The following are the featured fugitives and others being sought by federal, state or local authorities. The Update (if any) gives current status, previous references, or related information.

Angel Manuel Rivera (Murder) – Rivera murdered three of his tenants on June 26, 1991. Witnesses saw Rivera pull up to the Santa Cruz house he rented out to several tenants. Rivera had an argument with tenant Geronimo Aragon Modesto about working on cars in the driveway of the house. Rivera pulled out a gun and shot him, killing Modesto immediately. Hearing the shots, Juan Rodriguez, a father of two, ran outside to see what the commotion was about; Rivera shot him as well. Rodriguez died at the hospital shortly after. Rodriguez's common-law wife ran out of the house next, leaving their two small children inside. Rivera shot her as she exited the front door, killing her immediately. Rivera then fled the scene. In 1999 Rivera surfaced at the home of a distant cousin, Felix Gusman. The Gusman family offered him a room, telling him he could stay for a few nights or until he found a place to live. Rivera, however, ended up staying for several months. Gusman had heard that Rivera had killed someone and confronted Rivera. Rivera said the shooting was in self-defense and that he was the victim of a stabbing, showing Gusman old surgery scars as evidence. It was during this time that Rivera became involved with the Gusman daughter, Myra. Rivera moved to East Chicago and asked Myra and her 11-year-old son, Orlando Sotomayor, to join him. Gusman warned his daughter of the murders, but she went anyway. Gusman never saw his daughter again. On December 12, 1999, Myra's son said goodnight to his mother and Rivera, then went to sleep. The next morning he woke up to find his mother strangled to death. Since 1999 Rivera has been getting food and shelter from the unsuspecting Puerto Rican Catholic Church. Claiming to be a religious man, he seeks the help of the community and priest for food and shelter in exchange for light yard work and home repairs. Rivera, who has used the aliases Jose Robles, Sylvester Vasquez, Miguel Rivera and Manuel Rivera, has a surgical scar on the right side of his abdomen, a lump on his left shoulder, and may have surgical scars on his left shin and knee. He takes handyman-type jobs and may make money as a day laborer. He is a compulsive liar with a history of battering his women and children. He may walk with a limp, and reputedly collects guns. Rivera is 57, 5'9" and 160-170 pounds. (See Show #665, OAD 2/16/02)

Zeke Cooper (Attempted Murder of a Police Officer, Home Invasion) – On November 17, 2001, LAPD officers Rodney Carter and Andre Nainey spotted two males illegally riding a bicycle – one was perched on the handlebars. They called for the men to pull to the curb and put their hands up. The man riding on the bars, Cooper, jumped off and was approaching the squad car with his hands up when the officers noticed a handgun in his waistband. Before the squad car was completely stopped Cooper drew his gun and fired five rounds at the car, hitting officer Carter in the arm. Both suspects fled the scene. Cooper's residence was staked out, but Cooper was gone. His girlfriend who shared the apartment told them that Cooper came home, packed in a hurry, and left without telling her where he was going. On February 26, 2002 NYPD responded to a home invasion call in Brooklyn. A couple was robbed of jewelry, cash and cell phones, and the male victim was pistol whipped by the assailants. Police tracked calls placed on one of the stolen cell phones and were able to identify the suspect as Zeke Cooper. The female victim later confirmed the identification in a photo lineup. On April 6, 2002 NYPD arrested a man for smoking a marijuana cigarette on the sidewalk. He identified himself and was booked under the name Donovan Carlisle. He was then released on a minor charge before fingerprint analysis came back identifying the man as Cooper, who has multiple outstanding warrants in New York and Los Angeles. Cooper is a "third striker" who has no regard for human life. Cooper, whose other known alias is Carlisle Donovan, has a distinctive tattoo of a tophat with sunglasses on his shoulder. Cooper is 33, 5'11" and 190 pounds.

Unknown New Orleans Armed Robbers – On April 19, 2002 at 3:00am, three masked men robbed the Diamond Jubilee Casino on the eastern side of New Orleans. Their crime was caught on surveillance tape. They were carrying high powered weapons including an AK-47 and a 9 .mm. The backpack one of the men was carrying probably contained extra weapons and ammunition. The three were also wearing body armor. Once inside, they ordered the customers to get on the floor and then they went back to the money room. The suspect toting the AK-47 seems to be the ringleader and was wearing a rubber Bill Clinton mask and camouflage. The suspects saw an armed security guard near the money room and said "Unarm her". When neither of the suspects moved to take her gun, the security guard went to give it to them, but instead of waiting, the suspect with the AK-47 immediately shot her in the stomach. She fell to the ground and they took her gun. They moved her aside to get into the money room and then shot her again in the thigh. Amazingly she survived. Once inside, they demanded the cashier open the safe. They got away with thousands of dollars and took off. On their way out the front door, the suspect with the AK-47 fired several rounds at the floor, just missing a customer. On April 29, 2002 they struck again. They walked into an Auto Zone located several miles from the casino. It was around 8:00am when the three masked men entered, toting a bag of guns and wearing body armor. Again, their crime was caught on surveillance tape. One customer inside was wearing a two-way radio on his belt. One of the suspects thought he was a cop. The suspect dragged the customer down the aisle to the back of the counter and held a gun to his head until he was convinced the man was not a cop. The suspect with the AK-47 forced the manager at gunpoint into the back office and tried shooting open the safe. They could not open it so they grabbed the store's petty cash and took off again. This time no one was seriously injured. The first suspect used a 9 .mm rifle, wore a white hooded sweatshirt, light pants, a black mask partially covering his face, and white gloves. He is 20-30, 5'8"-6'0" with a heavy build. The second suspect, the probable ringleader, was wearing camouflage pants and shirt. He is 20-30, 5'8"-6'0" with a medium build. The third suspect was wearing a long-sleeved light colored shirt and dark pants, a fishing-type hat, a dark mask covering his face and white gloves. He is 20-30, 5'8"-6'0" with a medium build.

Anthony Stephen Kuchta (Drug Charges) -- Kuchta is accused of being a Class I narcotics trafficker. He wanted by the Michigan State Police for conspiring to deliver over 650 grams of cocaine - an offence punishable by life without parole in the state of Michigan. Kuchta and four associates were arrested April 23, 1990 in a reverse drug transaction in which they purchased two kilos of cocaine in an undercover sting operation. This was to be the first parcel of a two-hundred kilo deal in which Kuchta was the money man. Arrested along with Kuchta were Pedro Molla and Giovanni Mereu. Molla and Mereu were deported after their cases were dismissed. The two Molla sisters failed to appear for trial March 16, 1991 and are also fugitives. Kuchta failed to appear the previous December. Kuchta, who has used the aliases Dave Taylor and Dade Taylor, has a scar on his left wrist. He grew up wealthy, dresses well, wears a Rolex watch, likes manicures and facials, and likes expensive American cars. He is divorced but very close to his young son. He is very intelligent. He fishes and boats, and prefers warm climates. Kuchta is 50, 5'10" and 170 pounds. (See Shows #268 and #347, OADS 5/14/93 and 1/7/95)

Unknown (Murder) -- It looked like a closed case. The parents of Sofia Silva would never get their daughter back, but at least, they thought, her killer was behind bars. Nine months later, however, the discovery of two more bodies led directly to the horrifying prospect that a serial killer was at work, and still at large. Now, the parents of the quiet town of Spotsylvania, Virginia, are keeping their children close. Now the town knows that no one is safe. On September 9, 1996, shortly after her 16th birthday, Sofia went out to enjoy the afternoon sun on the front porch of her tranquil suburban home. From there, she simply disappeared. No one could believe that Sofia had been snatched right from her own yard, but five days later, the community's worst fears were realized - Sofia's body was discovered wrapped in a blanket, tied with rope, and left in a pool of water. She had been dumped about 20 miles from where she lived. Months later, in January 1997, the Spotsylvania Sheriff's department believed they had cracked the case. Armed with loads of forensic evidence, investigators moved in on a 44-year-old neighbor and charged him with murder. They proudly announced that their prime suspect was in custody, Spotsylvania parents breathed a sigh of relief, and the Silvas' grief was finally mediated by the knowledge that someone would pay. But then, on Tuesday, May 6, 1997, the nightmare returned. The bodies of 12-year-old Kati Lisk and 15-year-old Kristin Lisk were discovered under a bridge in the South Anna River, 40 miles from the girls' Spotsylvania County home. Before long, deputies knew that someone had made a terrible mistake, and that

Sofia's killer was still at large, still looking for victims. A re-examination of the forensic evidence cleared the jailed suspect, and sent the county into paroxysms of terror. These days, no concerned Spotsylvania parent can let a child out of sight. The FBI continues to work with the Spotsylvania Sheriff's Department, following as far as they are able every one of the leads that continue to pour in. So far, two leads look promising. Seventy-five miles from the Lisk home, reports came in of a man in a white Ford pickup truck with a rear camper, chrome wheels, and a blue reflective stripe on the tailgate who attempted to abduct a 22-year-old college student. Could this be the same serial killer at work? Then, on May 17, 1998, a man tried to abduct a 12-year-old girl from her own apartment in Manassas, Virginia, about 15 minutes from Spotsylvania. The girl escaped and the suspect was arrested. But police say that it is not yet time for celebration - there are still about a dozen leads they need to follow. The Silvas don't have to be told that they may be disappointed. They've seen a suspect cleared before. Instead, they are focusing their energies on preserving Sofia's memory through the Sofia Silva Scholarship Fund. Patti Lisk, mother of Kati and Kristin, attempts to teach others about the grieving process - she recently gave a speech to a group of ministers. And as the parents of the victims reach out to others, they have also found each other, and say they have become and will always remain friends in grief. (See Shows #425, #449, #450, #452, #453, #455, #466, #498, #577 and #619, OADs 9/14/96, 5/3/97, 5/10/97, 5/17/97, 6/7/97, 6/21/97, 9/20/97, 6/6/98, 2/26/00 and 2/3/01)

Carlos Daniel Medina (Murder, Attempted Murder) – On Saturday, February 9, 2002 Margie Perez was with her mother, Zoraida Lizardi, at a bar in Cleveland, Ohio when they were approached by Margie's estranged husband, Medina. Eyewitnesses say he was hostile towards both of them and confronted them before he left. Margie and Zoraida were uncomfortable exiting the bar on their own and asked the bartender to escort them outside shortly after midnight. After the bartender got them outside and did not see Medina, he returned to his post inside. At this point Medina revealed himself. He came from out of the shadows by the women's car and stabbed Zoraida. He ran after Margie, stabbing her in the driveway by the front door of the bar. Bar patrons called 911 and both victims were taken to a local hospital. Margie Perez was pronounced dead shortly after her arrival. Her mother survived the incident. Medina, who has used the alias Carlos Daniel Hernandez, may be working in auto body repair and maintenance. He speaks fluent Spanish. Medina is 22, 5'6"-5'8", and 140-155 pounds.

Eddie J. Burgos (Aggravated Sexual Assault, Battery, Robbery) – Chicago police are seeking Eddie Burgos for the June 16, 2001 aggravated sexual assault, battery and kidnapping of a 16-year-old girl. Recently, he also became a suspect in the murder of a 15-year-old girl in Chicago. In the nearby suburb of Cicero, Illinois, police are seeking Burgos for questioning in the July 1, 2002 murder of two people. In the 2001 incident Burgos raped and beat a 16-year-old girl inside his car. He kidnapped the girl, repeatedly slammed the girl's head into the ground and then stabbed her in the neck with a sharp-tipped Puerto Rican flag. After Burgos had subdued her, he dragged her back to his Toyota Camry and raped her. Burgos was arrested in July 2001 after the victim identified him as her attacker in a photo lineup. He remained in jail until March 25, 2002 when Burgos' mother bailed him out. On Saturday, June 29, 2002, 15-year-old Ashley Beverly went to meet her stepsister's boyfriend, Eddie Burgos. Family members became alarmed when Ashley did not show up to be the flower girl in her stepbrother's wedding on Sunday. They notified police and filed a missing persons report. Meanwhile, Burgos had contacted members of the Beverly family and they knew he was staying at a motel in Cicero. On Monday, July 1, 2002, Ashley's family went to the motel to confront Burgos and try to find Ashley. A very heated argument led to a violent shooting. Ashley's father, Ashby Beverly, and Ashley's stepbrother, George Cuervas, were both shot dead in the parking lot of the motel. That same day, a delivery truck driver discovered Ashley's decomposed body under a bridge in Chicago. Police have not yet been able to determine how or when Ashley died, but are calling it a homicide. Cicero police are anxious to speak with Eddie Burgos and call him their prime suspect in the murders of Ashby Beverly and George Cuervas. On July 10, 2002, Burgos did not show up for a bond hearing scheduled in the June 2001 sexual assault case. Burgos, who has used the aliases Eddie Rios, Eduardo Otero Pagan and Eddie Martinez, has several tattoos including a large grim reaper on his left inner forearm, a grim reaper with a sickle on his upper right arm, and the word "criminal" in oriental script on his left shoulder. He is a known gang member and may be armed and dangerous. He speaks Spanish fluently and is proud of his Puerto Rican heritage. Burgos is 29, 5'9" and 140 pounds.

CAPTURED:

James Vincent Sullivan (Murder) -- James Sullivan was wanted for murder by the Atlanta Police Department and the Georgia Bureau of Investigation in the contract killing of his wife, Lita McClinton Sullivan. Police believe on Friday, January 16, 1987 at approximately 8:15am, Phillip Harwood, a hitman hired by Sullivan, rang the doorbell of Lita's condominium in the Buckhead community of Atlanta. When she opened her front door Harwood, posing as a flower delivery man, shot her in the head with a 9mm semi-automatic pistol, killing her instantly. Lita and Sullivan were involved in a turbulent divorce which entailed a large settlement of money on Lita's behalf. At the time of the murder Sullivan resided in Albermarle, North Carolina and was not considered a suspect. However, Phillip Harwood was arrested a short time later and confessed that Sullivan had indeed hired him to murder Lita. When Sullivan found out Harwood had been arrested he fled to Costa Rica before police could obtain an arrest warrant. In April 1998 police finally obtained an arrest warrant but Sullivan was nowhere to be found.

Screening Report

This will confirm that I have screened the air copy of the above-captioned episode and have the following comments:

Andre Neverson (Wanted for Questioning for Murder) – On Monday, July 8, 2002, NYPD cops arrived at the Brooklyn home of 39-year-old Patricia Neverson. She was found, shot to death. Three days later, on July 11, cops found the body of 34-year-old Donna Davis. Authorities have learned that Andre Neverson had an ongoing argument with his sister, Patricia, stemming from Andre's money which she used to buy her home. Neverson did not want the money repaid; instead, he wanted the house. Donna Davis had been dating Andre, but she had recently broken off the relationship. Neverson did not take the rejection well. The last time Donna was seen alive, she was in Andre's minivan outside a Queens, New York college where she studied. Days after the second murder, cops placed Neverson in Brooklyn, but after that, the trail runs cold. Neverson has used numerous aliases including Troy Michael Anderson, Troy Michael Henderson, Trey Michael Henderson, Andre Humphrey and Andre Henderson. He has a very muscular build and a shaved head, but he may be starting to grow hair again to change his appearance. He does not drink or smoke, is very intelligent and computer literate. At times he is very calm and serene, but he has a violent temper and has served time for attempted murder. He does not drink or smoke, and may be hidden now by one of his many girlfriends. He is originally from Trinidad, but does not have an accent. He has worked as a bouncer in Caribbean clubs and as a security guard at a hospital. He has been know to buy cars, fix them up, then resell them. He may still be armed. Neverson is 38, 6'0" and 225 pounds.

Louisiana. On October 12, 1987, the body of 78-year-old Ray Guidry was discovered in his bedroom at the Guidry Ranch. He had been beaten on the head and stabbed multiple times in the chest and the neck. The approximate time of death was estimated by the coroner between 1:00am and 7:00am. The apparent murder weapon, a steak knife, was found in the kitchen sink. There were no signs of forced entry and no other physical evidence found. Ray Guidry was the wealthiest man in Bayou Blue, but certainly not the most popular. He was ruthless when it came to business dealings and had little use for personal relationships. He was openly contemptuous of his adopted son, Vernon, who he severely beat all through Vernon's childhood. Ray's adopted daughter Tina, However, was treated like a princess, even during her adult years. Ray Guidry was known to be quite a ladies man. He was married four times, and entertained literally hundreds of women at his ranch – some of them married, a lot barely out of their teens. After Ray's murder, police discovered a secret cache of thousands of X-rated pictures of Ray's woman and a Pandora's box of sex toys. Despite a six-month investigation, a grand jury failed to indict anyone for the murder of Ray Guidry. America's Most Wanted entered the case in June 2000, enlisting the aid of two retired detectives: Ron Antoci of the NYPD and Joe Matthews of the Miami Beach PD. (See Show #645, OAD 8/18/01)

Laura Ayala disappeared late Sunday night, March 10, 2002 after visiting a Houston, Texas convenience store. Laura needed a Sunday paper for a school project and around 10:15pm on the 10th, walked approximately 100 feet from her house at 7939 Serita to the Broadway Convenience Store at 2610 Broadway. When she didn't return in a reasonable amount of time, her mother went to the store and could not find Laura. She then contacted police. Eyewitnesses, including the store clerk, have told police that Laura did make it to the store and did successfully purchase the Sunday paper she sought. Searchers found only two clues on-site: Laura's shoes and the newspaper that investigators think she purchased. Both were found in the parking lot between the store and Laura's home. Investigators fear Laura met with foul play and may be the victim of a kidnapping. They have not turned up any further clues. Witness accounts from the scene say a suspicious vehicle, described as a maroon or rust-colored cargo van with a gray bumper and no glass windows on the side, and a suspicious male, described as white or Hispanic, were nearby. Neither has been identified or positively linked to Laura's disappearance. Laura is very petite. Brian Aquino (Murder) – 18-year-old Adriana Pinon was an aspiring actress who appeared 19 times on the TV soap opera “The Young And The Restless”. She had been home alone all afternoon on January 31, 2002 when an unknown person shot and killed her. Adriana’s mother discovered her body in the living room at 5:30pm. The investigation is focusing on unknown vehicles and strangers which neighbors saw near Adriana’s house the afternoon of the murder. One neighbor reported seeing a black sedan backed into the driveway of the Pinon home. Based on interviews with this witness and others, police believe this car might be an older black Ford sedan – possibly five to ten years old – possibly a Thunderbird or Lincoln Continental. Another neighbor reported seeing a suspicious man hurrying from the direction of Adriana’s house toward what might have been a getaway car. Alfredo G. "Chino" Hernandez (Murder) - Hernandez and Juan Cardoso were drinking beer on the afternoon of April 14, 2002 in the parking lot of Juan's neighborhood. Juan went to the Crawdaddy Bayou restaurant, where Juan's brother Jorge was working, and borrowed $20 for more beer. when she was approached by the unknown suspect. Somehow the suspect was able to get Ali into the pool pump room where he brutally beat her to death. The suspect then covered Ali's body with a tarp and other pool covers. He proceeded to leave the room and shut the doors behind him. As he started to walk out of the pool's entrance he saw a friend of Ali's. According to her, the suspect stopped and looked at her, then walked back towards the pump room, and appeared to be looking around the corner. He turned around again and walked hurriedly towards a 1980's tan Ford pickup truck and took off. Like a sniper, Hulett fired three shots from 70 yards away, hitting Arvin. When Larry tried to save his brother, he was hit with a fatal shot in the neck. Arvin later died. Hulett then took off the $400 from the men's wallets, weapons, and a 2000 burgundy F-150 Ford pickup truck. Hulett fled south and several days later switched the plates on the pickup to Georgia tag 1105 ABN. Hulett, who has used the alias/nicknames "D.A." and "D.J.", has a dragon tattooed on his right arm, and unknown tattoos on his left arm and chest. He was just released from prison for auto theft. When she went around to the back of the car, Severs shot her with a high-powered rifle, and Tina collapsed into the street. Meanwhile, Bonnie and Francisco Martin, a nurse and a corrections officer, drove by and saw Tina in the street. They thought she had been hit by a car so they stopped to help. Bonnie began doing CPR on Tina and prayed with her. Francisco went back to his car, got his service weapon and cleared the area of onlookers. Francisco also realized that the shooter was still out there somewhere. When police arrived they searched the area but didn't find the shooter. Manuel Tarango, Jr. (Attempted Murder, Armed Robbery) – It was 1:22am on the morning of December 5, 1999 when Manuel Tarango, Jr., Emilio Rodriguez and a third suspect burst into Mr. D's Sports Bar & Grill. Brandishing pistols, the gunmen began firing as soon as they entered the bar, but the gunmen had picked a bar that was full of off-duty police officers that night who'd come to see a band of cop-musicians, "Pigs In A Blanket", perform. All three gunmen were wearing masks. When Tarango tried to jump over the bar to get to the ash register, several patrons grabbed him and slammed him to the floor. The third suspect began firing wildly into the crowd. At that same moment, on the other side of the bar Rodriguez engaged in a toe-to-toe shootout with off-duty cop Dennis Devitte. Devitte was shot seven times, but managed to fatally wound Rodriguez with eight bullets. Rodriguez died at the scene. Five other patrons were wounded during the attempted robbery. The entire event was over in less than twenty seconds. Police believe Tarango fled to Mexico after the robbery. The third suspect, who was wearing a white t-shirt over his head, has not been identified by authorities. Officer Devitte recovered from his wounds and returned to normal patrol duty five months after the shooting. On August 23, 1992, Connie Warner, a 41-year-old single, divorced mother, disappeared from her home in Zachary, LA. Tracey Warner, Connie's 17-year-old daughter, returned home from a weekend trip around 9pm and her mother's car was in the driveway, but Connie was nowhere to be found. Clifford Carrol Graham (Mail Fraud, Wire Fraud, Income Tax Evasion) -- It's the oldest confidence game in the book: the goose that lays golden eggs, the promise of money out of thin air. But no one ever suspected it would come from self-made millionaire Clifford Graham. In the 1970s, Graham got rich establishing the Fotomat chain - a network of little yellow shacks that suddenly sprung up in parking lots across the country. His critics called him a dreamer when he got started. He proved them wrong millions of times over. So when Graham started looking for investors for a new scheme, he didn't come up short. He had developed a number of wealthy and influential friends, and was able to impress them with his contacts at the upper levels of government - including Gerald Ford. Coming from anyone else, his promises would have looked insane at best, criminal at worst. But when he put out word that his latest company, Au Magnetics, would soon be using new technology to extract gold from ordinary sand, the world beat a path to his door. The feds say that behind his impressive sales pitch, however, Graham was in deep trouble. His millions from the Fotomat empire had dwindled away into nothing, they claim, and he wasn't about to give up his extravagant Southern California lifestyle. Whether the technology was viable or not was a moot point, they say: he wasn't in it for the gold - he was in it for his investors' cash. Graham allegedly oversold shares in his company, and instead of using the investments for development of his miracle gold machine, FBI agents claim that he lined his own pockets with $10 million of his investor's money. Among the hardest hit was Graham's own secretary, Kristine Griffin, and her husband, a veteran firefighter. They thought they were getting an inside track on a sure-fire scheme. Instead, they lost their life savings. Following an attempted investor takeover, the FBI and IRS became very interested in Graham. That when, they say, he decided to take an extended vacation. Graham was allegedly last seen living large on a Caribbean island. Meanwhile, the Griffins, their equity wiped out, were wondering how they were going to feed their second child. Graham has used the aliases "C.C." and Cliff. He has a scar from the right corner of his mouth to his right cheek and a scar on his right leg, but he may have had plastic surgery. He is a physical fitness enthusiast who wears lifts in his shoes to add up to three inches to his height. He may be armed with a revolver. Graham is 77, 5'4" and 155 pounds. Martha Ann Gomez (Sexual Assault of a Child) -- Gomez is wanted for sexually assaulting three girls between the ages of 13 and 15 from 1996 to 1998. Gomez posed as a teenage boy and usually met her victims through phone chat/sex lines. She preyed upon girls with low self-esteem, touting herself as someone who would listen to their problems. The conversations eventually escalated to actual meetings where Gomez sexually assaulted the girls. When the girls, who still believed Gomez was a man, tried to break out of the relationship, Gomez threatened their lives and their families' lives. In at least one case, police say Gomez used a gun. Police figured Gomez out and arrested her in the fall of 1998 on one count of aggravated sexual assault of a child. She bonded out. On November 24, when she was supposed to appear in court, and as police were filing three additional charges against her, Gomez disappeared. Gomez may have cut her hair and dyed it blonde. She has acne scars on both cheeks, "Gomez" tattooed on her lower left arm near her wrist and "ACE" on her upper left arm near the biceps. She has a very masculine walk, and hunches down as she walks. She claims she injured her back years ago when working in a candle factory, and used to receive disability checks for a dislocated disc in her back. She usually does factory work. Gomez has used several aliases, including Emilio Garrison, Eric Garrison, and Eric Barragan. Gomez is 38, 4'9" and 115-125 pounds. #### Jennifer Renee Short

Age: 9

Height: 4'3"

Weight: 58 pounds

Jennifer Short and her family lived in Bassett, Virginia, along a manor interstate, Route 220, just 35 miles south of Roanoke. Jennifer has been missing since Wednesday, August 14, 2002. It wasn't until Thursday morning that a co-worker of Jennifer's parents stopped by the Shorts' house early Thursday morning and discovered Mary and Michael Shorts' dead bodies. When cops arrived at the scene they determined that there had been a struggle in Jennifer's bedroom and that her parents had been killed with a single gunshot to the head each. There was no sign of Jennifer in the house, and investigators are convinced that she was abducted by her parents' killer(s). There are no suspects yet, but authorities believe that the Shorts probably knew their attacker. The family recently put their house on the market and investigators are looking closely at their realtor's records of who came through the house during the last few weeks. Michael Short worked as a mobile home mover. Business hadn't been good, and he was planning to move the family out of their home in western Virginia and into a mobile home. Jennifer is described as friendly and talkative. There were signs of a struggle in Jennifer's bedroom. (See

Unknown Richard Evonitz Victims – Police are searching for information on possible additional victims of a known child killer. A mask was found in the car of serial killer Richard Evonitz. Evonitz has been deemed responsible for murdering Sophie Silva in 1996 and Kati and Kristen Lisk in 1997. Evonitz committed suicide after a high-speed police chase in June 2002. Police were able to find Evonitz because a brave 15-year-old victim got away from his apartment in South Carolina, after enduring a 17-hour long episode of repeated rapes and assaults. Police would like to know if any victims of unsolved crimes may have described the mask found to police. They are using the mask as a tool to find other Evonitz victims. Photographs were found spliced into Evonitz's homemade pornography videos. The first depicts a child wearing clothes and a hairstyle that appear to be from the late 1960's or early 1970's. The photo appears to be a school picture. A second photo depicts a child wearing makeup like an adult. She is posed in a seductive position.

Richard Yang (Murder) B On July 4, 2001, Louise Yang left the restaurant that she co-owned with her estranged husband for home. She unlocked the back door to find her husband, Richard Yang, just inside the door with a chef's knife. They struggled and he chased her through the house, stabbing her repeatedly, leaving a bloody trail all over the floors and walls. Louise managed to make it to the dining room and into the living room where she was stabbed to death. Yang waited about 45 minutes before he picked up the phone and called police saying, "I killed my wife." Yang pleaded to 2nd degree murder. He was then released from custody by a judge so he could appear in court in another county on charges of tax evasion. Yang fled and has evaded authorities ever since. But before he skipped town, Yang placed a personal ad in the local paper in search of a new girlfriend. Authorities say he is very wealthy and that he has the resources to start another business or restaurant. They were in the 4600 block of Imperial Highway in Los Angeles headed east, and were actually talking on a cell phone with the receptionist of the Marriot Courtyard in Torrance, California. The suspect approached the open window on Boisvert's side of the car and demanded money. Boisvert complied. When he saw the telephone in Swanner's hands he demanded the phone, which was handed over. #### Jill Behrman

Age: 21

Height: 5'7"

Weight: 120 pounds

19-year-old Indiana University freshman Jill Behrman went out on a bike ride on May 31, 2000 at a little after 9:30am. The bike ride was a part of her normal workout routine. She never returned. Jill's classmate saw her about 10 minutes after she left her parents' home. Jill never showed up for work at her campus job that day. When she failed to show up for lunch with her family, the search began. At approximately 12:30pm a farmer in rural Monroe County found Jill's bike. It was about 12 miles away from her typical path. Police surmise that Jill was next to her bike, possibly drinking water, when an on-coming vehicle clipped her and injured or killed

her. Police think the assailant or assailants grabbed Jill and her bike, dumping her bike a distance away from the scene. A radio matching the description of Jill's was recovered at the parking lot of a Catholic church in Bloomington. Jill's body has not been found. Authorities are interested in finding the occupants of several vehicles. The first person being sought has been described as a 6' white male in his late teens or early 20's. The driver has been described as an "escort service driver". On that evening, authorities believe that the male drove at least one female escort to and from a call in Bloomington, Indiana. The vehicle is a late-model white or light-colored 2-door convertible. The driver of the second car is a 6', stocky-built (190-200 pounds) white male in his late 20's with professionally-done tattoos. His friend was a passenger in the front seat. He is described as approximately 5'10"-5'11", 170 pound white male, also in his late 20's. The passenger probably also had at least one tattoo. Authorities believe that on the evening in question, the male drove his friend and two females from a rural location to a Bloomington apartment complex. The car is a late-model light-colored 4-door sedan with front bucket seats, a gear shift on the floor, a radio with CD player, and a troll doll with green hair and an air freshener hanging from the rearview mirror. Authorities believe that one or more individuals who were passengers in these cars may have been involved in Jill's disappearance. The owners and drivers of the vehicle may not realize that they possess critical information in the case, or that the cars even played a role in Jill's alleged abduction. Police are also searching for the driver of a dirty older-model (1980's) full-size standard-cab pickup truck with a bench seat, badly-working radio, automatic shift on the column, and possibly a missing right side-view mirror. The truck, which may be used in construction, had a large toolbox, a heavy-duty, dirty plastic tarp, concrete or cinder blocks and assorted trash and fast food bags in the truck bed. This truck may have been borrowed from the owner or even stolen on or about May 30, 2000. When the truck was returned to its rightful owner, there may have been damage on it. The borrower may have claimed that he or she hit a deer. (See Show #651, OAD 9/29/01)

CAPTURED:

Uriah Jay Clouse (aka) Unknown Ellettsville, Indiana Attempted Abductor – On Tuesday, June 13, 2000 a man attempted to abduct an 18-year-old female in Ellettsville, Indiana. There may be a connection to the Jill Behrman abduction. Sometime between 10:30pm and 11:00pm, in an alley behind the Bigfoot Convenience Store, a white male in a large black vehicle, possibly a pick-up truck with a black camper shell, reached from within the cab of his vehicle and grabbed a would-be victim by her right arm. With her left arm, the woman was able to free herself from the attacker's grip. She didn't suffer major injuries, but did have scrapes and bruises from the altercation. She ran away from the truck and attacker to her boyfriend's home, where she called police. She noticed the smell of alcohol on the attacker's breath and a profound smell of dog emanating from the interior of the vehicle. The attacker didn't speak to her at all. She was also able to give the police an accurate description to create a composite. She described the would-be abductor as a muscular, white male in his 30's with short blond hair. Nearly a year later, on May 13, 2001, a young woman riding on her bike in Bowling Green, Kentucky was assaulted and nearly killed. The victim of the first assault identified Clouse from a composite picture developed from both cases. (See Show #651, OAD 9/29/01)

Jamal Sapp (Assault) – Sapp sprayed his ex-girlfriend with a caustic mixture that included a powerful drain cleaner. Sapp approached the woman after a half-hour argument and threw caustic material in her face. The victim was then taken to New York Hospital. She has serious burns on her face and eyes. A 28-year-old man who was standing near the victim was splashed as well, but he was not seriously burned. The mixture consisted of Drano, which contains lye, mayonnaise and soda. Neighbors reported they heard the couple fighting outside. When Sapp assaulted the victim he grabbed her, held her with his arm around her and squirted the mixture from a squeeze bottle. Sapp, who has used the alias Jamal Deron Davis, has a violent history of robbery and drug sales, and is known to resist arrest. Sapp is 39, 6'1" and 220 pounds.

Assaad Hamdan (Controlled Substance Charges) – DEA agents broke up a drug ring on January 10, 2002, during Operation Mountain Express. The operation was set up several years ago in order to catch methamphetamine producers. The suspects were smuggling pseudoephedrine, a chemical used to make meth, from Canada to different locations in the United States. As a result of the operation, 140 people were arrested, some of whom had ties to the Middle East. Some of the Middle Easterners may have funneled profits from their drug-dealing to terrorist organizations such as Hizballah. Hamdan may know something about the connection to Hizballah or other terrorist organizations. Hamdan is 38, 5'8" and 170 pounds.

Ramzi Mohammed Abdullah Binalshibh (Terrorism, Conspiracy) – On September 21, 2001, German authorities issued an international warrant for Binalshibh, naming him as an accomplice in the September 11th attacks. They suspect Binalshibh was meant to be the 20th hijacker in the September 11th attacks. Investigators believe that he had attempted to enter the U.S. to assist the hijackers, but was denied a visa for reasons unknown. He may have left German just prior to September 11, possibly heading for Pakistan. Binalshibh is 29, 5'8" and 145-160 pounds. (See Shows #654 and #655, OADs 11/10/01 and 11/17/01)

Yolanda Ricaforte (Plunder, Fraud) – Ricaforte is wanted by NBI officials in the Philippines on plunder charges. Ricaforte was the personal bookkeeper/auditor for former president Joseph Estrada. Estrada was recently impeached on plunder charges stemming from accusations that he was running a racket and stealing money from the country through a long-running illegal lottery game in the Philippines. Estrada formed an illegal gambling ring called the "Midnight Cabinet" made up of high-powered government figures and personal friends of Estrada, such as Charlie Atong Ang and Governor Singson. The official Cabinet met during the day, while the Midnight Cabinet met nearly every night to discuss backroom deals and bribes. The group would play mahjong while drinking expensive bottles of wine, often gambling several million pesos at a time. Yolanda Ricaforte kept tabs on all the money coming in from the lottery and she kept books on how that money was distributed between the president and his associates. She opened accounts totaling 270 million pesos for the former president at six different bank branches, sometimes passing herself off as someone in real estate, travel business or in the export of prawns. Those officials involved in the Midnight Cabinet often competed for their piece of Estrada's operation. In early 2001, relations between some of the officials fell apart and the illegal activity was revealed to Philippine authorities. Ricaforte was called to testify at Estrada's impeachment trial, but she fled the country shortly after her appearance in court. Ricaforte hopped a plane to the United States, along with another one of Estrada's cronies, Charlie Atong Ang. The two got working visas through a fish company in Los Angeles owned by one of Ang's friends in L.A.'s Philippine community. Ricaforte joined her husband and other family members in Los Angeles. Ang was arrested by the FBI in Las Vegas at Thanksgiving 2001. He went there to gamble and apparently to meet up with Ricaforte, but authorities are not sure why. Ricaforte has gone underground since, but agents say she is still in the U.S. and may be hiding in another Philippine community. Ricaforte, who goes by the nicknames "Yolly", "Yolli", and "The Auditor", has diabetes and must seek medical care. She occasionally wears glasses. She may have obtained legal residency status in the U.S. at some point. Ricaforte is 51, 5'1" and 130 pounds.

James Ross Fischer (Sex Charges, Escape) – Fisher had sexual intercourse three times between mid-January 1999 and early February 1999 with a 15-year-old girl. He was arrested on rape charges on February 12, 1999 and housed in the Linn County Jail in Albany, Oregon. He was later released on his own recognizance. He was indicted on several rape and sexual abuse charges with his trial scheduled for November 1999. He did not appear for trial. He was located on April 2000 in North Carolina. Fischer fled to Georgia and on April 26, 2000 he was apprehended at a remote mountain cabin. He was in the Fanin County Jail, waiting for extradition proceedings to be signed by the governor. By the time the documents were signed and delivered on June 9, 2000, Fischer had already escaped. Fisher, who goes by the nickname "Fish", has an unidentified tattoo on his chest. He is an actor who was last known to be seeking acting work in Oregon, but may now be in California. He has worked at a mortgage company. Fischer is 45, 6'0" and 205 pounds.

Russell John Smith (Rape and Sodomy of a Child) – Smith persuaded a 12-year-old girl to become involved in satanic rituals, and a part of those rituals was having sex. Smith is on the run and his daughter, Tara Jenine Swiger-Smith, is with him. Smith worked as a correctional officer. Smith also claimed to be a satanist and to have founded a satanic church. When authorities searched Smith's basement, he had created a satanic ritual room which included ritualistic material such as black candles, robes, satanic symbols and a goat's head. On August 17, 2002, three days after Smith quit his job as a corrections officer, his girlfriend reported Smith and his daughter missing. When the allegations of rape surfaced he went on the run and took his 12-year-old daughter with him. Police are concerned that he has involved his daughter in satanic rituals. On the Wednesday following the initial broadcast, a police officer found an abandoned SUV, and a viewer listening to the police band report realized that this was Smith's vehicle. The day after the discovery, when police returned to the scene Smith and his daughter were by the side of the road. Smith was taken into custody without incident, and his daughter was unharmed. (See Show #689, OAD 8/31/02)

Zeke Cooper (Attempted Murder of a Police Officer, Home Invasion) – On November 17, 2001, LAPD officers Rodney Carter and Andre Nainey spotted two males illegally riding a bicycle – one was perched on the handlebars. They called for the men to pull to the curb and put their hands up. The man riding on the bars, Cooper, jumped off and was approaching the squad car with his hands up when the officers noticed a handgun in his waistband. Before the squad car was completely stopped Cooper drew his gun and fired five rounds at the car, hitting officer Carter in the arm. Both suspects fled the scene. Cooper's residence was staked out, but Cooper was gone. His girlfriend who shared the apartment told them that Cooper came home, packed in a hurry, and left without telling her where he was going. On February 26, 2002 NYPD responded to a home invasion call in Brooklyn. A couple was robbed of jewelry, cash and cell phones, and the male victim was pistol whipped by the assailants. Police tracked calls placed on one of the stolen cell phones and were able to identify the suspect as Zeke Cooper. The female victim later confirmed the identification in a photo lineup. On April 6, 2002 NYPD arrested a man for smoking a marijuana cigarette on the sidewalk. He identified himself and was booked under the name Donovan Carlisle. He was then released on a minor charge before fingerprint analysis came back identifying the man as Cooper, who has multiple outstanding warrants in New York and Los Angeles. Cooper is a "third striker" who has no regard for human life. Following the broadcast, viewer tips led authorities to an Air Force base near Boise, Idaho, where Cooper had moved in with a female military officer. Cooper was arrested and returned to LA for trial. (See Show #683, OAD 7/13/02)

Unknown Harry Bolling Killer (Vehicular Manslaughter) – Authorities are looking for the driver of a black Corvette who is charged with vehicular manslaughter for a hit-and-run during an illegal street race. On May 4, 2002, Harry Bolling, 62, was on his way home after closing his club in downtown Detroit at approximately 2:45am when a black Corvette slammed into his Jaguar, causing Bolling to lose control of his car and slam into a utility pole, killing him. Witnesses say that two Corvettes were drag racing in the area. The driver of the damaged Corvette fled the scene with the vehicle missing its hood, side panels and other body parts. Ramirez's friend was driving and as they tried to park outside of a bar, a pedestrian accused the driver of nearly hitting him. The man yelled and a brief fist-fight broke out. People on the street started throwing rocks and bricks at Ramirez and his friend. That's when Hector Flores asked for a gun from Davis and Mario Garcia. Davis got the gun. Ramirez tried to walk away from the situation. Once he was about 60 feet away, Garcia fired at Ramirez's back, striking him in the neck and killing him. Flores and Garcia are now in custody. Unknown Bison Dele, Serene Karlan and Bertrand Saldo Killer(s) (Murder) – Foul play is suspected in the disappearance of retired NBA player Bison Dele (formerly known as Brian Williams), 33, and his girlfriend Serena Karlan, 30, along with Bertrand Saldo, the captain of Dele's 55-foot catamaran, the Hakuna Matata. In early July the group planned to sail from Tahiti to Honolulu, Hawaii via the Tua Motu and Marquesas Islands. Dele's older brother, Miles Dabord, was also on the boat. The last known contact with Dele, Karlan and Saldo was in early July when Karlan left a telephone message at her parents' home saying "all is well". Prior to that call, Dele had been contacting his bank and Kevin "KP" Porter, his executive assistant in Michigan, once a month. After the others on the boat went missing, Miles Dabord was seen in Taravao, Tahiti, around July 19th, where he docked a boat and signed registrar papers using an alias. Two Tahitian residents told police that they drove Dabord 60 miles from Taravao to Papeete, Tahiti on July 20 to board a plane for Los Angeles. Miles Dabord was detained in Phoenix on September 5 after he allegedly signed receipts using his brother's former name, Brian Williams. Dabord tried to buy $152,000 in gold bullion from a coin dealer in Phoenix using his missing brother's passport as identification. Dabord was taken into custody, but authorities released him, believing his story that he was trying to get the gold for his brother. On September 12, 1 boat in Taravao was identified by Saldo's girlfriend as the Hakuna Matata. It has been repainted, renamed the Aria Belle and had the old registration numbers scratched off. After the arrival of FBI agents, they assisted Tahitian detectives in an examination of Dele's boat, where they found a gun and bullet holes. Dele, Karlan and Saldo are now presumed dead - apparently the victims of a triple homicide. On September 14 the FBI tracked Miles Dabord to the Mexican border, where he apparently tried to commit suicide. Dabord was brought to a hospital in San Diego, barely clinging to life, ending the manhunt - but leaving the mystery of what happened on the boat unsolved. Bison Dele played NBA basketball with the Denver Nuggets, LA Clippers,

In March 2001 Mizic was transferred from jail to a halfway house in Harrisburg to complete his sentence. Mizic was a week away from being released when he escaped from the halfway house. On May 7, 2001 he received a weekend social pass from the halfway house to visit his wife, who was undergoing shoulder surgery. When he didn't return on May 9, 2001, Mizic was placed on escape status. The United States Marshals Service learned that Mizic packed up his wife's house and three children, along with computer equipment and one or two dogs, on the morning of May 9. The family took off and has been on the run ever since. USMS have traced the Mizic family to areas of Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Florida and Virginia. Mizic is back to his old tricks: pulling a counterfeiting check scam. He steals checks in the mail, makes phony ones on his computer and cashes them in banks around the town he happens to be in. In one month he made off with nearly $70,000. This is how he is able to stay on the run, take his family to Disney World, buy Thomas Kinkaid prints, jewelry and an SUV. His take is well over $500,000. Authorities are concerned about his step-children's welfare. It doesn't appear they've lived in one town long enough for the children to attend school Mizic, who has used the aliases Jon, Daryl and David Mizic, Jon Misic, Jeffrey Hoffman and Edward Buchanan, has scars on both eyes and his right arm, a rose tattoo on his forearm and an unknown tattoo on his left thigh. He is known to wear pinky rings. Mizic is 46, 6'0" and 275 pounds. Karen Mizic, who has used the aliases Karen Sheeler and Karen Barnhart, has an unidentified tattoo on her chest. She is 35, 5'3" and 130 pounds. The pair may be traveling with the children in a 1994 Ford Bronco with Florida plates F83-LSU.

David Anthony Pike (Murder During Robbery) – On June 21, 1985 23-year-old Calvin Lee Irvin had gone over to Pike's home and spent several hours there with a group of friends. Around midnight, Irvin, Pike and a third man drove off in Pike's car. They bought some beer and started driving around town. Then Pike and his accomplice decided to rob Irvin. After they robbed him, they beat him and Pike shot him in the back. Irvin's body was found the next morning in a shallow ditch by the side of the road. The accomplice was arrested and jailed, but Pike fled after he was released on bond and hasn't been seen since. Pike, who has used the aliases Phillip Pike and David Ogden, has scars on his right forearm, right biceps and both knees, a tattoo of a cross on his upper left arm, and an SS with skull and dagger tattooed on his right forearm. Pike is 41, 5'7" and 130 pounds.

Richard Steve Goldberg (Child Molestation) – Goldberg molested six young girls under the age of ten. He reportedly gained the trust of the neighborhood parents, then became a babysitter and “friend” to kids in the area. The single man set his home up in a way that would attract children. His backyard had swings and a cage with rabbits and ducks. Inside the house, Goldberg had children’s computer games that he would allow them to use, kid’s music, art supplies, and even children’s soap. He would also take them to Disneyland, parks, lakes, etc. Goldberg was found out after two young girls playing on his computer saw an image of two of their young friends naked, including the next door neighbor. A full investigation was launched and six neighborhood kids reported being assaulted by Goldberg. Child pornography was found on his computer, including a photo of him having sex with children. After cops came in to search his house and took his computer away, Goldberg fled the area in late June. In early July, after finding evidence on the computer, police issued an arrest warrant for him. Authorities know he visited his parents in Rumson, New Jersey, shortly after running. There is evidence he was also in Las Vegas, and Bullhead City, Arizona. Goldberg’s hair is jet black but would be gray if he didn’t dye it. He has a receding hairline. He used to work at Boeing before being laid off. He likes outdoor activities and was the president of a gun and revolver club in Long Beach, California. Goldberg is 56, 6'0" and 160 pounds. (See Shows #665 and #680, OADs 2/16/02 and 6/15/02)

Loren John Trites (Illegal Wiretapping, Tampering With Evidence) – Trites is wanted for the 1997-1998 unauthorized videotaping of teenage females in a swimming locker room. Trites was the swim coach at Franklin and Marshall College in Lancaster, Pennsylvania. He was also the coach of a large competitive swimming club in the area. Trites filmed the girls on his swim team, ages 13-21, in various stages of undress in their locker room at F&M. Trites would climb up onto the ceiling ducts and hide cameras under towels to film the girls. On January 23, 1998 the female swimmers turned over a tape from a camera they found under a pile of dirty towels. Trites was interviewed by police, but invoked his Fifth Amendment rights. Before he could be questioned further, he withdrew money from a Philadelphia bank and fled. He was traced to Trinidad and then to New London, Connecticut, but both times Trites escaped. Police suspect that Trites is running from more than just these charges because he deserted his home, job, wife, and new car before he was even charged with the crimes. Trites, who was going through a divorce at the time he fled, is an unassuming and otherwise law-abiding person who likes the finer things in life, including nice SUV’s and drove a new Lincoln Navigator prior to the incident. He sometimes changes his appearance with a beard and/or mustache. Trites is 40, 6'7-6'8" and 290-300 pounds. (See Shows #630 and #659, OADs 4/28/01 and 1/5/02)

MISSING:

Jonathan "Alex" Kiral

Age: 6

Height: 4'0"

Weight: 43 pounds

Andrew Harold Eugene Smith, Jr., Kiral's mother's boyfriend, took Alex at 8:30pm on August 25, 2002. Smith may or may not be Alex's biological father. Smith's three children from a previous marriage are believed to be traveling with the pair. Smith has threatened to harm all four of the children rather than give them up. Alex has a small freckle on his forehead, a small birthmark on his back, and a dimple on his left cheek. His hair has a "rattail". He has never been in school. He has asthma and needs medication.

Christopher William Samples

Age: 3

Height: 3'6"

Weight: 34 pounds

On May 3, 2001, Mark William Samples entered the Red Wing Credit Union and robbed it, armed with a .45 caliber handgun. After robbing the bank, Samples attempted to make a getaway on a bicycle and then by donning scuba gear and hiding in the Mississippi River. He was eventually arrested and plead guilty to the bank robbery charges. However, when he learned his sentence would be five years, he withdrew his plea. Trial was set for September 4, 2002. On Friday, May 31, 2002 Samples picked up his son Christopher from his estranged wife's home, agreeing to return the child Sunday morning. The pair vanished. Christopher has a scar on his left cheek, discolorations on his neck, and a gap between his two top front teeth. He is sometimes referred to as Thomas Samples, because he loves Thomas the Train, or Chrissy Samples. He is outgoing, likes hugs, and is a very hands-on child who likes to color or draw rather than sit and watch TV.

Elizabeth Smart

Age: 14

Height: 5'6"

Weight: 105 pounds

On Wednesday, June 5, 2002, Elizabeth Smart was abducted at gunpoint from her Federal Heights home. At about 1:00am a man cut the screen and crawled through the kitchen window. He then went to the bedroom shared by Elizabeth and her 9-year-old sister. He took Elizabeth out of the house at gunpoint after he allowed her to grab her shoes. He threatened to harm the 9-year-old sister if she told the police what happened. Two hours after the abduction, Elizabeth's sister told her parents what had happened. There is no evidence of a vehicle, and it appears they left on foot. Police are looking for a male believed to be in his 30's or 40's. He is about 5'8" with a medium build. The suspect has dark hair and was seen wearing a tan or white jacket with a white cap. The police have extended their search beyond Utah to Idaho and Wyoming. (See Shows #679, #680, #681, #682 and #684, OADs 6/8/02, 6/15/02, 6/22/02, 6/29/02 and 7/27/02)

Jennifer Renee Short

Age: 9

Height: 4'3"

Weight: 58 pounds

Jennifer Short and her family lived in Bassett, Virginia, along a manor interstate, Route 220, just 35 miles south of Roanoke. Jennifer has been missing since Wednesday, August 14, 2002. It wasn't until Thursday morning that a co-worker of Jennifer's parents stopped by the Shorts' house early Thursday morning and discovered Mary and Michael Shorts' dead bodies. When cops arrived at the scene they determined that there had been a struggle in Jennifer's bedroom and that her parents had been killed with a single gunshot to the head each. There was no sign of Jennifer in the house, and investigators are convinced that she was abducted by her parents' killer(s). There are no suspects yet, but authorities believe that the Shorts probably knew their attacker. The family recently put their house on the market and investigators are looking closely at their realtor's records of who came through the house during the last few weeks. Michael Short worked as a mobile home mover. Business hadn't been good, and he was planning to move the family out of their home in western Virginia and into a mobile home. Jennifer is described as friendly and talkative. There were signs of a struggle in Jennifer's bedroom. (See Shows #687 and #688, OADs 8/17/02 and 8/24/02)
