Ascertainment Update

The following issues were identified by community leaders in the Washington area as concerns and problems in interviews conducted by the station.

Top concerns:

1. Affordable housing, particularly for middle class, seniors and students.
2. Transportation/traffic (road rage; transportation planning; HOV enforcement)
3. Media (responsibility of broadcasters; news concentration on controversy rather than issue; too much trashy programming; needs for enlightening shows)
4. Schools (quality of teachers; standards for curriculum; providing for students with special needs, such as children of inmates; need for building renovations; teaching challenges from multiple languages in classrooms)
5. Public Safety (drinking and driving; potential terrorism; pedestrian fatalities)
6. Seniors (affordable medications/health care; ageism in workplace; nursing homes)
7. Substance abuse (new drugs; binge drinking; "kool-aid" type drinks for youth; teen smoking)
8. Health (focus on conditions that affect few people, such as West Nile Virus, rather than on AIDS; doctor and nursing shortage; overcrowded emergency rooms; insurance controls; affordability)

Other concerns:

- Art and culture appreciation
- Embracing diversity
- Costs of doing business in the District
- Bringing tourism back to the District
- Job training for available positions
- Digital divide
- Youth
- Foster care needs
- Nutrition and fitness
- Need for spirituality

The following are the featured fugitives and others being sought by federal, state or local authorities. The Update (if any) gives current status, previous references, or related information.

Jenny Liang (Murder) – Liang and her boyfriend Patrick Sheen were together over a year when they bought their home in Las Vegas, Nevada. Patrick owned his own insurance company, and Jenny worked as a dealer at the Mirage Casino. Jenny's 14-year-old son lived at their home and attended school in the area. Patrick's sister Ruby was close with the family. She visited her brother often and they had a very close relationship. On October 2, 2000 Jenny called Dennis Lam at the insurance company to tell him that Patrick would not be at work that day. Later that evening Jenny called Dennis again and said Patrick would be out of town for a meeting and would not return until Friday, October 6, 2000. The same day Jenny called Dennis, she also called her work and spoke to a scheduler at the Mirage. Jenny called out sick from work on October 2 and 3. Then on October 4, Jenny called the Mirage again and said she was hospitalized and would not be able to return to work. Shortly after that phone call, Jenny picked up her 14-year-old son and dropped him off at her ex-husband's house. She also gave her ex-husband and her son the 1999 Mercedes-Benz she owned with Patrick. She told her son he would have to take care of himself and that she had to go. Within this week Ruby, Patrick's sister, told cops she was trying to contact him and his family, but no one could be reached. On October 11, 2000, Ruby was getting nervous and she called the police station to file a missing person report on her brother. It wasn't like him not to call or stop by her house. The police, Ruby and a locksmith went to Patrick's home. As soon as they entered they knew there was a problem because of the smell that was coming from the bedroom. The cops found Patrick's body in his bed. He had been shot multiple times in his head with a .357. Patrick's fingers were starting to mummify, the home was not ransacked, there was no forced entry, and there was $925 in his pocket. The only thing missing was Patrick's girlfriend, her son, and their Mercedes. An investigation tracked Jenny to Los Angeles where she made a withdrawal from an ATM and purchased a plane ticket to Hong Kong. She may be in China, and may be using the names Zhen Yu Liang or Yu Zhen Liang as aliases. Jenny Liang is 5'2 and 110 pounds.

Crystal Dawn Vigil (Attempted Murder, Carjacking) – During the weekend of June 19, 1999 three women began a 26-hour crime spree. Local "Easyrider" gang members Adriana "Scrappy" Uribe, Mabelin "Teardrop" Torres and Crystal "Goofy" Vigil began their spree with the carjacking and attempted murder of the first victim. Continuing in the first victim's car, at least two of the women were involved in the murder of 26-year-old taxicab driver Gerardo Jimenez on June 20. Uribe and Torres have been apprehended and charged with murder for their involvement in this case, while Vigil is still at large. She is wanted for the kidnapping and carjacking of the first victim and may possibly be involved in the murder of the second victim. Vigil may have a tattoo on her right calf. She is a possible cocaine user and is very unpredictable and erratic. She may be engaged in prostitution. She should be considered armed and dangerous. Vigil is 22, 5'6" and 145 pounds. (See Show #563, OAD 10/23/99)

Elaine Antoinette Parent (Passport Fraud) -- Elaine Parent is wanted by the State Department for Passport Fraud and has been named a "Vital Link In A Murder Investigation" in a 1990 homicide in St. Lucie County, Florida. On July 19, 1990 the mutilated remains of 34-year-old Beverly McGowen were found in a rural canal in St. Lucie County, Florida. Deputies say a short time before she died, Beverly told her family and friends that she had a new roommate by the name of "Alice", who police believe was actually Elaine Parent. On June 16, 1990 Beverly wrote a "goodbye" letter to her brother, telling him she was going away. Her brother knew something was wrong and canceled Beverly's credit cards, hoping it would force her to call him. Deputies say she never did and her body was found a few days later. On July 23, 1990 a woman tried to use Beverly McGowen's credit card to rent a car at London's Heathrow airport. But since the card had been canceled the mystery woman, whom police believe was Parent, ended up paying cash. The canceled card raised suspicions and when Scotland Yard was informed the Beverly's gruesome murder, they intensified their manhunt. Three days later Parent called Avis and tried to extend the rental. British authorities say Parent told them she was near Cornwall, but in reality she was near Heathrow airport, where she abandoned the car. Police boarded every U.S.-bound aircraft looking for Parent but to no avail. Authorities say Parent eventually made her way back to the United States and in May of 1991 was found sleeping in her car. At the time she was using the name Charlotte Cowan. There was a warrant for Failure to Return the Leased Vehicle. Parent was arrested but was able to post bond just a few days later and hasn't been seen since. Parent's countless aliases include Charlotte Rae Cowan, Sylvia Ann Hodgekinson, Ann Tremont, Beverly McGowen, Elaine Haviland, Alex Hart, Alexis Marshal Hart, Antonia Hamilton Russell, Victoria Dark and Bret Tremont. Police describe her as a chameleon who often dyes her hair different colors. She has a "lazy" right eyelid, and may adopt a British accent, though she was born in New York City. She loves the good life and is a gourmet cook. She supports environmental issues, and loves animals though she may be allergic to cats. She has asthma and has been known to use the medication Ventolin. She travels all over the world but always seems to return to Florida. She has worked as a real estate agent and in the telecommunications field. Parent is 59, 5'7" and 125-145 pounds. Detective Jamie Betancourt. The 34-year-old narcotics detective was stabbed once in the chest when he tried to intervene during a dispute between girlfriend Felicia Alvarez and her former boyfriend at the door of Alvarez' Bronx apartment. The argument began after Gonzales showed up at Alvarez' apartment around 8:15am and demanded custody of their 6-year-old daughter for the holiday. The young girl was staying at a sitter's house and was not home at the time. Gonzales got irate and began fighting with Alvarez. When Detective Betancourt heard the argument he tried to intervene. That's when Gonzales stabbed the detective in the chest. Gonzales, who uses the alias Carlos Cruz Rosado and the nickname "Tony", is from the Dominican Republic and worked as an auto mechanic. After the attack, police had information that Gonzales may have tried to board a plane to Central America. However, the flight was canceled and Gonzales fled. He was last seen in Newark, New Jersey, but he may have left the state either by train or bus, possibly headed to Florida. Gonzales is 27, 6'1" and 180 pounds.

Vancouver Missing Women Update – After nearly twenty years, police have made an arrest in the case of the Vancouver Missing Women. In February 2002 they charged Robert Pickton with the murders of Serenna Abotsway and Mona Wilson, who had been missing from Vancouver's eastside. In March 2002 police added three more murder charges. Prostitutes began disappearing from the downtown east side in the early 1980's. AMW first profiled the story in 1999, after the number of missing women skyrocketed to 30. In total, more than 50 prostitutes have disappeared and police are still looking for more information about Robert Pickton and his pig farm. Last spring, police formed a task force with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police and began a review of old tips. In February 2002 investigators began a search of a pig farm owned by two brothers, Dave and Robert Pickton, in a suburb of Vancouver called Port Coquitlam. According to newspaper reports, police are finding bloody clothing, identification and other personal belongings of some of the missing women. Robert Pickton frequented the east side and picked up prostitutes and brought them back to a bar or to a location near his property. There is also speculation that Pickton fed the women's bodies to his pigs, or disposed of them by boiling down the remains in a giant vat. He may have sold that material to a rendering plant on the east side of Vancouver. Although they have made an arrest, police have not closed the investigation into the missing women. They are still interested in any information about the Picktons, their farm and the missing prostitutes. (See Shows #552 and #596, OADs 7/31/99 and 7/22/00)

Tari Ramirez (Murder) – On October 22, 2000 Ramirez entered the home of his ex-girlfriend, Clair Joyce Tempongko's home. He stabbed her to death in front of her two children. The ten-year-old ran to the neighbor's house to call 911, but by the time authorities arrived on the scene, Tempongko was already dead. Ramirez, who has used the alias Tari Beltran, has a scar extending into his hairline and ending above the bridge of his nose and above his left eyebrow, 2-3 inches long. Another scar starts from the outside corner of his left eyebrow and crosses the eyebrow. He is Mexican, and worked in Cancun as a schoolteacher. In the US he has worked at several restaurants as a busboy or in the kitchen. He is known to frequent The Tenderloin, Mission District, Richmond District, and Fisherman's Wharf in San Francisco. Ramirez is 29, 5'6" and 170 pounds.

Jan Jablonski (Burglary) -- Jablonski is wanted in connection with dozens of robberies that yielded millions of dollars. Because of his association with the self-proclaimed gypsy burglars, Tamara and Barbara Dolinska, police are seeking him in Florida, Missouri, Maryland, Pennsylvania and Tennessee. Jablonski is part of, and may be the head of, a group of traveling burglars who move from city to city. In the past, Jablonski drove the Dolinska sisters in rental cars to the wealthiest neighborhoods. The women would knock on the doors of homes where they believed the residents were not on the premises, and if the owner would answer they would pose as potential home buyers. Another story that they would often try involved the loss of a family pet. When the owners were not home, Tamara and Barbara Dolinska went to work. The bandits slipped around to the back of the house, broke a window, and climbed inside. The women would then steal cash, jewelry, silver and other small valuable items. They would carry the stolen goods in pillow cases or in an apron hidden beneath their clothes. Jablonski would wait patiently in front of the house in the getaway rental car. After 10 to 15 minutes, the sisters would stroll calmly out of the house, goods in hand. The Dolinska sisters have both been arrested and are currently facing charges related to several dozen of these crimes. Jablonski was seen as recently as 2001 in a wealthy Palm Beach Gardens, Florida community. Once again, he was driving a rental car and trying to sneak in behind a resident's car. This time, however, the passenger was a young woman. Authorities fear he may be up to his old tricks but with a new partner in crime. Jablonski has countless aliases, including John Ottem and Jan Jablowski. He has an olive complexion, tans easily and is often mistaken for a Hispanic male. He speaks with a Polish accent, may have bad hygiene, and may have a mustache. He is balding, likes to drink vodka, and is described as loud and boisterous. He may be with a Polish woman significantly younger than him. Jablonski is 45, 5'7" and 180-200 pounds. (See Show #413, OAD 6/15/96)

AMW ALL POINTS BULLETIN:

Vickie Ann Nash (Murder, UFAP) – Vickie Ann Nash, according to friends, was a wild woman who couldn't be tamed. Three husbands tried, and three husbands failed. It was while she was going through divorce proceedings in 1979 that she met Gary Cooper. Nash and Gary, an alleged drug dealer, shared a number of common interests, say police. Their swinging world was reportedly one of frequent sex with multiple partners, uppers, downers, television, and chess games. Nash was soon living with Gary at his home in Southeast Houston, and seemed to be having the time of her life. But inside, friends say, her life was crumbling. The drugs and the divorce were taking their emotional toll. It was only a matter of time before she snapped. Police say she finally did just that on the night of October 26, 1979. While driving with Gary on the Gulf Highway, the couple reportedly argued over money Nash claimed Gary owed her. Gary grew sick of the argument, and shoved her out of his van. He told her never to come back. She didn't listen. After hitching a ride back to Gary's place, she discovered he wasn't alone. He had bedded down with 22-year-old Donna Jean Cleveland, only one of his many conquests. Police say Nash greeted the pair with two of Cooper's handguns, and let them feel her jealousy and rage. On November 19, 1979, Nash was indicted on two counts of murder. She's been on the road for nearly 20 years, but police still hope she will be brought in to pay for her alleged crimes. Nash has used the last names Kinginger, Woodby and Kindinger. She has an inch-long scar on her forehead from an auto accident, and her nose has been broken. She has three children from two prior marriages. She is fond of animals, a good marksman, and an avid chess and pool player. She was reportedly abused as a child and is reportedly bisexual. She has an alleged history of drug and alcohol abuse. A native of Tennessee, she has family in Ohio and Texas. Nash is 50, 5'3" and 125 pounds. (See Shows #329, #503 and #515, OADs 8/20/94, 7/18/98 and 10/10/98)

Hazel Leota Head (Murder, Arson) -- Hazel Leota Head is wanted for the murder of Charles Barker on September 2, 1998 in Benton, Louisiana. Barker was shot in the back of the head as he sat at his trailer counter. Police found a murder weapon and say physical evidence points to Hazel Head. Hazel had met Barker at a local casino under the name Deiana Ray. She subsequently moved in with him. When Barker's body was found, his cash and his car were gone. Upon further investigation, police found that there was an outstanding warrant for Hazel's arrest in Nebraska, where she is accused of burning down a boyfriend's trailer. Police also learned that Hazel has a history of moving around. She has been married multiple times, to as many as ten different men. She has lived all across the country. Head has many aliases, including Hazel Morgan, Willow Shields, Hazel Foley, Kelly Morgan, Hazel Spurbeck, Hazel Haynes, Hazel Vincent, Deiana Ray, Hazel Woodman, Hazel Fautch, Treasa "Tess" Jean Coyle, and Treasa "Tess" Venable. She has a noticeable gap between her front teeth. She is a smoker and drinker, favoring vodka. She often works as a waitress, and hangs out at truck stops, often traveling with truckers. She frequents casinos and places personal ads looking for men. A truck driver believes the woman he picked up in Madisonville, Kentucky and drove to a truck stop in Woodhaven, Michigan was Head. The woman told the trucker she was trying to get to Las Vegas. Head is 52, 5'2" and 120 pounds. (See Shows #527, #528, #533, #545, #560, #562 and #574, OADs 1/30/99, 2/6/99, 3/13/99, 6/5/99, 10/2/99, 10/16/99 and 1/29/00)

Sophie David (Murder) -- Sophie David appeared to be the essence of international sophistication. Her exotic Ethiopian beauty was complimented by an English accent; a history of residences in Ethiopia, Paris, and Los Angeles; and clothes that wouldn't have been out of place on a supermodel. But police believe she may now be an international fugitive who packs a gun in her waistband and swallows whole the men who fall into her clutches. Police were already familiar with Sophie David before she allegedly gunned down her boyfriend on an LA street. Months earlier, she had summoned them for help. Police now say that when her husband accused her of having an affair, she accused him of beating her and had him arrested. The charges were quickly dropped, and finally the couple divorced. As it turned out, Sophie allegedly confided in a friend that she had been seeing someone - the unfortunate Fekade Ashine, also an Ethiopian national. It wasn't long before Fekade was arrested for beating her, and again the charges were dropped. Police say that while Fekade accused Sophie of attempting to possess him body and soul, she accused Fekade of playing the part of a jealous, violent boyfriend. They ended the relationship, and, following Ethiopian custom, chose a close friend to witness their separation. They chose Sophie's close friend, Belle Aklilu, to witness. She told police that as the couple met with her, Fekade accused Sophie of threatening his life if he ever cheated on her. She allegedly backed up her threat with her handgun, pointed right at Fekade. By the end of the meeting, both parties had agreed to go their separate ways, but police say Sophie went back on her promise. Investigators say that as Fekade walked to work, Sophie approached him in her car. When he walked away, they maintain, Sophie calmly walked up to him and planted two bullets in his skull. The suspect then casually strolled back to the car and drove away. Investigators say she has fled for Ethiopia, but could return to the United States at any time. David's original Ethiopian name is Hirut Dawit; she has also used the aliases Enanu David and Sophie Dawit. She speaks with an English accent, and usually wears dark sunglasses and gloves. She is an avid clothes shopper, carries large amounts of cash, carries a mobile phone, drives rental cars and frequents expensive hotels. She is an amateur photographer who has also worked as a hairdresser and a nurse. She is known to have used dating services. She is nervous and has trouble sitting still. David is 37, 5'4" and 130 pounds. (See Shows #200, #228, #274 and #503, OADs 2/14/92, 8/28/92, 7/2/93 and 7/18/98)

MISSING:

Ashley Marie Pond

Age: 12

Height: 5'3"

Weight: 110 pounds

Ashley Marie Pond disappeared after leaving her apartment around 8:00am on January 9, 2002. She never arrived at school that day. Children who ride the bus with Ashley say she never got on the bus that morning. Massive searches using all available police tools including helicopters and dogs have turned up no clues. Authorities originally believed Ashley might have left home on purpose but after investigating they have upgraded her disappearance to a critical missing. Police believe foul play is involved but have not yet identified a suspect. When last seen, Ashley was wearing blue jeans, white Sketchers and a blue bikini top. She was still getting dressed for school when her sister left the house at 7:30am and her sister says she did not see what shirt Ashley put on over the bikini top. Ashley has a birthmark on her right hip. (See Shows #664, #665, #666 and #669, OADs 2/9/02, 2/16/02, 3/16/02 and 3/23/02)

Miranda Diane Gaddis

Age: 13

Height: 5'4"

Weight: 110 pounds

Miranda Gaddis disappeared after leaving her apartment at 8:00am on March 8, 2002. She did not arrive at Gardine Elementary School. Students who ride the bus with Miranda say she did not get on the bus that morning. Massive searches using all available police tools including helicopters and dogs have turned up no clues. Another girl, Ashley Pond, disappeared from the same apartment complex on January 9, 2002. The girls attended the same school, rode the same bus, and were in the same class. Miranda has a pierced tongue and belly button, and recently has been wearing makeup and wearing her hair in a ponytail. She speaks very quickly and often sounds stuffed up due to allergies. When last seen she was wearing a dark blue hooded sweatshirt with "Hurley" in pink letters on the back, blue jeans and tennis shoes. She was thought to be carrying a dark blue backpack with black netting on the back. (See Shows #688 and #669, OADs 3/16/02 and 3/23/02)

The following are the featured fugitives and others being sought by federal, state or local authorities. The Update (if any) gives current status, previous references, or related information.

Robert Foster (Murder) – On August 17 and 18, 2000, body parts began to float up in Manhattan's East River. The body was so badly decomposed that police were only able to determine that the parts were female because of long painted fingernails on a hand. Detectives were able to pull a fingerprint from one hand, and when they ran the print through INS, the INS database confirmed that the prints belonged to Leisa Lennon of The Bronx. When police went to her apartment they discovered a gruesome crime scene. They also discovered that her common-law husband, Robert Foster, had packed and left town. Foster is considered the key suspect in the crime and he is also wanted on parole violations by the NYPD. Foster was born in Jamaica and may be headed back there by way of Mexico. He was last known to be in Southern California looking for work in construction. Foster, who has used the alias George Escalante, and the nicknames "Bobby", "Scar Face", and "Scar Neck", may indeed have scars on his neck and face which cannot be seen in photos and which cannot be confirmed by the NYPD. Foster is 5'7" and 160 pounds.

Garfield Brown (Murder, Robbery) – Brown is wanted by the New Haven police for the murder of Kelvin Parks. On the night of January 31, 2001, Parks provided a ride for a stranger from the home of a new acquaintance. Park's passenger, Garfield Brown, directed him to a darkened parking lot where he robbed Park at gunpoint and then shot him in the chest. Kelvin Park's body was then dumped from the car and the suspect fled in the victim's car. Brown was seen driving Park's rental car after the murder. Police recovered the abandoned vehicle and impounded it for evidence. Brown is considered armed and extremely dangerous. He has been convicted of crimes ranging from narcotics trafficking to assault on police officers. Brown, who has used the aliases Franklin J. Allen, Vassel Craig Bailey, Perth Brown and Garfield Lee, and the nickname "Gee", has scars on his left hand and right ankle. He was a bodyguard to the rap star LL Cool J. He may have gold teeth. Brown is 30, 6'1" and 215 pounds.

Timmy John Weber (Murder, Rape) – On Thursday, April 4, 2002, Timmy Weber lost control at his girlfriend's house in Las Vegas. Weber raped his girlfriend's 14-year-old daughter Michelle. He duct-taped the child to her bed, blindfolded and sexually assaulted her. When Kim Gautier, 38, Weber's girlfriend, arrived home with her 15-year-old son Anthony, Weber turned on them too. Weber struck Kim over the head with a large object and stuffed her into a Rubbermaid container. Weber then attacked Anthony, strangled the 15-year-old, and duct-taped a plastic bag around his head and neck. Chris, 17, Kim's oldest son, arrived home later in the afternoon with a friend. Around 5:00pm he couldn't get into the house, so the boys had to break a window. When they climbed through they heard the television blaring from Michelle's room, and this is where the kids found Michelle naked and taped to her bed. The boys freed the girl, who told them T.J., aka Timmy John Weber, did this to her. The three kids were afraid Weber was still lurking around, so they fled the house very quickly to a neighbor's home. On the way they flagged down a Highway Patrol officer who took the kids to safety. They told the officer their story, he called for backup to the home, and an investigation took place. Police found the body of 15-year-old Anthony Gautier under his covers in his room with a plastic bag secured tightly around his head and neck. A further search turned up the body of Kim Gautier, stuffed in a Rubbermaid container in her bedroom closet. Michelle and her older brother Chris have been placed in protective custody. Weber has been convicted five times of felonies in Nevada since 1992, and twice in California. He has been imprisoned in various penitentiaries from December 1995 to August 1997, and from August 2000 to February 2001. Weber has family in Illinois, and may be traveling in a 1991 Cadillac, license plate 500-NDG. Weber is 28, 6'4" and 180 pounds.

Stephen Howard Anderson (Attempted Murder of a Police Officer) – On October 14, 2001, Bell County, Kentucky sheriff's deputy Scott Elder pulled over Steve Anderson for a broken tail light on his pickup truck. Anderson told the deputy that he was a lieutenant with the anti-government group, Kentucky Militia, and was on duty. He also said he didn't have a license with him and was permitted to have a weapon. When Deputy Elder was about to place him under arrest, Anderson pulled out a rifle and fires 23 shots at him. The deputy took cover behind the patrol car and was not injured. His patrol car was riddled with bullets. Anderson fled into a mountainous area and abandoned his vehicle. He fled on foot and hasn't been seen since. Inside his truck, ATF found 9,000 rounds of ammunition, a rifle and six pipe bombs. They searched Anderson's home and found weapons, explosives and hate material. ATF charged Anderson with weapons violations and the Kentucky State Police have filed charges of attempted murder of a police officer. Anderson had a shortwave radio show in which he aired his hate information. He was also a member of the KKK. Anderson is a survivalist who stocks up on supplies and food often. He claims to have worked as an electrician. Anderson is 54, 6'2" and 235 pounds.

Unknown Chief Joe White Killer (Murder) – At 4:00pm on July 16, 2000, Chief Joe White was shot and killed in Rich Square, North Carolina. He was shot in the head with a 45-caliber handgun, and his service revolver and wallet were stolen. Police believe White pulled someone over in the parking lot of the Rich Square Dialysis Center. During the traffic stop, the suspect shot White, then fled in a late-model green Ford Explorer. The vehicle may have "I luv Aulander" (a nearby town) lettered on the bug screen. The suspect may have been wearing a blue shirt and blue shorts at the time of the murder. (See Show #665, OAD 2/16/02)

Unknown Kriewald Killer – On March 7, 2002 at approximately 3:30am a masked man hiding inside the Sidelines Sports Grille in the outskirts of Atlanta, Georgia pulled a gun on the 34-year-old owner of the bar, Barbara Kriewald, and Terry Kirby Jr., a manager-in-training. The gunman forced Terry into the office. Barbara, who was seven months pregnant at the time, was zapped with a stun gun then forced into the office to open the safe. Then the attacker ordered Barbara to tie Terry's legs and hands behind his back. Barbara opened the safe and gave the gunman the money. The attacker told Barbara to tie her own legs and lie face down on the floor next to Terry. He zapped Barbara again with the stun gun and then shot both Barbara and Terry in the back. The gunman left twelve minutes later. Barbara and Terry called 911. Police arrived moments later. Barbara and her unborn child died on the way to the hospital. Terry survived but is paralyzed from the waist down. The suspect is in his 20's to early 30's, 6'0"-6'2" and 145-165 pounds. (See Show #669, OAD 3/23/02)

Bablu Hassan (Murder, Attempted Murder) – At 1:00 a.m. on July 27, 2000, New York City Police say 5-year-old Chastity Adams was awakened when she heard her mother arguing with Bablu Hassan in the kitchen of their apartment. When Hassan began stabbing the girl's mother, whose name was also Chastity, the little girl tried to intervene. That's when, according to the police, Hassan stabbed the girl across the stomach. Police say Hassan quickly ran out the door. Little Chastity then ran to a neighbor's house and asked them to call 9-9-1. When paramedics arrived they found Chastity's mother bleeding on the sidewalk and the little girl in a nearby doorway. Big Chastity fell into a coma on the way to the hospital. She died on September 20th. Little Chastity needed over a hundred stitches for her wounds. She was able to survive the attack. Bablu Hassan had recently moved to the United States from Bangladesh. Chastity and Hassan had only been dating a few months before they ended the relationship. Hassan speaks broken English. He may be taking computer classes at a university or computer school. He does not smoke or drink and is an extremely religious Muslim. Hassan has "Chastity" tattooed on his chest. He is 23, 5'5" and 125 pounds. (See Shows #610 and #614, OADs 11/11/00 and 12/30/00)

Vinicio Rafael Martinez (Murder) – On May 23, 1997, Vinicio Martinez shot at a car he believed a rival gang member was driving. Instead, the gang member had loaned the car to some friends, and a 14-year-old boy named Steven Romero was killed. Police located Martinez in Denver in May 2000, but they lost him during a high-speed chase. Martinez is a member of the Varrio Raza Grande street gang. He has used the alias Ulario Lucero, has scars on his right arm and right finger, and has a pierced left ear. He has training in automotive custom car work and hydraulics, and has worked construction, primarily on road crews. Martinez is 28, 5'10" and 195 pounds.

Bryan Steven Ayers (Murder)

Ronald J. Hines (Murder)

Leonard Seals (Murder) – On December 13, 2001, 19-year-old Julio Moreno brought his friend, 17-year-old Jessie Lazenby, over to Cassandra "Poochie" Washington's house to collect money that was owed to Julio by Washington's husband. When the boys went into her home, the lights were dim and she began digging through her purse. Bryan Ayers, Leonard Seals and Ronald Hines jumped the boys, threw them onto the ground and robbed them of the money in their pockets. The men and Cassandra Washington forced Julio and Jessie into Julio's car as two of the suspects got in and the others got into Washington's white Oldsmobile. One of the suspects drove Julio's Camaro outside of town as Washington and her cohorts followed. The suspects told Julio and Jessie to get out of the car and to take their pants off and start walking. As Julio took his pants down, one of the men shot him in the head as Jessie watched. They then shot Jessie six times in the chest, arm and shoulder, and then fled in Washington's car. Julio died at the scene, but amazingly Jessie was still alive. Jessie tried to save his friend, but it was too late. Jessie then managed to drive the car to a nearby adult video store called the Love Shack for help. Meanwhile, inside the Love Shack, a customer and two employees heard Jessie's car sideswipe another in the parking lot. They ran outside to find Jessie's ankle pinned between his car and the parked car. The employees managed to unpin him by moving the parked car. The customer ran back inside and grabbed some plastic bags from the counter to protect herself from Jessie's blood. She came out and managed to put her fingers in the bullet hole above Jessie's heart. One employee was inside calling 911 and the other was outside helping the customer by keeping Jessie's legs elevated until help arrived. The customer kept Jessie conscious by talking to him and making him say her name so he wouldn't pass out. Ambulances and police arrived and Jessie told them his friend was still alongside the road, shot to death. Washington's body was found shot to death and incinerated in a burning car near New Orleans. She was positively identified by DNA. Now Ayers, Seals and Hines are wanted for questioning in her murder and are also wanted in the Julio Moreno murder in Texas. Ayers has several tattoos, including "Latasha" and "Outlaw" on his right arm, "Kim" on his left leg, "Into Deep" on his chest or abdomen, and a cross on his abdomen. He also has burn scars on the inside of his left elbow and on his right forearm. He has five gold teeth, four of which have lightning bolt designs in them. Ayers is 28, 5'9" and 151 pounds. Hines, who has used the aliases Ronald Gabriel, Brandon Gabriel and Ronald Nelson, and the nickname "Little Ronald", has scars on his right cheek and chest. He also has five solid gold teeth, and several others have stars and moons chiseled into them. Hines is 26, 5'4" and 110 pounds. Seals, who has scars on his chest and both arms, has several tattoos, including "Yolanda" and a tiger on his right arm, a cross and "Bertha" on his back, a cross on his chest, and a tiger with "Audrey" on his left arm. He wears his hair in braids, and has four gold teeth on top. Seals is 29, 6'1" and 150 pounds. (See Show #663, OAD 2/2/02) (See Below)

AMW ALL POINTS BULLETIN:

Edward Mathis (Murder, Narcotics Violations) -- Four days before Christmas in 1994, 12-year-old Chris Valdez made a discovery that will stay with him for the rest of his life. While he was away at school, someone broke into his home and murdered his mother and stepfather. He couldn't get inside, but he didn't have to. He could already see the blood. It was everywhere. Chris' mother, Millie Espinal, was found in the bedroom belonging to Chris' 4-year-old brother. Millie had been shot in the face nine times while the child cowered in his closet. In the basement was another body - Chris' stepfather, Ari Espinal. He was lying in a pool of blood from 16 gunshot wounds. Police and federal agents soon had a motive and a suspect for the horrific killings. They say that Ari Espinal had been dealing drugs, and had a large store of cash in his home. Word of his riches had fallen on the ears of a man US Marshals call one of the most ruthless outlaws they have ever put on their 15 Most Wanted List: Eddie "Lucky" Mathis. Marshals say that Mathis made a career out of violence as a drug enforcer. Even his associates in the ruthless narcotics underworld, agents claim, were shaken by his stories of pistol-whippings, robberies, and getaways. Mathis is alleged to routinely carry as many as five handguns at once, and he never leaves home without his bulletproof vest. Law enforcement thought they had Mathis when they stormed an apartment in Atlanta, Georgia, but he made his getaway through the back. Now that he has gotten used to life on the run, officials fear that his next victim may be an unsuspecting police officer who stops him for a traffic violation. "Lucky," they say, is unlikely to ever believe his luck has run out. Mathis, who has used the aliases Eddie Whitson and John Whitson, has a chain tattoo around his left biceps. He may have a mustache or goatee. Mathis is Unknown Sheriff Woodrell Killer – Pawnee County, Oklahoma, Sheriff Dwight Woodrell was shot and killed while investigating suspicious activity at an oil and gas drilling company on October 13, 2001 in Cleveland, Oklahoma. Just before 3:00am, Sheriff Woodrell was off duty and returning home when he stopped by the Spess Oil Company drilling yard. Minutes later, Woodrell radioed his dispatcher, reporting that he needed information on someone at the yard. He identified the person as "Robert Weller". The Woodrell radioed again asking deputies to report to the oil yard. As deputies arrived they saw what was possibly a red pickup truck pulling out of a drive leading to Spess Oil. When they located their sheriff they discovered he had been shot numerous times. Sheriff Woodrell later died at a nearby hospital. Police in numerous states have interviewed men named Robert Weller, but they have not found a suspect. Investigators believe Robert Weller is an alias, but they are hoping someone will know a person who has used this name. 36-year-old Dwight Woodrell leaves behind a wife and four children.

CAPTURED:

Luis Alberto Gomez Gonzales (Murder) – Gonzales is wanted for the murder of Detective Jamie Betancourt. The 34-year-old narcotics detective was stabbed once in the chest when he tried to intervene during a dispute between girlfriend Felicia Alvarez and her former boyfriend at the door of Alvarez' Bronx apartment. The argument began after Gonzales showed up at Alvarez' apartment around 8:15am and demanded custody of their 6-year-old daughter for the holiday. The young girl was staying at a sitter's house and was not home at the time. Gonzales got irate and began fighting with Alvarez. When Detective Betancourt heard the argument he tried to intervene. That's when Gonzales stabbed the detective in the chest. Gonzales, who uses the alias Carlos Cruz Rosado and the nickname "Tony", is from the Dominican Republic and worked as an auto mechanic. After the attack, police had information that Gonzales may have tried to board a plane to Central America. However, the flight was canceled and Gonzales fled. Miami and New York cops, working together, located Gonzales and his female companion in Florida, where he was taken into custody without incident. (See Show #671, OAD 4/6/02)

The following are the featured fugitives and others being sought by federal, state or local authorities. The Update (if any) gives current status, previous references, or related information.

Raymond John Tudor (Murder, Escape) – A convicted double murderer has escaped from Drumheller Institution, a prison in Alberta, Canada. Raymond John Tudor was serving two life sentences with no chance of parole when he vanished from the Institution on March 26, 2002. The 48-year-old has a built-in disguise: if he were to shave off his overgrown facial hair, no one would recognize him. Tudor robbed and killed 75-year-old Ardie Turner in 1994 and 68-year-old Bill Vomastic in 1995. Turner was bludgeoned to death, while Vomastic was fatally stabbed. In both cases their wallets and cars were stolen. At first police believed that Tudor didn't actually escape from Drumheller. They knew that he wasn't in his cell on March 26, 2002 at around 1:00pm, but could not prove that he had left the prison. Finally, after several lockdowns and searches, police could find no sign of Tudor within the Institution walls, and now say he escaped. He was last seen in the prison's woodworking shop, at the vocational carpentry area. Tudor is very dangerous. He has threatened people who have testified against him in the past, and he may have an agenda with those people now. This isn't Tudor's first attempt at an escape. While Tudor was undergoing a psychiatric assessment in 1998 at Calgary's General Hospital, he unsuccessfully tried to get away. Tudor has a mole below his right eye and speaks with a stutter. He may be wearing large black-framed glasses, and may have shaved his beard and cut his hair. He may suffer from an affliction that causes him to shake and tremble visibly. He was last seen wearing a white t-shirt with a name tag and blue jeans. Tudor is 48, 5'10" and 225 pounds.

Unknown Thomas Wales Killer (Murder) – On October 11, 2001, Thomas Wales was working at his computer in his basement office. Wales lived in a quiet neighborhood in Seattle. Around 10:30pm Wales was shot several times through his downstairs window. A neighbor told authorities he saw a man run away from the scene and jump into a car. Wales was a federal prosecutor and a gun control activist. Wales started an organization called "Cease fire" and the organization has received death threats since his murder. Wales was divorced and had two grown children. He regularly spoke out against the death penalty, backed drives for affordable housing, and sat on the Seattle Planning commission.

Timmy John Weber (Murder, Rape) – On Thursday, April 4, 2002, Timmy Weber lost control at his girlfriend's house in Las Vegas. Weber raped his girlfriend's 14-year-old daughter Michelle. He duct-taped the child to her bed, blindfolded and sexually assaulted her. When Kim Gautier, 38, Weber's girlfriend, arrived home with her 15-year-old son Anthony, Weber turned on them too. Weber struck Kim over the head with a large object and stuffed her into a Rubbermaid container. Weber then attacked Anthony, strangled the 15-year-old, and duct-taped a plastic bag around his head and neck. Chris, 17, Kim's oldest son, arrived home later in the afternoon with a friend. Around 5:00pm he couldn't get into the house, so the boys had to break a window. When they climbed through they heard the television blaring from Michelle's room, and this is where the kids found Michelle naked and taped to her bed. The boys freed the girl, who told them T.J., aka Timmy John Weber, did this to her. The three kids were afraid Weber was still lurking around, so they fled the house very quickly to a neighbor's home. On the way they flagged down a Highway Patrol officer who took the kids to safety. They told the officer their story, he called for backup to the home, and an investigation took place. Police found the body of 15-year-old Anthony Gautier under his covers in his room with a plastic bag secured tightly around his head and neck. A further search turned up the body of Kim Gautier, stuffed in a Rubbermaid container in her bedroom closet. Michelle and her older brother Chris have been placed in protective custody. Weber has been convicted five times of felonies in Nevada since 1992, and twice in California. He has been imprisoned in various penitentiaries from December 1995 to August 1997, and from August 2000 to February 2001. Weber has family in Illinois, and may be traveling in a 1991 Cadillac, license plate 500-NDG. Weber is 28, 6'4" and 180 pounds. Chris Gautier returned to his home with a friend to get some clothes for his family's funerals, but found Weber in the house. Chris and his friend, although severely injured from Weber's attack with a baseball bat, fought off Weber and ran to a neighbor's to call 911. (See Show #672, OAD 4/13/02)

Stephen Howard Anderson (Attempted Murder of a Police Officer) – On October 14, 2001, Bell County, Kentucky sheriff's deputy Scott Elder pulled over Steve Anderson for a broken tail light on his pickup truck. Anderson told the deputy that he was a lieutenant with the anti-government group, Kentucky Militia, and was on duty. He also said he didn't have a license with him and was permitted to have a weapon. When Deputy Elder was about to place him under arrest, Anderson pulled out a rifle and fired 23 shots at him. The deputy took cover behind the patrol car and was not injured. His patrol car was riddled with bullets. Anderson fled into a mountainous area and abandoned his vehicle. He fled on foot and hasn't been seen since. Inside his truck, ATF found 9,000 rounds of ammunition, a rifle and six pipe bombs. They searched Anderson's home and found weapons, explosives and hate material. ATF charged Anderson with weapons violations and the Kentucky State Police have filed charges of attempted murder of a police officer. Anderson had a shortwave radio show in which he aired his hate information. He was also a member of the KKK. Anderson is a survivalist who stocks up on supplies and food often. He claims to have worked as an electrician. Anderson is 54, 6'2" and 235 pounds. (See Show #672, OAD 4/13/02)

Rodolfo "Rudy" Gutierrez (Attempted Murder) – On November 22, 1995, Rudy Gutierrez ignored a restraining order against him and confronted his ex-girlfriend, Gina Torres, in an abandoned Sears parking lot. Gutierrez begged Gina to go back with him. She adamantly refused and got into her car to drive away. Rudy smashed the driver's side window of her car and slashed her eight times in the neck, stomach, head and arm. Gina pretended to be dead and Rudy fled from the scene. Gina stumbled to the street and passed out, and was saved by a passing motorist. Despite doctors' initial belief that she wouldn't live, Gina survived. Her vocal cords, however, are permanently damaged from the slash wound to her neck. Gutierrez could be living in the southern California area, or in the city of Palma in the state of Sonora, Mexico. He could be working as a landscaper, or in a restaurant or bakery. Gutierrez, who may have a scar on his left arm, is from a very religious family and is active in the Jehovah's Witnesses. Gutierrez is 29, 5'9" and 140 pounds.

Gerbert Al Menendez-Orellana (Rape, Abduction) – Alex Omar Lopez-Menendez, who went by the name "Omar", met a young woman at the Gecko's Waterfront Cantina in Woodbridge, Virginia on July 14, 2000. Late that evening, Omar convinced the woman to accompany him to a nearby Denny's Restaurant for coffee. When the woman went to Omar's vehicle, she discovered there were three other men already there. Omar told the woman that the men were his friends and they wanted to join them for coffee too. Once the woman got into the vehicle, the men started to talk to each other in Spanish. The woman did not understand what they were saying. Omar then drove to a service road in a wooded area of Route 123 and parked the vehicle. When the woman asked what they were doing there, Omar said "The guys back there want you." He cut off the engine, removed the keys and exited the vehicle. The three men inside the car, Ronaldo Martinez Escobar, Edgar Vinicio Guerra-Medina, and Gerber Al Menendez-Orellana, removed the victim's clothes and repeatedly raped and sodomized her. After the attack, the suspects put the woman's clothes back on and drove away, leaving her on the side of the road. All of the suspects were arrested. However, Menendez-Orellana failed to appear at an April 9, 2001 hearing where he was scheduled to plead guilty to the crime. Menendez-Orellana, who uses the nickname "Economico", is 26, 5'11" and 170 pounds.

Shannon Melendi

Age: 19 at the time of disappearance

Height: 5'6"

Weight: 130 pounds

Emory University student Shannon Melendi disappeared from the Softball Country Club in Atlanta, Georgia on March 26, 1994 where she worked part-time as a scorekeeper. She took a lunch break and was never seen again. Police found her unlocked car parked at a nearby Citgo gas station, with the keys still in the ignition. One man has been the key suspect throughout the investigation: Colvin "Butch" Hinton. He worked at the ball park as an umpire and was reportedly seen with Shannon before she disappeared. Police named Hinton as a suspect when they discovered he had served a two-year sentence for kidnapping and molesting a 14-year-old girl in 1982. He has a history of assaulting women that dates back to the 1970's. Some cases were swept under the rug and others he had been arrested for and then released. Hinton is currently serving a nine year prison term for setting his house on fire and lying to the insurance company to collect the money. He has never been charged with Shannon's kidnapping/murder because there has not been enough evidence to convict him. Police spent days searching Hinton's house and digging up his yard looking for clues to her disappearance. They found many items buried in his yard including women's clothing, shoes, a sleeping bag, a scorecard from the ball park and the black tote bag he was seen carrying the day Shannon disappeared. Shannon's body has not been found. The Melendis are offering a $10,000 reward for anyone having information leading to the return of Shannon's remains. Shannon had olive skin and long hair. When last seen she was wearing green cotton running shorts, a gray Braves t-shirt and white tennis shoes. (See Shows #310, #337 and #636, OADs 4/2/94, 10/22/94 and 3/24/01)

CAPTURED:

Brenda Andrew (Murder)

James Pavatt (Murder) -- Brenda Andrew and James Pavatt were wanted for the murder of Brenda's estranged husband, Robert Andrew. On November 20, 2001, police received a 911 call from Brenda Andrew saying that she and her husband, Robert Andrew, had been shot at their home. When police arrived, Robert was already dead from wounds he sustained. Brenda survived a gunshot wound to her left arm. Brenda told police that two masked men attacked them in the garage and appeared to be after Robert's wallet. Police were suspicious of Brenda's story and detectives quickly learned that Brenda was having an affair with a man named James Pavatt. Police believe Brenda and Pavatt killed Robert for his $800,000 life insurance policy.

Brenda didn't show up for Robert's funeral on November 27, 2001. Pavatt disappeared at the same time. The couple were believed to be traveling with her two young children: Tricity Marie Andrew, age 10, and Parker Bryce Andrew, age 7. Andrew and Pavatt had slipped over the border into Mexico, but a new license plate identification system picked up their vehicle when they were attempting to reenter the United States. The children were not with them. However, an alert border agent remembered two children matching Tricity and Andrew's description who had passed through the border minutes before with a man they identified as their uncle. The man and the two children were still being processed at the border. The man turned out to be Brenda Andrew's brother. Both children were recovered safely and returned to their grandparents. (See Show #657, OAD 12/8/01)

Kathie Harless (Murder)-- Harless is accused of murdering her newborn son and dumping him into an outhouse toilet. On April 9, 2001, police in Leitchfield, Kentucky were called to Bratcher's Flea Market to report the discovery of the body of an infant. A septic tank worker had been pumping out the women's outhouse when his vacuum hose became stuck. When the man pulled the hose out of the toilet, the body of a male human infant was attached to the hose by the buttocks. An autopsy showed that the baby was a newborn at the time of death, and there were no apparent abnormalities that should have caused the baby's death by natural causes. Police discovered that Kathie Harless, a regular vendor at the flea market, had been seen with blood on her clothing at the previous flea market session. She also appeared to be extremely weak, weak enough that she had to have help breaking down her table and loading her merchandise back into her vehicle at the end of the day. When questioned, Harless denied being the mother of the child. However, subsequent DNA testing on blood samples from Harless and the baby proved with a 99.99% certainty that she was the mother. Within two hours of having her blood drawn for testing, Kathie Harless and her husband Doug Harless fled from their home in Muhlenberg County, Kentucky. Viewer tips led authorities to a trailer park in Seville, Florida where Harless was arrested less than 48 hours after the initial broadcast. She has been returned to Kentucky to stand trial. The following are the featured fugitives and others being sought by federal, state or local authorities. The Update (if any) gives current status, previous references, or related information.

Armando Garcia (Murder) – Armando Garcia is an extremely violent Mexican national who was wanted in Los Angeles in connection with two attempted murders. On April 29, 2002, Los Angeles County Sheriff's Deputy David March pulled Garcia over on a routine traffic stop. Garcia got out on the drivers side of his 1989 black four door Nissan Maxima and approached Deputy March. When the deputy attempted to frisk Garcia, he was immediately shot multiple times in the face, neck and chest area. Garcia got back in his car and fled the scene. Deputy March died. Garcia, who has used the alias Daniel Garcia and the nickname "Chato", has "Garcia" tattooed on his shoulder blade. A professed cop hater, he doesn't go anywhere without his 9mm gun. Garcia is 25, 5'10"-6'0", and 230 pounds.

James Vincent Sullivan (Murder) -- James Sullivan is wanted for murder by the Atlanta Police Department and the Georgia Bureau of Investigation in the contract killing of his wife, Lita McClinton Sullivan. Police believe on Friday, January 16, 1987 at approximately 8:15am, Phillip Harwood, a hitman hired by Sullivan, rang the doorbell of Lita's condominium in the Buckhead community of Atlanta. When she opened her front door Harwood, posing as a flower delivery man, shot her in the head with a 9mm semi-automatic pistol, killing her instantly. Lita and Sullivan were involved in a turbulent divorce which entailed a large settlement of money on Lita's behalf. At the time of the murder Sullivan resided in Albermarle, North Carolina and was not considered a suspect. However, Phillip Harwood was arrested a short time later and confessed that Sullivan had indeed hired him to murder Lita. When Sullivan found out Harwood had been arrested he fled to Costa Rica before police could obtain an arrest warrant. In April 1998 police finally obtained an arrest warrant but Sullivan was nowhere to be found. Police know Sullivan still has a home in Costa Rica, but they believe he could be anywhere in the world. Sullivan is frugal to the point of being miserly, but he likes to life the lifestyle of a millionaire. He likes to hang out at bars and resorts frequented by the rich and famous. Sullivan is 59, 5'10" and 125-165 pounds. (See Shows #528, #549 and #580, OADs 2/6/99, 7/10/99 and 3/18/00)

Deandre Laprest Wilson (Murder) – On July 5, 2000, 71-year-old Edward Burton stopped at a house in Detroit, Michigan to pick up a co-worker. He honked his horn, prompting Deandre Wilson to tell him to stop. An argument ensued and Wilson reached into the car and hit Edward in the face. Then Wilson used a brick to shatter Edward's windshield. When Edward fled, Wilson followed, eventually catching and shooting him, while the only witness got away. Edward Burton died a short time later. On September 17, 2000, Wilson went after the lone witness, opening fire in his home. While he didn't hit the intended target, Wilson shot four people, killing one – the witness's daughter. Wilson has felony convictions for reckless use of a firearm and disorderly conduct. He may be armed with an automatic handgun. He may be driving or riding in a red Mazda or Lexus, with partial Michigan plates 540. He has a baby in Detroit. Wilson is 30, 6'0" and 151 pounds. MISSING:

Rilya Shenise Wilson

Age: 5

Height: 3'

Weight: 40 pounds

Rilya Wilson was kidnapped from her grandmother's house on January 18, 2001. Police say a man and a woman, posing as social service workers, went to the home and took the little girl into custody. Officials discovered that Wilson was unaccounted for on April 25, 2002. At first police believed that Wilson might be the little girl (Precious Doe) who was found beheaded in Kansas City, Missouri, but when authorities compared the girls' handprints, they weren't a match. Rilya has a scar five inches below her navel.

Jahi Turner

Age: 2

Height: 2'6"

Weight: 30 pounds

San Diego police are investigating the disappearance of two-year-old Jahi Turner from a Golden Hill playground area near 28th and Beech streets at around 2:30 p.m. on Thursday April 23, 2002.

Turner's stepfather, 23-year-old Tieray Jones, told police that he last saw Turner before going to get a soda at a nearby vending machine while the boy was playing, with two other children and their mother, in the park. The vending machine sits about 250 yards from the playground. Tieray told police that when he returned, about 15 minutes later, Turner and all the others were gone. Tieray described the children Turner was playing with as age two and four and he said their mother was a Caucasian woman in her late 30s, with blonde hair that was pulled tightly into a ponytail. Tieray said she was about 5 feet 7 inches tall, and weighed around 138 pounds. Turner's natural father lives in Frederick, Maryland and was recently released from jail. Until mid-April Turner lived with his paternal grandparents, also in Maryland. Turner's mother, Tameka Jones, 18, is a Navy sailor who left San Diego on Monday, April 20, 2002 for a weeklong cruise on the dock landing ship USS Rushmore. Tameka was picked up at sea and returned to San Diego by police escort late Thursday afternoon. Tameka had just moved to San Diego with Turner and Tieray. Now that officials believe a criminal act is involved, they are urging anyone with possible information on the boy's whereabouts to come forward. Jahi was last seen wearing a blue long-sleeved "Winnie the Pooh" t-shirt, blue nylon pants with an orange drawstring, and gray tennis shoes. Jahi lived in Frederick, Maryland from the time he was born until the week before he disappeared. There is a website set up for Jahi at www.jahimissing.com.

CAPTURED:

Timmy John Weber (Murder, Rape) – On Thursday, April 4, 2002, Timmy Weber lost control at his girlfriend's house in Las Vegas. Weber raped his girlfriend's 14-year-old daughter Michelle. He duct-taped the child to her bed, blindfolded and sexually assaulted her. When Kim Gautier, 38, Weber's girlfriend, arrived home with her 15-year-old son Anthony, Weber turned on them too. Weber struck Kim over the head with a large object and stuffed her into a Rubbermaid container. Weber then attacked Anthony, strangled the 15-year-old, and duct-taped a plastic bag around his head and neck. Chris, 17, Kim's oldest son, arrived home later in the afternoon with a friend. Around 5:00pm he couldn't get into the house, so the boys had to break a window. When they climbed through they heard the television blaring from Michelle's room, and this is where the kids found Michelle naked and taped to her bed. The boys freed the girl, who told them T.J., aka Timmy John Weber, did this to her. The three kids were afraid Weber was still lurking around, so they fled the house very quickly to a neighbor's home. On the way they flagged down a Highway Patrol officer who took the kids to safety. They told the officer their story, he called for backup to the home, and an investigation took place. Police found the body of 15-year-old Anthony Gautier under his covers in his room with a plastic bag secured tightly around his head and neck. A further search turned up the body of Kim Gautier, stuffed in a Rubbermaid container in her bedroom closet. Michelle and her older brother Chris have been placed in protective custody. Weber has been convicted five times of felonies in Nevada since 1992, and twice in California. He has been imprisoned in various penitentiaries from December 1995 to August 1997, and from August 2000 to February 2001. Chris Gautier returned to his home with a friend to get some clothes for his family's funerals, but found Weber in the house. Chris and his friend, although severely injured from Weber's attack with a baseball bat, fought off Weber and ran to a neighbor's to call 911. An alert viewer noticed that a trailer owned by Gautier's parents suddenly had black plastic obscuring the windows. She called authorities, who captured Weber. Michael Bliss (Sexual Assault on a Minor) B Michael Bliss repeatedly molested his 9-year-old niece and videotaped the molestation. In some of the videos, both Bliss and his victim's face are clearly visible. The assaults began on September 2000, shortly after Bliss was released from prison after serving nine years for three counts of attempted murder. Bliss rented a video camera from a local rental company, and those dates match the dates that Bliss molested his young victim in hotels in Vermont and Massachusetts. Authorities searched Bliss' residence after his victim came forward and told one her family members. When Bliss discovered the police had been at his residence, he fled in his mother's car. Bliss' mother's car was recovered at the Bradley International Airport, where he had rented another car. The rental car was recovered a little over a week later at Los Angeles Airport. He has not been seen since. In 1991, Bliss was convicted of beating three boys with an aluminum baseball bat. He nearly killed the children, and one victim even flat-lined on his way to the hospital. Bliss went on the run immediately after that crime. After a month-long chase, he was recovered at the Canadian border trying to re-enter the United States. Bliss served nine years for that conviction. He also has been previously convicted of cocaine possession and served time in the 1980's. On the night of the original broadcast, a tipster told authorities Bliss was working as a handyman at a Los Angeles motel. However, he had been fired for incompetence months before. The owner had received a letter from Bliss asking for his old job back, which included a phone number. Under instructions from the authorities, the owner called the number, Bliss returned to the motel and was captured. (See Shows #638 and #664, OADs 6/23/01 and 2/9/02)

The following are the featured fugitives and others being sought by federal, state or local authorities. The Update (if any) gives current status, previous references, or related information.

Frederick David Russell (Vehicular Homicide) – Russell is wanted by the FBI in Washington State for the June 4, 2001 vehicular homicide of three students and the injuring of three others. At about 4:00pm Russell stopped at a liquor store in Pullman, Washington and purchased a half gallon of vodka that he said was for a friend. Apparently Russell and his friend went to Moscow, Washington, and then returned to Pullman and had a few beers at “My Office Place Tavern”. They then left the tavern and headed back to Moscow. On the trip back, at approximately 10:45pm, Russell’s Blazer collided with three vehicles, including 1972 Cadillac traveling in the opposite direction. The Cadillac was carrying seven Washington State University students. Three students were killed and three injured in the accident. Two and a half hours after the accident Russell’s blood alcohol content was 0.12. Russell did attend a scheduled court appearance, but did not make it to his pre-trial hearing on October 26, 2001. He was last seen on October 23, 2001 in Pullman. On October 26, Russell’s father received a letter from his son in which he stated “I am going to go to a state where no one will hurt me.” On November 1, three area newspapers received letters believed to be from Russell. The letters to the papers were postmarked October 29, 2001 in Reno, Nevada. Russell, a likely alcohol abuser, usually drinks 151-proof rum. He was also a Washington State University student at the time of his arrest. Russell is 23, 6'1" and 215 pounds.

Jesus Maldonado (Attempted Murder Of A Police Officer, Kidnapping, Home Invasion Robbery) – On December 26, 2000, Jesus Maldonado and Ralph Perez committed a home in the upscale Stoneybrook subdivision in Orlando, Florida. They burst into the home of Jose Rudolph Mejicanos and his wife Rosa Guadalupe. Their friend Antonio Figueroa was also there. As the men entered the home, Rosa Guadalupe called 911. By the time officers arrived, the gunmen had taken the victim upstairs. Maldonado shot down the stairs at the officers, hitting Deputy Alex

Roman. The shooter fled, but Ralph Perez stayed behind and pretended to be one of the victims. He threatened the victims that if they did not go along with his story, he would kill them. The victims did go along with it until the next day. The sheriff's office arrested Perez that day. He has been convicted. Maldonado is still at large. Maldonado, who has used the alias Jesus Collado and the nicknames "Juice" and "Juguie", travels between Orlando and New York, where the NYPD Warrants Division is also after him. He is well-respected in his field of customizing paint jobs, usually works in body shops, and was recently given a Ninja motorcycle which he painted purple and gold. He likes to go to bars. He speaks both English and Spanish with a Dominican accent, but uses a fake license from Puerto Rico because his is suspended. Maldonado is 31, 5'9" and 175 pounds.

Calvin R. Sinclair (Murder) – Sinclair went to the home of his girlfriend, Shantel Armstrong, on July 4, 2001 to collect money she owed. When they began to argue Sinclair pulled out a gun and began shooting Shantel. That's when her mother, Dorothea, jumped between the two and was also shot. Both women later died at Charity Hospital in New Orleans. Detectives believe that Sinclair left New Orleans immediately after the shootings. He was born in Uganda but moved to the United States as a child. However, he may be trying to get to Uganda to hide. Sinclair has an extensive criminal record which includes arrests for battery of a woman and possession of crack cocaine. Sinclair has a scar down the inside of his left arm, several gold teeth, and "God" tattooed on his right arm. He is 28, 4'7" and 135 pounds.

Armando Garcia (Murder) – Armando Garcia is an extremely violent Mexican national who was wanted in Los Angeles in connection with two attempted murders. On April 29, 2002, Los Angeles County Sheriff's Deputy David March pulled Garcia over on a routine traffic stop. Garcia got out on the drivers side of his 1989 black four door Nissan Maxima and approached Deputy March. When the deputy attempted to frisk Garcia, he was immediately shot multiple times in the face, neck and chest area. Garcia got back in his car and fled the scene. Deputy March died. Garcia, who has used the alias Daniel Garcia and the nickname "Chato", has "Garcia" tattooed on his shoulder blade. A professed cop hater, he doesn't go anywhere without his 9mm gun. Garcia is 25, 5'10"-6'0", and 230 pounds. (See Show #674, OAD 5/4/02)

Richard James Bell (Drug Charges) – Agents from the 35th District Task Force in Alabama say Bell sold marijuana to an undercover agent on March 15, 2001. He was not arrested during the sting. When agents returned to arrest him, he had moved away. Bell, who has used the alias Richie George, reportedly lives with his girlfriend in Mobile, Alabama. He previously worked at a Burger King in Monroeville, Alabama. Bell is 28, 5'9" and 165 pounds.

Unidentified "Precious Doe" – Police found the headless body of a young girl on April 28, 2001 when they were searching for a missing man in the woods of Eastern Kansas City, Missouri. Three days later, a volunteer searching the same area found her head in a garbage bag just 100 yards away from where her body was discovered. There have been reports of a missing child matching her description and police now believe she may not be from the Kansas City area. "Precious Doe" is described as being three or four years old, weighting 35-40 pounds, and is 42 to 44 inches tall. She has a chipped upper left front tooth and also has a crescent-shaped birthmark on her left shoulder. (See Shows #632 and #660, OADs 5/12/01 and 1/12/02)

Robert E. Williams (Sex Charges) – Williams has been arrested on three counts of sexual intercourse without consent. He posted bail on those three counts and then disappeared, violating the conditions of his release. All three of the counts occurred between July 10, 1997 and August 7, 1997 in Missoula County, Montana, and the victim was a 14-year-old female. Williams was working in a body repair shop that was located across the street from the victim's home. Williams befriended the victim and acted as a father figure for the girl. Following his arrest, Williams failed to appear in court. Williams was arrested in Solano County, California in June 2000. Again, he posted bail and disappeared. Williams has a scar on his abdomen, a 7" surgical scar on his back, an 8" surgical scar on his forehead, and a heart with a ribbon tattooed on his left hand. He may be working in an auto body shop as a mechanic or tow truck driver, or working on a ranch. Williams is 53, 5'11" and 190 pounds.

walked her to an intersection near the Hi-Mount Community School in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Alexis never made it to class and hasn't been seen since. Alexis, who goes by the nickname "Lexi", has a scar under her right eye and a bump on her left pinky finger. She was last seen wearing a red hooded jacket with gray stripes, a purple shirt, blue jeans and white Nike tennis shoes, and she was carrying a pink Barbie book bag. She was wearing her hair in two braids and a ponytail.

UPDATE:

Margaret DeFrancisco (Murder)

Regina DeFrancisco (Murder) – Regina DeFrancisco dated truck driver Oscar Velazquez, 32, for about three weeks in May, 2000. On June 6, 2000 Regina called Oscar to her home and lured him into the basement, where she began to talk to him at the bottom of the stairs. As they were in conversation, a witness said that Margaret came from behind and shot Oscar in the head with a .380 semi-automatic. The shot to the head killed Oscar almost instantly. Oscar was known to carry a large amount of cash on him. After the sisters shot Oscar, they removed approximately $600 in cash from his pocket, a silver chair, and keys to his new 2000 Camero Z28 that was sitting outside. The sisters rolled his body in plastic, then carried Oscar's body to his car. The trunk would not shut, so Regina went back inside to get a dog leash to use to hold the trunk shut. The witness also told police that Regina and Margaret got a bucket of bleach and washed down the sidewalk where blood had dripped. The girls jumped into the car. After driving around for a while Regina pulled the car into a vacant lot where the girls attempted to pull the body out of the car. The body was heavy and Margaret had to brace the front seat and use her body weight to push the body out of the trunk. Regina found a bottle of nail polish remover and decided to destroy the body by using the acetone as a fuel and set the body on fire. An anonymous caller called 911 to report a fire in the vacant parking lot. When the tipster ran out to dump water on the fire, he noticed an arm sticking out and called 911 again. The body was later identified as Oscar Velazquez. The girls drove off and attempted to sell the victim's car. Once they realized that no one wanted to buy it, they lit the car on fire. When authorities questioned the women they had different stories, and later fled the area. A viewer tip led authorities to an apartment building owned by relatives of the DeFrancisco sisters, where Margaret was arrested. Regina is still at large. Regina DeFrancisco has tattoos of a rose on her chest and an "R" on her left leg. She is 18, 5'6" and 120 pounds. (See Shows #618, #636 and #659, OADs 1/27/01, 6/9/01 and 1/5/02)

The following are the featured fugitives and others being sought by federal, state or local authorities. The Update (if any) gives current status, previous references, or related information.

Michael Gospel (Murder) – On May 2, 2002 Gospel gunned down Audra Green in front of three of her children. He then turned and shot Audra's oldest daughter four times before she was able to escape through a window and get help from a neighbor. However, Gospel was able to escape. Gospel was Green's live-in boyfriend and he had threatened Green with death on numerous occasions and beat her frequently. Green had recently thrown Gospel and all his things out of their apartment. When he returned on May 2, the pair had a verbal argument before the shooting started. He may be hiding in Oakland or Richmond, California. Gospel, who goes by the nicknames "Spicy Mike" and "Butter", is missing the tip of both his index and middle fingers from the joint up. He has "Spicy Mike" tattooed on his right inner forearm. He has a history of violence against women, but considers himself to be a ladies' man. He is a known heroin addict and may be carrying a handgun. Gospel is 26, 5'10" and 180 pounds.

James Spencer Springette (Drug Charges, Money Laundering, Attempted Murder) – Springette has been engaging in criminal activities since 1991 in association with his role as the head of the Island Boys drug trafficking organization. The Island Boys are responsible for what authorities say is the importation of "cartel-level" multi-thousand kilogram quantities of cocaine from Columbia. The cocaine is eventually trafficked into the United States. Springette and the Island Boys may have been involved in two murders, including one committed in retaliation against a presumed informant, a money laundering operation that involved in excess of $100 million, and countless drug trafficking charges. Springette and the Island Boys have operated in the United States, the U.S. and British Virgin Islands, other Caribbean islands, Columbia, Venezuela, Panama, England, France, and elsewhere. They are responsible for the importation of 1,000 kilos of cocaine into the U.S. and the Virgin Islands every two weeks. The Island Boys may have imported in excess of 40,000 kilos of cocaine. Springette has used countless aliases including Elmo Brady, Elmo Brandy, Kyle Pierce, Elmo Spencer, Kent Worwell, Kent Worrel, Kent Worrall, Shawn Pickering, Brian Miller, James, Spencer, Efram Zoram Johnson, Everson Weberson, and the nicknames "Juice", "Scagal", "Uncle", and "Jimmy The Juice". He may have a pierced left ear and may wear a gold hoop earring. He speaks both English and Spanish fluently. Although an American citizen, he speaks with an island accent. Springette is 41, 5'11" and 240 pounds.

Hector Dario Restrepo-Zapata (Attempted Murder, Escape, Drug Trafficking)

Juan David Lema-Ortega (Attempted Murder, Escape, Drug Trafficking) – Ortega and Zapata are associated with the drug trafficking group, the Island Boys, and their leader James Springette. The Island Boys are responsible for what authorities say is the importation of "cartel-level" multi-thousand kilogram quantities of cocaine from Columbia. The cocaine is eventually trafficked into the United States. Ortega, Zapata and Springette were involved in a 1966 shoot-out with the Royal Virgin Islands police force in which one officer was shot. Zapata and Ortega were briefly jailed in 1998 in Tortola. The pair escaped after two gunmen ambushed their prison transport vehicle while it was on its way to a court hearing. Ortega and Zapata were freed and fled the island by boat. Springette and the Island Boys have operated in the United States, the U.S. and British Virgin Islands, other Caribbean islands, Columbia, Venezuela, Panama, England, France, and elsewhere. They are responsible for the importation of 1,000 kilos of cocaine into the U.S. and the Virgin Islands every two weeks. The Island Boys may have imported in excess of 40,000 kilos of cocaine. Zapata, who has used the nicknames Oscar and Punalada, may have acne scarring on his face. He is 32, 5'8" and 133 pounds. Ortega has used the alias Jose Gregorio Miranda-Molinas. He is 28, 5'10" and 176 pounds.

Guillermo Del Prado (Drug Charges) – On the night of January 20, 2002, U.S. Customs agents were on routine patrol in the air looking for suspicious vessels out at sea. Around 11:30pm they spotted a go-fast boat driving fast without its lights on. Customs agents say that this is a classic drug smuggling method. U.S. Customs called in their go-fast boat to follow the suspicious vehicle. They followed the boat in the water and in the air. From video shot from the helicopter, there is evidence of the smugglers throwing out bales of marijuana and then landing on Miami Beach just near the Fountainbleu Hotel. All three occupants jumped from the boat and ran onto the busy streets of Miami Beach. Customs agents chased them on foot. With the help of citizens who pointed out the direction of the suspects, agents arrested two of the three drug smugglers. One of the arrested men was picked up in the Bahamas and paid $3,000 for a ride. He was not involved in the drug smuggling and is cooperating with authorities. The second man in custody is believed to be the middle man between the drug pick up point in the Bahamas and the drop off point in Miami. The third man, who is at large, Guillermo Del Prado, is the transporter of the drugs. Del Prado is probably traveling with his wife, Ginny Del Prado, who was nine months pregnant at the time of her husband's last arrest. They most likely have a baby with them. Del Prado is 27, 5'9" and 240 pounds.

William Severs (Murder) – On January 10, 2002 at 7:10pm Severs followed his ex-girlfriend Tina Labriola and her fiancé Ralph Kearney to a friend's house in Vineland, New Jersey. When Tina and Ralph came out of the house, Ralph wanted to put some oil in their car before they left. He asked Tina to get a funnel from the trunk. When she went around to the back of the car, Severs shot her with a high-powered rifle, and Tina collapsed into the street. Meanwhile, Bonnie and Francisco Martin, a nurse and a corrections officer, drove by and saw Tina in the street. They thought she had been hit by a car so they stopped to help. Bonnie began doing CPR on Tina and prayed with her. Francisco went back to his car, got his service weapon and cleared the area of onlookers. Francisco also realized that the shooter was still out there somewhere. When police arrived they searched the area but didn't find the shooter. Instead they found the high-powered rifle with a scope in a nearby baseball field. They also found a guitar case and a zebra striped strap with Severs' name on it near the rifle. Severs shot Tina from 60 yards away, then fled on foot. He then placed the gun against a fence surrounding the baseball field and either forgot to pick up his guitar case or couldn't find it in the dark where he left it. Tina Labriola died in the hospital several hours later. Severs, who has also used the surname Seavers, has a bird tattooed on his upper right arm. He is a truck driver, and used to own a candle manufacturing company called Innerscent Candles. He is known to play the guitar and piano and enjoys riding moto-cross motorcycles. Severs is 39, 6'2" and 180 pounds.

Bert Gary Mercer (Murder) – On May 8, 2002, the body of 54-year-old Sandra Ford Kerley was found in her Bethany, Louisiana mobile home. She was shot to death and was found by her husband. Some items were taken from Kerley's home, though cops haven't released what those items are. On Sunday, May 12, 2002, Bobbi Annette Waggoner, 64, was found stabbed to death in her bossier city home. Two hours later, Mercer shot and killed his ex-wife Anna Mercer in DeSoto Parish, Louisiana. At this point, Mercer has only been charged with the murder of Anna but he is the only suspect in the other two murders. Anna and Sandra are cousins and Bobbi is a friend of Sandra's. Bert and Bobbi were considered close friends, but those who know them say Bert wanted the relationship to be romantic. Bobbi wasn't interested that way. Mercer, who has thinning hair, is manic-depressive, possibly psychotic, and was on anti-depressants. He was fired as a supervisor at Southwestern Electric Power Company in 1998. Although he has no prior criminal history, authorities consider him armed and dangerous. He was last seen driving a red 2001 Ford F-150 pickup truck with "Sport" written on both sides, bearing Louisiana plates V 879899. Mercer is 51, 6'2" and 240 pounds.

Armando Garcia (Murder) – Armando Garcia is an extremely violent Mexican national who was wanted in Los Angeles in connection with two attempted murders. On April 29, 2002, Los Angeles County Sheriff's Deputy David March pulled Garcia over on a routine traffic stop.

CAPTURED:

Nelson Yester (Conspiracy to Distribute Cocaine, Racketeering) -- When federal agencies uncovered an alleged plot to supply Colombian drug smugglers with hard-core ex-Soviet military hardware, agents say Nelson Yester's name was all over it. The amazing story unfolded in the nick of time around a Miami nude bar named Porky's. Behind a stage draped with sweaty strippers, agents say the club's owner, Russian immigrant Ludwig Fainberg, and alleged drug cartel insiders Nelson Yester and Juan Almeida cooked up a profitable plan. Exotic cold war weaponry, they reportedly realized, could be used to crank up the heat in the war on drugs. This alleged meeting of the minds brought together, perhaps for the first time, Russian Mafia members with connections to the former Soviet military and Colombian cartels, desperate for new ways to get their cargo into U.S. waters. These new modes of transport allegedly included helicopters and airplanes, but the package's main selling point was reportedly a Tango-class Soviet attack submarine. Capable of underwater speeds of 20 m.p.h., fully-loaded with eight torpedo tubes, and nearly undetectable when submerged, this submarine is a smuggler's dream and the DEA's nightmare. Luckily, the equipment was never delivered. But agents say that meetings took place, and the team was ready to sell to the highest bidder when they were broken up by a long-running investigation. Fainberg was indicted on over 30 counts linking him to the Russian Mafia. Almeida was also arrested and made bail. But Yester, the one agents say was the main figure on the South American side, got away. Tips led authorities to Johannesburg, South Africa, where Yester was arrested.. The following are the featured fugitives and others being sought by federal, state or local authorities. The Update (if any) gives current status, previous references, or related information.

Ann Kibalo (Child Abduction)

Samantha Kibalo (Missing Child) – Three-year-old Samantha Kibalo vanished last February while in the care of her non-custodial mother, Ann Kibalo. Samantha's father, Mike, was granted full custody of Samantha after splitting from Ann. After their split, Mike would take Samantha to Long Island, where Ann lived, whenever Ann requested a visit with her daughter. At the end of their week-long visits, Ann always brought Samantha back home to Rockland County. After the most recent visitation, Ann failed to appear at the designated meeting place, the Ramapo police station in Suffern, New York. This is not Ann's first attempt to kidnap Samantha. Ann also abducted her ten days after her birth, before she and Mike had split up. Ann was permitted to keep Samantha throughout the custody battle, which took almost a year. After that year Mike was given custody of Samantha and Ann was allowed unsupervised visitation. There is currently a felony warrant out for Ann Kibalo for custodial interference. Police recovered Ann's car after Samantha was reported missing, but there was no sign of Ann or Samantha. Police are concerned for Samantha's safety because of Ann's unstable mental condition. While the Rockland police have searched as far as New Hampshire and Illinois, they have received the most credible sightings from Florida. They are specifically focusing on the Boynton Beach area and Palm Beach County. Ann may wear eyeglasses while driving. She is also thought to have a rare red-haired Tibetan Spaniel named Vodka with her. Mike Kibalo says Vodka would be due for immunizations about this time. Ann Kibalo has used the aliases Ann Yermak, Ann Saul, and Ann Kaplan. She is 38, 5'0" and 120 pounds. Samantha Kibalo is 3, 2'9" and 22 pounds. (See Show #666, OAD 3/2/02)

Bert Gary Mercer (Murder) – On May 8, 2002, the body of 54-year-old Sandra Ford Kerley was found in her Bethany, Louisiana mobile home. She was shot to death and was found by her husband. Some items were taken from Kerley's home, though cops haven't released what those items are. On Sunday, May 12, 2002, Bobbi Annette Waggoner, 64, was found stabbed to death in her bossier city home. Two hours later, Mercer shot and killed his ex-wife Anna Mercer in DeSoto Parish, Louisiana. At this point, Mercer has only been charged with the murder of Anna but he is the only suspect in the other two murders. Anna and Sandra are cousins and Bobbi is a friend of Sandra's. Bert and Bobbi were considered close friends, but those who know them say Bert wanted the relationship to be romantic. Bobbi wasn't interested that way. Mercer, who has thinning hair, is manic-depressive, possibly psychotic, and was on anti-depressants. He was fired as a supervisor at Southwestern Electric Power Company in 1998. Although he has no prior criminal history, authorities consider him armed and dangerous. He was last seen driving a red 2001 Ford F-150 pickup truck with "Sport" written on both sides, bearing Louisiana plates V 879899. Mercer is 51, 6'2" and 240 pounds. (See Show #676, OAD 5/18/02)

Loren Preston Key (Attempted Murder, Kidnapping, Carjacking) -- Loren Key shot two police officers and a civilian victim in an early morning rampage on Saturday, May 18, 2002. Shortly after midnight on May 18, Key kidnapped his girlfriend and her male friend at gunpoint. As Key was in the passenger seat, he threatened them at gunpoint. The male friend drove around town, following Key's directions, throughout the night. Around 2:00am, Key let his girlfriend out of the car at her home. Key and the male driver continued to drive around. Once free, Key's girlfriend called 911 to report the kidnapping. Police in the area searched for the automobile the two men were known to be driving. At around 8:15am, two police officers, one male and one female, found and pulled over the vehicle. Key came out of the car shooting. They say he first shot the male officer in his arm and hand and then turned and shot the female officer in her side. With both officers down, Key then fled on foot. Cops say that Key then carjacked a vehicle at gunpoint. As he attempted to drive the car away, the car stalled. Authorities say he abandoned the stalled vehicle and carjacked another male driver. Key shot the man in his neck, pulled him from the car and attempted to drive away in his vehicle. Key stalled that vehicle as well. This time he fled on foot. Key has not been seen since. Key has both ears pierced once. He is 32, 5'11" and 230 pounds.

Hector Noe Duran Rosas (Murder) -- Hector Rosas murdered his ex-girlfriend, Edna Crisp, in October 2000. Crisp called police at 10:00pm on October 26, 2002 to tell them that her ex-boyfriend, Rosas, was trying to get into her home. But by the time officers arrived, Rosas had left. Officers found Rosas at 10:30pm at a pay phone and told him he was not allowed to return to Crisp's home. If officers found him there, they would arrest him for trespassing. Rosas walked away from the officers, crying. On October 27, 2000 at 9:00am, Crisp's friend came to pick her up to take her to work. The friend noticed that one of the windows in the home was broken. She opened the door, went into the home and found Crisp lying in a pool of blood on the living room floor. Crisp had been stabbed and strangled to death. Rosas, who has used the alias Hector Noe,

Diamond Yvette Bradley

Age: 3

Height: 3'0"

Weight: 35 pounds

Police are searching for Diamond and her older sister, Tionda Bradley. Both of the girls have been missing from their South-side Chicago apartment since Friday, July 6, 2001. Tionda and Diamond were left alone around 6:30am on Friday morning while their mother went to work. When she returned home around 11am, the children weren't home. She did find a note which appeared to have been written by Tionda and it said the girls were going to the nearby school and the store. Tionda was attending summer school at a local elementary school and was reported absent on Friday. The girl's mother looked for them for several hours but did not report them missing until Friday evening. Police have searched Lake Michigan and the areas surrounding the girls' home. Several neighborhood children have told police they saw the girls playing outside of their complex at around noon on Friday. No one else has seen them since. Laura Ayala

Age: 13

Height: 4'0"

Weight: 90 pounds

Laura Ayala disappeared late Sunday night, March 10, 2002 after visiting a Houston, Texas convenience store. Laura needed a Sunday paper for a school project and around 10:15pm on the 10th, walked approximately 100 feet from her house at 7939 Serita to the Broadway Convenience Store at 2610 Broadway. When she didn't return in a reasonable amount of time, her mother went to the store and could not find Laura. She then contacted police. Eyewitnesses, including the store clerk, have told police that Laura did make it to the store and did successfully purchase the Sunday paper she sought. Searchers found only two clues on-site: Laura's shoes and the newspaper that investigators think she purchased. Both were found in the parking lot between the store and Laura's home. Investigators fear Laura met with foul play and may be the victim of a kidnapping. They have not turned up any further clues. Witness accounts from the scene say a suspicious vehicle, described as a maroon or rust-colored cargo van with a gray bumper and no glass windows on the side, and a suspicious male, described as white or Hispanic, were nearby. Neither has been identified or positively linked to Laura's disappearance. Laura is very petite. She wears a full set of braces on her teeth, has a scar on her upper right arm and has brown highlights in her hair. She is described as very shy and reserved, and as a well-organized girl who likes to keep a journal and record of her activities. She is bilingual, fluent in both Spanish and English. When last seen she was wearing a blue-and-white checkered dress. (See Show #668, OAD 3/16/02)

Tristan "Buddy" Myers

Age: 4

Height: 3'0"

Weight: 50 pounds

On Thursday, October 5, 2000 "Buddy" Myers wandered off from his home in Roseboro, North Carolina, with his two dogs, Sasha, a baby Doberman, and Buck, a three-legged mutt. Police conducted a massive search of the surrounding area but found no sign of Buddy or the dogs. On Tuesday night, October 10, Buck the mutt came home. Sadly, the dog was not accompanied by Buddy or Sasha. Buddy had just moved to live with his great aunt and uncle two months ago. They describe Buddy as a curious and friendly little boy who would talk to just about anyone. Buddy has scars on the right side of his neck and on the top of his head. He likes swimming and riding horses. When last seen he was wearing blue jeans, a black t-shirt, and Mickey Mouse tennis shoes. (See Shows #608 and #617, OADs 10/14/00 and 1/20/01)

Elaine Antoinette Parent (Passport Fraud) -- Elaine Parent is wanted by the State Department for Passport Fraud and has been named a "Vital Link In A Murder Investigation" in a 1990 homicide in St. Lucie County, Florida. On July 19, 1990 the mutilated remains of 34-year-old Beverly McGowen were found in a rural canal in St. Lucie County, Florida. Deputies say a short time before she died, Beverly told her family and friends that she had a new roommate by the name of "Alice", who police believe was actually Elaine Parent. On June 16, 1990 Beverly wrote a "goodbye" letter to her brother, telling him she was going away. Her brother knew something was wrong and canceled Beverly's credit cards, hoping it would force her to call him. Deputies say she never did and her body was found a few days later. On July 23, 1990 a woman tried to use Beverly McGowen's credit card to rent a car at London's Heathrow airport. But since the card had been canceled the mystery woman, whom police believe was Parent, ended up paying cash. The canceled card raised suspicions and when Scotland Yard was informed the Beverly's gruesome murder, they intensified their manhunt. Three days later Parent called Avis and tried to extend the rental. British authorities say Parent told them she was near Cornwall, but in reality she was near Heathrow airport, where she abandoned the car. Police boarded every U.S.-bound aircraft looking for Parent but to no avail. Authorities say Parent eventually made her way back to the United States and in May of 1991 was found sleeping in her car. At the time she was using the name Charlotte Cowan. There was a warrant for Failure to Return the Leased Vehicle. Parent was arrested but was able to post bond just a few days later. An alert AMW viewer tipped authorities that Parent was living in Panama City, Florida. Although the woman at the address didn't resemble Parent -- she was blonde, didn't have a mole or scar as in Parent's description -- police remained suspicious. The woman asked to be allowed to change her clothing, went into her room and shot herself. Fingerprints later positively identified the woman as Parent. Evidence showed that she had already stolen documents and other information which would have enabled her to assume the identity of her current roommate. UPDATE:

Chandra Levy -- Chandra Levy was last seen at a local gym on Connecticut Avenue in Washington, DC where she went to cancel her membership. She had been living in Washington since September 2000 and was working as an intern at the Federal Bureau of Prisons. Chandra was scheduled to return to her home town of Modesto, California in preparation for receiving her Master's degree from the University of Southern California. When Chandra failed to call her parents with her flight information, they became concerned. After several attempts to reach their daughter by phone, Mr. and Mrs. Levy contacted authorities. When police searched the young girl's apartment, they found her suitcase packed, her cell phone, her drivers license and credit cards. On Friday, May 24, 2002 her remains were found in Rock Creek Park in Washington, DC,

The following are the featured fugitives and others being sought by federal, state or local authorities. The Update (if any) gives current status, previous references, or related information.

DeMorris Hunter (Murder) – Hunter shot and killed a woman during an argument on March 29, 2002. He fled the scene on foot and disappeared. Hunter arrived in Orlando, Florida the following week where he rented an apartment and started working at a local restaurant. While living at the apartment, Hunter befriended his neighbor, 38-year-old Teresa Green. On May 26, 2002, Hunter killed Teresa, stuffed her body in the trunk of her car, then dumped the car in a drug store parking lot. Hunter then borrowed a neighbor's van and hasn't been seen since. Hunter served 13 years for a murder in California in the 1980's. Hunter, who has used the alias Michael D. Berry, is known to carry a hunting knife and may be armed with a hand gun. He has worked as a van driver and as kitchen help in the restaurant business. He may be traveling in a white 1992 Chevy cargo van with the word "ALLTEL" written on both sides and Florida license plate E85NYY. Hunter is 36, 5'10" and 170 pounds.

Robert William Fisher (Murder, Arson) – On April 10, 2001 at 8:42am, Scottsdale, Arizona police and fire units responded to reports of an explosion and house fire. The bodies found in the rubble were 38-year-old Mary Fisher, her 12-year-old daughter Brittney, and her 10-year-old son Bobby. The family members had been murdered before the fire destroyed their home. Wife Mary had been shot in the back of the head and her throat slashed. The children's necks were also cut. The father of the house, Robert Fisher, was nowhere to be found. Ten days later, police found his vehicle and dog in the Tonto National Forest. An extensive search of the area turned up no signs of Robert Fisher. Police believe he hid out for the first few days after the murders, then left the area to start over in another community. Fisher may have a light scar on his back where he had surgery years ago, and walks with his back very straight and his chest pushed out because of his lower back injury. He is an avid hunter, fisherman and outdoorsman, and enjoys talking about these sports. He chews Copenhagen tobacco, and may be in the company of an unidentified female. Authorities believe he is armed with several weapons including shotguns, handguns, and possible a .357 Magnum revolver. Fisher is 41, 6'3" and 190 pounds. (See Shows #644 and #659, OADs 8/11/01 and 1/5/02)

Luis Raul Acosta (Sexual Assault) – Acosta has been at large since May 6, 2002 when he jimmed a deadbolt and fled from an interrogation room at a Bronx station. Acosta's DNA linked him to rapes dating back to 1997. Acosta became known as the "Plumber Rapist" because he impersonated a plumber or repairman to gain entry to his victims' homes. Acosta, who has used the aliases Luis Gonzales, Jose Santiago and Nelson Figueroa, as well as the nickname Lito, has worked for wholesalers in the fruit market. Acosta is 33, 5'9" and 135 pounds.

Boris George Graham (Murder) – On the night of February 8, 1999, Graham and Kirell Francis Taylor committed a home invasion robbery that ended in the death of thirty-year-old Christopher Rawlings. Rawlings, a self-made millionaire, husband, and father of two young daughters, was returning to his Woodland Hills, California home after an errand when he was attacked in his garage by two masked men, tied up and thrown into the trunk of his $200,000 Bentley. When police responded to a desperate 911 call from Christopher's wife Barbi, Graham and Taylor jumped into Christopher's Bentley and sped off with him still tied up in the trunk. The high-speed chase that ensued ended in a violent car crash that resulted in Christopher being ejected from the trunk and fatally injured. The case was highly publicized and profiled on America's Most Wanted. In July 1999, Taylor was arrested and charged with the murder of Christopher Rawlings. Detectives have since learned that Graham was Taylor's accomplice, and the driver of the Bentley during the chase. Graham and Taylor are members of the Piru Bloods street gang and suspect they may be responsible for a string of unsolved home invasion robberies. Graham was last spotted in Chicago, Illinois. Graham has used the aliases Juba Pattis and Kato. He has a tattoo on his right shoulder and a scar on his upper lip. He may wear his hair in a cornrow style, and when last seen in July 1999 was wearing a beard and mustache. Graham is 30, 5'8" and 140 pounds. (See Show #566, OAD 11/20/99)

Jaime Manuel Felix Borbon (Kidnapping, Homicide)

Javier Francisco Felix Borbon (Kidnapping, Homicide) – The Borbons are wanted by the FBI for the kidnapping and hostage taking of 17-year-old Jorge Osuna Ayon. On June 30, 1993, in Paramount, California, Ayon was abducted at gunpoint by the Borbons and possibly two others. The Borbons drove Ayon to Tijuana, Mexico, holding him captive for about a month. Numerous phone calls were made to the victim's father, during which the kidnappers demanded $800,000 ransom. The FBI believes that the kidnapping was related to a past drug debt owed by Jose Ayon, the victim's father. Jose Ayon denies any involvement with drugs. Negotiations between Jose Ayon and the kidnappers became hostile and quickly deteriorated beyond FBI control with the suspects insisted on making the drop-off site in Tijuana. On July 26, 1993, the kidnappers demanded that a woman bring the money in a yellow cab at 5:00pm sharp. The drop was to be made at the Caliente race track in Tijuana. Unfortunately, the woman was late. The men got angry and killed Ayon, shooting him 16 times in a Tijuana field. Jorge Arturo Amariallas and Rigoberto Lopez Sotelo are in custody in Mexico as co-conspirators to the crime. Jaime Borbon, who goes by the nickname "El Chivo" (the goat), dresses like a cowboy and enjoys listening to country music in Spanish. He speaks fluent English and Spanish. He may be traveling with his wife and young daughter. Jaime Borbon is 33, 5'7" and 190 pounds. Javier Bourbon, whose nickname is "El Flaco" (skinny), is a member of the Sinaloa Cowboy gang and is known to be armed and extremely dangerous. Like his brother, he dresses like a cowboy and is fluent in both English and Spanish. Javier Borbon is 36, 5'9" and 175 pounds.

Steven Randall Arthur (Aggravated Sexual Assault) – Arther had repeated sexual contact with juvenile girls that his wife was babysitting from 1991-1993. On July 26, 1993 Arthur admitted to Illinois state police that he had been "touching" the girls while his wife was asleep. On July 27, 1993 Arthur took money out of his back account and obtained an advance on his salary from his employer. He then met with a friend, Tim, who is described as 5'10", around age 27, tall, slender build, with blond hair, at the Honey Creek Mall in Terre Haute, Indiana. Arthur told his wife, who brought him to the mall, that he was going to leave the area and travel with a carnival. Authorities found evidence that Arthur was traveling with the James Drew Carnival and tried, unsuccessfully, to apprehend him at appearances by this group. Information received later indicated that Arthur was working with the carnival vendors rather than the carnival company itself. Arthur has been in contact with his wife by telephone and mail, which was postmarked from Jacksonville, Florida. Through this contact he told her that he was contemplating suicide and that police would have to shoot him to apprehend him. Arthur, who goes by the nickname "Goober", is 42, 5'11" and 220 pounds.

MISSING:

Elizabeth Smart

Age: 14

Height: 5'6"

Weight: 105 pounds

On Wednesday, June 5, 2002, Elizabeth Smart was abducted at gunpoint from her Federal Heights home. At about 1:00am a man cut the screen and crawled through the kitchen window. He then went to the bedroom shared by Elizabeth and her 9-year-old sister. He took Elizabeth out of the house at gunpoint after he allowed her to grab her shoes. He threatened to harm the 9-year-old sister if she told the police what happened. Two hours after the abduction, Elizabeth's sister told her parents what had happened. There is no evidence of a vehicle, and it appears they left on foot. Police are looking for a male believed to be in his 30's. He is about 5'8" with a medium build. The suspect has dark hair and was seen wearing a tan or white jacket with a white cap. The police have extended their search beyond Utah to Idaho and Wyoming.

jail while he was awaiting trial for murder. In November 2000, Anthony Carter was driving to Dallas with Joe Costa, a homeless friend, to play a gig when they were stopped for a minor traffic violation. The investigating officer found drugs in the car. Anthony had no bail money, so he stayed in the Dallas jail for about one month. Joe Costa returned to Austin in Carter's truck and pawned Carter's expensive guitar for $20. On November 13, 2000 Carter shot Costa in the head in the parking lot of the Kwik-Wash Coin Laundry in Austin, Texas. Carter was arrested and incarcerated in the Travis County Correctional Facility in Austin for intentional murder, and charged as both his alias, Joshua Johanness, and as Anthony Carter. On October 21, 2001 Carter and Troy Bailey escaped from jail by stuffing a prison uniform to look like a body in the bed. Then they climbed on top of a recreational area and escaped. On November 3, 2001, the Jefferson Davis Parish Sheriff was assisting in a fundraiser in Jennings, Louisiana when he was approached by a suspicious white male with a gasoline can. The sheriff ran the plate on the man's vehicle and found out that it was reported stolen out of Harris County. Carter was arrested and booked in a minimum security jail, but refused to give his name. On November 9, 2001, Carter escaped from jail again by shimmying up a pipe chute that led to the attic. Once in the attic he was able to push open a vent and go through it to the roof of the jail. He used blankets and sheets tied together to climb down to freedom. Carter, whose aliases include Daniel Johanness, Mark Carter, and Ryan Kerr Sansing, has scars on his right hand and right finger, and tattoos including a tomahawk with a feather, a smiling skull, "Learning To Fly", and classic smiling/frowning theater masks. An alert tipster in Iowa City, Iowa spotted Carter at a convenience store and alerted authorities. When police cornered Carter just a few minutes later, he was instantly identified by his distinctive tattoos.. (See Show #678, OAD 6/1/02)

Linda LeBrane Attackers (Kidnapping, Robbery, Arson, Attempted Murder) – Three unidentified men and one woman are wanted for the kidnapping, robbery and attempted murder of Linda LeBrane on June 15, 2000. The incident occurred near Interstate 84 in Idaho. LeBrane, a longtime resident of Port Townsend, Washington, was alone, driving east on I-84 to her vacation home in Bear Lake, Idaho at about 2:30am on June 15, 2000 when she was forced off the road by another car. Four suspects, three male and one female, proceeded to break her windshield using a baseball bat. At least two suspects entered the car and pushed LeBrane into the passenger seat, striking her with the bat. One suspect drove the car while another suspect demanded her purse and began stabbing her and beating her with the baseball bat. After continued beatings, the assailants dumped LeBrane in a nearby field. They drove off, but returned later to beat and stab her again, also slitting her throat. Then they set fire to her car. LeBrane played dead until the suspects left. The car fire attracted the attention of two men passing by. They stopped to check out the fire and discovered LeBrane. Amazingly, she survived the attack. Investigators traced one of LeBrane's stolen credit cards to the Los Angeles area. Composites of the four suspects were created with the help of LeBrane's descriptions and those of other witnesses who had spotted the four suspects at a rest stop that night. LeBrane identified two vehicles driven by the suspects - a 1996-1999 Chevy Lumina, either pewter or light gold in color, and a late 1980's maroon mid-size four-door car with the gas cap on the passengers side. An anonymous tipster in Canyon County, Idaho identified the quartet as a group of drug addicts she had formerly been associated with who had bragged about the crime. Her information led authorities to Kenneth Wordeman. Wordeman gave up his brother, John, and the other man, Jeremy Sanchez. Sarah Pearce, the woman, had been only 17 at the time of the attack. She was captured shortly after the men. (See Shows #609, #614 and #643, OADs 11/4/00, 12/30/00 and 8/4/01)

The following are the featured fugitives and others being sought by federal, state or local authorities. The Update (if any) gives current status, previous references, or related information.

Larry W. Woods, Jr. (Escape) – Woods escaped from the Indiana State Prison in Michigan City on July 9, 2001 around 8:40am. Prison officials first noted Woods' absence at a mid-morning roll call on July 9. The facility was immediately locked down, but there were no signs of woods. Authorities believe he escaped inside a garbage truck that was on a routine pickup at the prison. Prison officials say that Woods was a "yard worker" whose duties included mowing the grass and shoveling snow. As a "yard worker", Larry was within both walking and visual distance of the trash pickup area. He could have watched the process daily and figured out the schedule. Police theorize the Woods put himself in the dumpster. The truck did crush trash that morning, and it is unclear how Woods may have survived. They have searched the dumpsite, but did not find his body or any evidence that he perished. It is also plausible that Woods may have ridden off the premises underneath the truck. Larry Woods was convicted of the murder and robbery of a former employer in 1994, for which he was sentenced to 111 years. Woods, whose nickname is "Elwood", has scars on his lower right arm, upper back, and stomach. He may have a very elaborate tattoo on the left side of his chest which would exactly match his girlfriend's: "9" and "Until Death Do Us Part" at the top, "Elwood" in the left heart, "Pooh Bird D" in the right heart, "Lil Larry RIP" towards the right, "6/4/99" towards the left, center heart surrounded by the words "Loves Only Always Forever"; at the bottom there is a "10" and the words "Plenty Much Love", all contained within the shape of the Libra scales. He is a known member of the Gangster Disciples street gang, and may also have Gangster Disciples tattoos (BGD). He may be wearing a gold cross necklace and a wedding ring. He had a shaved head at the time of his disappearance, and may have facial hair. Woods is 29, 5'10" and 190 pounds. (See Shows #642 and #657, OADs 7/28/01 and 12/8/01)

Edmunds in the disappearance of Elizabeth Smart. According to a witness, Edmunds' car was parked in Elizabeth's neighborhood two days before she disappeared. The witness, a milkman, wrote down a partial plate for the suspicious vehicle and gave it to police. A second person in the neighborhood also noticed the car and took a photo of it. Edmunds is a transient who lives out of his car. He has two outstanding warrants for assault of a police officer and fraud. He was last seen driving a 1997 green Saturn with Utah license plate 266 XJH, but the plates were recovered on June 13, 2002 in a park. Edmunds is 26, 6'2" and 225 pounds.

Finer Diamonds Robber (Aggravated Robbery) – On November 28, 2001, a white male in his 50's entered Finer diamonds, located in a busy shopping district in Springdale, Ohio, just outside of Cincinnati. Allen Finer, the owner of the family-run store, said this same man came in five days earlier asking to look at specific diamonds. On this day, he returned just five minutes before closing time asking to look at the diamonds again. He pulled a black semi-automatic handgun from his jacket and pointed it at Allen, saying "I want all those diamonds." Allen handed the suspect two boxes of diamonds containing several stones ranging from 1.5 carats to 4.39 carats. The suspect took the diamonds, worth about $200,000, and fled. The suspect fled on foot to a light colored 1980's Volvo Station Wagon parked around the block. Allen, being a runner, chased the suspect on foot. He wrote down the tag number on the car. Ten days prior to the robbery the tag had been stolen from a car which was parked near Finer Diamonds. The suspect hasn't been seen since. Finer Diamonds had been robbed just two months prior. On September 29, 2001, Finer Diamonds was robbed by two black males in ski masks. During the course of the robbery, Allen Finer was dragged from the store to a getaway vehicle, where he escaped as the suspects took off. The suspects led police on a high-speed chase through town, which ended in Sharonville, where the suspects crashed their SUV into a utility pole. The two were hospitalized but survived. All of the stolen jewelry, worth $230,000, had been recovered. The two men, Robert Robinson and Curtis Hill, were sentenced to thirty years in jail beginning in February 2002. The suspect may have done other robberies, knows the Springdale area well, but is probably not a local resident. He clearly has a good knowledge of quality diamonds. The suspect is approximately 50, 5'10"-6'0" and 180 pounds.

Richard Steve Goldberg (Child Molestation) – Goldberg molested six young girls under the age of ten. He reportedly gained the trust of the neighborhood parents, then became a babysitter and "friend" to kids in the area. The single man set his home up in a way that would attract children. His backyard had swings and a cage with rabbits and ducks. Inside the house, Goldberg had children's computer games that he would allow them to use, kid's music, art supplies, and even children's soap. He would also take them to Disneyland, parks, lakes, etc. Goldberg was found out after two young girls playing on his computer saw an image of two of their young friends naked, including the next door neighbor. A full investigation was launched and six neighborhood kids reported being assaulted by Goldberg. Child pornography was found on his computer, including a photo of him having sex with children. After cops came in to search his house and took his computer away, Goldberg fled the area in late June. In early July, after finding evidence on the computer, police issued an arrest warrant for him. Authorities know he visited his parents in Rumson, New Jersey, shortly after running. There is evidence he was also in Las Vegas, and Bullhead City, Arizona. Goldberg's hair is jet black but would be gray if he didn't dye it. He has a receding hairline. He used to work at Boeing before being laid off. He likes outdoor activities and was the president of a gun and revolver club in Long Beach, California. Goldberg is 56, 6'0" and 160 pounds. (See Show #665, OAD 2/16/02)

Adolfo S. Sanchez (Murder) -- Sanchez shot and killed his ex-girlfriend, Jennifer Wiedemann, on July 20, 2001. Wiedemann was shot three times in the upper chest and throat. She had broken up with Sanchez about a week before her murder. Sanchez had made several unsuccessful attempts to get Jennifer to take him back. After the murder, Sanchez fled to Milwaukee where he has relatives. Police recovered his car and gun in the Milwaukee area, but Sanchez was nowhere to be found. Sanchez is 28, 5'7" and 135 pounds. (See Show #648, OAD 9/8/01)

Unknown Fran Jones Killer (Murder, Robbery) – Cleveland police are looking for the unknown killers of 62-year-old Frances Jones. Fran was gunned down in her driveway on Monday, February 4, 2002 in the early evening hours. Fran interrupted a burglary in progress at her home. After she caught the robbers red-handed, they used a semi-automatic handgun and shot Fran three times. She died in her driveway. Fran was a volunteer with Fox Channel 8 (WJW Cleveland). She was a "Call To Action" group volunteer. Fran had worked all day with the "Call To Action" phone center on Monday. The robbers broke in while she was at WJW. When Fran's husband came home around 7:45pm, he at first thought it was the chemotherapy treatment for colon cancer that caused her collapse in their driveway. It wasn't until he tried to revive her that Donald Jones, 66, realized his wife had been shot. There were two distinct and separate footprints left in the Jones family back yard in the snow. The killers stole a knife from the home, but it was found on the driveway near Fran's body. They may have threatened Fran with it and dropped it as they fled.

David Kendrick (Armed Robbery) – Kendrick was the mastermind of at least 55 robberies in the Boston metropolitan area during 2001. He and his crew of four younger men robbed a series of small grocery stores, beauty shops and florists at gunpoint. Each robbery would net them about $3,000 to $5,000. They were always masked, armed, and always took over the scene quickly. One would control the door, one would rob any and all customers, and Kendrick would head for the clerk and the cash register. Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority Police say Kendrick and his gang made a dramatic move in October 2001, robbing the passengers of a charter bus on its way to the Foxwoods Gambling Casino in Connecticut.

Kendrick's wife posed as a passenger, boarded the bus on the stop before the robbery, and kept in contact with her husband by cell phone. Police were successful in identifying the crew members and arresting five of them, including Kendrick's wife. Kendrick himself eluded police and is on the run. Kendrick has a large bullet wound scar on his upper right high. He is a smoker with a big booming voice and a heavy Philadelphia accent. He sometimes walks with a limp, and wears prescription glasses. Kendrick is 34, 6'2" and 190 pounds.

Cruz Soria-Gonzalez (Murder) – On March 11, 2001, Cruz Soria-Gonzalez went to Evaristo Cardenas' home at 1:50am. Soria-Gonzalez was angry because he had gotten into a fight with Cardenas a few months earlier. At that time, Gonzalez had made sexual advances towards Cardenas' wife, and Cardenas had beaten Gonzalez up. After the fight, Gonzalez made a vow to get revenge. On the night of the shooting, Gonzalez rang Cardenas' doorbell and when Cardenas came to the door, Gonzalez shot at him. The bullet passed through the door, hitting Cardenas in the head. Cardenas later died in the hospital and Gonzalez fled. Gonzalez, who has used the alias Cruz Soria Patino and the nickname "Tuto", is an illegal alien who speaks no English. He has a monobrow and may wear a mustache and small goatee. When last seen he was wearing a long-sleeved blue button-up shirt without a collar and baggy pants. Gonzalez is 23, 5'10" and 150 pounds.

Arthur Carl Kanev (Child Molestation) – According to Casa Alianza, Arthur Kanev, along with another American, traveled to Costa Rica and set up an organization, supposedly dedicated to working out environmental issues in Costa Rica. Instead, the two men drugged and raped young Costa Rican girls and took photographs of them naked. The two were arrested on January 6, 1999, but at the end of 2000 Kanev was released on bond and apparently fled the country. Kanev, who uses the nickname "Arturo", is employed as a dentist. He has a distinctive mustache. Kanev is 55, 5'9" and 212 pounds.

Unknown Ivette Badilla Killer (Murder) – Ivette Badilla was on the streets, prostituting herself, at age 12. In February 2000, cops began finding body parts strewn around San Jose, Costa Rica. Some of those body parts were later identified as Ivette's. Other body parts belonged to Jackeline Rodriguez, another young street prostitute. According to Casa Alianza, it appears as though the bodies had been frozen and then dismembered.

MISSING:

Elizabeth Smart

Age: 14

Height: 5'6"

Weight: 105 pounds

On Wednesday, June 5, 2002, Elizabeth Smart was abducted at gunpoint from her Federal Heights home. At about 1:00am a man cut the screen and crawled through the kitchen window. He then went to the bedroom shared by Elizabeth and her 9-year-old sister. He took Elizabeth out of the house at gunpoint after he allowed her to grab her shoes. He threatened to harm the 9-year-old sister if she told the police what happened. Two hours after the abduction, Elizabeth's sister told her parents what had happened. There is no evidence of a vehicle, and it appears they left on foot. Police are looking for a male believed to be in his 30's. He is about 5'8" with a medium build. The suspect has dark hair and was seen wearing a tan or white jacket with a white cap. The police have extended their search beyond Utah to Idaho and Wyoming. (See Show #678, OAD 6/8/02)

The following are the featured fugitives and others being sought by federal, state or local authorities. The Update (if any) gives current status, previous references, or related information.

Anibal Mustelier (Extortion, Bank Larceny) – In 1989, Mustelier was hired to kill Frank Condom, a Miami businessman. On December 22, 1989, Mustelier and another thug, Nelson Cruz, followed Frank in their car as Frank left a nightclub. As Frank drove home, Mustelier emptied a 30-round clip from his machine gun into Frank's car, then sped away. Frank somehow managed to escape the attack with only a gunshot wound to his arm. Mustelier and his crew weren't done. Mustelier and several other men planned to use a bomb to blow Frank up. On August 17, 1990, Cruz and two other men went to Frank's mother's house and put a bomb under Frank's car. When Frank and his family got into the car, the bombers detonated the device. Once again the attack failed. Frank and several members of his family suffered serious injuries but fortunately none died from the blast. Eventually, most of the group was arrested but Mustelier managed to slip away. Mustelier resurfaced in 1996 when he pulled off one of the largest bank heists in south Florida. Mustelier put together a crew of criminals and was able to get safety deposit box keys made for the Sun Trust Bank. On November 18, 1996, two men went into the bank and got away with approximately 8,000 pieces of jewelry valued at between $5 million and $7 million from three different safety deposit boxes. The men gave the money to Mustelier, who disappeared. Authorities believe Mustelier fled to Venezuela shortly after the robbery, but may currently be back in Florida. Mustelier has used numerous aliases including Emilio Suarez, Barrero Musteler, Anibal Musieler, Ramon Llercna, and Anivan Mutelier. He has a small scar on his neck, wears contact lenses or glasses, and is known to keep in shape and work out at gyms. He may be taking ballroom dance lessons or hanging out in dance clubs. There are rumors that he has ties to Castro as a hitman. Mustelier is 51, 5'4" and 135 pounds. (See Show #664, OAD 2/9/02)

Unknown O.C. Smith Attacker (Attempted Murder) – On June 1, 2002, Dr. O.C.

Smith, the Shelby County Medical Examiner, was attacked. Smith left his office shortly after 10:00pm. As Smith exited the building, a man ambushed him, throwing some kind of chemical in his face, which burned Smith's skin and temporarily blinded him. Dr. Smith was beathen and thrown down a nearby stairwell. The attacker then wrapped Dr. Smith in barbed wire and chained him to a window gate. Before the attacker fled the scene, he placed a bomb on Dr. Smith's chest. Dr. Smith stood motionless for more than two hours before a patrol officer found him. The bomb squad was notified and they were able to safely remove the device. Smith was treated for his injuries and is currently under 24-hour police protection. Three letters threatening Dr. Smith were sent to three different people in Memphis in April 2001. The reason for the threats stems from Dr. Smith's testimony in a clemency hearing for a convicted cop killer, Philip Workman. In March 2002 police discovered a bomb outside Dr. Smith's office. The man who attacked Dr. Smith is the same person who wrote the letters and planted the bomb in March. The suspect has fair skin, is not fat, but has "chunky cheeks", and may have cuts on his arms or body from the barbed wire. He knows how to make homemade explosives. He may be staying in homeless shelters and may change jobs frequently. He may write or use the phrase "JMJ". He may be extremely religious, possibly Catholic, frequently talk about religion and may talk about hearing messages from God. He may refer to the bible passage John 15:13, and may use the phrase "steel in the hand of the king of kings". He may be vocal about abortion.

Unknown (Murder) -- 45-year-old Janette Piro and her 42-year-old husband, Chris Benedetto, were native New Yorkers. He was a carpenter and she was an interior decorator. In 1989, Chris was hurt on the job and six years later was awarded a $2 million worker's compensation settlement. They decided to retire and moved to Singer Island, Florida, north of Palm Beach. With their millions, they bought a new home, a 30-foot boat, expensive fishing rods, a BMW and kept their home stocked with fine wines and good cigars. They lived the good life on the beautiful and ritzy gold coast of Florida. They were very close to their neighbors. On November 11, 1998, when Janette and Chris failed to show up for a birthday party, neighbors became concerned. Three days later Chris' Toyota 4-Runner truck was found in the parking lot of a nearby hotel. The next day concerned neighbors phoned Chris and Janette's family in New York. Chris' two brothers, who are cops in New York, flew to Singer Island on November 18. The next day, they filed a missing persons report on Chris and Janette. They stayed in the couple's home and passed out missing posters all over town. After five days of no sign of the couple, the brothers packed up the house. While unplugging appliances they came across a three foot deep freezer in the garage that Chris used for bait. Inside, they discovered Janette's frozen body. She was killed and stuffed into the freezer. There was still no sign of Chris. Police are unsure if Chris Benedetto is a suspect or another victim. Detectives believe Chris is probably a victim. Missing are 2 to 4 fishing rods and $100,000 worth of jewelry, including Janette's four carat diamond ring appraised at $58,000 and her $12,000 diamond tennis bracelet. Chris' boat was missing its anchor and 10-foot chain. (See Show #522, OAD 12/19/98)

William Bradford Bishop, Jr. (Murder) -- Bishop is wanted on five separate counts of murder in connection with the bludgeoning deaths of five members of his family at their home in Bethesda, Maryland. On March 2, 1976, a Forestry Service employee from Tyrrell County, North Carolina responded to the scene of a fire and found the bodies of the Bishop family -- Brad Bishop's wife, mother, and three sons -- buried in a shallow grave. A shovel found at the burial site was traced to a hardware store in Potomac, Maryland and the gas can to a Bethesda, Maryland Sears store. On March 8, 1976 police in Montgomery County investigating the family disappearance found the murder scene. Bishop's fingerprints were matched to those on the gas can. The family's station wagon, used to transport the bodies, was found abandoned near the Elkmont Mountain Campground, just outside Gatlinburg, Tennessee. New information from State Department files indicates that Bishop may have fled with the help of a female accomplice, who may have been on parole from a North Carolina prison. Bishop likes to work out several times per week. He is a strong skier, plays tennis, and is fond of hiking and the outdoors. He is an amateur pilot and enjoys riding motorcycles. He reads extensively and may keep a diary or journal. He is described as intense and self-absorbed, and may be subject to violent outbursts. He may seek psychiatric care for depression or anxiety, and may suffer from insomnia. He likes a neat and orderly environment. He trained as a military intelligence officer, and is well versed in economic analysis and self-hypnosis. He speaks fluent Italian, Serbo-Croatian, Spanish and French. He drinks scotch and wine, and is known to enjoy spicy foods. Bishop is 62, 6'1" and 180 pounds. After AMW aired an age-enhanced bust of Bishop, a viewer gave authorities a prime tip, but didn't leave his or her identity. Authorities want to talk to this person again. Bert Gary Mercer (Murder) -- On May 8, 2002, the body of 54-year-old Sandra Ford Kerley was found in her Bethany, Louisiana mobile home. She was shot to death and was found by her husband. Some items were taken from Kerley's home, though cops haven't released what those items are. On Sunday, May 12, 2002, Bobbi Annette Waggoner, 64, was found stabbed to death in her Bossier City home. Two hours later, Mercer shot and killed his ex-wife Anna Mercer in DeSoto Parish, Louisiana. At this point, Mercer has only been charged with the murder of Anna but he is the only suspect in the other two murders. Anna and Sandra are cousins and Bobbi is a friend of Sandra's. Bert and Bobbi were considered close friends, but those who know them say Bert wanted the relationship to be romantic. Bobbi wasn't interested that way. Mercer, who has thinning hair, is manic-depressive, possibly psychotic, and was on anti-depressants. He was fired as a supervisor at Southwestern Electric Power Company in 1998. Although he has no prior criminal history, authorities consider him armed and dangerous. He was last seen driving a red 2001 Ford F-150 pickup truck with "Sport" written on both sides, Edwin Acevedo Rodriguez (Wanted For Questioning in a Murder Case) – On July 24, 1993 at 5:00am, Carmen Charneco's body was found in her car, a gray 1985 Pontiac Sunbird, parked on the right shoulder of eastbound I-90 in Elgin, Illinois. When she was strangled to death, Carmen was four and a half months pregnant. Carmen's boyfriend of two years, Edwin Acedvedo Rodriguez, disappeared the night of Carmen's death and hasn't been seen since. Carmen had allegedly ended a relationship with him one month before she was murdered. Rodriguez, who has used the aliases and nicknames "Pele", "Phil", "Gus", "El Alguacil", Edwin Acedvedo, and "Pile", has six tattoos: "ML" or "MLD" on his right forearm, an ear with wings on his left calf, non-specific tattoos on his right shoulder, right thigh and left thigh. He is a member of the Maniac Latin Disciples (MLD) gang in Elgin, Illinois, and is generally in the company of gang members and drug dealers. He is a heavy drug and alcohol user himself. He may be dressing as a female with long hair, wearing dreadlocks, or may have his head and eyebrows shaved. He has been sighted in Brooklyn, the Bronx, New York City, and Puerto Rico. Rodriguez is 29, 5'3" and 132 pounds, but could be heavier by now.

The following are the featured fugitives and others being sought by federal, state or local authorities. The Update (if any) gives current status, previous references, or related information.

James "Rick" Johnson (Robbery) – Johnson was the mastermind behind an attempted robbery at Lamco Jewelers in Alameda, California in April 1997. The attempt failed but the owners, Richard and Wanda Cook, were almost beaten to death in the process. Johnson needed his way into the back rooms of a pool hall in San Francisco, making friends with pool hustler and jeweler Richard Cook. When Johnson found out that Cook kept a safe in his store which allegedly had millions of dollars in cash and jewels. Johnson plotted to rob Cook of his money. Johnson recruited a team of six men. Each man had a specific role in the job. Two men scouted out the store. Posing as customers, they visited the store several times checking out security and the Cooks' routine. Two other men were recruited to subdue the Cooks and secure the location. Another man was lookout and the sixth man was recruited to create an accident with the Cooks' only employee so he would not get to work to interrupt the robbery. Planning for the robbery took over a year. Johnson knew Cook would never give up the safe combination, so he created a scheme to take the entire safe. The team of men retrofitted a U-Haul truck with a heavy-duty winch and enough iron to handle the move. When the time was right, the team went into action, equipped with walkie talkies and a police scanner. Each member of the team meticulously did their part. Halfway through the plan something went wrong. The police scanner said there was a disturbance at the location and they were dispatching a car. The team thought they had been had and called off the heist. But they were wrong: the call was for a dispute next door. The team fled and all but Johnson was captured. Johnson's car was found at the San Francisco airport. He is known to have an active passport and connections in Europe. Johnson, who has used the nicknames Rick and Romeo, has a small unknown tattoo on his left shoulder. He is very healthy and body conscious, likes the beach, and is reputedly a ladies' man. He does not do drugs, but has made money importing and selling drugs. He tends to be quiet and introspective, philosophical about life, feels that he doesn't "fit", and has suicidal tendencies. He likes to take risks, and at one time was a high rise window washer. His father left when he was young, and he may be seeking a father figure or older male mentor. Johnson is 33, 6'2" and 170 pounds. (See Show #663, OAD 2/2/02)

Robert William Fisher (Murder, Arson) – On April 10, 2001 at 8:42am, Scottsdale, Arizona police and fire units responded to reports of an explosion and house fire. The bodies found in the rubble were 38-year-old Mary Fisher, her 12-year-old daughter Brittney, and her 10-year-old son Bobby. The family members had been murdered before the fire destroyed their home. Wife Mary had been shot in the back of the head and her throat slashed. The children's necks were also cut. The father of the house, Robert Fisher, was nowhere to be found. Ten days later, police found his vehicle and dog in the Tonto National Forest. An extensive search of the area turned up no signs of Robert Fisher. Police believe he hid out for the first few days after the murders, then left the area to start over in another community. Fisher may have a light scar on his back where he had surgery years ago, and walks with his back very straight and his chest pushed out because of his lower back injury. He is an avid hunter, fisherman and outdoorsman, and enjoys talking about these sports. He chews Copenhagen tobacco, and may be in the company of an unidentified female. Authorities believe he is armed with several weapons including shotguns, handguns, and possibly a .357 Magnum revolver. Fisher is 40, 6'3" and 190 pounds. Kmart Bandits (Armed Robbery) – On May 27, 2002 at 9:30pm two masked gunmen walked into the Kmart on Mariposa Road, attacking a store manager, then jumping over the counter and grabbing cash. Seconds later, just after the robbers walked out, a woman and a little girl walked in. The clerk went to the door to see which way the men went running. Suddenly, the gunmen started shooting. The clerk ran back inside and scooped up a young child, getting her out of harm's way. Police are still searching for the gunmen.

Victor Garduno Garcia (Homicide) – Victor Garcia had celebrated the birth of his child on the morning of September 21, 2001. Later that afternoon, while his wife was recovering in the hospital, Garcia went partying with some friends. They showed up at Fairview Regional Park at a bluffs area near the Pacific Ocean at Costa Mesa, California. Garcia and his two male friends met up with 15-year-old Ceceline Godsoe and her male friend, 19-year-old Evan Christianson. The group began socializing and after a while, Ceceline went off with Garcia. She never returned. A couple of hours later, Christiansen went looking for his teenaged friend and found her bludgeoned to death in a forest. She was beaten so badly that she drowned in her own blood. Police have surveillance tape of Garcia buying beer that evening in a convenience store. They also have video of Garcia holding his newborn daughter that morning in the hospital. They are hoping that these tapes will jog the memory of any witnesses who may have come in contact with Garcia that day. Garcia, who has often made fun of for his rather large head, goes by the nickname "Pumpkinhead". His dark hair is colored with blond tips. His last job was at the Jiffy Lube in Costa Mesa. Garcia is 28, 5'8" and 195 pounds.

Adrian Mendoza Contreras (Murder, Assault and Battery) – On September 16, 2000 at Sambo's, a local nightclub in Horry County, South Carolina, Alfonso Fuentes and Adrian Mendoza Contreras became involved in a verbal and physical confrontation outside the nightclub over who was the better dancer. Contreras and Jose T. Tostado left the club shortly afterwards in a red Nissan pickup truck which is registered to Tostado. They returned 20 minutes later in a black Ford Mustang with Tostado driving and Contreras in the passenger seat. They pulled up in front of the club and Contreras fired approximately 12 shots with a .22 caliber rifle at Alfonso Fuentes and into the club. Fuentes was struck three times and died as a result of a gunshot wound to the head. Julio Perez, a bystander, was inside the club dancing and was hit in the leg with a bullet. Five .22 caliber shell casings were recovered from the parking lot of the club. On September 18, 2000 the Ford Mustang was recovered at Contreras' brother's home. The brother, Jose Mendoz Contreras, told police that his brother told him that he shot a man. Seven .22 caliber shell casings and one live .22 caliber round of ammunition were recovered from the car. A .22 caliber Marlin rifle, a box of 53 CCI .22 caliber rounds and the clothing that witnesses described Contreras as wearing the night of the incident were also recovered. On September 27, 2000 Tostado's red Nissan pickup truck was recovered in Marlboro County, South Carolina, which is one hour from the location where the incident occurred. It was abandoned in a field. Contreras' girlfriend, Julia Caulder, lives in Marlboro County. After the incident, Tostado apparently contacted his ex-girlfriend, Julia Ranson, and told her that he was headed to Alabama or Texas and then possibly to Mexico. Contreras has cut his long hair. His face is noticeably pockmarked with acne scars. He may be working in a factory or in construction. Contreras is 23, 5'5"-5'8" and 150-180 pounds.

Unknown Samantha Jaume Killer (Murder) – On July 4th, 25-year-old Samantha Jaume returned home around 5:40pm with her four children after a shopping trip. The kids were in the house when she went down to her car to get more bags. She was in the passenger side of her Ford Expedition when an unknown black male grabbed her by the neck, put a gun to her temple, and demanded the keys to the SUV. The keys to the vehicle were in the house. Samantha's 7-year-old son heard his mother asking for help, ran to warn his 9-year-old sister, then ran to another room and called 911. The suspect took Samantha back into the house to look for the keys. The 9-year-old daughter grabbed a kitchen knife and confronted the suspect; she then grabbed her 4-year-old sister and hid in a closet. Another child, a 2-year-old girl, remained in the room with her mother and the suspect. When Samantha was unable to produce the keys, the suspect shot her in the head, then went in search of the children. Although the suspect grabbed the phone from the boy and hung up, he called 911 back when the suspect left the room. A police officer responding to the call was able to rescue the baby, then the two older girls escaped the house. Another officer helped the boy escape through a window, but the suspect had disappeared. The suspect may have a birthmark on his left calf and may have a large mole on the corner of his mouth. His hair may be in short braids and he may have facial hair. He may have been wearing an earring and may have gold teeth. The suspect is in his late teens to early 20's and 5'7"-6'0". MISSING:

Elizabeth Smart

Age: 14

Height: 5'6"

Weight: 105 pounds

On Wednesday, June 5, 2002, Elizabeth Smart was abducted at gunpoint from her Federal Heights home. At about 1:00am a man cut the screen and crawled through the kitchen window. He then went to the bedroom shared by Elizabeth and her 9-year-old sister. He took Elizabeth out of the house at gunpoint after he allowed her to grab her shoes. He threatened to harm the 9-year-old sister if she told the police what happened. Two hours after the abduction, Elizabeth's sister told her parents what had happened. There is no evidence of a vehicle, and it appears they left on foot. Police are looking for a male believed to be in his 30's. He is about 5'8" with a medium build. The suspect has dark hair and was seen wearing a tan or white jacket with a white cap. The police have extended their search beyond Utah to Idaho and Wyoming. CAPTURED:

Bert Gary Mercer (Murder) – On May 8, 2002, the body of 54-year-old Sandra Ford Kerley was found in her Bethany, Louisiana mobile home. She was shot to death and was found by her husband. Some items were taken from Kerley's home, though cops haven't released what those items are. On Sunday, May 12, 2002, Bobbi Annette Waggoner, 64, was found stabbed to death in her bossier city home. Two hours later, Mercer shot and killed his ex-wife Anna Mercer in DeSoto Parish, Louisiana. At this point, Mercer has only been charged with the murder of Anna but he is the only suspect in the other two murders. Anna and Sandra are cousins and Bobbi is a friend of Sandra's. Bert and Bobbi were considered close friends, but those who know them say Bert wanted the relationship to be romantic. Bobbi wasn't interested that way. Following last week's broadcast, Mercer turned himself in, confessing to all three murders. (See Shows #676 and #681, OADs 5/18/02 and 6/22/02)
