The uniqueness of what he does is that he ties his magic into important learning messages for kids, young adults, and parents. In 2009, he won Utah's Best of State Award in the Specialty Act category in Arts & Entertainment for his "Magic with a Message" program.

Hamilton has been working with KUED's Ready to Learn program for more than a decade since he first performed at the celebration for winners of KUED's Young Writers and Illustrators Contest.

In addition, he has been an important part of KUED's Super Reader Party for nearly ten years as both an emcee and performer.

"My partnership with KUED has been the perfect fit over the years," says Hamilton of why he chose to be an underwriter. "It's been great to be a part of KUED events. Because of our trusted partnership, we've been able to reach many students and families throughout Utah. Through our partnership, I have earned the trust to use PBS kids characters with our educational programs in schools in Utah and throughout the West, making our educational assemblies and programs even more impactful."
