They want Scripture-based solutions for the issues they face alongside their friends. “I can no longer avoid truths about racial injustice, about environmental destruction and I do not know if the Church cares about this.” For them it’s pastoral – not political. Monika Kelly reports.
Education	Closer Look	12/19	7:00 pm	30 minutes Segment 2	CLOSER LOOK: Tech Careers Encouraged Among Black Youth Through ‘Hidden Genius’- The Hidden Genius Project began when five business and tech titans, all black men, partnered to mentor black boys for careers in science and technology in Oakland California. Not only do 95% of program participants graduate from high school, but many go on to head up other impactful social and educational outreaches in their communities. Kindra Ponzio talks with founding exec. director Brandon Nicholson.

Education	Local Closer Look	10/24 11/21 12/19	7:30 pm	30 minutes	Museum/Library- Jeanice Lee met with Marcy Taylor the Founder of The Apple Valley Legacy Museum. The Apple Valley Legacy Museum opened to the public in 2015 as a sister project to The Apple Valley Trail Project which was a group whose goal was to save the Hill Top House. They are located at the Bob Hope Cottage #153 at the Apple Valley Inn. Taylor was offering her own home as a museum and then she decided to open the museum for two reasons – to help support the Apple Valley Trail Project and so people from out of town could pick up information on local history by having a volunteer staff and offering tours of historical sites. Taylor shares about how the local Pioneers had a great influence on the area. The museum offers many displays such as The Bell Mountain, toys and collectables such as the Terri Lee dolls, local history on the Fire Department, Library, Jess Ranch and memorabilia such as Roy Rogers golf boots plus many news articles and artifacts. Taylor talks about how they have a library, how people can loan and donate items to the museum by calling 760.985.1918. There is no admission fee to the museum however donations are welcome. The many community events they host throughout the year and how they are in need of local volunteers who know about Apple Valley or are willing to learn. Taylor shares about how a couple of years ago she got a call from Dusty Rogers and that E Clampus Vitus wanted to honor his parent’s legacy so on October 2021 at Horseman’s Center on Highway 18 there will be permanent monument to honor the legacy of Roy Rogers and Dale Evens. More information can be found at (hdcfoundation.org) The Apple Valley Legacy Museum is open Monday through Sat. 10-4 and Sun. 12-6.
