Wells Fargo Bank Robbery

(Henrehan pkg.)

It was a baffling and frustrating delay for motorists on Interstate 270 in Montgomery County, Maryland. Both sides of the highway were roadblocked by police vehicles.The Wells Fargo bank, at the busy King Farm shopping center in Gaithersburg, had been hit by two stickup men at 10:02 a.m. They got away with an undisclosed amount of cash, and perhaps a radio transmitter stuffed amid the money. County police will say only they "got information from the bank" that the suspects were on the interstate highway. All traffic was stopped - in both directions -- on I-270. County, State, and a Sheriff's Department officer, with weapons drawn, (because the bank robbers were known to be armed) hastily looked-over most of the stopped cars.

Jefferson Davis Hwy Homicide

(Henrehan pkg.)

The shootings that took place in this Latino grocery and jewelry store, on Friday night February 21st were mysterious to the point of weirdness. Just before 9:00 p.m., three men (dressed in dark clothing) came into the store, and within seconds, opened fire on two female clerks, then they left immediately. 21-year-old Glenda Marisol Coca-Romero was killed. A 43-year-old woman, her roommate, was seriously wounded. Investigators have now revealed that surviving witnesses have told them the assailants did say something upon entry, but whatever they said was not understood by anyone in the store. The whole incident lasted nine seconds. The murdered woman is survived by her ten month old daughter Brittni, and by her Salvadoran father, who, through a police translator, talked about his late daughter.

March Storm

(Miller pkg.)

THE CALENDAR MAY SAY IT'S SPRING, BUT AS WE'VE SEEN THIS WEEK, WINTER-LIKE WEATHER HASN'T QUITE GONE AWAY JUST YET. AND, THESE SPRING STORMS ARE CREATING DANGEROUS CONDITIONS FURTHER NORTH. CAPE COD, A SUMMER VACATION DESTINATION FOR THOUSANDS. THANKS TO A SPRING STORM... TODAY IT LOOKS VERY DIFFERENT FROM THE WAY MANY VACATIONERS MIGHT REMEMBER IT. THERE ARE HIGH WINDS GUSTS -- SOME AROUND 70 MILES PER HOUR -- CLOSE TO HURRICANE FORCE WINDS. AND ALSO A GREAT DEAL OF SNOW. UP TO ONE FOOT OF SNOW IS EXPECTED IN PARTS OF CAPE COD BY THE TIME THIS STORM IS OVER. FERRY SERVICE TO SOME OF THE OUTER ISLAND HAS TEMPORALLY BEEN SUSPENDED. AND AS OF NOW, THERE ARE ABOUT 2,000 OR SO PEOPLE WHO ARE WITHOUT POWER. POWER LINES DOWN IN GREAT RESPECT BECAUSE OF THESE VERY HIGH WINDS. NEVER THE LESS SPRING STILL ON THE MIND SET OF MANY. OFF IN THE DISTANCE TAKE A LOOK OVER MY SHOULDER -- AND YOU CAN SEE SOME OF THE BOATS SHRINK WRAPPED -- READY TO BE PUT IN THE WATER WHEN THE SEASON BEGINS. AND LASTLY, THERE IS SOME GOOD NEWS BY THE END OF THIS WEEK. TEMPERATURES EXPECTED TO HIT THE 50 DEGREE MARK.
