

Quarterly Report

There follows a listing of some of the significant issues responded to by Station KFOX-TV, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period October 1, 2022 to December 31, 2022. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Description of Issue	Program/ Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type & Description of Program/Segment
TRAFFIC	KFOX14 MORNING NEWS	10/3/2022	5:59 AM	:18	El Paso police are on the scene of a a deadly motorcycle crash. The crash was reported on I-10 east and Lee Trevino. At this time, police say one person was killed in the crash. Police have closed I-10 in both directions as they investigate. Traffic eastbound is being forced off at the Lomaland exit. Seek an alternate route if you need to travel through the area.
ECONOMY	KFOX14 MORNING NEWS	10/3/2022	6:00	1:30	Las Cruces City Council is considering removing a city ordinance that dictates where cannabis businesses can set up shop. On Monday afternoon, the Las Cruces City Council will meet and vote on removing the ordinance requiring cannabis businesses to keep a 300 foot distance between other cannabis shops as well as residential neighborhoods. The zoning rule has been in place since September 7, 2021. Over one year later and a common complaint from prospective business owners is the difficulty that comes with finding a location that adheres to the distancing requirement.
CITY/COMMUNITY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/4/2022	5:04:59 a.m.	1:10	Today, the city of El Paso and Workforce Solutions Borderplex will host a job and education fair at the El Paso Zoo. The event is scheduled from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. It will host over 20 representatives from colleges, universities and certification programs. City employees will be on site to provide more information about employee benefits, including pension plans, healthcare coverage, paid leave, wellness programs and tuition assistance. On top of that, the city is offering a thousand dollar sign on as an incentive.
TRAFFIC	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/4/2022	5:15:52 a.m.	0:25	El Paso police are asking people to come forward-- if they witnessed a deadly motorcycle crash over the weekend. It happened Sunday night on I-10 east and Lee Trevino. Police say 38-year-old Martin De La Torre veered into the median and was then thrown off by his motorcycle and hit by another car. The driver of that car did not stop to render aid.
CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/5/2022	6:00:16 a.m.	1:14	El Paso firefighters were at the scene of fire this morning. The call came in just after 4:30. Units responded to the 5700 block of Alameda in south-central El Paso. El Paso Fire dispatchers say no one was injured, and there is currently one person being detained.
CITY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/5/2022	6:03:26 a.m.	0:48	El Paso city leaders have added new amenities for migrants at the El Paso International Airport. Cots have been set up in one of the facility's conference rooms. Over the last few months, some migrants have had to wait upwards of 24 hours at the airport before their flights departed. A city spokesperson says they've been helping about 100 migrants a day at the airport. The costs of the cots are being covered by the federal government.
CITY/COMMUNITY	KFOX14 NEWS AT FIVE	10/5/2022	5:06 PM	1:25	Migrant shelters in southern New Mexico and Las Cruces have seen an increase in migrants. KFOX14 spoke with the Holy Cross Retreat Center who said there was an increase in migrants this week in the borderland and they had been receiving migrants from the Annunciation House in El Paso. Father Thomas Smith, the director of the Holy Cross Retreat told KFOX14 their main focus was to host retreats, but recently they housed migrants every day. He told KFOX14 that the increase in migrants did not cause a strain in their retreat only because they limited the number of migrants going in.
CRIME	KFOX14 NEWS AT FIVE	10/5/2022	5:08	:42	The U.S. Customs and Border Protection officers working at El Paso area ports of entry seized several pounds of drugs at El Paso ports of entry in two days. They seized 17.21 pounds of fentanyl, 13.62 pounds of methamphetamine and 10.75 pounds of cocaine. CBP officers working at the Bridge of the Americas border crossing intercepted 10.75 pounds of cocaine last Friday. The interception happened when a 33-year-old female, Mexican citizen arrived from Mexico via vehicle lanes. CBP officers along with a CBP canine conducting pre-primary inspections searched the vehicle and found multiple bundles concealed within.
CITY/COMMUNITY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/6/2022	5:30:23 a.m.	0:44	An ongoing study is attempting to not only find solutions to flooding and debris in central El Paso, but highlight the need for them in our city. The U.S. Army Corp of Engineers and El Paso Water are one year into their study to determine how to address the issue. The study is in phase one. It still needs two more years, and then approval from congress could take an additional one to two years, followed by two years for a design phase and 3 to 5 years for construction.
CITY/COMMUNITY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/6/2022	5:25:25 a.m.	0:35	Construction on a new public housing community is starting in central El Paso. A groundbreaking ceremony was held yesterday for the multi-level complex that will hold 80 families. The development will be called the "Nuestra Senora Community" and be set on Montana and Campbell. The project is going to cost over 17 and a half million dollars.
CITY/COMMUNITY	kfox14 news at nine	10/6/2022	9:04 PM	2:31	El Paso District Attorney Yvonne Rosales submitted a court filing Thursday that includes her response to a petition that calls for her removal. In the filing, Rosales denied the claims made by Omar Carmona who filed the petition. "Petitioner [Carmona] has wholly failed to assert any credible factual or legal basis upon which his petition for removal should be granted," the court document stated.
CITY/COMMUNITY	KFOX14 NEWS AT NINE..	10/6/2022	9:10 PM	2:10	KFOX14 spoke with the sister of the migrant who was shot and killed in Hudspeth County last week. The migrant shot and killed was identified as Jesús Sepúlveda Martínez and the woman migrant shot and injured was identified as Berenice Casias Carrillo. Sepúlveda's sister, Maria Guadalupe Sepúlveda Martínez, said her brother was a man who loved his family and came to the U.S. to provide them with a better future.

CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/7/2022	5:00:19 a.m.	1:26	El Paso Police are investigating an officer-involved shooting in central El Paso. It happened at the intersection between Cotton and Montana. El Paso Police confirmed that one person was transported to the hospital. Police say officers were talking to some people in the area when they noticed an unrelated man was throwing rocks at people and cars. Officers approached the man and asked him to stop. That is when police say the man began to throw rocks at them. The officer responded by firing a shot and was also transported to the hospital for injuries sustained from the rocks.
TRAFFIC	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/7/2022	5:16:08 a.m.	2:10	Several west/Upper Valley El Paso drivers say they were driving down Doniphan and Redd when their tires popped. There appeared to be rebar sticking out of the road, without a lot of signage or warnings. Drivers say there were barrels and cones, but they appeared to be knocked over. One driver reached out to the city about the issue, but the city was unaware construction was even going on in the area.
CITY/COMMUNITY	KFOX14 NEWS AT NINE..	10/7/2022	9:04 PM	2:37	The City of El Paso issued a response Friday after New York City Mayor Eric Adams called on El Paso's mayor and city manager to stop sending buses of migrants to New York. "El Paso, the city manager, the mayor, they should stop sending buses to New York. New York can not accommodate the number of buses we have coming here to our city," Adams said at a press conference.
CITY/COMMUNITY	KFOX14 NEWS AT NINE..	10/7/2022	9:08 PM	2:43	Some residents in one far east El Paso neighborhood are frustrated after they learned they will have to continue bearing the loud noises inside their homes coming from a nearby bar. The issue stems from the City of El Paso deciding to table the proposal to amend the city's noise ordinance back in June. The city's current noise ordinance is 70 decibels, and the proposal looked to bring it down to 65 decibels. However, after various meetings with bars, neighbors and the Texas Restaurant Association, the city council decided to table the issue until a third-party consultant comes in to assess the noise problem.
COMMUNITY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/10/2022	5:33:33 a.m.	0:18	The City of Las Cruces is celebrating Indigenous People's day with paintings. The Las Cruces Founders Day Advocacy Committee will be unveiling four portraits of historically important Native American Figures. The mural will be on full display at 11 a.m. at the corner of Mesquite Street and Las Cruces Avenue.
CITY/COUNTY/COMMUNITY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/10/2022	5:32:58 a.m.	0:17	El Paso County is observing Indigenous People's day. All county administrative offices, the El Paso county courthouse, and commissioner's court will be closed today. Regular business hours will resume tomorrow. Meantime the Ascarate golf course and all county parks will remain open.
IMMIGRATION	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/11/2022	5:02:15	1:25	The city of El Paso is considering taking new action to help manage the migrant crisis. Today they will be discussing a re-enacting an emergency ordinance that would authorize the city manager to provide assisting in time for the end of Title 42.
CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/11/2022	5:05:53	:22	Investigators say a 52-year-old man is responsible for starting a fire in south central El Paso. Mauricio Marmolejo was arrested last week after he allegedly started a fire inside an apartment complex inside Glenwood...just off Alameda. He has been charged with arson and is being held on a 40 thousand dollar bond.
CITY/COUNTY	KFOX14 NEWS AT NINE..	10/11/2022	9:03 PM	2:49	The El Paso city council unanimously extended the emergency ordinance Tuesday in order to help with the ongoing migrant crisis. This ordinance allows the city of El Paso to continue responding to the ongoing migrant crisis by assisting non-governmental organizations, helping at food banks and welcome centers. City officials said they are chartering nine to 14 buses a day. El Paso Mayor Oscar Leeser said the city will receive $2 million in federal money on Wednesday to help with the migrant situation. Council members Isabel Salcido and Casandra Hernandez said they want an emergency declaration instead of the ordinance.
CITY/COUNTY	KFOX14 NEWS AT NINE..	10/11/2022	9:06 PM	2:32	It was a packed room at the University of Texas at El Paso Tuesday where gubernatorial candidate Beto O'Rourke held his town hall. The crowd flooded outside the ballroom. O'Rourke isn't the only one reaching out to younger voters.. Governor Greg Abbott also made a similar stride ahead of the November election. Cheers echoed across from supporters at O'Rourke's rally. O'Rourke had hosted several town halls across universities in the state.
CITY/COUNTY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/12/2022	5:03:31	1:16	State prosecutors in the Walmart Shooting Trial are getting some extra time to deal with accusations from one of the victims families. A legal aid to the DA is accused of harassing the family of Alexander Hoffman who was killed in the Walmart Shooting. A judge has granted the DAs office 45 days to go over transcripts and recordings involving Rogelio Rodriguez..
CITY/COUNTY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/12/2022	5:03:07	1:42	An audit report from the city of El Paso shows that water parks have lost over one million dollars and are set to lose 3 million more. Officials from the city say that services such as libraries and other recreations do not make money. The water parks were funded by the quality of life bond that was approved in 2012 but they were never designed to make a profit.
CITY/COUNTY	KFOX14 NEWS AT NINE..	10/12/2022	9:06 PM	2:41	In response to the current migrant crisis at the border, the U.S and Mexican governments are collaborating to build a fair, orderly, and secure immigration system, according to the Department of Homeland Security. DHS announced Wednesday that any Venezuelan migrants who enter the U.S. between ports of entry, without authorization, will be returned to Mexico. Expelling Venezuelan migrants couldn't be done before under Title 42 because Mexico would not allow it. KFOX14 reached out to El Paso leaders about the new policy.

CITY/COUNTY	KFOX14 NEWS AT NINE..	10/12/2022	9:03 PM	2:34	A Venezuelan migrant described what his journey was like from his home country of Venezuela to the United States. Jefferson Salas documented his journey through the Darien Gap all the way to the United States. "Senior citizens, children, don't come. It's too dangerous," Salas said. In the videos, you can see how dead bodies lay on the ground and float in the river.
COMMUNITY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/13/2022	5:50:53 a.m.	0:35	City Representatives Claudia Rodriguez and Cissy Lizarraga are partnering with Live Action El Paso and the Parks and Recreation Department to host two Monster-Mash events in El Paso. Children can receive a free halloween costume. Parents can pick it up, but children must be present. It's a first-come, first serve basis. More than 500 costumes will be available today and next Wednesday. Today's event will be from 6 to 8 p.m. at Marty Robbins Park. The second event will be from 5 to 6 p.m. October 19th at the Chamizal Community Center.
CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/13/2022	5:17:48 a.m.	0:37	KFOX14 is learning new information about a murder suicide in Las Cruces. The incident happened back on September 21st, when Emilia Rueda was found dead at an apartment complex in Las Cruces, along with her boyfriend 19-year-old Carlos Esparza. Investigators believe Esparza killed Rueda and then took his own life. KFOX14 looked at the call log between New Mexico state police officers and dispatcher. Responding officers say the Rueda was stabbed in the chest. The call log also mentions the boyfriend's body, but didn't say how he died.
CITY	KFOX14 NEWS AT FIVE	10/13/2022	5:03 PM	1:16	The uncle of the Dallas police officer killed by a wrong-way driver shared stories of Jacob Arellano. Arellano, who was from El Paso, joined the Dallas Police Department in June 2019. Antonio Arellano, Jacob's uncle, said the 25-year-old was a loving and caring person.
TRAFFIC	KFOX14 NEWS AT FIVE	10/13/2022	5:06 PM	2:35	Drivers across El Paso have noticed an uptick of potholes on the roads due to the city having to reshuffle the employees in two of its departments. Over the past couple of weeks, employees with the Streets Maintenance Department were pulled from their duties, which include patching potholes, to instead pull weeds from the street medians, due to a shortage of general service employees. However, due to the uptick in reports of potholes, the city has once again had to think quickly on its feet.
IMMIGRATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT NINE..	10/13/2022	9:01:38 p.m.	2:47	KFOX14 hears from a migrant who says the Biden Administration's latest policy on immigration separated him from his cousin. The migrant says he and his cousin were in custody already and being processed. He was let into the country his cousin was sent back to Mexico.
IMMIGRATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT NINE..	10/13/2022	9:04:17 p.m.	:15	The Catholic Diocese of El Paso and Hope Border Institute are teaming up to help migrants deported to Juarez. They are investing $100,000. That money will go to help migrants with health issues, emergency issues, food and hospitality.
IMMIGRATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT FIVE	10/14/2022	5:03 PM	1:12	One person was taken to the hospital with life-threatening injuries after a shooting at the foot of the Stanton Bridge, according to the El Paso Police Department. El Paso all southbound traffic on Stanton from Piasano is also closed. Travelers going southbound into Juarez this evening are advised to use the Zaragoza, Bridge of the Americas, or another port of entry. The bridge, located at 1000 S Stanton in downtown, is closed and will remain closed until further notice, police said.
IMMIGRATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT FIVE	10/14/2022	5:04 PM	2:29	grants a day in the El Paso region with about 1,000 of those migrants being from Venezuela. KFOX14 got access to the bridge where migrants are turning themselves in. They are doing this after officials with the U.S. Department of Homeland Security announced its new immigration policy to help address the Venezuelan migrant crisis.
CRIME	KFOX14 NEWS AT NINE..	10/16/2022	9:05 PM	1:53	The El Paso Police Department (EPPD) are investigating a shooting that happened on the 8500 block of Dyer early Sunday morning. According to EPPD, one male was transported to University Medical Center with life-threatening injuries. According to police, the call came in at 2:52 a.m.
COMMUNITY	KFOX14 NEWS AT NINE..	10/16/2022	9:18	2:54	A group of boy scouts arrived home after being stranded for three days at the Gila National Forest due to extreme weather. KFOX14 spoke with New Mexico State Police who told us they rescued 16 children and nine adults last weekend from the Gila National Forest who did not come out of a multi day hike.
CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/17/2022	5:04:59 a.m.	0:41	El Paso police are searching for two armed robbers. Police say the suspects walked into the Family Dollar on Alameda in central El Paso back on October 6th. A store employee was allegedly threatened by the suspects with a gun. They demanded money before fleeing the scene with an unknown amount of cash. They were last seen running towards Toledo place and then driving away in a White Chevrolet Malibu.
CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/17/2022	5:03:23 a.m.	0:51	El Paso police say a dispute between a mother and son led to a shooting on the Stanton International Bridge on Friday. 32-year-old "Maxwell Billingslea" was shot by a security guard after he allegedly assaulted his mother and an officer at the bridge. Police say he and his mom were waiting in their car to cross into Mexico when he assaulted her and pushed her out of the car. His mother asked security for assistance. When an officer approached the car Billingslea began driving his car back and forth, hitting other cars. An officer shot at Billingslea, injuring him. He was taken to the hospital and treated for non-life threatening injuries. He's now facing a charge of aggravated assault and family violence.
CITY/COUNTY	kfox14 news at five	10/17/2022	5:12 PM	2:27	A 40-million dollar grant could have significant impacts on the regional economy. UTEP students say the grant will bring more local opportunities in the area.

CRIME	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	10/17/2022	5:08 PM	:31	A man who allegedly charged at an El Paso police officer with a knife and injured when the officer shot at him was released from the hospital. Jonathan Aguilar Kurzenberger was accused of stealing from a Neighborhood Walmart in northeast El Paso in September. Police said a security guard reported that Kurzenberger threatened her with a knife when she tried stopping Kurzenberger for theft. A responding police officer found Kurzenberger in the 4500 block of Hondo Pass Drive.
EDUCATION/COMMUNITY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/18/2022	6:01:04 a.m.	1:24	This week is National School Bus Safety Week. The National Safety Council is reporting that less than 1-percent of all traffic fatalities involve children on school buses. KFOX14's Ariana Parra spoke with Rosario Fernandez, the director of transportation for YISD. Fernandez says drivers in the YISD school district are required to attend multiple safety trainings, including driving in harsh or inclement weather conditions and procedures for railroad crossings. Fernandez also provided some tips for students. She says it's important for students to stand far back from the curb at the bus stop, follow drivers' instructions, and not to cross the street behind the bus without a signal.
CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/18/2022	6:03:16 a.m.	0:37	Police have now identified the people involved in a shooting in northeast El Paso. It happened Sunday at the Sunrise Shopping Center near Restlawn Cemetary. Police say they were investigating a shooting threat when someone fired a gun. One person was found dead. He was identified as Jewillian Maurer. Police say he still had a gun in his hand when they found his body. Three other people, including two who took themselves to the hospital, were also injured in the shooting but are expected to be okay. No arrests have been made.
CRIME	KFOX14 NEWS AT FIVE	10/18/2022	5:04 PM	:18	Two people were killed in a crash involving an 18-wheeler in the Upper Valley, according to El Paso police. It happened just before 9:30 a.m. near the intersection of Arcraft and Ddoniphan and Westside Drive reopened around 4:30 p.m.
CRIME	KFOX14 NEWS AT FIVE	10/18/2022	5:44 PM	:31	A 1-year-old died after getting run over by his father in the Lower Valley Tuesday morning. The incident happened at the 8700 block of Cathedral Street around 10 a.m. Police officials said the mother and the toddler were gathered on the driver's side of the 27-year-old father's vehicle in their home's driveway. Unbeknownst to the family, the couple's 1 -year child was also on the driveway and was run over as his father drove off. The 1 -year old child was taken to the hospital by his father. The toddler later died.
EDUCATION	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/19/2022	5:03:56 a.m.	1:30	NMSU received a seven million dollar grant from the National Institute of Health to offset the cost of expanding a biomedical facility. The university recieved a portion of money from a 2018 general obligations bond to build a biomedical lab facility-- but due to rising rates, the initial money is no longer enough to cover costs. The additional 7 million dollars will allow the univeristy to not only finish the construction of the lab but add onto it. The new lab will be for animal research with a focus on disease emergence. It is expected to be completed in two or three years.
CITY/COUNTY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/19/2022	5:02:57 a.m.	0:59	More than 100 cases were thrown out by a judge yesterday. The district attorney's office ran out of time to move forward with cases-- leading to them being dropped. Yesterday's hearing was originally set to review over 400 cases, but many had been resolved or dropped by the D-A's office. Chief Public Defender Kelli Childress says the office is refusing to communicate when they act on cases related to her clients.
CRIME	KFOX14 NEWS AT NINE..	10/19/2022	9:03 PM	3:02	The attorney representing six migrants that were reportedly shot at by twin brothers in Hudspeth County is pushing to get her clients released from U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE). The 6 migrants were part of a group of 13 who 60-year-old brothers Michael and Mark Sheppard allegedly shot at on Sept. 27.
ECONOMY	KFOX14 NEWS AT NINE..	10/19/2022	9:09 PM	2:18	Rising costs have impacted most Americans' standard of living. As inflation continues to rise, two-thirds of working adults said they are worse off financially than they were a year ago, according to a report by Salary Finance. The consumer price index, which measures the average change in prices for consumer goods and services, rose more than expected again in September. Some El Pasoans have had to create a budget, while others put the blame elsewhere.
CITY/COUNTY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/20/2022	5:03:00 AM	1:18	The twin brothers accused of shooting and killing a migrant in Hudspeth county have been moved to separate jails. An attorney representing six of the migrants who were shot in the encounter are hoping to get them released from custody after they were detained by ice.
CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/20/2022	5:00	:24	A possible new homicide investigation is underway at the El Paso County Sheriff's Office. The remains of a woman were found in Far East El Paso yesterday. Investigators say the woman is in her mid to late 30s. They say the circumstances of her death are suspicious.
COMMUNITY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/21/2022	5:08:51 a.m.	1:08	A Dallas Police Officer will be laid to rest today. 25-year-old Jacob Arellano's body was brought back to El Paso yesterday. He was killed on his way to work on October 12-th by a wrong way driver who is suspected of being under the influence. A funeral mass will be held 11 a.m. at St. Peters and Paul Church. A burial will follow at Mount Caramel Cemetary. Arellano was an El Paso native who had served the Dallas Police Department since 2019. He played football at Socorro High School and New Mexico State University.
ECONOMY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/21/2022	5:15:47 a.m.	1:20	Inflation is hitting pet owners hard, as the costs of owning a pet continue to rise. Things like pet food, supplies, and veterinary care are more expensive causing owners to surrender their pets to local animal shelters. KFOX14 spoke to the Director of El Paso Animal Services. He says he shelter is seeing more and more families surrender their pets. The shelter is offering resources to pet owners such as food, vaccinations, and blankets in an attempt to keep pets with their owners.

ECONOMY	kfox14 NEWS AT 5	10/21/2022	5:03 PM	1:57	There is a worker shortage across the U.S. and an El Paso business owner explains how he's combatting the worker shortage. El Paso business owner and co-owner of Mac's Downtown, Greg Wayne, has been in the industry for over 10 years. Wayne said he's raising wages as an incentive to attract more workers. "It's been a challenge as it is right now, we're short in the kitchen, and the front's okay," said Wayne. Wayne said he has hired several people for different positions. He said some employees stay for a couple of months and others don't show up to their scheduled shifts.
CRIME	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	10/21/2022	5:08 PM	1:50	Family and friends gathered Friday in Socorro for fallen police officer Jacob Arellano. Arellano's body was brought to El Paso Thursday after funeral services were held in Richardson, Texas. Arellano died on October 12 on his way to work in a wrong-way crash by a suspected drunk driver. Arellano played high school football at Socorro High School and at New Mexico State University.
CITY/COUNTY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/24/2022	5:03 AM	1:15	Early voting starts today for El Paso. Major races this year include Governor's race between Beto O'Rourke and Greg Abbott, El Paso County judge between Ricardo Samaniego and Guadalupe Griner, and four districts that could have a new representative. Polls open at 9AM.
CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/24/2022	5:04 AM	:22	El Paso police are investigating a suspicious death in South Central El Paso. A man's body was found in an Alley yesterday afternoon on Trowbridge and Geronimo. Police were conducting a welfare check when they discovered the body and say the death appeared to be suspicious. No other information was released.
WEATHER	KFOX14 NEWS AT NINE...	10/24/2022	9:04 PM	2:18	A cold front moved into El Paso on Monday, bringing with it strong winds and fall-like weather. KFOX14 crews noticed Halloween decorations blowing around in the wind, as well as grocery bags, flags, and trees. "I mean it blew my Halloween decorations away," said one woman. People were also seen getting pushed around by the wind just trying to get in their cars. However, most people said they enjoyed the windy conditions and that it was a welcome change.
CRIME	KFOX14 NEWS AT NINE...	10/24/2022	9:07 PM	2:14	An El Paso teen was arrested and is accused of breaking into several businesses in the Upper Valley. Officers arrested 17-year-old Jacob Perez on Sunday. Officials said Perez smashed the front door glass and damaged the cash register of Arcoiris Bakery near Mesa Street and Doniphan Drive. Perez has been charged with burglary previously around the same area. On Sunday, officers received a report of a burglary on Mesa Street around 2:50 a.m.
CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/25/2022	5:05:23 a.m.	1:26	El Paso police are investigating the death of a man as a possible homicide. The incident happened at El Paso Assisted Living Center last night in the Lower Valley. Police say an altercation broke out between two roommates. Officers were told by staff that a 62-year-old man and 88-year-old man fought and took it back to their room. Police believe the 88-year-old is responsible for the other man's death. Information is limited at this time.
WEATHER	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/25/2022	5:53:02 a.m.	0:32	KFOX14 spoke to an animal control officer who encourages pet owners to bring their animals inside in colder weather. However, if owners cannot bring their pets inside, they should provide shelter, a blanket, hay, wood shavings or other items to keep them warm. Owners should be mindful of older pets and breeds with lighter coats.
CRIME	KFOX14 NEWS AT FIVE	10/25/2022	5:03 PM	1:45	Police continue to investigate a possible homicide that happened Monday night at the Loving Care Assisted Living in El Paso's in the Lower Valley. Police have not identified the victim or suspect, but officials confirmed that an altercation broke out between an 88-year-old man and a 62-year-old man. Many El Pasoans said they preferred to care for their loved ones at home. The City of El Paso discussed how to protect the areas most vulnerable as weeds continue to grow.
CITY/COUNTY	KFOX14 NEWS AT FIVE	10/25/2022	5:09 PM	2:02	Residents living in within city limits can be fined for overgrown weeds - weeds over 12 inches tall. On Tuesday, city representative Henry Rivera proposed a moratorium that would waive the fine for people with disabilities and people over the age of 65. Rivera cited residents who are older and have disabilities don't have the capability to pull weeds out themselves. Rivera also said with the amount of rain El Paso has received weeds are growing faster than usual. If or when this moratorium passes, the city will figure out how to assist property owners 65 or older or those with disabilities with these overgrown weeds. The issue of overgrown weeds on city property was also discussed. City council talked about hiring outside companies to help with weed cleanup across the city.

CRIME	KFOX14 NEWS AT FIVE	10/25/2022	5:03 PM	2:16	An El Paso man is in the hospital after a stranger slashed his throat. Oscar Sanchez was in Louisville, Kentucky attending a conference as part of his role as a facilities manager at the University of Texas at El Paso, according to Oscar's sister, Marisol. Sanchez was at Fourth Street Live!, an entertainment and retail complex, when the unprovoked attack happened, according to a police report filed by Louisville Metro police. Sean Coats, 37, is accused of slashing two men's throats with a knife at the event.
CITY/COUNTY	KFOX14 NEWS AT FIVE	10/25/2022	5:06 PM	2:32	The Las Cruces Public Schools board discussed student injury at their board meeting on Tuesday. In the meeting, Las Cruces Superintendent Ralph Ramos and board members talked about how to improve safety in school sports following the tragic death of Organ Mountain athlete Abraham Romero. Romero's cause of death was ruled blunt head trauma.
CITY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/27/2022	5:05:54 a.m.	0:55	The mayor of Anthony, TX "Benjamin Romero" is back on the job. Romero was arrested almost two months ago on family violence charges, but he has not been convicted of any crime. There was a large public outcry to remove him from office. At a city council meeting they took a no confidence vote and agreed 5 to 0 that he lacked ability to lead. By law, council cannot take action to remove the mayor from his position, but council members and resident could still file a petition to do so. Romero says his leadership should not be in question.
CONSUMER/ECONOMY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/27/2022	5:48:52 a.m.	1:37	Inflation continues to impact people across the nation, and El Pasoans are no exception. El Paso Electric is offering people tips to help them save some cash this winter season. The utility company says customers can change incandescent halogen lighting like CFLs and LEDs to more energy efficient bulbs. Customers are also encouraged to purchase or install programmable thermostats to control the temperature in their homes. Insulation should be checked, weather stripping should be added, ceiling fans should be set to reverse spin. The company also offers rebates or programs if you do make changes to conserve energy.
CITY/COUNTY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/28/2022	5:02:00	1:24	Registered voters in San Eli ISD were being asked to approve a multimillion dollar bond. The bond is for over 24 million dollars. If the bond is approved students and parents can look forward to a new two story building on Garcia Enriquez Middle School as well as improvements to the drop off site and to its baseball field.
crime	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/28/2022	5:04:00	:33
TRAFFIC	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/31/2022	5:03:37 a.m.	0:19	Four people are in the hospital following a car crash in east El Paso yesterday. Emergency dispatchers say two of them suffered life-threatening injuries. Three cars were involved in the crash at the intersection of Global Reach and George Perry, which is by the airport. Investigators are still trying to determine the cause of the crash.
CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	10/31/2022	5:04:29 a.m.	0:34	El Paso police are asking for the public's help to find a suspect from a road rage incident. Investigators say "Israel Corral" was driving a 2012 gray honda accord on I-10 east when he got into an incident with another driver on the Hawkins exit. Police say the suspect ended up firing a handgun at Corral who was hit. The suspect then continued driving and got away. Anyone with information is asked to call Crime Stoppers of El Paso.
CITY/COUNTY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/1/2022	5:01:12	1:22	Today we'll find out whether El
Border Safety	KFOX14 News at Nine	11/1/2022	9:31:55 p.m.	:32	The head of U.S. Customs and Border Protection says the agency is looking into an incident that took place along the U.S. Mexico Border near downtown El Paso. The incident happened on Monday.
Business	KFOX14 NEWS AT NINE..	11/1/2022	9:38:35 p.m.	:22	Texas Governor Greg Abbott was in El Paso today. He first delivered remarks at the grand opening of Spectrum's Gran Vista Call Center. Its set to create more than 900 jobs.
CITY/COUNTY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/2/2022	5:03:07 a.m.	0:57	The legal effort to remove District Attorney Yvonne Rosales from office is officially moving forward. Yesterday, Joanne Bernal announced that she will proceed and prosecute the removal of Rosales. Omar Carmona first filed the petition on August 24th. He accuses Rosales of misconduct and incompetence. Hundreds of cases have been dismissed, after the D-A's office missed a deadline to prosecute.
BORDER	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/2/2022	5:04:02 a.m.	0:34	The Head of Customs and Border Protection is now looking into a confrontation that occurred earlier this week between border patrol agents and migrants. On Monday, agents were seen on video shooting pepperballs toward migrants who were attempting to cross the Rio Grande. The incident happened around noon. CBP says migrants were protesting along the border when one of them assaulted an agent with a flag pole. Then agents responded with crowd control measures they felt were necessary.
EDUCATION	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/3/2022	5:02	1:17	Some students in EPISD will have to retake their SATs after some tests were lost in transit from UPS. The district says they were able to recover some items but 55 answers remain missing. The district is also working with the college board to determine a solution for students who were affected. For now counselors in the district will provide the students with a waiver to take the ACT exams for free if they are interested.
CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/3/2022	5:02:21AM	:25	Police say a 62-year-old man was killed trying to cross the street on Picacho and 17th in Las Cruces. A Spokesperson with LCPD says the victim was not at a crosswalk when the incident happened. The man has not been identified.
TRAFFIC/CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/4/2022	5:14:59 a.m.	0:38	Sammy Christopher Flores has been sentenced to 9 years in prison-- after he killed his girlfriend in a crash two years ago in Las Cruces. Police say he was distracted while driving and drifted into oncoming traffic, slamming into another car. His girlfriend died at the scene of the crash. The Las Cruces Sun News reports that when medics arrived at the crash site they found Flores with his pants around his thighs.
CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/4/2022	5:04:53 a.m.	0:33	El Paso police say a trail of blood led them to the body of a man who was stabbed to death by his grandson. Earlier this week, Paul Martinez was arrested for the murder of his grandfather Rodolfo Murphy Senior. The arrest report says the wounds were so deep they penetrated his vital organs, and there was a violent history of Martinez allegedly beating his grandfather. Investigators found Murphy's body at his home on Webster in south-central El Paso Saturday night.

					Colder temperatures arrived into the Borderland Friday and El Pasoans are starting to break out their winter jackets and scarfs. Some El Pasoans said that the cold doesn't bother them anyway. "It's refreshing for all of us, get ready for the Christmas holidays," said an El Pasoan. Some people CBS4 spoke with said the colder weather is a nice change from the hot temperatures the borderland is used to seeing. "It's very nice, better than very hot a 120," said an El Pasoan. "It has been colder and I really like it. When it is hot, it's really hot and it's a desert so when it's cold I really enjoy it," said Priscila Deluna.
WEATHER	kfox14 news at 9	11/4/2022	9:13 PM	2:04
elections	kfox14 news at 9	11/4/2022	9:07 PM	1:32	Reports of voter intimidation have been circulating across different cities in the U.S. According to the ACLU, voter intimidation is rare and unlikely. But if someone is attempting to interfere with your right to vote, it may be voter intimidation and a violation of federal law. While some people say that they don't feel comfortable going out to vote because of the campaign workers, there are other people who say they don't have any concerns and won't mind if there's extra security at polling locations. "I guess it would be good to see extra security just, you know, extra precautions, extra safety measures. It's never a bad idea," said Ariel Castillo. "I feel pretty much pretty comfortable going to the polls. I think I'm going next week," said Jesus Miramontes.
city/county	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/7/2022	5:01 AM	1:23	El Paso business strong and the better business bureau are teaming up to provide assistance to new and existing small businesses. using the el paso business strong website...business owners can now find customers, suppliers and competitors throughout the country. you can also see how your small business can size up in the city, county or state.
elections	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/8/2022	5:02 AM	:13	A big race on the ballot is the battle for Texas Governor. Former El Paso Congressman Beto O'Rourke appears to be behind Republican incumbent Greg Abbott. The latest polls show Abbott has a 10 point lead in the race. election day is tomorrow. polls are open from 7AM to 7PM.
IMMIGRATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	11/7/2022	5:06 PM	3:00	Officials with the U.S. Border Patrol provided an update on the migrant situation in El Paso and said they are again releasing migrants into the streets. Since November, the El Paso sector has seen an elevated number of migrant encounters, officials said. Agents are seeing an average daily encounter of 1,651 migrants throughout the sector, officials said. The El Paso sector has averaged 3,660 daily migrants held at the El Paso Sector's Central Processing Center.
CRIME	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	11/7/2022	5:11 PM	:28	Police officials said the man in connection to the deadly hit-and-run crash on I-10 near Dallas on Sunday has been arrested. Officers arrested 42-year-old Hector Octavio Saenz. Officials said an anonymous tip to investigators led to the discovery of the vehicle and the identification of Saenz. Saenz was arrested Sunday night.
TRAFFIC	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/8/2022	5:08:47 a.m.	1:12	One person is dead after being thrown from a vehicle Tuesday morning. El Paso Special Traffic Investigators are on the scene of the two-car crash. It happened on I-10 West at Piedras. This is the second crash on I-10 west, with the other occurring late Monday evening. Traffic is currently being diverted off of Copia.
CITY/COUNTY/STATE	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/8/2022	5:00:39 a.m.	1:53	Today is election day, and polls will be open in El Paso County and Dona Ana County from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. There are more than 100 polling locations throughout El Paso and 42 in Dona Ana County, and you can vote at any location. All voters need a valid ID. New Mexico residents, on the other hand, can still register to vote today. A big race voters are following is the race for the Governor's seat between Greg Abbott and gubernatorial Candidate Beto O'Rourke, but 4 city seats are on the ballot, out of 8 in total, and voters will decide on bonds totaling about 272 million dollars.
CITY/COUNTY/STATE	kfox14 news at 5	11/8/2022	5:01 PM	1:31	Republican Gov. Greg Abbott has won reelection to a third term in Texas, defeating Democrat Beto O'Rourke. Abbott's victory underscores Republicans' continuing dominance in Texas, where no Democrat has won statewide office in nearly 30 years. "We started this campaign in South Texas. We celebrated our primary victory in South Texas. Tonight, we return to South Texas to celebrate re-election for four more years of conservative governance," Abbott said to supporters at the Quinta Mazatlan World Birding Center in McAllen Tuesday night.
CITY/COUNTY/STATE	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	11/8/2022	5:05 PM	1:21	32-thousand voters have casted their ballots. Lisa Wise -- el paso county elections administrator says in ... addition to the 32-thousand votes casted today -- 100-thousand ballots were turned in during the early voting period ... and through ballots-by-mail. she says while el paso could hit around 30-percent of voter turnout ... it will not be as high as back in 2018 when el paso hit 45-percent. while people have shown up in volumes -- wise adds it's harder to pinpoint the major race that's on people's minds. i spoke to the county elections administrator who tells me -- while this early voter turnout went well -- it will not be as high as the one in 2018.

TRAFFIC	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/9/2022	8:17:36 a.m.	0:25	Three teens who died in a crash in chaparral were students in the Gadsden School District. The crash happened on Friday on Angelina Boulevard and Steve Drive. District officials say Alan Rey and Daniel Rivera Junior were killed in the crash. They were in a car driven by a 16-year-old boy. It's unclear who the driver was. A 15-year-old girl also died in the crash, but she has not been identified.
CITY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/9/2022	8:19:23a.m.	0:17	A private company will clean up the weeds around town. El Paso City Council voted to approve the decision yesterday. City leaders say they're ready to give an outside company start as early as next week. The city says medians in the streets will continue to be the top priority for the next week.
CITY/COUNTY/STATE	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	11/9/2022	5:04 PM	2:00	A proposal for new metered homes could leave some El Paso Water customers paying $120 monthly fee. El Paso Water discussed a new surcharge for the new developed areas in northeast, northwest and east. "Question, who should pay for growth-related projects? A question that has lingered for years." Art Duran, El Paso Water Chief Financial Officer, said.
CITY/COUNTY/STATE	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	11/9/2022	5:06 PM	2:39	The Canutillo Independent School District is facing a major hurdle after voters rejected a multimillion-dollar bond. This is the second time in a row that a bond projected to cost millions of dollars for Canutillo ISD was voted down. KFOX14 sat down with Gustavo Reveles, the district's spokesperson on Wednesday. He called the results, a disappointment.
CITY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/10/2022	5:02:06 a.m.	0:59	El Paso Animal Services are investigating an incident involving two pitbulls in northeast El Paso. The dogs allegedly attacked three people and sent one of them to the hospital with serious injuries. Police say an elderly woman was in her front yard, when the dogs jumped the fence and attacked her. A young couple rushed to help her, but neighbors say it's not the first time something like this has happened in the Heritage Mobile Home Park, with the same dogs.
TRAFFIC/CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/10/2022	5:06:22 a.m.	0:27	KFOX14 has learned the cause of a bus crash in far east El Paso on Tuesday. El Paso police say the driver of the other car involved-- made a left turn in front of the bus at the intersection of Rich Beem and Tierra Flores. Both the car and the bus crashed into a nearby rockwall, and 5 people were injured. Police say the driver of the car is hospitalized with serious injuries. The bus driver and three other passengers suffered minor injuries.
CRIME	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	11/10/2022	5:03 PM	1:20	A deadly shooting was reported in northeast El Paso Thursday afternoon. The shooting was reported at the 8600 block of Robert Drive near the cemetery Restlawn Memorial Park around 2 p.m. Police officials said when they arrived at the scene they found a dead man. Officials did not identify the man but said he was believed to be in 40-50s. Police have not made any arrests. Police officers said they are unsure how many people were involved.
CRIME	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	11/10/2022	17:04	:21	Emergency crews responded to a collision involving a passenger train and a pickup truck in Tornillo. It happened Thursday afternoon at 3rd Street and Alameda Avenue. Footage showed extensive damage to the vehicle involved. The driver of the pickup truck, a man, tried to cross the train tracks in a non-designated area, according to El Paso County Sheriff's Office spokeswoman. The driver and passengers in the train suffered minor injuries.
CRIME	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	11/11/2022	5:18 AM	:26	A 22-year-old man was identified as the driver who died in a crash Monday night. Fernie Anthony Favela of El Paso died after the vehicle he was driving struck a guardrail along the 600 block of E. Missouri. Police investigators said Favela had exited Interstate 10 at the downtown off-ramp at a high rate of speed.
INFLATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	11/11/2022	5:06 PM	1:55	Inflation in the United States eased a bit, up 7.7 percent year-over-year, however, the cost of groceries is up by 12.4 percent compared to a year ago. Consumers saw the lowest jump since December of 2021 on a month-to-month basis for groceries, up 0.4%, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics' (BLS) October Consumer Price Index (CPI). Tom Fullerton, professor of Economics at the University of Texas El Paso, said this can be seen as a disinflation in grocery prices, but not a decrease. "Disinflation doesn't mean that prices across the board are going down, it simply means prices are rising more slowly," Fullerton said.
BORDER/CITY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/14/2022	5:16:16 a.m.	0:49	El Pasoans said they're speechless with how much prices have increased. A U.S. company wants to build a cargo shuttle system at the Ysleta Port of Entry. It would transport people between Juarez and El Paso. The Managing Director of Bridges David Coronado says the new clean energy system will bypass traffic at the ports, could alleviate congestion, and increase security on the streets. Coronado says there may be a fee to use the terminal, which likely won't be complete for at least 10 years.
CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/14/2022	5:15:32 a.m.	0:41	Police are trying to track down a man who they say shot at a family. The incident happened last Saturday around 7 in the evening on El Paso's westside. Police say a woman was driving an S-U-V with her family inside. She made a U turn in front of a white sports car that reportedly did not have its lights on. The driver got into an argument with the woman before shooting at her vehicle. The suspect is believed to be a hispanic male between the ages of 18 and early 20's.

					For months, several migrants have been sleeping at the El Paso Airport while they wait to get to their final destination. While the City of El Paso continues to help them out, it's not to the extent they were a few months ago. "So at this point in time, we don't have the roving teams going around and picking up folks. In large part because we are not providing the services that we were seeing prior to. However, we are connecting, we are still connecting folks accordingly and asking the nonprofit organizations (NGOs) or the CBP to connect the migrants to the nonprofits," said Laura Cruz-Acosta, spokesperson for the city.
IMMIGRATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT 9	11/14/2022	9:03 PM	2:25	A recent article by the New York Post mentioned that the recent surge is 'threatening to overwhelm' the airport.
IMMIGRATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT 9	11/14/2022	9:06 PM	3:12	The U.S. Customs and Border Protection provided new numbers Monday that showed a decrease in migrants being released into the streets. Border Patrol officials said only 50 migrants have been released since Thursday, which is a major drop from last week. CBP released 600 migrants in El Paso from November 4-7. Another 148 migrants were released on Nov. 10 and 50 or more this past weekend. CBP officials said a total of 798 provisional releases were done in over a week.
WEATHER	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/15/2022	5:00 AM	1:18	A hard freeze warning was issued for El Paso County from 2 a.m. to 9 a.m. on Tuesday morning. According to a news release from AAA, proactive vehicle checks can present cold weather breakdowns. Some vehicle checks can be performed by the car owner, while others should be performed by a certified technician or mechanic. If your vehicle is in need of any repairs, get them taken care of before winter weather hits the borderland in full-force.
CITY/COUNTY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/16/2022	5:04	1:15	The lawyers of the El Paso Walmart shooting suspect, Patrick Crusius, accused the El Paso District Attorney and others in her office of "outrageous conduct" in a new filing in the case. Crusius' lawyers asked Judge Sam Medrano to continue with the next scheduled hearing, despite the state's objections for the November 30 hearing. Crusius' defense asked for Medrano to overrule the state's objections and accused the DA and others in her office of "thwarting the justice system." The state filed an objection to the hearing and request for clarification and notice on November 7.
immigration	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	11/15/2022	5:04 PM	2:03	A federal judge on Tuesday ordered the Biden administration to lift Trump-era asylum restrictions that have been a cornerstone of border enforcement since the beginning of COVID-19. U.S. District Judge Emmet Sullivan ruled in Washington that enforcement must end immediately for families and single adults, saying it violates federal rule-making procedures.
immigration	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	11/15/2022	5:06 PM	1:10	Some El Paso shelter leaders are concerned after a federal judge on Tuesday ordered the Biden administration to lift Trump-era asylum restrictions that have been a cornerstone of border enforcement since the beginning of COVID-19.
Government	KFOX14 News at Nine	11/15/2022	9:07:00 p.m.	:52	El Paso State Representative Mary Gonzalez has introduced a new bill to protect Border Patrol Agents and U.S. Customs and Border Protection officers from having their names on public tax records.
CRIME	KFOX14 News at Nine	11/15/2022	9:15:10 p.m.	1:48	El Paso ISD fired an employee who was arrested on on kidnapping charges. El Paso Police are looking for leads in a deadly shooting in northeast El Paso. The incident happened last Thursday. Police say a 52-year-old man was found dead-- and another man with a gunshot wound was found at a nearby home. Police say that man was uncooperative with investigators but they believe the shootings are connected. Police are asking anyone with information to call them.
CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/16/2022	5:15:13 a.m.	0:25	The El Paso School Board voted to unanimously fire a central office employee without pay yesterday. Jeffrey Clay is a former administrator and principal at the district. He's accused of kidnapping and raping a girl at his home in Anthony, New Mexico. The FBI says he punched the girl and forced her to have sex with him. An arraignment hearing is scheduled for tomorrow in Las Cruces.
CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/16/2022	5:15:38 a.m.	0:43	The Las Cruces man who was accused of shooting and killing his wife has died at the hospital. Officials with the Doña Ana County Sheriff's Office said Robert Yacone died on Wednesday. The Doña Ana County Sheriff Kim Stewart said Yacone died while at University Medical Center in El Paso around 6:30 a.m. Stewart said Yacone was under 24 hour surveillance by deputies. Stewart said the El Paso County Medical examiner is doing the report on the cause of death.
CRIME	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	11/16/2022	5:06 PM	:47	Detectives with the police department's Crimes Against Children unit investigated after an outcry was made by a child. Police officials said between March 2020 through October 2022, Rotz frequented and loitered at Tessy's Home Daycare while his wife worked there. The investigation led to the discovery of a second victim. Both victims were girls under the age of ten. Tessy's Home Day Care serves infants, toddlers, pre-kindergartens and school-aged children.
CRIME	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	11/16/2022	5:07 PM	:59	The Las Cruces man who was accused of shooting and killing his wife has died at the hospital. Officials with the Doña Ana County Sheriff's Office said Robert Yacone died on Wednesday. The Doña Ana County Sheriff Kim Stewart said Yacone died while at University Medical Center in El Paso around 6:30 a.m. Stewart said Yacone was under 24 hour surveillance by deputies. Stewart said the El Paso County Medical examiner is doing the report on the cause of death.
CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/17/2022	5:16 AM	:40	The Las Cruces man who was accused of shooting and killing his wife has died at the hospital. Officials with the Doña Ana County Sheriff's Office said Robert Yacone died on Wednesday. The Doña Ana County Sheriff Kim Stewart said Yacone died while at University Medical Center in El Paso around 6:30 a.m. Stewart said Yacone was under 24 hour surveillance by deputies. Stewart said the El Paso County Medical examiner is doing the report on the cause of death.

CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/17/2022	5:02	:52	A man accused of indecency with a child was released on bond from the El Paso County Detention Center. According to El Paso County jail records, 66-year-old Mark Rotz paid a bond of $150,000 Tuesday. Rotz, who is the husband of an employee at Tessy's Home Day Care, was arrested on Monday for inappropriately touching two young girls, according to police. Investigators said one of the girls came forward about the alleged abuse. When police began to investigate, another little girl came forward with more allegations.
CITY/COUNTY	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	11/17/2022	17:05	2:18	A status hearing in the case of the State of Texas versus the suspected Walmart massacre shooter remains complicated after some of the prosecutors avoided Thursday's hearing. CBS4 was in the status hearing with 409th District Judge Sam Medrano. El Paso District Attorney, Yvonne Rosales and assistant district attorney, Curtis Cox, were not at Tuesday's status hearing. Charles Kyle Vance, an attorney from Houston, addressed the court Tuesday on behalf of the prosecution. Vance told Judge Medrano he had reviewed the case adding, "I don't have an absolute handle but I feel pretty confident." Vance was appointed Wednesday as temporary representation. Vance asked for clarification for the scheduled hearing on Nov. 30, citing information about it was "vague."
IMMIGRATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	11/17/2022	5:03 PM	2:30	Hundreds of migrants surrendered to Border Patrol agents in El Paso as a large migrant encampment in Ciudad Juarez was dismantled Thursday. The encampment, located right across the Rio Grande River in Downtown El Paso, formed soon after the Biden Administration started to expel Venezuelan migrants under Title 42. A video from our news partner KINT, showed cleaning crews throwing out abandoned tents. The video also shows migrants surrendering to agents on the other side of the river Thursday.
COUNTY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/18/2022	5:05:27 a.m.	0:36	El Paso County Commissioners did not make a decision on whether or not they should issue 100 million dollars in certificates of obligation. The item, that was supposed to be discussed in a meeting yesterday, was deleted from the agenda. The certificate funds would be used to make renovations to county facilities like the county courthouse and Ascarate Park.
CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/18/2022	5:15:27 a.m.	0:38	A 14-year-old Eastwood High School student was taken into custody yesterday after police say he took a handgun to school. The incident happened just after 9 yesterday morning. An anonymous tip was made to a teacher who took immediate action and notified police and school security. YISD says no threats were made by the student.
CRIME	KFOX14 News at Nine	11/21/2022	8:59:53 p.m.	2:35	A deadly shooting involving a NMSU basketball player stemmed from a fight last month at NMSU, according to court documents. We got a hold of the arrest affidavit of Jonathan Smith. He's one of three people accused of luring Mike Peake to a deadly confrontation.
CRIME	KFOX14 News at Nine	11/21/2022	9:10:16 p.m.	:21	Police identified the 65-year-old man killed in a crash in northeast El Paso over the weekend. Police say Juan Gutierrez was driving on U.S. 54 when he lost control and crashed.
COUNTY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/22/2022	5:02:56 a.m.	0:47	District Attorney Yvonne Rosales could be suspended from office until her recall trial starts in March. Yesterday, El Paso County Attorney Jo Anne Bernal filed a 19 page court document calling for Rosales' immediate suspension, citing the Da's failures. A hearing is now scheduled for December 15th to determine if Rosales should be suspended. A separate meeting will take place Monday, November 28th to ask Rosales' attorneys to legally withdraw from the Walmart shooting case.
CITY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/22/2022	5:05:04 a.m.	1:45	El Paso City Council is expected to approve an agreement this morning that will allow the city to have access to 18 million dollars in state funding. The funding would help add intelligent transportation systems to ports of entry across El Paso. The systems will help manage traffic conditions in real time, and the addition of the I-T-S is the second phase of a 32 million dollar project. The project will take 3 to 5 years to complete. House Republican leader Kevin McCarthy was in El Paso Tuesday.
IMMIGRATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	11/22/2022	5:05 PM	1:42	McCarthy called for Department of Homeland Security Secretary Alejandro Mayorkas to resign. He threatened an impeachment inquiry if Mayorkas doesn't resign. McCarthy said House Republicans will investigate DHS's action. U.S. Congressman Tony Gonzales hosted McCarthy's visit to the southern border. McCarthy, Gonzales, and other in the GOP delegation toured Border Patrol's West Bridge Incident Command Post near the border. Migrants camped out along the border in Ciudad Juarez shouted across the way to the group in El Paso.
CRIME	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	11/22/2022	5:11 PM	1:25	A municipal court judge is expected to decide the fate of three pit bulls on Tuesday after biting three people in northeast El Paso nearly two weeks ago. The hearing was scheduled to begin at 3 p.m. The incident happened at a mobile home park on Nov. 9. The pit bulls were placed under a 10-day quarantine after the attack. Tyler Marchese and Clevy Nelson are two of the three victims. The owner of the dogs, Julio Cesar Vargas was present but did not want to provide comment. It is unknown how the dogs escaped from the area where they were being held. The investigation was being led by the Animal Services Department.

Border Safety	KFOX14 News at Nine	11/22/2022	9:00:19 p.m.	2:31	House Republican leader Kevin McCarthy was in El Paso on Tuesday. He was touring the border along with other GOP leaders. He also announced he wants to hold hearings on the border so that democrats could get a look at the migrant situation.
CRIME	KFOX14 News at Nine	11/22/2022	9:03:13 p.m.	:21	A motorcycle crash sent one person to the hospital in central El Paso. It happened around 4 p.m. near Chelsea and Trowbridge.
CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/23/2022	4:59	:24	A person was taken to the hospital after a shooting in Canutillo Tuesday night. The shooting happened at the 7100 block of 3rd Street. Deputies confirmed one person was taken to the hospital. Their condition is unknown. It's unknown what led to the shooting. This is a developing story.
CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/23/2022	5:02	:23	University of New Mexico Director of Athletics Eddie Nuñez announced Tuesday that there won't be a men's basketball game between them and New Mexico State this season. That includes their game scheduled on December 3 against the Aggies. The news comes following the tragic fatal shooting that occurred last weekend involving a student at UNM and NMSU basketball player Mike Peake. New Mexico state police said there was an altercation between two men early Saturday morning, the 19 and 21 years old were both shot.
IMMIGRATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	11/23/2022	5:02 PM	2:29	El Paso Sector Border Patrol said the current migrant surge is hindering their efforts to stop some from entering the country illegally. This comes after a FOX News Channel national correspondent captured video of migrants running into the United State in Anapra, New Mexico, located south of Sunland Park. "Unfortunately got aways is something that happens. It's when we've been following a group of migrants and we lose those migrants, we lose the probability or chances of making that arrest, we lose the certainty of arrests of those migrants," said Carlos Rivera, spokesperson for U.S. Border Patrol El Paso Sector.
CITY/COUNTY	KFOX14 NEWS AT 4	11/22/2022	5:08 PM	2:27	The Las Cruces Police Department is offering a $30,000 hiring incentive to hire experienced police officers. Las Cruces Police told KFOX14 that while they no longer struggled with an officer shortage they offered this incentive to plan and be prepared for the retirement of some of their officers.
CITY/COUNTY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/24/2022	7:08:32 a.m.	1:10	El Paso's 86th annual Sun Bowl parade is taking place this morning at 10 a.m. The parade is happening in central El Paso and will span 2.7 miles from Ochoa to Copia. This year's theme is Mardi Gras. There will be 100 units participatin,g, and those include clowns, horses, floats, and marching bands. All streets one block above and below Montana Ave. will be closed from Mesa to I-54.
BORDER SAFETY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/24/2022	7:02:18 a.m.	0:26	Sunland Park Fire has called off a search by the border wall. The department was looking for two people late yesterday evening in desert areas at the location, but shortly before 11:30 the department said they were not able to locate the two individuals. The department also responded to a seperate call in which a woman fell from the wall. She was transported to the hospital and is said to be in stable condition.
INFLATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT 9	11/24/2022	9:01 PM	2:08	Many El Pasoans were out making a final trip to the grocery store as they prepared for their Thanksgiving dinner. Inflation has increased the price of staple items. El Pasoans who were last-minute shopping told KFOX14 inside the grocery store was hectic. "It felt like Black Friday. I went in there and it was packed. It felt like Walmart was getting ready to empty everything out," Irvin Samaniego said. El Pasoans were getting some much-needed items for their Thanksgiving dinner. "I gotta get a bottle of wine last minute shopping. I already have an apple pie in the car," Elias Rodriguez said. Inflation has increased the price of items at the store. A feast for 10 with 12 menu items including a turkey, stuffing, cranberries, and pumpkin pie will cost on average $64.05, up $10 dollars from last year, according to the American Farm Bureau Federation. El Pasoans said they felt the strain on their pocketbook.
HEALTH	KFOX14 NEWS AT 9	11/24/2022	9:03 PM	2:35	The holidays are meant to be a joyful time but with extra layers of stress this year like the rise in inflation, psychologists say keeping an eye on your mental health is important. Dr. Melanie Longhurst is a licensed psychologist and assistant professor at Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center She said that this year, the holiday season could take a toll on people's mental health. "I think a lot of people are stressed out for various reasons," said Longhurst. She said the holidays, for many, are the most difficult time of the year when it comes to mental health. The American Psychiatric Association says 41 percent of Americans reported that their stress levels increased during the holidays.
INFLATION	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/25/2022	5:05 AM	1:15	Many shoppers in the Borderland took advantage of the store deals on Black Friday. The Cielo Vista Mall opened its doors at 5:30 on Friday with shoppers lining up as early as 4 a.m. Even with inflation impacting the pockets of many, shoppers said they were prepared to take advantage of the day's deals. While many people have shifted to online shopping, one El Pasaon said he still prefers to shop in-person.
WEATHER	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/25/2022	5:25	:30	A 4.9 magnitude earthquake was reported in West Texas on Thanksgiving Day. According to the United States Geological Survey, the earthquake was reported in Mentone, Texas at 12:19 p.m. It's unknown at this time what areas felt the shock.

CITY/COUNTY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/28/2022	5:02:04 a.m.	1:40	The city of Las Cruces is launching a new bus transit system called Roadrunner Transit. It will offer free rides through its zero fare trial program. Eight routes will be available, and the city has also prepared a Dial-aRide program. It is a paratransit service that provides on-demand transportation services to individuals with disabilities and those who are over 60 years old. The zero fare program will last until the end of June.
CITY/COUNTY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/28/2022	5:05:43 a.m.	0:26	District Attorney Yvonne Rosales is expected to appear in court this afternoon for a hearing related to her removal case. Rosales' lawyers are also expected to withdraw from the case. A hearing related to the handling of the Walmart case is scheduled for Wednesday, where a judge will decide if a gag order was violated.
CITY/COUNTY	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	11/28/2022	5:05 PM	1:56	District Attorney of El Paso, Hudspeth, Culberson counties, Yvonne Rosales, announced her intent to resign from office on December 14. Rosales' move comes after accusations that led a petition to have her removed from office. Rosales submitted her letter of resignation to Governor Greg Abbott Monday. "It is with heavy heart that I tender my letter of resignation effective 5 p.m., December 14, 2022. Salah George Al'Hanna, First Assistant District Attorney, will serve as the temporary replacement, according to Richard Roman, Rosales' new attorney.
city/county	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	11/28/2022	5:15 PM	1:11	Residents of Mesilla will voice their thoughts during a town meeting about the controversial proposal with Verizon to build a cell tower in their historic district. In partnership with the town of Mesilla, Verizon proposed to build a cellphone tower in Town Hall Park, which is surrounded by a neighborhood. KFOX14 spoke with some residents who said they were against the tower because it would disturb their peace. A Mesilla planning and zoning commissioner said they were not made aware of the proposal.
BORDER	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/29/2022	6:05:45 a.m.	0:31	Many migrants in our sister city across the border will now have to resort to sleeping on the streets- after a migrant encampment was dismantled. The tent community known as Little Valenzuela was set up in October and was home to about 400 migrants. However, it was taken down yesterday, leading to clashes between migrants and police. Migrants were offered the chance to be taken to city shelters.
CITY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/29/2022	6:18:18 a.m.	0:42	Today, the city will vote on whether or no to approve the multi-million dollar Bridge of the Americas project. Yesterday border officials met with stakeholders and community members to discuss the 18 million dollar project. Although it is meant to improve efficiency and infrastructure, it would impact affordable housing in the area.
CITY/COUNTY	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	11/29/2022	5:04 PM	2:11	Yvonne Rosales was elected El Paso District Attorney in a runoff election in 2022. Rosales narrowly defeated fellow Democrat James Montoya, who was at the time, an assistant district attorney in the DA's office under the Jaime Esparza administration. KFOX14 spoke with Montoya the day after it was learned Rosales would resign from her position about the mounting criticism Rosales faces. Montoya discussed what he thinks of Rosales' resignation.
city/county	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	11/29/2022	5:41 PM	1:56	The city of Anthony, New Mexico introduced a new property tax rate and now after 12 years, residents will start paying property taxes for the city. KFOX14 spoke with Mario Juarez-Infante Anthony, New Mexico's city manager who said the money would go into paying the maximum amount allowed. "My role as city manager is, governing body says, "hey this is what the committee that we keep getting complaints about potholes, graffiti, weeds. They want officers at the schools they want to do this we got to do that. Well, you know what? That costs money," said Juarez-Infante.
CITY/COUNTY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/30/2022	6:00:06 a.m.	1:36	A status hearing for the August thirdd walmart mass shooting is scheduled for this afternoon at one. It's to determine if a gag order was violated by District Attorney Yvonne Rosales or anyone in her office- In relation to the case. Judge Ssam Medrano Jr. set the order, which prohibits attorneys, parties, and witnesses from discussing the case to the public. It was initially put in place in July, after Rosales released a statement and spoke to the media about the case. Rosales alleges that the order was never set properly.
BORDER SAFETY/ TRAFFIC	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	11/30/2022	6:06:20 a.m.	0:29	TxDOT is adding new signs along the border highway near Executive, Fonseca and Midway. They warn drivers to watch out for people running across the road. Eight signs have already been put up, and two more will be added. This after a 12-year-old girl and guatemalan man were killed while crossing in those areas within the last week.
CITY/COUNTY	kfox14 news at 5	11/30/2022	5:06 PM	2:29	Wednesday's hearing to resolve who violated the gag order set by Judge Sam Medrano happened without El Paso District Attorney, Yvonne Rosales. The hearing at 1 p.m. began with a packed courtroom without Rosales and any representation from the state. Moments later, attorney Charles Vance arrived for the hearing. He was the only representative of the DA's office in the room. Vance explained to Medrano he is not part of the Walmart prosecution team. The courtroom expected to see Rosales since Medrano requested Rosales' appearance in the last hearing. A court security informed Medrano that Rosales was in the building but throughout the hearing Rosales never showed up.

					On Wednesday UTEP and NMSU had a rivalry game in Las Cruces. This came after a deadly shooting on the UNM campus involving a NMSU basketball player. NMSU told KFOX14 this was the first time in recent memory the university added metal detectors for a basketball game. There has not been any problems between UTEP and NMSU, but given what happened in Albuquerque, the night before a scheduled game against New Mexico, they wanted to be extra careful going into this rivalry game. "I think it'll keep everyone a lot safer," said NMSU student Jarrod Moseley. "I do think it would make me feel safer because you just have a sense of, ok, I'm ok," said Lauren Smith, an NMSU student. Ahead of the basketball game against UTEP, NMSU set up metal detectors at every entrance of the Pan American Center. "It'll keep people at a peace of mind because of the events that just enrolled in Albuquerque," said Moseley. Police said, an NMSU basketball player was lured into an ambush where he was shot and then killed one of his attackers as he ran away.
CRIME	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	11/30/2022	5:09 PM	2:27
CRIME	KFOX14 News at 9	11/30/2022	9:00:48 p.m.	1:45	El Paso District Attorney Yvonne Rosales did not show up for the status hearing in the Walmart Shooting case. Instead Charles Vance an attorney based out of Houston was left to answer in her place. Court staff said Rosales was in the building, but chose not to appear in court.
CRIME	KFOX14 News at 9	11/30/2022	9:02:52 p.m.	2:50	State Judge Sam Medrano ruled the family of the August third shooting victim Alexander Hoffman did not violate the gag order he imposed back in the summer. The El Paso District Attorney's Office had accused them of violating the order. The family had accused Rosales' office of impersonating them.
CITY/COUNTY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/1/2022	5:05AM	2:15	Sunland Park Fire has called off a search by the border wall. The department was looking for two people late yesterday evening in desert areas at the location, but shortly before 11:30 the department said they were not able to locate the two individuals. The department also responded to a separate call in which a woman fell from the wall. She was transported to the hospital and is said to be in stable condition.
city/coutny	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/1/2022	5:51AM	:45	El Paso County opened its first all-abilities playground Wednesday. The playground is located at Gallegos Park in Canutillo and is the first of three all-abilities playgrounds to open in the county. It is meant to be a space that provides inclusive play opportunities for children of all ages and abilities. They are designed to promote the healthy development of all children's physical, social, cognitive, and sensory abilities, according to the county. The other two all-abilities playgrounds are set to be completed in 2023 at Ascarate and Risinger Parks. The El Paso County Parks and Recreation Department, in partnership with Moms on Board (MOB) held a ribbon-cutting ceremony Wednesday to celebrate the opening of the playground. "As you can see, you know it focuses on disabilities, but we also have learned that when kids that don't have disabilities play with kids who do have disabilities, there is a lot of empathy that goes into that and everybody can come ahead," Ricardo Samaniego, El Paso County Judge. The all-abilities playground funding is part of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department (TPWD) Local Parks Urban Outdoor Recreation Grant, which was awarded to the County Parks and Recreation Department in early 2019.
CITY/COUNTY	KFOX14 NEWS AT 9	12/1/2022	9:08 PM	2:51	El Paso District Attorney Yvonne Rosales showed up to court Thursday after she failed to appear Wednesday. Rosales was facing a "show cause" court order after not appearing Wednesday. The embattled DA was called to the stand to answer questions from the defense. She invoked her Fifth Amendment right to not answer questions by the guidance of her attorney, Richard Roman. Rosales repeatedly refused to answer questions from the defense attorney Joe Spencer, who represents suspected Walmart shooter, Patrick Crusius. Some questions Spencer asked about were over intimidating victims and Rosales' whereabouts. Judge Sam Medrano ended the questioning and cleared Rosales from the witness stand and the courtroom.
CITY/COUNTY	KFOX14 NEWS AT 9	12/1/2022	9:05 PM	2:57	El Paso District Attorney Yvonne Rosales and former Assistant District Attorney Curtis Cox repeatedly invoked their Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination at hearings in the Walmart mass shooting case this week. Rosales, who was ordered to appear at Thursday's hearing, did not answer any questions about a possible violation of a gag order in the Walmart shooting case. When she was called to the stand, every question she was asked was met with the same answer. Rosales: "On the advice of counsel, I plead the 5th amendment and assert my constitutional rights to remain silent." Rosales: "Under advice of counsel I plead the 5th amendment and preserve my rights under the constitution." Rosales: "Under the 5th amendment I reserve my rights to remain silent on the advice of counsel."

					The story of migrants on the streets of El Paso repeats itself. Federal agents continued to provisionally release migrants and many were unaccompanied and had to spend nights out on the streets. KFOX14 saw several migrants crying on the phone to their family members as they tried to figure out what's next. This comes as several shelters in El Paso are over capacity and had to turn migrants away. "It was difficult because if right now it's cold and the sun is out imagine how cold it is at night. We were shivering, our lips are dry and busted because of the cold, it's a sad situation," Anthony Chavez, a Nicaraguan migrant, said. In the El Paso Sector, more than 1,500 migrants have been provisionally released since November 4, according to Border Patrol.
IMMIGRATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/2/2022	4:32 PM	2:05	To date, El Paso is seeing approximately 2,800 daily migrant encounters. Rosales submitted her resignation to the governor on November 28.
CITY/COUNTY	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/2/2022	4:35 PM	:20	Rosales' resignation will be effective Dec. 14 at 5 p.m. Rosales' resignation comes after several issues within the El Paso County District Attorney's Office. Abbott is set to appoint a new district attorney for the remainder of Rosales' term until the next election in 2024. As of Friday Abbott has not appointed a new DA.
CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/5/2022	6:00:02 a.m.	0:30	El Paso police are looking for two suspects they say entered a bar in the Cincinnati Entertainment District with guns. The incident happened in October at College Drop Out. Investigators say the men were kicked out but returned armed. Police say the man armed with a rifle fired it twice and another man with a handgun pistol whipped a patron. The suspects were seen fleeing in a dark colored s-u-v.
CITY/COUNTY/BORDER	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/5/2022	6:05:34 a.m.	1:15	The city of El Paso is considering extending an emergency ordinance to continue addressing the migrant crisis. City council is set to meet this morning at 9 to discuss the re-enactment, which would allow the office of emergency management to prepare and evaluate the need for mass emergency sheltering, if a surge were to occur with the removal of Title 42. Title 42 is expected to expire on December 21st.
IMMIGRATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/5/2022	5:04 PM	2:43	During an El Paso County Commissioner's meeting on Monday, commissioners unanimously voted to end the lease agreement for the Migrant Support Services Center located near the airport. The Migrant Support Services Center was used to connect sponsored migrants to their families across the country. The move was made ahead of the end of Title 42, which is currently set to expire on December 21. According to El Paso County Judge Ricardo Samaniego, the bigger facility will also help with capacity issues at its current facility.
HEALTH	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/5/2022	5:30 PM	1:50	The El Paso Children's Hospital is at full bed capacity due to flu and RSV cases. Officials at the hospital said they have seen an increase in RSV and flu cases throughout the season. Some children have been taken care of in the hallway due to the lack of space. They said the number of patients during this time of year is much higher than in previous respiratory seasons.
BREAKING	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/6/2022	5:00:30	1:00	El Paso police are responding to a stabbing in Northeast El Paso. Police officials say a 30-year-old woman was stabbed on the 8600 block of Dyer just across the street from Colonia Motor Hotel. The call came in just before 3:00 AM. We are trying to learn information on her condition and more details about the incident.
IMMIGRATION	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/6/2022	5:02	1:00	El Paso Deputy City Manager Mario D'Agostino told El Paso city leaders on Monday that there is no way for them to be fully prepared for the expected surge in migrants that may come to the city when Title 42 expires. "It's not a good state. I mean we could see up to thousands a day passing through our community," said D'Agostino, who leads the city's response to the migrant crisis. D'Agostino said after talks with FEMA last week, it is becoming more clear just how dire the situation could really be when Title 42 lifts on Dec. 21. D'Agostino said they are prepping for the increase of migrants in other ways, like keeping city staff at local non-governmental organizations to relieve some pressure there.
IMMIGRATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/6/2022	17:15	2:19	The City of El Paso has not been busing migrants out of the city for weeks now but a non-profit from Houston is busing migrants from El Paso to Houston. Since October busloads of migrants have left El Paso county's processing center to Houston almost on a daily basis. Before getting on the bus the county helps set up travel arrangements for migrants to arrive at the Houston airport or bus station to get to their final destination. Karina Hernandez is the director of community relations for the Catholic Charities Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston.
CRIME	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/6/2022	17:08	1:47	New Mexico State University (NMSU) announced on Tuesday that it will contract an external, third-party investigator to review the events surrounding the shooting that occurred in Albuquerque on Nov. 19. This announcement came after new details surfaced about their basketball coaches holding onto the gun used by one of their players in the deadly shooting. KFOX14 spoke with some students about their thoughts following the incident.

CITY/COUNTY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/7/2022	5:25	1:12	The City of El Paso is working to expand its animal services facilities to better serve the growing number of animals in its care. It comes as the city continues to deal with an influx of animals. The current facilities can comfortably house between 350 and 450 animals, they are currently housing 1,000 animals. The new projects include new kennels and a new clinic that will provide more space to isolate animal suffering from respiratory diseases or parvo, and new HVAC systems.
CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/7/2022	5:01	:17	Police officials said a 51-year-old man died after a shooting at the Desert Lodge Motel in Las Cruces Monday afternoon. The shooting happened at the motel located at 1900 W. Picacho Avenue around 4 p.m. When officers arrived they found a 51-year-old man suffering from at least one gunshot wound. He died from his injuries on scene.
Border Safety	KFOX14 News at Nine	12/6/2022	9:00:23 p.m.	3:07	A viewer reached out to KFOX14 to say she noticed lots of clothes she believed belonged to migrants in her area. We went to check it out and found lots of clothes. The city tells us it cleans the area as well as TXDOT. Neighbors say migrants have come by their door knocking in the middle of the night asking for help.
Government	KFOX14 News at Nine	12/6/2022	9:05:25 p.m.	:29	The U.S. Senate confirmed Jaime Esparza as the U.S. Attorney for the Western District of Texas. Esparza was nominated by President Biden back in October.
CRIME	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/7/2022	5:09 PM	1:56	KFOX14 obtained surveillance video and the police report about last month's deadly shooting at the University of New Mexico's (UNM) campus in Albuquerque involving an athlete from New Mexico State University (NMSU). The dramatic video showed the November 19 attack on NMSU player, Mike Peake, which led to the shooting death of UNM student, 19-year-old Brandon Travis. New Mexico State Police investigators said Travis conspired with two other UNM students, 19-year-old Jonathan Smith and an individual identified as "Eli", and a 17-year-old girl to lure Peake onto campus. The surveillance video showed Peake with a female outside the dorms at the campus before three individuals came up behind Peake.
IMMIGRATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/7/2022	5:12 PM	2:24	El Paso could see a major influx of migrants as Title 42 is expected to expire on December 21. KFOX14 spoke with John Martin, Deputy Director for the Opportunity Center for the Homeless, he said he agreed with Mario D'Agostino, the Deputy City Manager, on not being able to properly prepare for what's to come with so much uncertainty if the Trump implemented policy will indeed go away or be extended. "We don't want to be in a position to have to deny anybody shelter," Martin said.
CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/8/2022	7:05:00 a.m.	1:49	The Las Cruces Police Department will moderate a public meeting this afternoon to discuss ways to protect downtown businesses from ongoing crime as the city grows in population and popularity. Topics such as crime prevention, environmental design changes, and the formation of a business watch program will be part of the conversation. The meeting will start at 5:30 p.m. at the Rio Grande Theatre, and the public is invited to attend.
CITY/COUNTY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/8/2022	6:18:07 a.m.	0:57	City leaders in Anthony, New Mexico will discuss lowering the 7.65% property taxes on December 21st. A trustee meeting was held last night. Several residents showed up angry about the increase. City leaders voted to increase taxes last July to the max amount but told residents they wouldn't see the increase until next year, but utility bills have reportedly already gone up. A n approval to lower the rate would decrease the taxes by 2% annually.
IMMIGRATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/8/2022	5:05 PM	2:46	El Paso agencies are preparing for an even higher number of migrant crossings as the pandemic-related health policy known as Title 42 is set to expire in less than two weeks. Commander of the Patrol Division for the El Paso County Sheriff's Office, Ryan Urrutia said they've noticed an increase in migrant crossings from the Border Highway into Ascarate Park. "They enter in through Ascarate and they're not trying to do damage to Ascarate, they're not trying to stay at the park, they'll move through to wherever they're trying to get to, which we're not sure but they are not staying there," said Urrutia. Urrutia added the area makes for a very dangerous crossing due to there being a highway between the border wall and Ascarate Park. RECOMMENDED: Title 42 uncertainty leaves El Paso shelters, officials scrambling to prepare for surge Through the federal grant Stone Guard, the El Paso County Sheriff's office has been able to step in to prevent fatal incidents on the highway, according to Urrutia.
CRIME	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/8/2022	5:04 PM	1:16	Officials with the Socorro Police Department said an investigation is underway at the Petro gas station in Socorro Thursday afternoon. The incident is taking place at the intersection of Stockyard Drive and Horizon Boulevard. Officials said they are looking for a suspect involved in the investigation. Socorro police did not state what was happening or what the investigation entails.
CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/9/2022	6:17:21 a.m.	0:21	Las Cruces Police have now identified the man who was shot and killed at a local motel Monday afternoon. Police say 51-year-old George Abbott was found dead the the Desert Lodge Motel on West Picacho. Detectives believe Picacho had been living there and say they're now pursuing leads on two possible suspects.

CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/9/2022	6:48:24 a.m.	0:36	Businesses in downtown Las Cruces are seeing an increase in vandalism and acts of violence. Business owners and operators say people are shoplifting and even urinating on buildings. The businesses met with Las Cruces police yesterday in a public meeting to address the problems and discuss solutions. The city has suggested putting more police officers on patrol and forming a downtown business watch program to help prevent crime in the area.
CRIME	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/9/2022	5:03 PM	:45	El Paso police are responding to a barricaded individual in northeast El Paso Friday. Police said a male barricaded himself at the 5700 Block of Sean Haggerty Dr. Hours before the Battle of I-10 between the Aggies and the Miners in Las Cruces, body camera footage showed police asking head coach Greg Heiar for his player's whereabouts. "Sir by any chance any contact with Anthony Roy or any other players that we're trying to talk to? Is there do you have a way we can get a hold of them?" Police asked Heiar. Roy was one of three members of the men's basketball program that met with Mike Peake after the shooting on November 19.
CRIME	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/9/2022	5:03 PM	2:19	The Catholic Diocese of El Paso says it currently has 5 migrant shelters. The Diocese says its not turning anyone away and looking for volunteers.
Border Safety	KFOX14 News at Nine	12/9/2022	9:08:47 p.m.	:14	The EL Paso Police Department arrested two men accused of robbing four migrants waiting for a bus. They were identified as Jaime Guerrero and Guillermo Hernandez.
CRIME	KFOX14 News at Nine	12/9/2022	9:10:54 p.m.	:29	The city of El Paso is planning some new projects for 2023. They include the opening of La Nube, the new El Paso children's museum, upgrades to animal services, and renovations to multiple fire stations across the city. The city is also working on street and lighting improvements on portions of Viscount, Yarbrough, and George Dieter.
CITY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/12/2022	5:18:16 a.m.	0:33	El Paso Police are looking for two men who stole roughly 30 catalytic converters last month. The incident happened at the Region 19 Head Start Serevice Center in northeast El Paso on November 23rd. The center suffered approximately 100 thousand dollars in losses and damages from the crimes.
CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/12/2022	5:06:02 a.m.	0:47	El Paso has seen another migrant crisis at the border as a large caravan made their way to the border. Department of Homeland Security Secretary Alejandro Mayorkas visited El Paso on Tuesday to meet with El Paso leaders to find solutions on the migrant crisis. Thousands of migrants turned themselves in to Border Patrol agents over the weekend. Mayorkas visited the border to see for himself what the community has been seeing in the past days.
IMMIGRATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/13/2022	5:03 PM	2:44	As hundreds of migrants continue to make their way to the U.S.-Mexico border, many of them are making their way to El Paso streets. Migrants were seen sleeping next to bus stations and inside the Union Plaza Parking Garage amid the freezing temperatures in Downtown El Paso. "We felt the brutal cold," said Ismael Ortega, a migrant. "The cold gets a lot more intense," said Antonio Marcos, another migrant.
IMMIGRATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/13/2022	5:08 PM	2:25	A 17-year-old Jacob Perez is accused of burglarizing 8 businesses in West El Paso. Perez had been arrested back in July for similar accusations.
CRIME	KFOX14 News at Nine	12/13/2022	9:14:19 p.m.	:29	A local assisted living center hosted a free dementia experience. The Village at Northrise in Las Cruces offered it to give insight for what its like for those who have dementia.
Health	KFOX14 News at Nine	12/13/2022	9:39:45 p.m.	:30	The new District Attorney for El Paso, Culberson and Hudspeth counties was appointed by the Texas Governor. Republican Governor Greg Abbott appointed Bill D. Hicks as the new district attorney. Hicks will take over the El Paso District Attorney's Office for the remainder of Yvonne Rosales' term.
city/county	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/14/2022	5:04 PM	1:55	With many migrants sleeping on the streets due to the migrant crisis help is coming from all parts of Texas. A woman from San Antonio came to El Paso to help with the recent migrant arrivals. Sandra Grace Martinez has been in El Paso for four days and has spent $400 on buying needed items for migrants. "Busloads of people coming and being dropped off by CBP, they have no food, shelter, no water, no belongings, they've been stripped of their belongings," said Martinez. Martinez is a crisis manager clinician. She is part of the Pilgrimage Journey for Justice which is making stops across the southern border. She is making her way from Brownsville to San Diego. One of her stops is El Paso.
IMMIGRATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/14/2022	5:10 PM	2:25	County Commissioners are scheduled to meet this morning for a special meeting. The will discuss approving a request for 1.8 million dollars. This-- after Bill Hicks replaced former District Attorney Yvonne Rosales. The DA's office is requesting the funds to fill full-time positions for 10 legal secretaries and 10 senior trial attorneys. Each legal secretary would be paid nearly 59 thousand dollars while each senior trial attorney would be paid over 120 thousand dollars. The request is intended to help with the case backlog and workload increase.
COUNTY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/15/2022	5:01:32 a.m.	1:24	City leaders say the federal government is sending 6 million dollars to El Paso to help with the mass arrival of migrants that started over the weekend. The money could help offset the cost of processing, sheltering, and feeding the 600 migrants a day who are expected to be released onto El Paso streets starting in January. This-- as Title 42 is expected to be lifted next Wednesday.
BORDER/CITY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/15/2022	5:04:39 a.m.	0:41

IMMIGRATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/15/2022	5:04 PM	2:21	KFOX14 got access to the Rio Grande where hundreds of migrants waited to be let into Border Patrol's Processing Center to start their asylum-seeking process. Migrants showed up in large numbers in the El Paso sector since Sunday. " We left in Colombia our dreams our goals our life and we want to start fresh and from scratch and give a better quality of life to my daughter," Sebastian Jimenez, a Colombian migrant said. "It's been a bit difficult, but thank God we're here already," Leydi, a Colombian migrant said.
CRIME	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/15/2022	5:13 PM	:20	he target of a narcotics operation at a Petro Gas Stop involved a 22-year-old man who was dealing cocaine, according to the arrest report. The large law enforcement presence in Socorro on December 9 stemmed from a drug bust at the truck stop near Interstate 10. David Angel Roque had sold baggies of cocaine to an undercover sheriff's detective on two separate occasions, according to a criminal complaint affidavit. The first drug deal was on November 15. Roque agreed to meet with the detective for
BREAKING	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/16/2022	5:05 AM	1:00	One person was taken to the hospital following a crash in northwest El Paso. The crash happened shortly after 2 a.m. at Cimarron Market on Friday. El Paso fire dispatch confirmed one person has suffered serious injuries.
immigration	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/16/2022	5:01 AM	2:22	With the possible end of Title 42 on the horizon, El Paso County Commissioners are working ahead to make sure they are prepared for the possible surge of migrants. According to County Judge Ricardo Samaniego, since Thursday's meeting will be their last, he wants to be proactive when it comes to the migrant situation. He said they are giving Chief Administrator Betsy Keller the authority to make decisions about the migrant situation if Title 42 is lifted. He says that this move doesn't mean commissioners will be left in the dark.
IMMIGRATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/19/2022	5:06 PM	2:16	The Supreme Court is temporarily blocking an order that would lift pandemic-era restrictions on asylum seekers. But it is leaving open the prospect of lifting the restrictions by Wednesday. The order Monday by Chief Justice John Roberts comes as conservative states are pushing to keep limits on asylum seekers that were put in place during the beginning of the coronavirus pandemic. They are appealing to the U.S. Supreme Court in a last-ditch effort before the limits are set to expire. In the one-page order, Roberts granted a stay pending further order and asked the government to respond by 5 p.m. Tuesday. That is just hours before the restrictions are slated to expire on Wednesday. Gov. Abbott made the announcement on Twitter on Monday. Title 42 was set to expire on Dec. 21.
CRIME	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/19/2022	5:28 PM	:20	A 17-year-old was arrested and accused of shooting and killing his mother Friday evening. Officers arrested 17-year-old Juan Ortiz. Police identified the mother who died as 34-year-old Isabel Ortiz. The shooting happened on the 300 block of South Hills in south-central El Paso. Officials said Isabel Ortiz was taken to University Medical Center where she died shortly after arrival.
BORDER/ IMMIGRATION	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/20/2022	5:04:54 a.m.	1:26	U.S. Supreme Court Chief Roberts halted the lifting of Title 42 yesterday. A press conference was held by the White House, and the press secretary Karine Jean-Pierre says "if" and "when" Title 42 is lifted, it doesn't mean the border is open. Title 8 will likely take the policy's place. Title 8 allows the Department of Homeland Security to quickly remove individuals who do not have a legal basis to stay in the United States after hearing their asylum claim. If an individual is removed through Title 8, they will be denied reentry for five years.
BORDER/ IMMIGRATION	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/20/2022	5:15:41 a.m.	1:25	Title 42 remains in limbo while the court considers an appeal from 19 republican states including Texas. The policay was expected to lift tomorrow. Now hundreds of Texas National Guard soldiers are here in El Paso to assist with the crisis. City leaders say they will continue preparing as if the policy was being lifted, meaning that all resources will stay in place. Cicity leaders are also looking into createing a mass shelter to house thaousands of migrants, and the Red Cross is coming to the city to provide cots, blankets, clothing and food.
IMMIGRATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/20/2022	5:06 PM	2:21	The Supreme Court ruled to uphold Title 42 two days before it was set to expire on December 21. El Paso continued to feel the impact of migrants that arrived at the El Paso border. KFOX14 spoke with the former Tucson Border Patrol Chief, Dr. Victor Manjarrez Jr., about the outlook for the El Paso sector can expect moving forward. Manjarrez Jr. told KFOX14 Title 42 being extended will not bring a slowdown, but said the situation will only get worse. "It's unprecedented when you look at the El Paso sector it's one thing but then when you look along the southern border I have never seen this in the last 35-40 years," Manjarrez Jr. said.

IMMIGRATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/20/2022	5:08 PM	1:28	Texas National Guard troops and Texas state troopers conducted training exercises on the border near downtown El Paso on Tuesday. The Texas National Guard troops constructed a triple-strand concertina barrier near the border. Texas governor Greg Abbott deployed 400 Texas National Guard troops to El Paso to assist in the migrant crisis. Additional DPS personnel were also sent to El Paso. A spokesperson with Texas DPS said they don't know how long they will be stationed along the border but said it's a coordinated effort with the U.S. Customs and Border Protection.
City/Government	KFOX14 News at 9	12/20/2022	9:00:04 p.m.	2:18	The City of El Paso has announced which facilities will be used as migrant shelters as it prepares for the removal of Title 42. The facilities include the Convention Center, Moorehead Middle and Basette Middle School.
Immigration	KFOX14 News at 9	12/20/2022	9:06:42 p.m.	:36	The Department of Homeland Security says daily migrant encounters have dropped 40%. DHS says they went from 2,500 daily encounters to 1,500. The Department says it has also expelled more than 3,400 migrants out of El Paso through Title 42.
immigration	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/21/2022	5:00	2:53	Title 8 allows U.S. Border Patrol to process and remove migrants who do not have a legal basis to remain in the United States and cannot be expelled under Title 42. "Under Title 8 authorities, any noncitizens who cross the border illegally between the ports of entry and are determined not to have a legal basis to remain will be processed for removal," according to Claudio Herrera-Baeza, a spokesperson for El Paso Sector Border Patrol. KFOX14 spoke with an immigration defense attorney, Alexis Lucero, to get a breakdown of the Title 8 policy.\ Lucero said Title 8 allows for the expedited removal of individuals who are ineligible for asylum due to criminal backgrounds or who are not able to prove their legal basis to enter to stay on U.S. soil.
CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/21/2022	5:06 AM	:21	El Paso police officials said a 25-year-old man was arrested and accused of stabbing his grandfather to death with a fork. Officers arrested 25-year-old Kevin Joe Robles. The stabbing happened on the 300 block of Colmillo last Wednesday. The man who died was identified as 81-year-old Juan Julian Macias Salas. Officers responded to a 911 call early Wednesday morning for an aggravated assault that had just occurred. The initial officer's investigation determined that Macias Salas was stabbed inside the residence. CAP investigators learned Robles stabbed the 81-year-old grandfather with a fork. Robles was arrested and taken before Judge Acosta, who issued a bail of $2 million.
IMMIGRATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/21/2022	4:59:07 PM	1:36	The El Paso Convention Center and two vacant El Paso Independent Schools will be used to house migrants, the City of El Paso announced Tuesday. The El Paso Office of Emergency Management will be preparing the former Bassett Middle School, in Central El Paso, and the former Morehead Middle School, in West El Paso, for priority use for women, children, and families.
CITY/COUNTY	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/21/2022	5:09 PM	1:50	The El Paso District Attorney's Office will begin a new chapter following the swearing-in of the newly appointed DA Bill D. Hicks. Hicks was appointed by Governor Greg Abbott to serve as El Paso's DA until Dec. 31, 2024, following the resignation of the former DA Yvonne Rosales. The swearing-in ceremony took place in the ceremonial courtroom at the El Paso County Courthouse on Wednesday.
IMMIGRATION	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/22/2022	5:02:51 a.m.	0:54	U.S. Customs and Border Protection is setting up a temporary tent facility in northeast El Paso to help with the overwhelming number of migrants crossing the U.S. Mexico Border. The building is located by U.S. 54 and Mesquite Hills. CBP also confirmed that a permanent facility will be built in the future but did not say when that will happen.
IMMIGRATION	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/22/2022	5:17:02 a.m.	1:18	The city of El Paso has set up more than a thousand cots in the Convention Center in Downtown. Parts of the facility are sectioned off to separate men, women and families. City officials say the center will be staffed by a mix of Red Cross volunteers and city staff. There will also be round the clock security at the center and other shelter the city plans on opening in the coming days.
IMMIGRATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/22/2022	5:10 PM	2:22	Severe cold weather made its way to the Borderland. Temperatures will drop drastically during the night. Still, several migrants were out on the streets of El Paso despite the city of El Paso opening temporary shelters for migrants. The migrants that were on the streets were not eligible for help since they entered the country illegally and were not caught by federal authorities. However, help came from Rafael Garcia, the pastor, at Sacred Heart Church in El Paso. "Our role is just humanitarian help in this moment of crisis and we help any family that comes to our door," Garcia said.
IMMIGRATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/22/2022	5:13	:29	The Texas Military Department is deploying 200 additional troops to El Paso amid the migrant crisis. Another 40 additional high mobility multipurpose wheeled vehicles (HMMWV) will be sent to El Paso to expand operations in the area. Using four C-130J cargo aircraft, the Texas National Guard is expediting the flow of these additional forces to ensure rapid support to the forces already in El Paso, officials said.
IMMIGRATION	the kfox4 morning news	12/23/2022	5:00	2:16	The 200 troops are in addition to the 400 deployed by Gov. Greg Abbott. Severe cold weather made its way to the Borderland. Temperatures will drop drastically during the night. Still, several migrants were out on the streets of El Paso despite the city of El Paso opening temporary shelters for migrants. The migrants that were on the streets were not eligible for help since they entered the country illegally and were not caught by federal authorities.

CRIME	the kfox14 morning news	12/23/2022	5:25	:26	a traffic stop in alamogordo leads to a big find of fentanyl pills. two women are now facing charges.. carlee edwards and ashley gonzalez are charged with trafficking a controlled substance-- and obstructing an investigation. the alamogordo police department reports that the women were stopped on sunday. during a search of their car, officers say they found more than 200 pills and more than 15-hundred dollars in cash. they are both at the otero county jail.
CITY/COUNTY	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/23/2022	5:16 PM	1:15	The City of El Paso is already under an emergency declaration, due to the surge of migrants arriving at the southern border. Friday, city council is set to meet to extend that declaration for 30 days or until they see best fit.
IMMIGRATION	KFOX124 NEWS AT 5	12/23/2022	5:05 PM	2:14	The Borderland experienced freezing temperatures overnight and migrants continued to stay on the streets of El Paso. Migrants KFOX14 spoke with said it was devastating being out on the streets but were thankful for El Pasoans who came and provided help to keep them warm. "It was tough, it was very tough. I believe it was below five degrees," a migrant said. "It was tough, extremely tough," Jose Natera said.
CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/26/2022	6:15:54 a.m.	1:25	The El Paso Police Department SWAT Team responded to a family assault in progress after midnight. Police say a 36-year-old man has barricaded himself a home on the 2200 block of Tierra Bonita near Tierra Este in far east El Paso.
CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/26/2022	6:17:19 a.m.	0:30	El Paso Police are searching for a suspect they say stabbed and killed an elderly woman yesterday afternoon. Authorities say the incident took place at a home in central around five in the afternoon. It happened on Lackland Street and Truman Avenue which is not too far from Austin High School. Officers arrived at the scene and found that a 70-year-old woman had been stabbed. She was taken to the hospital where she later died. Police are still investigating the crime.
SPORTS	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/26/2022	5:03 PM	2:05	New Mexico State University won at the Quick Lane Bowl 24-19 in Detroit vs Bowling Green on Monday. The game was held at 12:30 p.m. NMSU filed an appeal with the NCAA Football Oversight Committee requesting to play in a bowl game. The request was made because NMSU didn't get to play their full game schedule.
IMMIGRATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/26/2022	5:06 PM	2:35	the city of el paso is still dealing with migrant surge. el paso provides an update on convention center. still some questions left unanswered by the city of el paso.
CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/27/2022	4:59:00	1:14	Police officers from Pebble Hills Regional Command Center responded to a shooting at the 12200 block of Kira Christel Lane around 6:40 p.m. on Monday. A spokesperson for the police department said a man was found dead on the scene when officers arrived. One man and one woman were transported to a local hospital, however police did not say the severity of any injuries they sustained. According to police, several people were at the home when police arrived. Investigators are still looking into what lead up to the shooting, as details were not provided.
CRIME	THE KFOX14 MORNING NEWS	12/27/2022	5:02:00	:40	El Paso Police Crimes Against Persons were on the scene to investigate a death and one injured person on El Paso's westside, according to a release by the police department. Police responded to a call shortly before 4 p.m. Monday evening of a suspicious vehicle on the 500 block of Gregory. A resident in the area found a man in his 30's covered in blood in a driveway of a home in the neighborhood, according to a spokesperson for the police department. When police arrived on the scene a woman was found in the car.
IMMIGRATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/27/2022	5:16 PM	2:27	The tent-like facility in northeast El Paso will be a temporary processing center that will shelter about 1,000 migrants. The facility will open in mid-January. The facility will be located off of US-54 and Mesquite Hills. The U.S. Supreme Court ruled Tuesday that Title 42 must stay in place while legal challenges play out. In a ruling Tuesday, the Supreme Court extended a temporary stay that Chief Justice John Roberts issued last week. Under the court's order, the case will be argued in February and the stay will be maintained until the justices decide the case.
CRIME	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/27/2022	5:22 PM	1:47	El Paso police responded to a shooting in the 12200 block of Kira Christel Lane around 6:40 p.m. on Monday. A man was found dead on the scene when officers arrived, Adrian Cisneros, spokesman for El Paso Police Department said. One man and one woman were taken hospital. However, police did not provide the severity of any injuries. Several people were at the home when police arrived, according to Cisneros. Detectives continued Tuesday investigating what lead up to the shooting.
CRIME	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/28/2022	5:00:17 a.m.	1:13	The El Paso Police Department and Crimes Against Persons are investigating a shooting in east El Paso. Police say they got a call around 2 a.m. near 1441 N. Zaragoza. One man was transported to the hospital, but his condition is unknown at this time.
TRAFFIC/SAFETY	KFOX14 News at Nine	12/27/2022	9:01:28 p.m.	2:47	El Paso International Airport continues to be impacted by the Southwest Airlines cancellations. We spoke with local rental car agents who tell us they sold out to many stranded travelers.

Border Safety	KFOX14 News at Nine	12/27/2022	9:11:14 p.m.	:32	Shipping containers have now been placed along the U.S. Mexico Border. A spokesperson with Texas Governor Greg Abbott's Office says the container blockades are meant to stop illegal crossings.
TRAFFIC/SAFETY	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/28/2022	5:03:10 a.m.	1:02	Southwest Airlines has canceled thousands of flights across the country, including here in El Paso. This morning alone 36 flights are cancelled. The company's CEO say the delays are due to harsh weather conditions and employees not being able to access their schedules, preventing them from working their scheduled flights. The airline plans to reduce its schedule and
IMMIGRATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/28/2022	5:01:55 P.M	2:27	Border patrol is encountering more unprocessed migrants at check points. Border Patrol says check points are helping them find migrants who cam in illegally. migrants say they are scared to leave el paso and get deported. Check points for border patrol are at every main highway leaving the area of el paso.
CRIME	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/28/2022	5:05:43	:29	El Paso police are looking for the alleged shooter who shot and killed a man outside an eastside bar.
IMMIGRATION	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/29/2022	5:05:00 AM	1:19	The Tony the Tiger Sun Bowl game between Pitt and UCLA is scheduled for Friday but the pre-game festivities look different than the past years. Originally the Convention Center in downtown El Paso was set to host the Tony the Tiger Fan Fiesta on Thursday. However, the City of El Paso temporarily converted the Convention center to serve as a shelter for up to 1,000 migrants who have their CBP paperwork.
IMMIGRATION	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/29/2022	5:01 AM	2:42	A day after the U.S. Supreme Court ruled on the extension of Title 42 a protest took place in front of the El Paso County courthouse on Wednesday. A group of migrants and immigrant advocates walked from Sacred Heart Catholic Church to the courthouse to protest. Other members of the community also participated. Our media partner KINT shot a video of a large group protesting showing three people on a cross with a sign that said Title 42. Some of the demonstrators said they are standing in solidarity with many of the migrants that Title 42 impacts. They said that Title 42 was meant to keep people safe amid COVID-19.
IMMIGRATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/29/2022	5:06:13	2:24	DPS is helping with the migrant situation. They also told the reporters that the truck inspections are in art craft, were part of operation lone star. DPS is also assisting out in the border wall to prevent migrants from coming in through the border. . The traveler's nightmare continues on its fourth day after almost all Southwest Airlines flights out of the El Paso International Airport were canceled.
TRAVEL	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/29/2022	5:08 PM	2:36	Southwest has canceled a total of 13,000 flights since December 22. A sea of lost luggage sits unclaimed at the El Paso International Airport. Security is now present making sure the suitcases go home with the rightful owner. "I'm also missing my luggage at this point. I don't know where it is or when it's going to arrive," said an El Pasoan. Southwest flyers say they have been checking on their bags for days with no luck.
CRIME/ TRAFFIC	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/30/2022	5:00:30 a.m.	1:15	The El Paso Police Department Special Traffic Investigations Unit responded to a rollover crash in Northeast El Paso. It happened on Alabama and Mountain Ridge around 12:30 Friday morning. Police confirmed that one person has died. Southbound lanes of Alabama were blocked off from Mountain Ridge.
IMMIGRATION	THE KFOX MORNING NEWS	12/30/2022	5:04:12 a.m.	0:49	Hundreds of migrants are continuing to be released per day in Downtown El Paso. Yesterday there was a larger than normal law enforcement presence at the Sacred Heart Church. Officers were out there for pedestrian safety. They were educating migrants about the importance of using crosswalks.
IMMIGRATION	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/30/2022	5:08 PM	2:04	The city of El Paso hosted a tour of the migrant shelter at the vacant Bassett Middle School on Friday. City officials announced they were using the El Paso Convention Center and two vacant El Paso ISD schools to house migrants due to local shelters and the processing centers being at capacity. The other El Paso ISD being used is Morehead Middle School.
TRAFFIC/SAFETY	KFOX14 NEWS AT 5	12/30/2022	5:23 PM	:18	The El Paso Police Department Special Traffic Investigations Unit responded to a rollover crash on Alabama and Mountain Ridge around 12:30 early Friday morning. Police confirm one person died. Southbound lanes of Alabama were blocked off from Mountain Ridge.