This Saturday, April 21, 2012, AMERICA'S MOST WANTED will be airing the following cases from London in a TWO-HOUR WORLD'S MOST WANTED EDITION on FOX.

In a special two-hour broadcast from London, John Walsh and the AMW team traverse the globe to round up the "World's Most Wanted." The show features some of the most nefarious international fugitives including Samantha Lewthwaite, wife of one of the London Subway suicide bombers who is wanted herself on charges of terrorism; a career criminal whose lust for flashy cars steers him into the fast lane to murder; and a crew of international thieves suspected of stealing hundreds of millions of dollars worth of jewels in a string of brazen heists caught on tape.

SAMANTHA LEWTHWAITE – Kenya / International: Dubbed the "White Widow" when it was discovered her husband was one of the 7/7 London Subway bombers, young mother Samantha Lewthwaite claimed she had no knowledge of her husband's ties to terrorism. Investigators cleared her of any connection to the bombings and she slipped out of the public eye—until 2011, when members of a foiled terrorist plot in Kenya named Lewthwaite as their cell financier and bomb-making instructor. Authorities now question if Lewthwaite was really innocent of any connection to the 7/7 bombings as those who know the young woman back home wonder how this ordinary British girl became the most wanted alleged female terrorist in the world.

NALIO WILLIAMS – West Park, FL: Raimundo "Ray" Modia Jr. was a modest family man who turned people's fantasies into reality through his luxury car rental business in glitzy Fort Lauderdale. Many of Ray's clients were celebrities and professional athletes, yet dire financial straits drove him to make a desperate sale—an encounter with a mysterious buyer who would take his life three days before Christmas 2011. Now, authorities are on the search for his alleged killer, Nalio Williams.

MARJAN RROKU CAPTURE – Albania / International: When two teenage sisters met Marjan Rroku at a Bible study group in Tirana, Albania, they thought he was a great guy. But his obsession over 15-year-old Alda would turn him from stalker into killer when he eventually shot and killed her and her mother. Older sister Ornella fled for her safety to the U.S. but a sick twist of fate brought her face-to-face with her sister's killer years later on a Washington D.C. Metro train. AMW aired three different segments on Rroku and viewers' tips kept pointing law enforcement to New York City. The international manhunt for Rroku finally ended on Sept. 9, 2010, in Queens, N.Y.

LUAN KASTRATI – Yonkers, NY: A case of mistaken identity leads to tragedy when an innocent man is viciously stabbed and nearly killed, his alleged attacker an enraged husband who took the law into his own hands in an act of vengeance.

WILLIAM HUNT – Washington, DC: Metropolitan police say apartment manager William Hunt flew into a rage when a tenant's noise level became too loud, taking extreme measures to quiet the racket. The tenant's body was discovered in his home hours after the altercation and now Hunt is on the run wanted for murder.

GUO WEI WU – Ontario, Canada: Local authorities and Canadian border patrol are on the lookout for a man wanted in connection with a violent double kidnapping that left one of the abductees dead. Multiple suspects have already been arrested but police say the mastermind Guo Wei Wu remains at large.

JUAN MAYORGA– Meriden, CT: Connecticut minister, Juan Mayorga, is on the run after he learns of charges against him for an alleged sexual assault against a young girl. Police believe he could be Nicaragua.

NAZIRA CROSS– Chilcoot, CA: Mike Cross believed he had found the love of his life when he met a woman named Nazira Ugalde during a trip to Costa Rica. Within weeks the two were married and for years seemed to have a blissful life together. But the fairytale came to an end when Mike discovered his wife had embezzled tens of thousands of dollars from him. Mike divorced Nazira but authorities say she still had a more sinister plot to hatch.

CHICAGO TRIBUNE INVESTIGATION FEATURE: When veteran Chicago Tribune reporters David Jackson and Gary Marx investigated the facts into the flight of violent fugitives across the U.S. border and the extradition process to bring them back, they were outraged by what they found. They channeled their frustration into a front-page series in the Tribune that followed their journeys into Mexico to track down dangerous fugitives, many of whom they have been successful in locating. Their reporting has been turning heads, including that of Senator Dick Durbin of Illinois who has introduced legislation to eliminate flaws from a porous extradition system. Also, David and Gary need the public's help to find two alleged killers hiding out in Mexico:

- RAUL TOLENTINO– Chicago, IL: In 2000, nursing student Alma Chavez was 19 years old when she was murdered. Police say her ex-boyfriend, Raul Tolentino, is the killer and fled to Mexico. David and Gary tracked him to Maravatio but that's where the trail has gone cold.
- JORGE CORONEL– Chicago, IL: Authorities continue their search in Mexico for Jorge Coronel, a man who, they say, brutally beat and strangled his wife to death and then placed her body in a plastic bag hidden inside a closet.

MONTREAL BIKER FEATURE: During the 1990s, five chapters of the Hell's Angels motorcycle gang ran rampant with their drug trade in Quebec, Canada, igniting a biker war with rival gangs that lasted more than a decade and claimed more than 150 lives. Many of these ruthless thugs have been brought to justice, but Canadian authorities are on the pursuit of these especially dangerous fugitives:

- DAVID CARROLL– Canada: A member of the Nomads, an elite chapter of the Hell's Angels motorcycle gang, David Carroll has been wanted for more than a decade on a slew of charges, including murder. In 2001, Canadian authorities shut down the Nomads' lucrative operation that netted the treacherous gang more than 100 million dollars worth of cocaine and other drugs in just one year.
- CLAUDE GAUTHIER– Canada: A member of the Trios-Rivieres Chapter of the Hell's Angels, Claude Gauthier is one of Surete du Quebec's Top 10 Most Wanted Fugitives, at large on murder charges.
- FREDERIC LANDRY-HETU– Canada: Frederic Landry-Hetu is a member of the South Chapter of the Hell's Angels and was targeted in the SharQc Operation -- launched by Canadian authorities -- but eluded arrest and has been at large ever since. He is considered extremely dangerous and is wanted on charges for murder, gangsterism, drug trafficking and conspiracy to commit drug trafficking.

INTERNATIONAL PINK PANTHER GANG – International: Named after The Pink Panther series of crime comedy films, it is suspected this international gang has over 200 members worldwide, with strong ties to former Yugoslavia. INTERPOL says the Pink Panthers are responsible for scores of "white glove" heists from London to Tokyo, lifting over $300 million worth of jewels.

FFX Virtual High School

(Henrehan pkg.)

OPINIONS AMONG STUDENTS, AS YOU'LL SEE, IS MIXED.

SOME SAY A COMPLETELY ONLINE HIGH SCHOOL WOULD BE MORE EFFICIENT.

OTHERS, THINK THERE'S MORE TO HIGH SCHOOL THAN CLASSES AND TESTS -- THERE'S SOCIALIZING AND FRIENDSHIPS.

THE SCHOOL BOARD IN FAIRFAX COUNTY IS SERIOUSLY CONSIDERING ESTABLISHING A "VIRTUAL HIGH SCHOOL."

PG Co Roof Collapse

An international document storage company called RECALL operates a huge storage facility just outside of Cheverly, Md., in which paper documents are stored in boxes placed on very tall shelving. Witnesses have told rescue personnel, around 10:00 Thursday night, there was a mishap with a forklift. As the roof supports were knocked aside by the toppling shelving, huge sections of the roof started sagging or falling into the building. The company has an evacuation lan, and a spokesman says about a dozen employees did get out safely, but one worker remains unaccounted for. Rescue personnel from Prince George's County, including the fire department's collapse team and canine search, team worked throughout the night in an effort to locate the missing man. But around dawn, the continued buckling of walls and shifting of debris changed the situation.
