Reporter

WXIN/WTTV is looking for a dynamic, experienced reporter to join our team. Weâ€™re seeking someone who can quickly become immersed in the community to develop and maintain a story source network.

Responsible for the accurate reporting of news stories. Submits ideas for news reports, covers news stories assigned by management, reports live-from-the-scene breaking news and will often be asked to report on non-breaking informational subject matter for sweeps or other Fox programming. Must be able to describe events happening during live broadcasts, integrating factual information in a compelling story telling style where by ad-libbing live during feature segments with a strong ability to interact with anchors in studio. Works with the photographer in the videotaping and editing of a story. Keeps the Executive Producer (or line producer and/or assignment desk) updated on stories. Will file stories to all platforms-on-air, online and mobile. Develops community contacts and a network of news sources. May serve as a fill-in anchor as needed.

This role requires solid journalism skills and a strong knowledge of national and international events, as well as keeping up on all local stories. Must be able to deal effectively with people, manage multiple projects simultaneously, and work accurately and efficiently under pressure. Candidate must demonstrate proficiency with live news technology, creative production techniques, and newsroom computers. Must have a minimum of 2 years of television news experience, and be a strong, creative live reporter with excellent writing and storytelling skills. College degree required, with preferred major in journalism.
